EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. C.A. Rodenberger of the Cottonwood Community is a columnist for Livestock Weekly and one of his articles from "The Computer and The Cowboy" is featured below.

I am constantly amazed at the effect computers are having on our world. My six-year-old granddaughter is in kindergarten, where they have a computer, as well as having a computer at home that her engineer father bought when she was four. At school they have been encouraging the kids to write stories and not worry about the spelling for now. They spell phonetically.

During the big ice storm she spent the time on the computer writing stories and letters. I mentioned that our new dog, Tiger, had a run-in with a porcupine. She wrote the following letter to her great-grandmother and grandfather at Baird, Texas:

Dear ma and pa,
I'm doing well in school. How are you all will be coming to berd. I hope tiger gis his porcy pins owt love Ashley

Pa doesn't have a computer but he has the next best thing. Ma uses an electronic typewriter to copy his sermons and poetry. Pa answered Ashley with the following:

Tiger and the "Porcupine"
Tell Little Ashley "I am doing fine."

Since I had a run-in with a "porcupine".

I'll tell all the dogs to let Porcy alone.

They'd be better off just knawing on a bone.

I says to myself, "You're a mighty big squirrel!"

But I ain't afraid to give you a whirl. He grinned and set right still

And this old dog went in for the kill. He had the roughest hair that I ever saw;

I grabbed him by the back, but he never raised a paw.

When I persisted and went for his marrow

I found I couldn't make it; I was all full of arrows.

Old "Porcupine" is still rambling around;

Never caring if he is found

Knowing full well he has the ammunition

To make a dog wish he was in perdition.

By "Pa" Halsell

I love the phonetic spelling. Everyone knows that porcupines have porcy pins. And Baird comes out berd when you think about it. My next goal is to convince Pa as he reaches his 90th birthday that creative writing is not limited to flowing from a finger through a pen on yellow lined legal pads. Ma, who is younger, contends that if she had a computer she would use it and I am going to see that she gets one. She has created some prize winning poetry herself. I am certain that she can put an end to the complaint of being too old to use a computer.

Clean up projects are still in the making. A report of the booth at the Kiwanis Auction and Yellow Rose Arts and Crafts Fair proved successful. The clown and face painting received good response.

The next meeting is set for Thursday, June 8, beginning at 6 p.m. at the library. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend.

Nettie Wilson Celebrated 106th Birthday

In honor of her 106 years, Nettie Wilson celebrated her birthday on May 8 at the Rising Star Nursing Home. Her two great-nieces, Nancy Herd and Virginia McGee of San Angelo, faithfully visit her each week and hosted the family reception.

Mrs. Wilson was born in 1883 in Clay County, Alabama where her family were farmers. They moved to Cottonwood when she was eight years old.

She taught school at Cottonwood and Atwell, assisting Miss Bell. During World War I and World War II she served as a rural mail carrier out of Cross Plains. She delivered the mail in a horse drawn cab.

She married S.M. Burett, a former Publisher of the Cross Plains Review, and seven years following his death she married W.T. Wilson. He was a merchant at Cross Plains who owned a furniture store. She lived in Cross Plains over 50 years before entering the nursing home eight years ago.

The information for the article was provided by Mrs. Willard Marshall, a dear neighbor and friend. She reported that Nettie is still very alert and has always been active and full of life.

VLB Holds Land Loan Interest Rate At 8.75 Percent

AUSTIN — Despite rising interest rates throughout the nation, the Texas Veterans Land Board (VLB) will hold the interest rate for land loans to Texas veterans at 8.75 percent, Land Commissioner Garry Mauro announced Friday.

"We are very pleased to be able to continue offering Texas veterans this outstanding interest rate," said Mauro, who serves as chairman of the board. "Because we had such a successful bond sale, Texas veterans can continue receiving land loans at 8.75 percent."

The VLB sold $45 million in bonds this week to J.P. Morgan Securities, Inc. to continue funding the Texas Veterans Land Program.

The highly successful loan program allows Texas veterans to borrow up to $20,000 for the purchase of five or more acres of land. Since the first loan was made in 1949, Texas veterans have bought 4.5 million acres of land — an area roughly the size of New Jersey.

