(SERVING THE LARGEST SHALLOW OIL FIELD ON EARTH)

Without offense to friends or foes we sketch Cross Plains exactly as it goes.

"When The One Great Scorer Comes To Write Against Your Name He Writes Not If You Won Or Lost But How You Played The Game"

Home Town Gossip

Jim Settle starts advertisements and football games the principal pastime you know that Fall has arrived. Tomorrow night at 8:15 the first gridiron clash is scheduled on the high school. Scranton Antelopes are the highly touted Desdemona Porkers. Then too, Jim has read already written for week's issue, so you may be that Autumn is not far in the distance.

Start the season off with our predictions, we pick the squad to win by a couple of runs. Coach Osborne Little of last year's power, including a little shift that caused much comment here last year. Let's all turn out and give our neighbors our moral support.

Calculations are now in order and Miller, Fort Hancock coach, who last week came to Plains and claimed one of our town's sweetest young men for his helpmate in life. To Maria Neeb, the bride, also a choice wish for many, years of marital bliss. Best wishes to Donald and Fannie.

It has never been the purpose of the city council to sermonize and such an intention now, however, at the time we have taken the liberty of suggesting what we think are worthwhile movements in the community. It appears from the fact that the city council, of commerce or business could post some type of order of arrest and conviction for those found guilty of thievery, or otherwise. Within recent weeks a wave of petty thievery has swept the entire state, and Plains has not been exempt from the plague.

The present set-up of officers does nothing in the way of pursuing a criminal. For instance, if Deputy W. A. Peterson travels to Texas to question a suspect and a lot of expenses of the kind out of his own pocket, in a time of reimbursement an officer get it the criminal's hand, even though small, serve to discourage petty as well as to compensate compensation is due.

A bit of talk has been going on here the past few days about new model automobiles are soon to make their appearance in local showrooms. E. A. Callahan is first to announce of the new car. He has a 1938 Chevrolet on display. F. R. Brown comes forward with news of a 1938 Chevrolet will be a beauty, and too there's the Ford coming out with the new brakes. J. C. Garrett makes improvements on the 1938 as well as Plymouths. One knows just when the field will have released their models, however, it's our belief they'll all be on display the Yankees have again copied the World's series. And that's all for now.

