Jeremy's Benefit A Great Success

By VANDA KING
Editor

Jeremy Tennon Day was held under the cool shade of the trees at Treadway Park with a large crowd awaiting the tasty delight of Red's Barbecue. The restaurant, along with the local residents, had all the trimmings for the dinner.

Members of the Beta Sigma Phi attended the gate and served the food. It was great visiting with friends and sharing in a wonderful cause at the same time.

Homemade ice cream was a big hit at the concession stand. Various flavors and good ol' vanilla was available. Community members donated their fine fixings in an effort of giving.

After everyone was served, musical performances were introduced by Jack Taylor, emcee. Raymond Hart and the Heartbeats featured two female singers. A couple of young fiddlers stole the show with their expertise.

The Cottonwood Volunteers, which consisted of several regular entertainers at the Cottonwood Musical, demonstrated some harmonizing that was appreciated by the audience. Autumn Dawn performed a Dolly Parton song, "Little Andy," which was very touching, and one other selection.

Saddle Creek Band was the final band to perform and Craig Taylor, Keith Taylor, and Debbie Lynn were featured vocalists. All the singers came from the Fort Worth-Dallas Metroplex and lent their professional abilities to a full evening of country music.

Debbie Lynn performed several Patsy Cline tunes, as she is re-establishing her professional career as a singer.

Craig Taylor has a career in acting and singing.

Keith Taylor's impressions of Elvis were enjoyed, and the entertainers provided a variety of musical talent. It was most considerate of all the musicians to donate their time to the benefit.

It was announced by Police Chief Don Griffith that a group known as the "Sacred Angels" called our city and offered free flight service to Jeremy if he should ever be in need. The crowd was moved by the generous act.

All the proceeds will be applied toward expenses incurred during Jeremy's medical treatment and therapy. The Tennon family was very appreciative of the caring attitude demonstrated by the

I'm convinced more and more that "old age" is a relative term. Twenty or so years ago forty was at least getting close to it — but the closer I got to it, old age was farther down the road. And so today I realized that even forty is quite young — and if you don't believe it, you'll see!

All this reminds me of some things said in the manual of life, the Bible, "Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years draw near when you will say, 'I have no delight in them.'" It goes on to describe real old age — and finishes by saying, "The conclusion, when all has been said, is: fear God and keep His commandments, because this is the whole of man. For God shall bring every act to judgement, even everything which seems hidden, whether it be good or bad."

Though we may change our mind as we get older just what or when old age is — perhaps even rationalize about it — let us remember that old age is not promised to everyone. James says, "Our life is like a vapor, here today and gone tomorrow." Death is no respecter of person or age! So let us remember now the Creator is "the days or our youth" — before our years cease to be numbered. As a Christian we can say with Paul, "though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day," II Corinthians 4:16. Come be renewed with us. We really do care!

Korean Memorial: Veterans of the Korean War will be honored in Washington, D.C., on July 27, the 40th anniversary of the armistice. The day's activities will include a "No Greater Love" tribute to families of Korean War dead or missing. Among other scheduled events are a memorial service at Arlington National Cemetery and a banquet honoring Korean War Veterans. Officials will unveil a painting commissioned by Coors Brewing Company to commemorate the 40th anniversary. For invitations to the family tribute, call (202) 783-4665. Banquet reservations and more information on other events may be obtained by calling (518) 371-7816 or writing: The Korean War Veterans Armistice Day Coordination Committee, P.O. Box 7025, Alexandria, VA 22307.

Service-Connected Rules: Veterans injured while being treated by VA may be entitled to service-connected disability, according to newly defined legal definitions. Recent rulings of the Court of Veterans Appeals and the Board of Veterans Appeals require VA regional offices to consider all five categories of service-connected disabilities. According to the National Veterans Legal Services Project, Veterans are also considered service-connected if:

- Their service records show treatment or diagnosis of the condition while on active duty.
- The condition that existed before the Veteran entered the service becomes worse during the Veteran's time in service. However, the Veteran must have served at least 90 consecutive days on active duty.

