Threefold Entertainment

By VANDA KING
Editor

Last Thursday evening was a night of true entertainment beginning with the Kiwanis Pancake Supper, moving along to the Band Concert, and finishing with the One Act Play. If you were not able to attend the three part series, you missed something good.

The Pancake Supper was a big success, serving approximately 250 people. The pancakes were tasty with plenty of syrup and sausage. Fellowship at the individual tables was filled with conversation and laughter. All the Kiwanians were extremely good hosts.

After completing your meal, you were lured to the auditorium by the musical sounds created by both the Junior High and High School Bands. Randy Taylor, band director, has done an excellent job in elevating the quality of the local bands. The well-performed arrangements were perfect for relaxing. By this time the auditorium was almost filled to capacity.

The peaceful segment ended with the concert and the One Act Play was introduced by Joe Coppinger, instructor. He provided the audience with some insight and set the mood for "Bloody Jack." The play was based on the crimes committed by the notorious Jack the Ripper.

The title alone lets you know you are in for a thriller. The first scene was dramatically produced on a dim lit street with fog, as the location was London, England. A lady of the evening was killed, which started the atmosphere of suspense. The building was quiet with anticipation as the plot unfolded.

This play kept your attention because you were constantly trying to decide who the killer was. All the actors were exceptional and the stage crew kept things moving smoothly.

Julia Wheeler and students of the Homemaking Department are to be congratulated on the beautiful costumes they created. The long dresses with bustles were perfectly prepared to the time setting of 1888. When the play was chosen by Mr. C., he did not realize that this is the 100 year anniversary of the terrible serial murders.

The play was very entertaining, and the reception line formed by the actors following was a great opportunity to congratulate them individually.

The following is a program listing the cast and crew:

One Act Play
"Bloody Jack"
AUTHOR OF PLAY: Tim Kelly

CHARACTERS IN PLAY:

Just for fun, Wanda (Gary) Grable brought in a clipping of a Senior Play performed in 1948, for a comparison between past and present.

Billie Loving was the teacher responsible for the play, whose setting was an insane asylum. Margaret (Clark) McNeel stated that every performer was insane, and it was a wild and crazy production.

Here is a program of the event from forty years ago:

The Senior Class Presents...
"One Mad Night"

7:30 P.M. — MARCH 12, 1948
Cross Plains High School Auditorium
Admission: 15c and 35c

Cast of Characters
Don Cutter Jesse Shirley

Priscilla Margaret Ann Clark
John Alden Robert Smith
Lady MacBeth Barbara Gibson
Mrs. Kluck Alona Huntington
Burke Donald Ingram
Siletto Eldon Marshall

We won't spoil the effect by telling you anything about the plot, but five minutes after curtain rises you'll agree that the play has been most appropriately named.

I hope everyone enjoyed a brief look in the past to bring back some good memories.

Garden Club Sets

Flower Show For

April 24

The Garden Club met in regular session April 8, with Mrs. Arvin Brashear and Mrs. Glenn Payne as hostesses. Door prize was won by Mrs. V.J. Williams.

Mrs. A.E. Park of Abilene brought a most interesting program entitled, "Soup to Nuts."

Plans were finalized for the Club's 28th annual Flower Show entitled, "Our World to Explore," to be held Sunday, April 24, at the Garden Center. Guest entries are welcome and should be brought to the Center Friday afternoon, April 22, between 1 and 4 p.m. Contact Mrs. N.V. Gibbs, Show Chairman, for more information.

Eight ladies attended the District VIII Spring Convention in San Angelo, April 5 and 6. State President, Mrs. C.K. Brown of Amarillo was present. An Oriental theme, "East Meets West," was carried out throughout the event.

District VIII awards for the preceding year were announced at this meeting. Cross Plains Club won 1st place for Yearbook, 1st place for Club Program, 1st place for President's Report, and an Award of Appreciation for a contribution to the Madge Horn Endowment Fund.

Among new District officers nominated to take office next spring is Mrs. Leo Franke, District treasurer.

Cottonwood Musical And Cookout To Benefit Fire Control Group

The Cottonwood Monthly Musical on Friday, April 15, is designated a fund raising benefit for the Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control Group. Proceeds from the evening's festivities will go to the C.V.F.C.G. to raise donations for items needed for the truck and fire equipment.

A bake sale will also be held in conjunction with the musical.

The country western music entertainment is presented by area and local musicians. All Big Country area musicians are cordially invited to participate in the evening program, which begins at 7 p.m.

No admission fee is charged. Refreshments will be on sale in the cafeteria. Your support on benefit night will be appreciated by the C.V.F.C.G.

The ladies of the Cottonwood Community will be having a HAMBURGER COOKOUT on Saturday, April 16, from 4 p.m. until 9 p.m. at the Cottonwood Community Center.

Hamburgers and cheesburgers will be $2, with drinks and dessert extra. There will also be forty-two games available for those interested.

