In the event that additional flights are necessary to accommodate the entries, appropriate prizes will be added to the above list, Cates said.

The tournament-Philbeco country club's sixth annual invitation event, will be held August fifth, sixth and seventh.

Indications are now that the largest number of entries in history of the tournament will be on hand for the competition here, the Review was told yesterday by members of the committee in charge.

The newly installed grass greens at the club are in splendid condition. Fairways will be watered just in front of the greens for the next several weeks to place them in readiness.

SCHOOL TRANSFERS MUST BE MADE NOW

School patrons desiring to transfer their children to another district, should make application before the first day of August, as no transfers can be legally made after that date, reminds Superintendent Lewis C. Norman.

The law provides that transfers may be made anywhere in the county or to adjacent districts in adjoining counties.

Transfer blanks may be secured from Norman or from V. C. Walker, secretary of the local school board.

Mr. and Mrs. Pump Pinkston and family of Tuscola visited with old timers here at the picnic Tuesday.

Mrs. Zack Brooks of Sweetwater was a visitor here Tuesday.

To Short Course In Summarized By Callahan County 4-H Club Member

short course was very interesting. We heard boys and girls who had won trips to Washington tell of their experiences as 4-H club workers, and of things they saw on their trips. The main thing of interest to us girls was the "Evolution of Dress" by Jane Alden, a mail order stylist from Chicago, Ill.

Ila Fay Whitley won first place in district and third place in state in the dress contest.

We left College Station Saturday morning at 4:30 o'clock. We ate breakfast at Hearne and stopped at the health resort at Marlin on the way. We had lunch at Dublin. We arrived at Baird at 4 o'clock, and believe me, we were glad to get home.

The girls wish to thank all who had a part in making it possible for them to make the trip.

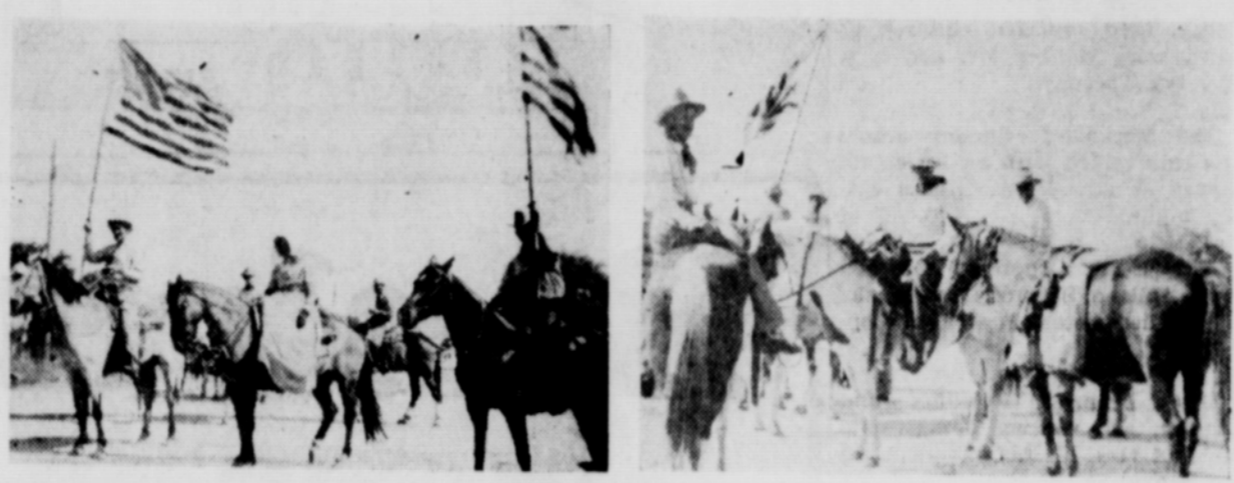

The test has been producing a small amount of oil under a high gas flow since February from the Ellenburger lime at 4,368.89 feet, and will be deepened to 4,460 feet to test the second section of Ellenburger porosity which has been showing in the two most recent Oplin wells.

