May Bests Buffettes, Ejection Spells Defeat

Both varsity Cross Plains High school basketball teams lost undefeated status in conference play last week. May High School handed the defending league ruling Buffettes a 31-29 beating, shutting down the here-to-fore high-scoring offense at May on Tuesday, Jan. 7, and in the boys game a forfeit was called at Carbon Friday, Jan. 10. Going into the contest with a 2-0 mark and "after the ejection of the coach and two flagrant fouls, the game was called by the officials", with the score tied at 61-61 and awarded to Carbon.

Buffettes owned a 1-0 league mark as they traveled to May Tuesday of last week. The hosts slowed the pace the game and won a 31-29 decision. The loss evened the Buffettes district mark at 1-1 and lowered the season record to 17-4.

Top Buffette scored was Shelia Payne with 8 points. Dawn Strength and Melissa Montgomery each counted 6 points, Beth Wood 4, Michelle Prater 3 and Suzie McClure 2. Strength was best defensive rebounder with 4. Payne had a blocked shot and three offensive rebounds. Montgomery had 3 assists and Prater added two steals.

Local girls bounded back into form on Friday at Carbon taking a 22-6 first quarter lead coasting to a 85-29 win, improving the season mark to 18-4 and the loop record to 2-1.

Strength canned 24 points for scoring honors, and B. Wood bucketed 17 for runner-up slot. Other Buffettes tallying were M. Wood 10, Montgomery 8, McClure 7, Pam Hutchins and Prater 6 each, Deanna Conlee 5 and Payne 2. B. Wood pulled down 7 defensive rebounds, and Strength had 4 offensive bouncers. Hutchins had the top number of assists with 7. Conlee stole 5 basketballs and Payne clocked 3 shots.

Buffaloes eased past May Tigers 92-52 Monday of last week, a second straight circuit win and improving the season mark to 16-5.

Elgin Katt blistered the nets for 32 points, and Tonay Evans added 24. Other Herdsmen scoring were Devin Koenig 10, Clay Richardson and Jerry Katt 8 markers apiece, Darin Apple 4 and Dennis Atchinson, Troy Harris and David Taylor 2 points each. Keonig controlled the offensive boards with 8 rebounds, and Evans grabbed 7 defensive rebounds. E. Katt had 7 steals and 6 assists while Evans blocked a shot.

Bisons ran into trouble at Carbon last Friday. Buffalo coach was ejected about halftime, as was two players, and later in the game officials called the game, awarding to the hosts with the score tied at 61-61. The forfeit left the Bison record at 16-6, and 2-1 in conference play.

E. Katty swished the nts for 31 points, and J. Katt put 9 point through the hoop. Richardson had 7, Koenig 6, Evans 4, Koenig 6, Paul Davis and Atchinson 2 each. Koenig controlled the rebound boards grabbing 6 offensive and 5 defensive bounces, and E. Katt had 7 assists and stole 4 balls.

Library Reaches Goals Set By Board In Early Part Of 1985

Last January the Advisory Board of Friends of the Cross Plains Library made commitments to the community for 1985. The goals set have been reached. Both the children's summer program and the pre-school "Learn About..." program have grown in interest and in number. The basic requirements for the Texana Collection have been met. The renovation program has been completed.

The pledge to serve the community has seemingly been successful, since donations for birthday and Christmas gifts for the development of the Texana Collection and love donations have continued to increase.

At the beginning of 1986, the Board resolved to enlarge services. Plans are being made to make book reviews a part of the program. Further development of the Texana Collection is still a high priority, as will be the beginning of a Robert Howard Collection.

The board will also work to increase the membership and to encourage more patrols to use gifts to the library as gifts to the living.

In December, Christmas donations were made as gifts to Dan and Nancy Childress and to Mrs. Art Gow of Eastland by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Childress of Abilene. Books have been donated by Esthloy Dickson, Juanita Thornton, Nancy Childress, Joan McCowen, Larry

Albert Lovell Resigns As County Tax Officer

Albert Lovell, 25-year veteran as Callahan County Tax Assessor-Collector was scheduled to submit his resignation to that office Monday, Jan. 13, through the following letter he was to present to the Commissioners Court.

The longtime resident of Baird, native of Cottownood and former Cross Plains citizen, indicated in the official document that his vacating of the office would be effective February 28, 1986. That will be after the filing deadline for party nominees in primary elections in May and June, making it necessary for election to the office in the general election in November.

Lovell's letter of resignation follows.