The proceeds from the cookout will be donated to the Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control Group to purchase a motor for the fire truck. The Cottonwood ladies invite everyone to have their evening meal at the Community Center and benefit the newly formed volunteer group.

Boy Scouts Need Funds For Camp

By DORA SMITH

A good scouting program is one of the best ways to train young men to be responsible, contributing citizens. Under the leadership of Jimmy Wren and John Miller, Cross Plains has 18 enthusiastic Boy Scouts and one of the best programs in the area. They have mastered skills in outdoors, crafts, sports, camping, knot tying, citizenship, and are now going through extensive training in first aid. They have competed and won awards in the various skills. They also have adopted three miles of Highway 36, and are doing a good job keeping it clean.

The boys are looking forward to a week of summer camp, and are beginning to raise money to go. It will cost $60 per Scout. The group is also in need of a new tent and other equipment, and they ask the community to support their efforts!

The first fund-raising project will be a bake sale this Saturday, April 16, in front of the Village Market and Buy-Rite Stores, beginning at 9 a.m. Plan to let the Scouts do your weekend baking!

For their next fund-raising project, they will be selling items at the Kiwanis Auction on May 7, in the name of the Scouts. They are encouraging the community to help them in this endeavor. During spring cleaning or cleaning out that garage, everyone finds things they no longer use. Please donate those things to the Scouts! If anyone wants to donate, or needs help hauling items, please call Jimmy Wren at 725-6634 or Dora Smith at 725-6489.

Cash donations to the Scouts will be appreciated any time, and a receipt for a charitable contribution will be given on request for cash or for items donated.

Your support will be appreciated, and your community will be a better one through our scouting program!

Sorority Seeks Woman Of The Year And Ms. Senior Citizen

By DORA SMITH

The local Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will honor two women of the community at the city-wide awards night on April 23. The event will be at the Community Center, and the entire community is urged to attend.

Letters of recommendation are being accepted now. Members of the sorority urge everyone to write a letter recommending an outstanding woman in the community. Include her contributions, organizations, and any qualities that you feel would qualify her for an outstanding award.

Those who were nominated last year can be nominated again. Ms. Senior Citizen will be age 55 or over.

Please send your letters to Sarah Brashear, Rt. 4, Box 82-C, Cisco, Texas 76437 as soon as possible. The deadline is April 18.

Auction, Arts And Crafts Show, Fish Fry, May 7

The annual consignment auction will begin at 10 a.m. on the bank lot across from Lawrence Farm and Ranch Supply. The function is sponsored by Beta Sigma Phi.

Booth space for arts and crafts and vendors of new merchandise will be available at the following costs:
10' X 10'.....$15
10' X 20'.....$25.

A $5 charge will be added to the initial cost if electricity is needed.

Booth space is free to any non-profit organization in the Cross Plains Independent School District.

All booth space is on a first come, first serve basis, so be sure to reserve your booths in advance.

For reservations and information call: Pauniece Oglesby, 725-6772 or Sarah Brashear, 725-6537.

The Cross Plains Volunteer Fire Department will be hosting a fish fry on the bank parking lot across from Lawrence Farm and Ranch Supply beginning at 5 p.m.

The cost will be $4.50 per plate. Live entertainment by Country and Western and Gospel groups will be provided.

Homecoming Cards

Ready For Addressing

Volunteers for addressing invitations to the 1988 Cross Plains High School Homecoming need to pick up the invitations at Doris Goble's.

All invitations should be mailed no later than May 1, so every ex-student will have an opportunity to make plans to attend.

The Ex-Student Association is hopeful that everyone will be able to reunite with their fellow classmates and teachers. COME ON HOME TO C.P.H.S.

Remember The

Cancer Crusade

Saturday, April 23, is the designated date for the American Cancer Society Crusade in Cross Plains.

Volunteers will be knocking on doors from 10 a.m. — noon asking for donations. This is the very first local crusade and its success can be very important to research on the disease.

Cancer has no qualifications for its victims. The American Cancer Society asks you to join in the fight.

Ballot Positions

OBITUARIES

Opal Renfro

Opal (Mrs. Owen) Renfro, 75, of Abilene, died Wednesday at a local nursing home.
Services were at 10:30 a.m. Friday at North's Memorial Chapel, 4002 Buffalo Gap Road, with the Rev. Charles Wittle officiating. Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park under the direction of North's Funeral Homes.
Born in Glen Rose, she lived in Cross Plains. She and her husband moved to Abilene in 1942. They were known in Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, and New Mexico where they taught square dancing. Mr. Renfro also was a square dance caller.
She was a member of the First Methodist Church and very active at Rose Park Senior Citizens Center until she became ill two years ago.
She is survived by a sister, Cassie Hughes of Abilene; a brother, Ray Bohannon of Long Beach, Calif.; a nephew, Robert Renfro of Abilene; and several nieces and nephews.

