Missing The Afternoon AR-N

By DON TABOR
Publisher

I never thought I'd say this, but I miss somebody else's newspaper. I miss the AFTERNOON Abilene Reporter-News.

I know it hasn't been published for nearly a year now and I know there were probably justifiable economic reasons for cutting it out, but I still miss it.

The other day when I heard on the radio about the tragic crash of the Dyess B-1B in Colorado, for quite a while I kept thinking that I would get some good, detailed information on it as soon as they threw my paper that afternoon. Then I remembered they wouldn't be throwing an afternoon paper. I guess it's just a case of taking something for granted, until it's gone.

I watched the reports on TV that night about the crash, and they devoted quite a bit of time to it, but they left me hungry for more details, details I'm sure I'd have gotten in the afternoon R-N.

In fact, I imagine the Abilene TV stations miss the afternoon R-N more than I do.

I know that when I was the news editor of that paper (back in ancient times), I'd meet TV reporters grabbing copies off the newsstand in front of the Reporter-News as I was leaving work.

They would glean information for their 6 o'clock newscasts. One station had the slogan: "The news you'll read tomorrow." That station's reporter was usually the first one at the newsstand and I'd holler, "Hey, Jerry. The news we'll read tomorrow!"

I recently subscribed to the Brownwood Bulletin, one of very few afternoon dailies still operating in this part of the country. Of course, I don't get it by mail until the next day but I guess that's what started me to thinking about the afternoon R-N.

I don't know whether they know it, but the folks in Brownwood who get that paper the same afternoon it's printed are getting a treat. For instance, Monday's paper had a complete story on the stock market falling again that same day, information we didn't get in the Reporter-News until the next day.

TV has changed newspapers forever and I guess the days of the afternoon paper are numbered everywhere, but for an old newspaperman, it's sad.

I remember the only special edition of the afternoon Reporter-News we put out during the 18 years I worked there.

It was the afternoon President John Kennedy was assassinated. People were scared, almost panicking. They were lined up at the mailroom door, literally screaming for a copy of that paper. With all the wild rumors that were flying, it made us feel good that we could give them some good information. I know for a fact they calmed as soon as they began reading.

Buffaloes To Face Goldthwaite At Home

By VANDA KING
Editor

The Cross Plains Buffaloes overpowered the Jim Ned Indians with a 14-6 victory at the Jim Ned Stadium Friday night.

The Buffs provided another action packed game with Gregg Weiss #12 scoring the first touchdown of the game on a 1-yard play. The extra point kicked by Apple was no good and the first half ended in a 6-0.

Dennis Dacus ran 10 yards in the third quarter, tying the score 6-6.

Darin Apple #40 made a 6 yard run in the fourth quarter, and Chris Brown #10 made the two-point conversion on a toss from Weiss. A score of 14-6 snapping the tie.

In the fourth quarter Chris Moon #25 intercepted an Indian pass, but the referees ruled it pass interference. Casey Williams #73 sacked the quarterback, preventing further scoring by Jim Ned. David Wilson #54 prevented a fourth down attempt by the Indians.

Cross Plains is now 7-2 for the season and 4-2 in District 8-2A play. Jim Ned dropped to a 3-6 season record and a 1-5 district record.

The game was full of emotion as the tension built toward the end of the game.

The Varsity Cheerleaders don't have to worry about a pep squad now days, as the whole audience participates in the chants of encouragement. The Buffalo fans were out and ready for a fine game, and they certainly weren't disappointed.

Photos of the game were not available at press time.

This Friday night the Buffs will host Goldthwaite on their home turf beginning at 7:30 p.m. San Saba beat Goldthwaite last week, so the Buffaloes have a good shot at winning. GO, BIG BUFFS, GO - Let's win the last home game!

Local Couple In Accident

Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Tension of Cross Plains were involved in a head-on collision with a couple from Abilene in front of the Pioneer Farmers Cooperative Sunday afternoon.

