

Carolyn's Corner

By Carolyn Glover

Following is some more of the gifts to give for any season. Mail a letter to an old friend. Place a surprise phone call. Ignore a rude remark. Save the want-ads for a job hunter. Give your used clothes to a needy person. Pass on some goodness. Loan a favorite book. Consider a different point of view. Forgive an old grudge. Talk to a lonely child. Tell him he's wonderful. Tell her she's wonderful. Take the kids for a walk. Serve breakfast in bed. Share a dream. Keep a confidence. The remainder of these gifts will be published in next week's column.

The following recipe was given to me by Phyllis Pancake of this city. She received the recipe from a chain she answered from a friend. I believe she said this recipe came from a lady in Missouri. Recipe chains can be fun in that you receive several recipes from different people and some are certainly different, especially this one.

Elephant Stew

1 elephant (medium size)
2 rabbits (optional)
salt and pepper to taste
Brown gravy (lots)

Cut elephant into small bite-size pieces. This will take about 2 weeks. Keep the trunk! You'll need something to store the pieces in. Add enough brown gravy to cover. Cook over kerosene fire for about 4 weeks at 465 degrees F. This will serve about 3800 people. If more are expected, two rabbits may be added. But do this only if necessary, as most people do not like to find "hare" in their stew!

While we are on recipes, this one came from Mrs. Don Brown of San Angelo. She found it in an old cookbook which was printed in 1926 and belonged to her mother, Mrs. Silas Havens. Recipe to Preserve Children's Lives: Take one large, grassy field, one-half dozen children, two or three small dogs, a pinch of brook and some pebbles. Mix the children and dogs well together and put them in the field, stirring constantly. Pour the brook over the pebbles; sprinkle the field with flowers; spread over all a deep blue sky and bake in the hot sun. When brown, remove and set to cool in a bathtub.

Following is a poem written by Vernie McMillar of this city.

Sunrise

I saw the sunrise this morning
Through a haze of clouds it shone
As I beheld its beauty
Somehow I knew God was on His Throne.
Such beauty of this cannot be created by man
This picture so rare, can only be painted by God's own hand
There the golden rays of sunshine
Turn the clouds a different hue
Makes them look like great white billows
Against their background of blue
As I lifted my eyes to Heaven
While silently standing there,
I wondered at God's work of art,
At His great power, of creating the sunrise and sunset.
The beauty of His touch on each flower.

225 At Rowden-Bayou School Reunion May 28

Two hundred and twenty-five persons registered during the Rowden-Bayou school reunion Saturday in Baird. This number included ex-students, their families and friends.

Bayou School District was formed when Hillside, Rowden, Oaklawn, Bayou and Gilliland consolidated in 1937. Ex-students from each of these five schools were recognized with Rowden having the highest number present.

Can you imagine what the visitation hour was like with all these people shaking hands, some even being hugged and kissed, while others were looking at name tags for identification? Some realized that others had aged considerably in this 34 to 50 year period.

The group enjoyed a delicious evening meal served by Mack Eplens of Abilene, with invocation by Gene Mauldin. Charles Foster of Clyde gave the welcoming address. All ex-students who enlisted in any branch of military service were recognized by standing and stating their time and place of service.

Ex-teachers attending were, Mr. and Mrs. Jody Baker of Breckenridge, Mrs. Jessie Odom of Baird, Mrs. Thelma Smedley of Clyde and Mrs. Kitty Fitzhugh of Abilene. Mr. Baker addressed the assembly.

Dale and Pat Gibbs of Abilene gave reports of all the schools athletic endeavors. Trophies from winning teams in basketball and track were on display as well as numerous pictures and other mementos of interest. Recognition

Jury Hands Down 10-Year Sentence On Rape Charge

Editor's Note: Following is a story which appeared in the May 28 edition of the Abilene Reporter-News concerning a rape trial in 42nd District Court in Baird. Proceedings began Monday.

A 42nd District Court jury deliberated less than a half-hour Friday before assessing a 10-year-one-day penitentiary term against Clyde resident David H. Jaggars for the aggravated rape of an Abilene woman.

Friday morning, the jury concluded eight hours of deliberation that began Thursday evening and convicted Jaggars of the Nov. 18-19 rape-abduction, Callahan County Attorney Bob McCool said.

Jaggars was accused of inviting the woman, a 23-year-old north-side Abilenian, to his Clyde home to watch him skin a deer and then raping her at knifepoint, authorities said.

