Buffalo Band Area Bound

By VANDA KING
Editor

"What a performance!" a local band booster remarked. The Cross Plains High School Band proved to be top in their Class A Division by receiving a Division I rating in the UIL Marching Contest in Brady last Saturday. Only four bands were honored in a group of nine.

Cross Plains, Irion County, Menard and Sterling City advanced to the Area competition slated for Saturday, November 2, at Shotwell Stadium in Abilene. The Pride of Cross Plains will perform first at 10:15 a.m., followed by Roscoe, Munday, Sterling City, Irion County, Menard, Paducah, and Petrolia. Abilene had only one Division I in Class A, Roscoe, while the remainder performed at Wichita Falls.

The Buffalo Band is competing in the toughest Area for Class A in the State, according to local band director, Bill Strickler. "Our band is among the elite bands in the State. Winning Sweepstakes last year along with only thirteen others, was very impressive," Strickler stated.

A large number of Buffalo Band Boosters were in attendance at Brady and there were some tense minutes awaiting the announcement. The excited looks on the faces of Mr. Strickler, Matt Sowell, and Holli Biggs as they were presented the trophy said it all.

The audience responded well to the presentation, according to Sheri Bennett. If you have not seen the sixty-seven show-stoppers in action, they perform a religious routine which is very dramatic. Debbie Strickler is to be complimented on her creativity with the Color Guard.

The band members, drum majors, twirler, color guard, and color guard assistants are all to be congratulated on their accomplishments. Mr. Strickler's saying, "You can do it better than you did the time before," has been successful.

The entire community sends wishes for the Pride of Cross Plains to advance from Area to State. The Band is Definitely Number 1!

Amendment Election Tuesday, Nov. 5

Voting on the constitutional amendments will take place on Tuesday, November 5, at the Cross Plains Community Center from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Voters are encouraged to come out and voice their opinion on these issues affecting the State of Texas.

School Out Early Nov. 1 And Nov. 8

The Cross Plains School announced that there will be early outs on the next two Friday afternoons due to lengthy travel distance to football games at Tolar and Santo.

Buses will run at 2:45 p.m. on both Fridays. Parents are being informed so that arrangements may be made for small children due to early release.

EMT Classes To Be Offered In Cross Plains

Rolan Jones, Emergency Medical Technician instructor, plans to start another EMT Class in January if there are at least ten Cross Plains residents to sign up. Anyone interested in being a volunteer with the Cross Plains Emergency Medical Service and wants to enroll in the classes should contact him at (817) 725-7456 at your earliest convenience.

More volunteers are presently needed for the E.M.S. and an appeal is made to anyone interested in the training and willing to serve the community in this worthy cause.

Senior Citizens Open House November 2

By VICKY WORLEY

It's time again! The Cross Plains Senior Citizens Center will be having their Annual Open House Chili Supper on Saturday, November 2, at 5 p.m. In addition to chili, beans and crackers, beef stew will also be served for $2 per person.

A bake sale and flea market will start at 1 p.m. We will also have a craft auction at 2 p.m. The annual cake walk will begin at 3 p.m.

Lots of door prize drawings will be given and the winner of the quilt raffle will be announced at 4:30 p.m.

Featured speakers will be here, along with some of our local musicians. So, come join the fun. Hope to see you here.

Estate Preservation And The Living Trust Presentation Monday, November 4

There will be a free presentation concerning Estate Preservation and The Living Trust on Monday, November 4, at the Cross Plains Multi-Purpose Center beginning at 7 p.m.

Dwain Harris, Prudential representative, will acquaint any interested persons with the principles of estate planning and the living trust. The session could prevent you from paying unnecessary estate taxes because of failure to plan ahead.

The informative session will last approximately one hour and refreshments will be served. The public is invited to attend.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The response for after Homecoming impressions has been terrific. Last week we had a hometown writer her feelings and this week an out-of-town correspondence. Both have expressed just the type of emotions I had hoped for. This week Major General Wesley Peel, USA Retired offers his observations with some details that we may take for granted. His wife will be remembered as a C.P.H.S. graduate and former teacher, Earline Sillix Peel. Thanks for the wonderful letters. I know it makes all the preparation for Homecoming worth-while. ### Why is It So Special?

By WESLEY E. PEEL

On 11 October, 1991, I accompanied my wife, the former Miss Earline Sillix of Cross Plains, to her 50th High School Reunion. She had been looking forward to visiting with her former classmates of '41 for the past six years. You see, she missed the last reunion held three years ago due to illness. So, she was determined to make this one, no matter what.

On the way from Bryan, I asked

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

By IRMA MILLER

The Quilters finished the Pinwheel Variation, and worked on the small Pinetree and the Bear Paw.

Novilia Barton's visitors were Betty Beggs on Sunday and Mark Reed and his friend, Gary Hubbard, both of Odessa on Monday.

Barbara and Bob Powell were visited on Monday by Pauline and Al Martinez of Rising Star.

Last weekend, Frankie and Oliver Smith entertained Oliver's nephew and wife, Rodney and Pat Smith of Lovington, New Mexico. Their daughter, Kelly, came from Dallas on Saturday night to meet and visit with them. Frankie, Oliver, and Jean Fore went to Ranger to visit Frankie's father.

Jean Fore, Paul and Juanita Harlow, and Vi Harlow went to the Cottonwood musical on Friday night.

John and Irma Miller were in Temple Monday, having gone to the State Fair in Dallas on Saturday, visited with their children, and returned home by way of Temple.

The two most enjoyable sights at the Fair in our estimation were the bird show called "Kings of the Wind," in which trained birds were allowed free flight and performed on a microphone; and the Creative Arts Show of prize winning quilts and other creative arts. The appliqued quilts were mostly the favored ones among the prize winners. Three of the most spectacular quilts were hung in the center of the Creative Arts building, a traditional Wedding Ring, a red-on-white appliqued scroll pattern, and a U.S. Flag with a large yellow ribbon and bow across the quilt. There was one appliqued quilt in a glass case which had won first prize in the 1936 fair.

Nell and Joe Fleming's visitors were JoVeda and Bill Watson of Lake Brownwood, who came Sunday afternoon, and Sam Fleming of Cross Plains, who took Joe and Nell to the doctor in Brownwood last week.

Rain in this community amounted to 4.25 inches by Monday morning.

Coleman Musical Friday, November 9

A Country Western Musical is held each second Friday at the Coleman V.F.W. in the West Ward School building on Gray and Oak Street.

Concessions open at 6 p.m. and musical entertainment begins at 6:30 p.m. All musicians in the area are welcomed to participate.

Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the performance and fellowship.

Our Own First Lady

By MARIE MORGAN

This vivacious young lady is over our center. That's why we all enjoy it in summer winter.

Things going at a lively pace. Just look around at the smiles in this place.

She takes us to Brownwood once a week.

Also to garage sales where bargains we seek.

Out to the country. How we seniors enjoy this ride.

Believe me her job she always does with pride.