The lady from Abilene suffered a fractured pelvis. The man was not injured.

The Jaws of Life was needed to remove the Abilene woman from the wrecked auto.

The Cross Plains Emergency Medical Service sent two ambulances to the scene. On the way to Abilene one of the ambulances engine went out and the first unit had to come back and pick up the patients in the second unit.

Colonial Oaks Mini Art Show Results Published

A "Mini Art Show" was held at the Colonial Oaks Nursing Home last Tuesday morning, October 27.

Five ladies, who are residents at the Nursing Home, have been coloring large poster type pictures with map colors and felt pens every Tuesday morning under the supervision of Linda Edington, Recreation Director.

Each lady chose two pictures for the Art Show. First place was awarded to Mable Burchfield along with a $10 cash prize. Second place went to Ella Miller plus a $5 cash prize. Third place and a $3 cash prize was awarded to Dola Ritchie. Madie Chambers took fourth place and $2. Ava Talley received the fifth place ribbon and $1.

Colonial Oaks Nursing Home provided the ribbons and cash awards.

Judges for the show were Ozella Huddleston, Lou Wilson, and Vanda King. They commented that the competition was very close and judging was difficult.

Edington stated that the "Mini Art Show" would become an annual affair since it was such a success.

Refreshments were served following the judging and presentation of awards.

Lord's Acre Set For Saturday

By Arlene Stephenson

Those good Methodist cooks are hard at work with the last details of the turkey dinner to be served this Saturday night at the Lord's Acre. Serving 435-450 meals may sound like quite a job, but after doing it for about 20 years, the ladies have the system all figured out.

Rosalea Bonner simply finds 18 volunteers to roast 360 pounds of turkey and make the dressing and gravy. Helen Walker passes out 20 gallons of green beans to be fixed. Jean McWilliams collects money from her "sweet potato people" and comes up with 56 pounds of potatoes swiming in a delicious sauce. Five gallons of cranberry sauce show up through the efforts of Helen Freeman.

Betty Browning and Vera Pearl Bunnell see to it that 50 dozen hot rolls are ready while Lora Fay Harris easily finds bakers for the 27 cakes she needs. Pam Harris will find ways to serve up gallons of ice tea and coffee.

The efforts of all these dedicated cooks will come to a piping hot point at 4:30 Saturday when Betty Browning opens her house for the carry out service. The church doors open at 5 p.m. for those who wish to sit down and visit while they eat. Dinner tickets at both places are $4.

Terry Nixon's youth group will be delivering dinner to the Nursing Home and other shut-ins. If you need meals delivered, just call Betty at 725-6218. There is no extra charge for this service to the elderly and handicapped.

A table of bazaar items will be on sale at the church during the 5-7 p.m. serving period. The auction will begin promptly at 7:00 with everything from sour dough bread to a cord of wood; New Mexico apples to handmade quilts; and wooden Nativity scenes to green tomato relish.

The annual Fall Festival, symbolizing honoring the Lord for the gifts of our talents, will indeed offer something for the entire family.

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

Only sprinkles of rain has fallen in this area during the week. This writer went to look at the rain gauge, but not enough to measure. Rain is still needed for the dry ground and to refill stock tanks.

Those visiting Emma Johnson and Lizzie Burks this week were Norban Burks of New Mexico, Mary Frances Lowry, and Carroll Burks of Abilene. She also reported on Buren and Elsie Burks of Abilene, who are both patients in San Antonio hospital. They hope to return to their home in Abilene soon. Buren is the son of the late Will and Georgia (Gibbs) Burks who lived in the Rowden Community years ago.

Edna Dye visited in the home of Dr. Howard Hollowell and his wife in Abilene Saturday.

Sterling and Joyce Odom were in Clyde Tuesday afternoon and had a short visit with their daughter, Nancy Palmer and family.

Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin were surprised Sunday afternoon when two of their grandchildren of Stillwater, Oklahoma came for a visit. They are 21-year-old Gary Mauldin and his 16-year-old sister, Becky Mauldin. Gary drove to Odessa Monday morning to be interviewed for a job there. He has recently completed three years in the Marines and had studied to be a heavy equipment mechanic. He came back happy that he had gotten the job. The two are children of Don Mauldin.

Bill Steele spent Saturday night with Trey Fortune.

Joyce Odom and this writer attended the T.E.L. Sunday School class luncheon at the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall in Cross Plains Tuesday.

Congratulations to Miller and Marian Scott on the birth of their son Wednesday in an Abilene Hospital.

Dorothy Reynolds attended the annual associational meeting at the First Baptist Church in Eula Monday night.

The Robert Watsons and two children, Wyatt and Cody, attended football games in Baird at Gorman this week. Dorothy reported they were winners in both games. The family attended the Baird school carnival Saturday night in Baird.

Julie Dye spent Friday night in the home of Eugene and Dianne Bell in Baird.

Robbie Watson returned from Panama City Beach, Florida Friday after spending a week there attending an air force Catholic Protection Seminar. Robbie is employed at Dyess Air Force Base in Abilene.

This writer visited Corrie Lou Darby while in Baird Monday morning.

Treasures Of Truth

"Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. (I Cor. 6:18)

Whether adulterer, fornicator or a so-called gay, all involve sinful illicit sexual relationships with another. A base and grievous sin against ones own body; for below standards of decent human life. A flagrant disrespect for the Holy will of God.

Nothing can cheapen and degrade a person young or old more than illicit sex with another. If you are single, be true to God and yourself and wait until you are married. You won't ever regret it.

If you are married, be true to God and your mate. "Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." (Heb. 13:4)

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texas Republicans flocked to Houston last week for their party's nationally televised presidential candidate debate, while Texas Democrats entertained the advances of candidates seeking their support.

Meanwhile, Secretary of State Jack Rains predicted a low turnout for the Nov. 3 general election, a forecast reinforced by the small amount of pre-vote political activity.

A new poll with no surprises indicated Texans strongly favor Vice President George Bush among Republicans and give Jesse Jackson a narrow edge among Democrats, with most voters undecided.

An unrelated Houston poll shows the stock market collapse did not affect the personal finances of most Texans. Fifty-five percent of respondents said they felt no impact, and only six percent said the collapse had a major impact on their positions.

In San Antonio, officials of urban counties meeting there approved a resolution asking the governor to call a special session of the Legislature to deal with prison overcrowding.

Private Prisons

Gov. Bill Clements, stumping for the proposed prison construction bonds, told the group he wants Texas to build 19,000 new prison beds in 1991 to ease overcrowding, but a prison reform group said more beds won't solve the problem.

CURE, Citizens United for Rehabilitation of Errants, prefers the state commit to probation and parole reforms, and base sentencing guidelines on prison capacity.

Clements fared badly in last week's popularity poll, and Attorney General Jim Mattox, appearing at the same San Antonio meeting, rapped the governor for lack of leadership.

Mattox also cast doubts on some of the bond proposals, saying he didn't "like moving away from a balanced-budget position." But some may recall that it was a Mattox official opinion last session that allowed the Legislature to issue cash management notes, or borrow, to accommodate state spending. Mattox is now running for governor.

Funds Questioned

State Sen. Frank Tejada, D-San Antonio, asked two Supreme Court chief justice candidates to return campaign contributions from law firms and lawyers with cases pending before the high court.

But his targets, Supreme Court Justices Robert Campbell and Ted Robertson, said it would be impossible.

Reports show Campbell, since 1985, has received $212,868 in contributions from parties with pending cases.

Robertson files show $27,400, or 52 percent of his 1987 campaign funds came from parties with docketed cases.

Tejada, who chaired the special legislative panel which last year investigated charges of improprieties of two other justices, said returning the money would remove the perception that justice is for sale in Texas.