He also faces a kidnapping charge stemming from the incident. Bond on that offense had been set at $10,000.

Defense attorney Ed Paynter filed oral notice of appeal of Friday's guilty verdict, and Jaggars was returned to Callahan County Jail.

The sentencing phase of the trial capped off five days of testimony and oral arguments in what McCool said was one of the "very infrequent" rape cases reported to authorities in mostly rural Callahan County.

Patricia Elliott, a former Taylor County criminal district attorney who acknowledges a special interest in rape cases, was retained as a special prosecutor in the trial.

"I'm satisfied with it....Miss Elliott's satisfied," McCool said of the punishment assessment.

The jury did not recommend probation, McCool said, and the tacking of an extra day above the 10-year penalty makes Jaggars ineligible by law for probation.

"Anything over ten years cannot be probated even by the court," he said.

McCool said he would meet with State District Judge Don Lane within a week to consider setting a trial date on the kidnapping charge.

Senior's Biography Omitted Is Listed

When autobiographies of the Class of 1983 at Cross Plains High School were published in the Cross Plains Review, that of Roger Hinkle was unintentionally omitted. It follows.

Roger Hinkle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hinkle of Cross Plains and Barbara Burns of Merle. He was born in Comanche in April 1964. He has attended Cross Plains schools for 12 years. He was active in FFA four years, FFA two years and in the band four years.

WTU Sponsors Class On Vo-Ag Computers

High School vocational agriculture teachers from a broad section of West Texas have been invited to a workshop on Computer Application and Selection to be sponsored by West Texas Utilities Co. June 16-17.

The workshop will be held at Abilene Christian University. Instructors will be provided by the Texas Agri-Business Electric Council at Texas A&M University and by ACU. Teachers from vo-ag Areas II and IV have been invited to participate.

Kit Horne, WTU's farm and ranch representative, said that only 40 teachers could be accepted for the workshop due to the limited number of computers available. He said they would be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis, and urged those interested to contact him at WTU's General Office in Abilene.

Kiwanis Club Asks $3,000 To Aid CYC

The businesses of Cross Plains have been more than generous in their support of the CYC in the past two years. Plans are now underway for activities to begin June 7 for the summer months.

The Kiwanis Club of Cross Plains is sponsoring a fund drive to raise approximately $3,000 for operating expenses. Wimpy McCoy, chairman of the fund drive, states that some businesses have already donated $100 or more each. "We are encouraging each business to give at least $100 if they possibly can," said McCoy. "What better investment can we make than in the future of our young people?" he continued.

A member of the Kiwanis Club will be contacting each business for their financial support within the next few days. A CYC supporter card will be given to each business to be displayed. Two of the local churches are helping the CYC financially as well as sponsoring activities. "We are excited about what can be done when the entire community gets behind the CYC program," McCoy emphasized.

Coach Ron Lankford and his wife, Mary, will direct the activities for the summer. Hours of operation will be announced soon.

T-Showers Bring Cool Temperatures

Thundershowers which fell over this area during the Memorial Day Week end brought much cooler temperatures to the Cross Plains area Monday night and Tuesday.

Central Texas residents arose to a nippy 50-degree temperature Tuesday morning. One thermometer in Cross Plains, usually reliable, registered 48 degrees early Tuesday morning.

Actual moisture has not been a trace Sunday. Late Monday afternoon, 20 of an inch in a shower Saturday afternoon with hardly noon two showers dumped .60 of an inch on the city. Both fell in normal spring thundershower fashion, but the second was preceded by an extremely dark roll, frightening in appearance. Rain fell heavily, swept along by high winds, for a brief period. No damage was reported to the Review.

The three-day moisture total of .30 of an inch jumped the total for May, at noon Tuesday, to 2.60 inches, and raised the year's aggregate within the city to 11.60.

Scattered accounts of the rainfall in the area found an inch at Pioneer and Atwell. A Cottonwood resident said it "came down in wind-driven sheets".

4 Local Bandsmen Vie At State Level

Four members of the Cross Plains Buffalo Band competed in University Interscholastic League contests at the state level in Austin last Saturday.

Three contestants were in twirling solos and one was a trumpet solo.

Dawn Strength earned a Division 2 rating in a twirling solo. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strength.

Also claiming a Division 2 twirling solo was Staci Weiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Weiss.

Kandy McClure took a Division 3 in twirling solo competition. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mike McClure.

Vance Wilson earned a Division 3 in trumpet solo competition. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Wilson.

