EDITOR'S NOTE: Thanks for the memories! Several subscribers have submitted their recollections of high school days to help promote the upcoming 1991 Cross Plains High School Homecoming. (See schedule of events inside paper.) All your contributions are appreciated and we also want to thank those who brought in the cute photos. You will enjoy the following trip to past school days. This class wishes to remain "anonymous." Vanda King

Down Memory Lane

Having two sets of twins for twelve consecutive years set us apart from the other graduating classes. The humor of confusing the teachers and the good citizens of Cross Plains was the fury of our parents.

The twins always seemed to do their best antics in the cafeteria. We had a classmate who had a very weak stomach. These little darlings never missed a longshot to spit peas through straws or backhand the tomatoes. We saw more vomit than food!

Let's not forget the seventh grade and our math teacher, Jack Watkins. One of our more intelligent classmates saw an "Angel" walking the hall. Mr. Watkins laughed until the tears rolled, as the "Angel" was in fact a teacher's wife who had blond hair and was wearing a full white mid-calf dress and white socks and white shoes.

Our Sophomore English teacher was an odd little gent. He always seemed to have a good sense of humor; however, we outnumbered him, so it was to his advantage to be lenient. We were given the privilege of drinking cokes in class until he was alerted that a certain few were lifting cokes off the delivery truck each Friday. But, we don't remember him laughing when the same "few" fellas would jump through the windows and slide on their bellies on the study hall tables!

Talent? Yes, we had three young ladies who would entertain the playground activities with their vocal chords pretending they were the Supremes.

And let's not forget the nervous bus driver who drove the "Cisco Bus." Do you remember, Ladies, when we were rocking back and forth on the bus and the driver stopped at a pay phone to call Scot Edington to come to Cisco in his personal car to drive these "Ladies" back to Cross Plains? Apparently, we gave the driver the impression we were trying to turn the bus over!

In order to keep peace and justice, we must not forget the new Physical Science teacher. The superintendent was in hopes he could straighten us out. However, we girls were busy admiring the physical attributes of this teacher while the boys were equally drooling over his wife. He did manage to take us on a field trip to the brick factory — he must have had nerves of steel for we had already laid our mark on C.P.H.S.

As for spirit, we tried to keep it alive. Do we remember who was on the Annual Staff trying to sell an ad at the Coleman Funeral Home and during the tour she inquired if they had a casket in purple?

With all due respect, we must not forget the student teacher we had in Government class. If I remember correctly (and we do), there was a huge picture of George Washington hanging on the wall at the end of the desk row. Two good friends occupied the last two seats. The student teacher apparently had it in for them as he kept eye-balling them for no justifiable reason other than their good looks! Anyway, they had turned the picture facing the wall before he came into class. After several attempts to get them to turn the picture around he asked them for a good explanation. One replied, "We won't turn George around because he's spitting on us!" The class was in an uproar and the student teacher appeared to be in distress. However, the D they received on their report cards in citizenship settled them

On Starting To School 'In Memory Of Troy Beggs'

By BETTY BEGGS

I thought my birthday party brought most of the "kids" in the world to my house. The first day of school though brought millions, to school.

First, I must mention the thrill of riding to school by myself with my older brother to visit the first grade. It was May before I entered first grade in September. My mother followed us clear up the steps of the school bus. I waved cheerily and she slowly went back to the house.

I was on top of the world to be allowed to enter the school world with my brother. When he left me alone in that strange room, I was not so sure.

The teacher was ever so kind and understanding. She gave me things to color and let me play at the sand table. I also looked at several books with pretty pictures in them. The strangest part was eating in the cafeteria. They did not have anything I liked. Momma would have known better than to give me salad, of all things. We went home right after dinner. Momma picked me up and was I glad to see her. I was getting tired. It was grand though and I liked it.

When I enrolled in September, I felt like I was as big as my brother, Rex. He is in the third grade. I told Momma I would remember her good-bye kiss all day. Of course, I didn't. I knew she would miss me the same as I missed her.

She came after me at 2:30 p.m. the first two days. I had been ready to go ever since about 11:30 that morning. That was when I got the lunch. The third day Momma explained that I was supposed to ride the bus home an hour later, and that we would play the last hour.

Well, that last part was fine but it was ever so long coming. I told Momma that I was going to walk home from school the next day. We lived in the country and she got all worried and lectured me about getting lost. So she came after me a couple more times. She then threatened me with terrible consequences if I did walk. So I rode the bus home at 3:30 p.m. after that; I had no choice.

As I got to know a lot of boys and some girls, the time passed a lot faster. Besides, the first thing you know I brought some "100's" home on my papers, some good drawings, too. My Momma said so and so did my teacher. As soon as I showed my folks I could read, I just as soon left those books at school. After all I had a dog, some cats, marbles, and toy guns to play with at home. Rex and I played cowboy and soldiers a lot when we got home. On Saturdays I got to watch television and Sunday I went to Sunday School. Some of my school friends were there, too. Monday I was really ready for school again.

