The Great Texas Trash Off

By DON TABOR
Publisher

If you're out and about on our highways this coming Saturday, be careful.

Apparently, there will be a bunch of people along side many of these highways picking up the trash that somebody (I'm sure not you or I) threw out of their cars.

According to some information I got from the State Highway Dept. last week, over 15,000 Texans have volunteered to clean up about 2,000 miles of Texas highway in "The Great Texas Trash Off."

The thing is an outgrowth of two highly-successful programs initiated by the highway department — the "Don't Mess With Texas" and "Adopt-a-Highway" anti-litter drives.

We've seen the results of the Adopt-a-Highway campaign over the past few months in Callahan County where civic groups have agreed to clean up sections of highway in the Clyde and Cross Plains areas.

We've also seen the TV ads where a couple of huge Dallas Cowboy linemen look menacingly into the camera and recite the "Don't Mess With Texas" slogan. I wouldn't dream of it. Who wants to have Randy White and Too Tall Jones after them?

The highway department thought up these two programs about 18 months ago, deciding that the $24 million annual cost of cleaning up the state's highways was too high.

And, they're working. During the first year of the two programs, roadside trash was reduced by 29 per cent. The information didn't say so, but I presume that the $24 million figure has also dropped.

So, drive carefully when you see these volunteers cleaning up the litter Saturday.

And, let's not add to their harvest. You never know, Randy White might just be lurking around the corner.

mother, and Kiran Mazumdar, exchange student, in support of her traveling to Germany as an exchange student.

Spaghetti Supper Big Success

By C.A.

The turnout was very good, the food was excellent, the socializing was great, but the real treat was being able to visit with two very nice, personable young people who are currently exchange students in Texas from Germany.

If you weren't able to attend last Thursday's Spaghetti Supper at the high school, you certainly missed a special treat.

The Supper was held to help raise the necessary funds to send Cross Plains student, Kerry Pointer, to Germany as an exchange student for the next school year.

According to Connie Kirkham, organizer of the Supper, it was very successful.

"Cross Plains should give itself a real pat on the back." That was what MarKay Rister said in speaking about the support shown by the townspeople as seen in the turnout at the Supper.

MarKay Rister is a tri-state area representative for the YFU (Youth for Understanding) organization through which Kerry's exchange is being arranged. She accompanied the two exchange students on their all-too-short visit in Cross Plains.

One of the students was Monika Busch from Hanover, Germany. She is presently staying with a family in Abilene and attending Abilene High.

The other student was Kiran Mazumdar. He is from Munich, Germany and is spending this year in Avoca, attending Avoca High School.

Everyone who was able to visit with them (including myself) was certainly enlightened as they answered the many questions about living and going to school in Germany...not only the differences, but more importantly the similarities in people from around the world.

This is an outstanding opportunity, not only for Kerry in becoming an exchange student, but for Cross Plains to send a representative from our area around the world. Watch for news of the next fund raiser, and take part in this unique opportunity.

STRUCTURE SAVED — The house belonging to Edgar McNutt was saved from total destruction by the Cross Plains Volunteer Fire Department. The front section of the house received the most severe damage.

High Winds Don't Deter Volunteer Fire Department

By VANDA KING
Editor

Last Tuesday, April 14, the Cross Plains Volunteer Fire Department was called into action around noon. Many sirens summoned 10 volunteers to a house fire six miles out on West Highway 36. Three trucks, two boosters, and a tanker were on the scene.

The house belonged to Edgar McNutt. It was vacant, as it is rental property. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

Thirty mile winds were a great disadvantage, but the Fire Department had the flames under control in a matter of 20 minutes. Luckily the wind was blowing in a direction so that other homes were not threatened.

A spokesman for the volunteers reported that they handled the fire well and were able to save the structure of the house. One room was badly burned and all the others received smoke and water damage.

The ability to save a home that distance from town, plus taking all the water supply, which consisted of approximately 2,000 gallons speaks well of the department.

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N. V. GIBBS

CARRIE FRITZ
...Easter basket winner

Spring has finally gotten here after so many tries. The thermometer at the Gibbs place was in the middle nineties at 7 p.m. Saturday. Rain is needed on farmland and pastures.

