

Cross Cut Cursors.

School opened up auspiciously two weeks ago. Considering the time of year a very good attendance is being had. Prof. Carroll is principal, and Misses Dallas Dickey of Blanket and Miss Mae Butler of Bangs are assistants. This is the same faculty we had last year. Let everybody pull together on the school question.

R. W. Pentacost made a trip to Brownwood last week.

Andy Hudson has bought a bunch of steers from Mrs. Williams at private prices.

The gin here has had to close down on account of bursting of press. Fortunately cotton was about gathered before this misfortune happened.

Tom Davis and Tommy Greenwood were in the Terminal city Monday playing tennis. They think they will soon be able to clean up Cross Plains in a meet.

Geo. Jones who lives above us in the edge of the sand was in your town Saturday.

Prof. Carroll, Tommy Greenwood, Tom Davis, Dave Clark, Uncle Sam Eddington, Aunt Margaret Eddington, J. P. Triplett, and others were among the Plains visitors last of last week.

Prof. Carroll and wife made a trip to Bob Lee's last Friday.

The patrons of the local telephone exchange are very sorry to learn of the discontinuance of the same. Jeff and Dave Clark who have run the business here for a long time, have decided to quite the business. We hope that some one will see fit to take it up again, as it is a great convenience.

We are very sorry to lose Jeff Clark and wife who have only lately moved to the Plains, where they are working with B. L. Boydston.

The many friends of Stanley Gray are glad to see him back at his old home. Stanley belongs to the Pittsburg National League, and has made good in every respect. We predict that he will soon be a star pitcher for Pittsburg.

Rusticus.

Liberty Locals

Well, Mr. Editor, here comes Liberty with a small bit of news. We have been so busy this week we didn't have time to gather much news.

Henry Childs has shipped his bunch of mules to Abbott, Hill county, Texas, to be used on the Dallas-Waxahche Interurban. His son Charley and young Wren went with them.

Everything seems to be moving along nicely at Liberty now.

Miss Virgie Westerman is spending a pleasant week with home folks this week.

The young folks gathered at C. Westermans last Saturday night and enjoyed some fine music furnished by E. C. Westerman; the social at J. W. Scotts last night was attended by a number of young people who reported a most enjoyable time. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Luther Duke a ten pound boy; mother and baby doing well.

And school begins the 11th inst. With a Mr. Roach of Rising Star as principal and Miss Ella Duke and E. C. Westerman assistants. Let every student be present on the first day if possible and take up the work in earnest and let's have another good school at Liberty and be profited by same.

Success to the Review.

This is in reality "our President" in whom we are well pleased. He it was who so overwhelmingly defeated the Bull Moose and G. O. P. candidates in Tuesday's election. He is Democracy's first representative at the White House since '92. Let the "pealing anthems swell" the paens of victory!

The election over all the nation indicates a "come back" for the principals of Democracy. Wilson and Marshall polling a very flattering vote throughout the North.

From Burkett

As I have let two weeks slip by without being represented in the Review, I will write a few dots, even if they are not news to our people.

School is progressing nicely. Considerable interest being manifested in the society we have going.

A. J. Nations and wife who live down the Bayou were visitors at Cross Tuesday.

We understand that J. B. Laws and family have left our country and going to New Mexico. We are sorry to lose them. They have been living here for a long time. Mr. Laws says he may come back, but he has the fever, and he will have to go cure it.

W. W. Head, Jr., one of Burkett's dashing young society men, sold cotton at Cross Plains Saturday. Also (which is news) he made a trip to Burkett Sunday.

Jim Tabor was a Terminal visitor Saturday. He carried cotton, and got a very good price. They claim that Cross Plains is paying the top prices for the fleecy staple now.

We note that the Review gets to Burkett on Saturday under the new management. That enables all our people to get your paper the week it is published. When it comes in on Monday it is likely that many would not get to read the same until the next Saturday, as many do not come to town only on the last day of the week.

Mr. Jack frost came out for the first in this year Nov. 1, causing the plants to wither away and the farmer to dig the bottom of his pockets for protection.

W. W. Head shipped cotton to Coleman Wednesday his purpose being to beat Cross Plains prices, but he is convinced that he can't do it as he only got eleven cents.