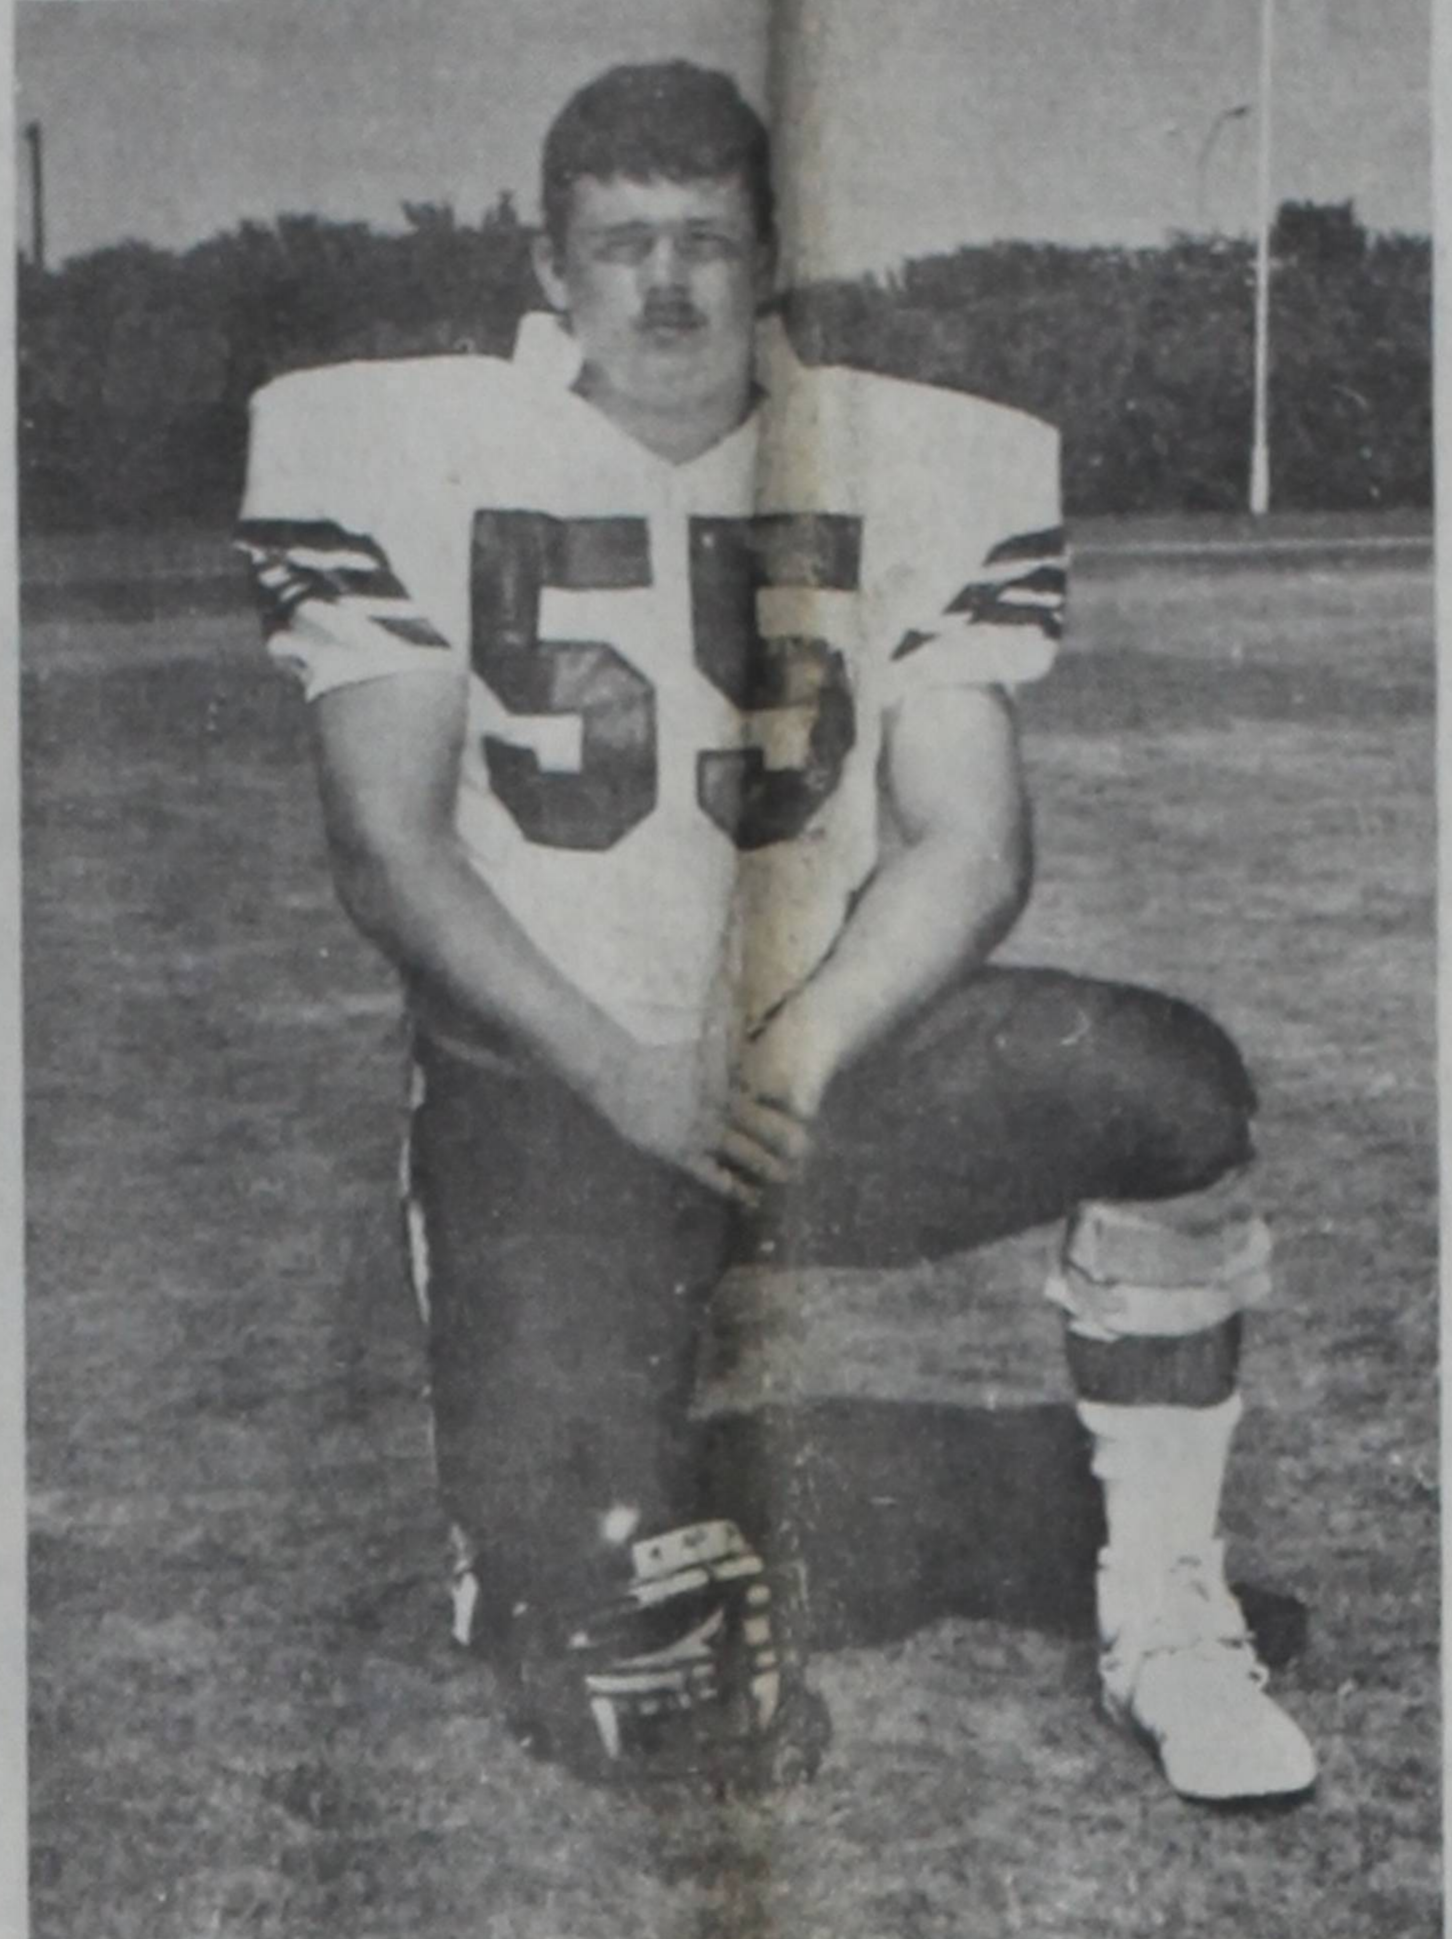

After getting pushed out of lunchline and hit a few times, I tried Momma's advice. She said, "If they hit and push you several times, push them back hard." I did and I never had anymore trouble in line. I even got engaged to the prettiest girl in class.

We were given permission to bring one toy to school. Once in a while, I took one of my matchbox cars. At recess we played on the rockwall, which separates the schoolyard. It was fun and so were the games we played. I could hit the ball when they threw me a good one.

At Christmas time we made trimmings for the tree our teacher put up in our room. It was the prettiest tree you ever saw. We had a party with presents, cookies, fruit and candy. That was super. We also had an Easter Egg hunt at Eastertime. The mothers came and took us all out in the woods where we found lots of colored eggs. I found enough, I guess, but Mickie found more.

The last part of May rolled around and my brother, Rex, started talking about school letting out. It was going to quit, you see. Rex seemed very happy about it, so I said that I was too. My report cards had all been good, so I guess I had done what I should. May

CASEY WILLIAMS

Casey Williams Accepts Football Scholarship In North Dakota

Ex-local football player, Casey Williams, has accepted a scholarship to the University of Mary in Bismarck, North Dakota. He will be leaving for Dakota around the 16th of the month.

His senior year, '88-89, Casey was a captain of the Buffaloes team that won the Bi-District title by defeating Menard 20-10. He was recognized for his playing ability by being named as a member of the 1st Team All-District Defense as well as the All-Area and All-State Defensive teams. His position was middle linebacker.

Casey has played the last two years in California at Porterville Junior College. He was named All Conference Honorable Mention in the Southern Coast Valley Conference as a defensive lineman during the 1990 season.

Casey was in contact with schools in California, Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas and North Dakota concerning football. As a Marauder at University of Mary he will be on the defensive squad and hopes to be back in his old position as middle linebacker.

In his last semester at Porterville, Casey had a 3.62 GPA which earned him a spot on the President's Honor List. This is the highest acknowledgement of academic excellence at Porterville College.