Shooting with 240 quarts of nitroglycerin was scheduled this week-end for the Hughes, Cooper & Weeks No. 1 C. D. Starley, south-east outpost to the area.

Section to be shot was from 4,380 to 4,440 feet, total depth. It is producing gas and about five barrels of oil daily.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stoker, of Breckenridge, and Mrs. W. E. Lunsford, of Weslaco, were guests Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nash the first of this week.

In the picture at left is seen Mrs. J. C. McDermott riding a side saddle, as was the custom among frontier women. Mrs. McDermott, herself a pioneer in this section, drew wide praise from the crowds that lined both sides of Main Street. Flag bearers in

ground is W. T. Burns. The extreme glare of Monday morning's sun made photography extremely difficult and for that reason the above cuts are not as they might have otherwise been.

F. S. A. LOANS BEING MADE IN COUNTY BY M'KNIGHT'S OFFICE

Applications for rural rehabilitation loans for the next crop year are now being taken, J. S. McKnight, County Supervisor for the Farm Security Administration, announced today. The loan program has been liberalized so that all types of farming may now be included. Present or prospective borrowers are urged to begin immediately making their plans for the next crop.

"Arrangements should be made now for financing, though the money may not be needed for several months," Mr. McKnight said. "Interest charges will not begin until the money is received by the client."

Small grain, fall and winter vegetable or truck crops, and livestock projects must be planned now if the most profitable system of management is to be followed, the supervisor said. Some plans will require machinery, pure-bred sires, or other facilities which must be provided through a community or cooperative service loan. Applications for this cooperative type of loan are also being received.

Tenure arrangements which favor a program of improvements on the farm are being made by FSA borrowers where possible, Mr. McKnight said. Copies of a lease form providing for improvements are available at the supervisor's office in Baird, Texas, he stated.

WILL DEEPEN WELL IN OPLIN VICINITY

Hughes Petroleum company Monday announced plans to deepen its No. 1 Cook & Jordan (Poindelter), discovery well of the Oplin deep Ordovician pool in southwestern Callahan county. Work will start Friday.

The first of Callahan county rural schools to announce opening school early is Midway, a few miles northwest of Baird. The school will open August 1 and run 30 days before a recess for cotton picking, according to B. C. Chrisman, county superintendent.

Mrs. J. E. Bagwell is superintendent, and the two other teachers are Wilma Pruett of Putnam and Sibyl Myers of Clyde.

METHODISTS CHANGE SABBATH SCHEDULES

In order that the pastor may give assistance to the churches at Dressy, Burnt branch and Victoria, the Methodist church will change its schedule for services beginning Sunday and continuing through the month of August. The morning preaching hour will be 9 o'clock. The Sunday school will be in session from 9:45 to 10:30. All are urged to take notice and be on time for each of these services.

"The Absolute Necessity of the New Birth" will be the sermon subject Sunday morning. There will be no service Sunday night. The congregation has voted to attend the revival meeting at Dressy.

FIRST SCHOOL OPENS IN COUNTY AUGUST 1

The first of Callahan county rural schools to announce opening school early is Midway, a few miles northwest of Baird. The school will open August 1 and run 30 days before a recess for cotton picking, according to B. C. Chrisman, county superintendent.

MUSICAL DRAMA AT LIBERTY NEXT WEEK

"The Firefly", which comes to the Liberty Theatre Tuesday for a two day run, is the combination of music and drama for which the public has been waiting. The story makes no sacrifice for music. Yet, in the interesting fashion of life itself, the melody rings in at opportune moments. And it is lovely melody, enhanced by a stirring beauty of background.

Here is Jeanette MacDonald more romantic and far more talented in her seventeenth starring musical picture than she ever was before.

Here, too, is Allan Jones, brilliant young tenor, who has accomplished in "The Firefly" what Nelson Eddy did in "Naughty Marietta," also Jeanette MacDonald.

TRANSFER DECISIONS REST WITH COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

County Superintendent Tom McGee has been informed by John Olsen, state director of school census, that the attorney general's office held that county superintendents do not have discretionary authority in refusing transfers.

This means that county superintendents must accept and approve transfers without judgement as to their validity.