Willie Mae Swafford

COLEMAN — Willie Mae Swafford, 73, died Tuesday at a Waco hospital.
Graveside services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Burkett Cemetery with the Rev. Paul Smith officiating, directed by Walker Funeral Home.
Born in Burkett, she formerly lived in Robert Lee before moving to McGregor five years ago. She was a homemaker.
Survivors include a daughter, Oslene Smith of McGregor; a sister, Irma Dale Foster of Mathis; and two grandchildren.

In 18th-century England, eye-glasses were often worn purely as fashionable accessories, not as aids to vision.

Abilene To Host State 4-H Horse Show, July 25-30

COLLEGE STATION — Several new challenges will be in store for 4-H youths who participate in the 1988 State 4-H Horse Show in Abilene, July 25-30, as a result of changes made by the State 4-H Horse Committee.

The big show, to be held in Taylor County Exposition Center, annually attracts Texas' top youth horsemen who compete in a wide range of events. The show this year will be the 26th annual one to be staged, notes Dr. Doug Householder.

Householder, a horse specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, explains that the weeklong program will start with the open show Monday through Wednesday, and will be followed by a qualifying show Thursday through Saturday.

Some 850 youths and their horses are expected to participate in the summer youth activity, Householder adds.
A new futurity class for three-year-old stock horses will be included this year in addition to the yearling halter and two-year-old western pleasure futurities offered in the past. These projects and associated 4-H activities are designed for older, more experienced youth, Householder explains.

"A special highlight of the show should be the district team versatility class, where 14 teams will compete in a series of back-to-back events," Householder says. These include hunter under saddle, western pleasure, reining and pole bending. The class demonstrates the versatility of a horse and youth, he adds.

The open show will include cutting, judged roping, breakaway roping, team roping, reining, hunter hack, hunter under saddle, hunter seat equitation, working hunter, jumping, yearling filly futurity, yearling gelding futurity, two-year-old western pleasure futurity, drill team, precision riding and three-year-old stock horse class.

Beginning on Thursday, the qualifying show will feature showmanship at halter, mares and geldings at halter, pole bending, western pleasure, western riding, western horsemanship, and the stake race. Semi-finals, competition in the finals, and the district versatility class will complete the activity.

More information about the horse show is available from local county Extension offices.

Williams Visits TFB Waco

Phil Williams of Clyde, president of the Callahan-Shackelford County Farm Bureau, visited the Texas Farm Bureau headquarters in Waco Wednesday, April 6, on a one-day orientation trip with other county presidents from this area. Warren Newberry, TFB Executive Director, explains television equipment in the organization's state office building.

The Texas Farm Bureau is organized in 216 counties in Texas and has a membership of 334,000 member families.

Dance-A-Thon

April 16

The Bonnie Lassies will have a Dance-A-Thon Saturday, April 16, from 12 noon till 12 midnight. It will be held in front of the Slim Gym. Girls will be dancing for donations to help pay the last half of their costume bills. The girls will start soon going door-to-door for donations, so please help support them.

Also at 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. the Tae Kwan Do class of Cross Plains and Brownwood Schools will be giving a demonstration. Bonnie invites everyone to come by and see the dancing and have some fun.

BURKETT NEWS

By LOVERA STRICKLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Marty Callaway and Brooke and Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Gould had lunch with Linda and Melinda Easter Sunday.

Finis Brown of Fort Worth visited friends and relatives in Burkett Monday.

Sadie Armistead of San Angelo spent last week with Grace Green. Bob and Marion also visited Grace Green Sunday.

Lanette Burns spent the weekend in Lubbock visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Young and Toni.

Visitors in the Bill Hunter home Easter Sunday were Lola and Bobbie Dodson, Henry, Margie, Leslie, and Cole Dodson, and Bill and Mary Crosby of Coleman; Ruby Hunter of Bangs; Randy, Sandy, Chase, and Kailea Hunter of Abilene; Roger, Joyce, and Joy Klingberg of Cross Plains; Johnny and Velma Henderson; and Ken, Terri, Leif, and Kristen Hunter of Burkett.

Randy Jennings, Jill and Randy Jr. visited his mother, Montie Jennings, over the past week, returning to Tye on Friday.

Visitors in Walter and Melba Walker's home last weekend of March were their daughter and husband from Fort Worth, Charlotte and Ned Pickett. They all attended church on Sunday, then had dinner in Brownwood for Walter's birthday. Easter weekend we had a good attendance at the Baptist Church. The pastor and wife, Bro. Ted Bigham and Mrs. Bigham, and Mr. and Mrs. D.J. Turner had lunch with Walter and Melba Walker, which we especially enjoyed the fellowship with these friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Strawn and daughter, Donna, of Moses Lake, Washington and Zell Strawn of Brownwood visited Montie Jennings Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Hutchins and Brent visited her Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jody Whitley of San Saba, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Strickland and children of Brenham, and Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Mountain had lunch with the Jack Stricklands Easter Sunday. It was also Jack's birthday.