She sees to it that no one has to sit and eat alone.

And she is there to help us all. We never hear her moan or groan.

She will call BINGO for an hour or so. We all enjoy this as everyone should know.

She greets everyone there calling them by name.

Every man and woman are treated the same.

She lets a volunteer pray before we eat.

Our first lady just can't be beat.

Even when she's on vacation or has to be away.

I've been told, she wonders how we are doing each day...

I think this would be a good time for us to stand...

And give this OUR SENIOR CITIZENS' FIRST LADY a great big hand.

YEA VICKY!

Methodist Church Offers Study

A three session study of the Ten Commandments will be offered by the United Methodist Church starting November 3, at 7 p.m. Warren Trammell will be leading the discussion of the Biblical presentation as well as the place of the teachings in today's world.

Additional sessions will be held on November 10 and 17. The church van will be available for those needing a ride — just call 725-7377 or 725-7694.

All are warmly invited to participate in this timeless topic of discussion.

What should be kept in a Safe Deposit box . . .

all documents that would be difficult if not impossible to replace such as birth certificates, automobile title, service records, insurance policies, passports, unused travelers checks, marriage certificates, and family records. Included, also, should be contracts, leases, deeds, trust documents, stocks, bonds and other securities. A safe deposit box is also a good place for jewelry, stamps, rare coins and family treasures. Your will should be kept in your safe myself why this single, seemingly ordinary event meant so much to Earline. I found the answer soon after we arrived in your usually quiet and serene little West Texas town.

It was apparent from the moment we turned off Highway 36 that the entire town had been infused with the excitement of Homecoming. Power poles on Main Street were shrouded with purple and gold crepe paper. The parking lot at the Dairy Queen was overflowing with out-of-state cars, and the walls inside were decorated with pictures of the Class of '74 and '61 and '82.

The real answer to my questions came when I attended the football game between Cross Plains and Rising Star on Saturday night. I guess I've attended 40 or 50 college football games and watched hundreds of pro football games on T.V. over the past 10 years, but I'd forgotten how exciting and how really close to the people a small community high school football can be.

It was reassuring to learn that football games at some places in our country are still preceded with a prayer and the playing of our National Anthem. It was wonderful to see men and small boys stand silently and remove their hats and caps as our National Anthem and the school song were played. It was heartening to see the same courtesy displayed by the Cross Plains Boosters as the Rising Star school song was played.

But I guess the most touching thing I observed was a constant stream throughout the game of young men in their late 20's and early 30's as they visited with, talked to and hugged, with obvious affection, a gracious grey-haired lady who had to have been their former teacher.

What I saw was small town Texas at its best. What I saw were the good and kind people of Cross Plains, and why my wife wanted so much to return to her roots.

See you again in 1994.

Buffalo Fans,

I have been to three home games. And in light of losing I think we have a pretty good team!

However, I noticed that no one is actually behind our Buffaloes. Cheering in the crowd is way down. The response to the band at half-time is far better than the team gets all during the game. The band is excellent, but the team also deserves that kind of support.

How do you suppose the Buffs keep their spirit up, if no one else is doing so?

My brother is on the team. I've heard him say quite often how disappointing it is to not hear the cheers in the background.

The Homecoming game was good and very close. The boys take all the blame, which I feel is unfair. Let's give them the support they need to be successful. They want to make us proud. I give them all the credit for their efforts. The real support should come from the fans!

It will also help the team with their losses. They should not share the grief of losing alone. Let our support help them through.

As we support the band and all other sports, why not the football team! The cheerleaders cannot do this alone!! Neither can the team!!

If we take pride in our community and school, let us as well do it for the fighting Buffaloes!

Support and Cheer for the Buffs!

Update On United Fund Drive

The United Fund Drive has collected $3,816.35. John Swift stated, "It was a little short of the 1991 goal."

All donations were greatly appreciated, and those who would like to donate may still do so at the Citizens State Bank.

The City of Cross Plains is reporting 1991 one percent city sales tax payments running 8.47 percent higher than the 1990 payments of the tax, according to the State Comptroller's report on Friday, October 11. Cross Plains 1991 sales tax payments have amounted to $43,854.60, while the 1990 sales tax rebates were $40,429.35.

The city's monthly sales tax check for October 1991 was reported to be $3,412.78. That figure was a decrease of 8.67 percent compared to tax collections of $3,736.96 made in October 1990.

Retail sales in the City of Clyde for 1991 continue above 1990 sales figures.

John Sharp, State Comptroller, said that 1991 sales tax payments in Clyde

SENIOR Citizens Stat Sixty

By MARIE MORGAN

If you are sixty or more, don't let life pass you by. Come out to your Senior Citizen Center, give it a try. The food is delicious and there's enough for all. If you need a ride, just give Vicky a call.

I know you will enjoy the friends you meet here. You will know someone, never you fear. Every day is different in some little way. Some days the piano or organ they play.

Some laugh and talk while others play a game. To miss out on all this is such a shame. When all you have to do is walk through the door, Then you can hardly wait to come back for more.

So don't be lonely and don't be shy, Don't let these good times pass you by. Come a little early, that will be just fine. The doors are open promptly at nine.

The food is nutritious, and is really quite good. If you are not eating here already, we wish that you would. If you need a ride no sooner said than done. Go to your phone and dial 725-6521.

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

This last Monday in October is cloudy and 'damp' — but we needed the rain, didn't we? My neighbor, Sally Roady, called early on Sunday to see if I had gone to church — in that heavy rain. She is sweet to be concerned. I watched the First Baptist of Abilene on the TV.

My first news this morning — my thanks to a group of people who sent cards of sympathy following the death of my little brother. There are too many to list — but you know who you are — and I so appreciate your kind words.

My good friend (also my hair-dresser), Connie Kirkham, has called me several times — just checking — and I do so appreciate her concern and thoughtfulness.

My Sunday School teacher, Louise Foster, came by one day last week for a brief visit. She brought me a small loaf of 'nut bread' — it was delicious, and I love and appreciate her.

I had a nice letter from my brother's first wife. She sent me some pictures of their two daughters. They are precious!

Betty Beggs stated that they had 4½ inches of rain. Betty enjoyed a meeting of the Art Club on Monday. On Tuesday, she and Mrs. C.T. Barton were in Cisco shopping and visiting. Mrs. Rusty Beggs of Temple visited Saturday night and Sunday. Also on Sunday, Nikki, Ashley and Anthony Beggs of Cross Plains, also a friend, Dusty Hinkle, visited them.

Marianne Taff and Mack's visitors were his sister, Mrs. Clifton Summers of Midland; also cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stark of Comanche and friends, Tom Cahill and a friend.

Mrs. Jewel Foster stated she was happy for the good rain. She went to Sunday School on Sunday — I didn't. Her only visitors this week were her sons — she is lucky to have them nearby.

are running 1.23 percent above tax payments during 1990. He said that the sales tax rebates for the City of Clyde have amounted to $65,831.96 so far in 1991, a 1.23 percent increase in sales tax payments compared to the same time period last year. The 1990 payments to the city during the same payment period were $65,029.15.

