Fate Of Canning Plant Here Is In Jeopardy

Bailey County Can't Supply Necessary Cucumber Acreage

By Richard Goodrow

A little more than two weeks ago Bailey County was presented with an opportunity to acquire its first industry, a tomato canning plant, and thus take its first step toward industrial progress.

Today that possibility stands in jeopardy. In no uncertain terms, it was stated that in order for the area to be considered as a site for the large plant it would have to prove its willingness to support it.

The proof was requested to take three separate forms. 1. That the area grow the same number of acres of tomatoes here this year as last year. 2. That the area grow about 25 acres of new type experimental tomato which would be necessary to the proposed plant's successful operation. 3. That the area grow between 200 and 250 acres of cucumbers on a contract basis.

There was no difficulty in obtaining the acres of tomatoes necessary to comply with the first request as the crop has been proven a money maker.

Some small difficulty was experienced in obtaining the necessary 25 acres of experimental tomatoes. However, this was easily overcome due to the fact that only very small acreage commitments were necessary by the individual farmer. They ranged from two to five acres each.

The opportunity for a canning industry began to come apart at the seams when the third request—to grow cucumbers—was brought to the floor at a meeting of about 70 farmers over two weeks ago.

At that time no cucumber acreage was committed by

City Council Improving Of Streets To Begin Here Soon

The city council voted at its most recent meeting to advertise for bids for a comprehensive street seal-coating program to cover all main thoroughfares and many of the other streets in the city.

Cost of the program is expected to be about $20,000. The council has set aside $25,000 in its 1964-65 proposed budget to cover any possible extra costs.

It is expected that the contract for the work will be let May 1st. According to City Manager Albert Fields, the actual work is expected to take between three and five weeks.

According to the specifications, between two and four tenths gallons of asphalt will be used to the square yard.

In other action the council voted to accept the bid of Magnolia Products to supply gasoline to the city. The winning bid was 1.809 cents, according to the records.

The governmental group also appointed members to the City Board of Equalization. However, some of those appointed have not yet accepted.

Bids will be let soon for a new pickup truck for the city water department. The contract is expected to be awarded within two to four weeks.

Tuesday night the City Planning group, an arm of the council, will meet to continue discussion of the proposed sub-division ordinance for the city.

The proposed ordinance is comprehensive in nature and will set up complete controls for new subdivisions here.

A list of gasoline bids follows: Texaco, .1859; Gulf Oil 1853; Continental Oil .1880; Holts, .20 cents; Western "66", 1884.

★ Chairman Named ★

Frank Ellis, operator of the Singleton Funeral Home, has been announced as chairman of the 1964-4th of July Celebration by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce.

This will be the 4th in the series of free mid-summer holiday observances begun under the leadership of Harmon Elliott, who served as chairman until this year. Featuring an outstanding fireworks display and talent show, the event has been quite successful, attracting crowds of up to 7,000 persons from throughout the area to the local high school football stadium.

In announcing the appointment, Roger Albertson, president of the chamber, said, "We are very pleased to have Frank Ellis head up this committee, and we are looking forward to another great show under his leadership this year." Going on, he said, "We consider this an opportunity for the business community of Muleshoe to express its appreciation for the continued patronage and friendship of residents from throughout the entire area."

Little change is expected to be made in the format of past years. Everyone is invited to bring a picnic lunch to spread on the football field or eat in the stands. Soda pop and candy bars are

Water Table Dropping

Water—that most precious resource to which Muleshoe owes its very existence continued to decline here and over the High Plains for the 27th straight year.

Recent measurements made here by the High Plains water conservation district show the Bailey County water table has dropped another 1.88 feet on the average. Regional static water levels have declined over 60 feet during the 28-year period 1937-1964.

The drop ranges from a few feet to around 100 in some areas. The 1963 drop of 1.88 average feet compares favorably with an average drop of 7.89 feet average decline from 1959-1964.

The water level test was made on 25 wells scattered about Bailey County according to the report.

Largest measured drop on the High Plains was in Castro County where the average drop this year was 4.27 feet. The 1959-64 average well decline was 17.61 feet in Castro County.

Total average decline per well over the High Plains was 2.49 feet this year as compared with 10.34 for the 1958-64 period.

In Bailey County the one year water drop ranged from a low of 0.16 decline for a well south of Muleshoe to a high decline of 15.74 feet for a well south-east of the city.

The average water depth in Bailey County today is believed to average about 30-32 feet. Water depth in the sand hills south of Muleshoe was fell to about 21 feet. A few short years ago water could usually be found six to ten feet down, according to some old timers.