Blue Jays Upset Buffs But Can't Gain Ground

Bufs suffered first loss of the 1983 Cross Plains Little League season as the Blue Jays defeated the leaders 8-5 in the week's opening contest Tuesday of last week.

Although the Jays gained a full game on the Buffs with the victory, it did not last the week, as the Kilowatts nipped the Blue Jays 15-14 in the second tilt Thursday night, leaving the Buffs on top of the heap with a two and one-half game lead.

In other action during the week, Cats whipped the Kilowatts 19-8 in the second game on Tuesday of last week, and the Buffs thumped the Cats 12-1 in Thursday's curtain raiser.

In Pee Wee competition Angels blanked the Giants 4-0 and the Braves shaded the Cubs 3-1 in games played Tuesday of last week. On Thursday the Giants edged the Braves 2-1, and the Angels and Cubs were deadlocked in a scoreless struggle which was called due to darkness and reportedly will be played off later.

The game between the Giants and Cubs Thursday, May 19, on which no report had been made through this newspaper, resulted in the Giants trimming the Cubs 1-0.

Blue Jays came from behind in the third then added insurance runs in the fifth to hand the Buffs first loss of the season in the opener Friday. C. Brown scored the first of his three runs, followed by A. Pope, who also scored an unearned run in the home half of the second, for the Buffs. Jays T. Flippin, C. Odom and T. Abernathy tallied in the top of the third. Buff C. Brown tripled and later scored to knot the score at 3-3 after three.

J. Ames hit an inside-the-park home run to lead off the fourth inning for the Blue Jays and a 4-3 lead. The leaders sent eight batters to the plate with the first four, K. Foster, C. Walker, K. Clark and Ames scoring. A mild Buff rally produced two runs, but Jays retired the side preserving the victory 8-5.

In the nightcap Tuesday of last week, both the Cats and the Kilowatts crossed home plate three times in the first inning en route to the Cats' 19-8 triumph. Cats C. Pope and C. Bagley got the team ahead 5-3 in the top of the second, but five Kilos countered with unearned runs, R. Lee, Justin Melson, P. Helms, A. Newman and C. Harris, for an 8-5 Kilowatt edge. T. Smith, M. Strickland and Bagley knotted the score at 8-8 on a single and two doubles respectively, in the top half of the third. Eleven Cats tallied in the fourth for the final 19-8 count.

C. Brown hit an inside-the-park home run with one out and one aboard in the top of the second to get the Buffs started on a 12-1 defeat of the Cats. Brown set the horseshoe over the fence in the top of the third for the Buffs 12th run. C. Bagley counter the Cats' lone score in the third after leading off with a single, only the second Cat hit of the contest. The other, also a single, was picked up by C. Letney who was the second batter. Neither team scored in the fourth frame.

Blue Jays and Kilowatts had a scoring duel in the second contest of Thursday's competition which the Kilowatts won 15-14. Most of the runs were unearned and came in bunches. Eventual winners blew a four-run lead after the first inning, and had to rally for seven scores in the last of the fifth.

Kilos P. Helms, Jason D. Barnett and C. Harris scored in the home half of the first before Blue Jays sliced the deficit to one, 4-3, in the top of the second and jumped ahead 9-4 through three and one-half frames. Four unearned runs brought the Kilowatts to within one, 9-8, in the fourth inning. Five runs of five walks and back-to-back singles by D. Sibley and B. Sibley, seemed to have a secure lead for the Jays at 14-8. A couple of fielding errors, several walks and a hit batsman resulted in a walk to L. Cavage forcing in the winning run, K. Horan, for the final 15-14 count.

State Capital HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

(Intended for May 25 issue)

The Governor pushed out a tall pile of blue chips last week at the political poker table.

While most Capitol politicians and reporters were wondering whether Gov. Mark White really had the guts to lay out his much-talked-about, but yet-to-be seen tax hike proposal, the Governor himself was busy fashioning a tax package and public opinion campaign that was miles ahead of most speculation.

White proposed a tax increase, for the most part on obscure items and non-necessities, which would raise an additional $1.2 billion in state revenues over the next two years. Most of the burden would fall on purchasers of alcohol and tobacco, and most of the revenue would be spent to raise public school teachers salaries by 24 per cent over the next two years.

Since the Legislature is only a few days away from adjournment, the tax plan is given no real chance of passage this session. House Speaker Gib Lewis said a majority of House members oppose any tax increase, and an informal poll conducted by the Dallas Morning News showed 74 members against the tax hike, 47 for, and 29 undecided.