"The land program offers Texas veterans the best opportunity around for buying raw land," Mauro said. "Our 8.75 percent interest rate is well below conventional financing and we only require a five percent down payment."

The VLB has loaned more than $1.2 billion through the land program to nearly 100,000 Texas veterans over the last 40 years. While funding for the program comes from the sale of tax-exempt bonds, Mauro pointed out that the program is completely self-sustaining since fees from the veterans are used to administer the program.

For more information on the Texas Veterans Land Program, call toll-free 1-800-252-VETS.

Watson Girls Recognized As Outstanding Students

Word has been received here by Aunt Pearl and grandparents, Roger and Ernestine Watson, of Rebecca Ann (Becky) Watson's being recognized as an "Outstanding Student of American Colleges." Becky is currently finishing Southern Union Junior College of Opelika, Alabama, and will enroll in Auburn University, Auburn, Alabama, where she will continue work on her degree in Elementary and Secondary Education.

Becky's sister, Holly Watson, was recently given recognition as an "Outstanding Student of American High Schools" from Opelika High School, where she is a junior.

Both girls have part-time jobs and attend their church activities. Becky and a friend are sponsors for morning and evening youth meetings at the United Methodist Church there.

Judge Kniffen's Home Broke Into

Callahan County Judge Mack Kniffen's residence in Clyde was broken into Sunday, April 23, with approximately $1,400 worth of items stolen.

County Sheriff Bill Skinner reported that Judge Kniffen's home was burglarized while he and his wife were attending church.

Callahan County Chief Deputy Wayne Knowles said the Kniffen home, located south of Clyde on FM 604, was broken into around 10:30 a.m. Sunday and the intruders left before the Kniffen's returned home at 12:30 p.m. Knowles said the burglars gained entry into the home by forcing open a back door.

Knowles said that items taken included a portable radio with crystals on the Sheriff's Office radio lines, five silver dollar coins, a Cross pen and pencil set, credit cards, and several rings and costume jewelry.

Knowles said that the Sheriff's Office have several suspects in the case and that arrests will soon be coming.

Knowles said that the Kniffen home was probably being cased by the burglars and entered the home when the Kniffens attended church.

Midyear Crop And Livestock Reports Upcoming

AUSTIN — Beginning June 1, representatives from the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service will be contacting farmers and ranchers across the state to help set the 1989 planted acreage estimates and midyear livestock inventories.

"Information from these surveys will provide Texas producers with solid facts and figures they can use when making their production and marketing plans for 1989," state statistician Dennis Findley explained.

"The continued dry weather this spring and the changes in the national farm program may have altered producers' plans for 1989, and this survey will be the first accurate measure of midyear livestock inventories and acreage estimates," Findley added.

Individual reports will be combined with other reports to set state estimates. Results of the confidential interviews, conducted by telephone or in person by field enumerators, will be published later this summer. The 1989 acreage forecast will be published July 12, and the midyear cattle inventory will be published July 28.

"Remember, these are sample surveys, so if you are contacted it is important to provide the requested information, since your one report represents similar operations of the same size and type. Our estimates can be no better than the numbers producers provide," Findley added.

Frying Is Not The Answer

Too much sun causes skin cancer and other damage to your skin. More than 500,000 cases of skin cancer are diagnosed each year, making it the most common form of cancer, reports the American Cancer Society. Studies show that severe sunburns in early years of life may be a major cause of later development of the most serious type of skin cancer, melanoma.

Avoid the sun between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m., when the ultraviolet rays are strongest. Protect yourself with sunscreen — at least #15, wear long sleeves and a hat, especially during mid-day hours. Don't use indoor sunlamps, tanning parlors, or pill.

If you see changes in a mole or a sore that does not heal see your physician.

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

By IRMA MILLER

The Quilting Club finished the appliqued Tulip and put an Improved Nine Patch into the frames. Hattie Bryson Lacey of El Capitan, New Mexico is donating this quilt to be auctioned at the Pioneer School Reunion for the benefit of the Pioneer Cemetery Fund. Hattie grew up here at Pioneer. Jean Alexander is coordinating the work on the quilt being quilted by our circle.