First Baptist Church Ladies Retreat April 16

By MICHAEL HALE

Saturday, April 16, there will be a ladies retreat in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church. The retreat will begin at 9 a.m. with a breakfast and dismiss at 2 p.m.

Guest speaker for the day will be Alice Heath of Tulsa, Oklahoma. She will be teaching three sessions of the topic "Encourage Me, Lord." This retreat is for all women in the Cross Plains area. There will be a nursery provided.

Then on Friday night, the 22nd of April, there will be a "Lock-In" for all area youth (7th-12th grades). We will leave from the First Baptist Church at 8 p.m. and travel to Brownwood to the Family Life Center of the Coggin Avenue Baptist Church. We will return to Cross Plains around 6 a.m., Saturday morning. Jerry Lewis will bring two mini concerts during the night.

Japan has, on average, three earthquakes a day.

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

As stated last week, my daughter (Joan Stewart) took me to Dallas during the first week in April. While there, we took a guided tour of the Arboretum and Botanical Gardens on White Rock Lake. Many, many beautiful flowers were in bloom — just unbelievably gorgeous!

Also, our "J. Boy" went home (to Corsicana) about Thursday — he was so much improved — we are so grateful. His mother (my sister) and my brother, Max, and his family (of Cisco) went to Corsicana during last weekend.

One of my dearest friends, Elvia Keck of Abilene, came here on Sunday after church. Her daughter-in-law, Linda White, brought her here. We enjoyed dinner at Odom's Cafe, then we visited out here for several hours. Elvia had been in Virginia Beach, Va. with her son and family several months. Linda brought her back to Texas (to stay, I hope).

Mr. and Mrs. Kim Beggs and David of Stephenville, also Rex and Edith, Nikki, Ashley, and Tony of Cross Plains visited Betty and J.T. last weekend. Thursday, Mr. David Beggs (J.T.'s father) of Morton Valley was out there on a fishing trip. At 85, fishing is his favorite pastime.

Nell Fleming was busy painting cabinets when I "disturbed" her. She and Joe recently made a trip to Pampa to visit their son, Glenn. Glenn has been ill recently. He was some better on Thursday, but had a serious setback on Sunday night. Please include him in your prayers!

David and Sara McGowen attended the band concert and the high school drama at Cross Plains High School last week.

Sally and Bobby Roady took Ms. Nettie Roady to Brownwood for a checkup, then did some shopping. They went to Fort Phantom on Saturday for a wedding shower for Art Roady Jr. and wife. Mrs. Nettie, Cindy, and Charlie went with them, also, for a fish fry at Art Sr.'s home.

My young neighbors, Sheryl and David Goble, have made tremendous improvements on their place next door west. They have worked so diligently.

My joyous "bird-watching" is in full swing. I put up my hummingbird stations on Saturday. They have been very busy since then — three and four little bitties at a time. In contrast, the huge, shiny black grackles — such handsome birds, large flocks all around here.

FFA Judging Teams Headed For State

On Wednesday, April 6, the Future Farmers of America sent their 6 judging teams to Tarleton State University at Stephenville. There were over 400 students entered in the Area IV competition.

Ag teacher and FFA sponsors, Roy Richie and Ray Conner, reported that 3 of the 6 teams did well enough to be eligible for state competition. The 3 teams going to state are Dairy Products, Poultry, and Farm Business Management.

The Dairy Products team earned a first place rating. Individually on the team Sophomore Nicky Barron won first place, Senior Barbara Strickland placed 4th, and Junior Emily Horan placed 9th.

The Poultry team earned a 4th place team spot. Team member Senior Scotty Cupit earned a 4th place individual award. Other members were Seniors Gregg Weiss and Donnie Worley, and Junior Blandye Harris.

The team competing in Farm Business Management area took a 10th place and will be going to state. Team members were Senior Tammie Lane, Juniors Terrell Smith and Regie Brown, and Freshman Sherry Williams.

The Livestock team consisting of Freshmen Regin Stover and Brenda Franke, Sophomore Cody Odum, and Junior Kami Hargrove took an 8th place in the competition.

The Ag Mechanics team took a 10th place spot. The members are Juniors Chris Brown, Robbie Wheeler, and James Ames.

The Dairy Cattle team consisted of

Art Classes Go To Fort Worth

Carol Atchley made her annual trip to the Fort Worth Art Museums. Both Art I Classes went, along with the Art II Class.

The group left Cross Plains at 6:30 a.m. and returned about 9 that evening. While in Fort Worth they went to the Fort Worth Museum of Modern Art, the Amon Carter Museum, the Kimball Art Museum, the Science Museum, and the Botanic Gardens.

In addition to their regular exhibits, each museum had some special exhibitions including prints and photographs of western cities and Early Cycladic Art from 2200 B.C.

The students were able to see a tremendous variety of art works ranging from ancient to modern works.

Katt Brothers Excell In Basketball

Elgin, Jerry, and Michael Katt, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Katt, have all experienced a great year in basketball.