Casey is the son of Gregg and Lydia Williams of the Cottonwood Community. His little sister, Sherry, who graduated Salutatorian of the 90-91 Class will be attending Angelo State University in the fall on an academic scholarship.

School Breakfast/Lunch Programs

Dear Parent/Guardian:

The Cross Plains school serves meals each school day. Children may buy lunch for: Kindergarten — Fifth Grade, $.85; Sixth Grade — Twelfth Grade, $1.10; and breakfast for $.50. Children also may get meals free or at a reduced price.

If you now get food stamps or AFDC for your children, your children can get free meals. If your total household income is the same or less than the amounts on the Income Chart, your children can get free meals or reduced price meals. A foster child may get free or reduced price meals regardless of your income. The reduced price is $.40 for lunch and $.30 for breakfast.

TO GET FREE OR REDUCED PRICE MEALS FOR YOUR CHILDREN, YOU MUST COMPLETE AN APPLICATION AND RETURN IT TO THE SCHOOL. WE CANNOT APPROVE AN APPLICATION THAT IS NOT COMPLETE.

How To Apply

If you now get food stamps or AFDC for the children you are applying for, the application must have the children's names, a food stamp or AFDC case number for each child, and the signature of an adult household member. If you are applying for a foster child, the application must have the child's name, the child's "personal use" income, and an adult signature. If you do not list a food stamp or AFDC case number for all the children you are applying for, then the application must have the children's names, the names of all household members, the amount of income each person got last month and where it came from, the signature of an adult household member and that adult's social security number or the word "none" if the adult does not have a social security number.

Verification: Your eligibility may be checked at any time during the school year. School officials may ask you to send papers showing that your child should get free or reduced price meals.

Fair Hearing: You may talk to school officials if you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the results of verification. You also may ask for a fair hearing. You may do this by calling or writing: M. Lee Thompson, P.O. Box 669, Cross Plains, Texas 76443, (817) 725-6121.