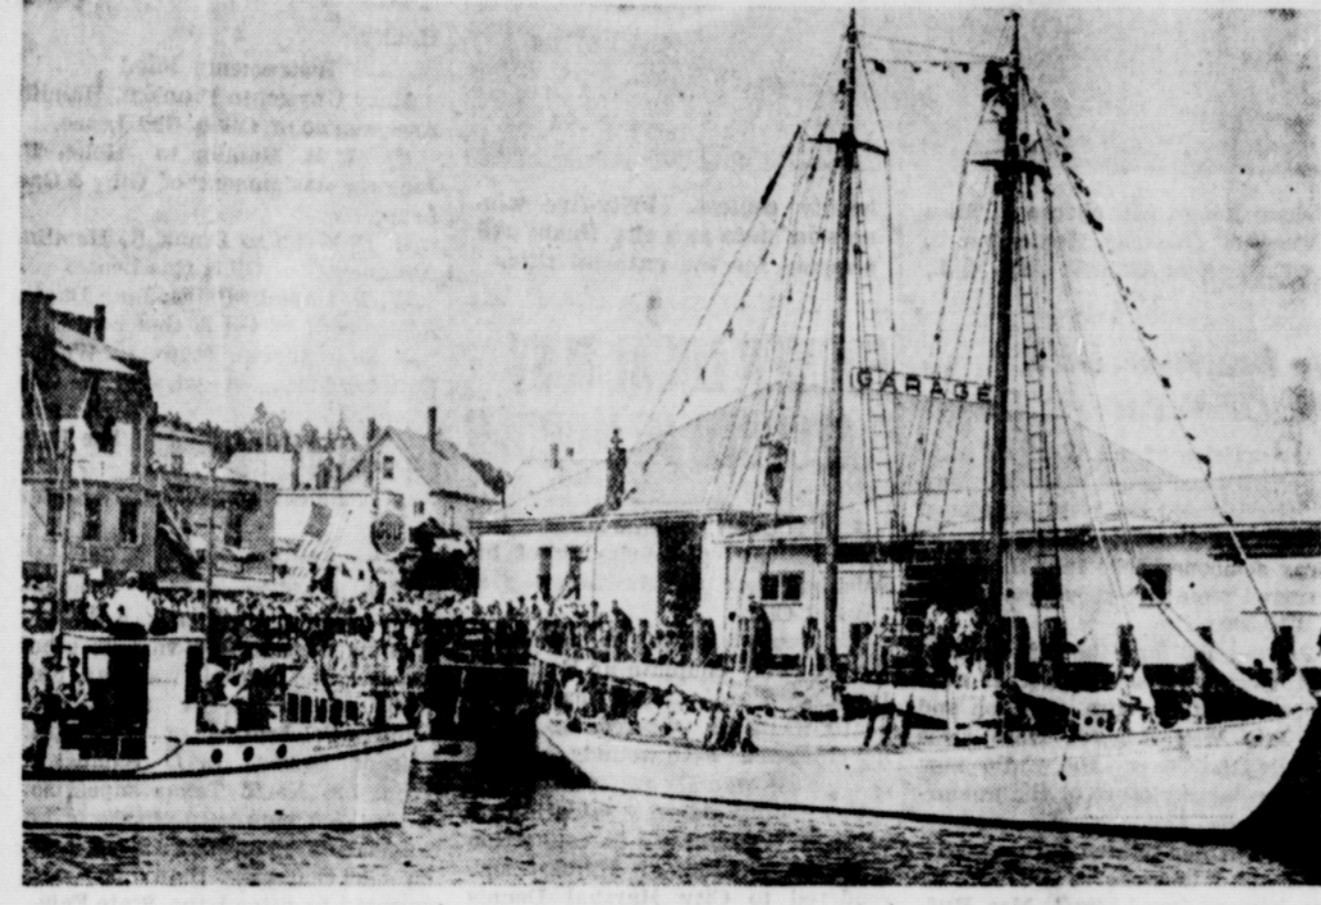

While we're panning members craft we might ask of "Doc" what he plans next to keep now of his town in public. Now he's found that Doug (Way) Corrigan has a relative in Rising Star and is heralding the fact to all. Some stout Doc, but as good as the one when the truck waited for the green light.

Mrs. J. H. Hunt, former Cross Plains, was guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robertson, of Longview, in the home of Mrs. Jesse here last week.

MacMillan Expedition Turns Back Home

Here is the schooner Bowdoin on which Capt. and Mrs. Donald R. MacMillan and a crew of 10 student-seamen sailed late in June from Boothbay Harbor, Me. The Bowdoin is expected back at her harbor tomorrow, Saturday September 10, after a 6,000 mile cruise to Baffin land, within 12 degrees of the North pole.

SCRANTON ANTELOPES DESDEMONA PORKERS MEET HERE FRIDAY

Heralding the arrival of another gridiron season, the Scranton Antelopes and the Desdemona Porkers will meet in pitched battle under the lights tonight on the Cross Plains football field. Carrying over from last season a fierce rivalry, the two elevens are expected to display plenty of football before the electricity is turned off.

With a brand new coach, eleven lettermen and several of last year's squadmen back, and a new and more modern system, the Antelopes expect to figure strongly in determining the champion of their class "C" district this year. Scranton fans are planning in great numbers to watch the initial test of the club and the players are imbued with a determination to live up to expectations, according to reports from that place.

The Porkers, former grid students of Mill White, erstwhile Cross Plains mentor, and now at Baird, will try for another record such as they attained under the tutelage of White—a season without a defeat. The Desdemona team sports beef and brawn and a willingness to use it to their advantage and their opponents' disadvantage.

The game will serve to whet local fans' appetites for the grid season that is here. A quarter will admit you to the battle ground.

CITY BUILDER DIES

F. M. GWIN

FORMER MAYOR OF CITY EXPIRES AT ODESSA SUNDAY

Masonic rites were held here Tuesday afternoon at interment services at the Cross Plains cemetery for F. M. Gwin, 52, former mayor and manager of the Chamber of Commerce of this city. The funeral was conducted in Odessa Tuesday morning at the Methodist church of that place. Dr. Tom W. Bradshaw, president of McMurry College and former pastor here, and Rev. H. D. Martin, pastor of the Methodist church in Odessa, were in charge.

Gwin apparently had been in excellent health. He went for a short automobile ride after lunch Sunday afternoon. A short while after he returned to his residence in Odessa, he succumbed from a heart attack. Gwin came to Cross Plains in November, 1918, to be in charge of a stock of dry goods and groceries. He later entered the grocery business for himself. He helped organize the first Chamber of Commerce here in 1921 and served as manager during the remainder of the time he was a resident of this place.

He was elected mayor in 1922, and served continuously until his resignation in 1927. He was a member of the school board here for a number of years.