The Pioneer Baptist Church will have an ice cream supper soon. This author's informant did not know, at the time of this writing, the date of the event.

Jean and James Alexander had as guests Jay and June Hughes of Crane on Thursday. Wallace and Jo Collars of Breckenridge also visited them on Thursday.

Gladys Sessums went to Colleyville to visit her daughter, Mary Henry. She also went with the Senior Citizens group to Leakey for a very enjoyable trip. Lottie Sooter, Nell Fleming, Sandy Hutton, and Mrs. Travis Crutchfield, formerly of Cisco, now from Clyde, with her daughter, also visited Gladys.

Kate Watson went to the Cottonwood Spaghetti Supper on Saturday. She took Sunday supper with Bill and JoVeda Watson at their new Brownwood Lake home.

Bill and Elaine Pancake graciously accepted the duties of president and secretary of the Pioneer, Liberty, Sabanno, and other schools reunion again this year, as the elected president and secretary, Harlan and Marjorie Lacey, were unable to do them. Elaine wants to advise everyone that the meeting will be on June 10, the second Saturday of June, instead of the first Saturday, as usual. At the late date she had to work on it, she was unable to obtain use of the Cross Plains Community Center on June 3.

Weekly Health Tip

HEADS UP!

Good posture, with the head held high, is one key to keeping a youthful body. A drooping head can deplete lung capacity by 30%, reducing oxygen needed to produce energy and nourish tissues. If your spine curves forward, your intestines sag to the pelvic floor, blocking good elimination. With head held back, you'll look taller, thinner, firmer; for women it can mean a 50% less sag in the bustline.

Your better health is our concern.

Clouds to the north of us and clouds to the south of us Friday night and Saturday afternoon, with thunder and lightning, and still without rain in this area.

Grain fields are ripening fast for those that did not graze their grain. Harvest season will soon be here.

Edna Dye is doing a seminar on roses for a porcelain painting club Thursday and Friday in Abilene.

Last Sunday visitors in the Robert Watson home were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Yarborough of Abilene. Friday, Robert and Dorothy met with friends, Dr. and Mrs. Bill Pierce at Brownwood Lake. Robert will be doing some building at their place on the lake. Brad Watson of Texas Tech was home for the weekend.

Kyle Watson was also at home this weekend. He will be working in Amarillo this summer.

Emma Johnson and Lizzie Burks attended the funeral of their brother, Robert Burks, held at the Burnt Branch Cemetery Thursday. Robert's death came following foot surgery. His two sons, Nelson Burks and his wife and his mother of Coleman attended the funeral. Also Bobby Burks of the Burks home place. Neices and nephews were Carroll and Tommy Burks of Abilene and their mother, Nellie Arrington of Cross Plains. Don and Frances Lowery, daughter of Alice Wills of Abilene. Also, a brother-in-law, Archie Neff and his sister, Wilma Nell Culvihill of Portales, New Mexico. Also, B.J. Anderson of Rising Star. Pastor Klei Quesenberry of the First United Methodist Church of Cross Plains conducted the service and Dorothy Reynolds sang. Our sympathy is extended to all the family.

Don and Maryana Harrell and daughter, Leigh, were in Abilene to attend the Western Classic Rodeo and other activities this week.

Visitors of Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin during the week were Frank and Cora Mae Payne of San Angelo. Roland Mauldin of Denton Valley and Bill Coots of Clyde, and Jessie Odom, who dopped by for a neighborly visit on Saturday.

Haskell Monday visiting friends, the Carl Bailey family.

