

Hearing On County Jail Slated Today In Austin

Callahan County officials have been notified that the county jail in Baird has violations that make the 80-year-old facility unsafe and unsuitable for use as a jail.

Robert O. Viterna, Executive Director of the Texas Commission on Jail Standards, has notified Callahan County Judge Mack Kniffen and Sheriff Bill Skinner have been invited to attend and to present data concerning continued operation of the Callahan County Jail at meeting in Austin Wednesday (today). County Attorney Bob McCool and Commissioner Jiggs Shackelford also plan to make the trip.

A letter was mailed to Judge Kniffen and dated June 7 about the hearing by Viterna and Inspector Bob Dearing. A portion of that notification was reported to have read as follows.

"The Callahan County Jail was inspected on May 4, 1982. Violations continue to exist that create an unsafe and unsuitable jail.

"As a party to any proceeding involving Callahan County Jail matters, you and Sheriff Skinner are invited to attend the meeting of the Texas Commission on Jail Standards at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday, June 23, 1982, Room 206, Texas Law Center, 1414 Colorado, Austin, Texas. At that meeting you will be given the opportunity to present facts and information bearing on the continued operation of the Callahan County Jail."

The following article written by Marilyn Hawk, staff writer for the Abilene Reporter-News, appeared in the Sunday, June 20, edition of that daily paper.

BAIRD — Callahan County officials will appear before the Texas Commission on Jail Standards Wednesday to discuss 10 violations of state jail standards found in a May 4 inspection, County Judge Mack Kniffen said Friday.

Violations ranged from improper administrative procedures to lack of an exercise area for inmates, according to the jail inspection report.

However, Sheriff Bill Skinner said that most of the violations in the 80-year-old jail have been corrected or arrangements are being made to correct them.

Kniffen said county officials will wait until after the Wednesday meeting to act on the most expensive violation to correct — building an exercise area for inmates. When the exercise area is built, a second exit will be added to the jail, Kniffen said, correcting another violation found in the May 4 inspection.

Preliminary estimates for building the exercise area and exit are about $7,000, the county judge said.

Corrections already have been made on the three administrative procedures found in violation of jail standards, he said. Administrative violations included improper forms for inmates' medical history; lack of receipts for prisoners' expenditures and lack of receipts for prisoners' property, according to inspector Bob Dearing's report.

Two other violations, light fixtures within reach of female inmates and a lack of fresh first aid supplies, are being corrected at a cost of $355, Skinner said.

Space Capers blastoff each Wednesday through July 14 under command of the Beta Sigma Phi.

Thundershowers Remain To Slow Wheat Harvest

Thundershowers continue to roam over the Cross Plains area every few days keeping the wheat harvest in this area at a crawl.

Thundershowers, ranging to storms in some sections, struck this area early Saturday morning, and returned again early Monday morning further delaying the harvest.

Some small grain was combined and marketed last week, but none in this immediate area since Friday due to wet fields. Observers in the locality estimate possible 70 per cent of the wheat has been cut, but grade and yield have suffered during the past several days because of the moisture and weeds in the grain.

One buyer was reported to have sold some of the wheat he handled first of the season, was the best he had ever seen in this area, but some of that he handled last week was about the poorest.

Cross Plains handlers were paying $3.40 and $3.35 per bushel on Tuesday.

Rainfall varied greatly over the Cross Plains area during the week end, but no storm damage was reported. Coleman residents sustained heavy damage during an early-morning storm Saturday. Larry Franke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Franke of this community, and his wife and two children, Monica, 8, and Luke, 2, escaped injury but their home about a mile northeast of Coleman sustained heavy damage. The family got in a closet at the home when hail golfball size or larger began breaking windows and winds blew others out.

The storm which struck about 5 to 5:30 a.m. Saturday, heavily damaged the family home's roof and floors, pulled a porch away from the house slightly, and shattered windshields and other windows in three vehicles.