Special Session

Although he hasn't announced the date, legislators are making plans for a special session the Governor is expected to call for this summer, possibly immediately following the regular session.

More likely White will wait a few weeks to get his ducks lined up — and to spend $100,000 on television advertising to promote and explain the proposed tax hike. The money will come from White's political campaign chest, a sure sign of his commitment.

Veto Threatened

White has also threatened to veto the fragile state budget now being crafted in conference committee, unless it contains a substantial raise for teachers. But Ways and Means Committee chairman Stan Schlueter of Killean, who holds life or death power over any tax bill, said neither the veto nor the special session was "a threat".

"Everyone came down here this session expecting to have a special session . . . I have a lease on an apartment which allows me to stay all summer — which is what I plan to do," Schlueter said.

An interesting footnote to this political drama involves State Comptroller Bob Bullock, who expects to run against White in '83 and two weeks ago gizzed White to reporters for failing to show initiative on the tax hike issue. White's bravado took even Bullock, no shrinking violet himself, by surprise.

Defeated Issues

White lost one issue last week, and two other unrelated measures also went down in flames.

The House voted over-whelmingly to defeat White's bid for an elected Public Utility Commission, but passed several reforms in the agency's Sunset Bill, including repeal of the automatic fuel adjustment clause.

Another hard-fought issue, legalization of betting on horse racing, also was defeated last week by two votes. Proponents lack the 100 votes necessary to bring the bill back up again this session, but vowed to try again in two years. The bill had already passed the Senate. Insiders say minority legislators failed to pass the measure because several of their special interest bills were dragging behind.

The controversial open-container bill, which would outlaw open alcoholic beverage containers in automobiles, stubbed its toe in the Senate when the sponsor declared he lacked the 21 votes

(two-thirds majority) necessary to bring the bill to a vote. A similar bill in the House never made it out of the Liquor Regulation Committee, despite efforts by the Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) group.

Texas Water Plan

The Texas Water Plan, an eight-bill package to conserve and develop water projects in all areas of the state, remained hostage in a House Committee Chairman Tom Craddick, R-Midland, has vowed the Water Plan will die unless the Legislature accepts certain amendments. Craddick, who has used his chair to effectively throttle numerous bills, recently killed a proposed water district for Sterling County, even though there was no opposition other than an out-of-county landowner who is a close friend of Craddick.

College Fund

The College Fund conference committee approved a $100 million fund for construction and equipment needs at some 26 Texas colleges. The measure allows the colleges outside the University of Texas and Texas A&M systems to sell bonds backed by the fund, and guarantees $60 million for predominately black Prairie View A&M over the next 10 years. Component institutions of UT and A&M were included in the permanent fund.

S.S. Recipients May Earn More Money

Beginning with January 1, 1983, persons getting Social Security retirement, survivors and dependents checks are allowed to earn more money and still get all checks.

In 1983, individuals between the ages of 65 through 69 may earn $6,600 without losing any Social Security benefits. Individuals under age 65 may earn $4,920 in 1983 without losing any Social Security benefits.

If one's earnings go over the annual amount, Social Security will deduct $1 from benefits for each $2 earned above the exempt amount.

Another change in 1983 was lowering to age 70 from 72 the time workers may earn as much as they wish without loss of benefits. Therefore, benefits are payable for all months in which an individual is age 70 or older, regardless of the amount of monthly or yearly earnings.

A recipient need to remember that you count earnings for all months in a calendar year, even though you may not be entitled to benefits all months of the year.

There is a special rule for individuals who retire during a year to receive benefits for the remainder of the year, regardless of their earnings before retirement.

Under this rule a retiree can get a full benefit for any month wages do not exceed the monthly exempt amount and the person does not perform substantial service in self-employment. The monthly exempt amount in 1983 is $550 if 65 or older or $410 if under age 65.

If there are any additional questions about one's work and receiving Social Security checks, get in touch with the local Social Security Office located at 143 S. Pioneer in Abilene, or call (915) 698-1360.

The local chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) will meet Monday, June 6, at the Cross Plains Multi-Purpose Center on East 8th Street.

Gundy and Nell Gunderson of Marble Falls attended the Rowden-Bayou school reunion in Baird Saturday and attended services at the First Baptist Church in Cross Plains Sunday.

