A History Book For Everybody

By DON TABOR
Publisher

Every Callahan Countian ought to have one.

Even if you've lived here only a short time, I can't imagine a more fascinating book than the I Remember Callahan county history which recently came out sponsored by the County Historical Commission.

In the preface, Editor Hicks Turner (who did a bang-up job) tells us that no attempt was made to make the book an over-all history of the county. "We have attempted to bring you stories written by people like yourself," Turner tells the reader.

That's what makes it great. The book contains the histories of nearly 800 county families, written by members of those families themselves. There is a certain charm, and honesty, when people write about something they have gone through themselves or something they heard from others in their families as children.

Personally, this book is going to be a valuable reference for my newspapers. It captures facts, and names, and dates that, had they not been written down, would probably have disappeared in years to come.

And for you newcomers to the county, I can't think of a better way to bone up on everything you would ever want to know about it than to spend a few hours reading this book. Just think, over coffee you can start tossing out names, and places, and dates and everybody will swear you've lived here forever.

Although the editor says it's not a definite county history, I found the various thumbnails on towns and events fascinating.

Paul Dulaney writes a great piece on the horrible tornadoes that struck Clyde in 1938 and 1950.

An old friend, Jack Scott, writes a piece I found especially interesting — a history of the Cross Plains Review. This might be explained by the fact that I purchased the Review last February.

But I think his history would interest anybody. I didn't know until I read it that the founder of the paper tried to form another county with Cross Plains as the county seat. (Having visited with some Cross Plainsmen these past few months, some might feel that might not be a bad idea today.)

The book's editor, Hicks Turner, has a tantalizing piece about mysterious Spanish dwellings, mines and treasure markings in the county.

I could go on and on, but the book has already been published. So why not just buy a copy if you don't have one and see for yourself.

Clyde Man SHL Candidate

By DANNY TABOR
Clyde Journal Editor

Now there is no need to say that all politicians don't understand local residents.

If you are 60 years old or older and plan to vote in the first Texas Silver Haired Legislature on Friday, you do have someone who knows what it is like to live in Callahan County.

Paul S. Dulaney, 64, a Clyde native, is a candidate for District 3 of the legislature which includes Callahan County.

Balloting will be at senior citizens centers throughout Texas. Candidates must be 60 or over to run and voters age 60 or older to cast a ballot.

In Cross Plains, voting will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Friday, May 30, at the A.A.R.P. headquarters, 916 Main, just north of City Hall.

"Although the SHL is a first for Texas, it has been successful in 22 other states," said Dulaney. "Legislation recommended by those SHLs has been passed into law by State Legislatures."

The first Texas SHL was authorized by the 69th Texas Legislature in session last January. The bill provides for Senior Haired Legislators to meet at the State Capitol in September to draft proposed legislation of interest to the growing number of older Texas.

SHL-proposed legislation will then

PIONEER NEWS

• By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

Memorial Day, Monday, May 26th - at my age there are a lot of memories - memories of many, many types - you name it, I remember it!

In my father's family there were seven boys - only one was in WWI - and I remember when he came home at the end of that war. As my grandmother said, over and over: "Praise God, praise God!"

Isn't it a shame! There are still wars, of one type or another, all over! I'm personally enthused over this Senior Citizens' election on Friday, May 30th. I hope all our older citizens will vote for their favorite Silver-Haired Legislator.

Mrs. Ethel Brown called me early - bless her heart! Her visitors the past week were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Dean of Big Spring, Mrs. Frank Rhymes of Gorman, Jean Fore and her friend, Bessie of Marble Falls; also Dick and Lou Grider, and several neighbors were in and out through the week.

Sara and Leslie McGowen went to Abilene last Saturday with a group of Girl Scouts. They spent the night at beautiful Kiva Inn and came home on Sunday - a very exciting outing for the young ladies.

Bob and Sally Roady visited his mother, Ms. Nettie, and her father, Howard Hicks, this week. They went to Anson one day, visited N. A. and Gitti Roady, also Bob's nephew and family, Joe McNeal, Beth and Amber. They talked on the phone with both of their sons, which they always enjoy.