Cross Plains got 1.50 inches of rain from the two showers, 1.00 inch on Saturday and another .50 on Monday morning.

More than twice that amount was recorded at Cross Cut in the two showers. Ron Bagley reported 1.80 inches early Saturday and another 1.30 on Monday morning, a total of 3.10 inches. Mrs. N. V. Gibbs, Review correspondent in the Rowden community, also reported that the week end rainfall totaled over three inches.

Charles Payne, who lives midway between here and Burkett reported 2.25 inches on Saturday, but no report was received first of the week.

Other area gauges showed 1.35 inches at the Alton Tatom place in the Atwell community with 1.10 falling on Saturday and .25 on Monday; 1.10 inches on Saturday and .30 on Monday at the W. R. (Pat) Erwin place at Sabanno; J. T. Beggs farm at Pioneer 1.50 and .80 on Saturday and Monday respectively, and 1.30 to 2.25 on Saturday in the Cottonwood sector and .75 of an inch at the Wayne Brown home there Monday.

Total rainfall for the month of June at noon Tuesday stood at 2.80 inches in Cross Plains and aggregate for the year was 15.50 inches.

JUNIOR HIGH TWIRLERS—Nine students from Cross Plains Junior High School were participants in the Big Country Front Line Camp for baton twirlers, flag corps and drum majors held on the campus of Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene June 7-11. Approximately 275 youngsters were on hand for the five-day clinic. The camp was conducted by Southwest Camps of Cisco, with Eris Ritchie as camp director. Baton twirlers were taught by a six-member staff of twirling experts from Florida, Texas and Arizona, headed by Ken Sasser of the International Twirling Teachers Institute in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Drum majors were given instruction by Bob Lovett of Brownfield, a band director and former drum major at Texas Tech U. Flag Corps girls were taught by a staff directed by Maggie McCormick of Ruston, La., former flag corps director at the University of Houston. Pictured in the photograph, left to right, are Beverly Weiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Weiss; Ticia Wilson, head twirler and daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Wilson, Dana Phillips, drum major and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Phillips; Denise Flippin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flippin, and Shae Pancake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Pancake. Also attending the camp from Cross Plains but not pictured were Laura Holley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dominey; Lynn Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Reeves; Melody Walker, daughter of Lavelde Walker, and Robin Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Johnston.

Big Lake Man Is Named Citizens Bank Officer

James C. Garrett of Big Lake will begin his duties at the Citizens State Bank in Cross Plains as a vice-president effective Thursday, July 1.

W. G. (Wimpy) McCoy, president of the bank, said, "We are fortunate to have a man with the experience that James has to join us at Citizens State Bank," in announcing the appointment. He added, "We look forward to James' coming and the additional service and experience he can render to our customers."

McCoy also noted that Garrett is filling a staff vacancy created by the recent resignation of Bettie Cavanaugh, who left her position to devote full time as a home maker. She had held various positions in the bank structure, and had been a vice-president in the loan division for the past several months.

Garrett, who was born and reared on a farm in Jones County, and his wife, Doris, who was reared in Shackelford County, want to get acquainted and become friends with the people of Cross Plains and the area served by the bank as quickly as possible. Serving in the Army Air Corps in Europe as a gunner on a flying crew of a bomber, Garrett later attended John Tarleton State University, the University of Texas and Hardin-Simmons University receiving a degree in business administration from the latter.

Work experience includes about two years as office manager-accountant for an interstate motor freight company, about three years as office-manager accountant for an oil well drilling firm in Midland and about 15 years in banking as executive vice-president, president and chairman of the board of a small country bank. Most recently he served as vice-president and loan officer of Reagan State Bank of Big Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett have five children, the youngest of which has just graduated from Reagan County High School. Noting they are anxious to get settled here, he says his interests are antique cars and football and his hobby is "watching Doris work in the garden." Mrs. Garrett says her interests are basketball, all sports and shopping at malls.