Donnie Dillard Selected As Holiday Hill Employee Of Quarter

Employees at Holiday Hill Nursing Home in Coleman voted on June 30th for their choice of a fellow worker who they believed works hard, gives more than regular duties required and who they most like working with. The unanimous decision was Donnie Dillard for Employee of the Quarter.

Dillard, a LVN, attended Cisco Junior College in Abilene, receiving his license on January 16, 1993. Although he resides in Cross Plains, Donnie was born in Coleman, delivered by Dr. M.D. Mann. Married to Barbara, the Dillards have four children, two boys and two girls.

Donnie is a busy man. He has been a volunteer with the Cross Plains ambulance service for 8 years, and for 12 years, has been a member of the school board there. Before going into nursing, he worked in the oilfield.

Russ Chambers, R.N. and Director of Nursing at Holiday Hill, says that Donnie is a big asset to the facility and that he is always willing to "go that extra mile" for residents. "We are fortunate to have him in our employee family," states Chambers. Dillard received a $50 check for his being voted Employee of the Quarter and will also be treated to a free lunch for his dedication to Holiday Hill.

Cross Plains Junior Rodeo July 29-31

The Cross Plains Junior Rodeo is set for July 29, 30, and 31 at the local arena, beginning at 7:30 p.m. nightly. Books open at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, and 5:30 p.m. on Saturday for steers (10 and under and 11-14 years), with steer riding at 6:30 p.m. Entry fees must be paid in cash only. Jackpot nightly. All-Around Boy and Girl in each age group will receive a Montana Silversmith buckle.

Events include bulls, barebacks, steers, flags, barrels, poles, ribbon breakaway, tiedown, and the header/heeler. Shawn Odom Team Roping buckles will be awarded to the fastest time each night.

Entry fee for 10 and under is $8; 11-14 years $10; 15-19 years $15; and $15 for 21 and under team roping.

Friday and Saturday evenings will feature "Bandera" at the dance, beginning at 9 p.m.

Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy some western entertainment by some fine young athletes.

Sally Roady sounded cheerful this morning. I visited with them at the church last evening. They visit Ms. Nettie at the nursing home nearly every day. Cindy and Allison had dinner with them on Sunday.

I'm hoping we have a rain soon so that my newly-mowed acres will be green again. My daughter called one day — just checking. I do appreciate her constant concern. My kids are very precious to me!

If anyone would like green pears to feed to hogs or whatever, please contact me.

Athletes Must Have Physicals

Cross Plains Middle School and High School athletes, both girls and boys, are requested to come by the field house on campus to obtain a form needed prior to having physicals. You may contact Doug Dallas, Athletic Director, or Coach Monty Jones for the forms.

Post Office Customer Appreciation Day

By NORMA EVANS
Postmaster

As always, our customers have shown us again why we appreciate you so much. The turnout was super and the punch and cookies were enjoyed from 9 a.m. until noon.

We hope you enjoyed the refreshments and also the ballpoint pens that were handed out for the remainder of the special day. Indian Headdress stamp pins were handed out to the children. We do appreciate the efforts you put forth answering the local postal survey. The results have benefited us all and we still have a few changes forthcoming, one of which will be parcel lockers in the lobby. Parcels that will fit in the lockers will be placed in the locker with a key in your box in order for you to be able to pick up parcels 24 hours a day. No more waiting overnight or an entire weekend to pick up those special packages.

Remember, the employees of the Cross Plains Post Office APPRECIATE EACH

Patch That Smoking Habit

About 2/3rds of the 45 million smokers in America have tried to quit. "More and more smokers are turning to their doctor to provide guidance and assistance, and the patch, along with simple counseling from their doctor, for many smokers (the nicotine patch) may be the means by which they are able to break free," says Michael Fiore, UW Medical School. He cites "consistent data that success rates were doubled... compared with those who don't use it..."