The city's monthly payment this year was also higher, compared to the same month in 1990, according to Sharp's report. The monthly payment to the City of Clyde in October 1991 amounted to $5,497.68 while the October 1990 payment to the city was $5,047.21. The monthly check this year was 8.93 percent higher than the same month last year.

Other Callahan County towns reporting sales tax payments include:

— The City of Baird reported that sales tax payments in 1991 are 2.23 percent higher than the 1990 payments. The city had received $29,048.41 so far in 1991, while the 1990 tax payments to the city were $28,415.38.

The town's monthly payment for October 1991 was $1,565.02, a decrease of 25.59 percent under a check of $2,103.23 for the October 1990 payment.

— The City of Putnam is reporting 1991 city sales tax payments amounting to $7,618.08 so far, a 1.56 percent increase from tax payments to the city in 1990. The 1990 sales tax checks to Putnam amounted to $7,501.26.

The city's monthly tax rebate check for October 1991 was reportedly 100 percent lower than the 1990 payment in October. The town's monthly payment check in October 1990 was $642.35, while the October 1991 total was not reported.

Countywide sales tax payments in 1991 for Callahan County are running 3.52 percent higher than the 1990 payments in the county. Callahan County towns have received sales tax payments in 1991 amounting to $146,353.05 while the 1990 payments to the county towns totalled $141,375.14.

The countywide tax rebates for October 1991 are running 9.14 percent behind last October's payments. Countywide collections for October 1991 were $10,475.48, while the October 1990 tax payments were $11,529.75.

Statewide sales tax payments in 1991 are 10.15 percent ahead of 1990 rebates, according to Sharp's figures. The state has sent out checks totalling $1,017,789,966.40 in 1991, while the 1990 payments to the state's cities were $923,999,393.06.

"Roughly 81 percent of this month's local sales tax rebates to Texas cities and counties was sent through an electronic funds transfer program," State Comptroller Sharp said, announcing total rebates of approximately $100 million for the month.

"Electronic funds transfer provides local governments instant access to their money and the state saves on the cost of paper, envelopes and postage," Sharp said.

Of the 1,067 cities and counties receiving sales tax rebates this month, 304 were sent payments of almost $81 million through the electronic funds program. The Texas Legislature recently passed legislation stating that all local sales tax rebates must soon be made electronically.

In all, the State Comptroller's Office dispersed $89.1 million to 962 Texas cities that collect local sales taxes. This year's total is just over $1 billion as compared to almost $924 million at this time last year, an increase of 10.15 percent over 1990's payments.

Merchants collect the state and local sales tax and send it to the Comptroller's office with their tax returns. The state keeps its 6¼ percent share and returns the local one percent sales tax each month to local governments. Cities and counties may levy a combined tax of up to two percent above the state's sales tax, however all Callahan County towns only a levy a one percent city sales tax, Sharp said.

October's checks include taxes collected on August sales and reported in September by businesses filing monthly sales tax returns with the state. Businesses file either monthly, quarterly or annually depending on the amount of sales tax they collect.

All local sales taxes must be approved by local voters and may be used for any legal city or county expenses. Most areas put the money in their General Fund and use it for normal operations like fire fighting, maintaining roads and law enforcement, Sharp said. Some cities use an additional 1/2 percent city sales tax to help fund local economic development and to reduce property taxes.

The local chapter of the AARP will meet for their regular session on Monday, November 4, at the Cross Plains Multi-Purpose Center beginning at 11 a.m. A luncheon will be served and members are asked to bring a covered dish.

Bro. Dwaine Clower, pastor of the Pioneer Baptist Church, will be the guest speaker.

All members and prospective members are invited to attend.

Let's not play games with state government

The lottery is a drastic change in the role of government, diverting its traditional mission from promoting the general welfare of the people to actively promoting games of chance in which most people lose. The state should not assume the role of enticing citizens to squander their money in hopes of "striking it rich."

Bears Run By Buffs

By WARREN PARSON

Friday night the Buffaloes took on the Baird Bears. The Buffalo offense and defense did a good job, but they kept "blowing" their leg off.

The Buffalo offense had a hard time getting in yardage, but had 22 first downs and 200 yards rushing with 2 fumbles. We also attempted 17 passing plays for 128 yards, with 13 completed and 1 interception.

The Buff defense did a good job in grand tracking and causing fumbles.

Maguel Harisho led the defense in tackling with 6, followed by Billy Brown with 5.

Both Jody Brown and Tim Yates accumulated 4½, and Colby Walker grabbed a total of 4. Michael Cowan and James Jones received credit for 3 each, while Kenny Horan had 2½.

Jason Fleming and James Reed had 2 each; while Bucky Williams, Brandon Smith, Jimmy Lee, Jacob Barron, and Mike Tollett each received 1.

We punted 5 times for 187 yards. The Buffaloes did not do as they would like to, but we keep on beating ourselves.

The team appreciates all the support we are getting from our fans, the band, and cheerleaders. Thanks!

Well, the Buffaloes are not quitters and no matter what, we will never quit. So come out Friday night and support the Buffs as they travel to Tolar to take on the Rattlers.

LET'S TALK

By BRANDIE EPPARD

Jacky Yarbrough, counselor from Serenity House in Abilene, presented an educational and interesting assembly about drugs and alcohol. It took place on October 23, 1991, beginning at 9:10 a.m. and lasting to 10:10. Grades 7 through 12, approximately 204 students, listened to the program.

Mr. Yarbrough had many topics to discuss with the group. One of them was the dysfunctional family and how that situation can make you so emotionally destroyed it drives a person to alcohol and/or other drugs, which people see as taking away the bad feelings.

He also discussed the emotional steps a person goes through on his/her way to becoming an addict. First is the depression stage when he/she feels they have been emotionally hurt by others. The next step is resentment, and the last step is the revenge stage.

He also touched on other subjects such as workaholicism, or sexaholicism and other unhealthy ways that people try to deal with stress in their lives.

In summary, he suggested that if a person is feeling depressed or under stress and strain he/she should try to find someone to talk to about their feelings. He suggested a counselor, a good friend, or teacher, or a trustworthy relative instead of turning to the unhealthy use of drugs or alcohol.

This program was only one of the several programs that were held for the students during the "Texas Drug Awareness Week" of October 19-26.

Anti-Drug Rally

By RENETHA CAROUTH

On Monday, October 21, the Cross Plains Elementary and Primary and Junior High attended a pep rally all about drugs. It was just one of several events that took place on the campus during the state-wide Drug Awareness Week. This pep rally was basically aimed at teaching the children to JUST SAY NO to drugs and to people who try to give them drugs. The pep rally lasted 30 minutes. It was held in the gym during the homeroom period.