Financially Hurting EMS Gets New Co-Ordinators

The Cross Plains Emergency Medical Service met June 7 to install new members to the Executive Committee and install new Co-Ordinators for the ensuing year.

Wilma Lawrence and W. G. McCoy were the out-going co-ordinators, and the E.M.S. membership expressed thanks for a job well done.

New members named to the Executive Committee are Billie Norton and Les Cowan. New Co-Ordinators are Paula Kelley and Sharon Reed.

The E.M.S. had a regular business meeting after the installation of officers, and were informed that the service is having some difficulty in collecting on ambulance runs. At this time there are 31 persons in the Cross Plains area owing the E.M.S. $2,313.50, according to Sandy Callaway, reporter for the organization. Officers and other members of the E.M.S. are asking these persons to please pay their bill.

"Cross Plains needs the ambulance service, and at present time we are barely meeting expenses," said Mrs. Callaway. "We are sure on the part of most of these persons, it is an oversight, while some may just not have the money," she continued. She added, however, that the E.M.S. will accept monthly payments on the delinquent bills if there is no other way. "Our bookkeeper, like all the other people working on the ambulance, donates her time, so all of this requires more of her time," Mrs. Callaway points out.

All officers and members of the Emergency Medical Service said "thank you" to the people who have supported us in the past and hope you will continue to do so.

State Capital HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

The rich just keep getting richer—or so it seemed in Houston recently when Gov. Bill Clements set a new record for raising the most money at a single fundraiser.

The Republican governor, who is seeking his second four-year term, took in $3.5 million at his $1,000-per-plate shindig that was attended by not only President Ronald Reagan but former President Gerald Ford and three former Texas governors.

Clements broke his own previous record of $2.9 million in campaign loot gathered in one event.

The Dallas Republican probably will put every cent of the $3.5 million to good use since he is expected to spend some $10 million in this re-election bid.

Among the 3,200 persons in attendance were former Texas governors Allan Shivers, John Connally, and Preston Smith, all of whom have endorsed Clements for re-election.

And while the Republicans were enjoying champagne, Texas Democrats were feasting on hotdogs and beer at a cross town gathering that was not quite as auspicious as the GOP gathering.

The $5-per-person Democratic affair was organized by Harris County Democrats in order to point out some of the differences between the two parties.

While President Reagan tried to convince the Republicans that his economic program isn't to blame for the current recession, the Democrats were hearing Harris County Commissioner Squatty Lyons explain his longevity in office.

Lady Justice

Texas will have its first woman holding a permanent position on the State Supreme Court—at least for six months.

Gov. Clements has appointed Houston Judge Ruby Sondock to fill the Supreme Court vacancy left when Justice James Denton died of a heart attack.

The only other time a woman has served on the high court was in the 1920's when Gov. Pat Neff appointed three women to hear a single case in which the members of the all-male court had disqualified themselves.

Sondock will serve until January, when the remainder of Denton's term expires.

Denton had won re-election to the court by beating fellow Democrat Bill Kilgarlin in the May 1 primary. There is no Republican in the race.

The state Democratic organization will now pick a nominee to replace Denton on the ballot, and that nominee is expected to be Kilgarlin.

Democratic Party Chairman Bob Slagle congratulated Sondock, a Democrat, on her appointment and said he was "not surprised by Gov. Clements' sudden sensitivity to women since he is running for re-election."

However, Slagle let Clements know that the Democrats plan to pick their own candidate.

Bell Rate Hike

Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. has announced its is prepared to ask for another rate hike from the Public Utility Commission.

Those who thought Bell just raised their rates are right. The PUC granted a $244 million rate hike for Bell last year.

But that increase, the company says, just wasn't enough. This year's request is expected to be roughly equal to what the company sought in 1981—$470 million.

The increase, which will be officially filed soon, will be the sixth sought by the telephone company in as many years.

The proposal will seek to increase rates for local service without affecting long distance charges.

