Safe Gardeners — Keeping Your Green Thumb

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is a release from the Texas Safety Association in Austin.

According to a poll by the National Gardening Association and the Gallup Organization, last year Americans rated gardening as their second favorite outdoor leisure activity. In 1987, 59.5 million American households maintained lawns and gardens with the aid of power mowers, garden tractors and tillers. In the same year, 170,000 injuries due to power equipment-related accidents were reported.

Power equipment, while making garden and yard work easier, can also lead to serious injury when the user fails to observe proper safety precautions. In accordance with the Outdoor Power Equipment Institute (OPEI), the National Safety Council and Texas Safety Association suggest the following steps for purchase and safe operation of outdoor power equipment:

*Make sure equipment has been tested, meets safety standards, and bears the OPEI triangular seal. This seal indicates that the equipment meets nationally recognized voluntary safety standards as published by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI).

*Thoroughly read the operator's manual before using the equipment, and be familiar with its safety devices. Be sure these are not damaged or missing.

*Dress properly, with substantial shoes, long pants, and close fitting clothes. Long hair should be restrained, anything that could get caught in moving parts should be removed.

*Never fill gas tanks while the engine is running or hot! Handle and store gasoline carefully, keeping it away from the house, and wipe up any spills immediately.

*Never smoke around gasoline!
*Follow recommended safety procedures when operating equipment, and use each piece only for its specified purpose. Avoid leaving running equipment unattended, and remove any keys from idle pieces.

*Clear away trash, toys, stones, and twigs from your work area, and be sure children and pets are out of the area until you are finished with the job.

*Keep your hands and feet away from moving parts, shutting off the power when cleaning or unclogging equipment. It is also a good idea to disconnect the spark plug.

Good gardeners have green thumbs; safe gardeners have both thumbs!

Texas Safety is a non-profit, non-governmental organization whose members work in government, private industry, and as individuals to prevent accidents and needless loss of life and property.

ARTIST AT WORK — Jamie Lankford is busy sketching a mural depicting Hub Freeman's life work of blacksmithing. Hub looks on as she sketches in tools and the brick background. The beginnings of a portrait of Hub can be seen in the upper left hand corner.

PROGRESSING ALONG — Jamie has started painting the sketches as the scene comes to life. Watch for more updates next week. Remember if you would like to contribute to the City-

Wide Beautification Fund, which is sponsoring the murals, your assistance would be greatly appreciated. You may make your donations at the Citizens State Bank.

Ice Cream Social For Athletic Boosters

The Athletic Boosters Club will have an "Ice Cream Social" honoring the players and coaches at the Buffalo Stadium Monday, August 22, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Everyone is invited to attend and demonstrate their support of the team as they strive for yet another successful season.

Free And Reduced Price School Meals

Cross Plains Public Schools announces its policy for free and reduced price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch Program and School Breakfast Program. Each school campus and the office of the Superintendent has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility (see income eligibility guidelines). Children from households whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced price meals.

Application forms will be sent to all homes the first day of school with a letter of explanation to the parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced price meals, households should fill

Flowers For Sitter

By CONNIE KIRKHAM

Do you believe in giving flowers to the living? This is a verbal bouquet to a very special lady. I believe one of our greatest failures today is not giving our fellow friends encouragement and recognition where it is due. So in my limited story writing abilities my desire is to say "Thank You" in a small way to a very deserving person.

Clara Nell Spencer is one of the most caring individuals I've ever known. Sitter, as she is called by her longtime friends and family, has spent her entire life caring for and serving others. If there is a need, she is ready and willing to meet that need. Whether physical or financial, she'll give all she can to relieve a hardship or a problem.

This article could not contain all the volunteer deeds she's done, but I want to share a choice few with you. She has taught in the local school system for 17 years. During those years she has sponsored cheerleaders, basketball teams, and all sorts of trips. A lot of fun times.

I had the privilege of being on some of those basketball trips and she was always loved, admired, and respected by the students. The many U.I.L. and other literary events she's helped with are too numerous to mention.

After retirement she still helps with many school functions. I could name you numerous children and youth that

Physical Forms For Junior High Available Now

Junior high football boys may pick up their physical forms at the Field House from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Coach Mack McConal stated that the junior high boys have to pay for their physicals and asked that they please try to have these done before the start of school on September 1.

CLARA NELL SPENCER

she's tutored for free. I might add, to help them have a chance to make better grades or win a literary event. From Spanish to storytelling she's a number 1 helper. The greatest thing about her willingness to help children and youth is the fact that it doesn't matter to her about the social status of that individual. She's always willing to give a helping hand regardless of the inconvenience of her time. Her main concern is for the education and well-being of that child. I believe the Lord has given Sitter a special gift to encourage and build up those in need.

