Sheppards Again Are First Bale Winners

FIRST BALE OF '38 COTTON SOLD HERE TUESDAY MORNING

First bale of 1938 cotton was sold in Cross Plains, Tuesday morning by Tom Sheppard, who lives on the B. W. Webb place Southwest of town. He is the father of C. C. Sheppard, who brought in the first bale last year.

Planters Gin Company aimed the first 1938 bale and also purchased it for nine and a half cents per pound. The bale weighed 515 pounds. A cash premium of $22.00 was awarded Mr. Sheppard by Cross Plains merchants.

First bale this year is six days later than the initial bale last year, however, it is five days earlier than the first bale two years ago, which was brought in by Jay Gould.

Boll worms are reported to have done untold damage to this year's cotton crop. A few farmers have been doing late poisoning, however, in the endeavor to curtail the pests damage before the entire crop is lost.

Those contributing the premium for the first bale of cotton were: Citizens State Bank $3.00, Higginbotham Brothers & Company $3.00, E. C. Neeb 50c, J. T. Foster 25c, Cross Plains Review $1.00, J. known attorney and formerly made a creditable campaign for Governor. Stevenson has served as Speaker of the House of Representatives and is the choice of recently nominated Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

METHODISTS BEGINS LOYALTY WEEK AND ENLISTMENT DRIVE

The Methodists of Cross Plains will open a Loyalty Enlistment Week at the church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock with a home coming sermon by Rev. C. C. Armstrong, former local pastor, now Methodist pastor at Anson.

Sunday school will begin at 10 and a basket picnic will be spread in the basement of the church at the noon hour. The afternoon will be taken up with singing and fellowship. Definite word has not yet been received but it is hoped that Rev. J. C. Mann of Hico, another former pastor will be in the pulpit Sunday night.

During the week there will be services at the church each night. Rev. J. Morris Bailey of Putnam will preach on Monday and Tuesday nights. Rev. P. W. Walker of Eastland will preach on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights. Rev. J. A. Siedloff will hold conference with Sunday school officers and teachers on Saturday afternoon and night. He will also preach at 11 o'clock on Sunday September fourth.

The week's program will be brought to a close on Sunday night September fourth, when Rev. J. B. Curry, presiding elder of the Cisco District will preach and hold the quarterly conference.

According to a statement made to the Review by Rev. Floyd Thrusell, local pastor, the purpose of the week of service is to enlist the membership of the church in the total program of the church and launch the fall program of the church, looking forward to a successful closing of the year's work in November. Although this is the primary purpose of the program it is hoped that the entire citizenship of the city will take advantage of the opportunities afforded by it.

School Band Will Begin Practicing About September 1

Dale McCook, science and band instructor in the local high school for the approaching school year, will arrive here September first and begin work with high school musicians, the Review was told yesterday by Superintendent Lewis C. Norman.

Mr. and Mrs. McCook have rented the Edwin Baum home in the Northwest part of town. Mr. and Mrs. Baum will move shortly into the adjoining residence which they recently purchased from Mrs. Sam Carson Mitchell. The house is being remodeled and will be ready for occupancy shortly after the first of September.

Mr. McCook will begin whipping the band into shape with the thought in mind of being ready for the first football game to be played on the local gridiron.

"We wish here and now to extend our thanks to Alton Barr for the fine work that he has done for the school and the community, by taking over the direction of the local band several months ago. His efforts have proved valuable to all concerned and we are deeply grateful," Norman stated.

NEW FIXTURES FOR POST OFFICE HERE

New fixtures for Cross Plains post office were to arrive here late yesterday afternoon. They will be installed in the Ramsey building, at the intersection of Main and Eighth Street for occupancy by postal authorities about September first.

The fixtures were purchased at Winters. Fixtures for the Rising Star office were also bought at Winters and were hauled together with those coming here.

W. S. Ramsey, of Georgetown, is in Cross Plains to superintend the preparation of his building for post office occupancy.