Reporting Changes: If your children get free or reduced price meals because of your income, you must tell the school if your household size decreases or your income increases by more than $50 per month or $600 per year. If your children get meals because they get food stamps or AFDC, you must tell the school when you are not getting AFDC or food stamps for them. You may then fill out another application giving income information.

Confidentiality: School officials use the information on the application only to decide if your children should get free or reduced price meals.

Reapplication: You may apply for meals anytime during the school year. If you are not eligible now but have a change, like a decrease in household income, an increase in household size, become unemployed or get food stamps or AFDC for your children, complete an application then.

IN THE OPERATION OF THE CHILD FEEDING PROGRAMS, NO CHILD WILL BE DISCRIMINATED AGAINST BECAUSE OF RACE, SEX, COLOR, NATIONAL ORIGIN, AGE OR HANDICAP. IF YOU BELIEVE YOU HAVE BEEN DISCRIMINATED AGAINST, WRITE IMMEDIATELY TO THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE, WASHINGTON, D.C. 20250.

We will let you know when your application is approved or denied.

Sincerely,
M. Lee Thompson
C.P.I.S.D. Superintendent

Cottonwood Fun Fest Saturday

It's that time again! If you haven't been out to Cottonwood's Fun Fest, get the kids and come on out. We have five hours of family fun Saturday, August 17, 5 p.m. — 10 p.m.

There will be something for everyone. There will be some of the best music this side of heaven; featuring Guns, smoke, and Clint Kniffen and Jerry Walker.

Give it a try, you'll like it. No need to bring your chair. There will be enough hay bales for everyone.

You deserve an evening at Cottonwood Fun Fest.

Project Pride Preparing For Cottonwood Fun Fest

Members and friends of Project Pride are reminded to stuff bags and get them ready for the "Grab Bag" booth at the Cottonwood "Fun Fest," which is to be held on Saturday, August 17.

Bags should be priced 50 cents or $1, and designated for either a child or an adult.

These may be left at Greenwood Insurance on Friday or call 725-6100 or 725-6165 and arrangements will be made to receive them.

Mediplex Health Screening August 26

Mediplex Home Health Care in Cross Plains will be having a health screening on Monday, August 26, from 9 a.m. — 3 p.m. at the local office on North Main Street.

Cholesterol checks will be $5, blood sugar $2, and blood pressure is a free service.

Everyone is welcome to come!

City Council Minutes

August 6, 1991

This was a regular meeting of the Cross Plains City Council. Members present were Mayor Ross Gerking, Ted McKeehan, Gary Childers, Edwin Weiss, Betty Lewis and Joe Holland.

The meeting was called to order at 6:30 p.m.

Bob Hill, City Judge, met with the council to discuss his judge's report. He informed the council as to the amount of citations given and disposition of those citations.

Alton McCowen met with the council to discuss Project Pride painting the front of the Senior Citizens Center to read "Senior Citizens Center" and to install a plaque recognizing Town & Country as the donor of the building.

Mr. McCowen also asked the council's permission if Project Pride could send out letters asking property owners to allow Project Pride to clean up some of the buildings and lots, etc. for the homecoming in October.

Mr. McCowen also requested that the city put in some speakers at the Senior Citizens Center for better hearing now that the ceiling fans had been installed and had made hearing difficult for some.

John Adams met with the council concerning the tree grant that is available for the city park. He expressed his opinion and that of Project Pride's that they would like for the city to pursue any funds available for this kind of project.

Betty Lewis moved to allow Project Pride to send out letters to property owners asking permission to clean up. Gary Childers seconded and motion carried.

Ted McKeehan moved to apply for the tree grant. Gary Childers seconded and motion carried.

Ted McKeehan made the motion to move the discussion of the sewer line to the end of the meeting. Edwin Weiss seconded and motion carried.

Debbie Gosnell informed the council that Randy Montgomery had requested that the city help pay part of the electric bill on the land he has leased from the city, due to the fact that the city is requiring that the irrigation system be run extensively to get rid of the water so that it will be dry for construction to begin. At this time Mr. Montgomery's crop has not done well and will need to be re-sprigged again next year. Joe Holland moved to table the discussion until the council has the opportunity to look over the lease agreement before making a final decision. Ted McKeehan seconded and motion carried.

Joe Holland moved to allow Project Pride to paint the front of the Senior Citizens Center and placing a plaque. Gary Childers seconded and motion carried.

By general consent the council will look into the cost of the speakers for the Senior Citizens Center and the number of speakers needed.

Ted McKeehan moved to accept the minutes of the last meeting as printed up. Gary Childers seconded. Ted, Gary and Edwin voting for and Betty Lewis and Joe Holland voting against.

Joe Holland moved to use the Roberts Rules of Order for the guidelines for the minutes. Gary Childers seconded and motion carried.

The council discussed the hiring of a second patrolman. Gary Childers moved to discontinue this idea at this time. Ed Weiss seconded and motion carried, all voting for except Betty Lewis voting against.

Ted McKeehan moved to pay the bills. Ed Weiss seconded and motion carried.

Gary Childers moved to take a 10 minute recess. Ted McKeehan seconded and motion carried.

The mayor called the meeting to order.

The mayor announced that the council would be going into executive session under section 2E Act 6252-17 of the Open Meeting Acts to discuss the pending litigation.

Gary Childers asked to be excused from the executive session meeting because of conflict of interest concerning this matter. Passed by general consent.

Discussion was held concerning the pending litigation.

Ted McKeehan moved to go into open session. Ed Weiss seconded and motion carried.

Ted McKeehan moved to turn the affairs of the litigation over to the city attorney for further review. Ed Weiss seconded, motion carried with Gary Childers abstaining from voting.

