Here's one of my grandmother's favorite poems — like so many worthwhile poems, the author is unknown. The title is "Do It Now".

Do it now!
Do it now!
If it's one you wish were through,
Do it now!
If you're sure the job's your own,
Do it now!
Don't hem and haw and groan,
Do it now!
Don't put off a bit of work,
Do it now!
It doesn't pay to shirk,
Do it now!
If you want to fill a place,
Do it now!
And be useful to the race,
Do it now!
Don't linger by the way,
Do it now!
You'll lose if you delay,
Do it now!
If the other fellows wait,
Do it now!
Or postpone until it's late,
Do it now!
You hit up a faster gait—
Do it now!

Here's an item of Southwestern history. Six men were hanged at one time in Fort Smith, Ark., by one spring-clip of the trap door. All were convicted murderers and were condemned by the famous hanging judge, Judge Parker who presided over Federal Court, which had jurisdiction over Indian Territory, then the hideout of hundreds of criminals.

One of the six was found guilty of the murder of a 19 year old boy — and a pair of boots led to conviction and execution. The father of the slain youth testified that his son and the defendant had left Texas together for Indian Territory and that sometime before the departure, he gave his son a pair of boots. At the same time, the father bought himself a pair exactly like those he gave to the boy. The heel on the son's left boot came off and he put it back on with three horse-shoe nails.

The defendant was wearing in the courtroom a pair of boots just like those that the slain youth's father had on. The left boot was removed from the prisoner's foot and in the heel were three horse-shoe nails.

And so the pair of boots sent the man to the gallows.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ray Cox of Okra attended the Tommy Bain funeral here last Friday.