Elgin was made All-District, All-Region, and All-State. He also played in the East Texas All-Star Game. He averaged 24 points, 12.5 assists, and shot 85 percent from the free throw line for the year.

Highlights of his year include making 11 out of 15 3-pointers against Bonham High in the championship of the Royce City Tournament. He hit 16 out of 16 free shots for a total of 51 points in which Saltillo High School was the victor.

Elgin also set three new records in the National Federation of High School Record Book. He tallied 25 assists in one game; 402 assists in the season; and 1,140 in his 3-year basketball career. He presently holds second and third in the record for all time.

Howard Junior College in Big Spring has given Elgin a full scholarship upon graduation from high school.

Jerry Katt was named to the All-District Basketball Team this season. He averaged 15 points per game. Jerry and Elgin scored 78 points together against Brightstar, Arkansas leading Saltillo to yet another victory. The final score was 152-114, the second highest game score in the history of Texas high school basketball.

Saltillo averaged 94 points per game and scored over 114 times this season, while winning 26 games and losing only 6.

Michael Katt was named to the All-Star Team at the Como Pickton Tournament. He shot six 3-pointers at the Junior High Tourney.

SCHOOL DAYS AHEAD — This group of pre-schoolers are anticipating their first days of school in September. Ray Womack, principal, and Connie Kirkham, pre-activity director for Library pre-school group look on.

A Preview Of Kindergarten

By BETTYE GREENWOOD

Twenty-eight children from the Cross Plains Public Library, Learn-About Program (LAP) previewed their Kindergarten adventure, which will begin for them next September.

The children gathered at the library last Wednesday morning and went in cars to Cross Plains Elementary School.

They were greeted by M.R. Womack, principal of the elementary school, and given a tour of their classrooms, office, library, playground, and lunchroom. Mr. Womack acquainted the children with their school program for the coming year and made sure the chairs in the Kindergarten classrooms would fit each one of them next year.

The climax of the morning came when Mr. Womack loaded the excited pre-schoolers on the bright yellow bus and returned them to the library.

Billie Ruth Loving, librarian and co-ordinator of the LAP said, "This is just one of the steps we take to help prepare the children for next year. Our goal is to give them a glimpse of the type of activities and situations they will encounter in Kindergarten so that the transition from home to school will go smoothly for them."

Sponsors for the trip to school were Cathy Chesshir and Bettye Greenwood, directors of the pre-kindergarten group; Connie Kirkham, pre-activities director; Mary Dunn and Miss Loving.

Girls Golf Team Has Good Showing At District

For the first time, Cross Plains High School sent a girls golf team to district competition. They left Cross Plains at 5:45 a.m. for their competition in San Saba on Friday, April 8.

Competing in the tournament were other teams including San Saba (414), Winters (419), Cross Plains (511), and Jim Ned (no score). Both San Saba and Winters sent 2 teams.

Members of the Cross Plains' first girls golf team are Shana Strickland (Soph.), Shauna Cowan (Jr.), April Jennings (Sr.), Michelle McNutt (Fr.), and Lee Ann Baker (Fr.). Also on the team are Emily Horan (Jr.) and Brenda Franke (Fr.), but they did not compete.

SHORT NOTES

1. The entertaining evening with the Kiwanis Pancake Supper, the Junior High and High School Mini-Concert, and the performance of the OAP "Bloody Jack" went very well. The auditorium was fairly well filled and Mr. Coppinger reported a good amount of donations was received.

2. Ag judging teams will be competing in San Marcos on Tuesday, April 19.

3. Junior high district track meet was held on Friday, April 9, at Wall.

4. Boys' district golf was held on Monday, April 11, at Brady. Results not available.

5. The high school girls and boys district tennis meet was held on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, April 11, 12, and 13. Results unavailable.

6. High school district track meet will be on Friday, April 15, at Wall.

7. The golf team travelled to Brady Thursday afternoon to practice for district.

8. The Art II Class has started to work on ceramics after the school purchased a kiln.

9. The high school band has been diligently practicing for their competition coming up on Wednesday, April 20.

Sheriff Investigates Cattle Theft

BAIRD—The Callahan County sheriff, investigating the theft of $12,000 worth of cattle stolen earlier this week, says he's confident the case soon will be solved.

Sheriff Bill Skinner said 25-30 head of cattle were taken from a ranch near Admiral sometime between Monday and Tuesday. The ranch is owned by Carol Gillet of Baird.

The thieves were busy that night, Skinner said, explaining that a 14-foot flatbed trailer was stolen from a nearby ranch the same night.

"We really feel that trailer was used in the theft of the cattle," he said.

The cattle may be gone for now, but thanks to modern technology, the rustlers may be rounded up soon, Skinner said. Because the cattle were branded, those brands—and other information—were fed into a computer at the Texas Cattlemen's Association in Fort Worth.

When the cattle are sold at auction, inspectors will check the brands against information in the computer, he said.

