EDITOR'S NOTE: Don Tabor, Publisher, will be the guest writer this week. Vanda King, Editor.

I know this is kind of an "in-house" thing, but I'm continually amazed at the ignorance these big advertising agencies display at what a newspaper is.

A case in point: The other day I received a "news release" from one of them.

The subject was, get this, about a new television advertising campaign a big drug store chain was starting.

In effect, what the ad agency was wanting was free publicity in newspapers about the drug store chain spending all kinds of advertising money on T.V. Come on!

And, know what? I'll bet some newspapers fall for it. I wouldn't be a bit surprised to see a news story in some of the big papers about it.

But you're not going to see one in the Cross Plains Review unless they buy an ad, which, I'm sure, they won't.

How in the world do these agencies think newspapers exist? Don't they know that advertising is our main source of revenue? How do they think we pay employees' salaries and stay in business? I doubt if they care.

Many times I've had people indicate to me they think most of a newspaper's revenue is derived from subscriptions. I tell them that the price of a subscription hardly pays for the paper the news is printed on, much less the cost of mailing it to them.

Don't get me wrong. We cherish each and every subscription and couldn't exist without them, but it's advertising that carries the financial load. That's just the way it is. If we had to rely on subscriptions as our only source of revenue, they would cost about 10 times what they do now.

Of course, if that was the case, the subscriber would say "it ain't worth it" and quit. Then where would we be?

Woman-Less Wedding Set For Sunday

The Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control is sponsoring a "Woman-less Wedding" on Saturday, February 25, at the Cottonwood Community Center. The comical presentation will begin at 7 p.m.

Lavinie Mae and Clem, the wayward young'uns, will be joinin' up and everyone is invited to come on out and witness the event.

It was reported that vittles will be dished up afterwards including possum (ham) or crow (turkey), tater sallat, beans, slaw, tea or coffee, and of course, weddin' kake.

There will be music after the vittles. The musicians are said to be unique, so y'all come out and have the time of your life.

Admission is $4.50 per person which includes program, food, and music. The proceeds will benefit the Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control.

It's That Time Of Year Again

The Kiwanis Annual Pancake Supper will be held on Thursday, February 23, from 5 to 7 p.m. The menu consists of two sausages and all the pancakes you can eat. Extra sausage will be .25 cents each. Coffee and tea will be served with the meal.

Adult tickets in advance are $2.50 or $3 at the door. Children's tickets (7 years and under) are $1.25 in advance or $1.50 at the door.

The Kiwanians hope to see you there, at the school cafeteria in Cross Plains.

Project Pride Membership Drive Commences Today

A formal membership drive will begin today in an effort to gain more interest in the newly organized Project Pride. The main purpose of this organization is to keep the community and surrounding area looking clean and beautiful and to preserve our heritage.

Besides the clean-up projects, a historical phase will also be active at a later time. Senior citizen members will be very important in the success of this portion.

You may obtain membership in Project Pride for a fee of $3 for individuals or $5 for married couples. A special membership table will be designated at the Kiwanis Pancake Supper Thursday night, February 23, for anyone who would like to join. You may also drop by Greenwood Insurance and obtain membership from Margaret McNeel or Roylene Wilson at RR Production.

Project Pride wants to promote a general spirit of pride in our town and connecting rural communities. It is hoped that when tourist drive through any direction leading to Cross Plains, they will be impressed by neatness and a progressive attitude.

It was noted in the latest meeting that Cross Plains is one of the smallest cities adopting similar projects. It doesn't take size to succeed in this venture, just participation and desire.

All clubs and organizations in the community are invited to inform Project Pride of their upcoming functions, and the group may be helpful in a special clean-up prior to your event. Call our official telephone number 725-7712 to be placed on the calendar.

A special tribute to Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Balkum for the exceptional cleaning of the lots on East 8th Street, and to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bowden for the fantastic clean-up of the frontage across from Treadway Park. Project Pride salutes both families for their efforts in making the community more attractive.

All interests and talents, regardless of age, will be useful in the varied plans ahead, so if you would like to be a part of Project Pride everyone is welcome. The next meeting is set for Thursday, March 9, at 6 p.m. at the Cross Plains Public Library.