Bluebonnets are in full bloom in yards and roadsides while the post oak trees were really set back by the extreme cold spell.

This is also the Easter holiday season when our Lord was resurrected from the grave. Many will be dressed in their Easter clothes while attending the church of their choice Sunday, but all will study how Christ overcame the grave and lives today.

Those visiting James and Dorothy Reynolds Saturday were Ellen Carpenter of Denton, Tan and Janet Flippin and son, Drew, of Stephenville and Jim and Crecia Reynolds and sons, Chris and Colby, of Midland.

Tonya, Bill, and Connie Steele went home with their Uncle Lee and Jean Jernigan to Lake Proctor Friday morning. Tony and Judy Steele brought them home Saturday night after visiting in the home.

Company Saturday afternoon in the Sterling Odom home were Charles and Nancy Palmer and son, Michael, of Clyde and Ivon Odom of Pioneer.

Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin attended revival services in their church at Baird this week. The revival closed Wednesday night with supper enjoyed by all. On Thursday night they attended the Clyde First Baptist Church spring revival where their son, Roland Mauldin, and family are members.

Arvin Thornton of Lubbock visited in the Gene Mauldin home last Sunday. He grew up here in the community and is the son of Roy and the late Jaunita Thornton of Abilene.

Mrs. Sterling Odom attended her Sunday School Social in Cross Plains Monday afternoon and later visited Ludie Norris.

Little Leigh Harrell will not get to dress up in her new dress for Easter due to illness. Her grandmother, Mrs. Ted Newberry, and her mother, Maryana Harrell, took Leigh to the Fort Worth Zoo Friday and Leigh became ill with a virus on the way home. Her mother reported they might be sleeping late instead.

Visitors in the Emma Johnston and Lizzie Burks home during the week were Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Anderson of Rising Star, Carroll Burks of Abilene, Arlene Laney and her granddaughter, Maryoln Kelly of Cross Plains. Also Leona Gary.

Mrs. Sterling Odom and Mrs. N.V. Gibbs attended the funeral of Jami Johnston in Cross Plains Thursday afternoon.

Those making calls on Edna Dye this week were Clara Sargis and Thelma Jordan, Dr. and Mrs. Howard H. Hollowell all of Abilene and Ed and Betty Sayre of Breckenridge. Edna was involved in a car accident in Abilene last Saturday which did much damage to her car and left her bruised and shaken up. Her sister-in-law, Mary Sayre, of Breckenridge spent part of this week in her home. Mrs. N.V. Gibbs visited them Tuesday afternoon.

Nell and Gundy Gunderson were delayed on their trip back to Minnesota when he became ill in Cameron, Missouri when they stopped for the night. He entered the hospital there and was treated for pneumonia. They had been here visiting her sisters, Joyce Odom and this writer. They reached their home on Thursday night and he was feeling better when she called.

Don and Maryana Harrell and daughter, Leigh, made a recent trip to Guthrie, Okla., to attend a horse show. They showed their horses also.

Among those on the call for news this week were the Robert Watson family. Her only news was having to kill a coon one night this week when they were awakened by a crying chick. She keeps her baby chickens in coops and the coon was able to reach in, he thought for his supper. Robert had plowed and dry sowed hay grazer in his fields this week.

Vernie Belle Mauldin visited in this writer's home Friday afternoon and Tuesday I visited in Abilene with Truitt and Lillian Hollingshead.

Opal Steele of Clyde came out to the Tony Steele place to visit them and her brother and sister-in-law, Lee and Jean Jernigan, who were there in their trailer for a few days of turkey hunting.

BURKETT NEWS

By JAN POPE
and GLENDA CALLAWAY

Well, have you decided yet if it is spring, winter, or summer? You would think as much rain as we've had, we wouldn't need any for a while, but it's getting dry. The wild flowers and bluebonnets are beautiful. Let's hope we get our April showers for our May flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Thate spent the past weekend at Lake Hubbard with their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Watson, who operate a marina there.

Rev. and Mrs. Ted Bigham visited briefly with the Thates Sunday.

Mrs. Thate wishes to thank all who offered condolences over the death of their very special pet, Butch. Butch had been with Nita and Buddy for 10 years.