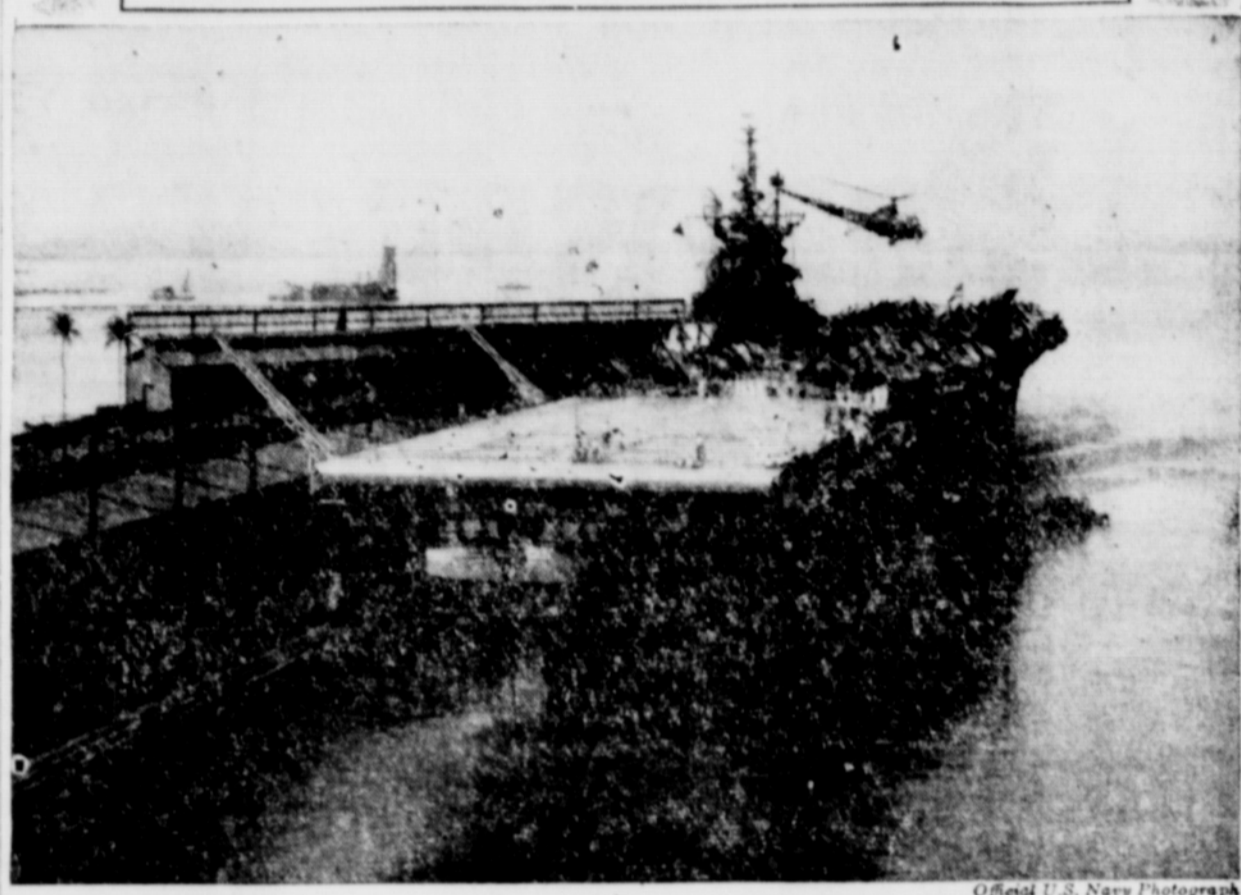

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Tunnell and daughter, Mary Beth, spent Mother's Day in Rising Star with his mother, Mrs. J. N. Tunnell.

Clean Out Accident Hazards
Spring is clean-up time and time to clean out the hazards around the farmstead which might cause injury. With farm labor shortages and continued demands for high food production, the farmer cannot afford to lose the service of farm workers through accidents.

Other than the personal factor of poor judgement, the largest single cause of injuries was disorder, according to a study made by the Council a few years ago. "A place for everything and everything in its place" is a prime safety rule.

Broken steps can be responsible for accidents of serious consequence. Floors should be solid, smooth and in good repair. They should be free from obstructions which would cause inconvenience or falls.

At this season of the year many barns have become cluttered with the accumulation of items used during the winter. Suitable places should be found for locating or storing such items. Avoid storing heavy materials overhead and make sure that forks, scrapers, brooms, and rakes are kept in racks or places where they will not fall and injure people.

A well-arranged and well equipped farm repair shop brings tools and work together in a suitable location and reduces loss and damage. It is a wise precaution to check the handles of hammers and axes to see that they are secure and in good condition. Ample light and a place for keeping tools are important in a good shop.

Proper lighting and suitable receptacles for knives and other sharp kitchen tools are other important safety considerations.

DD Does It
DD — a petroleum by-product shows promise of being a practical means of controlling the nematodes which cause plant root diseases, according to M. N. Thornton, agricultural chemist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

DD apparently is as effective in nematode control as other chemicals for this purpose, including carbon disulfide, methyl bromide mixtures, and tear gas. And the cost is much less than other chemicals, which run from eighty to several hundred dollars an acre.

Trials at the Plant Industry Station of Beltsville, Md., and the Branch Experiment Station, Weslaco, Tex., show that DD is highly effective on the common root-knot nematode when soil conditions are favorable.

The DD liquid is applied in holes driven into the soil or as an emulsion sprinkled on the surface.

Precautions in Using Insecticides
Dust sprays, gases and other insecticides will do much to promote the healthy growth of fruits and vegetables, but they often have just the opposite effect on man, according to Cameron Siddall, entomologist from the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. Even though the container may not bear the skull and crossbones label, caution is necessary since many substances are harmful in some way to man, despite the fact that they may not be definitely poisonous.

Mr. Siddall urged special precautions to avoid inhaling fumes or vapors from fumigants, which, if not poisonous, usually will prove irritating to humans. He put special emphasis on the necessity of proper labeling for all insecticides and safe storage where children cannot reach them. Several precautions that should be taken are:

- 1. Follow the directions of the manufacturer in handling, mixing and applying.
2. Always—spray or dust down-wind.
3. Wear respirators which protect the entire face when there is danger of inhaling fumes. Only those approved by the U. S. Bureau of Mines for the particular job you are doing should be worn.
4. Gloves, long-sleeved shirts and clothing to cover the entire body are recommended.
5. Wash hands and other exposed parts of the body thoroughly with soap and water after using poisonous chemicals.
6. Store poisonous materials in strong leak-proof containers. Be certain that they are out of the reach of children or livestock. Bury the unused portion.
7. Thoroughly wash or strip fruits and vegetables to which poisonous chemicals of a stable nature have been applied.
8. Unknown substances should not be used, nor should substances sold under trade names without complete information as to composition and proportions.

WORD OF THANKS

Words seem terribly inadequate to express the gratitude in our hearts for the innumerable acts of friendliness and many manifestations of sympathy following the sad loss of our little son last Thursday. However, we wish in some measure to acknowledge our deep appreciation for every kindness. Without the strength which your friendship afforded our bereavement would have been unbearable, so to each and everyone of you we acknowledge an unpayable obligation and offer a fervent prayer that the sad experience visited upon our home may be forever spared you and yours.