Athletic Booster Club Meets Tonight

There is to be an urgent meeting of the Athletic Booster Club Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. at the high school library.

All members and interested parties are urged to attend. Decisions concerning track and the annual athletic banquet will be made at this time.

SENIOR CITIZENS KING AND QUEEN — Lois Vaughn and Marvin Dickson were selected by their peers for honors on Valentine's Day.

HEARTS, HEARTS, HEARTS — John Paul Jackson was the winner of the drawing for the Valentine candy at the Senior Citizens Center. Fay Chambers is presenting the decorated box to Mr. Jackson in front of the "Heart Tree."

Senior Citizens Celebrate Valentine's Day

Senior citizens gathered for lunch last Tuesday, Valentine's Day, and made the day special. The group elected a Valentine King and Queen, Marvin Dickson and Lois Vaughn, and decorated crowns were presented to them for their royal titles.

Seniors had been purchasing hearts for the Heart Tree at 50 cents each, which also secured them an opportunity to win a box of Valentine candy. Fay Chambers had cleverly decorated the drawing box and the candy box. John Paul Jackson was the lucky winner.

The money earned from the heart project was used to purchase 500 paper plates to be used at the Senior Citizens Center.

Eighth CRP
Signup Slated

"The eighth signup for the Conservation Reserve Program or CRP will be taking place through February 24," said Tony Baeza, Range Conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service.

CRP offers farmers cost sharing and annual rental payments to convert their highly erodible cropland to permanent vegetation and a chance to bypass expensive conservation treatment, retain eligibility for USDA programs, and ensure a return on this land.

"Most land fitting the highly erodible criteria is not only difficult to protect against erosion, but often produces poor crop yields and has a low profit potential," Baeza said. "Most times, payments provided under the Conservation Reserve Program offer farmers greater rates of return to this land."

Under the CRP, farmers receive cost-sharing to establish grass, trees or wildlife plantings on highly erodible cropland. Cost sharing is provided for 50 percent of eligible costs of establishment. Farmers make a bid per acre, on the acres that they are interested in putting into the program.

If their bid is accepted their annual rental payments will last for ten years, the length of the contract. The permanent vegetation must be maintained and brush controlled during this time, and harvesting of any kind will not be permitted except for hunting.

All interested in the CRP should contact the Soil Conservation Service or the ASCS at the Callahan County Courthouse to determine if their land is eligible for the CRP program. Baeza said that all programs and services of the U.S. Department of Agriculture are provided without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age, handicap, religion, or marital status.

Association

Billy D. Dillard Sr. of Cross Plains has been elected to membership in the American Angus Association, reports Dick Spader, executive vice-president of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri.

The American Angus Association, with over 30,000 active adult and junior members, is the largest beef cattle registry association in the world. Its computerized records include detailed information on nearly 11 million registered Angus.

The Association records ancestral information and keeps records of production on individual animals for its members. These permanent records help members select and mate the best animals in their herds to produce high quality, efficient breeding cattle which are then recorded with the American Angus Association. Most of these registered Angus are used by the U.S. farmers and ranchers who raise high quality beef for consumption.

Weekly Health Tip
PESTICIDE DANGERS

Researchers at the University of Southern California found that children whose parents use pesticides in the home have a 3.8 times greater risk of leukemia. If garden sprays are used, children have a 6.5 times greater risk. Mothers' use of pesticides carried a higher risk of child leukemia than fathers' use, suggesting that pregnancy might be the critical time, states Dr. John M. Peters of USC School of Medicine.

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

This Monday morning is beginning to look a bit less gloomy. We just might have some sunshine today. Of course, we can't afford to overlook the nice rains — it had been dry for such a long time.

I'm grateful to my young neighbors, Sherryl and David. They came here last week and took my two gas heaters up to his shop. They cleared them out, cleaned them, and brought them back, installed and adjusted them properly. I'm grateful for their concern.

My sister, Opal Cox, called me from the ranch on Saturday — just to chat. She told me of a phone call she had received from a very dear friend of ours — Tommie Jewel (Hefner) Powers of Breckenridge. She had asked about me.