If any person or board of trustees wishes to protest a transfer, this may be done before the county board of education. Protests must be filed within five days after the first day of August, and the board shall hear all protests prior to August 15.

Transfers are being accepted by the county superintendent throughout the month of July, as provided by law.

PAID TO DANCE AT THEATRE THURSDAY

A new slant on dance hall hostesses and their business is afforded in the Columbia picture "Paid to Dance", which is due to begin its local run at the Liberty Theatre on Thursday. It drags out into the open the vicious racket with which gangsters have ruined the lives of many innocent girls.

Featured in the film are Don Terry and Jacqueline Wells, Terry, a Broadway actor who has been on the talking screen much less than a year, has been winning a following by his strong characterizations. Previously, he has been seen in "A Dangerous Adventure" and "A Fight to the Finish." Miss Wells recently returned to the screen after taking time out to marry in a high social bracket. She has lately been seen in "The Game that Kills," "Counsel for Crime" and "The Frame-Up".

In "Paid to Dance", the State, following a large number of abuses, assigns Terry, as a secret agent, to investigate the dance hall racket. While he sets himself up as a theatrical agent supplying girls to dance halls, he has his assistant Miss Wells, get a job in the Paradise dance hall, owned and operated by the biggest racketeer in the game, played by Arthur Loft.

From this setup, Terry proceeds to knock the props out from under the racket. To show his power and get in with Loft, he closes and opens the Paradise at will. When Loft sees that Terry is on the inside somewhere, he takes Don in as a partner. That's all Terry needs; from that point on he launches his destructive campaign against the racket.

Bob Black, Veteran Official, Made First Race On No Funds, Credited New Suit

First political experience for J. R. (Bob) Black, 104th district attorney, began in 1910, just after he had returned, "dead broke," from four months study at the Lebanon law school, Lebanon, Tenn. Political campaigns were just getting started and a number of his friends asked Black to run for the office of district clerk of Callahan county.

"Why I can't make any race," Black told them. "I don't have any money, I don't even have any decent looking clothes." One of his friends, B. L. Boydston of Baird, heard the remark and promptly came to the rescue. "I'll gladly sell you a suit of clothes on the credit," he informed the young man. So with the credit donation to start his campaign, Black made the race and was elected.

Acclaimed most successful, Cross Plains fifty-seventh annual Picnic and Old Settlers Reunion was brought to a close here Tuesday night. The celebration was officially opened Monday morning with an elaborate street parade through the downtown district.

Between 5,000 and 6,000 people are estimated to have visited Cross Plains during the two days of the celebration.

Addresses by state, district, county and precinct candidates, four rodeo shows staged by Ruben Knight and Homer Johnson and carnival amusement furnished by the Valley Shows, were the principal sources of entertainment.

The parade of the business district Monday morning was described by crowds which lined the sidewalk as the most spectacular ever seen here. The prize winning entry was a two wheel buggy driven by Bud Arrowood. Other occupants were Mr. Arrowood's daughter and Mrs. Earl Webb.

From the business district the parade progressed to the picnic grounds where a cutting horse exhibition was viewed by a large crowd. Ruben Knight, riding a horse belonging to Earl Webb, was acclaimed the best.

Mayor C. S. Martin delivered the traditional address of welcome immediately following the exhibition in the rodeo pens and the celebration was underway.

Members of the fire department and chamber of commerce, sponsors of this year's celebration, are proud of the fact that not a single accident and unpleasant experience marred the festivities.

Perhaps the most disappointing feature of the entire program came Monday afternoon. A large crowd had gathered to hear Attorney General McCraw present his candidacy for the Governorship of Texas. McCraw had notified the committee in charge that he would be here at 5:30 and a large crowd was on hand to hear his address, when Pat M. Neff, Jr., an assistant in the Attorney General's office, arrived and announced that Mr. McCraw would be unable to be here and that he (Neff) would speak in his behalf.

Cross Plains Municipal Band played a vital part in this year's picnic celebration and has been receiving the plaudits of the community. The musicians were on hand and played for all rodeo performances, assisted in the parade and played intermittent concerts on the grounds.