ELECTION RETURNS BE RECEIVED HERE

As has been the custom here for a number of years, election returns will be received and posted on a large bulletin board here Saturday night. The board will probably be posted near the telephone office, the Review learned yesterday.

Ninety percent of Callahan county's votes are expected to be tabulated by 9:30 Saturday night.

Mrs. Emma Evans, 65, long time resident of Callahan county died at her home of her daughter, Mrs. Hub Swan at Spur, Saturday morning after an illness of less than one hour. Mrs. Evans suffered a stroke of paralysis about 2:30 Saturday morning and died a few minutes after three o'clock.

Mrs. Evans came to Callahan county at the age of three years with her parents, settling near Cottonwood. At the age of 15 she became a member of the Baptist church and was a devoted Christian for more than a half century. She was married to J. C. Mr. Starnes is a butcher with wide experience, having worked at Coleman, Santa Anna and a number of other nearby towns.

DEMOCRATS GO TO POLLS TO SELECT STANDARD BEARERS

Texas Democrats will go to the polls Saturday in the final elimination process of choosing standard bearers for the party in November, which in this state is constitute to election. Run-off contests are to be settled in six state races, representative for this legislative district, sheriff, county commissioner and precinct constable.

Probably 750,000 votes will be polled over the state, opine political observers; while the estimate for Callahan county is around 2,200.

Governor nominate W. Lee O'Daniel's unprecedented indorsement of six state candidates is expected to bring out a larger vote than otherwise might have been polled. O'Daniel announced his choices in a statewide radio hook-up two weeks ago.

Probably the warmest race of statewide importance is that of Attorney General, in which Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul, of Harris county, is opposed by the youthful Gerald C. Mann, of Dallas county. Woodul is well known to Texas voters and has the indorsement of O'Daniel. Mann, a former S.M.U. football hero has served as Secretary of State and as a member of the Texas planning board in Washington. The race is expected to be one of the closest in tomorrow's primary.

Much interest is also centered upon the outcome of the Rail Road Commission campaign, in which incumbent C. V. Terrell, of Wise county, is opposed by G. A. Jerry Sadler, of Gregg county. Sadler was the choice of Cross Plains voters in the last primary garnering nearly as many votes as all of his opponents put together; he also carried the county. Since then Terrell's campaign has been openly sponsored by O'Daniel, however, and political prognosticators are hesitant in predicting the outcome.

For Lieutenant Governor P. Pierce Brooks, of Dallas county, and Coke Stevenson, of Kimble county are pitted. Brooks led in the first primary by a substantial margin. Stevenson is O'Daniel's choice for the job.

William H. McDonald, incumbent, and Bascom Giles, who has O'Daniel's support, tie up for the nomination as Commissioner of the General Land Office. This race is also attracting no little attention.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Richard Critz and W. H. Davidson are the run-off candidates. The former has the governor nominate's backing. The other judgeship to be settled at the polls is the unexpired term in the Court of Criminal Appeals, James A. Stephens, of Knox county, is pitted against Harry N. Graves, of Williamson county, with O'Daniel's blessing resting upon the latter.

Voters of this legislative district, which comprises Eastland and Callahan counties, will divided between Wayne C. Sellers and Omar Barkett for State Representative.

In the race for Sheriff of this county W. A. Patterson, of Cross Plains, and Clarence Nordskye, of Baird, are the run-off candidates. Both have made thorough campaigns of the county.

B. H. Freeland and Jeff Clark vie for the Democratic nomination as County Commissioner from this precinct. Boxes to ballot on this race are: Cross Plains, Cottonwood, Dressy, Caddo Peak and Atwell.

For Constable of this justice precinct—justice precinct six—Bert Brown and Clyde Slaughter are candidates, although the name of neither will appear on the ballot. They are asking that their friends, write in their names at the bottom of the ballot.

MRS. CHAS. F. HEMPHILL IS GRADUALLY IMPROVING

Mrs. Chas. F. Hemphill was reported gradually improving in a Coleman hospital yesterday, after being dangerously ill with peritonitis. She is not completely out of danger, however, physicians said yesterday that if she continues to improve as is expected she may be brought home in a week or 10 days.