Ted McKeehan moved to adjourn. Ed Weiss seconded and motion carried.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

Can you imagine what it would be like to live daily with the knowledge that you had a disease that could cause your body to slowly self-destruct? Some authorities are now saying that as many as three million people do have such a disease, and for some unidentified reason the number is growing. An estimated 55,000 new cases are being diagnosed in the United States each year. The disease is not contagious and it is not cancer. It is systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE), a chronic connective tissue disease involving the body's immune system. In SLE the immune system, which is supposed to protect the body against environmental and infectious agents, turns against itself and attacks and destroys healthy tissue.

Although SLE is not a well known disease, it is more prevalent than muscular dystrophy, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, leukemia, and cystic fibrosis. It is more widespread among black women than sickle cell anemia. SLE affects all races, age groups, socio-economic groups, and both sexes. However, ninety percent of lupus patients are women, with the usual age of onset being between 16 and 30.

Systemic lupus attacks internally, damaging or destroying any organ which is targeted. With proper treatment most SLE patients can live a normal lifespan. However, even a mild case may become life-threatening without proper treatment. More than 6,000 people die from SLE each year. Symptoms vary but can include joint pain, muscle aches, skin rash, photosensitivity, hair loss, inflammation of the membranes around the heart or lungs, anemia, fatigue, blood abnormalities, kidney involvement, and others.

The paradoxical thing about SLE is that the victim can look healthy and well, even when he/she is critically ill. This often causes misunderstandings among relatives and friends, who cannot understand how anyone can be really ill and look so well. Many SLE patients feel isolated and alone because of the lack of understanding they encounter.

The L.E. Support Club, Inc. is a world-wide, non-profit organization dedicated to bringing help and understanding to SLE patients. Its newsletter, the L.E. BEACON, prints up-to-date, informative articles on subjects which are important to SLE patients. The cost of printing the newsletter is paid for by the tax deductible dues and contributions of members and concerned friends.

down some. Needless to say, they made a wreck of him and he has the yard to prove it.

Every class had its Romeo and we were no different. However, his definition of win was to flip a cheerleader's skirt with a ruler without being caught by the teacher. You might know he'd actually grow up and marry a teacher.

And in keeping with the traditions handed down to us by fellow Seniors, upon getting our Senior rings it was a tradition to whack the incoming Freshman on the head with our ring.

If we have jogged your memory or if you would like to talk over more memories, we will see you in the park after the Homecoming Parade.

VICKI LEE

Local Teen Semifinalist In 'Teen Magazine's Sportsgirl Of The Year Program

Vicki Lee, 15, who attends May High School, appears in the September issue as a Sportsgirl of the Year regional semifinalist and is eligible to compete for a $10,000 scholarship.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Lee of May. Mr. Lee is the Elementary Principal of May I.S.D.

In its third year, 'TEEN's 1992 Sportsgirl of the Year program is searching for outstanding all-around athletes — girls who have excellent skills in sports, and demonstrate leadership and good sportsmanship.

Out of the nearly 10,000 entries received annually, 288 exceptional athletes are selected as regional semifinalists. Twelve girls are selected in six regions for four months — June through September.

Because of Vicki's outstanding abilities in Track and Field, she is now in the race for a spot as one of the 24 finalists that will appear in the November issue of 'TEEN Magazine. The field will be narrowed again to 12 super finalists to appear in the December issue. The winner will appear in the February 1992 issue.

The 1992 Sportsgirl of the Year will receive a $10,000 college scholarship from sponsor Tampax(R) Tampons and 'TEEN! All regional semifinalists will receive a Sportsgirl of the Year designer patch.

Sponsors of the 1992 Sportsgirl of the Year program are Tampax Tampons and 'TEEN. 'TEEN Magazine, a Petersen Publication, is read by one-third of all U.S. high-school girls.

Weight Loss Surprises Researchers

WASHINGTON --A nutrition organization was hopeful that a nutritionally complete "hi-tech" food tablet would help erase world hunger problems, until a study revealed that one of the ingredients could cause significant weight loss.

Researchers in Europe found that an ingredient in the aptly named product Food Source One actually caused people to lose weight, even though specifically instructed not to alter normal eating patterns, according to one study published in the prestigious British Journal of Nutrition. Researchers in an earlier study had speculated that the weight loss was due to a decrease in the intestinal absorption of calories.

While the development of Food Source One, a project of National Dietary Research, would not be used to successfully fulfill its original goal, the discovery has been a windfall for overweight people. A Daytona Beach, Florida woman fighting a weight battle for 12 years used the product on the recommendation of her physician and lost 30 pounds. She stated, "Not only have I lost 30 pounds but my cholesterol has dropped from 232 to 143. I have two closets full of clothes which have not fit me in two years that I can now wear." In a separate report, a telephone interview revealed that a Wilmington, North Carolina pharmacist lost 14 pounds in 3 weeks on the product and was never hungry.

Food Source One tablets are part of National Dietary Research's comprehensive plan to bring a rapid end to obesity in this country. A variety of nutritionally sound diet plans, specially prepared by NDR, accompany each bottle and provide a natural, drug free alternative for confronting the problem of obesity.

Mandi Akens Crowned Callahan-Shackelford Farm Bureau Queen

Mandi Akens, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Akens of Clyde was crowned Miss Callahan-Shackelford County Farm Bureau Queen.

Monday, August 19, in Stephenville at the Holiday Inn, Mandi will participate in the District competition.

District winners will receive a $600 college scholarship, and they and their escorts will receive an expense-paid trip to the state convention November 30 — December 1, 1991 in Lubbock.

The State Miss Farm Bureau Queen will be awarded a college scholarship of $2,000 with the runner-up receiving a $1,500 scholarship.

Miss Texas Farm Bureau will be given $500 for a wardrobe consisting of all-natural fibers, a set of luggage, and will represent Texas Farm Bureau during the 1992 Leadership Conference and the 1992 Texas Future Farmers of America Convention.

Queen contestants are judged on appearance, poise, personality, and speech. They are required to speak for one to two minutes on a Farm Bureau current event question.