TO THE HONORABLE MACK KNIFFEN, JUDGE OF CALLAHAN COUNTY, AND THE MEMBERS OF THE CALLAHAN COUNTY COMMISSIONERS COURT:

I, Albert Lovell, Tax Assessor-Collector of Callahan County, do on this day submit my resignation as Tax Assessor-Collector of Callahan County, an office I have held since January 1st, 1961, the effective date of this resignation is February 28th, 1986.

In submitting my resignation I have mixed emotions, even though I have three more years to serve in this term of office I feel this is best not only for myself, but also for the people of Callahan County who have honored me with this important office for twenty five years. I have been unable to give one hundred percent of my time the past two years to this office due to an automobile accident and I feel that it is best for my employees and for the people of Callahan County to have a person who can devote full time to this office.

To the Callahan County Commissioners Court and to the other elected officials of Callahan County I want to thank you for the cooperation you have given me through the years I have been able to serve with you.

I will always cherish the memory I have had of the opportunity to work with you.

Respectfully,
Albert Lovell
Tax Assessor-Collector
Callahan County

Local Candidates Filing Fast For Primary Election May 3, 1986

The political pot has begun to boil in Callahan County in 1986.

stockman, who had officially tossed his hat into the ring a week earlier.

Cubelle L. Harris, has announced that she will be a candidate for a second term as District Clerk, 42nd District Court, Callahan County. The Baird lady has made her official statement to voters of Callahan County elsewhere in today's Review.

Jim Taylor of Clyde has told the Review that he is going to be a candidate for Callahan County Judge, and purchased an advertisement elsewhere in today's Review asking vote. The Rowden native is currently self-employed in real estate investments at Clyde.

Official statements to voters of the respective districts will come later from Taylor, Hutchins and Ingram.

Garden Club Plans Arbor Day Jan. 17

Cross Plains Garden Club met in regular session Friday, Jan. 10, at 2 p.m. at the Garden Center. Mrs. Leo Franke, president, presided over the business meeting.

Reports from the Project Committee Chairman, Mrs. Glenn Payne and the Social Committee Chairman, Mrs. J.P. McCord, were given. Also, plans were discussed for Arbor Day activities by Mrs. Cole Toltson, Arbor Day Chairman.

Mrs. Raymond McCowen introduced the program entitled "Planning Ahead for a Show of Spring Beauty" which was given by Mrs. Arvin Brashear. Her presentation on bulbs, corms and tubers showed much care in preparation of the visual aids and text and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Brashear also gave a short review from The Lone Star Gardener on the amaryllis.

Mrs. N.V. Gibbs prepared and presented to the members a design arrangement she made from dried and treated willow in a weathered wood container. Mrs. Cole Tiltson will be preparing and will submit to the Review an article on Timely Garden Tips this month.

Delicious refreshments were served to the members following the program by hostesses, Mrs. Sterling Odum and Mrs. Sam Henderson.

All members were reminded of our Arbor Day Program scheduled for next Friday, Jan. 17, at 2 p.m. The Conservation Pledge will be recited and led by Mrs. A.J. McCuin prior to the program which is entitled "Reaching Out to the Mighty Live Oak". Hostesses for this Arbor Day session will be Mrs. Raymond McCowen, Mrs. Alton McCowen and Mrs. Glenn Payne.

Conservation Program Help Now Available

Local landowners who have erosion problems, brush problems, or who may need other planning assistance on their farms or ranches can get help from the local Soil Conservation Service office says Steve Uselton, District Conservationist, with the Soil Conservation Service office in Baird. Uselton says that there are several different types of assistance available through the SCS office. From time to time there are cost-shared funds available to help pay part of the cost of installing conservation practices. These funds are available through Land Treatment-Long Term Contracts. The two types of long term contracts available are the Great Plains Conservation Program and the Watershed Critical Area Treatment program.

A Long Term Contract is in force for a minimum of 3 years up to a maximum of 10 years. The participants are required to installed designed cost-shared practices along with carrying out scheduled management practices. The local Soil Conservation Service personnel will provide technical assistance when requested for developing plans and installing scheduled practices. Depending upon the practice and the type of program the producer will be reimbursed at a rate of 50-80% of the installation cost. Funds are not always available for these programs and when it is they are usually very limited.

Technical assistance is also available for those landowners who wish to carry out conservation practices on their own. Plans can be developed and engineering assistance can be made available.

Local Soil and Water Conservation Districts also make assistance available by supporting the SCS and offering several programs of their own.

Local Districts offer fish stocking programs and windbreak tree programs to local landowners.

These and other projects are available through the local Soil Conservation Service office and local Soil and Water Conservation Districts. For more information contact your local Soil Conservation Service office in the Callahan County Courthouse in Baird.