Declining water levels are a cause of growing concern among farming, business and financial interests on the High Plains. The decline, which began shortly after irrigation was developed on a significant scale, was accelerated by the expanded development and increased rates of water use during the drought years of 1950-56. It continued, although at a reduced rate in most places, under the improved moisture conditions of 1957-64.

Before 1947, water-level declines were slight or economically insignificant. Consequently, the data developed in the 1947-49 study provide a basis for appraising the effects of subsequent changes in water supply. With appropriate adjustment to compensate for possible inflation in the cost of irrigation facilities, for changes in the type and unit cost of fuel or energy and for seasonal effects on the length of the pumping season, the data developed in the 1954 and 1958 studies provide a measure of change that can be attributed to the decline in water supplies.

The study was restricted to the area designated by the State Board of Water Engineers as Sub-division No. 1 of the High Plains Underground Water Reservoir. It includes all or parts of 21 counties and covers a total area of 10,649 square miles. Although the study area was restricted in area, for purposes of simplification, the study area is designated herein as the High Plains.

The study is reported in three parts. The first consists of a description and discussion of conditions for the area as a whole. The second examines development trends, adjustments and other pertinent changes during the 12 years in specific hydrologic sub-areas.

TOPS Members Attend State Convention

Eighteen members of the Muleshoe Jenny TOPS Club attended the State TOPS Convention held last Saturday in Lubbock.

Loma Gustin represented the local organization as queen. She had lost 72½ pounds. The State Queen title went to Doris Warren, Brownfield, who had lost 88 pounds. Ruth Clements took second place in her division. The Jenny TOPS banner tied with Snyder for first place ribbon. They were in competition with 39 other clubs.

Seven members graduated into KOPS, the keeping off pounds division, and wore caps and gown for the graduation exercises.

The KOPS graduates are Beverly Hall, Frieda Foss, Lillian Smith, Ann Camp, Ruth Clements, Juanita Buhrman and Mae Province. This group has lost the amount of weight set as their goal, and after being in the K-IW division, (kept in waiting) for three months, they advanced to KOPS.

Juanita Buhrman was entered in the bathing suit contest and Ann Camp presented a skit on the program.

Some 421 women from over the state were in attendance and 18 attended from Muleshoe. They were Joe Harmon, Beverly Hall, Loma Gustin, Ruth Clements, Juanita Buhrman, Lillian Smith, Mae Province, Paul Clements, Ann Camp, Frances Graham, Ethel Allison, Betty Oliver, Cecile Cunningham, Rose Sain, Carrie Zahn, Freida Foss, Myrtle Wells and Zora Mae Beller. The award winning banner and display carried the theme of "Muleshoe" and was judged largely on originality.

The arrangement was unique in the fact that Mrs. Smith made a chair from horseshoes, in it she placed a big doll representing a fat woman. Near the chair was a mule shoe with a mule jumping through it. An slender woman in cowboy clothes stood beside it, representing the "before and after" in weight before and after joining the TOPS Club.

We sincerely hope you try our product if you haven't before. Maybe the letters in the word will help: "B" is for essential vitamin B you need to get from cereal. "R" is recommended foods such as those high in protein. "E" is for energy necessary to get going and keep going. "A" is for important vitamin A supplied by milk, butter and fortified margarine. "K" is for vitamin K. "F" is for fat which you may have to watch. "A" is for ascorbic acid also called vitamin C. "S" is for satisfaction and eating enjoyment. The Freshman Homemaking class of Lazbuddie High School has been discussing why we should eat breakfast. We have also had a debate on the pros and cons of needing a good breakfast.

We have found through our study that it is very important to eat breakfast. We do hope you will try our product and enjoy the health it will help you produce.

There's Cadillac's magnificent and silent power. A 340-horsepower V-8 engine—most powerful in Cadillac history—generates performance so swiftly that we caution even long-time Cadillac owners to mind their speedometers. There is, in addition, the remarkable

There is the luxury of elegantly appointed interiors, together with the great convenience of power brakes and steering (plus power windows on most models) that have turned the 600-mile day into a restful reality.

Afternoon Ceremony Read In Church Chapel

Couple Now On Honeymoon: Will Make Home In Farwell

An afternoon ceremony read April 12 in the Farwell First Baptist Church united in marriage Miss Sherri Austin and Glenn Dell Phipps.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Partin Austin, Farwell and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Phipps, Route 2, Muleshoe.

Rev. J. L. Bass read the double ring service before a lush background of large woodward palms interspersed with emerald palms and numerous seven-branched candelabra holding pink cathedral tapers rising in a pyramid and culminating in a central candelabra of many tapers. In front of this was a spreading bouquet of pink mallow, consisting of two-toned pink gladiolas and sweet pink stock. Centering the altar was a white pre-dieu and a cloth of white velvet.