As you can see, although Sitter is retired, she still fulfills many needs in our school system. She was asked to address the 1987 Graduating Class of Cross Plains and brought one of the most meaningful and touching speeches I've ever heard.

As far as the City of Cross Plains is concerned, she will be one of the first customers in a new business here, wishing them the best of everything. She also shops at home to support the businesses already operating here. She's done volunteer work in the Library here for years — always looking for ways to better serve our community. She has done many duties above and beyond anything expected. She is interested in anything to better educate our children, youth, and adults.

She has helped with the Old Settlers Reunion for years, serving in any capacity that there is a need. She judges more contests and parades than anyone in town, I'm sure!

Whether it's a child in need for shoes, glasses, or whatever, she's there to help. She seldom misses a wedding or baby shower to give her congratulations and good wishes. In the same respect to give her sympathy and help in the time of sorrow. The Lord definitely has a willing and obedient servant in Sitter.

She also has done a lot of work for the county. She has served on the Callahan County Child Abuse Board and has helped with the County Historical Society.

SHADED DECK — A lovely deck with black wrought iron patio furniture with blue and pink cushions makes a great place to relax under the shade of a large pecan tree.

POOL AREA — A large pool connects to the deck and a hot tub can be seen in the foreground. Lattice is around the base of the deck and honeysuckle and jasmine is beginning to grow on the trellis.

BEAUTIFULLY LANDSCAPED YARD — Kay Horan and her daughter, Kristina, have a sharp looking blue and white double-wide home on Avenue D. The many types of flowers and mixed colors are very striking.

Yard Of The Week

By VANDA KING
Editor

Kay Horan and her daughter, Kristina's, flower accented yard will be highlighted this week. Their lovely double-wide has a large variety of flowers across the front reflecting the colors of pink, blue, white, and yellow. However, Kay remarked, "We did come up with some red verbenia accidentally." They just add to the colorful collection.

The outside border of the entrance walk is edged with yellow marigolds; periwinkles in pink and white; blue, purple, pink, white, and yellow bachelor buttons; and the red verbenia.

Across the walk are oleanders in pink and white, zinnias in deep purples and pinks, yellow marigolds, and a large chrysanthemum which will bloom in the fall.

Fringed pinks in varied shades from deep rose and variegated pink white are sprinkled around. Also white and purple alyssum trims the edge of the beds in its tiny, fragile beauty.

The large bed stretching across the length of the house is pink and pretty with crepe myrtles in deep and light pinks. One bush actually bears both colors. It looks very unusual with the light color on one branch and the very dark pink on the next. Kay stated, "The oleanders I planted last year bloomed pink last season and this time they are white."

There is probably some explanation for these phenomena in nature, but they certainly are intriguing.

He was a rancher and a U.S. Army veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his wife, Esther Lee McCoy of Cross Plains; two daughters, Arlene McCoy and Allene McCoy, both of Cross Plains; three brothers, Lynn McCoy of Goldthwaite and Paul McCoy and John McCoy, both of Fort Worth; and two sisters, Ruby Livingston of Comanche and Wanda Weiskoph of Cleveland, Texas.

The Adams Bunch Takes A Trip

By CAROLYN ADAMS

We all need a vacation. There is truth to that saying. The four of us decided it was time we took a vacation. Thursday morning, August 4, our plans were in motion.

We got the van and were loaded by 10 a.m. and on the road, through Abilene to Anson and then on Highway 83. A decision was made to head for South Dakota. Rick had been there, when he was younger, and wished for us to see it. Two stops were made at Guthrie and Wheeler. And folks remarked our van sure was nice. I smiled and thanked them. We crossed into Oklahoma at 5:38 p.m., ran into rain. The Adams bunch arrived in Kansas at 6:08. We saw lots of "feed lots" or smelled them. We got to Lake Scott State Park at 9:30. It had rained. There were lots of mosquitoes. It was hard to sleep with all the buzzing.

Day 2. I was at the back of the van when a doe mule deer ran past me about 25 feet away. She made a lot of excitement between us four. Across the road, there were 5 bull elks with massive antler racks. We were back on the road at 8:50. We had come into farm country. CASE seemed to be the tractor for most. We refueled in Oakley, Kansas, 577 miles so far, people were very friendly. People sure take pride in their places, nice entry gates, etc. At Rexford, Kansas there were several sunflower fields. We crossed into Nebraska at 11:20 and took pictures at the stateline. We saw several "bikers," they seem to be in a hurry to get somewhere. We came into McCook, Nebraska, where they have a "Wal-Mart." Yes, I had to stop there.