Alien Education

The U. S. Supreme Court has struck down the Texas law allowing local school districts to charge tuition to children of illegal aliens, and some officials are predicting the ruling could result in $50 to $60 million in additional costs.

Officials of school districts along the Texas-Mexico border in South and West Texas say they fear that the court decision, coupled with the poor economic condition south of the border, could result in a new wave of illegal aliens coming to Texas.

Some officials have said as many as 30,000 students could be added to the school rolls because of the ruling.

Other officials, including U. S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen and Texas Attorney General Mark White, have indicated that, if the federal government thinks those children should have a free education, the federal government should pick up the tab for it.

Spokesmen for Mexican-American groups, on the other hand, say they are "very happy and ecstatic" over the decision.

Border Dispute

Another U. S. high court ruling has stirred little debate.

The court recently decided that the border between Texas and Oklahoma should stay where it has always been—the south bank of the Red River.

It had been suggested that the boundary be changed at Lake Texoma, which is located on the Red River, so that the Texas boundary would be the south shore of the lake.

However, Texans weren't willing to give up that small bit of land, even though it's covered with water.

Burkett News Items

By Freeda Burkett

Mildred Jennings announces the annual meeting of the Smith Cemetery this Saturday, June 26 at 10 a.m. and everyone is invited to attend. In case of bad weather the meeting will be at the Burkett Community Center.

We have been blessed with a lot of rain the past two weeks with no hail or other bad weather conditions. We are sympathetic toward those in other places, especially Coleman, hit hard by high winds and tornadoes.

Mrs. C. C. Evans and girls of Dublin visited Mrs. Ora Evans Sunday.

Mrs. Doyle Burchfield of Cross Plains visited Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Burkett Sunday evening.

The Bill Walker family were in Carbon Sunday evening visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Collin Campbell, and her sister and family.

The Burkett School Homecoming Sunday a week ago was probably one of the best attended, at least in a long time. We mentioned in this column last week that further details would be printed this week.

Following a bountiful dinner everyone spent an hour or more visiting. Classmates got together and everyone just enjoyed being together again after being separated so many years.

During a short business meeting there was an election of officers for the next meeting to replace the present officials, Wayne Harris, president; Arthur Boyle, vice president and Lovera Strickland, secretary-treasurer. Loraine Golson was elected as our new president, William C. Henderson, vice president and Betty Sue Cavanaugh secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be the second Sunday in June 1985.

end with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Strickland.

The following news item was intended to be included in the Burkett News last week, but was overlooked by the Review staff when arranging the news last week.

Lucille Cross, secretary-treasurer of the Burkett Community Center, reports a $383 donation from the Burkett Ex-Student Association.

Since so much of the money was in each, it would be impossible to acknowledge all of those who gave, but, we wish to express our gratitude for this generous gift.

'Prepare For Nuclear War' Concerned Urges

Editor's Note: A concerned citizen of this area authored the following article concerning nuclear warfare and likelihood of survival in the Cross Plains area if adequate steps are taken. The item was reportedly researched for truthful facts.

I am sure that you have heard about the nuclear armaments race and of President Reagan's planned talks to the Soviet leaders about disarmament. I am going to tell you a side that directly relates to you and will possibly aid you to survive the unthinkable, a nuclear war.

First, I will give you the facts. We live within a 50 mile radius of a possible bombing sight. Dyess Air Force Base in Abilene is a SAC (Strategic Air Command) base. It is possible that nuclear warheads are stored in underground silos.

Although we are within the fallout radius, we do have a chance. It is said that the present nuclear bombs are much larger than those which fell on Hiroshima and Nagasaki in World War II. People did survive those attacks. A bomb that is 50 times as powerful as those that fell on Hiroshima and Nagasaki would cause less than four times the damage. The initial damage would most likely not harm us as much as we have been led to expect. It is doubtful that we will suffer any of the feared firestorms for lack of highly concentrated combustible materials. We will however experience something similar to an earthquake tremor and possibly some nuclear fallout. In the next paragraphs, I will explain what nuclear fallout is and how you can protect yourself and your family from it.