Pink satin bows trimmed the kneeling bench and marked the bridal aisle which was covered with an aisle cloth.

Bridal Gown
Escorted and presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of silk linen featuring a fitted bodice with a slightly scooped neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The midriff was enhanced by a band of Chiny lace embroidered with seed pearls and frosted, cut heads. The bell-shaped skirt was designed with an unpressed front and the back pleats extended into a chapel train.

Her finger-tip veil of illusion was attached to a small pill box hat of re-embroidered lace and seed pearls. She carried a Bible arrangement of Phoenicis orchids with cascades of stephanotis. For something old, the lace handkerchief of her grandmother, the late Mrs. Susie Smith, was caught in the cascades of stephanotis.

Something new was her dress: something borrowed, a white Bible from her matron of honor; something blue, a garter which was a gift from a friend, Mrs. C. C. Christian. She wore two pennies in her shoe, minted the years of their birth.

ATTENDANTS
Matron of honor was Mrs. Linda Woltman, Okmulgee, Okla.; and bridesmaids were Mikala Austin, Phyllis Christian, and Donna Rundell, cousin and friends of the bride, respectively.

The attendants wore dresses of Persian rose satin peau designed with fitted bodices, scoop necklines and elbow-length sleeves. Flowing trains were attached in the back to a cummerbund at the midriff. Their shoes were of matching rose.

They carried fans of white lace caught with a cluster of soft pink carnations and cascading picotee streamers. Circle hats of Persian rose satin and tulle were designed and made by the bride's mother.

MUSIC
Traditional wedding selections were presented by Ferrell Roberts, Clovis, N. M. and soloists, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Jones, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, who sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Twelfth of Never." Mrs. Jones sang the "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

Kenneth Phipps, Clovis, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Gary Don Ratliff, Jerry Don Coulter and Jackie Redwine, Muleshoe. Derrell Nowell, Muleshoe, and Dawson Vaughn, Burkburnett, cousins of the groom, were ushers.

Candlelighters were Tommy Ratliff, Muleshoe, and Stanley Austin, Farwell, Brent Jones, Farwell, was ring bearer.

The groom's boutonniere was stephanotis and all his attendants wore boutonnières of pale pink carnations.

RECEPTION
The couple greeted guests at a reception which followed in Fellowship Hall of the church.

The reception table was covered with Persian rose cloth overlaid with white lac eand was centered with a large white wedding candle showing a bride and groom emerging from the chapel. This was arranged on a silver footed epergne with sweet pink stock and Persian rose color carnations.

The three-tiered cake was topped with pale pink wedding bells atop pink icing and decorated with apple blossoms and doves. At the base of the cake wedding rings were caught in pink hearts and silver wedding bells.

Mrs. Kenneth Phipps and Mrs. Jimmie Coin presided at the serving table.

Guests were registered for the wedding and reception by Miss Carylon Lindop, Farwell. The registration table was covered with a white cloth and held a bud vase of carnations in the bride's chosen colors.

Gifts were displayed on a table laid with a white cloth and centered with the arrangement from the rehearsal dinner.

WEDDING TRIP
For a wedding trip through New Mexico, the bride chose a dress and coat ensemble of Persian Rose and Sweet Pink with a matching hat of roses. Her accessories were of iridescent white. She wore a corsage of white orchids from the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Phipps is a senior at Farwell High School and will continue her studies. He is a graduate of Muleshoe High School and attended West Texas University. The couple are making their home at 412 Eighth Street, Farwell, where he is employed by the A-SC office.

SHELTERS SHELVED

The Senate has shelved a multimillion dollar request for fall-out shelters. Assistant Secretary of Defense, Stuart L. Pittman, said the "setback throws us off schedule."

Pittman, who is in charge of the civil defense program, has been fighting for his cause for 2½ years. When the Senate Armed Services Subcommittee voted to defer on the House-approved bill, it probably means no action this year.

Berkeley Pumps Sold By E. R. Hart Co., Inc.

One of the oldest and best known business firms in Muleshoe is the E. R. Hart Co., Inc., dealer in Berkeley pumps and water systems and Coleman Heating and Air Conditioning units. This establishment installs pumps and irrigation systems and does a turn key job. They also can have wells drilled through their connections with well drilling contractors.

Berkeley pumps come in several sizes up to 30 horse power. These pumps are famous all over the United States and have been on the market many years. They are famous for giving many years of excellent service. Six inch pipe is used on most irrigation system and small units are used for household service, for either shallow or deep wells.

This company has mechanics that overhaul any type of pump and install them. They do all the plumbing work connected with water service. Otis Blaylock is the head mechanic and installed the first Berkeley pump in this area in 1938. Seven employees operate this organization.