Lease Questioned

Comptroller Bob Bullock and Land Commissioner Garry Mauro said there was nothing wrong with the lease by which Bullock manages some 1,880 acres of state land in South Texas. A news probe turned up no evidence of special treatment.

The news account quoted some area landowners' suspicions of a "special deal," but also reported Bullock is paying more than anyone else offered.

Bullock shares the lease with a lobbyist, George Garland, and has built fences and seeded some areas to reclaim arid brushland.

Other Highlights

- An Austin state district court ordered Texas A&M University to release files from its 1986 in-house probe into football recruiting violations, specifically records dealing with the recruitment of quarterback Kevin Murray.

The court order was in response to a lawsuit filed by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram under the state's open records act.

- The State Board of Insurance opened hearings on a proposal to raise workers' compensation insurance rates by over 43 percent.

- State Rep. Juan Hinojosa, D-McAllen, said reports he was quitting his seat were wrong. He will stand for re-election next year and possibly run for chairman of the House Mexican-American Caucus.

- The Texas Supreme Court ruled unanimously that mandatory lie detector tests for state mental health employees are unconstitutional. The state began using the tests in 1983 amid probes of patient abuse.

- The number two mental health official, Deputy Commissioner Dr. Frankie Williams, announced she will retire at year's end. The top official quit less than a month ago.

A.B.W.A. sponsors the event each year as a fund raising project, selling booths to local organizations and individuals. Bake sales, arts and crafts, and a variety of Christmas novelties are just a sample of the items which will be sold at "Christmas Preview."

The Clyde Pecan Grove A.B.W.A. invites everyone to participate as a merchant or as a shopper. So get your shopping done early while supporting a worthwhile cause.

The American Business Women's Association is a non-profit organization stressing the advancement of women in business, and all the proceeds from "Christmas Preview" are used for academic scholarships for local young women.

The booths are going fast, so the event should be a great success again this year. The coordinator for this year's "Christmas Preview" is Earlene Yeary. If anyone needs further information, please contact the coordinator or any local A.B.W.A. Chapter member.

DRESS UP DAY — Local Kindergarten students enjoyed the day The Letter 'H'

By DARLENE HINESLY
During last week they ate snacks that began with the letter "H" and on Wednesday, October 28, it was hat day. The Kindergarten teachers have found this to be a very effective method for the beginning students to learn their alphabet and the students to enjoy the different activities.

CPHS Juniors Take TEAMS Test

By DARLENE HINESLY
Cross Plains High School Juniors took the Texas Educational Assessment of Minimum Skills (TEAMS) test on October 27 and October 28. The TEAMS test is an exit level exam that measures basic skills in mathematics and English language arts. According to state law, both sections of the TEAMS test must be mastered in order for the student to receive a high school diploma in the State of Texas. Eighty-one multiple choice questions were asked over 18 objectives in each section. A student must answer at least 50 questions correctly in each section to obtain mastery. The math section was administered on October 27 and the language arts section on October 28, according to Ann Watson, high school counselor. Students who fail this test may retake it in the spring.

Costume Day

By DARLENE HINESLY
Every year on the day before Halloween the high school and junior high students and faculty dress up in costumes. They may dress up as anything they want, as long as it is tasteful, and there is always a wide variety of costumes. You can see almost every kind of costume you can imagine. At lunch the faculty and students were judged by the members of the Student Council, since it is their organization that sponsors the activity. The categories that are judged are as follows:
1 best costume-teacher
1 best costume-boy student
1 best costume-girl student
Each received a $5 gift certificate from P.K.'s Stomping Grounds. This year's winners are: Faculty winner, Dora Smith; Student winners are Emily Horan (Junior) and Bobby Bomar (Sophomore).

LOCAL STUDENTS ATTEND LECTURE — The four students that traveled to Stephenville were Tammy Lane (from left) Regie Brown, Alicia Kirkham, and Wesley Brown.