His was an energetic and forceful leadership, in town building and making Cross Plains the oil center of this area, which will long be remembered.

He was the driving force in the campaign for a school building to replace the old structure, located near the cemetery and which had been condemned. A bond election carried and in the fall of 1927, classes were held in the present plant for the first time.

A member of the local Masonic order, he led a building program which culminated in the construction of the present Masonic building here. In 1928, as mayor, he supervised tests which resulted in Cross Plains' present source of water supply.

He resigned as mayor and manager-secretary of the Chamber of Commerce here in December, 1927, to become city manager of Pampa, Texas. He left that position in 1932 and traveled for a bonding company. In 1934, he was in charge of laying the mains for the municipal gas system. Later that year he accepted the secretary-managership of the Odessa Chamber of Commerce.

F. M. Gwin was born August 18, 1886, in Kansas.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Maxine Rushing of Odessa, and Mrs. Virgil Polk, of Corpus Christi, and two sisters, Mrs. Ettie Engleton, of Corpus Christi, and one whose name could not be learned.

Funeral bearers were: Jeff Clark, F. R. Anderson, T. S. Holden, Sr., J. L. Settle, J. A. McGowan, Joe Weller, C. H. Wright and Paul V. Harrell.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Gray visited in Colorado and other points.

GROWERS MEET HERE SCHOOL AUDITORIUM FRIDAY 3:30 O'CLOCK

Peanut growers and threshers in this area are urged to attend a meeting in Cross Plains Friday afternoon to discuss marketing of the 1938 goober crop.

The meeting will be held in the Cross Plains high school auditorium at 3:30 p. m., Friday, under the sponsorship of Callahan County Farm Agent Ross Brison, who will help in formulating plans to participate in stabilizing peanuts at the highest possible prices.

The Commercial Credit Corp., who last year entered the field and pegged goobers at 85c, fifteen cents over the market at that time, will try to repeat this year.

The Commercial Credit Corporation is backed by the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association, W. B. Starr, prominent Scranton farmer, is an official of the S.P.G.A.

Brison asked the Review to impress peanut growers with urgency of the meeting.

ZERO HOUR FOR DOVES APPROACHES

Local sportsmen are cleaning and oiling their shotguns in preparation for the opening of dove season next Thursday, September 15. The birds are present in great numbers in this area.

Hunters are warned to be familiar with laws governing shooting of doves before taking the field. Heavy fines cover violation of the rules.

A hunter may not shoot a bird before seven o'clock in the morning or after sundown in the afternoon. The bag limit is 15 doves per person in one day and not more than 15 in possession at one time. Hunting with rifles is forbidden. Shotguns must be used.

A hunter must not have a loaded gun in his car. He may not shoot from his automobile or from his car. If he is hunting with an automatic, it must be sealed to prevent the gun from firing more than three shells.

If a huntsman leaves his home county to bag doves he must buy a license. They may be secured locally from the Cross Plains Hardware company.

Cross Plains residents may hunt in Callahan county without a license.

NEW POSTAL SET-UP SATISFACTORY THINKS POSTMASTER BROWN

Patrons of the local Post Office seem to be well pleased with the new set-up, according to Willis Brown, postmaster. Since service began in the new building last Thursday, September 1, box holders have had very little trouble finding and opening their boxes. "Naturally there was quite a bit of confusion the first day," Brown said.

Only a specially constructed building could be more suitable for postal service, thinks the postmaster. The location, Main and Eighth Streets, is a central position, convenient to every one. The new place is cooler and has a better natural lighting than the old one. Clerks have more room in which to do their work.

WHEELS, TIRES AND TUBES STOLEN IN THEFT FRIDAY

Automobile wheels, tires and tubes were stolen from cars belonging to Dee Little and Robert Rutledge and from the City Wrecking Company here Friday night. Officers are working on the case but have not made any arrests.

No arrests have been made in the robbery of the J. N. Wilkinson home at Putnam. Stolen were automobile accessories, tires and tubes.

DEATH CLAIMS LONG TIME BURKETT MAN

Funeral services for John Strickland, 50, long time resident of Burkett, were held Sunday afternoon, September fourth, from the community tabernacle at Burkett. Final rites were conducted by Rev. J. D. Farmer, pastor of the Methodist church.

Death came unexpectedly to Strickland at his home in Coleman Saturday morning, caused by heart attack. He had not been ill.

"IDOL OF CROWDS" FILLED WITH ACTION

Hollywood believes the most important ingredient of a good motion picture is action. Many other ingredients are necessary. There must be youth, beauty, talent, plot, sparkling sets, good photography, careful direction, but unless the story moves swiftly it misses fire.