There was more road construction. It had been in every state. This was a strip where you had to wait for a signal. We waited 20 minutes.

North Platte, Nebraska proved interesting with museums. Buffalo Bill's "Scouts Rest Ranch" was interesting with his home and most of his belongings. The huge barn where he kept his show animals was amazing. You could feel the spirit of what must have taken place there in those days. Bill's wife was a rather plump woman. They were together in pictures, with lots of his show pictures also.

Driving on to South Dakota, the countryside was changing, more prairie-like. Homesteads have better windbreaks farther north than in Kansas. The group crossed the Dakota line at 5:23, stopped and took more pictures. Then onto Ft. Pierre, which is on Mountain Time. Across the Missouri River Pierre (state capital) is on Central Time. We camped at Pierre State Park. Brandi swam in the Missouri River.

During the night I heard it raining. I was worried about everything getting wet. So, I got out of the tent to check on things, not a cloud in the sky. It was the wind blowing off the Missouri and leaves on the Cottonwoods were rustling.

Day 3. We toured the Oahe (O-Wah-ee) dam. It is truly engineering magic before your eyes. Then on to Mission Ridge, where Bevo and Dorothy Webb once lived, 40 miles from town with only 3 or 4 ranches between and nothing else but rolling hills. Ranchers bailed all prairie grass they could for winter. It was dry there, too. New owners of the Webb place had neglected it. It is a shame for it's a nice place.

Back on the road heading for Black Hills, we stopped in Murdo, South Dakota at "Pioneer Auto." The man has everything, including a 1921 white motor home, built at a cost of $16,000 new. As we got nearer to Black Hills, you could see them in the distance. We stopped in Rapid City, South Dakota for groceries. Lettuce was .39 cents a head. Driving toward Mt. Rushmore, we began climbing up. Mt. Rushmore is simply breathtaking.

Giant elephant ears, pink mums, purple ageratum, pink geraniums, periwinkles, and lots of balsam in shades of pink and salmon look great. A more common name for the balsam is "touch-me-nots." They are a hearty flower which does well in the Texas heat.

A circular flower bed out front has mums, periwinkles, and fringed pinks. Iris grows along the south side toward the car port.

On the front porch pink and white periwinkles bloomed in the pink flower boxes along the porch rail. Two wax leafed ligustrums are potted in clay pots with pink begonias all around the base.

The center of attention in the private back yard is the lovely swimming pool. It stands above ground with a deck connected. The pool is 8 feet deep at one end and looked wonderfully cool. A great way to relax and stay comfortable in the humid weather.

Patio furniture in black wrought iron with blue and pink cushions make an ideal place to entertain or just enjoy your own back yard. A large hibiscus and other pot plants decorated the deck.

A trellis or lattice around the base of the deck has honeysuckle and jasmine beginning to grow around it. This will be really attractive when it covers the whole area.

A hot tub is also installed on the deck as you walk up the steps. A great feature for cooler temperatures.

A large pecan tree shades the table and chairs on the north end of the deck. You can look out on a birdbath with running water that trickles down three levels. Huge marigolds the size of homecoming mums grow around the patch of post oak trees beside the birdbath. Fringed pinks, bachelor buttons, and carnations grow in a heart shaped flower bed. I had never seen carnations growing in the ground before and didn't realize they would grow here. They were light pink and smelled so fragrant.

Every yard is another treat with more new facts and surprises in nature. If you have a chance, drive by this lovely yard. The color scheme and forethought makes it all work together for a great look.

CJC Announces New Scholarships

CISCO — A new scholarship program for the 1988-89 school year has been announced by Cisco Junior College. The program offers additional financial aid to a wide range of students on the Cisco campus including those majoring in auto mechanics, computer science, criminal justice, office occupations, agriculture, and students majoring in a science, a social science, or the humanities.

Also included in the new program is an increase in the benefits of the College's Rockwell Scholarship. This scholarship now pays tuition and fee costs; thus, qualifying students receiving the Rockwell Scholarship can complete two years of college for the cost of their books and personal living expenses.

Cisco Junior College will continue its long-standing practice of offering financial help to students participating in the College band, Wrangler Belles, choir, or athletic programs.

As announced by the College, the purpose of the new scholarships are to "encourage students to continue their education and career preparation in a college program" and to "attract men and women with educational purpose and ability to the Cisco campus at Cisco Junior College."

The number of scholarships is limited, and the 1988 Fall semester begins soon. Any person interested in information about a scholarship or other financial aid at Cisco Junior College should contact the Financial Aid Office or the Dean of Students in the very near future.