Peanut Program Changes

Ross Wilson, Manager, Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association

On December 23, 1985 President Reagan signed the 1985 Farm Bill into law. The affixing of the presidential signature was preceded by months of negotiations of the omnibus package of agriculture commodity programs as well as sections providing the food stamp programs, soil conservation program, agriculture research and various other sections.

Of direct and immediate importance to peanut growers throughout the peanut belt is Title VII (Peanuts) of the farm bill. The peanut section of the bill contains the provisions that will determine the direction and fate of over 10,000 farm families in the Southwest. Now that the broad farm bill has become law, USDA staff personnel are initiating the detailed process of preparing federal regulations that will implement the law and establish guidelines for the operation of the various programs, including peanuts. During the weeks of structuring the peanut program regulations, industry segments and other interested parties will be given the opportunity for input.

Since program regulations are not yet available to us, it is not possible at this point to describe precisely how all of the various program facets will operate. However, the provisions in the law in most instances provide insight into the general program modifications.

Following are the principal peanut program changes resulting from the passage of the 1985 Farm Bill:

-The national poundage quota will be established at a level that is equal to the quantity of peanuts that the Secretary estimates will be needed during the marketing year for edible, seed and related uses, but shall not be less than 1,100,000 tons.

-A farm poundage quota will be established for each farm that had a farm poundage quota in 1985 and if the farm poundage quota is larger than the preceding year, for each other farm on which peanuts were produced for marketing in at least 2 of the 3 immediately preceding crop years, as determined by the Secretary.

-If the national poundage is increased for a marketing year, the state's share of such increase will be allocated among (1) all farms in the state that had a poundage quota preceding year and (2) all other farms in the state on which peanuts were produced 2 of the 3 immediately preceding crop years, as determined by the Secretary. Any decreases that might occur would be allocated among all farms in the state with poundage quota the preceding year.

-In order to avoid farm quota reduction, farm quotas must be produced or considered produced on the farm two of the three years immediately preceding the year for which a determination is being made. The farm quota is considered produced if non production results from drought, flood or other natural disasters, or any other conditions beyond the control of the producer as determined by the ASCS. In addition, the farm quota may be considered produced if voluntarily released for one year only of the immediately 3 preceding marketing years.

-Farm quotas reduced by non production and farm quotas voluntarily released will be allocated to other eligible farms in the state under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary. Not less than 25 percent of such total amount of farm poundage quota so reduced or voluntarily released in the State must be assigned to no-quota farms.

-The undermarketing carry forward provisions is continued from the 1981 Act except farm undermarketing for years prior to 1984 marketing years are excluded.

-There is included in the section dealing with undermarketing carry forward, a provision permitting the transferring of "additional" peanuts produced on farm to the quota loan pool for pricing purposes (This activity, referred to as the "disaster program" is currently operated under USDA regulation).

-The bill provides for the conducting of a referendum not later than 31 days after adjournment of Congress (the revised deadline will probably be approximately January 19). If at least two-thirds of the farmers voting in the referendum vote for marketing quotas, quotas would be effective for the 1986 through 1990 crops.

-Transfer of quota by sale and lease would be permitted within counties on the same basis as prior years. A provision was added for fall leasing of quota pounds as may be prescribed by the Secretary.

-New requirements are added to the contracting provision which clarify requirements that were thought to be firm in the 1981 law:

(1) Final price must be stated when the contract is executed.

(2) Contracting under this section for additional peanuts for domestic use other than crushing is not permitted, and

(3) The contracting deadline is move from April 15 to August 1.

-The quota support rate for the 1986 crop will be equal to the quota support rate established for the 1985 crop adjusted to reflect increases in the prices paid by producers for commodities and services, interest, taxes and farm wages for the period 1981-1985.

The quota support rate for the years 1987-1990 would be the quota support rate for the preceding crop, adjusted to reflect any change in the cost of production in the preceding year, excluding any change in the cost of land. Any such increase cannot exceed 6 percent.

-The Association pooling provision has been changed from area-type pools to area pools including all types. Under this provision there would be only one segregation 1 quota pool in each area and one additional pool for segregation 1 peanuts.

-Any losses in an area seg. 1 quota would be offset so far as possible by profits from that area's seg. 1 additional pool. If profits remain in the seg. 1 additional pool after losses in that area's seg. 1 quota pool are offset, any funds in such additional pool due growers who also participated in the seg. 2 or 3 pools to offset seg. 1 quota pool losses.

