Save Regularly

Scores of men and women in this community are making savings each month. This is typical of the person who wants to have something of his earnings at the end of the year.

Are you getting ahead? Will you be able to buy that home, have that new car, or take that long awaited vacation? You can, if you spend conservatively and always save some money back.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Buchanan visited Sunday in Caddo with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Webb, of Phillips, visited Mrs. Eula Fore and J. W. last Friday.

Mrs. Zola Plumlee and daughter, Helen Ruth, were home for the holidays. Helen Ruth is teaching in the schools at Merkel.

Each of us is entering into a new year overshadowed by a dark cloud which may plunge us into world conflict. We should each resolve to join ourselves in a great union of faith for a world peace to all mankind and Christianity to spread over the face of the entire globe, that all men may be brothers.

DENTON TEAMS BEAT CROSS PLAINS TWICE HERE TUESDAY NITE

Denton high school basketball teams scored a double victory here Tuesday night. The Denton girls upset Cross Plains girls 32 to 27, and the Denton boys beat the Buffaloes 28 to 22.

Cross Plains made a close contest of the girls game, principally upon the accurate shooting of Irene Mauldin, who scored 17 points.

Cross Plains boys led Denton until the final quarter, when a rally put on by the visitors forged ahead for keeps. Bobby Oliver, of Cross Plains, and Baker, of Denton, tied for high scoring honors with eight apiece.

Mrs. Mary Adams, of Big Spring, visited friends and relatives here last week. She is employed with the Veterans Administration in the Howard County area.

Sons of Mrs. S. A. Fleming taking Christmas dinner with her were W. R. and J. A. of Pioneer, C. A. of Williams, and L. R. of Olton. S. F. of Borger, was unable to be present.

Frankie Sue Angeley Marries Amarillo Man

Miss Frankie Sue Angeley and George Morphis, Jr. of Amarillo were united in marriage on Sunday, December 24, at five p.m. in a candlelight ceremony at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. DeBusk, of Burkett.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Angeley, of Earth, Texas. The parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. George Morphis of Liberal, Kansas.

The Rev. R. A. Cox, pastor of the Burkett Methodist Church, officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a royal blue gabardine suit with winter white accessories and carried a nosegay of white gladioluses and camellias with matching satin ribbon. For something old she wore her grandmother's lapel watch. For something borrowed she wore a gold Venezuelan bracelet, belonging to her aunt, Mrs. E. L. Garrett. She carried an organdy handkerchief for the traditional blue.

The bride's attendant was her sister, Miss Natalie Angeley. Rex Angeley of Earth, Texas was best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. DeBusk. Mesdames E. L. Garrett, Bill Davee, Jerry Angeley, Rex Angeley and Miss Natalie Angeley were members of the house party.

Mrs. Morphis is a graduate of Morton high school and attended Texas Technological College for two years. At present she is employed by the Amarillo News Agency.