Principals In Hot Run-Off Campaign

WALTER WOODUL

One of the warmest races of the run-off primary features Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul, of Harris county, versus Gerald C. Mann, of Dallas county for the Attorney Generalship.

GERALD C. MANN

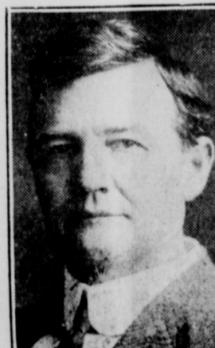

Mann is a former Secretary of State and a member of the federal planning board in Washington. Woodul has been indorsed by governor nominate W. Lee O'Daniel.

Sadler And Terrell Vie For Commissioner

G. A. JERRY SADLER

Much attention is focused upon the run-off race between C. V. Terrell, of Wise county, and G. A. Jerry Sadler, of Gregg county, for the Rail Road commission place to be filled by voters at the polls Saturday. Sadler has won the name as one of the most eloquent campaigners to invade politics in recent years. Terrell, incumbent, has been indorsed by W. Lee O'Daniel.

Misses Kathryn Dunlap and Eunorle Cotney spent the week end in Comanche. Miss Dunlap remained for a visit.

Mrs. Billie Mae Adams of Longview is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Slipes here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cunningham and baby were in Dallas last week.

Mrs. J. A. Gregoire has returned home after a visit of several days with her mother in Hope, Arkansas.

TEACHER RESIGNS TO MARRY EL PASO MAN

Miss Mary Beth Langston, of Cisco, teacher in the local school system this week resigned her position and announced that she is to be married to Cleon Cogswell, of El Paso, September eighth. Miss Langston's place in grammar school is expected to be filled at the meeting of the board of trustees Monday night.

The bride was very active in civic and church circles in addition to her school work while here. The groom is connected with the Hotel Del Norte at El Paso. He was formerly with the Settles Hotel at Big Spring.

A shower honoring the bride-elect was given in the home of Mrs. Orba C. Booth this week, at which time many practical and useful gifts were presented Miss Langston by her many Cross Plains friends. Complete details of the shower will appear in next week's issue of this newspaper.

SULPHUR WATER HIT IN DEEP OIL TEST

Having encountered sulphur water, hope for oil in the Howell deep test on the E. I. Vestal tract was virtually abandoned yesterday and intentions are now to plug the hole. A slight showing of oil and gas was encountered about 12 feet in the Ellenberger lime, however, deeper stratas failed to increase either the oil or gas. Sulphur water was struck about 34 feet in the lime.

Mrs. C. R. Cook left Thursday for Fort Stockton, where she will be employed with a dry goods concern.

County Agent's Column

Midnight, August 31, is the deadline. At that hour will close, for this season, the opportunity to obtain the new, all-risk insurance on wheat to be harvested in 1939.

Because seedling (especially in localities which use wheat partly for winter pasture) will be starting soon and the policies of this new insurance become effective as soon as the seed is in the ground, this limit seemed necessary to give the service office at Kansas City time to send out the premium notices, get back the payments and put out the policies before seedling begins.

The first policy was issued July 15. For the two weeks following July 15, the rate at which applications reached the Kansas City Branch, that serves this territory, was over two and one-half times as fast as for the week ending July 15. For the third week, it was almost four times as fast, and for the fourth week, ending August 12, it was 7.8 times as fast.

While this new, all-risk crop insurance is, in a way, a part of the general program in which the farmers of this county are cooperating, through the services of our ACP Committee of farmers. This is not, in any sense, mutual insurance. The full cost of a policy is definitely figured beforehand and there can be no additional charges or assessments. When an applicant gets his premium notice, it tells the exact amount of Ordinary No. 2 Hard Winter Wheat necessary to pay for his policy.