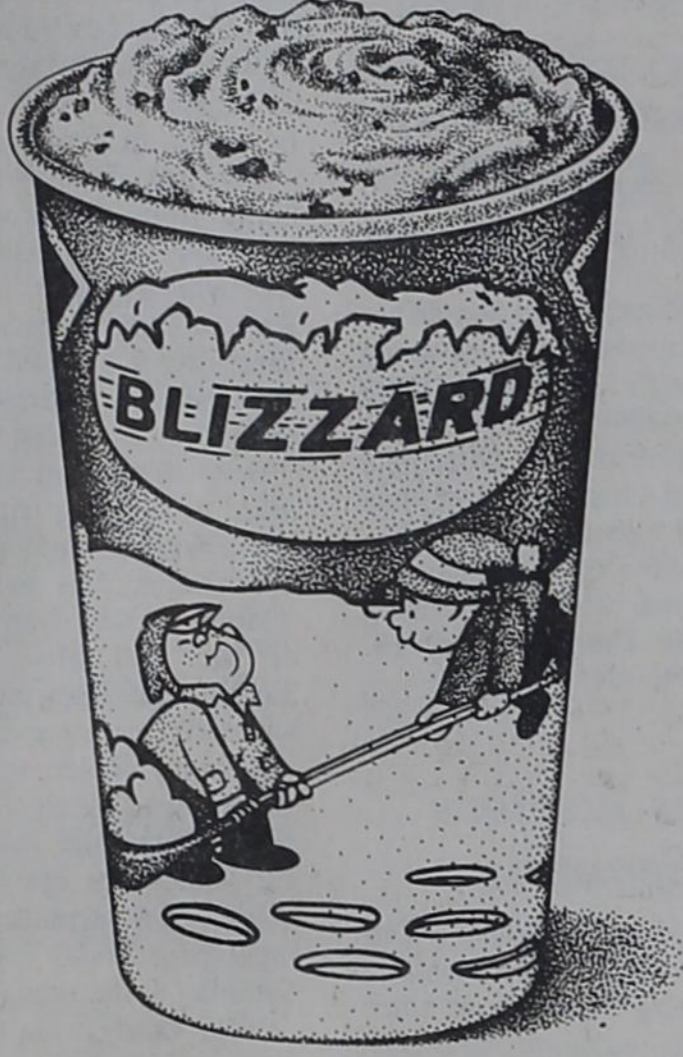

Joyce and Sterling Odom accompanied their daughter, Nancy Palmer to Snyder Sunday to visit in the Ralph Trevey home.

Archie Neff, mentioned already in this write-up was married to Mary Ann Burks, sister of Emma and Lizzie. Emma reported that he was one of the first pupils to attend Hillside School in 1916-17. It was a one room schoolhouse at that time, but a few years later a two room school building was needed as 40 pupils were in attendance. Vera (Phillips) Sikes of the community was the first teacher of the school. Another local person, Ada

Sikes, also taught a year at Hillside. The Burks children changed from the Burnt Branch School to Hillside. Emma still remembers the long walk over pastures and fields to and from school. Her teacher for the 1922-23 term was Hattie Bryson. Hillside School became a part of the Bayou School when five schools consolidated in 1936-37. Two other teachers known from Hillside were Ella Lee Hickey and Thelma (Griffin) Smedley of the Clyde area.

'Parent Help Kit' Available

C.P.I.S.D. participates in a drug free school cooperative through the Education Service Center in Abilene. The school has received a "Parent Help Kit."

The Parent Help Kit consists of:

1. A video tape titled "Drug Free Kids."
2. A booklet entitled "Are You Afraid Your Child Is Using Drugs?"
3. "Quick Help" information flyers related to drug use.

The kit is constructed with the intent to provide a resource for parents who suspect they may have a substance problem or potential problem within their family. Since many parents are embarrassed and reluctant to talk to professionals at first, the kit provides a private means to review the known facts and evaluate the extent of the problem they have become aware of or suspect. The booklet provides a "checklist" approach to determining chemical involvement, as well as important information for dealing with the problem. The tape provides an additional look at chemical use among teens, but more importantly, reviews and models effective and ineffective approaches for addressing the problem and talking to youngsters about substances. Flyer material suggests parent strategies for protecting young people from substance abuse.

The material is kept in the counselor's office. The kit can be checked out by parents. Parents who wish to check out the materials need to contact the high school.

FFA Rodeo Hampered By Weather

The First Annual Cross Plains FFA Junior Rodeo was held May 12 and 13. Even though the weather wasn't the best in the world, the rodeo was a success. All the proceeds from the rodeo will go to help support the Cross Plains FFA.