There were a variety of different events packed into the 30 minute time period. The Callahan County Deputy Sheriff, Randy Pancake, talked about the danger of people who offered them drugs and to JUST SAY NO.

In another part of the program, the high school students in the "PAL" (Peer Assistance and Leadership) class did a skit about drugs. Darcie Graves acted like she was offering drugs to some students who agreed to try them, and then in comes Robbye Hutton dressed as the beautiful lady who taught them to JUST SAY NO.

Even the high school band got involved. They played several selections, including Gospel Medley, Peter Gunn, Battle Hymn, and Can't Touch This.

Helping in the program was Senior, Calvin Champion, who is also the Student Council President. Calvin introduced each segment and helped the cheerleaders teach the students a few anti-drug cheers.

Both the Junior High and High School Cheerleaders led the crowd in several different cheers aimed at discouraging drug use.

In a final activity, members of the High School Flag Corps and members of the Student Council passed out red balloons that had the "PROUD TO BE DRUG FREE" logo on them. Each primary student received a balloon as they filed out of the gym at the end of the program.

ER Or ING!

By GREG TURNER

These letters are endings of words we use throughout our English vocabulary. The ER describes a person and the ING describes what they are doing.

Let's use the word Lose! You use the ending letters with this word and you have loser — losing, but how we apply these words changes everything.

Some of you are saying, what is he getting at? Simply this — We may be losing, but we are not losers!

I'm reminded of a new song Clint Black sings: "Hold On Partner, Something Good is Coming To You! The Power is in the Herd! See you Friday night.

Lakewood Country Club was the site of this year's Cross Country District competition on Monday, October 28. Conditions were wet, but all 4 of the Cross Plains High School runners qualified for Regional competition. This was 100 percent of the runners that entered for Cross Plains.

Varsity girls that competed and are now going to Regional are Connie Steele, Tamara Flippin, and Jody Dallas. Connie ran a time of 13:49 which gave her a 1st place in district. Tamara finished 3rd with a time of 15:53, and Jodi was 4th with a time of 16:00.

Qualifying for Cross Plains in the boys division was Carlile Albrecht. He finished 3rd with a time of 20:05.

Junior high boys running in the district meet were Justin Richey, who took 1st place with his best time of the year, 5:47, and Andy Rutledge finished 11th with a time of 7:04.

I wish to thank the people of Lakewood for being so generous in allowing us to use their facilities for this competition. Also, thanks go to others who helped including Roy Richey, Bill Boyd, Debbie Bacon, and Ted McKeenan. They provided excellent help along with the coaches from the other schools.

The runners will be in Arlington on November 9 to run Regional and possibly go on to State. These athletes have worked hard and represented Cross Plains on a very good and positive note all year.

Cross Country Runners Did 'Priddy' Good

By COACH McCONAL

Cross Plains entered their Cross Country teams in their final tune-up meet before district. The group traveled to Priddy and competed on a beautifully laid out course on grassland. It included hills, trees and sharp curves. The Cross Plains runners all took home medals, with one exception. Junior, Jason Rutledge was running a strong ninth place when he pulled a muscle and had to stop running.