"This is the only crop insurance," our Supervisor explains, "the cost of which is based on actual production and loss information compiled by counties and by farms. Thus, through a period of better seasons, better farming and use of better seed, it is possible for a community to lower its risk rate. By a nationwide system of handling the wheat, which represents premiums paid, and constitutes its reserve, from which indemnity payments will be made, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation effects economies in the cost to the grower of this in-Insurance, prevents much local hardship in communities subject to crop failures and exerts a stabilizing influence on prices. A number of large insurance companies, to which the plan of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation was submitted approved it as sound and an improvement over other services. Those companies own many farms and are financially able to carry their own insurance, but several of them are buying Federal Crop Insurance Corporation policies on their 1939 wheat and are urging their tenants to do the same."

AAA-Cotton

Holders of C-5-1 certificates, known as "brown" certificates and "participation trust certificates of the cotton producer's pool," may now turn them in as the final liquidation of the pool will soon be made according to Geo. Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee.

The liquidation of this pool comprises the activities of the first AAA program, that of 1933. The original holders of the certificates were among the farmers who elected to take cotton options in the producer's pool as part payment for removal of cotton from production. Those producers received an advance of 4 cents per pound and later were given an opportunity to sell out to the pool or to receive a second advance of 2 cents per pound. Those who chose the second advance surrendered their original certificates and received those designated as C-5-1, which entitled them to share in the proceeds of the sale of the pool cotton after deduction of the original option price of 6 cents per pound, the two advances, and other expenses of the pool.

The pool will be liquidated at the rate of $1 per bale to the original holders of the certificates and to transferee holders on record on or before May 1, 1937. Holders to whom certificates were transferred after May 1, 1937, will receive the purchase price plus 4 percent interest, all not to exceed $1 a bale. Certificates to be tendered for sale to the pool should be attached to the proper forms, which will be furnished by the secretary of the county AAA association, and mailed to D. P. Mallette, Room 285, Old Post Office Building, Washington, D.C., before December 31, 1938.

More Trench Silos

R. T. Williams has completed two new trench silos about twice as large as the 80-ton silo he used in 1937.

Lewis Williams of Putnam has dug and filled a large trench silo. Quay Johnson of Dudley, W. L. Langley of Eula; Elmer Gardner and W. E. Wood of Denton; E. O. Hunt of Iowa; and I. M. Tension and Olin Elliott of Cross Plains plan to dig and fill a trench silo about six feet wide at the top, four feet wide at the bottom, and three feet deep. This size silo is the proper size for four or five cows daily. The silos will be from 50 to 100 feet long.

Ralph Fuller has started digging a 100-ton trench silo on his farm one mile east of Clyde on U.S. Highway No. 86. Tenmarq Wheat Makes Good Tenmarq wheat gave every promise of making good at the Denton Experiment Station. Tenmarq wheat yielded three to five bushels more per acre than other

Loy And Tone Star In "Man Proof" At Liberty On Sunday

Even as history is constantly changing, so does romance change and no better proof than this has reached the screen than "Man Proof," starring Myrna Loy, Franchot Tone and Rosalind Russell, and presented Sunday and Monday at the Liberty Theatre. "Man Proof" is the amusing story of a modern marital mix-up, with the Misses Loy and Russell ably abetted by Tone and Walter Pidgeon.

Miss Loy is the lovely newspaper artist who is madly in love with towering Walter Pidgeon, but ambitious Pidgeon marries Rosalind Russell whose father rolls in wealth. Miss Loy is determined to win Pidgeon back and compel him to get a divorce but while the honey-mooners are away she diverts her interests to her art and to the companionship of Franchot Tone, a cartoonist.

At a homecoming party for the honeymooners Miss Loy attends, to prove that she no longer loves Pidgeon. He is so charming at the reunion that her love for him is rekindled and they soon see each other clandestinely. Meanwhile, Tone tolerates the romance, fully understanding the futility of it.