Four Attend Lecture

By REGIE BROWN
Last Tuesday, October 27, four Cross Plains High School students and Mrs. Kim Childers attended a lecture at Stephenville. This lecture was held at Tarleton State University. The students that attended were: Wesley Brown, Junior; Tammy Lane, Senior; Alicia Kirkham, Junior; and Regie Brown, Junior. They were accompanied by Mrs. Childers, the high school science teacher.

DINNER FOR TWO — Scott Crockett and Glenn Webb really made a class act for lunch.

Two Dine At Finest Restaurant

By DARLENE HINESLY
Scott Crockett and Glenn Webb are in the 11th grade at C.P.H.S. and they decided to do something different for lunch one day last week. So, on Thursday, October 29, they went down to a local store and bought lunch. That's not so unusual, quite a few students do that at lunch. But when they came back to school they set up a table and chairs on the south lawn of the school. They had a table cloth, matching place mats, napkins, plates, silverware, and a 2 liter bottle of coke in an "ice bucket". Why did they do this I asked them, "Just for grins," they said.

Buffaloes' Best

Bill Johnson is running back for the Buffalo team and wears #34. He is 17 years old and a Junior at Cross Plains High School. Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson are his parents. Johnson has been participating in football for five years and this year is serving as Captain for the Buffs. He also is active in track. He plans to enter UIL competition in science and math later in the year for other school activities. His hobbies include working on cars. He stated that he liked to remodel and fix up old cars. Johnson said, "I became interested in football through my dad's love for the game." He likes the excitement and physical contact involved in the sport. He likes football because it teaches all the players to work as a team. Really I do not favor any one professional football player. If they are professionally ranked, they had to be good, and I just try to learn from them all. His personal goals in the game were to do and be the best he can. He would like to earn a position on the first team All District Football Team as defensive end. As for the Buffalo team, Johnson stated that he would like to see them play even better. He said they still make too many mistakes, and need to work better as a team.

David Wilson is Captain for the Buffaloes and plays offensive guard. He is a Senior and the son of Rufus and Lou Wilson. He has been playing for seven years. Track, golf, and FFA are other school activities which he is involved. Other recreations Wilson listed were hanging around his friends, cruising, sitting at the Conoco, and sleeping. Wilson stated that he had been watching football all of his life, and playing since sixth grade. "I like to play, because I like to hit people as hard as I can," remarked Wilson. Brian Bozworth is his favorite football player. He noted that Bozworth might have a big mouth and a bad attitude, but he could back up what he said. His personal goals in the sport are to help the Buffaloes win District and proceed to the playoffs. "This is the best team I have played on over the past four years. We have turned the team and town around and I hope it will keep going for years to come!" Wilson exclaimed.

Mighty Mites Vs. Jim Ned

Last Thursday night the Cross Plains Junior High Mighty Mites scalped the Jim Ned Indians by a score of 20 to 12.

On Jim Ned's first position, they fumbled the ball and it was recovered by the Mites.

Jody Brown swept around the left for a 35-yard gain to the Indians' 3-yard line. Jody Brown went ahead on a quarterback keeper for the Mites' first touchdown.

Brown aided the 2-point conversion.

On the Mites next position, Jody Brown completed a 30-yard pass to tight end Colby Walker to set up Brown's sweep around right for the six points.

The 2-point conversion failed. Jim Ned marched down the field for one of their two touchdowns.

At the half time it was the Mites 14, the Indians 6.

At the beginning of the 3rd quarter, Jim Ned scored the final touchdown to make the score 14 to 12.

In the 4th quarter, Billy Brown scored from the line of scrimmage on a 10-yard run to make the final score 20 for the Mites and 12 for the Indians.

Good blocking from the offensive lineman helped the Mites in their effort.

Garden Tips

November begins the dormant planting season. Trees and shrubs planted now will have time to develop good root systems before spring growth begins. Before you make a choice, be sure a particular tree will meet your landscape needs and you can supply its growth requirements. Some questions to consider and perhaps to ask a professional nurseryman:

-How big will it grow and how fast?

-How long will it live?

-Do the branches hang low?