Profits remaining in the seg. 1 additional area pool

Of considerable significance the new law contains provisions that are intended to assure that contracted additional peanuts are either exported or crushed; that such additional peanuts are not converted from export to domestic edible or seed use. Tightening these provisions in the 1985 law should result in increased stability in both export and domestic markets.

In summary from the growers point of view the two basic components of the program have been strengthened by the 1985 law.

ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

On Saturday I drove to Cisco and went with my sister, and my brothers and his family to Breckenridge. We attended the funeral of a sweet cousin, Hazel (Vick) Satterwhite.

It was late when I returned and several people I called did not answer.

Mrs. Ethel Brown stated she had her entire electric wiring inspected this week, simply for safety's sake. There were corrections to be made. We all should take these precautions often.

Mrs. Brown is making a quilt for Lou Grider. Lou has been there often, helping with the cutting and tacking. Mr. and Mrs. F.L. Dean of Big Spring spent one Sunday night with Mrs. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Mitchell visited J.T. and Betty Beggs on Thursday of last week. Rex was there on Friday. "Dub" Reynolds and Steve Hallmark of Gorman visited J.T. and Betty on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Foster are doing quite well. They attended the A.A.R.P. meeting and luncheon on Monday. Their children have been in and out all week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Rody are staying busy. Mrs. Nettie visited them last week. Bobby is going to help me in getting a screen door repaired or replaced.

Because so many have asked, "Have you found your watch?" The answer is, "No." And what irks me the most is that I think it is here in my house somewhere. I just haven't uncovered it yet.

WEEKLY HEALTH TIP

During cold weather, there is the temptation to take off the chill by soaking in very hot water. This actually promotes dry skin by opening up the pores which releases the skin's natural protective oils. Instead, use superfatted soap or a transparent glycerine soap in a tub of warm water. You may also smooth on body lotion after the bath. By avoiding the very hot water, you will warm up without drying out your skin.

Rowden Area News

By Mrs. N. V. Gibbs

Now that the Christmas and New Year holiday season is over, most of us can get our weeks back in order again. With each holiday falling on Wednesday it was trying, to keep Sunday in place.

This area is badly in need of rain for small grain, pastures and stock water. According to the latest Progressive Farmer, weather conditions look dry in Middle Texas with mild temperatures. One can only hope this forecast will change. Farmers are feeding hay heavily now and may have to continue to do so since grain fields have been hurt by cold weather.

Also in the back pages of this issue of Progressive Farmer are some tips for gardeners. One by B.H. Brown of Nashville, Tenn., goes like this: When transplanting tomato plants, he puts a teaspoon of sugar in the bottom of the hole. This according to him prevents nematodes from getting on the roots. Then Jimmy Snipes of Poulton, Ga., says to try a single nylon stocking with insecticides such as Sevin or Malathion inside. As you walk down the rows of vegetables in your garden, gently shake the hose over the row, or if you wish, use panty hose to dust two rows at a time. His reply - it works!

Country Voices in this magazine shows an abandoned two story house illustrated by Ray Wadkins. The thing that drew this writers attention to this place was the lack of clutter - such as machinery, outside buildings, not even a run down fence. One lonely tree which is bare of leaves and weeds, not even a broken down car can mar such a once stately home of a farmer. Has he had to move from the farm or has he passed on from all his labors?

James and Dorothy Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strahan of Cottonwood attended the basketball tournament in Gorman Friday night. Cross Plains teams were participating in the games. Tan and Janet Flippin of Stephenville met James and Dorothy there for a visit at the games.

At the Robert Watson home last Sunday, Roger Martin and his children of Baird along with Carl Bray and his son, Daniel, of Cisco visited in the home.

Visitors of Lizzie Burks, Emma Johnson and Robert Burks were a neighbor, Lee McNutt. Rod Brown of Eastland stopped for a short visit with Robert.

Joy Price's visitors this week were Joyce Odom, Judy Steele and this writer.

Shirley Walker of Cross Plains and Connie Steele spent Friday night in Connie's grandparents, the N.V. Gibbs home. As before, the girls had fun dressing up in grown up clothes. They also skated in the big hay barn that the Gibbs' and grandchildren had cleaned out for that purpose. They still take falls but are having fun while learning, and we are inviting them back again. It takes young folks to keep old folks young.

Edna Dye accompanied her son, Tommy Dye, to Houston Monday on a business trip. Edna spent the time with her long time friend Dorothy Holstead. Edna Dye also attended the Porcelain Art League workshop at the Roadway Inn in Abilene Saturday. Guest speaker and demonstrator was Anita Marron of Haskell. One member attending, was Exa McCord of Cross Plains who joined the club when it was formed last fall in Abilene.