"The way it's going now with the inspectors," Skinner said, "it doesn't take long to run them down."

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

Warm summer like weather has turned from hot to the north again on Saturday and still no rain for the dried out earth. Stock tanks are getting lower each week. Wheat prospects are slim, even for a hay crop.

The biggest news this week was the farm implement auction sale on the Community Center grounds Saturday. Being next to Highway 36, many motorists stopped, thus many more people took part in the sale. Other people sold their equipment in this sale, also. Some items from the N.V. Gibbs place had been in the family fifty years. This writer has come through another era of life that some things are not useful and not needed after the man of the house is not here anymore. It was a sentimental time for this writer and her daughter, Judy Steele.

We thank the ladies of this community as well as from other areas for the concessions under the leadership of Dorothy Watson, Thelma Smedley, and Jane Coots of Clyde, sweets; Ruthie Lawrence of Eula who purchased food and made a pie; Jessie Odom for sandwiches; Vernie Belle Mauldin for sandwiches and cake;

Wanda Montgomery for delicious sweets; Dorothy Reynolds for cakes and Nancy Young for sacks of ice; and Joyce Odom for individual lunches. The word is, thanks to all of you who helped in any way. Tony Steele gets a special thank you for cleaning up the trees and making the grounds look nicer.

A lot of visiting went on during the day which drew people closer in friendship.

The man who served as auctioneer had a five hour job of continuous sales talk not understood completely by all. I'm sure he was tired when the last item was sold. If you want to be in crowds, attend an auction of farm equipment and all it represents.

Robert and Dorothy Watson and Cody were in Haskell Tuesday for Cody to have a tooth repaired. This mishap happened while he was pole vaulting at school. While there, a friend of theirs, Mrs. Joe Smith from Rule, met and had a short visit.

Cody and Wyatt Watson attended and were in District track events in Cisco Friday. Robert and Dorothy met them there in Cisco.

Colby Reynolds returned to his home in Midland Sunday after spending the weekend with grandparents, James and Dorothy Reynolds, Jim and Crecia and son, Chris Reynolds, and Ellen Carpenter of Fort Worth helped Crecia's sister, Lydia Hardwick, move to a new apartment in Austin where she lives.

Connie Steele and Chancy West were in charge of coke drinks for the auction sale Saturday.

Tonya Steele spent Saturday night with K-Trina Meador in Cross Cut.

Gundy and Nell Gunderson returned to their home in McAllen after spending the weekend with Sterling and Joyce Odom and Claribel Gibbs. They will be leaving for their home in Minnesota before the month is up. They have really enjoyed being in the Valley this winter. They also reported how beautiful fruit orchards and vegetable gardens were at this time of year. Some were shared here.

This writer, along with other Cross Plains Garden Club members, attended the Spring Convention of District VIII Garden Clubs meeting in San Angelo Wednesday.

Those not contacted this week for the weekly column will be called next week.

The Most Sophisticated, Comprehensive, Job Matching Service in the State is Free!

Dear Commissioner Nabers: I attended the recent Texas Business Council seminar in my area and was amazed to hear you urge employers to use the Texas Employment Commission to find qualified and even professional workers. I tried the TEC years ago and got mostly unqualified, unskilled, totally unsatisfactory applicants. I swore I would never again use the TEC. The computer exhibit you all had at the seminar was pretty impressive and that's why I am writing. Have things really changed that much at the TEC? Or can an employer expect to get the same old treatment.

— C.S. McAllen, Texas

Dear C.S.: You bet things have changed at the TEC. We now have one of the most sophisticated computerized job matching systems in the United States and every employer in Texas has automatic access to this incredibly efficient resource. Thousands of professional people as well as skilled technicians are listed and many are willing to relocate.

An employer can call the TEC

COMMISSIONER
Mary Scott
Nabers

TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY

and list any job opening, specifying in detail what qualifications are required — how much education, what type of degree, what kind of specific skills or professional licenses, how much prior job experience, etc. In order to ensure that only the most promising applicants are selected for consideration, the employer should give as much information about the position as possible; for example, pay, benefits, work schedule, and description of job responsibilities.

Professional TEC interviewers will plug all of the requirements into the state linked, computerized job matching system and search the entire area or, if necessary, the state, for applicants that can meet the employer's needs. If the preliminary list of potential applicants is too extensive an employer can further refine the requirements.

An employer that does not have time to interview fifteen or thirty people can specify a desire to have only the top five candidates referred for interview. If none of the referrals are hired, we will send the next five and will continue until a match is made or the employer cancels the order.

I would urge all businesses to use this vital service. The job matching system is potentially the best and most cost effective resource available to the citizens of Texas, but it utilizes its full potential only when business and skilled job seekers are both looking to the TEC to find each other.

Ms. Nabers represents 336,000 employers throughout Texas. If you have any questions you want answered, please write Commissioner Nabers at: TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY, 614 Texas Employment Commission Building, 15th and Congress, Austin, Texas 78778.