MR. AND MRS. BRAD BAILEY WATSON

Holmes-Watson Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Michal Nadine Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Holmes of Cross Plains, became the bride of Brad Bailey Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dale Watson of Baird. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ralph Hardy of May and Albert Holmes of Glens Falls, New York. The groom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R.G. Watson of Baird.

The traditional double-ring ceremony took place June 1, 1991, at 2:00 in the afternoon at Abilene Bible Church in Abilene. Officiating were Dr. Tim Temple, pastor of Abilene Bible Church, and Dr. Dick Maples, pastor of First Baptist Church at Bryan, Texas.

The vows were read before a background of greenery and white lighted tapers, centered with the unity candle and flanked with baskets of spring flowers. Baskets of ivy decorated the organ and piano. Pews were marked with pink satin bows.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Sue Lancaster of Bryan, pianist and organist, and Lonnie Sikes of Houston and Miss Loretta Pizzo of San Jose, California, vocalists. Mrs. Lancaster accompanied Mr. Sikes as he sang "The Wedding Song." Following a scripture reading by Mr. Cliff Lancaster of Bryan, Dr. Temple gave a talk on the meaning of marriage. After a prayer led by the bride's father, Miss Pizzo sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Dr. Maples read the wedding vows and pronounced the couple man and wife, after which Miss Pizzo and Mr. Sikes sang a duet, "Household of Faith," by John Rosasco, as the unity candle was being lighted by the bride and groom.

Mrs. Lancaster played the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" by Wagner and the Wedding March from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn as the bridal party entered and left the church. As the guests were leaving the church, Mrs. Lancaster played one verse of "Spirit of Aggie Land."

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride was dressed in the gown worn by her husband's mother at her own wedding in 1960. The floor-length gown was of white bridal satin and lace, with double overskirts of white net over the satin. The fitted bodice of beaded lace over satin featured a basque waistline, low scalloped neckline, and short sleeves. Long lace gauntlets, fastened with rows of tiny, satin-covered buttons, tapered to points over the wrists. A large satin bow at the waistline accented the back of the dress.

Her shoulder-length veil of white silk illusion was attached to a band of white satin roses and beads. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and tiny pearl earrings. Her bouquet was of pink and light green flowers with ribbon streamers. Her garter was made by her aunt, Patsy Gober of Alvin, Texas, who also directed the wedding ceremony.

In keeping with the tradition, "something old" was her wedding dress, "something new" was her veil, "something borrowed" was her bouffant petticoat, and "something blue" was an embroidered handkerchief made by her great-grandmother, Mrs. Beulah Hedrick of San Angelo. For luck, a penny was placed in her shoe by her mother.

Miss Cynthia Simpkins of Beeville, Texas was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Patricia Lard of Dallas; Rachel Di Martino of New City, New York; Della Gallaher of Bakersfield, California; Tracy Moore, sister of the bride, of North Richland Hills; and Rebekah Holmes, sister of the bride, of Cross Plains. The bride's niece, Amanda Holmes of Austin, was flower girl. The bride's attendants wore street-length dresses of pink and green floral-patterned material, with off-the-shoulder necklines and low waistlines. Bows of matching material were at the waistline. They carried bouquets of pink and white satin flowers with pink and white ribbon streamers.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with tails, and a red tie and cummerbund. His boutonniere was two small pink rosebuds accented with baby's breath and a pink bow.

Jody Turnbow of Houston served as best man. Groomsmen, all brothers of the groom, were Robby Watson of Baird; Brock Watson of Duncan, Oklahoma; Kile Watson of Austin; Cody Watson of Baird; and Wyatt Watson of Baird. Ring bearer was Daniel Holmes of Austin, nephew of the bride. They wore black tuxedos with matching ties and cummerbunds. The ring bearer carried a white satin pillow decorated by the bride's grandmother, Lois Hardy of Rising Star.

Candlelighters were Craig Hardy of May, Texas, and Douglas Gober of Alvin, Texas. Both are cousins of the bride. Jody Turnbow and the groom's brothers served as ushers.

Missy Hardy of Brownwood and Kim Hardy of May, cousins of the bride, registered the guests and handed out programs.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The tables were covered with white cloths with ruffled skirts. Spring flowers, greenery, and pink and white wedding balloons decorated the room.

Cindy Sellers of Bryan and K Lynn Gordon of Houston served the three-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with pink flowers. The cake was made by Miss Sellers.

Jane Jeschke and Terry Offil, both of San Angelo, served the groom's cake and punch. The groom's cake, which was made by Darlene King of Baird, was in the shape of the "Double T" of Texas Tech and was made in Tech's colors of red, black, and white.

At a third table, Missy and Kim Hardy of May served white and dark chocolate-covered strawberries, which had been prepared by Kerry Sue Kreinke of Abilene. Mints for the reception were made by Mrs. Jeanie Hardy of May, aunt of the bride. Toasted peanuts were grown and prepared by the bride's grandparents of May. Margaret Bruner of San Jose, California, arranged the reception.

The bridal couple drank punch from crystal goblets belonging to the bride's grandmother. The goblets were used at the bride's great-grandparents' 50th wedding anniversary celebration, and were used again at her grandparents' 50th anniversary celebration on June 30th of this year.

On the evening before the wedding, a rehearsal dinner at Briarstone Manor was hosted by the groom's parents. The ladies of Abilene Bible Church provided a luncheon at the church for the wedding party immediately preceding the ceremony. Following the wedding, a barbecue supper for the families and out-of-town guests was hosted by the bride's parents at their home in Cross Plains.

The bride, who received her high school diploma from Miletus Theological Schools, is a graduate of Cisco Junior College and has a BBA in Management Information Systems

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY DICKSON

On Friday of last week, Mrs. R.F. (Joan) Stewart came here and took her mother, Esthloy Dickson, to her home in Cleburne. She brought her home on Sunday.

Esthloy reports that it was a tremendous weekend. First joy was seeing a brand new great-grandchild, Natalie Brooke Stewart — precious, tiny and sweet.