The FFA would like to thank all those who helped support the rodeo. These include Joe Ingram for watering the arena; Mike and Glenn Winfrey for the use of their tractor and shredder; Ken and Kenny Horan for plowing the arena; Johnson's Dry Goods for the use of the Wrangler Banner and their donation; Regie Stover for the use of his panels; Henry Edington for replacing and adjusting the lights; the local EMS for being on call; and the Cross Plains Roping Club for the use of the arena.

Also, a special thanks goes to all the parents who helped to make the rodeo run smoothly. These include Bob Golson, Randy Strickland, Diane Stover, Karen Richey, Cliffadean Hargrove, Julia Wheeler, Pam Harris, Sandra Carey, Jean McWilliams, Vicky Walker, Keith Johns, Ted Wheeler, Rickey Carey, Jimmy Harris, Tommy Brown, Regie Stover, Leonard Wood, Jimmy Hargrove, Ron Bagley, Don Harris, Alan Key, and Tim Layman.

The help and support of these people and businesses is what helped make our rodeo a success and it is greatly appreciated by all of the Cross Plains FFA.

The results of the rodeo will be in next week's paper.

Band Boosters Elect Officers

At the May meeting of the Band Boosters, executive officers for the upcoming school year were elected. Chosen to continue their leadership roles were: President, Connie Kirkham; Secretary, Sylvia Brown; Treasurer, Connie Swift, and Concession Manager, Barbara Sowell.

Members were urged to start thinking about the annual Christmas Store and the need for handcrafted or small items.

Help Your Child's Prom or Graduation be Fun, Not Fatal

For high school students, spring-time means prom and graduation celebrations. It can be an important part of your child's high school experience — full of wonderful memories.

Unfortunately, proms and graduations are often associated with alcohol. Drinking and driving continues to be the number one killer of American teenagers. Approximately 3,000 young people between the ages of 15 - 20 are killed every year because of teenage drinking and driving accidents.

In addition, over 200,000 young people suffer traumatic head injuries every year, most from car accidents. Many of these teenagers are left with severe disabilities.

"It's a national tragedy," said Dr. Jim Wasco, New Mexico Head Injury System Medical Director, who works with head-injured children and adults at New Mexico, a national system of rehabilitation facilities. "Our kids simply don't realize the risks they're taking once they get behind the wheel. A severe head injury changes a youngster's life permanently."

Discuss the matter with your children. Let them know you want them to enjoy the festivities, but you also care deeply for their safety. Focus the conversation on solutions, not problems.

An ideal solution is to help your community organize an all-night, alcohol-free party for the students. "Project Prom/Graduation", supported by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in Washington, DC, as well as state highway safety offices, has worked successfully in hundreds of schools across the country. Ideas for an exciting celebration are endless, but in order to have a truly successful event, make sure the students do the planning themselves.

If you live in a state where students may be of legal drinking age, you can use one of the following driving suggestions:

- Help your child team up with friends to rent a limousine.
- Solicit the driving assistance of an older brother or sister or a responsible older neighbor.
- Draw up a "contract" with your children whereby they will call you for transportation if they have been drinking. You, in turn, agree to pick them up at whatever hour, no questions asked.

If head injury has touched your life and you need further information on head injury or head injury rehabilitation, call the New Mexico Head Injury System at 1-800-CARE TBI.

"Work with your kids," Dr. Wasco said. "A little extra planning can make for a much safer prom and graduation season."

Brownies Explore Junior Scouting

The five third grade Brownie Girl Scouts from Troop 214 got a real taste of Junior Scouting last weekend when they spent the night at the Tom Stephenson home.

Alana Davis, Crystal Carouth, Jill Potter, Kim Ratliff, and Melissa Clark sampled a wide variety of activities as they worked on the bridging requirements that earned them the rainbow patch. This patch signifies that they have studied the Junior program and are ready to move into the next level of Girl Scouting.

At "Rainbow Camp," Crystal, Jill and Alana said that "just everything was the most fun." Melissa and Kim thought that cooking their lunch over buddy burners and vagabond stoves on the sidewalk was the most interesting.

Studying the power of the sun, the girls made sun tea, solar points and a still that purified the salt out of the water to make it drinkable. They also learned how very easily a broken piece of glass could magnify the sun's rays and start a prairie or forest fire. Crystal was especially awed when a dried leaf started smoking almost as soon as the magnifying glass focused the sun into a pin point of heat.