Jack Boyles has returned to Burkett from Baylor Hospital. He is doing some better.

Visitors in the Lat Mountain home Sunday were Adrian Price of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Jody Whitley of San Saba, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Turney and Jon of Waco, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Strickland.

Treasures Of Truth

The order and organization of the Lord's church that He promised to build: Jesus Himeself is the chief cornerstone; the apostles and prophets are the rest of the foundation (Acts 4:10-12; Eph. 2:20-22). According to the sovereign will and power of God, He set some in the church as the nucleus from whence the building would grow properly (1 Cor. 12:27, 28; Eph. 4:11-16).

Following the Heavenly pattern, Jesus the Master builder of His church, told His apostles that He would send the Holy Spirit to guide them into all truth, speaking only what He was given to speak (Matt. 16:18; Jno. 16:12-15).

They would be given a baptismal measure of the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:5, 8), and He would be the inspiration of their knowledge, and power to preach the gospel of Christ and confirm the truth with miracles, signs, and wonders (Rom. 1:16; Acts 4:33; 5:12, 14).

I love you,
Ed Will

The Cross Plains High School classes held class meetings last Wednesday, April 15.

The Seniors discussed where they will go on their Senior trip. It has been decided that they will go to Big Bend State Park where they will stay for four days enjoying swimming, fishing, and river rafting.

The Juniors talked about the Junior-Senior Banquet that they will be giving the Seniors on May 9.

The Sophomores have planned a car wash for Saturday, April 25. It isn't definitely set, but we will let you know as soon as we hear from the Sophomores.

Finally! Last, but not least. The Freshmen will also be holding a car wash which will be held on Saturday, May 9.

We want to commend all these classes for trying to make an effort to raise money for their classes this year.

Kiwanis Hear From Students

By JAMES AMES

Last Tuesday, April 14, five students from Cross Plains High School spoke to about 20 Kiwanians at their weekly breakfast meeting at Odom's Cafe.

Joe Coppinger's Freshman English I class was assigned a composition involving library research. Mr. C. felt that some of the papers were exceptionally well done, so he decided to have these particular students read their papers to the Kiwanians.

It was a good opportunity to get some deserved recognition for their efforts, and it was good experience to speak before a group.

According to Mr. Coppinger, the papers were chosen on the basis of (1) their quality and (2) the interest of the subject matter to a group of men.

Those students who spoke were: Stephanie Walker... "Some Causes and Effects of Using Marijuana"

Melanie Maddox... "Harmful Aspects of Smoking"

Eddy Albrecht... "Over Population: A Problem Now"

Tina Evans... "Some Causes and Effects of Child Abuse"

Dana Dukes... "Drunk Drivers: The Risks They Take"

Pam Helms... "Cystic Fibrosis: The Incurable Disease"

Mr. Coppinger said that all of the students did a very good job in their presentations and the members enjoyed hearing the works by the students.

Youth Rodeo Upcoming At Weatherford

The Parker County 4-H Parents/Leaders Association is sponsoring a Youth Rodeo May 1, 2, and 3 at the Parker County Sheriffs Posse arena in Weatherford.

The association is using the rodeo as a money making project to help support 4-H youth in the county. The youth rodeo last year helped make improvements to the Brownwood 4-H Center, increase our scholarship fund, help pay a 4-H member's expenses to 4-H Congress in Washington, D.C. and help pay a 4-H member's expenses on an international 4-H exchange trip program.

This year's funds will go towards helping 4-H members on a 4-H exchange trip to Obin, Tennessee this coming June.

Entry forms and more information can be obtained by calling the Parker County 4-H office at AC817 599-6591, Rodeo Secretary at AC817 682-4897 or Advertising Chairman at AC817 594-3416.

Sixth Annual Art Competition

Congressman Charles Stenholm announced plans today for the Sixth Annual Art competition for high school students, grades 9 through 12, in the 17th Congressional District. The contest will culminate May 23 with an awards luncheon in Abilene. The winning entry will be displayed this coming summer, along with artworks from all across the country, in a corridor of the United States Capitol. Local contest winners will receive a Congressional Certificate of Appreciation.