Memorial poppies to be worn in honor of the dead of both world wars will be distributed on the streets throughout the day by volunteer workers from the Auxiliary and cooperating organizations. Contributions received in exchange for the flowers will be used in relief and rehabilitation work for disabled veterans, their families and families of the dead.

Extensive preparations for Poppy Day are being made by the Legion Auxiliary Unit under the direction of Mrs. Jack Scott, Poppy chairman. Volunteer workers are being organized into teams and assigned to locations in the downtown area. The poppies, made by veterans of both wars, have been ordered. They are crepe paper replicas of the European wild poppy which bloomed on the battlefields of France and Belgium in both wars and which has become a world-wide symbol of remembrance of America's battle dead.

Poppies will be more generally worn this year than ever before, Mrs. DeLusk predicted.

"With peace restored and the men coming home," she said, "every one will want to pay tribute to those who can never come back to us by wearing a poppy in their honor on Poppy Day."

Be Careful! Some Suggestions for Prevention of Tractor Accidents

Hundreds of farmers are seriously injured every year by tractor accidents. We offer the following suggestions in a campaign to reduce such accidents:

- Be sure the gear shift lever is in neutral before cranking the engine.
- Always engage the clutch gently, especially when going up hill or pulling out of a ditch.
- When driving on highways, or to and from fields, be sure that both wheels are braked simultaneously when making an emergency stop.
- Always ride on seat or stand on platform of tractor. Never ride on drawbar of tractor or drawn implement.
- When tractor is hitched to a stump or heavy load, always hitch drawbar and never take up the slack of chain with a jerk.
- Be extra careful when working on hillsides. Watch out for holes or ditches into which a wheel may drop and cause tractor to overturn.
- When going down steep hills or grades, always keep the tractor in gear.
- Always drive tractor at speeds slow enough to insure safety, especially over rough ground or near ditches.
- Reduce speed before making a turn or applying brakes. The hazard of overturning the tractor increases four times when speed is doubled.
- Always stop power take-off before dismounting from tractor.
- Never dismount from tractor when it is in motion. Wait until it stops.
- Never permit persons other than the driver to ride on tractor when it is in operation.
- Never stand between tractor and drawn implement when hitching. Use an iron hook to handle drawbar.
- Do not put on or remove belt from belt pulley while the pulley is in motion.
- When engine overheats, be careful when filling radiator.
- Never refuel tractor while engine is running or extremely hot.
- When tractor is attached to a power implement, be sure that all power line shielding is in place.

Domestic sales of food and agricultural commodities for March totaled more than $4,513,000 with 95 percent of all returns coming from disposal of items declared surplus by other government agencies according to Charles L. Howell, acting District Director.

Fruits and vegetables returned the largest percentage of sales, accounting for 36 percent of the total, followed by tobacco products which totaled 15 percent of monthly sales. Special commodities came third, accounting for 12 percent of the total. Smaller sales during the month included fats and oils, dairy, grain and cereal products, poultry, livestock and meats.

Since the sales program got underway in early 1944, commodities sold by the U. S. Department of Agriculture have brought about 80 million dollars.

It was Henry Morgan's fate to be drawn bodily into a whirlpool of political undercurrents that swirled about the island of Martinique because of his love for a woman. In addition to the above feature, a grand, all-girl hillbilly show with Billie Gale, champion girl fiddler, and Her Hollywood Cow Girls, with Basileff Mary Lieto, and six small acts will be presented Monday night, May 20. Admission will be 20 and 40 cents.

Pat Neff, Jr., Out For Atty. General

Pat Neff, Jr., son of the former Governor of Texas from 1921 to 1925, today announced his candidacy for Attorney General.

"I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Attorney General," Neff said. "An announcement of my platform will be made in a short time."

"This decision was made after consultation with friends throughout the State. Having served and three different Attorney's Generals I am fully aware of the duties and responsibilities connected with the office. I shall base my campaign on my practical experience, legal training and qualifications and my pledge to give the people of Texas the best possible equitable administration."

Mr. Neff was born in Waco, Texas in 1903 and is a graduate of the University of Texas and of Baylor University Law School. He served in the Attorney General's office under James V. Allred, Bill C. Cawley, and under Gerald C. Malone until he resigned to enter the Army in 1942. He received a medical discharge in April 1944 due to a disability received in line of duty.

New Law Concerns All Milk Producers

There is a new law in effect which concerns every milk producer in the state who sells cream or whole milk to a dairy manufacturer plant, says J. C. Shockey, county agricultural agent.

While the State Health Department is charged with the enforcement of all food and drug laws, the A. and M. College Extension Service is trying to help accomplish the requirements of the law.