Baird Volunteer Fire Department Received $150 Check

The Baird Volunteer Fire Department received a check for $150 recently from Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies as an expression of thanks for the department's work on the property of Montie Greenwood, Moody, Texas 76447.

The money will be used for their loss prevention program.

This was a car that caught fire on the highway.

The Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies pay fire departments this amount when the department works at a fire in rural areas, involving property insured by them.

The Insurance Company believes fire departments have contributed to reduce the amount of loss involved by fire and more importantly, to prevent fires. It is their hope this money will help the Baird Volunteer Fire Department in their program.

The main things Sitter does are not seen by the public eye. The nicest things she does are seen only by the individuals whose lives she touches. Baking a cake or a pot of beans and delivering them to someone in need. The giving of herself in so many ways that few people see.

Clara Nell is a member of the Presbyterian Church and has been a faithful worker in the church. According to God's word "Ye shall reap what ye sow," and Sitter has sown more good seed than anyone I know. She'll have a bountiful harvest!

If you don't know Sitter, you are missing a blessing and I'd encourage you to get to know her. I guarantee you'll have no trouble striking up a conversation! She'll delight and fascinate you with some of the funniest tales you'll ever hear. Stories of family, school days, and friends are told with such humor and love. It's a joy to be around her. I see the love and glory of my heavenly Father in her — you will too!

LETTER to the EDITOR

If the stores in Cross Plains were to close — where would you go to get a spool of thread, zipper, seam binding, bolt or washer? Think about it, and then try the merchants in our town first.

I know we don't always have everything — we can't, but neither do the larger stores. They often do not have everything you want or need. You will have to spend more time searching for the items, because there are very few clerks to assist.

The freight bill on $1,000 worth of school supplies was $60.65, so the prices will be a little higher, but please give us a try before you go out of town. It might surprise you what we have, and it might keep us from closing our doors.

Commissioners Award Bid For New Bridge

Callahan County Commissioners voted Monday, August 8 to accept a bid of $34,500 to build a bridge across Turkey Creek in Precinct #4, Cross Plains.

Commissioners approved the bid from Strickland & Knight Inc. to build the bridge. The Big Springs company won the low bid process. The only other bid was from Bontke Brothers Construction of Abilene in the amount of $49,560.

Strickland & Knight Inc. was awarded the bid upon providing the county with a performance bond guaranteeing the work to be done.

Commissioners had earlier advertised for bids to build the bridge across the creek because several bridges there had already been washed away due to flash flooding in the area.

Other items brought before commissioners court included:

—Met with Dave Lawrence, a City of Abilene Extra-Territorial Jurisdiction official to discuss new rules and regulations taken on some Callahan County roads. The Abilene official said that City of Abilene is currently in the process of setting up new regulations for roadway specifications around a five mile radius of Abilene. The area includes several roads in Callahan County and officials there met with commissioners to discuss the new roadwork specs. No action was taken.

—Approved a motion naming R.C. (Bud) Logan as election judge for the Denton Valley precinct in the upcoming special election August 13. Commissioners also named Ruth Gray as an alternate election judge in the same precinct. The move to name the new election judge was made after the resignation of previous election judge Ann Bross.

—Approved a motion naming Charles Walker as the absentee voting election judge for the August 13 special election.

—Met with Callahan County Sheriff Bill Skinner to discuss considering hiring Dale Bradshaw as a deputy constable for the Clyde precinct. No action was taken. The item will be brought before commissioners again at the August 29 commissioners court meeting.

—Met with Jon Herod, C.P.A., concerning discussing the county budget. No action was taken.

—Met with June Sayler, an Aetna Insurance Company agent to discuss the county employees insurance coverage with the company. Commissioners had asked if a prescription card service was available through the carrier. Ms. Sayler stated yes, and commissioners approved the coverage for county employees. The prescription coverage is an extension of the service currently provided. No new health insurance is needed. The coverage provides county employees refills on prescriptions at a charge of only $5, the remainder of the prescription charge will be paid by Aetna.

—Met with a representative of A.T.&T. to discuss the telephone update for the county courthouse. The representative quoted a $24,100 bid for a new phone system. No action was taken.

—Awarded a bid to Texas Association of Counties for liability insurance coverage for Callahan County and its employees. The bid accepted provides $1 million in coverage at a cost of $1,500 yearly with a $2,500 deductible. A bid from Greenwood Insurance Agency in Cross Plains charged $6,500 with a $5,000 deductible and a bid from Manion Insurance Agency in Baird amounted to $6,220 with $1,000 deductible. After awarding the bid to T.A.C., commissioners also voted to take errors and emissions insurance coverage at a cost of $375 and punitive damage insurance at a cost of $150 with the same organization.