This community was well represented at the Rowden-Bayou school reunion Saturday in Baird. Those attending were, Warren Price, Jimmy and Joy West, Sterling and Joyce Odora, James and Dorothy Reynolds, Granvel and Parlee Gibbs, N. V. and Claribel Gibbs, Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin, Blain and Jessie Odom, John and Marian Scott, Billy Henry and Tom and Lora Fave Harris. Other former old residents of the community attending the reunion were Vera Phillips Sikes of Abilene, Grace Shelton McMillan and son, Durwood Edwards of Gatesville, also Jess Mauldin and Vernon Mauldin of Bangs.

The old home place up on the hill is vacant for the first time in many years. Jess and Mattie Gibbs reared their seven children there. Boyd deceased in California, Barney deceased in Baird and Cecil Kline who was killed in a car wreck with her husband. The remaining children, Ruby Russell, Raymond Gibbs, Buddie Gibbs and Corrie Lou Darby spent Sunday in the home for the last time. This home place sold last year to Richard Angel of Abilene who also owns the George Sanders place joining on the north. Raymond Gibbs has made this his home for many years. The location of this house has a great view of community scenery and activity and was an inviting place to spend a hot summer day. We found Raymond Gibbs in a chair on the front porch recently. Spray Time For Pecan Casebearer - Agent

It's pecan nut casebearer spray time for Callahan County.

Pecan nut casebearers have started laying eggs on pecans in Callahan County, reports Greg Gerngross, County Extension Agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. This means that pecan producers and homeowners should check their trees closely for egg deposits and nut-let damage by newly emerged larvae and begin a spray program if necessary. Eggs are deposited on the tip of the developing nut-let.

The best time for spray application will be May through June 4. Producers with early maturing varieties will need to treat a few days earlier than areas with late maturing pecans.

Insecticide applications should begin soon after the first nutlet damage is observed, points out Gerngross. Many producers treat too early for this pest. It is best to have 1% to 2% nutlet damage before sprays are applied. A second application may be required where eggs are found and nutlet damage continues 7 to 10 days after the first application.

Effective pecan nut casebearer control depends on proper timing and application of insecticides. Often insecticides are applied too early for optimum control.

Effective insecticides include Guthion, Malathion, Thiocan, Sevin or Zolene. Before using any of these materials, read the label directions; then follow them carefully.

Gerngross advises close, frequent inspections of pecan trees to keep abreast of the pecan nut casebearer situation. The County Extension Office will maintain a current status report on this insect during the next two weeks.

Pecan nut casebearer has three generations per year. It is approximately 42 days between the occurrence of each subsequent generation. Some years the second and third generation of this pest cause considerable nut damage. Total nut loss is usually greater during the spring generation because individual larvae may destroy a complete nut cluster. Later generations usually damage one or two nuts in the cluster.

Burkett News Items

By Freeda Burkett

The annual Memorial Day Service at the Burkett Cemetery Sunday afternoon was well attended. Even though the day was warm, there was a shelter from the sun provided by the three funeral homes in Coleman, the Stevens Funeral Home, Walker Funeral Home and Henderson Funeral Home, who furnished a tent each and set them up for the occasion. This service to the community is greatly appreciated as it provided such a comfortable and pleasant place to meet.

The principal speaker was Mr. Bill Reed, minister for the Cross Plains and the Burkett Methodist churches. His talk was fitting to the occasion and enjoyable. It was followed by some very interesting history about the Burkett and Adams cemeteries that has recently been collected and compiled by Mrs. Lois Garrett of Cross Plains. She read and explained that several local people helped her in this work. It was interesting and we all learned things about our cemeteries that we had never known about before. We appreciate Lois and everyone involved in this work because it did take a lot of time and energy to come up with such work of interest and invaluable information to be kept.

A brief business session was held for the election of officers of the Cemetery Association. Terms ended for four members of the board of directors as of this meeting. They were Leroy Williams, C. E. "Hap" Bearden, W. H. "Buddy" Thate and Freeda Burkett. Leroy requested that he not be nominated again and also "Hap" Bearden didn't wish to serve, both because of lack of time to put into it because of personal obligations. Their wishes were honored. James Loraine Golsen was elected to replace Leroy and Virgil Burkett was elected to replace Bearden. "Buddy" Thate was re-elected to serve on the board and Freeda Burkett was also re-elected to serve another term of two years.

Our cemetery association, assisted by Lois Garrett, did our cemeteries a special justice by getting flags to be set on the graves of all our loved ones who had served in the armed forces of all branches. Those flags blowing in the breeze were beautiful reminders of what these men and women did to preserve our country and our prosperity. It makes us sad, but also makes us proud of each and every one of these brave young people who gave so much for us.