My mind took a flip-flop back to 1927 — yes, some 60 years plus ago. Tommie Jewel and I had graduated from B.H.S. I went directly into college that fall (to C.I.A., which is now T.W.U.).

The next fall, 1927, Opal entered with me, and the first day we were there, in walked Tommie Jewel. She had made a last minute decision to enter. She was not registered, she had no room; we wore uniforms then, she had no uniforms. She had her mother's check book. I knew she had plenty of money. My landlady made room for her temporarily.

I took her and Opal to all the necessary places to get them into classes at the proper time.

I've said all this to add — that precious lady is still, to this day, thanking me for assisting her — back there in the fall of 1927. I have not seen her in several years, but Opal states that she is still the precious sweet character we've known all these years.

Betty Beggs was slightly hoarse this morning, but she expected that to clear up soon. Mrs. Dick Smith of Fort Worth spent the weekend with them.

Betty shopped in Brownwood on Tuesday. Mr. L.W. Mitchell visited them on Saturday. Rex and his children were out for awhile during the weekend.

Ms. Jewel Foster went to the Senior Citizens Center for lunch a couple of times — she also went for the "Quilting" one day. She attends the affairs at the church regularly.

A lady came by and picked up the "ton" of newspapers I had saved for A.A.R.P. I'm glad to be rid of them — the trunk and backseat of my car were full.

Billie and H.A. Roady picked up Ms. Nettie Roady on Friday and took her home with them. Sally and Bobby visited Art and Bertie Roady in Abilene Saturday afternoon. They saw their new grandbaby for the first time — it was born in September. Betty Lockyer of Cross Plains came out one day. Sally went to her doctor one day — tests were made. She has some nerve damage which, of course, she hopes can be corrected.

Helen Tillotson didn't have any news this morning. She has discovered some interesting birds on their pond out there — and she is consulting her bird books to learn their identity.

I had not talked to the McGowens for awhile. Sara states they all manage to keep busy. Last weekend, they attended the Callahan County Stock Show. Their daughter, Allison, showed a champion Southdown Lamb. They were proud of that honor.

Mr. Norman Lee didn't have any news this morning, but he was rejoicing over the nice rain we've had. We all are thankful for that rain!

County, Clyde Gives To E.M.S.; Baird Waiting

Callahan County Commissioners voted Monday, February 13 to give a one-time contribution of $15,000 to the Clyde Citizen Emergency Medical Service to purchase a new ambulance.

County Commissioners voted for the one-time fee, which is slightly more than one-third the total cost of a new ambulance.

Ron Young, Clyde E.M.S. administrator, met with the commissioners to requesting the new funding. He told commissioners that the new ambulance is needed because the current vehicles are in disrepair. The local ambulance service has two vehicles and Young stated that the older of the two models would be a trade-in for the new ambulance.

The Clyde E.M.S. is owned by the City of Clyde, Callahan County and City of Baird.

Young met with the City Council in Baird Monday night, February 13, to discuss the city contributing towards the purchase of the ambulance, but city councilmen tabled the item.

The City of Clyde on Monday night, February 13, also voted to contribute $15,000 towards the purchase price of the new ambulance.

Other items brought before commissioners' court include:

—Met with Jon Herod, C.P.A. in Clyde, who presented the 1988 audit for Callahan County. Herod said several suggested bookkeeping procedures be made in the county Justice of the Peace offices so the JP offices would have uniform record procedures. The 1988 audit was then approved.

—Discussed changing the procedure used to calculate the percentage of money to distribute among the four county precincts. No action was taken.

—Met with representatives from the State Highway Department Planning Commission to discuss paving approximately 8 to 10 miles of one county road within the county. The highway department was wanting the commissioners input on which county road to pave. No action was taken.

—Opened five bids to sell two dump trucks in Commissioner Lowell Johnson's Precinct #2. All five bids were lower than the $1,600 per truck the commissioner was requesting, so all bids were rejected. The highest bid for one truck was $1,400.

—Approved two bonds for Callahan County Sheriff Bill Skinner and Callahan County Tax Assessor/Collector Wauneta Estes.

—Met with Baird resident Katherine Hinds to discuss the county possibly providing the use of one office in the county hospital building for a doctor's office. No action was taken.