A good example of an action picture is "Idol of the Crowds" opening at the Liberty Theatre on Thursday. There is action from the opening scene, which presents a surprise introduction.

The scene in which two racing taxicabs smash into one another and career across a sidewalk into a building is breath-taking. The scenes at the roller skating rink, and the later and more spectacular scenes at the ice hockey rink, thrill with action.

"Paradise For Three" Liberty Picture For Tuesday; Wednesday

If you're a millionaire and ever wished for the simple things of life . . . or if you're not quite so wealthy and have longed for the luxuries—then you'll enjoy "Paradise for Three", which comes to the Liberty Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday. This is a comedy placed in the Alps . . . and up there in the snow you'll find Robert Young and Florence Rice, who pleased you recently in "Navy Blue and Gold." With them you will see Frank Morgan, Mary Astor, Edna May Oliver, Reginald Owen, Henry Hull and Herman Bing.

Frank Morgan appears as a wealthy capitalist eager for a holiday. Yielding to a whim, he goes to the Alps as a poor man while his butler, played by Owen, poses as the rich one. Young appears on the scene in search of a job and is mistaken for a man of power and position. The three men form a friendship and the fun begins when Mary Astor arrives to vamp all of them.

There is a charming romantic story in the background between Young and Miss Rice. But the fun that a rich man has being poor—and the high delights of a poor man being rich—are enough to provide a wealth of comedy for everyone.

Mrs. N. E. Grisham and daughter Miss Yona and Mr. and Mrs. Wyle Grisham and son and daughter of Colorado were visitors in Weatherford and Fort Worth Wednesday and Thursday.

Dodson Visits Home of Pawnee Bill, Scout And Showman Of Western Days

How many of you folks remember Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show of years gone by? Well, here I am today in the town that was named for him.

Pawnee is a town of about 3,000 population. It has a large, modern courthouse. There remain lots of the old marks of the old rodeo-festivals, two-gun cowboy days. There are still lots of the old Indian Chiefs, with hair platted and hanging down their backs.

His real name is Major Gordon W. Little, but most people know him as "Pawnee Bill". Starting out many years ago with a dog and pony show he built one of the largest wild west shows on the road, and boy, how we kids would pick cotton in order to go to Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show, when it came through Texas.

I have just been out to his estate to which he has now retired. It is situated on a high hill, about a mile west of the town of Pawnee. At the foot of the hill is a large stone arch with the inscription, "Pawnee Bill's Buffalo Ranch." You follow a winding road up the hill to his large and beautiful home. It is built of natural red rock quarried from the ranch.

When I arrived everything was quite. I had almost decided that no one was there and the small dogs that came from the rear of the house were about to get me when a woman came to my rescue. I found that she was Mrs. Nellie Ruffner, who has been nurse and housekeeper for the Gordons since 1899. With friendliness not often found in strange places, she showed me around the interesting home. Pawnee Bill has many relics of the old west, including hats, boots and Cornelius Elliott will leave for Abilene, Monday afternoon to enroll in Abilene Christian College.

The county attorney said Halbert made a statement in connection with the shooting. Halbert surrendered to City Marshal Dennis Oden soon after the shooting.

The accused man and his wife had been estranged. Records in the district clerk's office revealed Halbert had filed suit for divorce.

JOAN CRAWFORD SPENCER TRACY ARE CO-STARRED

Joan Crawford, who is romanced on the screen with Clark Gable, Robert Taylor, Robert Montgomery, Gary Cooper and other famous film heroes, adds rugged, two-fisted Spencer Tracy, to her long list in "Mannequin," which co-stars them for the first time. The new film opens at the Liberty Theatre Sunday for a showing of two days.

Frank Borzage directed the swift moving story of modern young people against a background of New York's grimy tenements and multi-millionaire's penthouses from the pen of Katherine Brush, author of "Young Man of Manhattan."

Miss Crawford as Jessie Cassidy has the role of a shop girl who seeks escape from poverty by marrying Eddie Miller, a cheap crook. Eddie is played by Alan Curtis, Hollywood's newest leading man discovery. When Eddie fails her, Jessie decides to live her own life. John L. Hennessy, a role which gives Tracy a powerful characterization as a man who worked his way up from the docks to become a wealthy steamship owner, refuses to let her.

Jessie marries Hennessy. She learns to love him when Eddie attempts to blackmail them. His plan fails because Hennessy goes broke. This gives Jessie the chance to prove her love in a surprising and dramatic climax.