Your better health is our concern.

The wonderful people and businesses are:

Pete and Lil Collum; Avery Schuepback and Eddie Guilbeau; Glenn Winfrey; Richard Wilson; Eddie Faye Dillard; Amelia Cortez; Debbie Merryman; Marilyn Cary; Cindy Wood; Mr. and Mrs. Tiny Hedrick; Reba Lane; Lillie Dillard; Connie Kirkham; Jean Vaughn; Vanda King; Connie Potter; Terry Fortune; Jewel Purvis; Eddie Curtis; Cindy McBee; Bro. Hale; Hollis Shults; the students that ran concession stands; Beta Sigma Phi members; the Roping Club; All Star Pump and Supply; All Star Auto; Holsum Bakery; Banner Printing; Dairy Queen; Skinny's; Village Market; Cross Plains Frozen Foods; Jack's Place; Citizens State Bank; T&K Tire and Alignment; Cross Plains Review; Ab-Tex Beverages of Abilene; Odum's Motel; Lawrence Farm & Ranch; United Foods of Abilene; and a special "Thank You" to Red's Barbeque of Clyde, Texas.

We would also like to thank all the entertainers for their music and their time that they contributed. This could not have been possible without them. If we left any individual or business out, we apologize for our oversight.

 None goes his way alone;
 All that we send into the lives of others
 Comes back into our own!*

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

The headlines in today's paper are both encouraging and depressing. A lot depends on one's attitude — frame of mind. I'm trying to be both cheerful and sincere.

Attendance at the evening services at First Baptist was rewarding. Rev. Michael's message — "Another Glimpse of Heaven" — was inspiring and beautiful.

Betty Beggs sounded 'nice and per' this morning. They were in the church services on Sunday. She and Novilia Barton visited one day recently with Ms. Nell Fleming. On Sunday, Betty and J.T. visited briefly with L.W. and Jeanette Mitchell.

Helen Tillotson sounded cheerful this morning. They recently had some visitors from the state of Iowa — they enjoyed seeing them. Helen wished — as we all do — that we could have a good rain.

Nell Fleming was her usual "sweet self" this morning. She didn't have any special news, but I always enjoy hearing from

COTTONWOOD NEWS

By BEVERLY BROWN

The Cottonwood Musical will be held this Friday night, July 16, in the local Community Center. Country-western music entertainment will start at 6:30 p.m. All musicians are cordially invited to participate on the evening program.

The Cottonwood Quilting Club members will serve a variety of summer salads, along with their featured sandwiches, desserts, and beverages in the kitchen area. No admission fee is charged for the musical. We are pleased to report all the air conditioners are in great running shape to keep the building cool for your convenience.

The Cottonwood Post Office looks great since it has been painted on the exterior. I haven't heard any comments of a dazzling white facade, which was completed several months ago. If you haven't visited our local Cottonwood Community Center, you will be surprised. It is bright and cheery when you enter the hallway, kitchen, and quilting room after its remodeling of white paint to the walls and ceilings. Come to the musical Friday evening and check these buildings out.

Mrs. Ora Breeding went on a trip to Tennessee recently, with her daughter and husband, Connie and Bill Plummer. She spent several days with her cousin, Frances and Gordon Hedgecoth at Crossville, while Connie and Bill went to Norfolk, Virginia to pick up their daughter, April. Places they went to while in Nashville and Memphis were: the Opry World, the Music Hall of Fame, Andrew Jackson Hermitage House, rode on the Andrew Jackson Ship where they took the evening trip and had dinner aboard in the restaurant, and Graceland — and toured the Elvis Presley home. They saw several shows during their travels and enjoyed their trip. You will have to get Ora to tell you about her trip. It is fascinating.