—Met with tax assessor/collector Wauneta Ests to discuss awarding a refund for 1986 taxes paid by Rufus Sivley and Buddy Shepler on some property in the Clyde area. Commissioners agreed to award a $599.72 refund to the trustees of the property. The county had originally taxed a house on the property, but no house was on the land.

—Commissioners voted to get notary insurance coverage for 11 county employees so they can be public notaries. The $10,000 insurance coverage will cost the county $13 for each employee covered.

WHAT A GREAT SOUVENIR FOR HOMECOMING — Winning this queen size quilt made in Cross Plains High School colors of purple and gold, and honoring the official mascot, the buffalo, would be the perfect remembrance from 1988 Homecoming. An anonymous donor presented the quilt to the Cross Plains

Volunteer Fire Department. For a $1 donation you may obtain a chance to win the Buffalo quilt. You may purchase tickets at the following businesses: Citizens State Bank, Dairy Queen, Village Market, Neal Drug, and Olney Savings. The lucky winner will be announced at half-time at the Homecoming football game.

ADAMS TRIP

Day 4. On to "Crazy Horse" monument. Unbelievable. It was started in 1947 by Korczak Ziolkowski, sculptor. His 10 children worked with him and his wife. Boys on sculpting and girls on tourism and souvenirs, etc.

Six children are still involved and many grandchildren. It will still take years to complete, as they can only work 5 months out of the year. All totaled, about 16 years of work has been done on sculpture.

No government funds have been received for this project. It is funded only from tourists.

We drove onto Cody, Wyoming. There was another Buffalo Bill Museum, lots of gift shops, etc. We had a salad supper at Wendy's. I was too tired to cook. We camped out at Buffalo Bill State Park. There were no showers, just outhouse restrooms.

Day 5. On to Yellowstone National Park. I remarked that out here in the West it is truly God's country with beautiful hills and valleys. There are all kinds of people; we've seen Japanese, Israelis, Arabs, Germans, and even a few Americans. There are a lot of steep hills, and long winding roads. We lost a hub cap, but didn't know it until we stopped. We went on up to Mammoth Hot Springs up to Montana, 10 miles round trip. Then we stopped to turn in at a picnic ground, another hub cap rolled off. I jumped out and retrieved it, never giving traffic another thought. Rickey threatened to skin me. That hub cap rode inside after that.

We've seen moose, buffalo, elk, and squirrels, but no bears. You could see smoke every where from the fires, and helicopters with waterbaskets were working to control fires. We saw old Faithful. He went off on time. We left there at 8:57. The road was closed at 9 p.m. for road construction, and the girl at the gate wouldn't let us out. Rickey and I and the kids had to go back to a camp ground 20 miles on the other side of Yellowstone. We finally got to sleep at almost 1:30 a.m.

Day 6. We left Yellowstone, on through Teton National Park, and through Jackson Hole. Fuel was $1.10 per gallon. It is a tourist trap! Refueled en route to Interstate 80, gas was only .83 cents per gallon. Then we headed for Laramie and Cheyenne where we spent the night in a motel in Cheyenne (needed bed rest). I did one load of laundry and it cost $3.50. A hot shower and good night sleep worked wonders for us travel-worn people.

Day 7. We were looking for a K-Mart to buy more film. At a red light, I asked a girl in the car next to us if she knew its location. She said, "Follow me, I'm headed there now." So we did. We got our film and was on the way to Colorado.

Once in Colorado, our first stop was The Colorado Railroad Museum. It was very interesting. The group traveled to the Adolph Coors brewery. They have tour buses that pick you up at various parking lots and take you to the brewery and a tour of the city of "Golden." When you near the brewery, you smell green beans. But it isn't. It is the green cone-shaped hops used for their beer. Most of the city works at Coors. It is interesting to see.

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

Reading this morning's Abilene paper, I learn of the death of Mr. Blake Johnson, Sr. of Breckenridge. A lot of years ago, I worked in his office. His sweet wife, Mary Ruth, often invited me to have lunch with them. They were very dear friends of mine.

Mrs. C.T. Barton of Pioneer visited on Wednesday afternoon with Betty Beggs. Mr. David Beggs of Morton Valley visited the family on Friday afternoon. J.T. and Betty went to Eastland on Monday on business.

Nell Fleming was busy picking peas. She and Joe visited with JoVeda and Bill Watson. Bill, Jr. and family of Amarillo were there.