Ove Wooten returned Saturday from three days visit at Coleman.

The Halloween party at Mrs. Maner's Thursday night was enjoyed by all.

Dave Burkett has bought J. B. Laws place.

J. W. Jones has moved to the O. Wooten Lease.

Charlie Burkett entered the Burkett school for the purpose of preparing him self for business course. Cupid is still doing his work at Burkett.

John Ayers of Cottonwood and Miss Effie Adams, of Burkett were married Sunday night at the Baptist church. The wedding was witnessed by many friends and relatives. Ye scribe hopes them a happy life.

Will write more next time.

FOUR ISSUES CONSTITUTE A MONTH

CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS.

Hold up for your town, and you will be proud of the fact that you live in Cross Plains.

Cross Plains is a busy burg any Saturday. You that live at a distance come up some Saturday and see how it feels to be in a live town.

There is not an empty house of any size in Cross Plains, and there are new houses going up all the time too. Ours is steady but sure growth.

Of late it would seem that our town was appropriately named—the Plains part. We allude to the recent high winds—not to prevailing Westerly of Burnt Branch.

Brownwood is to have the Santa Fe shops, which would have been located a few miles east of town but for the untiring efforts their commercial club. Their club gets a juicy plum every once in a while.

Whatever you do don't knock your town. If you don't like it give your room to one who will appreciate it. It is said by some that those things you say in knocking return as a boomerang to harm the hurler.

Rising Star seems confident that the Brownwood North and South railway will soon be built right through their city. This reminds us that an addition to the Star (or to Pioneer) was laid off in about 1906, on the strength of a road to be built from Brownwood, we assisting in the work of surveying the property and then investing in the same. We have since "divested" of it.

W. C. Stripling, big merchant of Ft. Worth, is offering to give 10,000 trees to those in his city who will agree to set them out. Hethat plant a tree confers upon posterity a lasting benefit. Cross Plains has a bountiful supply of native trees that are still thifty. It is to be hoped that every care shall be taken to preserve all that we now have, and that we shall set out many more this winter. Let's make this a city beautiful.

If you have anything to sell or are in the market for anything let your wants be known through the columns of the Review. We are not talking to our business men; most of them seem to be aware of the value of printer's ink. We have in mind the man that has a horse or a cow or a wagon to sell or is in the market for such. Several have got results from such advertising of late—you can do the same thing.

According to W. B. Starr, assistant agricultural agent for the Texas and Pacific railway, a bushel of peanuts will produce 12 1/2 pounds of pork, which at the local price of peanuts gives you your pork at 6 cts. per pound. This really allows the farmer more than 75 cts. for his peanuts, as the hogs save the expense of harvesting the nuts, which means at least a ten per cent saving. This will be found a great deal cheaper than the feeding of corn, the old standby for hog raisers. Let some of our farmers try out the peanut project on hogs.

Diversification is the thing, but you should be careful about what you diversify with. For instance, in our poor opinion, farmers on the prairie are wasting their time with the present system of farming when they plant indian corn. Let them diversify with cotton and grain, both of which are staple crops and reasonably sure of a yield. But they cannot raise corn and peanuts and vegetables with the present rainfall, unless they find a new way to cultivate them. Those who live in the sand will of necessity confine their diversification to the crops adapted to their soil, such as vegetables, fruits, peanuts, cotton, etc. This country as a whole is better adapted to a great diversity of products than nearly any we know of. With good judicious farming it can be made a veritable garden spot.

Hints To Business Builders.

An unsettled mind like an unsettled debt is a great calamity. In City Building good followers are as necessary good leaders. Definite details are absolutely necessary to the success of any plan or action.

Diversification of thoughts is as necessary to the growth of a city as diversification of crops to the success of farming. A feeling of good will between the city man and farmer will promote prosperity and assure the intending immigrant of a hearty welcome within your midst.

A good display of farm products will do more to promote the resource of your community and give an impetus to the back-to-the-farm movement than other medium. Halfway measures will never do in town development. You must settle on a practical plan and follow it to the end, if you desire the support and co-operation of the citizens.