-Will grass or plants grow under it?

-Because of the roots, how far should it be planted from a sewer line or drain line, sidewalk or driveway?

-Will it withstand extremely hot or cold weather?

-Does the tree need sun, partial shade or full shade?

-Does the tree have flowers or fall colors? If so, what colors?

-Is it particularly susceptible to disease or insects?

-Does it drop large seed or fruit that can be a hazard on walkways or will stain a car?

-Is the tree the right choice for a specific landscape purpose, such as screening, windbreak or noise abatement?

Regardless of whether the tree is grown in a container, balled and burlapped, or bare rooted, the success of the plant depends heavily on how well it has been planted. Digging a hole twice the size of the root system and amending the soil with organic matter is a good start. Water thoroughly after planting and stake plants taller than 4 feet to avoid their being blown over.

Calling Temporary Workers Independent Contractors Can Be Very Costly

Dear Commissioner Nabers: I am coordinator of a nonprofit organization. Our organization qualifies as an employer and we have an account number with the TEC. At times we need to hire people to work in the kitchen or do odd jobs. Can I hire someone to work, for instance, two hours for $10.00 and call it contract labor? Also, if I send someone to pick up commodities, could I pay them $50.00 to cover mileage and labor and call it contract labor?

Dear M.S.: What you are describing is NOT contract labor. Calling a working relationship "contract labor" does not make it so under the law. If you exercise direction and control of the work, which you most assuredly would in these situations, you are functioning as an employer. Every working arrangement requires independent assessment and there may be some facts you have not mentioned which would make a difference in the TEC's evaluation of your particular arrangements. Classifying employees as independent contractors can be extremely costly if it is done incorrectly. I am mailing you more information on Contract Labor.

Dear H.W.: I must assume from your letter that your employer does not carry Worker's Compensation insurance on its employees but that is the first thing you need to ask. If your employer does carry Worker's Compensation then you should file a claim and your employer will provide you with the proper forms for doing so.

In Texas, it is not mandatory that an employer carry Worker's Compensation. Your only recourse, if your employer does not carry this insurance, is to sue. You might want to consult an attorney or a legal aid office in your area about pursuing your case.

Ms. Nabers represents 336,000 employers throughout Texas. If you have any questions you want answered, please write Commissioner Nabers at: TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY, 614 Texas Employment Commission Building, 15th and Congress, Austin, Texas 78778.

The only thing a kid should be getting in school is smarter.

Unfortunately, what too many of them are getting instead is drugs. With your help, it doesn't have to be this way.

There is a program called "Schools Without Drugs: The Challenge" that can help you deal with the drug problem in your community or school.

Find out about it. The smarter you are about what works against drugs, the better chance our kids will understand how dumb it is to take them.

The Savings Really Add Up with WTU's Energy Saving Plan!

Energy Savings

Your energy savings will really add up when you qualify your home for WTU's Energy Saving Plan. You'll save money in energy bills for years to come when your home meets the energy-efficiency standards of the Energy Saving Plan.

Resale Value

An E.S.P. Home will have a better resale value than other homes on the market, because it offers home owners lower energy bills. Energy bills are an important consideration for most families, so your E.S.P. Home will fit into a prospective home buyer's budget easier than a non-E.S.P. Home.

Cash Allowances

WTU's Energy Saving Plan will now pay you larger cash allowances for installing energy-efficient equipment in your home. Consider a central system electric heat pump.

E.S.P. Book

The new E.S.P. Book clearly outlines all of the programs, cash allowances and requirements of the New and Improved Energy Saving Plan. The E.S.P. Book also has specific information on insulation, air infiltration control, energy-efficient equipment and much more!

WTU WILL PAY YOU:

$5000 per home

With a Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) of 8.0 and above.

To qualify for the cash allowances, your home must meet the E.S.P. requirements and be served electricity by WTU.

Pick up your FREE copy of the new E.S.P. Book at any WTU office, and start adding up your savings today!