Sally Roady is much improved. She will go back to the doctor early in September. They were in Abilene, shopping for material. They visited Art and Bertie at the Lake. They recently visited with Billie and H.A. Freeman in Cross Plains. The Freemans visited out here with them one day.

Mrs. Norman (Delphia) Lee said she had not been very well lately, but she sounded just like her own cheerful, sweet self to me.

Mrs. Jewel Foster was busy watering early this morning. A week ago at this time when I started to the Review, I stopped at her house. She was sitting outside working with some lovely grapes — getting them ready for jelly-making.

Ms. Jewel led me to the north side of her yard — there she has rows and rows of the most gorgeous flowers — every flower you can name — it was there. Very colorful!

C.V. Jr. called me Sunday evening — just checking on his "Mom". I had a few "chatters" from Chesley Elizabeth, not yet two.

RECENT CATCHES AT LAKEWOOD — Tom Clark of Cross Plains caught this string of fish at the Pioneer Lake.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Clark's grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Clark of Canyon, visited over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. M.F. Dill had many guests including Opal Gattis, Minnie Swann, Pearl Greenwood, Ella Dean, Collis Eager, Eunice Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Skeet Walker, Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Breeding, Blanche Moore, Leo Thompson, and D.L. Riley. Their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dill of Irving, also came by.

Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Johnson of Col-eman visited Vesta Bond recently. Mrs. Johnson is Vesta's cousin.

Mrs. Tom Baum of California and her son, W.J. Baum of Dallas, visited briefly with Vesta Bond on Sunday. They also stopped at the cemetery and remarked how nice and well-kept the cemetery looked.

Fabulous Fallacies!

One of the most common fallacies is that water is best in an untreated form as nature provided it. The fallacy of such thinking is crystal clear. In fact, water from a cool, clear spring may be appealing to the eyes, but at the same time the water may contain contaminants.

Here's another fallacy about water. Some people think that softened water is more corrosive to their home's plumbing. Actually, water softening doesn't affect the corrosivity of the water at all. But if corrosion is a concern for you, a point-of-use system can fix the problem at the point where the water enters the home. According to the Water Quality Association, just about any water problem you might have can be solved through the use of one or several types of equipment installed in your home. Check with your local certified water specialist for additional information.

Through Denver on to Colorado Springs, we traveled the Interstate to save time. We went to the Air Force Academy where students were running to keep fit. Their chapel was beautiful. At Colorado Springs, we went to the Garden of Gods in Manitou Springs. Rocks were being climbed by some with experience and some were not. We drove on to Pike's Peak area and camped at Hi-Vu Campground. I slept so good that I felt human the next day.

Day 8. The four of us stopped at Seven Falls. There are 265 long steps up to the top of the Falls. On to Royal Gorge, it costs over $20 to cross, so we didn't. We took a little train instead. We headed for New Mexico down scenic Highway 69. Many ranches were abandoned. On to I-25, we drove through a couple of rain showers. It was raining when we crossed the stateline. I couldn't get out for a picture. The group stopped in Clayton, New Mexico for fuel and a KOA campground. They wanted $18 for an overnight stay. So, we drove on to Dalhart, crossed into Texas and once again we got out and took pictures. We camped at KOA in a field of goathead stickers.

Day 9. All of us got up early, ready to head for Burkett. There is not much to see in this part of Texas. It is dry up in the Panhandle. We took down the tent, loaded everything except cooking stuff and had breakfast. Then we loaded it in the van and headed for Highway 83. We were north of a very good rain at Anson. We stopped in Abilene to give our van a wash and then on to the house. Queenie was glad to have her family home again.

This trip was a great joy. I enjoyed sharing it with you. But a word of caution. Road construction is everywhere. Please be careful. As we were traveling through Wyoming, a stretch of road had been oiled and graveled like what was done in Cross Plains. A car meeting us driving too fast was scattering gravel. We tried to avoid it, but couldn't and received a pop in the windshield. Be careful it doesn't happen to you, and please help it not to happen to others also.

We enjoyed this 9-day, 3,600-mile jaunt threw the plains and mountains. Don't miss the chance to see the true beauty of the U.S.A. But there's no place like home!

WEIGHT LOSS TIPS

Flavor Without Calories

Great taste and flavor seem to go hand-in-hand with fat and high-calorie levels. However, it is possible to achieve the same high aroma and flavor without the additional calories. Here are some low-calorie seasoning and snack tips from Dr. Susan Schiffman, director of the Obesity Clinic at Duke University and a member of the National Health and Sciences Advisory Board for Nutri/System, Inc., one of the world's leaders in weight loss and food technology.