The consensus here yesterday was that from every standpoint this year's Picnic and Old Settlers Reunion was an outstanding success.

Mr. and Mrs. Ressie Brownwood were picnic visitors here Monday. Their daughter, Reginald, remained for a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Baum.

Worked At School

"Old Scranton academy is gone now," Black commented, "but at that time it was quite a school. There were several hundred boys and girls from all over this section enrolled there. There was a nice boys' dormitory and girls' dormitory and then several private residents where students boarded."

Black worked for his board and tuition by helping keep the dormitories clean. He completed high school.

Popular Stars To Be At Liberty In New Roles Sunday

William Powell and Myrna Loy, probably the most popular of all cinema teams with Cross Plains audiences, will be seen beginning Sunday at the Liberty theatre here in "Double Wedding." The picture is to continue through Monday night.

Based on the continental stage success, "Great Love" by Ferenc Molnar, the new romantic comedy tells the story of four people — Charlie, a penniless but happy-go-lucky artist who makes his home in a trailer; Margit, owner of a fashionable New York gown shop; Irene, her sister with yearnings to be a movie star; and Waldo, Irene's half-hearted suitor.

It is Margit's determination that her sister should marry the somewhat unromantic Waldo, but instead Irene meets the devil-may-care artist and falls completely under his spell. The dignified Margit exerts all the persuasion she can command to break up the affair between Irene and the artist, only in the end to fall a victim to his charms herself.

It is Powell, of course, who plays the itinerant artist. Usually seen in a beret and smock, although once making his appearance in nothing more than a pair of pajamas and a coonskin coat, he has a role which gives him ample opportunity for the sly comedy and dry wit which has made him celebrated as one of the funniest actors in pictures.

Miss Loy is equally at ease in the part of the gown shop proprietor whose dignity and poise gradually crumble before the barrage of mirth fired by Powell. Her new role gives her a chance to wear a stunning assortment of gowns, designed by Adrian and heralding the latest in fashion innovations.

Misses Marlon and Ruth Dyer, and Charity Gilliland of Baird spent Monday and Tuesday here with Mrs. Fred Cutbirth.

Miss Nancy Henkel of Brownwood visited friends here during the picnic.

Mrs. Albert McCollum of Coleman was a visitor here Monday.

IN MEMORY OF WILFORD COCHRAN

One September day some 28 years ago, in a little town of Eden, Concho county, Texas.

A darling baby boy was born into the home, of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cochran.

Wilford it was by which this person was known. He was the joy of their hearts. Then several years later a little playmate came to share his pleasure in childhood.

It was Waylan who came for a pleasure in this childhood. Waylan whose life was almost inseparable from that of Wilford's even in death.

As the years came and went, so were the lives of these boys being molded, closer and closer into the other.

The will of one was the joy and wish of the other. Wilford and Waylan were brothers, chums, friends and the best of pals. Wilford was devoted to his family and friends.

He left Cross Plains, to find work, and told his friends he would be back in September.

He did not know that he would find work with his heavenly Father. He was a sweet and loving boy, for to know him was to love him.

His kind and loving ways will be missed by all who knew him. But we have the love and assurance of God.

And someday we shall all be together in that heavenly place.

Let's Talk About Service

MOST everyone knows that SERVICE, as defined in the dictionary, means: "the act or occupation of working for another . . . the manner of performing work . . . that which is supplied or furnished to meet a demand," etc.

Reddy Kilowatt
Your Electric Servant
 Says:
"DON'T KILL YOURSELF!
It ain't worth it!"

Working for you is Your Electric Servant's occupation. By that act of providing light and power for your home and business, the electric company renders a service. You pay a small amount each month as compensation for this service.

It, perhaps, seems like a simple transaction: but, in order to perform the work of providing the electric service you demand, this company is forced to employ approximately 1,000 men and women to whom it paid over $1,200,000 in wages during 1937. As a citizen and property-owner in every community it serves, it paid the equivalent of $9.25 in taxes per customer in 1937.

By maintaining three centrally-located power generating stations, it eliminates the necessity for less-efficient, isolated and expensive small plants in each community. Its 2,000 miles of high tension transmission lines are interconnected with still other sources of electric power so that failure of any one, or all three, of its own plants means only temporary interruption of the service you have learned to demand.