Corrie Lou Darby of Baird was called Saturday night of the death of her brother, H.M. (Buddie) Gibbs of San Diego, Calif. Cause of death was lung cancer. He had been very ill over the past month. His burial will be in San Diego, his home since World War II. He was the youngest son of the late Jess and Mattie Gibbs. Going to California at the beginning of the war. He did aircraft work until his inductions in the U.S. Army where he served as a military policeman overseas. He was married to Ruth Willis of Ohio who survives him. Their children are David Gibbs of Japan and Elaine Toscano of San Diego. Other survivors are two sisters, Ruby Russell and Corrie Lou Darby both of Baird. Those preceding him in death were a sister, Cecil Kline and three brothers, Boyd of California, Barney and Raymond of Baird.

Buddie was born and grew up in the Rowden Community. He and Ruth made annual trips to his home place on top of the hill in the community. Our sympathy is extended to this family in their sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mauldin accompanied their son, Roland Mauldin, to San Antonio Saturday to attend the wedding of their granddaughter, Teresa Brown, and Scott Hester. Teresa is the youngest daughter of Marjorie and Danny Brown of San Antonio.

Mrs. Gene Mauldin visited Ima Gibbs in Baird Wednesday night.

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Kick-Off Is Set Jan. 18

Brownwood, Texas, January 10, 1986 - Cross Plains Girl Scouts will kick-off the annual Girl Scout cookie sale on January 18. The girls will be taking orders through January 25, then cookies will be delivered to customers from February 21 through March 1. Payment for cookies will not be accepted until cookies are delivered.

Girl Scout council president Helen Taaffe of Weatherford says that the annual cookie sale has grown into more than a simple fund raising activity. "Girl Scout cookies are a part of Americana, a tradition of quality. As we begin the sale each year we know we enjoy exceptional product identification. We have a responsibility to maintain the quality of product and the quality of service that symbolizes our sale to hundreds of thousands of customers," Taaffe said.

More than 55 girls in two troops benefitted from the Girl Scout program in Cross Plains during the past year. Girl Scouts in Cross Plains are part of Heart of Texas Council which serves more than three thousand members in central Texas.

A lot of care goes into every Girl Scout cookie from its beginning in the bakery until it is handed over by one Girl Scout saleslady to a caring customer. Girl Scouts know that every customer buys the first box of cookies because they want to help girls benefit from a worthwhile program, but it's almost impossible to buy just one box of Girl Scout cookies. A first-time customer is usually a lifetime customer.

Once upon a time, money earned from the cookie sale was categorized as supplementary funds. Today, the Girl Scout program would simply not be possible without cookie sale revenues.

Profits from the sale fund year around troop program, help girls participate in special program opportunities, build and develop the Girl Scout camp, fund camp equipment and program facilities, and support a wide range of direct services to troops in every community.

While earning is a vital reason for the annual cookie sale, learning continues to be the value that takes precedence for the Girl Scout organization.

Girls establish their own sales goals. They have an opportunity to learn that: a well-known product whose quality is carefully controlled is easy to sell; customers appreciate courtesy, promptness and reliable delivery of goods; effort and initiative are rewarded by the incentives and awards system; the hard work of each member contributes to the shared success of all members in reaching program goals.

Girls take pride in earning their own way for special events, including summer camp; and their camping facilities are cherished because the girls, through their own initiative, made it possible for their own and future generations.

Planning and decision making, an important part of the Girl Scout program, are also an inherent part of the cookie sale. It offers girls an opportunity to set goals for a special project, to make worthwhile choices for the use of money, to establish and live within a budget, to be responsible for management of their own bank account.

According to Girl Scout executive Donna Fincher of Brownwood, the Girl Scout cookie sale is not perceived by the public as just another fund drive for very good reasons.

"Girl Scouts have been selling cookies for more than fifty years. In a sense, we have raised our own market. Grown up Girls Scouts who are wives and mothers today have fond memories of their cookie selling days. They remember being scared to death to knock on that first door to make their first sale, and they remember that each new sale made them walk a little taller as they discovered friendly, interested, caring support of their Girl Scout aims," Fincher said.

"The cookie sales makes lots of dreams come true for local girls. We hope our customers will remember ours is a once a year sale and stock up on cookies while they can!" stated Bettie Cavanaugh, Cross Plains Association Chairman.

Our taxes are rising and no apparent relief is in sight. The time has come when the average tax payer can no longer afford the luxury of being unconcerned about how his/her tax dollar is being spent.

My concern about this and other County needs has prompted me to file for the office of County Judge.