Never more beautifully gowned, Miss Crawford has twenty-eight costume changes, designed by Adrian as an advance fashion preview of feminine styles for 1938.

In prominent featured roles are Ralph Morgan, Mary Phillips, Oscar O'Shea, Elizabeth Risdon and Leo Gorcey.

A highlight of the new picture is Miss Crawford's singing of "Always and Always," a haunting melody of the torch-song type, which was especially written for the star by Edward Ward, with lyrics by Bob Wright and Chet Forrest.

County Agent's Column

County Fair News

Nineteen 4-H Club boys have sent in cards stating they would bring 28 exhibits of crops and poultry to the fair that will be held in Baird September 24 in the Hall building.

Dr. Griswold of Clyde plans to bring a battery of 8 white leghorn pullets to the fair.

H. E. Clemmer of Lanham has brought to the county agent's office 20 nice heads of maize that will be entered in the general agriculture exhibit.

A bit of color to the fair will be a display of flowers by the local garden club of which Mrs. W. Clyde White is president.

It is expected that a nice display of Cornish chickens and possibly other breeds of chickens will be shown by Dr. Vera L. Martin of Clyde.

Meetings of the 9 boys' 4-H Clubs comprising 150 boys will be held in the near future. At those meetings the group will be shown how to select articles for display at fairs. These exhibits can later be used for seed.

Although the cotton crop in Callahan County and the State in general is disappointing, the county is harvesting the best feed crop in years. This fact is brought out more clearly as one drives through the county and notices the enormous stacks of feed being put up.

Good yields of wheat, oats, barley, corn, and grain sorghums are on hand at almost every farm. Most farmers are planning to save a part of this feed for 1939. A part of it will be used this year as feed for some kind of livestock. The rations listed below are suggested in Extension Service bulletins as being all right:

For Poultry: (Laying hens) Milo meal—100 lbs.; Ground wheat—230 lbs.; ground oats—100 lbs.; meat scraps—100 lbs.; oyster shell, 10 lbs.; salt—5 lbs. Green feed should be available.

For Hogs: Corn, grain sorghum, wheat, or barley—90 lbs.; cottonseed meal—5 lbs.; tankage—5 lbs. green feed should be available.

For Dairy Cows: cottonseed—75 lbs.; yellow corn meal—100 lbs.; wheat shorts—100 lbs.; wheat bran 100 lbs.; and ground oats—100 lbs.

Peanut Growers Advised To Hold Peanuts

Thirty-five Callahan county growers representing the peanut growing sections of the county heard W. R. Starr of Seranton, manager of the Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association, explain that a peanut marketing program in 1938 was expected to be in effect as was the case in 1937. Last year the association, by buying 112 tons of surplus peanuts, was credited with holding the price of peanuts to about 85 cents per bushel. Before the buying was put into effect the price was 65 to 70 cents per bushel, Starr explained. If the 1939 crop report shows that a burdensome surplus, as shown by the September 8th crop estimate, will be produced in 1938, immediate steps will be taken to set up the machinery to hold the price depressing surplus so the price to growers may be as satisfactory as it was in 1937.

Blind staggers is caused by a virus which may be transmitted by mosquitoes, flies, and other blood-sucking insects. It is therefore advisable to stable work animals when not working them, and in every way to protect them against insects, Snyder said.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Tucker visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cason last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Franze Freeman of Coleman visited relatives here last Sunday.

Just before his recent death, C. C. Neeb wrote and handed the following poem to his wife with the request that it be read at his funeral.

I'LL SLIP AWAY

By C. C. NEEB

Sometime in the midst of work undone, O, I will fade with the setting Sun. I'll drop my pen and sink in the west With a last deep sigh from a heaving breast.

Sometime I'll tire of the weary race, And turn with a smile my God to face— As evening shadows spread o'er the land I'll go to the one who will understand.

I hope there'll be violets in bloom As my spirit leaves its earthly room. I hope the day will be clear and fair, So all of my friends can be gathered there.

Sometime in the midst of weary strife, I'll let go of mysterious life And slip away to a lonely dell Where the moments are bright and all is well.

'Twill be on a busy working day That I'll close my book and slip away. I'll just leave cares and duties behind And wander alone my maker to find.

On a rosy, sun-kissed day I'll go Waving a hand to the friends I know, Bidding them all a loving good bye As I fade away in the smiling sky.

Sometime, in the midst of problems great My soul will no longer hesitate. 'Twill leave this suffering mortal sod To search for and live in its home with God.

When the hour is fair, and hearts delight, When the sky is touched with colors bright, As Sunshine fades from the dying day, Then I'll close my eyelids and slip away.