Mrs. W.D. "Billie" Clark spent a week in Las Vegas, Nevada with relatives recently. Billie hadn't been to Vegas in 31 years, the changes were great of new buildings and how the place has grown in areas into the outer suburbs. She reported, when asked if it was hot, that temperatures were up in three digits. The family showed her a great time and did a lot of sight-seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Monty Champion, Jeffrey and Shelby of Stephenville were at his parents', Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Champion, Sr., over the weekend for the Woody Family Reunion.

Kimberley Creamer of Fort Worth area is spending a few weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. Isla Stroud, and her aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brown and Jason.

Due to the extreme dry conditions and high winds, we are asked to please not burn trash or any burns. A little spark from any burn in the present situation can cause havoc over the countryside, endanger wild life, homes, and cattle.

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

By IRMA MILLER

Novilia Barton and Betty Beggs visited with Nell Fleming one day during the week. Cecil and Mary came to see Novilia this weekend.

Nell Fleming spent the day Sunday with Jo Veda and Bill Watson at Byrds Store, and enjoyed it.

John Miller visited with Bob and Barbara Powell on Sunday afternoon.

On Saturday, Laverne Hutton and Lou Grider visited with Laverne's mother, Mrs. Ella Dean in Cross Plains.

Earlene Burge's visitors were Mrs. Cole Tillotson on Saturday and Jewel Foster on Sunday. Lucille Cooper came by one day.

Irma and John Miller attended the Brannan Reunion in Abilene the weekend of July 3, in the Kiva Inn, coordinated by Dr. Daniel K. Brannan, professor at ACU. About 40 attended.

ADVERTISE IN THE CROSS PLAINS REVIEW

County's Portion Of Hays Road Paving Lowered

Callahan County and Clyde CISD officials received some good news Monday when they were informed the preliminary estimates to have a pipeline along Hays were completely out of line.

Callahan County Commissioners, in a regular court meeting Monday, June 28 discussed the paving of Hays Road with a representative from Chevron Pipeline. Also attending the meeting was Clyde CISD Superintendent Tony Reed, Charles Kitchell, the school district's architect for the intermediate school building project and Bill Jackson with the Texas Highway Department.

The Chevron Pipeline official told the commissioner's court that the $75,000 figure the county would pay to move pipelines along Hays Road was not correct. The newest estimate is now between $5,000 to $6,000. The Chevron official said the pipeline would be unearthened and tested, which would cost $65 per foot to perform on approximately 100 feet of pipeline.

Although county commissioners took no action, they agreed to go ahead and get estimates on getting the pipeline testing started.

No action was taken by county commissioners, however Chevron officials were to have a complete estimate of the cost within one week.

The Texas Highway Department will pay for the total cost of paving Hays Road from FM 18 north to the south access road of Interstate 20.

Since Hays Road is a county roadway, Callahan County would be responsible for paying all cost involved in moving all pipelines, telephone poles and obtaining right of ways for the project. Hays Road is located in County Commissioner Harold Hicks Precinct #1.

Clyde school officials are hoping to have Hays Road paved before the district begins constructing a new intermediate school campus building on property owned by the school district. The school district owns approximately 21 1/2 acres of land at the former Cisco Junior College extension site at the northeast corner of Hays Road.

Other items brought before commissioners court included:

—Commissioners accepted the annual audit report as presented by Jon Hardwick, CPA.

—Commissioners voted unanimously to reappoint Robert Monk, Walter Bryan and David Scott to the Mental Health/Mental Retardation board of directors.

—Commissioners met with Richard Slagle from the Texas Association of Counties to discuss the county's personnel and salary policies. County Judge Bill Johnson had requested Slagle meet with the commissioner's court to discuss the county's salary policies to find out if they're in-line with other counties of similar size. Slagle stated he would contact other counties of the same size to get their salary policies of county employees and present the information to commissioner's court at a later date.

No action was taken.