—Discussed the upcoming jail inspection for the Callahan County Jail in Baird on March 28. No action was taken.

—Met with Callahan County Sheriff Bill Skinner to discuss the applications that had been received for a constable and deputy constable in the Cross Plains area. Skinner said that two applications were received for a deputy constable for the Cottonwood area and that no applications were taken for a constable in Cross Plains. No action was taken.

—Discussed distributing the government food commodities in Baird, Clyde, Cross Plains and Putnam on Wednesday, February 15.

—Discussed naming the county depository for all the county funds. The county received three proposals from the three banking institutions in the county. Commissioners voted to table the matter and bring the item up again at a called meeting set for Thursday, February 16 at 9:30 a.m.

—Voted to allow County Treasurer Dora Hounshell transfer money from the Justice of the Peace account in Baird to the county's general fund.

—Voted to declare Callahan County a disaster area caused by drought to provide agriculture relief to county farmers.

—Voted to advertise for bids to sell two grid rollers used in building roadways. Precinct #3 (Baird) and Precinct #4 (Cross Plains) will be selling the county equipment.

Lady Buffs Closed 1989 Season

Last Friday night's Bi-District game ended on a sad note for the Lady Buffs. Just one basket kept the team from the Bi-District title. The Lady Cats of Rising Star managed to win the 43-41 battle in an overtime situation.

The Lady Cats built up a 15-9 lead when the Lady Buffs came back to grab the lead on two baskets by Pam Helms and one each by Melissa Montgomery and Carol Morgan, 17-15.

Rising Star took control again, leaving the score 23-18 with 3:45 remaining in the third quarter. Montgomery hit two field goals and Helms added a pair of free throws to give the Lady Buffaloes an edge of 28-25.

The Lady Buffs led the Lady Cats in the last eight minutes and Cross Plains had the Cats down by 4 points at one point. A toss from Stephanie Long tied the game just before the buzzer.

Lady Buffs statistics were:

Coach Elaine Shedd stated, "I have been real pleased with the season the girls had. They made improvements throughout the year, and we will work to make improvements for next year. The Lady Buffs did an outstanding job — worked hard, attitudes were good! I was pleased with the 19-8 record this year compared to the 7-21 last season."

Donkey Ball Goes Well

It wasn't your ordinary basketball game. The scores were very low, the ball was kicked around alot and there was a great deal of tumbling around on the floor. In case you missed them, the Donkey Basketball games played last Thursday, February 14, at the Cross Plains gym were certainly entertaining.

The first game paired two teams made of students and teachers. The Buckaroos and the Qui Donksters played 2 eight-minute halves. By the final buzzer, the score was a heaping 6 to 4 in favor of Qui Donksters.

After a 15-minute intermission, the Sweethearts vied against the Wild Side, and these two teams were made up of some daring, enthusiastic citizens from Cross Plains. The Sweethearts ended up winning this game, 12-10.

The final game had the Qui Donksters playing the Sweethearts for the championship. The 8-minute game had its ups and downs with the final score ending in a win for Qui Donksters, 6 to 2.

The donkeys and equipment and referees were provided by the Crosby Donkey Ball Co. from Chippewa, Wisconsin.

The Cross Plains Annual Staff sponsored the games as a fundraiser to help cover annual costs. The proceeds of ticket sales and concessions were greater than expected, and the entire staff extends a THANK YOU to all those who participated in the games.

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

By IRMA MILLER

The quilting circle was almost complete with 12 of sixteen present Tuesday, and we enjoyed the pretty Valentine decoration on the lunch table placed there by Jean Fore. Three of our husbands ate lunch at the club and a fourth husband's plate was carried to him. Also, our usual guest — a neighbor's — plate was carried to him.

We finished a pretty patchwork quilt, quilted with shell pattern. The two quilts in the frames now are of the same pattern — Nine Patch alternated with a design block — but they look quite different because of the color arrangements. Members expressed that they were glad to be back with a good start for '89. Some members also said they were glad Irma was able to do the Patchwork news again.

Jewel Foster's white hound had seven male pups. Well, none of those pups will ever bear any pups of their own!

