

THREE STORY PEANUT FACTORY AT DELEON

B. T. Higginbotham of DeLeon was in town last week. Mr. Higginbotham is one of the promoters of the DeLeon peanut factory, and he informs the Review that they have one of the most complete factories to be found in the State, having the very latest machinery and housed in a three story plant. They are prepared to manufacture all the by-products from the peanut. They have storage capacity sufficient for all needs, and ample capital behind the enterprise.

A double wedding took place in Cross Plains Sunday. Oscar Smith, son of Hugh Smith, and Miss Lamar Eldridge, daughter of S. C. Eldridge, were united in marriage by Rev. Davis. Just after their marriage ceremony was consummated Oscar Peterson and Miss Vera McCloud, both of whom live north of town, were pronounced man and wife, Rev. Davis officiating again. Both couples remained in their buggies while the ceremony was being performed. The Review wishes them a pleasant, useful married life.

Saturday 17 of Callahan County's citizens stood examination for rural carrier at Cross Plains. Several teachers were among the number, three coming from Clyde. This is evidence that Uncle Sam is becoming popular as an employer. The new route will begin the first of November, as is well known, extending from here to Dressy; thence to Burkett; thence to Cross Cut; and thence back to Cross Plains.

Mose Baum, the present carrier for Route No. 1., will be re-assigned Route No. 2, Nov. 1. The successful competitor in the examination Saturday will be assigned to fill the vacancy of Route No. 1.

THE SINGING CONVENTION SUNDAY.

The United Singers Association of Callahan County met with the Cross Plains class last Sunday. A large number of visitors attended and all seemed to have enjoyed the day. Sunday afternoon standing room at the Presbyterian church, where the convention was held, was at a premium. Several solos and quartets were rendered to the enjoyment of all. The President not being present Ches Baum was called to the presiding chair.

Among the visitors the Review has been able to obtain the names for the following. Willie Wood of Denton, Jim Head, formerly of the Star, Misses Robinson and Smart of Admiral, Mr. Purvis and wife, the Misses Stephens, and Mr. McCann of Atwell, Mr. Evans, Miss Etta Furgeson, Mrs. Dr. Griffin, Miss Bernice Kenady, Paul Kamsy and wife, of Cottonwood, Miss Zelma Harwell, Emmett Harris and wife, Eugene Wesley. of Burkett

Wednesday night the home of Frank Bennett in the south West part of town was burned down. The fire was discovered a little after dark, but too late to be extinguished. All the furniture was saved. The house was a good one, having nine rooms. It was covered by insurance.

Mrs. Bennett suffered an attack of heart trouble brought on by the exertion and excitement incident to the fire. Medical aid soon restored to her normal condition.

Prof. Carroll returned from the Teachers Institute the last part of the week. He reports a nice time and pleasant work there.

Judge Davis and Dave Clark made a trip to the Plains Sunday. Rusticus understands that they made this trip from force of habit, but claim that they attended the singing convention there.

Bob Gains was a Sunday visitor at the terminal. Bob worked for Carter & Kenady at that place Saturday.

Among those who went to Brownwood to the show last week were: Jeff and Dave Clark, Porter Davis, J. E. Harrell, the Barnett boys, Bob and Ben Gains. They all took in all the shows—side shows and all, fed the elephant peanuts, and gazed in wonder at the feats performed by the actors.

Our farmers are getting through with their cotton—let her go. Perhaps the children can get out of the field in time for beginning of school.

Mrs. John Mann has been quite ill from a bad risen on her face, with a complication of tonsillitis.

Uncle Sam Eddington, Prof. Carroll, T. A. Davis, Jeff and Dave Clark, Gus Gafford, Ben Gunn, and Ben Gains were among the Saturday visitors at the Plains.

Dr. Rumph made a professional call at the home of John Mann Sunday.

Rusticus would urge our farmers to take note of the fact that it is time to plow deep. That's the way to fight light rainfall. Plow deep and keep and conserve all the moisture that falls.

D. H. Scott and Miss Jettie Fossett were married in the town of Cross Plains Wednesday, about dusk, by Rev. Davis. The contracting parties live some several miles south east of town.