The law requires cooling, sanitizing methods for handling the milk, keeping healthy cows. For full milk, milk producers can get formation from their dairy manufacturing plants or their county agricultural agents.

The new regulations are necessary by the need for improving the quality of dairy products manufactured in Texas. This is primarily through improving the production of milk going into the production of these products. Enforcement of these regulations will mean that there will no longer be a market for low quality milk and cream.

The law doesn't apply to bottled milk, which is covered by other regulations. Nor does it apply to the sale of home-made milk to farmers who sell milk directly to consumers in their own homes, powdered milk, and cheese. Normally, the county agricultural agent is not expected to personally inspect the thousands of milk producers who work with dairy farmers.

OF SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Prices were down for cotton, outside vegetables last week, but farm products brought stronger prices at most markets, according to Production and Marketing Division.

Cotton prices declined early last week but were strengthened and demand for spot market activity due to scarcity of offerings. Spot market activity delayed in deliveries to mills because of the coal and iron market.

Light cattle receipts moved slowly and prices were down 25 to 50 cents a hundred at most southwest markets last week. Houston sold medium steers and yearlings at $13 to $14.50 per hundred pounds and medium cows at $10 to $11.50. San Antonio moved medium and good shorted steers at $13.50 to $15, choice yearlings up to $17, and common and medium cows at $9 to $12. At Fort Worth medium steers and yearlings brought $13.50 to $14.50 and common and medium cows $8.75 to $11.

Grain and feedstuff supplies became tighter near the end of last week because of the higher ceiling prices effective May 18. Also, peanuts and rice were in short supply with very little movement reported.

Pat Neff, Jr., Out For Att'y. General

Pat Neff, Jr., son of the former Governor of Texas from 1921 to 1925, today announced his candidacy for Attorney General.

"I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Attorney General," Neff said. "An announcement of my platform will be made in a short time.

Having served under three different Attorney Generals, I am fully aware of the duties and responsibilities connected with this office. I shall base my candidacy on my practical experience, my legal training and qualifications and my pledge to give the people of Texas an honest, fearless and equitable administration."

Mr. Neff was born in Waco, Tex., in 1903 and is a graduate of the University of Texas and of Baylor University Law School. He served in the Attorney General's office under James V. ADVICE ON VACCINE FOR FOWL POX AND LIVESTOCK DISEASE

Vaccination against fowl pox is one of several livestock and poultry health suggestions published recently by Dr. E. A. Grist, poultry veterinarian for the Texas A&M College Extension Service. Pox in both chickens and turkeys takes a heavy toll each year which can be prevented with the proper use of pox vaccine.

Dr. Grist says the season is upon us for protection of sheep and goats from sore mouth. Sore mouth vaccine has proved very successful in the control of this disease. It must be administered each year for lambs and kids. For the control of internal parasites drenching should be done with phenothiazine or copper sulphate and nicotine sulphate solution. Get those salt boxes ready, he advises—phenothiazine, one lb.; salt, nine lbs.

Pigs should be castrated at four weeks, vaccinated with serum and virus at six weeks, weaned at eight weeks and marketed at six months. If BTX or Crystal Violet hog cholera vaccine is desired, vaccinate at six weeks.

Word comes of early appearance of sleeping sickness in horses and mules, Dr. Grist concludes. Vaccination now will prevent a wide spread outbreak in late summer.

Verda Gray, Teddy Walker, Polly Moon, Johnnie Barnes, Kathryn Anderson and Garland Smith were skating in Abilene last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Hill of New Mexico are visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hill this week.

Disease Suspects Should Be Visited By Local Doctor

If every case of suspected communicable disease could be promptly visited either by the family physician or the local health officer, thousands of susceptible persons would be protected from disabling illnesses, according to the State Health Officer, Dr. Geo. W. Cox.

To quote Dr. Cox, "The old fashioned theory that it is a good thing for children to have a number of the catching diseases and get them over with, has long been known to be a serious and sometimes fatal error. The longer a child can keep from having these diseases, the better it is for him. Every child should be completely protected by vaccination or inoculation against these diseases where an immunity can be produced."

Prompt diagnosis, isolation, good medical and nursing care give the patient the best chance for a satisfactory recovery without the serious complications that sometimes accompany even the mild forms of communicable diseases, Dr. Cox emphasized that obeying the public health laws regarding isolation and quarantine of communicable diseases protects not only the patient, but helps prevent others from contracting the illness.

"The State Health Department," Dr. Cox said, "is doing everything in its power to protect the health of the people of Texas. It is the duty of every man and woman to do his share to maintain a high level of health and help prevent the spread of communicable diseases."