Sampling different types of hobbies found Kim favoring ping pong while Jill and Melissa liked making bookmarks with yarn and plastic canvas.

Rounding out the "camp-out," the Scouts had time for a jungle breakfast, singing, doing a traffic survey, jogging, climbing trees, making ice cream, and GIGGLING!

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

My! How time flies — here it is the middle of May already! This morning the weather is beautiful! Windy and cool!

I enjoyed a very nice Mother's Day. Received gifts from my daughter early in the week. I called her and found her ill with a cold and sore throat. My son called me on Sunday, and I had a lovely card from him on Monday.

My best friend in Abilene went home from the hospital during the weekend. She had a small spot on one foot which looked "serious" to her. Sure enough, it was serious — malignant! She is grateful that the doctors were able to correct the situation quickly.

Betty Beggs and Mrs. C.T. Barton made a shopping trip to Brownwood last Friday afternoon. Last Sunday, after church, J.T. and Betty enjoyed a "Mother's Day dinner" in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kim Beggs in Stephenville. Two other mothers (and husbands) were present.

A lovely dinner, with all the extras, was enjoyed by all. On Friday of last week, Nikki and Ashley Beggs rode the school bus out to "Grandma's house" (an adventure for them) — they spent Friday night and most of Saturday at the ranch.

Sally Roady went to Brownwood a week ago today — the doctor put a new cast on her leg. On Thursday, they took Ms. Nettie to her doctor in Coleman. On Wednesday, Art and Bertie Roady of Abilene visited them all. On Sunday, they all visited Ms. Nettie at the nursing home. Sally's children sent her a beautiful rose bouquet for Mother's Day.

Mrs. Jewel Foster had a wonderful weekend. Her son, Billy Wayne, and his wife, Fern, came from Oklahoma on Friday and spent the weekend. Mark Foster, a grandson from Abilene, came on Sunday. Charles and Lucille were there. They all had a wonderful Mother's Day. Jewel said she received some of the loveliest cards — with precious verses in them.

Mr. Norman Lee called me. A cousin, Eddie Garren from Rockdale, Texas came by. He had not seen him since 1966. Eddie had attended a bowling tournament in Abilene.

Helen Tillotson was her usual cheerful self this morning. She did not have any news — she was just grateful for the rain, and grateful that we have not had the cyclones and other bad weather we see on the TV.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Suma Dill last week were Wanda Walker, Mozelle Richardson, Blanche Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shaw, Gaylan Duggan of Rising Star, and her son, Fred Dill of Irving.

County Commissioners Report

As one Callahan County official was overheard saying, "The Clyde community won the battle but has yet to win the war," after Callahan County Commissioners voted Monday, May 8 to change the system used to distribute tax money to the four precincts in the county.

Clyde Precinct #1 Commissioner Roy LaFoy said that although his precinct at Clyde has 35 percent of the county's population and pays 37 percent of all county taxes, his precinct was only getting 24 percent of the tax money distributed between the four precincts.

LaFoy said that commissioners voted to change the precincts share to 25 percent for each of the county precincts. Although a one percent increase isn't much, LaFoy said every little bit helps.

LaFoy said that the commissioner's precincts at Oplin and Baird have a fund surplus and that Clyde's precinct is $89,000 in debt. He noted that commissioners approved using the Baird and Oplin precincts surplus to pay-off Clyde's debt and that the remaining surplus will be divided evenly among the four precincts. After paying off the Clyde precinct's debt, LaFoy said that Clyde will have a $135,000 precinct fund to work with; the same as the other three precincts.

LaFoy said that the new system of distributing the tax money among the precincts will be on a six month trial period and commissioners will re-evaluate the percentage system at the end of the trial period.

During the previous system of distributing tax money, the Oplin precinct received 28 percent, Cross Plains received 25 percent, Clyde got 24 percent and Baird's precincts received 23 percent of the county tax money.