"Since it was first launched in 1982, the nation wide competition has generated more than 1000 district art competitions involving some 60,000 high school students," said Stenholm. "This contest allows us to encourage our young artists whose creative energies are so vital to our rich cultural traditions."

In Abilene, on Saturday, May 16, entries will be judged in the regional show at the Cooper High School Cafeteria. Counties to be included are Callahan, Coleman, Haskell, Jones, Nolan, Runnels, Shackelford, Stone-wall, and Taylor. All entries must be in place by noon on the 16th with appropriate entry forms completed. Similar area contests will be conducted over the vast 17th district in Big Spring, Gainesville, Graham, Post, Snyder, Stephenville, and Weatherford.

Artwork must be no larger than 30" by 30" (unframed), and two-dimensional. Landscapes shall portray Texas scenes. Eligible categories are paintings, drawings, collages, and prints.

Additional information may be obtained from any of Congressman Stenholm's offices or from Martha Kiel in Abilene, (915) 692-9591.

Public Viewing Of Educational Material Slated

All regional education service centers in the State of Texas are required to provide regular opportunities for the general public to examine audio-visual items and other materials which are available for use by public schools. The review period for this quarter has been scheduled for 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Friday, April 24.

The public is invited to peruse materials on that day at the Region 14 Education Service Center, 1850 Albany Highway, Abilene. Although no appointment is required, an advance phone call — (915) 676-8201 — would be helpful if the reviewer is interested in examining a particular item. Every effort will be made to see that materials are available to interested persons.

For The Love Of Gami

There are no words which can express

The love we feel; the tenderness

Towards those whose loved one now is gone.

But still her memory lingers on

And will, forever, in our heart.

From within us she will not depart.

We will always think of her as young.

Her youth by Time will not be stung.

Upon her brow the winter's snow

Will not rob her of her glow.

The bloom so fresh upon her face

Will live forever in God's grace.

And while our tears flow for her here

We know she dwells with God, so near.

So her soul we now release

Into God's care, and to His peace.

Phyllis Taylor

PIER NEWS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKS

This past weekend was a genuinely pleasant one for me. My family, C.V. Jr., Karen, Lisa and Chesley Elizabeth, came in day afternoon. They stayed until morning, dividing their time with Karen's mother, Doris Ann, who was visiting her mother, Lucille, and with Benny Callaway and...

Sunday morning services at First Baptist Church were beautiful. The church was packed — families from all over. The special Cantata, presented by the choir Sunday evening, was spectacular by our pastor, Michael Hand directed by Marvin Saunders. The music; it was a beautiful treat.

Visiting Mrs. Ethel Brown were Elbert Hill and son, of Snyder; also Lou Grider of Croftons and her daughter, Ms. Patty of Fort Worth. Neighbors, Mr. Mrs. Cole Tillotson, visit her often.

Mrs. Hiram (Jewel) Foster had numerous visitors during the weekend. Don Houston and wife, of Houston, Golda Houston of Abilene also a grandson, Doug Foster, and of San Antonio. Her sons and daughters, Charles and Lucille of Cleburne and locally, Eugene and Norma Foster visit her often.

George Mack Taff's family visited them during the weekend. Just recently, Marianne spent a few days in Mason with her parents. Jean Fore attended church on Sunday morning, other than that, they had a very quiet weekend.

The Bobby Rood family are in Baird on Sunday, at Sue Neil's home. They had an Easter egg hunt in the afternoon.

Visiting Betty and J.T. on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beggs and family of Cross Plains, also Mr. and Mrs. Kim Beggs of Stephenville. They had an egg hunt Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Sam Beggs of Morton and Lonnie Beggs of Fort Worth visited them last Saturday. On Wednesday they visited Edith Beggs in Cross Plains. She is doing quite well since her surgery.

Nikki Beggs, Rex's daughter, came on the phone on Monday, and told me she had found the "prize egg" during the hunt on Sunday afternoon.

One morning last week, I walked out my back door just in time to see my neighbor's palomino mare give birth to a tiny long-legged foal. About three minutes later, Sheri had crossed over the fences between her house and mine, to check on the mother and new baby. She took them up to the corral at her house.