Nuclear fallout is the particles of radioactivity which is carried in the air after a nuclear explosion. There are three types of this radioactivity; alpha, beta, and gamma rays.

Alpha particles are helium nuclei. They usually travel only a few inches and are most likely harmless to us being many miles away. A few sheets of ordinary paper will easily stop them. Once stopped, they go through a process known as ionization and become helium atoms. After a time they become helium and are no longer dangerous.

Beta particles are electrons emitted from certain radioactive atoms. They may travel a few yards, under ordinary conditions, before being stopped. They may be stopped by half an inch of wood or by less thicknesses of more dense materials. They, too, go through the process of ionization and become harmless once stopped.

Gamma rays, the third type of radioactivity, are particles of electromagnetic energy released from certain radioactive nuclei when they disintegrate. These dangerous rays travel indefinite distances. A sheet of iron about one-half of an inch thick will stop about 50 per cent of most gamma rays. Water that is nine inches deep or lead that is one-half of an inch thick will do about the same. Gamma rays lose their energy by colliding with atoms, so the denser the material between you and them, the safer you will be. Three feet of earth stops virtually all radiation.

Gamma rays and X-rays, commonly used in medicine, are the same thing. In nuclear fallout, the gamma rays are uncontrolled and are numerous. This can be dangerous to your body if you stop the gamma rays. When they pass through your body, they produce ionization in the tissue. Only large amounts of this radiation are dangerous to your health.

If you want to be a survivor, you must decide now. The Soviet Union has already decided that it wants to survive. Their government has provided for the civilian citizens of that nation. They have prepared the ultimate defense in case of nuclear attack. They have an excellent defense. Because of their foresight, they will lose only eight per cent of the civilian population. The United States, on the other hand, will lose over half of her population, civilian and military alike. Those people who have not spent our tax money wisely and to benefit the people will be safe and comfortable in their own shelters, while we will presumably have been killed.

There is still hope for us. Nuclear holocaust has not yet occurred. We need to stand strong as a whole. Not only do we need to hold our nuclear armaments, but we need also to arm ourselves with a proper civil defense. Nuclear disarmament would simply unarm us to the coming events and leave us totally open to communistic aggression.

If we chose to hear our last warning, we will certainly arm ourselves with a good civil defense. This does not only consist of a protective fallout shelter, it also provides for food, medical supplies, and doctors. We will have to return to the lifestyle which the settlers of this great nation enjoyed. They had no electricity, imported foods, grocery stores, cars, or gasoline, but they did have their freedom. This lifestyle may seem quite grim to us, in our spoiled sense of false security, but consider the alternative of living under Soviet rule and being persecuted for religion and nationality. I think you will agree that the free way of life that our ancestors lived is quite beautiful.

Thank you, A concerned Citizen.

Operator To Terminate Hospital Lease Sept. 15

Callahan County General Hospital at Baird will cease to operate effective September 15, 1982, unless plans to the contrary can be formulated between now and then.

At meeting in Baird June 14, the non-profit organization, which is a part of Hendrick Medical Center and is currently operating the facility, Rural Hospital Management, Inc., informed Callahan Commissioners of the intention to terminate the lease effective September 15, 1982.

Michael Waters, president of Hendrick Medical Center, advises that the lease is being terminated through Item 10 of the lease agreement which was signed less than a year ago and became effective September 24, 1981.

Nine major items were listed to be corrected or provided if the hospital were to continue receiving Medicare funds.

A subsidy to be paid by the county was also suggested as a means of continued operation.

County Judge Mack Kniffen said that subsidy and cost of improvements would total about $188,000, explaining, "We do not have that kind of money and could not spend it without approval by citizens if we did." Subsidy cost was estimated at $10,000-$12,000 monthly.