Efficiency in operation of this system of power plants and transmission and distribution lines permits rendition of electric service at its present low cost. The "manner of performing work" allows this company to render the good service you are receiving at an average net residential rate below the average.

We want you to know we are glad to render this service, "supplying and furnishing that which meets a demand," and we invite you to use this service freely.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But they are constantly being clogged by the waste products of the body. Do you know what happens when the kidneys are clogged? They stop working properly and the waste matter builds up in the body. This causes kidney trouble, which is often the first step toward a serious illness.

Doan's Pills are a natural, safe, and effective way to keep your kidneys in good working order. They are made of natural herbs and are gentle on the stomach. They are the only pills that will cleanse the blood of harmful waste matter and keep your kidneys in good working order.

The English Queen Who Never Saw England

THE MORE PROMINENT OF THE LADIES OF THE CRUSADES WAS HENRIETTA, WHO SUCCEEDED HER FATHER HENRY II AS KING OF ENGLAND IN 1189. HENRIETTA LEFT ON THE THIRD CRUSADE IN 1190, AND HER FIRST SISTER, MARGARET, DAUGHTER OF SIBICHO OF NAVARRA, IN ITALY AND MARRIED HER IN CYPRUS ON MAY 12, 1191. SHE ONLY SAW HER KING AGAIN THAT YEAR AND AGAIN IN 1195. HENRIETTA, ALTHOUGH QUEEN OF ENGLAND NEVER WENT TO THE COUNTRY. AFTER THE DEATH OF HENRY II, IN 1189, HENRIETTA RETURNED TO LE MAN, IN NORMANDY AND THERE SHE REMAINED THE REMAINDER OF HER LIFE. SHE WAS COMPLETED ABOUT THE YEAR 1230 AND AT THE TIME SHE WAS FINALLY ABANDONED THE WORLD AND SHE DIED SOME YEARS LATER DURING THE REIGN OF HENRY III, AT AN ADVANCED AGE.

RICHARD'S ROMANTIC AND BRILLIANT ADVENTURES EARNED HIM THE TITLE "LIONHEARTED." HE SPENT MOST OF HIS TIME ON THE CRUSADES IN THE MIDDLE EAST DURING HIS TEN YEAR REIGN. ONCE FOR FOUR MONTHS WHEN HE WAS CORONATED AND ONCE AGAIN FOR TWO MONTHS, FIVE YEARS LATER. SO, HENRIETTA HAD BUT LITTLE TO COMPLAIN ABOUT AS FAR AS HIS ENGLAND ASSESSMENT WAS CONCERNED.

school at the academy, then went to Lebanon for law training in 1909. The only trouble was that his ambitions outran the limits of his budget and he was able to remain in the law school only four months. It was then that he returned home and entered his first campaign.

During his services as district clerk, Black became acquainted with courtroom procedure, handling of records and cases and read law in all his spare moments. After one year as clerk, he passed the bar examination, resigned the clerkship and entered private law practice at Baird.

For two years he stayed in private practice, then in 1912 he was elected county attorney. He was reelected in 1914 and served out the term ending in 1916, then returned to private practice. After another two years, he was elected county judge and held that post until 1922.

Retired From Politics

That was the end of politics for Black for a long while. Private practice was all right and he was a little tired of the strain of public life. But in 1927 District Judge W. R. Ely resigned the judgeship to become highway commissioner. To fill this vacancy, Governor Dan Moody appointed M. S. Long, then district attorney of 194th district, to the judgeship and appointed J. R. Black as district attorney.

Black refuses to even try to estimate the number of criminal cases he has tried while he has been district attorney. He distinctly remembers that he has asked the

We, the undersigned lawyers of Callahan County, recognize the fairness, learning and ability of Associate Justice Critz of the Supreme Court of Texas. After rendering distinguished service as a member of the Commission of Appeals, he was appointed Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, to which position he was re-elected by the people. His services on the bench clearly show that he is pre-eminently qualified for the place he now occupies.