• As a substitute for chocolate topping, sprinkle a mixture of cocoa and a non-caloric sweetener.

Schiffman

- To increase flavor for low salt chicken soup, boil and add only half of the recommended water.
- Top popcorn or vegetables with butter flavored Pam rather than real butter or margarine. One and a quarter seconds of spraying is only seven calories versus several hundred when you pour melted butter over food.
- Season foods with lemon instead of salt to cut sodium content.
- For low-cal french fries, cut potatoes into long pickle-like slices. Marinate in a bowl with one tablespoon olive oil. Spread on a cookie sheet and sprinkle with paprika or Italian seasonings. Bake at 450 for two minutes. You get high flavor, yet no salt or deep-fat frying calories.

BURKETT NEWS

By LOVERA STRICKLAND

The Burkett-Adams Cemetery Association received the following donations during the month of August, according to Secretary-Treasurer Freeda Burkett. A list of the donors follows:

Mrs. Gertrude Wilson $8; Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Morris in Memory of Minna Wright $25; Fannie Turner Bennett $10; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Chambers $25; Vesta Bond in Memory of Pearl Burkett $10; Woodrow and Willie Mae Wilson in Memory of Mrs. V. Curry $10; Mrs. Ethel Wilson in Memory of Mrs. Virgil Curry $5; Hattie Lou (Tabor) Woodard $10; Dewey Cason $5; Otis and Pauline Powers in Memory of Addie C. Rhoads $25; Mr. and Mrs. George Shewmaker $10; and one anonymous gift of $10.

These contributions are always appreciated for the upkeep of these two cemeteries.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Armistead, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Schneider and Joyce of Lamesa, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Armistead, and Sadie and Lelecha of San Angelo visited Grace Green last week.

Billie and Carol Ann Watson and Allen of the Houston area stopped in Burkett and visited Jo Davee Sunday.

Mary Nations spent a week with David and Laura Dean.

Aleta Coleman of Brownwood and Olene Johnson of Goldthwaite visited Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Edington one day last week.

J.C. Boyle and Vergie Woods visited the Edingtons Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Tinney, Johnathon and Jonelle of Lefors visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Strickland and Lat Mountain several days last week. Don caught several fish while visiting here.

Mark, Marsha and Jon Turney of Santa Anna, Don and Kathy Tinney, Johnathon and Jonelle of Lefors, Jan, Corey and Landon Pope and David Strickland visited the Jack Stricklands Friday night.

Susan Semmens, Patrick and Elizabeth of Brooklyn, New York visited Jack and Zora DeBusk recently.

Those attending the McDermott reunion in Buffalo Gap with Jack and Zora DeBusk were Jake and Elizabeth Reynolds of Corpus Christi, Dwane Cunningham of Lewisville, and Susan Andis of Coleman. They are the descendants of Thomas Hadden McDermott.

LAKESWOOD NEWS

By LENNY PROVINCE

It doesn't take a fancy boat to catch these beautiful fish. The hot weather hasn't put a damper on their appetites either. They are still biting!

Ladies, don't forget your meeting and luncheon Friday, August 19. Come join us and enjoy our cool air conditioning.

We're all looking forward to another successful tournament coming up August 27-28. This will be the Guys-N-Dolls Tourney. Entry fees are $70 per team. Cash prizes will be awarded, consisting of 70 percent of the entry fees. A meal will be served to contestants on Saturday night. Come join the fun!

For more information call (817) 643-7792.

Fellowship Meeting Scheduled August 26 At Rising Star

"The drawing nigh to God" fellowship meeting at the Pentecostal Church in Pioneer Friday night, August 12, was enjoyed by a goodly number.

Another fellowship meeting will be held in Rising Star on Friday, August 26, and will be hosted by Rev. and Mrs. Vernon McGinn at the Calvary Assembly Church where they pastor.

Let us go and draw nigh to God with them. The Coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

Mrs. Ruby McCowen

Singles Alternative Group Meeting At Brownwood Aug. 26

The Singles Alternative group will be having a get-together on Friday, August 26, from 7-11 p.m. It will be held in the fellowship hall of Calvary Baptist Church, located on the corner of Ninth Street and Avenue J. in Brownwood.

The activity is sponsored by the Singles Sunday School class of Calvary Baptist Church and is open to area singles of all ages. Soft drinks will be provided and everyone is asked to bring snack foods to share with the group.

Activities will include ping-pong, volleyball, dominoes and other games. You may bring your own favorite games. A nursery will be provided for children ages three and under.

For more information call (915) 646-6139. Come and join in the fellowship.