Judge Kniffen said also that search is being made for other organizations interested in operating the hospital, but "no prospects" have been found to date.

The letter of intent to terminate lease agreement follows.

"It is with regret that the lease agreement entered into by and between Callahan County and Rural Hospital Management, Inc., on the 24th day of September, 1981 for the operation of Callahan County General Hospital must be terminated in accordance with Item "10" page 4-6 of the lease agreement:

TO WIT: "10" — Notwithstanding any provision hereof, it is understood and agreed that Lessee shall have the right to terminate this lease agreement and all further obligations hereunder, if and in the event hospital patient occupancy of the leased premises should average fewer than fifteen (15) patients per day for any period of sixty (60) days or more." . . . In any such event, Lessee shall notify, Lessor in writing of its intention and giving Lessor at least ninety (90) days prior notice as to the effective date of the termination and the cessation of operations.

"This notice shall have an effective date of June 15, 1982, and shall run for a period of 90 days with cessation of operation of the hospital by Rural Hospital Management, Inc. on September 15, 1982."

Also listed were nine areas in which Medicare deficiencies were found, which follow:

1. Radiology room fails to comply with current standards for lead shielding.

2. Portable X-ray unit fails to comply with current standards for retaining radiation exposure to other than the area being x-rayed. The machine is antiquated and beyond repair due to unavailability of parts replacement.

3. Radiology room equipment (stationary equipment):

—The X-ray unit transformer is housed outside the building making exposure to natural elements a problem.

—The stationary unit will require major repairs to include a new X-ray tube.

4. Retile patient rooms and hallways.

5. Refurbish all beds and furniture to comply with infection control standards.

6. Automatic sprinkler system is not provided for this wood frame building.

7. Corridors are used as return air plenums.

8. There is only one set of emergency equipment. The hospital must have at least two complete sets in order to assure availability.

9. The utilization of a free standing mobile type (trailer) building as the storage site for closed medical records is not an acceptable manner of preserving such records. The problem is not an acceptable manner of preserving such records. The problem is increased by the use of open wood shelving to house the files.

Estimated correction cost of deficiencies found in the radiology department were $24,333. To re-tile the hallways it would cost an estimated $12,000, for the second set of emergency equipment another $6,000 would be required. Amounts were not listed immediately for bringing other deficiencies into compliance with Medicare requirements.

S-Security Aid Less For Care Of Child

According to Glyn Hammons, Social Security District Manager in Abilene, a mother or father who gets Social Security benefits because he or she is caring for a child who is receiving benefits on the work record of a retired, disabled, or deceased worker should be aware of the changes in the law that affect such benefits.

A parent who became entitled to such benefits after August 1981 will receive them until the child is 16, not 18 as under the old law unless the child is disabled. Benefits to the child will generally continue until he or she reaches 18 or marries. Benefits to disabled children continue so long as the disability continues.

A parent who was getting benefits in August 1981 or before because she or he was caring for a child under 18 will continue to get benefits until the child reaches 18, marries, or through August 1983, whichever comes first.

A mother or father who has a child who is disabled should be sure to notify Social Security of the disability prior to the child's 16th birthday. At that time, a determination of disability may assure that the child's benefit will continue beyond age 18 and so long as the child remains disabled. The parent's benefit can continue as long as the child gets benefits because he or she is disabled.

When benefits were first paid to a surviving mother in 1940, the benefits was viewed as a means of helping the mother stay at home with the young children during their formative years. The labor force participation for married women was 17 per cent in 1940, compared with over 47 per cent today. And most women are likely to go back to work once the child enters school.

For questions about how the new law may affect your benefits as a parent, you should call the nearest Social Security office. The Abilene office is located at 142 S. Pioneer. The telephone number is (915) 698-1360.

Diets Don't Work Group Meets Here On Tuesday

Editor's Note: A member of the Diets Don't Work Support Group penned the following article explaining briefly its workings, its being in Cross Plains and way to join. The item follows.