NEW RESIDENCE

The Review is authorized to state that Cross Plains is soon to have another building. Roy Bond will build a five room house on 8th Street, just across the street north from the A. G. Foster house.

This will be a nice cottage. Mr. Bond has rented his fine home in north part of town to C. E. Alvis, who will leave the T. C. Thorn residence, in the south part of town.

Mr. Thorn is contemplating moving to town himself to take advantage of the school.

THE CROSS PLAINS REVIEW

Review Printing Company

One Dollar a Year. Strictly Cash in advance.

Entered at postoffice at Cross Plains, Texas as second class mail matter.

FOUR ISSUES CONSTITUTE A MONTH

CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS.

These autumn days remind us that the 'possum and 'simmon are getting ripe in old East Texas.

Banks all over the State show large deposits, which speaks volumes for our State's prosperity.

The Review is well pleased with the way subscriptions are coming in. However, we have no reason to complain of the rush, as yet.

As some evidence that crops are not the poorest in the world, it may be cited that there is a general complaint on account of shortage of cars.

In spite of this being election year, business continues to be good. There's really no use of business depression quadrennially on account of political flurry, anyway.

You want to vote for the man for President who stands for "will" in Wilson, and for the man for Vice President who stands for "shall" in Marshall. They represent our side of the question.

These cool nights are fine for reading some good story sitting up by the old fire place at home.—They also have a peculiar way of endearing one to his bed, making him loath to hear the summons to rise in the morning.

The Review is read by some people who do not subscribe for it. You could help us and perhaps put your neighbor to less inconvenience by subscribing direct. We wish to acknowledge cash from one of our readers who said that it was very easy for him to read our paper without subscribing.

The Brown county exhibit at the Dallas Fair is attracting some attention. D. F. Johnson, in charge of the exhibit, is boosting peanuts. It seems that they have put one by Callahan county on the peanut proposition. Old Brown can't get ahead of us on peanuts, although it seems that she did go us one on the exhibit.

Some one of our esteemed East Texas exchanges advises the citizens of that territory to try pigs and peanuts, which lead to "hogs and hominy," as an antidote for the high cost of living. The Review thinks this to be pretty good advice, and peculiarly fit to be taken in this section. Let's try it.

An urgent call has been sent out by the Democratic Executive Committee for funds to continue the campaign with. The Review suggests that you might make a contribution if so inclined, but that you had better be careful about the amount for you might subject yourself to a congressional investigation for campaign contributions.

Had you ever thought of Cross Plains as a suitable location for a peanut factory? There will be thousands of bushels of peanuts raised in this immediate territory, this year, and many more raised in adjacent territory that will or could very easily be marketed here. We need capital to put on foot such enterprises.

The teachers of Eastland county are strongly endorsing Woodrow Wilson for President. Prof. Wilson, and he is entitled to that title, from his many years in the teaching profession, is strictly a teachers candidate.

If there is anything in spending ones life in study, Gov. Wilson is eminently fitted to solve the hard questions of statesmanship. It is a question in our minds whether any one can solve some of these problems. We have tried politicians, practical political bosses, rough riders, galore—now let's try a pedagogue.

Save from $2. to $5. on your suit at Davis-Garner & Company's.

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

Take your hides and butter to City Meat Market.

Talpa holds the proud record of being the only town in the counties of Coleman and Runnels that had sufficient courage to pull of a fair in the face of the bad crop year, and if you had seen the exhibits at this place you would never have believed that this has been one of the worst of many seasons. It is all in the courage of the people.—Talpa Post.

A recent communication from Democratic National Committee has the following: A statement issued by Henry Morgenthau, Chairman of the General Finance Committee of the Democratic Party shows that so far the comparatively small amount of $597,750 has been contributed to the Democratic campaign fund. It states, also, that an additional $750,000 will be required to pay the legitimate expenses to the close of the campaign.

So far, according to Mr. Morgenthau's statement, 17,119 individuals have contributed to the campaign fund. The National Committee is ambitious to increase this number to 100,000.