Jewel and Hiram Foster's grandson, Don Huston and wife of Lake Charles, La., visited them last weekend. Another grandson, Doug Foster, his wife and two sons of San Antonio were here. Also Charles and Lucille Foster of Clyde and Gene and Norma of the community. Ms. Jewel reported a good attendance at the quilting this week.

I have talked to both my offspring this week - we are planning for a "get-together" real soon. It was raining in Nacogdoches, and Lisa Dawn's class was celebrating in the schoolroom instead of the park, as anticipated.

I recently mailed to Lisa Dawn her copy of the Cross Plains "Bison", which she ordered last Fall. She was tickled pink to get it - I think she "slept with it" that first night, then took it to school for the "Show and Tell" period the next day. She loved seeing pictures of her friends here!

SS Direct Deposit

It is easy for people living in the Big Country area who receive Social Security checks to have them deposited directly into an account in a financial organization, such as a commercial bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, Federal or State Credit Union or similar organization. Glyn Hammons Social Security manager in Abilene said recently.

All a person has to do to arrange direct deposit is complete a direct deposit form SF 1199. The form is available at any financial organization. A monthly benefit check contains all the information needed to complete the form.

Some advantages of direct deposit are:

No worry about a check being lost or stolen.

No need to be home when the check arrives. The money is available in an account even if the person is out of town.

Time and transportation costs are saved and there is no standing in line to cash the check.

Coats Reunion, June 7-8

The Coats Family would like to extend a warm welcome to all relatives and friends to attend the Coats Reunion. It will be held Saturday, June 7 and Sunday, June 8, at the Old Schoolhouse in Cottonwood.

Mrs. Tommie Henkel Celebrates 100th Birthday In Austin

On May 27, Mrs. Tommie Henkel of Austin, Texas, celebrated her 100th birthday and was honored by the Texas Legislature. She and her husband, J. E. Henkel, were residents of Cross Plains from 1922 until some time in the 1940's. They owned and operated a second-hand store on West 8th Street. All the children, Edward, David, and the twins, Nancy and Bob, began and completed their public school education in the Cross Plains Schools.

People who knew Tommie Henkel here have strong memories about her. She was a member of the Baptist Church, spending many hours in the work of church groups. Also, one friend recalls how she and a neighbor on one occasion went for days to care for a friend's child, although they had to change clothing and sanitize themselves each time before returning to their own families. This type of service for Tommie was not unusual. Also remembered are her cooking, her patience when David was a bed patient for weeks following his experience with a hot wire in a tree, and her amusing explanations for such inevitabilities as middle-age spread. During those years the optimism and humor with which she met the world were already strongly evident.

At 100, Tommie still plays the piano and enjoys lively conversation. Before losing her sight, she was also a talented artist.

Tommie's husband and Edward are deceased. David is retired from teaching anatomy at Brooks General Hospital in San Antonio. Bob is business manager for Houston Community College in Houston. Nancy Straley, with whom Tommie makes her home, is retired from the Austin Public Schools.

Cross Plains friends congratulate Tommie Henkel. May she have many more happy birthdays. Tommie's address is 2307 Alta Vista Avenue, Austin, Texas 78704.

Savings Bond Sales Up 15 Percent

Sales of U.S. Savings Bonds for the first two months of 1986 in Texas amounted to $61,167,991, an increase of $8,922,042 for 14.6% over the January-February 1985 period, T. J. Morrow, District Director for U.S. Savings Bonds Division in Dallas, announced today. These sales represent 16.5% of the state's 1986 assigned dollar goal of $370 million. February sales of Series EE Bonds were $33,072,650, an increase of 11.4% above February 1985.

Sales of Series EE Bonds amounted to $5,442.00 during February 1986 in Callahan County, James Eubanks, Volunteer County Chairman, said. The January-February 1986 total for the County was $12,752.00, which represents 17.2% of the County's 1986 assigned dollar goal.

