3 Buyers Pay $14,655.48 For Turkeys Here

PROVES THAT AREA IS ONE OF STATE'S MOST DIVERSIFIED

Three Cross Plains produce buyers paid $14,655.48 for turkeys shipped from here to adorn Thanksgiving tables throughout the nation. The general market opened November seventh and closed Saturday night, the twelfth, however, local buyers jumped the gun and started making purchases several days early.

The Review learned in a check-up yesterday that an even greater amount is expected to be spent early in next month, when buyers start bidding for the Christmas market. It is believed more than half of the turkey crop in the Cross Plains trade territory is yet to be sold.

It is an acknowledged fact that many towns exceed Cross Plains in the amount of turkey tonnage each year, however, very few, if any, had a stronger market than prevailed here.

The turkey crop, although not one of the principal sources of revenue here, is increasing each year. That derived from turkeys coupled with the peanut, cotton, sweet potato and other farm products causes the Cross Plains trade territory to compare very favorably with the more prosperous sections of Texas. When the regular sales of chickens, eggs and cream are added to this amount, and then funds derived from grains and livestock, it is an admitted fact that Cross Plains is one of the more diversified farming sections of the state.

Few Changes Made By Methodists In This Area; Thrash Returns For Year

Only a few changes were made in Methodist pastors over the Cross Plains trade territory when announcements were made at the Central Texas conference in Waco Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Floyd W. Thrash returns here as pastor of the Methodist church. Rev. Lloyd Sanders also returns to Pioneer. Rev. J. M. Bailey goes to Putnam and Cottonwood. Scranton will have as their new pastor Rev. A. J. Helm who replaces Rev. R. J. Real Duncan.

In the Brownwood district Rev. J. D. Farmer returns to Burkett. To Cross Cut comes Rev. Pat Brown to replace Rev. Estill Allen.

Following is a complete list of the Cisco district of which the Methodist church of this place is a member.

Presiding elder, R. A. Langston, Bethel, X. M. Meglasson, supply; Brockenridge, C. R. Gray; Bunyan, C. F. Bell; Bluffdale, Preston Braxton, Caddo; H. B. Clark, Carbone; L. S. Anderson, Dublin; J. W. Sharbutt, Duffon; W. G. Ferguson, Eastland; P. W. Walker, Gorman; H. C. Bowman, Huckabay; Earl Halsell, supply; Olden; A. B. Armstrong, supply; Pioneer; Lloyd Sanders, supply; Putnam and Cottonwood; J. M. Bailey, Ranger; G. Alfred Brown, Rising Star; J. W. Chisholme, Seranton; A. J. Helm, Stephenville; W. H. Cole, Wayland; Otis Brown, supply, district missionary secretary; F. L. Welshire, conference missionary secretary; R. A. Langston.

New pastors will fill their regular places in the pulpits Sunday.

Rev. J. C. Mann, former pastor here, returned to Hico as their pastor. Rev. Mann is reported to be improving normally after undergoing an appendix operation in Fort Worth several weeks ago.

COLEMAN WILL TRY FOR FIRST WIN IN HISTORY OVER HERD

Aware of the fact that Coleman has never beaten Cross Plains on the gridiron, the Bluecats are expected to wage a hectic effort for triumph Friday night when they play host to an invasion of the Cross Plains high school Buffaloes for a district 25-B encounter. Kick-off is set for 7:30 on Hufford field.

Comparative dope gives the Coleman team a slight advantage, however, such has been the often in the past 12 years and always the locals have emerged victorious except on one occasion, and that was a scoreless tie.

Coach "Beans" Morris' athletes will be greatly handicapped because of injuries which are expected to keep Basil Lusk, valuable tackle, and Colvin Lackey, ace line-backer, out of the fray. Absence of these two stalwarts will be keenly felt by the thundering herd.