Berkeley pumps can be bought on easy terms and this firm handles the financing for pumps and heating and air conditioning units.

They are familiar with the water problems of farmers in this area and know how to solve them. They have all the equipment necessary to bring the water to the surface and distribute it over the land.

The E. R. Hart Co., has a complete line of plumbing supplies and pump parts. Practically any item a farmer needs for his irrigation system can be bought here.

Houston Hart is president of this firm and his brother Bill is Vice-president. E. W. Tucker is Secretary and Assistant Manager. The business is located at 210 East 3rd St., in Muleshoe and the phone number is 3-3300. Call this number when you need pump or irrigation service or heating and air conditioning units. They operate four service trucks to give prompt service to customers.

ANTI-POVERTY PLAN

President Johnson's anti-poverty program is on its uncertain journey through the legislative mill. Democratic reaction generally was favorable to the $962,500,000 program aimed primarily at assistance to needy young Americans. Republican reaction generally voiced that the program looked a lot like a political maneuver.

any of those present, although several farmers stated they were willing to talk about it further, but on a private basis. Farmers reluctance to attempt cucumber crops was derived from several factors.

1. Some cucumbers were grown in the Muleshoe area last year and before. Most farmers involved in the growing, broke even on the crop. Some lost money — some heavily.

2. There is a definite lack of knowledge on details of how to grow, care for and other details of the crop. It is only human nature to be exceedingly careful of something new and untried. This coupled with the experience of those farmers who have grown cucumbers in the past had made area planters twice as cautious.

3. Muleshoe area as well as the entirety of the state is expected to experience a severe shortage of farm labor this year. A sizable amount of hand labor is necessary to care for and harvest cucumbers. The cost of labor this year is an unknown factor so far because of the ending of the Bracero program, and a heavy loss of labor to California and Colorado. The employment of Mexican nationals was ended as a part of the president's "War On Poverty" program.

This coupled with the reluctance of migrant labor to work in Texas where both wages and living conditions are far below those of other states has created the labor shortage.

All this adds up to the fact that as of today about 50 percent of the necessary 200 to 250 acres of cucumbers has been obtained here, and the Western Produce Company's representative, Elvon DeVaney, has just about exhausted local possibilities.

Thus, our area has been unable to complete the three requirements necessary for consideration for the canning plant site.

DeVaney has stated that it is expected that the remainder of the crop will be planted in Lamb County.

It is unknown exactly how the local failure will effect the decision of where the plant will be located, but it certainly won't help.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Editor:

The last issue of the Bailey County Journal did it. It made two decisions for me. First, that I can no longer shrug off the duty of a responsible person, lest, as Mr. Kennedy intended to say in Dallas "those who confuse rhetoric with reality and the plausible with the possible will gain the popular ascendancy with their seemingly swift and simple solutions in every world problem".

I hurried right out to the box with our check for the Muleshoe Journal. It is essential.

I herewith enclose another check for additional copies of that issue. It is a concrete example of both reputable news service and organized propaganda.

May I suggest that we desist in calling these propaganda, carrying friends of ours John Birchers! We should call them, "Welchers. They are not fighting communism, they are fighting, 'UNCLE SAM. More than ten percent of the Americans are so organized to carry on this maddening brain-wash, which caused a sick man to kill our President. For truth's sake, I am, Mrs. Leon Smith.

Crowd Welcomes New Pastor, Wife At Lariat Church

Approximately 100 visitors from Clovis, Rhea, Friona, Hereford, Canyon and Plainview joined the 85 members of St. John's Lutheran church last Sunday afternoon to welcome the new pastor, the Rev. Herbert F. Peiman, who together with his wife Madge, came to Lariat from Borger, the previous Wednesday.

Also present for the occasion were 15 of Peiman's former Borger members and his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Streit from Vernon, which boosted the total attendance at the installation service to more than 20.

With the arrival of the new pastor the every Sunday morning schedule will be Sunday school, with classes for all ages from nursery through the adult Bible Class, at 9:30 and worship service at 1:30.

In his initial sermon this morning the 70-year-old pastor will give the congregation his reasons for coming to Lariat. Using as his text Second Corinthians 2:1-5, Peiman will tell the members of St. John's that while there are many human factors involved, the main reason he came to Lariat is to preach to them "Christ Jesus and Him crucified", so that their faith should not "stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God". Sunday afternoon at 2:30 the Veterans assembly will hold their quarterly business meeting to review the past three months' performance and to map out plans for the current quarter. These plans will include a Vacation Bible School to be held sometime during the month of June.

"With the rousing reception and the many expressions of good will given us last Sunday, my wife and I already feel at home, and know that our association with the members of St. John's and the people of the community will bring us many happy experiences," Peiman stated.