The success of extensive farming depends upon marketing facilities and the town which offers the best inducements along this line will surely receive the greatest volume of country business. The marvelous growth of the larger cities in Texas should remind the smaller towns that very little can be accomplished in the way of increased population without adequate transportation facilities, for you will find few commercial centers that are not located on several railroad or interurban lines.

San Angelo.—Twelve silos have been erected in Tom Green county this year, six are under course of construction and forty more will be built this year.

Be Happy!

Happy the girl, or woman, who has never suffered from any of the diseases of womanhood! Or, if she has been a sufferer, happy is she if she has learned of the wonderful benefits of Cardui, the woman's tonic!

Cardui is a gentle, tonic remedy, for women's ailments. It is a natural medicine—safe, harmless, purely vegetable. It has been in successful use for more than 50 years. It has cured thousands. It should do the same for you.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Mary Neely, of Denver, Tenn., says, "I think there is no tonic on earth, as good as Cardui. I used it with the very best results. I had backache and nearly everything a woman could suffer with, until I took Cardui. Now, I feel better than I have for two years. I shall always recommend Cardui to other suffering women. I can't praise it too highly. As a medicine for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui is safe and reliable. Try it, today.

Scientific Farming.

In the farmer's co operative demonstration work is laid upon more thorough preparation of the soil in the autumn, because in our southern climate the soils do not freeze sufficiently to open them and admit air; we must, therefore, do by plowing in the fall, and by some winter cultivation what nature does in the colder north.

In the richest soil there is but little food ready prepared for the plant, and nature's plan is that this food shall be prepared more or less daily by the aid of the air, the moisture in the soil, and the sun and the germ action.

These four active forces cruse the food to be prepared so that the plant can be properly nourished. This cannot be done without plowing and cultivating to admit the air, and the earlier this work is commenced in the fall the effect it will have upon the crop the following season.

The effect of using good seed is not sufficiently appreciated nor perhaps is it understood just what makes good seed. It must be the very best variety, carefully selected early in the fall and stored in a dry place.

Young plants require excellent cultivation just as young animals require the best food and care.

Emphasis placed on the use of winter cover of oats, barley, rye vetch or crimson clover as may be best suited to local conditions and climate. Keeping the soil constantly occupied in the production of something valuable for food or fertilizer is better than to allow it to leach or sun-bake.

The most important factor relating to the permanent fertility of the soil is the abundant and judicious use of all the animal and vegetable matter that may be found on the farm, such as barn yard manure, leaf mould and green crops. For soil-building we must depend largely on barn yard manure, the compost heap and leguminous plants, such as cowpeas, soy beans and the clovers.

The foregoing is an extract from circular number 69, U. S. Department of Agriculture, presented by F. A. Peel, demonstration agent for Taylor county.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Hogs and Peanuts

Dallas, Texas, Oct. — W. B. Starr, assistant agricultural agent of the Texas and Pacific Railway Company, headquarters at Longview, in discussing the care and feeding of his stock with a representative of the Texas Commercial Secretaries and Business Men's Association, said: "I have now ready for market, 182 head of hogs that will average 180 pounds each. These hogs were raised on peanut and milo maize which I find will produce 12 pounds of fat to the bushel, at the rate of a pound to a pound and a half day. I believe that I have doubled my money on my stock, for the use of peanut and milo maize has minimized the cost of feeding far below the cost of corn. Peanuts are now selling at 72 cents per bushel on the market, but by feeding them to the hog, the price per bushel would be $1.00, providing the hog sells for 8 cents, and even at 9 cents for the hog, your peanuts, as a food, are worth 75 cents per bushel, and besides you are spared the cost and trouble of harvesting and marketing the crop which will amount to at least ten cent. Therefore, I find it cheaper and more profitable to let the hogs run at large on the peanut and milo maize fields, than to harvest the crops. I once believed that hogs could not be raised successfully without corn, but that theory has been disbelled by experimenting with peanuts and milo maize, two crops that abound extensively in my section of the country and are as good fat producers as corn and the cost per bushel is far less."

Ballinger. —The Business League of this city has raised a fund of $1,000 for the purpose of surveying the $1,000,000 irrigation project that is on foot here.

Cleburne. —The peanut factory here is paying 82 cents per bushel for the goobers and can't get all it needs. Johnson County farmers however are awaking to the value of peanut as a profitable crop.