This statement would indicate that the Democratic party is troubled with an unusual complaint that of over-confidence.

There is an universal feeling that is no need of a campaign fund.

It this over-confidence lasts until election day the result will be that thousands and thousands of Democrats will remain away from the polls. Upon you and your fellow editors largely rests the responsibility of arousing enthusiasm and stirring the masses of Democratic voters to contribute and to action on November 5th.

San Antonio Texas:—The following letter is directed by the Good Roads Congress to all good roads advocates in Texas:

You are invited to attend a Good Roads Congress to be held in this city October 25. It will be the biggest gathering of good roads advocates and good roads enthusiasts ever held in Texas and is certain to be productive of excellent results.

We want you to come and bring your friends; You are necessary to the complete success of the meeting.

All delegates to this Good Roads Congress will be entertained by the Harvest Jubilee Association at a barbecue dinner and every man interested in improving the roads of his district and county has the authority to appoint himself and his friends as delegates.

The program for the Good Roads Congress will be the best ever offered in Texas. We will have a number of prominent speakers from all parts of the state and the Good Roads Department maintained by the Federal Government at Washington will send a special representative a man posted on every feature of building, to attend the meeting.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Callahan County—Greeting;

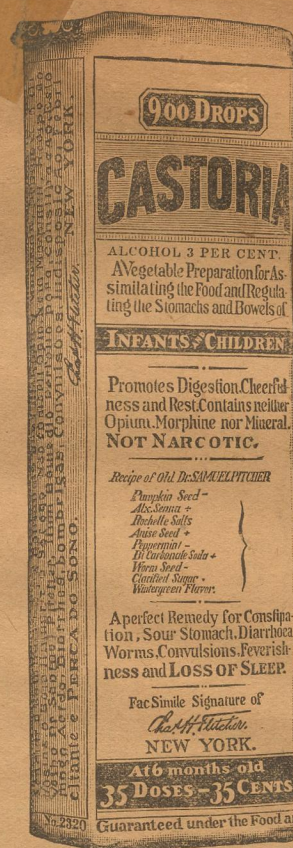

You are hereby commanded to summon T. L. Cagle, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in Callahan County, to appear at the next regular term of the County Court of Callahan County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Baird, on the 1st Monday in December, A. D. 1912, the same being the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1912, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of September, A. D. 1912, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 379, wherein Carter & Kenady, a firm composed of D. P. Carter and C. S. Kenady are plaintiffs, and T. L. Cagle, A. J. Ayers and G. W. McKinney, are defendants, and said petition alleging that on January 10th, 1908, said defendant Cagle made and delivered to plaintiff his promissory note for $225.00, due October 1st, after date, with ten per cent interest after maturity and ten per cent attorney's fees and all necessary costs of collection, if said note is not paid when due, and though often requested, said defendant Cagle has failed to pay said note or any part thereof to plaintiff's damage $500. and about the same time, on to wit, January 11th, 1908, said defendant Cagle made and delivered to plaintiff a mortgage to secure the payment of said note on one Staver buggy and set of harness, one dunn mare 9 years old, one blue horse 5 years old, and all cotton to be planted on and grown by said defendant on the Cagle farm in said county in the year 1908; that said cotton was sown, grown and gathered; that in said mortgage the date of said note is incorrectly stated as the 11th day of January, when the date set out in said note is correct and is the same note referred to in said mortgage; that the aforesaid property is of the reasonable value of four hundred and fifty dollars, plaintiff further allege that A. J. Ayers is in possession of said dunn mare and buggy and that said G. W. McKinney is in possession of said blue horse, both holding said properties under some sort of agreement with defendant Cagle, but subject to his said mortgage.

Wherefore plaintiff's pray for citation in terms of the law, that on final hearing they may have judgment against said Cagle for their debt, interest, attorney's fee and all costs of suit, and a judgment foreclosing said mortgage against all the said parties on said property as aforesaid. That the same may be sold to satisfy said debt, interest, attorneys fees and costs.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Baird this the 25th day of September, A. D. 1912.