Other items brought before commissioners court included:

—Voted to have Connie Ajack of Beacon Medical Specialties consign to sell the old county hospital buildings furnishings. Commissioners approved the agreement to sell the furniture items with the county receiving half of what the company gets for the furnishings. The company owner estimated that the furnishing could bring anywhere between $2,000 and $3,000.

—Voted to reject two bids to sell two vehicles from Precinct 2 (Oplin). Both bids were believed to be too low.

—Voted to accept the high bid of $2,050 for an old dump truck from Precinct 3 (Baird).

—Voted to allow County Attorney Brad Harris to attend a prosecutor's seminar in June.

—Named Janice Tucker, secretary to the county attorney, to head a crime victims committee in Callahan County.

—Took no action concerning part-time help for Justice of the Peace in Precinct 5 (Clyde). JP Eston Shelnuitt did not attend the commissioners court meeting, therefore commissioners took no action.

—Voted to move a magazine rack from the old hospital building to be used by the county agent's office to display pamphlets.

—Voted to keep two hospital bed and two wheelchairs from the old county hospital building that would be used by needy residents in the county.

—Voted to allow Commissioner's Precinct 3 (Baird) to purchase three pieces of roadwork equipment valued at $200,000.

"HOW CAN THIS BE?" EMPLOYER ASKS

Dear Commissioner Nabers: Back in December of last year I had to lay one of my employees off because business was so bad. He filed a claim for unemployment benefits which I did not protest. He found another job right away so he did not draw any benefits that I know of, but yesterday I got a notice from the TEC advising me of my chargeback potential. The form number is FL-62. Why is the TEC just now notifying me of my financial liability and what about the fact that my ex-employee went to work for someone else?

COMMISSIONER
Mary Scott Nabers

TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY

— J.R. Garland, Tx.

Dear J.R.: The form FL-62 that you received is generated by computer at the time the first check for unemployment benefits is cut. The claimant involved here filed no continued claims and was paid no benefits back in December because he found another job right away. The potential liability on the claim was, however, established at the time of filing of that initial claim and remains locked in for an entire year for your company and any other base period employers.

Now the claimant is again unemployed and has filed an Additional Claim for benefits based on his most recent work separation. Because benefits have actually been paid this time, you and all the other base period employers on the initial claim have been notified of your potential chargeback liability. The other base period employers will now be given an opportunity to protest chargebacks to their accounts. Your company, however, had its opportunity to protest the payment of the claim at the time it was filed back in December. If there was no reason to protest at that time, then your company's account became subject to chargeback liability for any benefits the claimant might draw during the entire benefit year.

This situation does not occur with such frequency that an employer will automatically recognize it when it happens. Anytime you receive a notice that you do not understand, call your local TEC office for clarification.

Mary Scott Nabers represents all Texas employers. If you have any questions you want answered, please write Commissioner Nabers at: TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY, 614 TEC Building, 15th and Congress, Austin, Tx. 78778.

America's Road Team, developed by the American Trucking Association (ATA), is a public awareness program featuring highway safety tips from professional truck drivers whose motto is "safety is our driving concern."

Trucks have a "blind spot" behind the trailer. Avoid "tailgating" trucks because the driver can't see you. If you can see the truck's side-view mirrors, the truck driver can see you and give you plenty of warning for a stop or a turn.

America's Lakes Are Getting Cleaner

Here's good news that may make a splash with all Americans. Some of our lakes and streams are being restored these days and the fish that depend on a clean pollution-free aquatic environment have a much better chance of survival.

Lakes and streams are more productive these days, thanks to limestone treatments.

It's all thanks to a group called Living Lakes, Inc., a not-for-profit organization established in 1985 to design and implement a program demonstrating cost-effective techniques for restoring acidified and acid-stressed water so they can once again support important fisheries.

Living Lakes restores streams and lakes by neutralizing the acid in the water through applications of calcium carbonate, or liming. In 1988, it applied limestone to seven new sites, bringing the total for the program to 28 lakes and 11 streams. The organization neutralizes the water, then offers its technology to resource managers so maintaining and restoring streams and lakes can be accomplished by the managers at affordable cost.

Emergency Farm Loan Applications Being Accepted

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses caused by adverse weather are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) office located in Eastland, FmHA County Supervisor Jack Phillips said today.