AARP NEWS

By LUCILE CALLAWAY

Members of the board for AARP Chapter 3092 are urged to meet Thursday, August 18, to complete plans for our September 5th meeting.

This is to be our workshop meeting with members from other chapters. In order for this to be a success, we urge cooperation from all our members. We strive to keep up our reputation with the State workers who meet with us from time to time and always congratulate us on the good work our chapter does.

Hope to see you Thursday at 2 p.m. at the newly decorated Multi-Purpose Center, for which many thanks go to the W.O.W. for their good work.

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

An inch of rain fell in this community Tuesday afternoon, for which all are thankful. Hot weather continues throughout this fast passing month of August.

The community extends sympathy to Leona Gary in the death of Weldon Gary. He had been a patient at Humana Hospital with heart problems. He and Leona had operated the Rowden Store for 31 years, having moved here from the Admiral Community. They had recently closed the store and Leona continued serving as mail carrier for the Star Rt. 2 route of Baird. His funeral was Wednesday, August 10, in Cross Plains with burial in the Admiral Cemetery. They have one son, Audrey Gary of Mineral Wells and two grandsons and two great-grandchildren.

Cecilia Reynolds and sons, Chris and Colby of Midland, came by the James Reynolds home Friday to pick up Drew Flippin. They then drove to Midlothian to the home of Janet and Tan Flippin to spend the night. Jim Reynolds met them there, along with Ellen Carpenter. The group toured Six Flags Over Texas on Saturday. Little Drew also visited his other grandparents, Eddie and Gail Flippin in Pioneer, during the week.

Recently, a visitor in the Robert Watson home was Jay Clark of Baird. He stopped for a visit on his way to Stephenville where he is enrolled for fall classes at Tarleton State University.

Robert and Dorothy Watson made a business trip to Fort Worth Monday.

Bob Dye made a business trip to Roswell, New Mexico this week.

Those visiting Sterling and Joyce Odom during the week were the Ralph Trevey family of Snyder who came by on their way from Brownwood. Saturday visitors were the Charles Palmer family of Clyde. Joyce Odom visited Leona Gary Wednesday afternoon.

Edna Dye had dinner at The Outpost in Abilene Thursday with friends, Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Ellis, who surprised another friend, Clara Sargis, with a birthday dinner. She reported a good time by all.

Continuing the story of vacant houses in the Rowden area is one vacated by Ruth Boen when shortly before her death, purchased a house in Baird. Ruth (Bower) Boen and Ray Boen bought the Walter Jones place soon after they were married. They raised cattle and Ray farmed the land, and also raised cattle on his home place and on land the family owned nearby. Ruth continued to live in the home after Ralph's death and tended the cattle for a time. Each year she made improvements on the house and had a new car port put up. She enjoyed growing flowers in the yard and pot plants inside the house. Her single brother, Jess Bower, lived in the community and visited her often. Her sister, Christine Bower of Abilene, also came to help out with things she could do. This house was rented for a while, but now is grown up with shrubs and trees around the house. The Walter Jones family lived many years in this house where five children grew up. Cecil, Harold, and Oscar Jones are all deceased. The girls are Lois Haddock and Lorene O'Dell of Abilene. They remember all about living in this particular house.

A big portion of the Gene Mauldin clan were visiting their parents over the weekend. They were Carl and Mable Mauldin, their daughter, Karen Armstrong, and children, Anna, Bo, Jarred and Phillip of Rogers, Arkansas, Irene Masters of Snyder, and her daughter, Charlotte Clifton and her baby, Bryan of Lubbock. Also Marjie and Danny Brown and daughter Cindy, another daughter and her husband, Trecia and husband, Scott Hester, all of San Antonio. Also, another Brown daughter, Patty and her husband, Stanley Zwereman, and sons, Eric and Curtis of Magnolia; and Roland and Faye Mauldin of Denton Valley and sons, Douglas of Irving and Kenneth of Fort Phantom Lake were guests.

Part of this group met at the Roland Mauldin home Friday night for grilled hamburgers and homemade ice cream. Carl's family will return home Sunday. Kenneth Mauldin and his friend, Johnny Hamilton of Abilene, visited in the home last Monday.

Remember— Safety First Around Electricity!

Enjoy a safe summer while working in your yard by following these safety tips.

- Use only properly grounded electrical equipment and replace all worn and damaged cords.
- Never use electric tools in rain or on any wet surface.
- Keep electric cords clear of your working area.
- Keep ladders or long-handled tools clear of power lines. Even wooden ladders can conduct electricity.
- Be careful when digging. Call your Local WTU Office to locate underground power lines in your area.

Remember REDDY supplies the energy — but only YOU can use it safely!