—Commissioners voted unanimously to pay $6,600 as the county's portion to replace a bridge along Little Pecan Bayou located in Cross Plains Commissioner Joe Ingram's Precinct #4. The Texas Department of Transportation would pay 80 percent of the total $33,000 cost to construct the new bridge. The county's portion for the new bridge would come from Cross Plains Precinct #4.

County commissioners took no action concerning paying approximately $33,000 as the county's portion to construct a new bridge on Sheep Creek located in Baird Commissioner Tommy Holland's Precinct #2. The total cost of the new bridge is $167,000 of which the Texas Department of Transportation would pay 80 percent. Holland told the other commissioners he would consider at a later date of whether or not his precinct would fund the county's share of the project.

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

Those dry south winds are still blowing and drying out the ground. They cause fires as well as all vegetation turns brown. We are hoping for rain soon.

News this week was slim, and neighbors had had a busy 4th of July and no company this week. Bob and Kathy Dye had helped their daughter, Julie Patterson and children to Laurel, Mississippi, where Brian will be assistant manager of a new McCoy store. Bob and Kathy returned home Saturday.

Dorothy Reynolds visited her friend, Doris Searcy, in Clyde this week.

Larry and Patricia Johnson of View visited in the Robert Watson home Monday.

This writer visited in the Gene Mauldin home Friday afternoon. The two of them had shelled black-eyed peas for two days.

This writer received an answer to a letter written to a former Rowden resident, Cloe Ramey, who had received an invitation to the 1993 Rowden-Bayou Reunion, held June 12th at Abilene. Her letter was interesting in that she remembered many familiar names. She is 85 and in poor health.

Edna Dye attended a wedding show for Josh Allen and Amy Deatheride of Abilene Saturday in Abilene.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I would like to commend the residents of your town on their friendliness and willingness to help in a time of need. My mother was traveling alone and became lost at 10:30 p.m. She arrived at Skeet Walker's residence and he was so kind as to take her under his wing and escort her to the Odom's Motel.

At the motel, Nell Bowden took a personal interest in her, made her feel at home, and assured her that everything would be OK. They both helped her, I'm sure, feel comfortable and secure as she was confused.

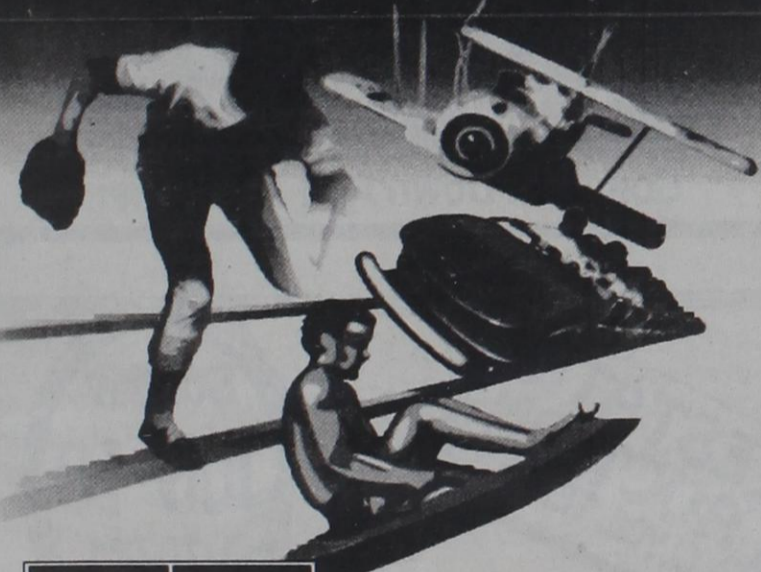

Mr. Don Childers, the Deputy Sheriff, was good enough to call my hometown and try to locate me.

Mr. Don Griffin, the City Marshal, watched during the night to insure her safety.

I was glad that if she had to get lost, it was in your community. A big heartfelt "THANK YOU" to all involved.