Nationally, February 1986 sales of Series EE Bonds totaled $520 million, an increase of 32% over February 1985 sales and marks the first time February sales exceed $500 million since 1979. Sales of U. S. Savings Bonds for the first five months of Fiscal 1986 increased 40 percent and redemptions decreased 12 percent compared to the same period for 1985. Savings Bonds held by the American public reached an all-time high of $80.83 billion during February.

Much of the sales growth can be attributed to the new market-based rate which was effective November 1, 1982. The current rate in effect (November 1985 thru April 1986) for Bonds held five years or longer is 8.36%. The average rate since November 1, 1982 is 9.69 percent. Bonds held at least five years earn 85 percent of the average rate on five-year Treasury marketable securities during the holding period or 7.5 percent, whichever is more. Bonds held less than five years earn interest on a fixed, graduated scale.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—The first Soviet fallout was recorded as minimal and no health threat in Texas last week, but the falling out between teachers and education reformers heightened.

Reformers who thought teachers would be appraised by their 97 percent success rating on the competency test were wrong.

Instead, the state's largest teacher group, Texas State Teachers Association, sued to have the test thrown out for racial discrimination.

About 18 percent of black and six percent of Hispanic teachers failed. Only one percent of Anglo teachers failed.

State Education Commissioner Bill Kirby predicted the lawsuit would be thrown out of federal court because the state took every legal precaution in giving the test.

Worse news issued last week: nearly half of public school students failed at least one part of the three-part basic skills exam, part of the 1984 school-reform law.

Budget Error Found

Even those who failed probably got off lighter than state employees after an error was found in the Comptroller's state spending report. One was fired; two resigned.

Comptroller Bob Bullock, who tolerates few mistakes, corrected his April report to indicate spending was up only one percent, not 25 percent as he reported two weeks ago.

Like a doctor tending a patient hourly, Bullock has been monitoring the ailing state budget monthly as Texas hurtles toward a projected $1.3 billion deficit.

He has been critical of Gov. Mark White's austerity program for lacking the teeth to trim 13 percent in state agencies. Bullock's monthly scrutiny gives it teeth.

Texas House Summoned

House Speaker Gib Lewis plans to call all 150 state representatives to a one-day briefing on state spending, the budget and major education issues this month to prepare for the regular session in January.

His action underscores the governor's reluctance to call a special session this summer prior to the November elections. The Republicans want White to call one to cut the budget.

Lewis, a Democrat who lives in what has grown into a GOP district, faces a Republican candidate, strength unknown.

Appointed Judges

Texas Supreme Court Chief Justice John Hill wants a new system to appoint state judges instead of electing them.

Reasoning that judicial candidates appeal to voters more by name identification than bench qualifications, Hill suggested that non-partisan committees submit a list of five names for each seat. The governor would choose one for Senate ratification.

Other Highlights

—Gov. White and his opponent, former Gov. Bill Clements clashed over the collection of a telephone tax that was repealed last session.

White told telephone companies to quit collecting part of the gross receipts tax which was eliminated when White signed a sales tax on some telephone services.

Clements criticized White and his utility commissioners for allowing the double taxation to take place.

—The Texas Democratic Party confirmed that despite its efforts to repel followers of extremist Lyndon LaRouche, some infiltrated via uncontested slots.

The party also told Railroad Commission candidate P. S. Ervin he cannot use the nickname "Sam" on the ballot again since he could not prove it was commonly used the past two years.

Ervin capitalized the nickname to confuse voters' identification with the late North Carolina Sen. Sam Ervin and knock long-time party activist John Poulard out of a runoff with John Sharp.

—Andy Briscoe, who finished second in the governor's race, called for party unity but stopped short of endorsing White. Briscoe indicated he will run for some office again.

—Convicted serial killer Henry Lee Lucas said Attorney General Jim Mattox was right for criticizing law officers who accepted dozens of fake murder confessions from him.

Last week Mattox's report accused Lucas of playing a hoax on the criminal justice system.

Former Williamson County Attorney Ed Walsh, who prosecuted the Lucas conviction, is in a Republican runoff election seeking to oppose Mattox in November.