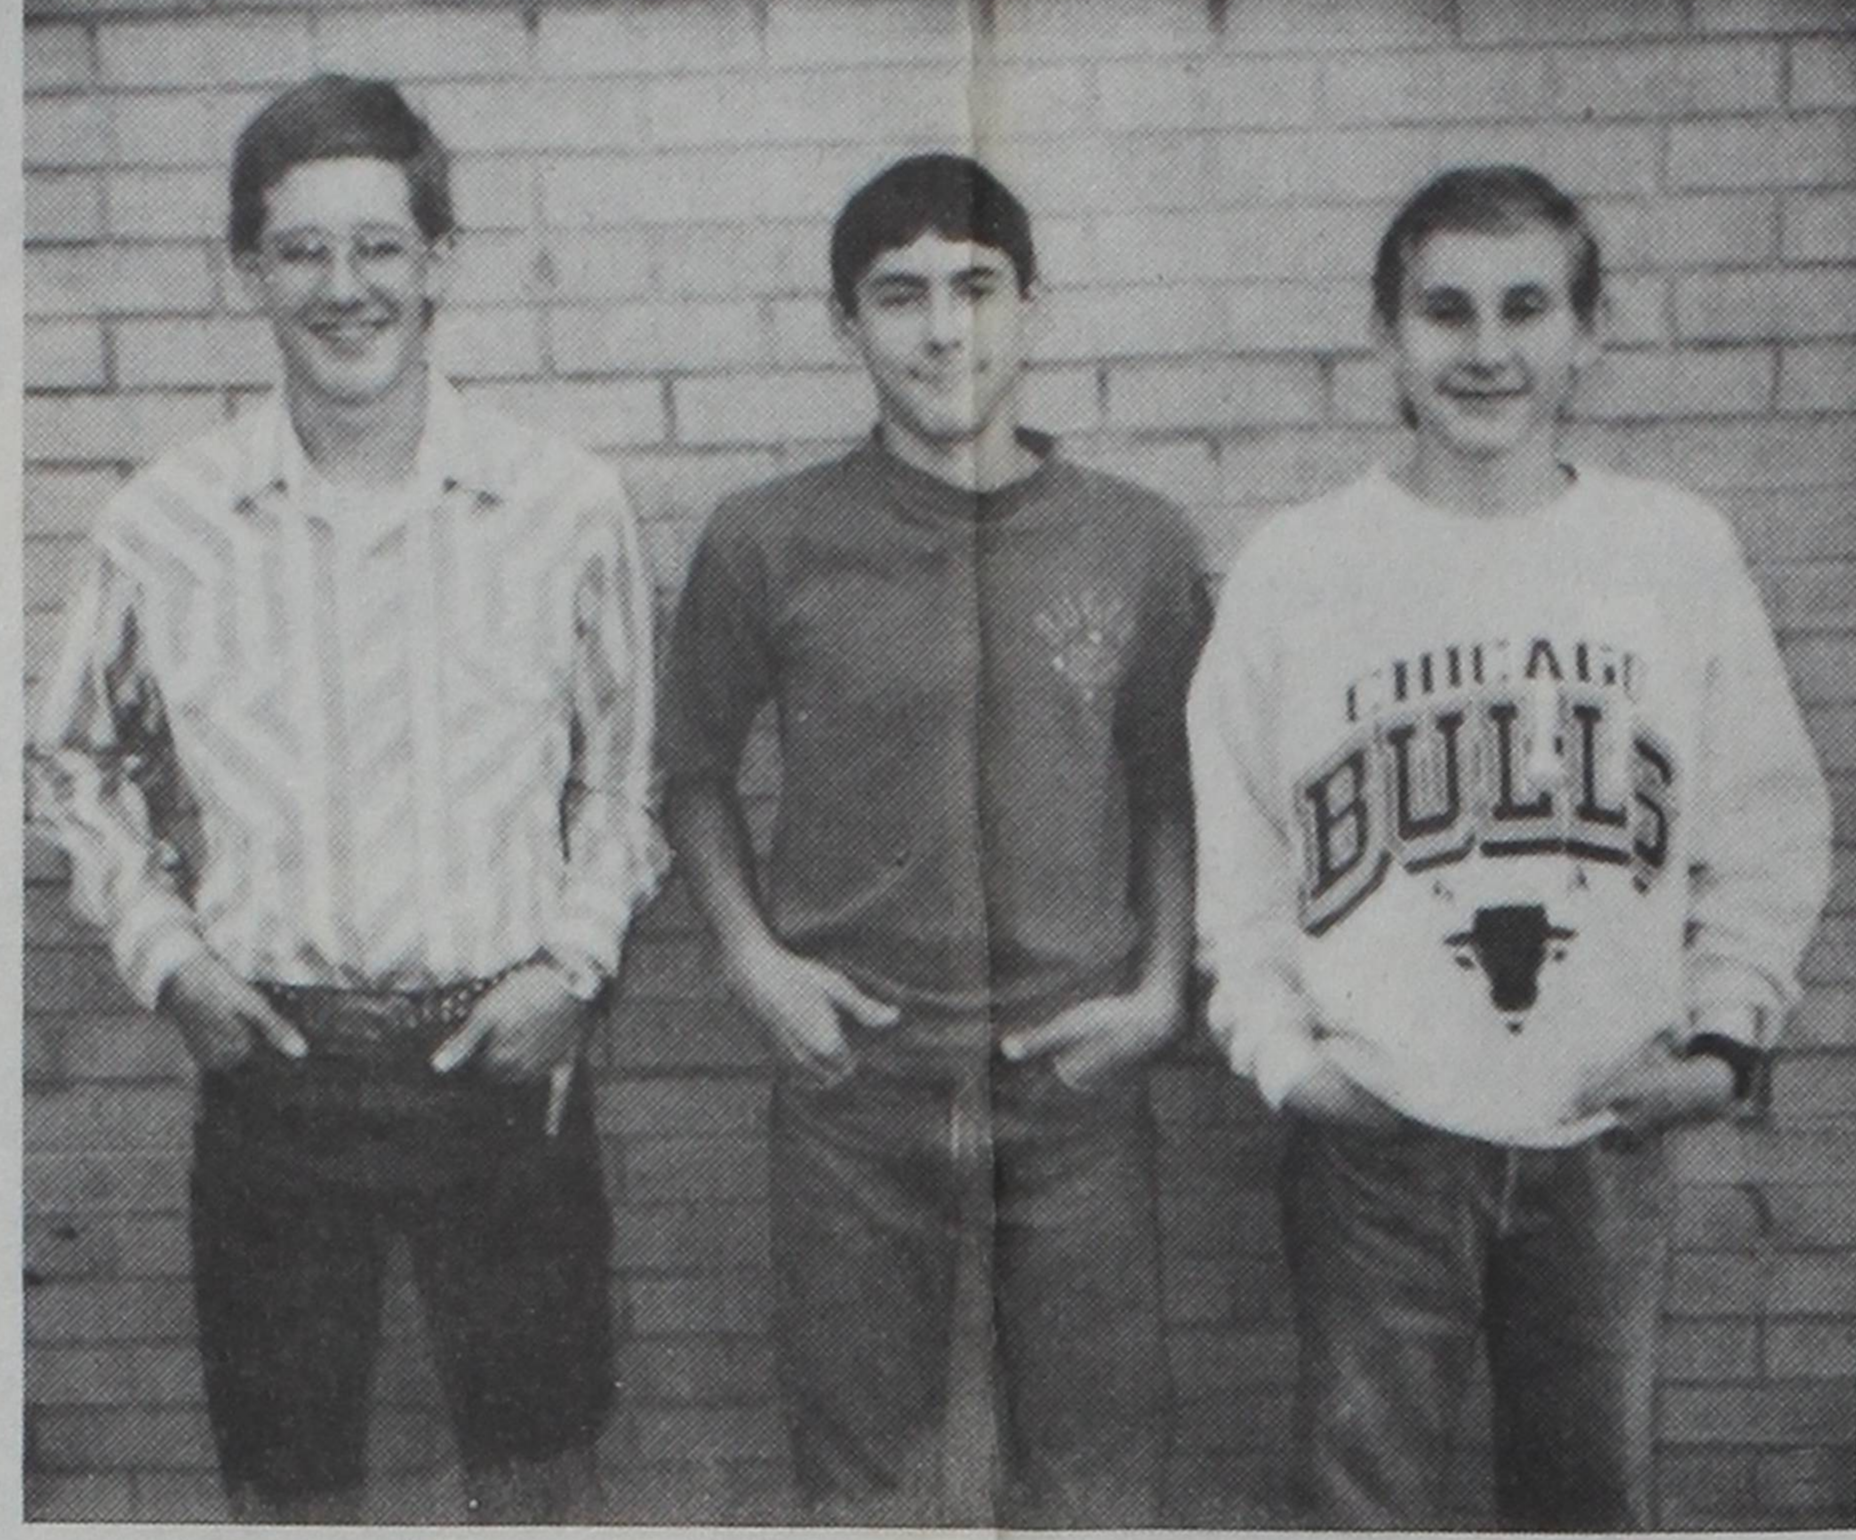

In the varsity girls division, Connie Steele won 1st place with her best time of the year...12:21. In taking first, she also beat one of the other top girls in the area.

Both JV girls, Tamara Flippin and Jodi Dallas, also ran their best times of the season. Tamara turned in a time of 13:57 finishing third, and Jodi had a time of 14:18 earning her an 8th place finish.

Carlile Albrecht won 6th spot with a time of 18:46. Two other boys against whom Carlile was competing are among the top 10 runners in the state at the present time.

SENIOR SKILLS — Tim Yates, — Panther Creek; 2nd — Cross Shirley Walker, and Billy Walker. 1st Plains; and 3rd — Abilene High.

JUNIOR SKILLS — Mike Tollett, Jim Ned; 2nd — Abilene High; and Jared Harris, and Chris Henson. 1st — 3rd — Cross Plains.

FFA QUIZ — Tamara Flippin, Lori ingberg. 1st — Wylie; 2nd — Cross Dillard, Glenda Evans, and Joy Kl- Plains; and 3rd — Winters.

Conditioning Facility Donations Continue

The 2,250 square foot conditioning facility being built on the east end of the school gym is receiving broad support from alumni and friends of Cross Plains Public Schools. The fund raising goal to complete the project is $30,000 and $10,535 has been received to this point.

The names of all alumni, friends, businesses, and other groups donating $20 or more will be permanently placed on the north interior wall for all future generations of our youth to see. Every donation, large or small, will go directly to this facility's completion.