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

By IRMA MILLER

The Quilting Club had its business meeting with eleven present. They finished the Rising Star and cleaned up for Thursday's game night.

Ocie Lee Reed of Kansas City, Missouri was here recently to visit with Novilia and Cleo Barton.

Nell Fleming went to Pampa Tuesday with her son-in-law, Bill Watson. JoVeda Watson stayed with Joe. While there, Nell visited with her son, Glen, who was doing a lot better. He was to return to the hospital Wednesday to have more surgery, but has been doing pretty well. Nell and Bill returned Thursday and brought back some of the Watsons' household goods with them. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Watson of Amarillo and son, Zachary, had lunch with Nell and Joe Sunday. JoVeda and Joe visited with Kate Watson of Cross Plains Wednesday.

Rebecca Lipstraw went to Dallas Saturday with Mark Charles and Mrs. Stevens, Mark's teacher, to attend some informative sessions of the Dallas Society on Autism. Mrs. Lipstraw commented that the trip was enjoyable and productive.

Wanda Montgomery visited with Jewel Foster in her home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Swafford of De Leon, Jewel's son, Charles, and wife, Lucille, and Jewel all had lunch together Wednesday at the Dairy Queen in Cross Plains.

John and Irma Miller went to Eastland Sunday afternoon to visit Irma's cousin, Mrs. Lillian Gardner.

Jean Fore spent the Easter holidays in Marble Falls with Vi Harlowe, and they went on to San Antonio to visit with their sister, Bessie McDaniel, and Karen, her daughter. Also visiting with Bessie was her daughter and husband, Milford and Doris Hunter of Alamogorda, New Mexico. They all had a big Easter egg hunt and had lots of fun. Also, Billy and Mary Barton of Borger visited Jean a while Thursday afternoon.

AARP NEWS

By LUCILE CALLAWAY

Twenty-seven were present at the April 4 meeting of AARP.

Guest speaker was Susan Sharp. She spoke concerning the Cancer Crusade. The Walkers and June Grigsby entertained with enjoyable music. We are happy to have them with us.

We are to make a day's trip to Johnson Country and back by Fredericksburg for late dinner on May 10. We hope many members will be able to make this trip.

Please look forward to our next meeting Monday, May 2, and make plans to be there.

Cancer Crusade With Visits Volunteers To Begin April

During the April Cancer Crusade, American Cancer Society volunteers will visit their friends and neighbors with potentially life-saving information. The educational information that volunteers will give families they visit is a critical part of ACS campaign and public education program.

When the volunteer visits, you will be asked to donate to the American Cancer Society. What is the money you donate being used for?

One of the services provided cancer patients, without charge, is loan equipment such as hospital beds, wheelchairs, walkers, etc. Gift items such as eggcrate mattresses, comfort pillows, sheepskins, bed pans, dressings and other materials related to rehabilitation.

A variety of free educational literature, films and exhibits are available. An educational program for any size group can be arranged. There is no charge for this material.

In cooperation with hotels, the ACS is helping cancer patients find accommodations during out-of-town visits for cancer treatment. The rooms are donated by the hotels free of charge to patients, who show a financial need, and one family member. Rooms are available in most major cities in Texas.

Through the 1987 and 1988 Breast Screening Programs, made available by ACS, women were able to receive mammograms at a much-reduced cost.

30% of the funds donated to ACS is used for research. ACS is currently sponsoring research in 11 major Texas hospitals, medical schools and universities. The National Society allocates additional funds here because Texas has so many research institutions.

More funds are used for services to cancer patients in Callahan County than is donated during the annual crusade. For more information about what the American Cancer Society is doing, ask any board member.

Beta Sigma Phi Members Learn Color Analysis

By DORA SMITH

On Monday evening, March 28, the Alpha Rho Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a bi-monthly meeting at the home of Aimee Keele.

Pauniece Oglesby presented a very interesting program to the group on color analysis, using Paula Winfrey as a model. The group learned about right and wrong colors for clothing, make-up, and hair, in the different color seasons. Two door prizes were given with Vernelle Bishop and Mary Dunn as winners.

Founder's Day awards night, to be held April 23, was discussed and some final plans made. More details on the Arts and Crafts Fair set for May 7 were worked out.

Members who attended and enjoyed refreshments were: Vernelle Bishop, Sarah Brashear, Barbara Brown, Debra Childers, Mary Dunn, Joyce McCoy, Margaret McNeel, Pauniece Oglesby, Dorothy Petty, Janice Phillips, Paula Winfrey, Shirley Davis, Aimee Keele, and Bobbie Johnston.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Skeet Walker, Gary Hargrove, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCowen, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Simpson, and Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Breeding were last week's local visitors with Mr. and Mrs. M.F. Dill.

Out-of-town visitors were Howard Shanks of Big Spring, Flora Thornton of Victoria, and their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dill of Irving.