Nell's and Joe Fleming's granddaughter, Lynn Fleming, and her friend, Carol of Abilene, spent the weekend with Joe and Nell.

Betty Browning came to see Jean Alexander at her home last week.

Frankie Smith and Jean Fore went to Eastland Saturday to visit in the nursing home with Frankie's father, Mr. Jerry Vinson.

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

This has been a cold, cloudy rainy week with a lot of fog. Some have gauged three inches of much needed moisture. The country roads are full of water puddles and chug holes, and it's daresome to meet vehicles for fear of sliding in the ditches.

Grain fields have turned yellow from the severe cold and dry weather. Maybe after this rain the grain can come back to life.

Blan Odom entered Humana Hospital last Sunday morning and underwent open heart surgery Tuesday. From all reports, he is doing fine and we hope will be home soon.

Visitors in the Gene Mauldin home this week were Irene and Willie Masters of Snyder and Bill Cason of Baird. Gene is still on the sick list.

Joyce Odom and this writer attended the funeral of Annie Franke in Cross Plains Wednesday afternoon. On Monday afternoon, Joyce visited Mrs. Ivon Odom in the Cross Plains rest home and also visited with Irene Garlitz in her home.

Visitors of Emma Johnson and Lizzie Burks during the week were Carroll Burks and grandson, Cody Bullock of Abilene, and Leona Gary. Emma also reported her brother, Robert Burks, was a medical patient in room 4703 at Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene.

Last week Bob and Kathy Dye spent the weekend with their daughter and son-in-law, Julie and Bryan Patterson in Copperas Cove. Kathy also drove on to Mason to see her mother, Anna Dendy. They also reported Edna Dye was sick with the flu.

This writer was in Baird Monday morning where she visited Nila Towler and Faye White.

James and Dorothy Reynolds, along with forty members of the Cherry Heights Baptist Church in Clyde, attended a Valentine Banquet at the Bonanza Steak House in Abilene Thursday night.

Robert and Dorothy Watson and sons, Wyatt and Cody, attended basketball games in Cross Plains Monday night. Cody also was showing his lamb in the county show in Cross Plains Friday and Saturday. Robert and Dorothy were in Haskell on business during the week.

Leigh Harrell spent Friday night with her friend, Brittany Wood in Abilene. Visitors in the Harrell home were Eugene and Dianne Bell and daughters, Christi and Katy of Baird.

Sunday visitors of Sterling and Joyce Odom were Ginni and Ralph Trevey of Snyder and Nancy Palmer of Clyde.

SORORITY NOMINEE — Dora Smith, member of the local Beta Sigma Phi, was chosen chapter

Beta Sigma Phi Selects Dora Smith As 'Sweetheart'

Each year the sorority chooses a candidate to represent their chapter in the Valentine Contest. They chose Dora Smith as their "Sweetheart" and her picture was sent to International Headquarters to be judged for Valentine Queen, Valentine Sweetheart, Valentine Princess, Attendants or the Royal Court.

Each year the contest is judged by a Hollywood star. 1989 marks the 50th International Contest — many famous movie stars have been judges in the past, and this year was no different. Bob Hope, famous comedian and entertainer for many years, was the judge.

"Even though he did not choose our 'Sweetheart' for any of the above categories, we feel she is a real DIVISION C (2 Yrs. to 4 Yrs.) — Brittany Apple, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rickey Apple. Correction — last week the parent's names were incorrect.

"Sweetheart," expressed the members of Beta Sigma Phi.

Dora is the mother of two teenage sons, Terrel and Brandon, a teacher in the Cross Plains School System, sells real estate and has a storage rental business. The offices she has held in the sorority are President on two different occasions, Vice President twice, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, Extension Officer, International Coordinator on Beta Sigma Phi's 50th Birthday, and numerous Committee Chairman positions. She was a charter member when the chapter was organized in 1976, and has been an active member ever since. Dora is a very busy lady, but never too busy to lend a helping hand for the sorority or any other need.

Exercise Leads To A Healthy Heart

Exercise is one of the most effective safeguards against America's number one killer — cardiovascular disease — says The National Exercise For Life Institute. In 1986, heart disease claimed the lives of 978,500 Americans or one every 32 seconds, according to the American Heart Association.