The Diets Don't Work Support Group was inspired and started by Bob Swartz, who is the author of the book "Diets Don't Work." The goals of the book and of the Support Group are as follows:

(1) To prove that diets don't work, (2) To teach you a method of losing weight without dieting (3) To end overweight as a problem in your life once and for all (4) To discover why you haven't been able to lose weight and keep it off in the past, (5) To discover what specifically holds you back from having your body exactly the way you want it to be, and what you are willing to do to break through these things, and (6) Develop a new relationship with yourself, a new self-image based on being a naturally thin person.

It involves a transformation not only of your body, but of your entire attitude toward yourself and your life.

Through Swartz's research he's discovered that diets don't work, and they are really designed to fail. It's not you or your lack of will power that's the problem. The failure rate of diets and weight-loss programs is 99.5 per cent (one out of 200 is successful).

The Washington Post reports out of every 200 people who go on a diet, only 10 lose all the weight they set out to lose, and of those 10, only one keeps it off for any reasonable length of time. If you and 199 other people were crossing a river full of alligators, and one out of every 200 made it across, you probably would not take a chance on something with that low of a success per cent; especially when the risk is so high. Yet, so many times we have committed ourselves to dieting in hope of finding the diet that will really work for us. We get caught up in a cycle of dieting and failure. Each time the disappointment intensifies, and it becomes harder to get motivated for the next diet.

The support group meets Tuesday night at the Multi-Purpose Center. We are working through the book together and sharing our experiences and discoveries. Swartz has also shared some insights from the Diets Don't Work Seminar, which is held in many of the major cities, including Dallas.

If you would like to find out more about the group, call Ann at 725-7116 or 725-7334. There are no fees or dues and no weigh-ins.

HINTS FOR ADVERTISERS

When you next call The Review, 725-6111, to place a classified ad, remember that words are your business. Words properly put together in an ad mean more phone calls and more sales for you. Follow the rules below and get more and faster results.

1. Put in the address. Many out-of-town readers will write you, but will not spend money for a long distance call.
2. Put in the phone number. Many readers will call you but will not find it convenient to come to your home or business.
3. Avoid use of blind boxes. Avoid them if possible. They are difficult to answer and people prefer to deal directly.
4. Put in the price, by all means. Surveys show that many people will not answer an ad unless the price is given.
5. Keep the readers from guessing. On important details it is better to include them if they are relevant to a sale.
6. Be available. If you advertise your phone and address, be sure you are not absent when the ad appears so as to accommodate the reader.

A Boulder APPROACH: OR how Hoover Gave a DAM.

In the early 1900's, a concrete solution was needed to prevent flooding along the Colorado River. The Hoover administration provided it. 4,400,000 cubic yards' worth. Enough concrete to pave a two-lane highway between New York and San Francisco.

It was the Hoover Dam at Boulder City, Nevada. And it not only controlled flooding and irrigation, but today it generates power for Southern California, Arizona and Nevada.

The cost: $385 million. And one of the ways money was generated was by Americans buying government securities and taking stock in America.

Today, you can take stock in America by buying United States Savings Bonds. It's easy when you join the Payroll Savings Plan.

That way, a little is automatically set aside from each paycheck to buy Bonds. Before you know it, you'll build up a nice reservoir of savings. So buy Bonds. It's one savings plan that holds water.

Kilos Shock Cats But Still Trail Leaders By 2 Tilts

Kilowatts shaded the front-running Cats 9-8 in the second game to climb within one game of the local Little League action Tuesday but dropped the same amount of ground in the nightcap on Thursday losing to the Blue Jays 10-8.

Bufs outscored the Jays 23-19 in first game Tuesday of last week, to gain a tie for third place, but on Thursday tumbled back into the cellar absorbing a 27-3 blasting from the Cats and watching the Blue Jays upset the Kilowatts.