Vic Curry and family from Comstock visited his mother, Mrs. T.O. Powell, last week during spring break. Curry's contract as band director at Comstock has been renewed for another year.

Mrs. Granville Richey and her daughter, Karen Westbrook of Midland, visited with Claudia Mae Watkins Friday night and returned Mrs. Watkins to Midland Saturday to spend the weekend with them. She also visited with her nephew, J.P. Burnett, while there.

Mrs. T.O. Powell, Naomi McCowen, and her mother, Ruby, went to a Fellowship meeting at Rev. Boyd Porter's church in Eastland Sunday afternoon. Several churches were represented there and some 75 or 80 people present.

They served a delicious meal about 1 p.m., which was enjoyed by all. There was a time of Fellowship in sharing with one another in gospel songs, music, and praising the Lord for His goodness to the children of men.

"We were happy that we got to go," said Ruby McCowen.

Look Who's Been Out Ten Years

Yep, that's right, the Class of 1978. It is time for the Homecoming and a Ten Year Reunion.

There will be a meeting for all ex-classmates on Thursday, April 14, beginning at 6 p.m. at West Texas Utilities. All 1978 graduates who are interested in planning the get-together for the Homecoming and Reunion are urged to attend. Any ideas for the class meeting will be welcome.

If you are unable to attend, but would like to help, please contact Roxie Thomas at 725-6141 or Melissa Richards 725-7212.

Stabilization and Research Keys to Healthy Energy Industry

By Governor William P. Clements, Jr.

There are two key words to the future of petroleum in Texas: Stabilization and research. And you really can't have research and reap its benefits until you have stabilization.

How do we stabilize the industry? An oil import fee, which I and many others support, is not likely to win approval anytime soon. But there are a number of incentives that can help. Incentives such as:

- A tax credit for exploration and drilling expenditures.
- Restoring the percentage depletion allowance to its historical level.
- Eliminating the alternative minimum tax on oil and gas investments.
- Allowing the deduction of geological and geophysical costs under the federal Tax Code in the same manner as we do for intangible drilling costs.

These are the types of measures that can help stabilize the oil and gas industry which would help attract new infusions of capital and encourage an aggressive exploration program. A stable atmosphere can set the stage for the future, which brings us to our second "key" word: Research.

Even through Texas is the nation's most thoroughly explored region for oil and gas, it still contains the largest known resource of unrecovered oil and gas in the United States. Texas is nowhere near the end of its productive capabilities.

If we can enhance the technological momentum that began in the early 1980s, our oil resource base is capable of sustaining our 1985 production level for the next 45 years. The natural gas resource base has similar capabilities.

The Bureau of Economic Geology at the University of Texas at Austin spent more than four years studying oil reserves trapped in the state's major producing reservoirs. Based on this inventory, the bureau now estimates that about 110 billion barrels of oil remain in those known, proven reservoirs. That's about twice the amount of oil ever produced in Texas.

Of that amount, 35 billion barrels are considered mobile and economically producible at current prices. The remaining 75 billion barrels are immobile, made of residual oil and tar and heavy crude, and more cost-sensitive to produce.

But a major enhanced recovery effort can improve our exploration efficiency, which, in turn, can reduce the cost and offset some of the impact of low prices that may persist for several years.

The bottom line is this: We can capture these "trapped" reserves as we broaden our research and understanding of these reservoirs.

We in Texas can play a leading role in the transformation from an exploration-based industry to one that will excel through new production and development strategies. We can show the world how to maximize recovery from known fields.

What's more, Texas can lead the way in maintaining U.S. technological and economic competitiveness in the global oil and gas market.

During my recent trip to Washington, the assistant secretary of the Department of Energy and I signed an agreement that committed the federal government to such a research program in Texas. The department agreed to share our cost as we pursue scientific and technological advances, and we are already hard at work identifying potential projects for funding.

The Department of Energy also agreed to finance start-up of the Geoscience Institute, which the Bureau of Economic Geology will administer. The Institute is a national consortium of universities and state agencies -- all dedicated to a comprehensive enhanced recovery effort.

Yes, enhanced oil and gas recovery research is vital to a robust petroleum future. But it's also critical to our national security. It is imperative that we become more efficient in our production to help bolster the industry and stem our growing dependence on imported oil.

COTTONWOOD NEWS

By BEVERLY BROWN

The Cottonwood Monthly Musical is Friday, April 15, at the local community center at 7 p.m. Proceeds from the evening bake sale and refreshments will benefit the local Cottonwood Fire Control Group.

Cleanup Day for the Cottonwood Community Center will be Wednesday, April 20, at 9 a.m. Bring cleaning rags, buckets, and other related items for spring cleaning. This is a community project and all ladies are requested to help. Bring a sack lunch.

Mrs. Randall Franke, Amie, Kellie, and Jeremy of Clyde and Rickie Jo Potter all visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nickerson Sr. over the weekend. Rickie Wheeler of Abilene spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler and family and grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Wheeler.