"February — National Heart Month — is a good time to think about the health of your heart and to make some permanent changes in your lifestyle attitudes and habits," says Diane DeMarco, executive director of the Twin-Cities based Institute.

Today, 65.9 million Americans have cardiovascular disease, and the AHA estimates that more than 500,000 Americans will die from heart attacks this year.

The main cause of heart disease is atherosclerosis, a slow build up of cholesterol and fatty tissue in the arteries. Eventually, your arteries harden and narrow as the build up increases, restricting blood flow. When the arteries supplying blood to the heart muscle narrow to about two-thirds of their normal width, you may be a candidate for a heart attack.

However, the good news is that healthier lifestyles and preventive medicine can help deter cardiovascular disease. Experts say that the best way to prevent the disease is to stop smoking, lower your blood pressure, eat a proper diet (in order to reduce your blood cholesterol levels) and engage in regular aerobic exercise.

Aerobic exercise involves continuous and rhythmic physical motion that elevates your heart rate to 70 to 85 percent of its maximum capacity. Examples are brisk walking, swimming, cycling, jogging and cross-country skiing. To be effective, it generally needs to be done about half an hour, three days a week.

"The toughest part of exercising is keeping it up week after week. Many people who start a new exercise regimen don't stick with it because of boredom, lack of time, or choosing the wrong activity," explains DeMarco.

"When choosing your exercise program, select an aerobic activity you really enjoy. Then make a contract with yourself to work out regularly. Try to anticipate excuses for not exercising, and find answers to deal with them. Finally, set goals for yourself and keep a log of your progress," continues DeMarco.

DeMarco also advises that people consult with their physician before embarking on an exercise program.

Today, many people's personal exercise programs include cross-training, which combines in-home exercise equipment, such as the NordicTrack cross-country ski exercise machine, with outdoor exercises. Cross-training allows for variety in an individual's exercise program.

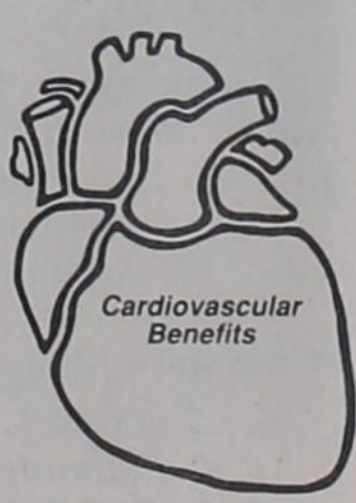

"At-home exercise equipment such as the NordicTrack is quickly gaining popularity because it duplicates the motion of cross-country skiing, which is considered by fitness experts to be the most efficient aerobic exercise," says Ed Pauls, inventor and founder of NordicTrack.

"NordicTrack builds cardiovascular fitness by quickly elevating your heart rate to the fitness-building zone. Because you're exercising your major muscles at separate resistance settings, you're able to maintain the most effective fitness-building heart rate without placing undue strain on any one muscle group," explains Pauls.

The purpose of The National Exercise For Life Institute is to collect and disseminate information about the many benefits of regular aerobic exercise, in order to convince more Americans to start and maintain a program of regular aerobic exercise.

For more information on the benefits of regular aerobic exercise, call The National Exercise For Life Institute at 612/448-3094.

Fruit, Nut Trees Need Winter Care

Despite the fact that winter is normally considered a "slow" season for most folks, there are some important practices for fruit and nut growers to follow.

One thing that's important this year is irrigation because of the continued warm, dry weather, said Greg Gerngross, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The combination of drought and warm weather is setting up the possibility for serious freeze injury if a severe cold front suddenly hits.

Roots of dormant plants remain slightly active throughout the winter, and drought stress of these roots can make any plant more vulnerable to freeze injury. So, give trees, shrubs, and lawns a soaking irrigation now to condition them for the remainder of winter. If the drought continues, water again in about a month.

Pruning is another practice that needs attention, said Gerngross. February or March is the best time to do winter pruning of fruit and nut trees. Earlier pruning is all right, but as with drought, pruning stresses the tree, and any form of stress makes a plant more vulnerable to freeze injury.