A full slate of scores were reported to the scorekeeper by Pee Wee league teams. In Tuesday's action the Braves defeated the Angels 8-5 in the first game, and the Cubs blanked the Giants 4-0 in the second tilt.

In the Tuesday night game between the Angels and the Braves Rickie Harris of the Braves made a single handed double play by catching a fly ball hit by Jason Fortune and tagging Juju Burk out.

On Thursday the Giants shaded the Braves 6-5 in the first contest, and the Angels clipped the Cubs 4-3.

Bufs rallied from a four-run deficit in first frame to claim a 9-7 advantage in the second inning. Blue Jays overcame the 11-7 deficit in the last of the third with 10 tallies on four hits, and seven free passes. Again the Bufs arose to the occasion and sent 16 batters to the plate in the top of the fourth scoring 12 unearned runs, and squashing a brief uprising in the home half of the fourth. The victory moved the Bufs into a tie for third place with the Blue Jays.

Kilowatts struck early and late to record a 9-8 decision over the league-leading Cats in second game June 15. Both teams scored three runs in the initial inning. Cats tallied one on two hits in the third and two, after two outs, in the fourth on three hits and a walk. Kilowatts got an unearned run in the fourth to slice the Cats lead to 6-4. With one away in the fifth, trailing 8-4, Kilowatts Pirtle, Albrecht, Duffy and Parker scored on two walks, a single and triple respectively, followed by a walk to R. Lee. Cats rallied to knot the score at 8-8 when Bagley scored after hitting a single with one away on M.

Howard Farmer Buried At Baird On Thursday

Funeral service was held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at Parker Funeral Home in Baird for Howard E. Farmer, 78-year-old prominent Baird banker and rancher.

Mr. Farmer died at 7 p.m. Tuesday of last week at Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene after a three-week illness.

Dr. Hendrix Townsley, minister of First United Methodist Church, in Abilene, officiated, assisted by the Rev. H. B. Terry of Temple Baptist Church in Abilene. Burial was in Ross Cemetery in Baird.

Born July 5, 1903, in Baird, he was a lifelong resident of Callahan County. He married Bonnie Cutbirth Oct. 4, 1923, at Baird. She was the daughter of pioneer ranchers Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cutbirth.

After graduating from Baird High School in 1920, Farmer worked at a local hardware store before accepting a bookkeeping position with First National Bank of Baird.

At that time he planned to work a year and save money so he could attend the University of Texas at Austin and study law. Instead he stayed with the bank and after 49 years retired in January 1969 from his position as executive vice president.

"I never intended to stay at the bank longer than a year," Farmer once said. "But I never left. I guess I just like it."

He was promoted from bookkeeper to teller and assistant cashier in 1951 and to cashier and vice president in 1959. He received the title of executive vice president in 1964. He continued as a bank board member after retirement.

He was named Baird's first Most Outstanding Citizen by the Baird Chamber of Commerce, and each year the city's top citizen is acknowledged by receipt of the Howard E. Farmer Award. He served as a director and vice president of the chamber.

He served 50 years as treasurer for First United Methodist Church of Baird. He was chairman of Callahan County War Bond Sales during World War II and was cited for outstanding achievement.

He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity and the Baird Masonic Lodge, the Scottish Rite Bodies of Rallas and Moslah Shrine Temple of Fort Worth. He was a past president of the Baird Lions Club.

He served as treasurer of the Callahan County Chapter of the National Foundation for the March of Dimes since the local branch's inception and served as Callahan County's Chairman for the United States Savings Bond Division of the Treasury Department.

He is survived by his wife; a brother, Fred of Baird; a sister, Lucille Turner of Austin; a niece, Gladys Angelada of Austin; and several great-nephews and great-nieces.

Pallbearers were James Eubanks, Fred Goble, Irvin Corn, Harold Ray, James Snyder, Jim Hatchett, Sr., M. L. Hughes and Jerry Loper.