Enthusiasm for victory is running high at Coleman. Signs have been painted throughout that city urging a victory over Cross Plains. A banner stretched all the way across Coleman's Main Street reads: "Beat Cross Plains". The Bluecats are reported to be desirous of trimming the Buffaloes than any other game on their current schedule.

Several hundred local fans are expected to follow the team to Coleman.

Funeral services were held at the Cross Plains Methodist church Friday afternoon at four o'clock with Rev. DeWitt Van Pelt, of Cottonwood, officiating. He was reared in Cross Plains vicinity.

Warren told Callahan county officers he had eaten about two handfuls of arsenic shortly after noon. In a few minutes, according to the account given officers, he began eating hard to counteract the effects of the poisoning.

He began walking toward Clyde, when a man gave him a ride into town. From there officers were called from Baird and Warren was taken to the Baird hospital. Officers said he had eaten about two pounds of hard.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE TO CONTINUE THRU THANKSGIVING DAY

From now until Thanksgiving Cross Plains and adjoining communities will be visited by a committee for the purpose of enrolling the citizenship in the Red Cross.

There are two vital objectives in this worthy campaign: First to make our contribution to the national Red Cross to enable them to meet the emergency needs of disasters arising from storms, floods, fires, epidemics, etc. Secondly, to raise a community chest fund for local emergencies. One-half of the funds derived from this campaign will go to each of the above objectives.

When you enroll in the Red Cross, you are contributing to both national and local needs. It is very necessary that every municipality have some fund from some source to take care of emergency that arise out of disease or poverty among those that are unfortunate. Every penny raised for this fund will go for these causes.

The entire citizenship is urged to cooperate to the fullest extent in this year's Red Cross campaign.

McGough scored four touchdowns for Woodson, Biggs two and Lancaster two. McGough took a pass from Lancaster for the winners' only point after touchdown.

Pioneer tallied late in the second period when Phillips crossed the double stripe.

Chief glory Pioneer salvaged from the defeat was the fine play of Paul and Ralph Huntington, cousins backfield men.

NEW DEVELOPMENT ON McDERMOTT RANCH

Jess Hickey, et al, of Dallas, have rigged up a new location near a small producer recently completed by them on the McDermott Ranch, located eight or nine miles southwest of Cross Plains.

Production in the completed well is coming from a sand formation encountered at approximately 477 feet. Considerable interest is being shown in the area surrounding these operations. In 1937 L. L. Montgomery of Caddo Peak community plowed under 5 1/2 acres of good peas. There's not much news to that, but in 1938 he planted peanuts on the ground and harvested, he estimates 60 bushels of peanuts per acre. The rest of his peanut acreage averaged 39 1/2 bushels per acre. Assuming that the peas plowed under the year before accounted for the difference. What were the peas worth per acre? 19 1/2 bushels of peanuts times 80 cents per bushel is one way to figure the value of the peas. Figure it out. It paid him. Perhaps it will pay on lots of other Callahan county farms.

Members of the Callahan county Agricultural Association and friends of Earl C. Hays of Clyde will be glad to hear that he has been appointed an alternate director from this district on the State Agricultural Association Committee.

It paid some 13 turkey growers of Bayou community some $200.00 extra dollars to cooperate in the sale of some 2300 turkeys last week. By polling their turkey crop and selling them to the highest bidder the group was not only able to get a little above the market price.

THE BOOK SHELF

By— LEXIE DEAN ROBERTSON On this book shelf always look for anything except a book-**

The little towns of Texas That nestle on her plains, That gather close the inland roads, The homing trails and lanes.

That sleep the whole night long Cooled by a scented tropic breeze, Lulled by its drowsy song!

Will ever seem to me Like stars that light a prairie sky Or isles that dot a sea; Or beads that sparkle here and there

On Texas' flowered gown; Like figures on its rich brocade Of purple, green, and brown.

Seen through the prairie haze, How fair and fresh and free they lie Beneath the golden days!

Not crowded in deep valleys, Not buried in tall trees, But open to the sun, the rain The starlight and the breeze.