The wife, one evening, discovers her husband in Miss Loy's rooms. It is a friendly conference and they talk things over. Miss Russell offers a divorce to her husband. Pidgeon does not want to lose his comfortable position in life and decides against a divorce, choosing to forget Miss Loy and return to his wife. Miss Loy finally understands the foolishness of her morning, she and Tone are having breakfast in her mother's cottage. Over the boiled eggs they pledge to continue as "singles"—but the mother knows it is love.

Richard Thorpe, who directed "Night Mist" and "Double Wedding," directed the screen version of the popular Fanny Huslip Lea novel. In the supporting cast are Nana Bryant, as Miss Loy's mother, Rita Johnson, Ruth Hussey, Leonard Penn and John Miljan.

varieties of wheat in demonstrations according to reports from men conducting the demonstrations. Growers of the county who are well pleased with their yields of this promising variety of wheat are: N. A. Estes, W. G. Black, M. M. Edwards, Quinley Leven, Virgil Jones, J. L. Taber, Homer Connel, J. O. Taylor, A. R. Keilton, S. S. Harville, Wallace C. Johnson and E. H. Williams.

LOCAL GIRL RECOVERING AFTER OPERATION

Miss Clara Mae Woody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Woody, has returned home from Gorman where she recently underwent an appendix operation at the Blackwell Sanatorium. Friends will be gratified to know that she has been convalescing normally and is expected to be totally recovered. Clara Mae will be a junior in the local high school this year.

Transfer of students here is expected to increase enrollment possibly 50 or 75. There is no danger of the local school being crowded, however, for there are several rooms not yet in permanent use.

BROADWAY FILM WILL OPEN AT LIBERTY TUESDAY FOR 2 DAYS

Exciting as Broadway itself... as teeming with drama as its shadowy side streets, "Walking Down Broadway" comes to the Liberty Theatre Tuesday for a two day run. This absorbing 20th Century-Fox production probes behind the glitter of the theatre's spotlight and unravels the skeletons which the Fates have woven for the lives of six showgirls. Six girls who knew longing and desperation... laughter and triumph.

Claire Trevor is the girl who never lost her head until she knew she was losing the man she loved; Phyllis Brooks is the lass who could resist anything... except temptation; Leah Ray liked excitement, but knew too many racketeers for her own good; Dixie Dunbar went with her sugar daddy, but didn't go for him; Lynn Bari dared dream of her name in lights, no matter what the cost; and Jayne Roman was the only one who was smart enough to cling to her illusions.

Into the heart-catching story of their lives come the men who make and break their careers—Michael Whalen, Tom Beck, Douglas Fowley, Walter Wolf, King and Jed Prouty.

The absorbing screen play by Robert Chapin and Karen De Wolf opens on a New Year's Eve celebration as a successful show closes its run. The fine direction of Norman Foster picks up the superstition of a pledge to meet again a year later, and reveals in thrilling fashion how the rendezvous was kept.

Sidney Clare and Harry Akst have written a song, "Good-bye My Heart" for "Walking Down Broadway."

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Williams have returned to Pioneer from Gorman and are getting ready for the opening of school. He is principal and coach in the local school system.

W. A. Rouch and mother were in Brownwood Saturday.

A project asking for P.W.A. assistance to build an all-weather road for Pioneer school bus has been submitted and is expected to receive immediate attention, according to a district engineer in Pioneer this week. It was pointed out that the project is needed to give employment to some 240 men, who will complete their present project within the very near future. The project calls for culchic being placed over 12 miles of roadway, 60 feet wide.

Miss Zimrud Brooks left this week for a visit of several days in the home of her uncle near San Angelo.

Don't throw away the candles you use for decoration in the winter just because they have become soiled. They can be cleaned to look like new with a cloth saturated in alcohol.

Transfer of students here is expected to increase enrollment possibly 50 or 75. There is no danger of the local school being crowded, however, for there are several rooms not yet in permanent use.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Jones had as their guest here this week her brother E. C. Gantt, of Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Fred V. Tull and daughter are home of Mr. Tunnell, Leloland this week.