Applying dormant oil to fruit and nut trees is also important, Gerngross said. Spray trees with dormant oil anytime when the temperature is between 50 and 80 degrees F. Oil must be applied before trees begin to bloom or leaf out since dormant oil can damage tender tissue.

Spray dormant oil at a rate of 2 gallons oil per 100 gallons of water or 3 ounces oil per gallon of water. The oil kills scale insects by suffocating them, so good spray coverage is a must, said Gerngross. If an air sprayer is used, it should be set to deliver at least 100 gallons of spray per acre.

Dormant oil will work more effectively if an insecticide is added to the tank. Lorsban 4E at 1 pint per gallon is a good dormant oil additive for orchards, or dursban or diazinon at 1 teaspoon per gallon can be added for garden and yard tree sprays.

Three Seconds to Save a Life

Take a moment to think...how much time does it take to buckle your seatbelt? Now compare that to the years often spent rehabilitating head-injured individuals who must struggle to regain the skills they've lost in an automobile accident. Skills such as brushing their teeth and feeding themselves, skills you and I simply take for granted.

"Buckle up" becomes almost cliché," says Dr. Alton Hodges, Regional Director for New Mexico Head Injury System. "But the few seconds it takes to buckle up is such a small price to pay. Everyday I see the struggle a person must go through in order to regain skills they've lost; I see them trying to piece their lives back together after a serious car accident. It could have been prevented."

Most of us know that every day, hundreds of deaths occur in automobile accidents; thousands of people are seriously disabled as a result of unsafe car design, careless drivers and improper use of child safety seats. But do we ever take the time to think that we can prevent these numbers from growing? Most people don't realize the high risk they take when they sit behind the wheel of a car and don't know the facts.

According to the National Head Injury Foundation, approximately 250,000 people will sustain a severe head injury in car accidents this year, 70-90,000 persons will lapse into coma and more than 140,000 Americans will die as a result of head injury.

ies. Now, isn't it worth your time to think?

Before you operate a motor vehicle, follow these preventative tips:

- Insist that everyone in your automobile wears their seatbelt.
- Carefully read the instructions on your child's car safety seat — some seats are designed only for backseat transportation.
- Know the laws in your area — each state differs in the use of seatbelts and the fines for those who don't obey the law.
- More accidents occur when speeding is involved; drive the posted speed limit.
- Demonstrate good driving skills when operating your automobile — remember, someday your children will be behind the wheel and they will imitate your driving habits.
- Use caution and common sense whenever you operate or are a passenger in a motor vehicle: wear your seatbelt. Make the roads a safe place.

The professionals at the New Mexico Head Injury System urge you to use these car safety tips. They are available to provide you with more information on head injury and head injury rehabilitation, if you call the New Mexico Head Injury System at 1-800-CARE TBI ext. 3071. Think twice and buckle up...it only takes 3 seconds.

Texas Sub Vets Convention Slated April 14-15

State Commander of the U.S. Submarine Veterans of World War II, James A. Woodall, announced today from State Headquarters in Galveston that The Texas Sub Vets Annual State Convention will be held in Ennis April 14 and 15 of 1989.

The Texas Chapter of the U.S. Submarine Veterans of World War II is trying to locate all submarine veterans who served on U.S. Submarines or in submarine relief crews during World War II between December 7, 1941, and December 31, 1946. All Submarine Veterans and their families are invited. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Submarine Veterans is requested to notify them of this reunion of shipmates.

The meetings will be at the Ennis Inn, commencing with registration on Friday, April 14, followed by the business meeting Saturday morning, April 15, sightseeing tours Saturday afternoon, and a banquet Saturday night. A memorial service will be held at noon on Saturday at The Veterans Monument.

During World War II, there were 3,502 officers and men lost on the 52 U.S. submarines that went down. The U.S. Submarine Veterans of WW II still pay tribute and honor these men and their boats. The Sub Vets award 52 college scholarships each year to dependent children of their members.

For further information, inquiries should be directed to Claude Boucher, Rt. 3, Box 96D, Kemp, Texas 75143, or phone (214) 432-4073.