Below are the names of folks giving before, during, and following Homecoming, not previously published in the Review. Take special note of the memorials by the Classes of 1957, 1959, and 1968. If you have not given to a class memorial yet, please consider doing so or give any way you can toward the completion of the project. Make donations to Cross Plains Public School (Conditioning Facility) and mail to Buffalo Booster Club, Route 1 Box 84C, Cross Plains, TX 76443.

COLONIAL OAKS NURSING HOME NEWS

By LINDA EDINGTON
Activity Director

The residents were given an October Fest party last Thursday night. They enjoyed several events consisting of the cake walk, dart throw, penny toss, and their most favorite activity of all, bingo. Cupcakes, prizes and fruit were given out to all who participated. Several of our employees dressed up for this party and received a blessing from the laughter and smiles as their faces lit up when they saw us. You know that's what it's really all about.

The employees are having a October Fest Circus today. Everyone is wearing a costume. This is really giving the residents something to look at and figure out who is who.

We invite the little trick-or-treaters to come by. The residents will be handing out candy.

A warm welcome to our new resident, Winnie Walton.

Midge McCall celebrated her 89th birthday this week. Happy Birthday, Midge!

W.M. and Mildred Stansbury celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary Monday. Our congratulations and best wishes to you both.

Daisy King was here visiting her sister, Inez Ingram.

Art and Bertie Roady from Abilene, Bob, Sally and Charlie Roady, and Billie Freeman were here visiting Nettie Roady.

Rev. Phillip Schaefer was here visiting with everyone. Also here visiting several were Vera Pearl Bunnell and LaVern Scott.

Farrell Stephens visited Madie Fortney.

Betty Beggs visited May Bell Odom. Ben and Alvis Kinard from Rising Star visited with Opal Criswell.

Activities during the week:

Monday: Bingo winners were Lucille Stone, Annabel Vaught (2), Madie Chambers (2), Midge McCall (2), Helen Wood, Ressa Glover, Vera Belyeu, Bertha Hoyt, and Clevia Ringhoffer. Exercise class.

Glen D. Churchill Announcing His Retirement As WTU President And CEO

ABILENE — West Texas Utilities Company today announced three changes in its senior management. Glen D. Churchill, president and chief executive officer, notified the board of directors that he plans to retire May 1, 1992. At the same meeting the board elected Glenn Files to the new position of executive vice president, and elected Paul J. Brower vice president, marketing and business development.

Churchill has led the company since July 1979. He began his utility career at WTU in 1964 as assistant to the controller following employment with Arthur Andersen & Co., an accounting firm. He progressed through various financial positions, and was elected to the board of directors and vice president and treasurer of WTU in 1972.

In 1976 Churchill was elected executive vice president of Central Power and Light Company which, like WTU, is a subsidiary of Central and South West Corporation. He returned to WTU as president and chief executive officer in 1979.

The Centralia, Illinois native received his BBA in accounting from Texas A&M University in 1956 and is a Certified Public Accountant. He attended the Advanced Management Program at Harvard University in 1978.

Churchill was an officer and member of the board of directors of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce. He also has served as president and is a director of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce Foundation and the Abilene Industrial Foundation. He has been campaign chairman and president of the United Way of Abilene. He has been chairman and a director and member of the executive committee of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, and serves on the WTRC Foundation board.

He is a director of the Hendrick Medical Center Foundation, the Hardin-Simmons University Center for Economic Education, Abilene Improvement Corporation, and the Abilene Tax Increment District. At the state level he serves on the board of directors of the Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Texas Research League, The Texas Association of Taxpayers and the Texas Council on Economic Education.

Professional affiliations include the Abilene chapter of Certified Public Accounts, the Texas Society of Public Accounts and the American Council of Texas and the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

Churchill and his wife, Joy, have three grown children, Susan Hicks, Sheryl Cosgrove, and David Churchill, and are members of Our Savior Lutheran Church. They plan to stay in Abilene following retirement.

Files most recently was vice president of marketing and business development and a member of the board of directors of CPL. He has held that position since September 1990 when he transferred from Public Service Company of Oklahoma, another Central and South West company.

He joined PSO in 1971 and held several positions in the accounting, customer service, and operations areas of that company before being named director of corporate planning and analysis in 1988. His community work includes membership and leadership positions with the Jaycees, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions Clubs. He was district chairman and executive council member for the Boy Scouts of America Indian Trails Council in Oklahoma. Files has been involved in numerous Chambers of Commerce in the communities he has served, and also has worked in United Way activities. He received a bachelor of science degree from Cameron University in Lawton, Oklahoma. He has completed the Oklahoma State university Management Development Program and the Program for Management Development at Harvard University.

Files and his wife, Linda Reilly, have six children, Ryan 16, Natalie 13, Preston 9, Alan 7, Lesley 5, and Elizabeth 2, and are members of the Episcopal Church.

Paul Brower replaces Bill Elmore, who was recently named vice president, marketing and business development for Central and South West Services in Dallas, another subsidiary of Central and South West Corporation.

Brower formerly was Eastern division manager for Public Service Company of Oklahoma in McAlester, Oklahoma. During this 25 years of service to PSO he worked in consumer services and marketing areas. He was named division sales manager in 1984, sales development manager in 1985, and corporate sales manager in 1986. He was named division manager in September 1990.

Brower, graduated from Northwestern Oklahoma State University in 1976 with a BS in marketing following four years of service in the Navy. He has been associate director of the Oklahoma State Home Builders Association. Paul and his wife, Regina, have two sons, Jason, 15, and Matthew, 9.

Project Pride's Christmas Village

By LINDA HENSON

Have you begun to think of Christmas? Cross Plains' Project Pride wants you to remember us. The Christmas Village will open this year on the first two weekends in December, both Friday and Saturday nights. That's December 6 and 7, and December 13 and 14.

Our Christmas Craft Room will be open with great things for you to purchase for your gift-giving. We would appreciate any donated craft items that you are able to give. Or, if you want to help by donating your time and talents, you're just the person we're looking for.

For more information, please call Melissa Richards at 725-7212, 725-6651 or Linda Henson at 725-6427.

A Week In Hawaii

By LAVERN SCOTT

Elvis and LaVern, Granvel and Alice, Grady and Carylton, and Don and Linda Scott traveled to the Makahiki Festival. We saw beautiful flower gardens, Hawaiian hula dancers, and cliff divers plunging 60 feet from the rocks. We drove for miles and miles through pineapples and sugar cane fields, coconuts and macadamia nuts, and visited the Dole Pineapple Plantation.

Other visits included Diamond Head, Blow Hole Sea Life Park, Byoda Temple, Windward Mall, Man-zai Pipeline, Mormon Temple, Sandy Beach, and Makapu Lookout.

Our sons went snorkeling and Grady found a beautiful sea shell. They saw coral, fish of all size and color at the Hanauma Bay. Everyone enjoyed the colorful hang gliders.

The group stayed at Aston Waikiki Beach Tower, on the 14th floor. You could see the most beautiful sunset. It appeared to just drop into the ocean.