LIBERTY STARTS NEW SERIAL FRIDAY NIGHT DEPICTING OLD WEST

A great American frontiersman who brought the law and order to the savage west will live again at Liberty Theatre in Columbia's 15 chapter serial, "The Great Adventures of Wild Bill Hickok," which opens on Friday. The new film, offers a vivid picture of the westward drive of civilization in the United States after the Civil War, paying especial attention to the constant struggle of the advancing outpost of civilization to maintain them-selves against the dual menace of lawless renegade whites and vengeful, blood-crazed Indian savages. Gordon Elliott, for his resemblance to known portraits of the quick-shooting frontier peace officer, was selected by Columbia to portray Wild Bill Hickok. Important personages in the dramatic chapter picture are played by Carole Wayne, Frankie Darro, Monte Collins, Roscoe Ates, and Kenneth Duncan.

The two-gun marshal of Abilene, Kansas, sometimes called the toughest town in the world, is seen in characteristic examples of his daring and initiative, including the foiling of a plot to ruin the Texas cattle trade for which Abilene was an important terminus. A prairie fire, in which the plains become a fiery inferno for thirty miles, is but one of many dramatic incidents for which Columbia sent an expedition troupe from Hollywood to Utah to film realistic atmosphere.

Development Of Raws In Texas Would Bring More Money To Farmers; Report

set loose by the World War have reshaped international relations and embody a challenge for a broader approach to national and state planning.

"Less in the last four years of approximately $420,000,000 in outlets for the principal Texas crop may be traced to the steady and alarming expansion of cotton culture in competing foreign nations.

"In the light of the research chemist and physicist and of the wide-awake industrialist seeking new and cheap raw materials and markets for new products, the industrial development of Texas should steadily increase in accordance with market demand.

"A Texas, southwestern and mid-western market embracing a population of some 25,000,000 can well absorb a large volume of such new goods as will come into existence from a closer union between agriculture and industry through science and research."

Mrs. A. J. Mathis, Mrs. J. A. Alford and Miss Evelyn Alford visited in the home of Mrs. T. M. Mitchell at Hamilton Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson of El Centro, California, visited his parents Dr. and Mrs. R. Robertson and other relatives and friends here this week.

Some pertinent observations on the present and future of farming in Texas are given by Victor H. Schoffelmeyer, agricultural editor of The Dallas News, in an article in the current issue of Texas Parade.

"Probably the most significant movement destined to have a favorable effect on agriculture is that of farm chemistry," writes Mr. Schoffelmeyer. "It's aim is to provide new sources of income for farmers from sale of agricultural raw materials to industries. Since many of these raw materials are imported from abroad there might be employment for millions of acres of land now standing idle.

"Especially applicable is the chemurgic movement to Texas and the South because of the wide variety of farm products which the region may produce annually from cotton, corn, grain sorghums, rice and pines, to cattle hides wool, mohair, sulphur, natural gas, petroleum, lignite and limestone. All these might well be integrated in a comprehensive chemurgic program which will revolutionize Texas agriculture and balance its rural economy with new industries.

"Just as the past development of the state has been characterized by the growth of agriculture and stock raising, the next century will concern itself greatly with industry and manufacture. That does not mean a agriculture will fall into decay. On the contrary, they can be greatly aided by wise planning which will encourage needed industries based upon the logical use of the products of farms, ranch, orchard and forest.

"The time is here for a realignment of all factors which bear upon the commerce of Texas whether at home or abroad. Economic forces

FARM AUTHORITIES SAY NO PINK BOLL WORMS IN SECTION

Despite recurrent rumors there are no pink boll worms in this section, according to County Agent C. V. Robinson, of Coleman county and other agricultural authorities.

There are some pink appearing worms in the area, Robinson admits but they are not the real "pink boll worms"—the kind that do so much damage to the cotton crop.

While denying the presence of one type of worm, the Coleman county agent does not deny the presence of the boll worm, the army worm and the webworm.