Hope Golsen talked a few minutes concerning the Coleman County Historical Association, stating that far too few people were taking advantage of the chance to get historical facts compiled to be published this summer. There are lots of history lying dormant in our county, and she hoped to help generate more enthusiasm about this project and its importance. She urged everyone to "really get with it" and prepare their family histories. They will be pleased to know their family is among all the others in these books, one or more of which will be kept permanently in the archives of the Coleman County Library. Anyone wanting one of the books should order it very soon as they will have only enough printed for those that order them.

Many of those who attended the Memorial Day service were from out of Burkett. Among them were Mrs. Edna Helms, Ruby Biehl, Susan Andes, W. P. Stanphill, Evelyn Williams, Nora Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. James Barr, Eulil Bullard, Eula Webb, Mazel Helberg, J. C. Boyle and Mrs. Needham all of Coleman.

Also: Mrs. C. A. (Lucille) Barr, Mrs. Ann Long, Richard White, Mrs. Sarah McCowen, Blanch Houshell, J. E. Hanke, Jr.; Mable Burchfield, Ritta Knight, Ernestine Watson, Vera Pearl Bunell, Lois Garrett, Bill Reed, and Mrs. Lillian Smith all of Cross Plains.

And: Mil Angeley of Lake Brownwood; Mrs. J. E. Hanke Sr. of Butler, Mo.; Mrs. A. E. King and Merle Dean Koenig of Moran; Bill and Vale Holland and their daughter, Mrs. Paula Swenson, all of Petrolia; Russell and Ruby (Strickland) Hubbard of Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Coleman of Brownwood; Ona Evans of Lueders; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burton, their daughter, Ruth Ann, a husband and baby, and another Blizzed Wednesday night to Friday in Coleman. She became ill Wednesday with an upset stomach and was feeling very bad, resting on the bed. When she raised up she blacked out and fell to the floor, bruising one side of her face and blackening her eye. She underwent tests and medication for a virus infection. She is feeling very well at this time.

Mrs. Ona Evans of Lueders spent Thursday to Saturday in Coleman with her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rhoads, and with her sister, Mrs. Clyde Collins. She completed transactions in the sale of her home here to Henry Coffee of Amarillo. She came to Burkett Saturday and visited friends and spent the night with Mrs. Lillian Harris. She accompanied Lucille Cross to worship services at the Church of Christ in Cross Plains Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Burkett had as their luncheon guests Sunday Mrs. Ona Evans of Lueders and her daughter and husband, Arnold and Joan Burton, the Burton's daughter, Ruth Ann and husband and baby, and another small grandchild of the Burtons all of Abilene. Following lunch they all attended the Memorial Service at the cemetery. After the service they visited Mrs. Birdie Helms and Gail for a while.

A Boulder APPROACH: OR how Hoover Gave a DAM.

In the early 1900's, a concrete solution was needed to prevent flooding along the Colorado River. The Hoover administration provided it. 4,400,000 cubic yards' worth. Enough concrete to pave a two-lane highway between New York and San Francisco. It was the Hoover Dam at Boulder City, Nevada. And it not only controlled flooding and irrigation, but today it generates power for Southern California, Arizona and Nevada. The cost: $385 million. And one of the ways money was generated was by Americans buying government securities and taking stock in America. Today, you can take stock in America by buying United States Savings Bonds. It's easy when you join the Payroll Savings Plan. That way, a little is automatically set aside from each paycheck to buy Bonds. Before you know it, you'll build up a nice reservoir of savings. So buy Bonds. It's one savings plan that holds water.

Cash Flow.

In 1803, America found herself up the river. The Mississippi, that is. Valuable goods were being produced in the Midwest, and the mighty Mississippi was our only link to the sea. But the outlet in New Orleans belonged to France.

So President Jefferson sent agents to Paris to negotiate for the addition of New Orleans. Surprisingly, Napoleon offered to sell the entire Louisiana Territory for only $15,000,000.

And that included what is today Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Louisiana, Oklahoma, most of Minnesota, and parts of Wyoming and Colorado.

Thanks to Americans taking stock in their new country by buying over $11,000,000 in government securities, we made the purchase. And doubled our size overnight. Today, Americans still take stock in their country by buying U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan.

They know there's no safer way to save for an education, vacation or retirement. And they know that while they're helping themselves, they're helping America, too. So buy U.S. Savings Bonds. And help your cash flow into savings.

Take stock in America.

U.S. Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.