New Law Concerns All Milk Producers

There is a new law in effect which concerns every milk producer in the state who sells cream or whole milk to a dairy manufacturing plant, says J. C. Shockey, county agricultural agent.

While the State Health Department is charged with the enforcement of all food and drug laws, the A. and M. College Extension Service is trying to help acquaint dairy farmers with the provisions, G. G. Gibson, Extension dairyman, says the requirements are not as stiff as for producers of Grade A Milk.

They do, however, require a milking parlor and a milk handling room with screened openings. A small shed type barn with single wall construction is satisfactory. Then the law requires cooling, sanitary methods for handling the milk, and keeping healthy cows. For full details, milk producers can get information from their dairy manufacturing plants or their county agricultural agents.

The new regulations are made necessary by the need for improving the quality of dairy products manufactured in Texas. This is possible only through improving the supply of milk going into the products. Enforcement of these regulations will mean that there will no longer be a market for low quality milk and cream.

The law doesn't apply to sale of bottled milk, which is covered by other regulations. Nor does it apply to the sale of home-made butter and cheese. It's directed particularly to farmers who sell milk or cream which goes into ice cream, powdered milk, and cheese. Naturally, the county agricultural agents are not expected to personally inspect the thousands of milk producers and with plant field men who work with dairy farmers.

MARKETS

Receipts were quoted 31 to 31½ cents a dozen, Dallas; 31 to 31½ cents, Ft. Worth. Both heavy hens and fryers were short of demand last week.

Light hog receipts were in broad demand at ceiling prices at most markets last week. Also, sheep and lambs were in broad demand at steady to higher prices. Heavier than usual receipts cleared quickly. Common and medium spring lambs brought $10 to $12 hundred pounds, San Antonio; and $10.25 to $13, Ft. Worth. Medium and good slaughter lambs sold at $16.50 at Denver. Domestic wools were quiet in the Boston wool market as the lack of soft coal began to show effects on the textile industry.

Light cattle receipts moved slowly and prices were down 25 to 50 cents a hundred at most southwest markets last week. Houston sold medium steers and yearlings at $13 to $14.50 per hundred pounds and medium cows at $10 to $11.50. San Antonio moved medium and good shorted steers at $15.50 to $16, choice yearlings up to $17, and common and medium cows at $9 to $12. At Fort Worth medium steers and yearlings brought $13.50 to $14.50 and common and medium cows $8.75 to $11.

Grain and feedstuff supplies became tighter near the end of last week because of the higher ceiling prices effective May 15. Also, peanuts and rice were in short supply with very little movement reported.

Our dealers join us in making this frank report to THE FARMERS OF AMERICA

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER is getting back into production with all possible speed. Extra shifts are being employed wherever conditions permit, to try to overcome the production losses of the recent strike. Everything is being done to get parts and machines to you.

While we and our dealers would like to tell you that this means an immediate end to the shortage of service parts and machines, it is more accurate to say that it means the beginning of the end of it. If illness or bad weather delays you seriously in the Spring, you know how much it throws off your schedule. The strike has thrown our schedules off balance, too. There are many "chores" we must do before new machines reach you.

No hoarding
You may be sure that every machine will be shipped to dealers as soon as completed. We do not and will not hold machines off the market.

Material shortages
The preliminary chores of getting our plants back into shape for full production are finished. But disturbances in other industries and resulting material shortages may affect our plans. Light gauge steel sheets, brass and copper, fractional horse power motors, and many other items are all very short. The coal situation may also prove serious—we hope not.

Refilling the well
Both our dealers and our branches have run dry on parts and new machines. So the biggest chore is to get their working stocks back to normal. It will take time to fill the pipeline to dealers—just as it takes time for you to refill a well or cistern after it has run dry. Stock and display rooms of our dealers represent not one, but ten thousand reservoirs which must be refilled. The most heroic production efforts will mean that your local dealer can expect only a small number of parts and machines at a time. Since we must play fair with all our customers, there will be a sprinkle of parts and machines all over the country—not a downpour in any one section.

You will be glad to know that all repair parts production schedules are far beyond normal.

No cutting corners on quality
There is one thing you can be absolutely certain about: We will NOT cut corners on quality in order to increase production in this emergency. For years we have said: "QUALITY IS THE FOUNDATION OF OUR BUSINESS." Today we say it—and mean it—as much as ever.

We know you need new machines—and need them badly. But we believe it will pay you to wait just a little while longer if you cannot get all you want immediately. By waiting you can be sure your new equipment will have the quality so rightly associated with INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER for so many years.