Callahan County is one of eight in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Clayton Yeutter as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the adverse weather.

Phillips said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 4.5 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA emergency loan," Phillips said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until December 26, 1989 but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," Phillips said.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U.S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FmHA office in Eastland is open from 8 to noon and 1 to 5, Monday through Friday. The Callahan County office is open from 9 to noon, every 2nd and 4th Wednesday of the month.

Call Before Making Trip

It is a good idea for people in the Big Country area to call Social Security before taking the time to visit the office. The reason is that most Social Security business can be taken care of over the telephone, Glyn Hammons, Social Security manager in Abilene, said recently.

Unless the person's business is urgent, it is best to call after the middle of the month. Inquiries can be handled more quickly at this time, Hammons said.

Examples of the business that can be handled by phone include:

- Applying for Social Security benefits. A claim can be started over the telephone and completed by mail.
- Applying for Medicare.
- Changing name and address in Social Security records.
- Reporting a change in marital status.
- Reporting stopping or starting work or to report any event that can have an effect on benefits.
- Reporting a lost or stolen check or delayed payment.
- Arranging for direct deposit.
- Getting an estimate of a benefit rate.
- Requesting a statement of earnings.
- Getting help in requesting a review of a claims decision.
- To ask any question about Social Security or to ask for a free publication.

The toll free telephone number of the Social Security office is 1-800-234-5772.

COLONIAL OAKS

The Cornerstone Methodist Church will be conducting worship services at Colonial Oaks Nursing Home on Sunday, May 21, beginning at 3:30 p.m.

...Originally printed in 1980, and now in its third printing is a book entitled "1001 TEXAS PLACE NAMES," available from The University of Texas Press. "Place Names" are in alphabetical order, followed by county, and brief descriptive phrase indicating the legendary explanation of how the name was derived. Some serious, some very humorous, as shown by the following examples: (1) "Blessing (Matagorda) Johnathan Edwards Pierce was so elated over the arrival of the Southern Pacific Railroad as a boon to ranchers that he wanted to name the town Thank God. The railroad refused such a name, and Blessing was settled upon as a less enthusiastic statement of appreciation for the rail service. The earliest post office operated as Deming's Bridge, named for E.A. Deming, the postmaster, PO June 22, 1858 (Deming's Bridge) — Nov. 5, 1866; Feb. 28, 1872 — Mar. 3, 1899 (Howley) — Aug. 17, 1903 (Blessing) — Pop. 571.

(2) Three Aces Oil Field (Callahan) The crew of the oil company was playing poker in the "doghouse," the small room at the entrance to the oil rig, when the first well came in. Everyone threw in his cards and ran to bring the well in. One of the players tried to get the men to finish the game because, after losing all night, he had just gotten a hand of three aces when they quit. Hence, the oil company named the field Three Aces.

Enjoyable reading and can serve as an aid in giving a location of some of those places you've heard grandpa and grandma talk about in their family stories, the places you just knew were "never" in the State of Texas.

Index of counties in alphabetical order, listing each "Place Name" included for the county, 236 pages, paperback, $7.95 + 1.50 postage/handling. Texas residents add appropriate state and local (if any) taxes. Order from The University of Texas Press, P.O. Box 7819, Austin, TX 78712.

...Deane MOORE, P.O. Box 3302, San Bernardino, CA 92413, would like to know if there is a directory, listing cemeteries in Palo Pinto or Eastland Counties, Texas, and if the cemeteries have records of burials. I am researching the families of MOORE and NEWBERRY (NEWBURY) in these two Texas Counties prior to about 1920. Sincerely appreciate any help concerning the above.

...FROM ARGYLL COLONY PLUS: Glenn H. McGugan, 1235 East Hedgelawn Way, Southern Pines, North Carolina 28387, is interested in collecting passenger lists of immigrants from Scotland to North Carolina and possibly compiling the list into a booklet. If you have a copy of a list or know the whereabouts of lists, please tell Glenn about it in a letter and if he does not have it he may ask you for a copy.

Glenn's Scottish ancestors include McGugan (McGougan, McGoogan), Graham, McNeill, Brown, and Clark.