The whole family helped to celebrate the 90th birthday of Grace Stewart, mother of Bob Stewart. Family members present were Gwen (Stewart) Allen and Gerald, also Robert Allen, all of Breckenridge. Also, their daughter, Connie Baggett (visiting from Cross Plains, Tennessee).

Another daughter and son-in-law, Sue and Al Dourgarian of Argyle, Texas, and children, Nicholas and Denin. Bob and Joan's two sons and wives — Nate and Gloria and new baby, Natalie; also newlyweds, Matt and Jodie Stewart, all of Cleburne.

We all attended the second annual "Cleburne On the Rise" Hot Air Balloon Festival at the Cleburne airport. Some twenty beautiful, brightly-colored balloons were filled with heated air from their heat-machines and rose into the air before us, as we sat comfortably, observing from our lawn chairs on the airport tarmac.

We also browsed through an extensive array of arts and crafts exhibited at the airport.

Joanie brought me home on Sunday afternoon. I failed to state that C.V. Jr., Karen, and their three precious daughters were in Cleburne on Saturday. Lisa has promised me that she will report on her recent trip to Russia with a ballet group.

Betty Beggs went to Brownwood on "stock-dog-cow" business. She taught an art class on Thursday afternoon. Some students want to continue these classes through the fall and winter months. Betty visited Mrs. C.T. Barton one day.

Sally Roody stated that they visited Ms. Nettie at the nursing home every day. Sally and Charlie visited Mr. Mack Childers one day, and took him a cake. George Roody came in on Friday and went back on Sunday afternoon. The Hicks' Family Reunion was in Brownwood last weekend, at Reba Fortner's home. They had a wonderful time.

The Mack Taffs spent a very quiet weekend. They went to Brownwood on business one day. They had their grandchildren with them part of the week.

Junior Rodeo Results

The 13th Annual Cross Plains Junior Rodeo was noted as a great success. The event was well-attended each night. The spectators were entertained by cowboys and cowgirls from all over this area.

The reigning Roping Club Sweetheart for 1991 was Miss Brittany Hinyard, daughter of Vicki and Donald Strength. Brittany presented the 1992 Roping Club Sweetheart Buckle to Miss Tonya Stover, daughter of Reggie and Dianna Stover.

Also in attendance for all performances was the 1991 Miss West Texas Teen, Miss Tessie Ingram, daughter of Ricky and Teresa Ingram of Cisco.

The winners of the All-Around Buckles were as followed:

10 and Under — Tracy Ingram of Cisco and Justin Castro of Zephyr.

11-14 — Marla Smith of Gorman and Trace Moore of Stephenville.

15-19 — Dee Cee Loyd of Brownwood and David Williams of Cisco.

The Shawn Odom Memorial Team Roping Buckle went to Cody Odom of Cross Plains and James Hopkins.

The Cross Plains Roping Club would like to thank everyone who helped make this year's rodeo a great success. It could not have been accomplished without all the support and hard work of many.

Hey Kids, Willie Joe Is Coming!

First Baptist Church is happy to announce that Larry and Freida Sinclair and "Willie Joe" will be performing at the Sunday evening worship, August 18.

Rev. Michael Hale invites everyone to come and join them for a great time of inspirational singing and fun. Following this Praise Time there will be an all church "Homemade Ice Cream" fellowship.

Ehrlichiosis Diagnosed More Frequently In Callahan County

A relatively new disease, Ehrlichiosis, is being diagnosed more frequently in the Callahan County area. Although canine ehrlichiosis was once considered to be a rare entity in our area and in the United States, recent evidence suggest the disease is on the increase. Since the disease is transmitted primarily by tick infestations, we are anticipating diagnosing more cases of ehrlichia.

The progression of canine ehrlichiosis has been shown to consist of an incubation period of one to three weeks, an acute phase of four to six weeks and a chronic phase which may last indefinitely or until death. One should suspect this disease if a wild or domestic dog is severely infested with ticks and is feeble, anemic, weak or exhibiting a nose bleed. A low grade pneumonia with weight loss may be seen in chronic stages. If death occurs it is normally from depletion of clotting factors and hemorrhage or secondary infections from exhausted bone marrow activity. In suspected cases of ehrlichia good supportive care such as fluid therapy, proper nutrition, antibiotics, and vitamins are necessary. In extreme cases, blood transfusions may be the treatment of choice. The Veterinary Diagnostic Lab at Texas A&M can confirm the infection, but in most cases it takes 5-7 days.

Dogs treated successfully for Ehrlichiosis are fully susceptible to reinfection. Strict tick control measures are necessary to eliminate this major natural reservoir.

Also, Lyme Disease and Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever have been diagnosed in Callahan County even though they are not as prevalent as Ehrlichiosis. With the recent rains and higher humidity the tick infestation will continue to be a problem for several weeks.

Many of the Tick-borne diseases are also a threat to people. After returning from tick infested areas, people and pets should be carefully checked.

Weekly Health Tip

HEARTBURN

"Sucking on a hard candy or chewing a piece of gum after eating may be good for you if you suffer from heartburn," says Dr. Wylie Dodds, Univ. of Wisconsin. "Candy or gum can increase the saliva flow 8 to 9 times normal in the esophagus and lower stomach to reduce the damage and pain caused by stomach acids."

Your doctor may advise antacids for excess stomach acidity.

Your better health is our concern.

COLONIAL OAKS
NURSING HOME
NEWS

By LINDA EDINGTON
Activity Director

A movie star for a day.
Helen Wood was in the spotlight last Thursday afternoon. Her granddaughter, Rita, and great-grandson, Clay Parrett from Midland, and Doris Thacker, also from Midland, were here with their camcorder. They all seemed to be having an enjoyable visit reminiscing about the good old days. After sharing a few tears and lots of laughs, they were off to Brownwood for Chinese food.

We all extend a warm welcome to our new resident, Alta Burkeen.

Our new employees are Angelia, Champaigne, Christine Sproles, Lucy Nelson, and Linda Huddleston. Welcome, ladies.