At the Punchbowl National Memorial Cemetery, the white crosses were replaced with marble markers in 1951. Ernie Pyle was later buried there. His marker read, "The 77th Infantry Division Lost a Buddy April 18, 1945." Some read unknown soldier, which is very sad.

We attended the Germaines Luau where we saw the luau pig unwrapped from the leaves and the sand it was roasted in to perfection. Pork, fish, chicken, steak, two vegetables, salad, cakes, pies, and lots of pineapple drinks were served to 750 people.

Elvis and I were the couple married the longest at this particular event, and a spotlight was placed on us. Elvis was asked to kiss me like he did the night he asked me to marry him. Three leis were placed on each of us. Elvis received a kiss from the hostess, Becky, and I received many gifts.

We were entertained by the Kings and Queens from seven Polynesian Islands performing in their grass skirts, feather caps, and colorful leis. It was a show to be remembered always!

On King Street there was a statue of King Kamehameha who had 21 wives and lived to be 70 years old. The story says that the people tried to get rid of him by throwing him over the Makapu Lookout. The wind wa so strong he was blown back. They believed their gods sent him back and he served as King for some time.

Taking the Pearl Harbor Aloha Paradise Cruise, 300 left Honolulu Harbor for a 4-hour trip. We did not board the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial, as they were painting it for the 50th Anniversary set for December 7, 1991.

The cruise did stop nearby and the National Anthem was played and a silent prayer was observed. The captain of our vessel threw out a wreath. We remembered the Smith boy from Cross Plains who lost his life. Ray Smith will always be remembered as one of 1,177 crewmen killed on the December 7 attack. Only 75 bodies were ever recovered, and 1,102 are still entombed in the sunken battleship.

After the busy week, we slept most of the way home. We brought back pineapples, nuts, but forgot the sugar cane. Everyone took a lot of pictures and bought many. The Pearl Harbor VCR tapes and lots of books are great souvenirs.

Our sons and their wives took great care of us, and we will always remember and treasure our vacation in Hawaii with our family.

Pvt. Johnny Herridge Completes Training

Marine Pvt. Johnny R. Herridge, a 1991 graduate of Cross Plains High School, recently completed recruit training.

During the training cycle at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, recruits are taught the basics of battlefield survival, introduced to typical military daily routine, and personal and professional standards.

All recruits participate in an active physical conditioning program and gain proficiency in a variety of military skills including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline are emphasized throughout the cycle.

He is the son of Donna L. Herridge of Cottonwood.

Martial Arts Come To Graham

By KIM MAY
Graham Leader News Staff

White, yellow, orange, green, blue, purple, brown, red. And finally black.

All of these colors paint the path to one thing and one thing only — a black belt in the ancient martial art Tae Kwon Do. Each color represents a rank and those who venture into a class of Sandy Merrill's are taking their first step along the path to achieving one of those ranks.

Merrill, who began teaching in Graham one month ago, has been training in the martial arts for the past nine years and is currently a second degree black belt.

Along with her husband, Roy, and 4-year-old daughter, Merrill moved to Graham seven months ago from Louisiana. Roy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Merrill of Cross Plains.

"Besides Louisiana I have lived in Colorado and Oklahoma, so I've had the opportunity to train in several places," she said.

"It was a big decision for me to teach instead of just train for myself but I really enjoy teaching. Having to take care of the business end of it is really the only down side. I'd much rather be working with my students than ordering supplies," she said.

She keeps a busy schedule by teaching two classes, five days a week. Merrill's Martial Arts teaches the Korean Style of Tae Kwon Do to both children and adults.

"It really doesn't matter what age you are — I started when I was 20. I worked in downtown Denver and one street over there were homeless people and vagrants. It made me realize how vulnerable people really are and I wanted to do something to compensate for it, so martial arts was the answer for me.

"I teach all ages but you do have to be at least 6 years old when you train. That's the only age limit. For instance, I had a gentleman talk to me the other day who is interested and he is in his middle 50's.

"Physical limitations won't hold you back, it's the mental ones that will. I let the student's focus on what they are good at — then we go from there. I think positive reinforcement is much better than asking them to do something they cannot and then criticizing them for it," she said.

Tae Kwon Do has become a popular sport and was introduced in the 1988 Olympics held in Seoul, Korea.

According to Merrill, Tae Kwon Do is just like any kind of sport. "You have to have a uniform and pay for rank testings so it can get expensive but in the end you have something to show for your money and your hard work.

"I also feel it helps you in your everyday life. It teaches you patience — which Americans on the whole have very little of — and helps you in decision making. It makes you stop and think before you act which enables you to come out with the best choice.

"It also offers an individual the chance to achieve a maximum level of physical fitness, improve their ability to concentrate and set goals and achieve them, learn self-defense skills and, perhaps one of the greatest benefits of all, is learning the art itself."

Merrill said that going through all the exercises, forms, kicks and punches in order to achieve the next higher colored belt can be fun and rewarding — something that becomes evident to anyone who observes the enthusiasm Merrill's students exhibit in their training sessions.

"I had one little boy when we first started who would cry if he couldn't do something but now, after just a month, he's confident and willing to try anything. It is amazing how accomplishing a goal like this can change your attitude."

One thing she is quick to point out though is "you have to have the desire to learn. I'm not going to say it's easy because it's not. I can always tell if someone really wants to be here or if someone else — probably their parents — wants them to be here."

She explained that not everyone is suited for marital arts.

"You only get what you put into it — you definitely have to be dedicated.

"It's hard sometimes because people come in, especially kids, and think it's going to be like what they see on TV or at the movies — and it's not. Sure, the techniques are the same but Tae Kwon Do is not aggressive. It is purely self-defense.

Some of the kids come because they want to be able to do what the Ninja Turtles can do but, hopefully I will get them past that," she says with a laugh.

"I do think television has ruined the art to some point but I have to admit that I, too, watch kick-boxing movies and the latest Jean Claude Van Damme films," she says, quick to add, "Of course it has nothing to do with the fact that he is gorgeous — I only watch to see the techniques they use."

COLLIN and HAZEL CAMPBELL

Mr. And Mrs. Collin Campbell Celebrate Their 60th Anniversary

Recently celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. Collin Campbell of 210 Brush, Carbon, Texas, where they have resided for the past fifty years.

Daughters of the couple surprised them with a reception at Catfish Corner Restaurant in Carbon. Friends and relatives enjoyed punch, cake and cheerful reminiscing.

Collin was born in Carbon on March 17, 1912 to David and Henry Hettie Campbell. He was reared there and attended Britain and Carbon Schools, and graduated from Carbon.

Hazel was born in Peacock, Stonewall County on November 25,

1912 to Seaborn and Francis Vaughn. She attended schools in that area and in Mangum, Eastland County, living then in the Mangum, Flatwood, Carbon area.

Collin and Hazel met, when they were 17, at a community baseball game at Mangum. They dated and were married on September 21, 1931 in Eastland by Justice of the Peace Jim Steel.