Talk about stepping out of a band box, Clevia Ringhoffer, Doris Adams, Juanita Rhodes, and Inez Ingram are sporting new perms. We appreciate Linda Strength and Lilly Dillard for keeping our ladies beautiful.

Charlene Metcalf was here visiting Clara Coburn.

Lora Faye and Willie Holloway from Anson were here visiting May Bell Odom.

Sally Roady was here visiting Nettie Roady.

Carol, Carrie Beth, and Craig Rogers Jr. from Cottonwood were here visiting Lora Pugh.

Rev. Dwaine Clower was here visiting Floye Cassle.

Rita and Clay Parrett, and Doris Thacker from Midland were here visiting Helen Wood.

Daisy King and Dan Ingram from Fort Worth were here visiting Inez Ingram.

Connie Kirkham was here visiting Clara Coburn.

Jewel Thompson was here visiting everybody.

Activities during the week:
Monday: Bingo winners were Bertha Hoyt (3), Helen Wood, Madie Chambers, Lucille Stone, E.K. Coppinger, Midge McCall (3), and Annabel Vaught. Exercise class.

Tuesday: Art class. Domino games and popcorn.

Wednesday: Sing-a-long with Ruby McCowen, Clyde Linker, Frankie Smith, Vera Pearl Bunnell, Sally Roady, and Vernie McMillan. Exercise class. In room activities were Shirley Weingarten. We appreciate you, Shirley.

Thursday: Linen folding. Domino games.

Friday: Bingo winners were E.K. Coppinger (2), Mable Burchfield (2), Annabel Vaught, Clevia Ringhoffer, Clara Coburn, Vera Belyeu, Midge McCall, Madie Chambers, and Lora Pugh.

There is freedom, mercy and love beyond the wall.

SCHOOL DAYS GONE BY

JOE McNEEL'S FIRST GRADE CLASSMATES — Note the teacher is Vida Paige, who still resides in Cross Plains. Joe is the fifth student from the right on the bottom row. You see if you can recognize the others!

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

Finally, the south area of the Rowden Community was in the line of rain clouds, measuring an inch of much needed moisture early Saturday morning. The grasshoppers are still here, eating more yard plants each day.

Those yellow school buses will be on the go, picking up about 5 students attending classes in Cross Plains and 4 at the Baird school, which begins August 19.

Visitors of Emma Johnson and Lizzie Burks this week were Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Anderson of Rising Star, nurses that take care of Lizzie, and Johnny Wooten.

Leigh Harrell will be in camp for two weeks near Kerrville. She was looking forward to seeing some of her friends made there last summer.

This writer and Joyce Odom visited relatives in Clyde and Baird Thursday. In Clyde their visit was with an aunt, Jewel Swanzy, and her daughter, Gwen Jolly, who was there from Midland. The two prepared a delicious meal followed by catching up on family news. In Baird, Nila Towler, a cousin was visited. She had quite a few brand new quilt tops with linings to match. They were beautiful as well as other quilts throughout the house. She also had a yard full of beautiful flowers. It was noted that grasshoppers had not crossed the fence around her yard.

The Charles Palmer family of Clyde visited Joyce Odom Monday.

Vernie Belle Mauldin reported her company all came last week. This week was quiet for a change.

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

By IRMA MILLER

The community received over two inches of rain, beginning on Friday. The crowd was diminished a little at Game Night Thursday night.

Jean Fore went to the Coleman musical Friday night with Frankie and Oliver Smith.

Jewel Foster's visitors were John and Irma Miller, Lottie Sooter, Jean Alexander, and Jean Fore of the community, Allie Dickson of Cross Plains, and Norma Foster, her daughter-in-law, comes over every day to put on new bandages. Jewel said she appreciates everyone who comes to see her.

Lottie Sooter was in Louisiana last weekend visiting her children.

John and Irma Miller were hosts Saturday to their son, his son, and his nephew, David and Keith Miller, and Shannon Vezey, all of Houston area. The previous Saturday while they were in Dallas, John and Irma were taken to an Indian restaurant (Far Eastern) by their children, Mary and Bill Lagow. The "Mumtak," a neat two-story restaurant with about a 4- or 5-story ceiling, was like eating in an atrium, where only a murmur and a chuckle could be heard at other tables. The service was most courteous and the food tasty — chicken, beef, vegetables, sauces, and bread, delicately flavored with wonderful Eastern spices.

Ruby and Lynn Daniel's visitor was their son-in-law, Jim Athans of Odessa, Monday.

Bill and Elaine Pancake's grandson, Grason Ratliff of Dallas, visited with them this week. Saturday they went to the McCowen-Curry-Richardson Reunion in the Cross Plains Community Center, where about 70 family members gathered.

Laverne Hutton's sister, Betty Haslin of Clyde, her daughter, Tina of Clovis, New Mexico, and Laverne's mother, Mrs. Ella Dean of Cross Plains, visited with Laverne and Cowan on Sunday. Last Friday, Mrs. Dean had lunch with Laverne and Cowan.

Frankie and Oliver Smith's children were with them Friday and Saturday — Roxie, Bobby, Joey and Scott Nance of San Angelo. Shirley and Laurie Rankin of Rising Star had lunch with them Saturday. They also made their usual weekend visit to Ranger to see Frankie's father.

Governor Announces Funding For Nursing Education

Governor Ann Richards announced August 1 that 41 Texas higher education institutions will receive more than $2.5 million to hire new faculty. This appropriation will allow the enrollment of 534 additional nursing students.

The funding is the result of an emergency appropriation made by the Governor last session under HB2110 and the Professional Nursing Shortage Reduction Program.

"It is clear by the response we received for the program that we have just scraped the surface of the pressing health care needs in our state. I hope this funding will alleviate some of the nursing shortage in Texas and we can continue to produce qualified nurses who want to work in Texas," Governor Richards said.

HB2110 requires that an institution must certify that they are able to add at least 10 new qualified students over the 1991 school year.