The couple has four daughters, ten grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren. Daughters are Voncia Snider of Rose Bud, Arkansas, Reba Reeves of Fort Worth, Colleen Lamb of Nimrod, and Addie Walker of Burkett. Grandchildren in this area are sons of Addie, Lorren Weatherley, Collin Weatherley, and Phillip Walker, all of Burkett.

Hazel coaxed all four girls through twelve grades at Carbon. She is a longtime member of the First Baptist Church of Carbon.

Collin owned and operated the Carbon Texaco Service Station. He also drove the school bus and has been fire chief there for many years. He coached teen baseball leagues and is a 50-year member of the Carbon Masonic Lodge.

VOTE NO ON PROPOSITION 11 November 5th

Lottery Facts: A New Generation of Gamblers

When the lottery was in its infancy in the 1970's Dr. Robert Custer stated that the lottery lacked sufficient action to attract a compulsive gambler. After lotteries entered the hightech world of video lottery terminals, player activated machines and million dollar jackpots, Dr. Custer recanted his earlier statement, particularly after he began treating a patient who was betting $7,000 a day on the daily numbers game. (Minneapolis Star Tribune, Oct. 11, 1988)

The irony of modern lotteries is that they come in an era when citizens have insisted that government become more active in protecting consumers from fraudulent business operations, defective products and deliberately misleading advertising.

Researchers for the Center for Public Interest Law at the University of San Diego said, "If the California State Lottery were a private business it would be guilty of false advertising."

The lottery is an unique consumer product because the great majority of ticket consumers will experience failure after failure. The lottery is geared to feeding the consumer's need for fun and excitement, and away from reminding them of their most recent losses. The lottery preys on people's impulses, not their economic interests.

Weekly Health Tip

COPPER

Copper is an essential component of many proteins and enzymes in the body and is involved in bone and muscle development and central nervous system functioning. Also it works with iron to form hemoglobin — the pigment in red blood cells which carries oxygen to all body cells. A lack of copper (and iron) can cause anemia. Copper deficiency may increase the risk of heart disease. Copper is derived from nuts, liver, raisins, beans and peas.

Your better health is our concern.

Spooky Meeting For Sorority

By PATRICIA COOK

The Alpha Rho Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its bi-monthly meeting October 28 at the home of Paula Winfrey.

Members dressed in a wide variety of costumes from a Mammie (Carol Rogers) to a very, very pregnant (Judy Luter).

Guests were welcomed. Minutes were read and approved. Thank yous were read from Debra Childers and Janice Phillips. Reports were given by standing committees.

Desert-of-the-Month winner is Linda Edgington for the month of November.

Best Costume was judged by secret ballot. 1st place — Carol Rogers (Mammie), 2nd place — Dora Smith (Bag Lady), and 3rd place — Debbie Gosnell (Elvira). Lots of laughs were shared by all.

Guests in attendance: Neoma Nash, Rev. Childers, Debbie Gosnell, and Linda Wilson.

Members present were Jamie Apple, Sarah Brashear, Debra Childers, Patricia Cook, Joy Gerking, Bobbie Johnston, Melissa Kemp, Judy Luter, Joyce McCoy, Margaret McNeel, Wanda Merryman, Nora Odom, Janice Phillips, Carol Rogers, Dora Smith, and Paula Winfrey.

Mediplex Screening Clinic Set For Tues., November 5

The service will be available from 8:30 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Kiwanis Flu Clinic Noted As Big Success Blood Pressure Clinic

The recent flu clinic, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, proved very successful, as 125 were inoculated. The Brownwood Regional Hospital provided the nurses and vaccine for the project. The Senior Citizens responded well to the clinic, a local Kiwanian noted.

Project Pride's Christmas Village To Be Held At Howard House

This year the collections for Project Pride's Christmas Village will be in the Howard House. Each year these collections have proved to be of interest to almost everyone. Anyone who collects anything is encouraged to register, so that the committee has plenty to select from to insure variety. Those who have exhibited before are asked to register again, especially with new collections.

Please call Connie Kirkham at 725-6500 or 725-6318; Billie Loving at 725-7722 or 725-7432; or come by the Cross Plains Public Library. All should register by November 20, so that selections can be made. Collections not used this year will be kept on file for future use.

The blood pressure clinic will be held at the Multi-Purpose Center on Tuesday, November 5, from 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. This service is free of charge.

Anyone having pictures of collections is asked to turn them in to Connie or Billie.

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

Post oak trees are shedding their leaves every day. This doesn't usually happen until a heavy frost has turned the ground white with an icy cover. This has been a most unusual year for this area. Leaves began falling when a sudden dry spell followed weeks of rain. There has been no rain during the month of October. Some talk of a cold winter. Stock tanks have a supply of water for livestock. Grain fields are in need of moisture. Country roads are dry and a trail of dust follows every vehicle that travels them.

While in Cross Plains Friday morning, Mrs. Faye Tyler reported that her nephew, Weldon Stephens, had died of cancer. Weldon lived part of his life here in Rowden. His parents were Claude and Linnie Stephens, who owned the Rowden Store. Two living brothers of Weldon are Gerald Stephens of Abilene and Donald Stephens of Snyder. This family took part in school at Bayou and were members of the Rowden Baptist Church, and the Rowden Store was an active place.

Glenneth Watson, mother of Robert Watson, died in the Baird nursing home following a stroke early Sunday morning. Her burial was in Basin Spring Cemetery in Grayson County where she grew up. Her husband, Gene Watson of Baird, survives her along with Robert Watson of the Rowden Community. She is also survived by 4 other sons and three daughters. The community extends sympathy to her family.

This writer accompanied her daughter, Judy Steele to Brady Saturday for the U.I.L. Marching Band Competition. The Cross Plains Band won in Division I Contest and will compete in the Area Marching Contest held in Wichita Falls next Saturday.

These band students can be proud of their performance Saturday.

A thing of beauty has been seen during the week and that is the colorful sunsets following the setting sun. God's paint brush has painted a perfect picture for all to enjoy.

Joyce Odom was in Clyde Thursday afternoon where she presented an interesting program on remembering the times in the home when Mothers made quilts. The Clyde Study Club met in the home of Nancy Palmer and this was the second time Joyce had presented a program. She reported a happy time with club members.

2 1/4 inches of much need moisture fell in this area Saturday night.

Joyce Odom was in Cross Plains Tuesday where she visited Mrs. Ivon Odom in the rest home and also visited with Franzel and Becky Odom.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Watson of Houston spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Watson and Aunt Pearl. On Saturday evening they took them to Cook's Catfish Restaurant near Comanche to celebrate Roger's birthday.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Clark were Bob, Cookie, and Brian of Clyde and Ted and Mable Fann, and Ora Breeding of the community.

Suma Dill reported 3 inches of rain in the city limits over the weekend. Her visitors were Erma Floyd, Blanche Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCowen, all of the city, and Howard Shanks of Big Spring and Gaylon Dugan of Rising Star.
