A History Of The Paint And Palette Art Club

EDITOR'S NOTE: Ozella Huddleston is featured this week as a guest writer.

By OZELLA HUDDLESTON

The Cross Plains Paint and Palette's first art show was held in November 1974. Only two local people had ever attended a show.

Four people had started painting with me the year before. Five others had painted, some for years, some only a year or so.

In the spring I attended an art show in Ballinger and came home talking about it. Someone asked, "Why can't we have one?"

We knew we had to have a building. Noah Johnson let us use an empty building where Cross Plains Auto Supply is now located.

Everyone was invited, so nine local painters worked and planned to put the show together. Not one of us had experience, so it was all trial and error — mostly error.

We have had cooperation from our local newspaper from the beginning, and it was our only means of advertising that first year.

In the beginning there was no club, no money, no ribbons, no pegboards, and surely not much sense or we wouldn't have tried it. I wouldn't be so brave today.

We knew we had to have a judge and Gladys Garrett secured one from the faculty of Howard Payne.

Some of us got yards of ribbon. Bob Golson brought his eyelet punch and we made our show ribbons.

Ready or not, show time arrived. We entered the building and the first question I heard: "Where do we put all these paintings?" There were many more questions: Too bad no one had the answers.

Pictures were propped on benches, on tables, on planks and around the walls. Most people entered the only pictures they had painted.

We charged a dollar a painting and from this we paid the judge $25.

When time came for him to appear, a young Japanese walked through the door, breathed a sigh of relief, and said, "Whew, what a relief! Not a windmill in sight."

It seems he had judged a show a few weeks earlier and nearly every painting had a windmill.

It's always a thrilling experience to win a ribbon, but especially so when it's your first show and first ribbon. Believe me, we had a lot of excitement that day.

From our "remembering" we had 15 participants, 3 from Bronte, 1 from Winters, and the others were local. We had about 55 paintings, and there was even one that sold.

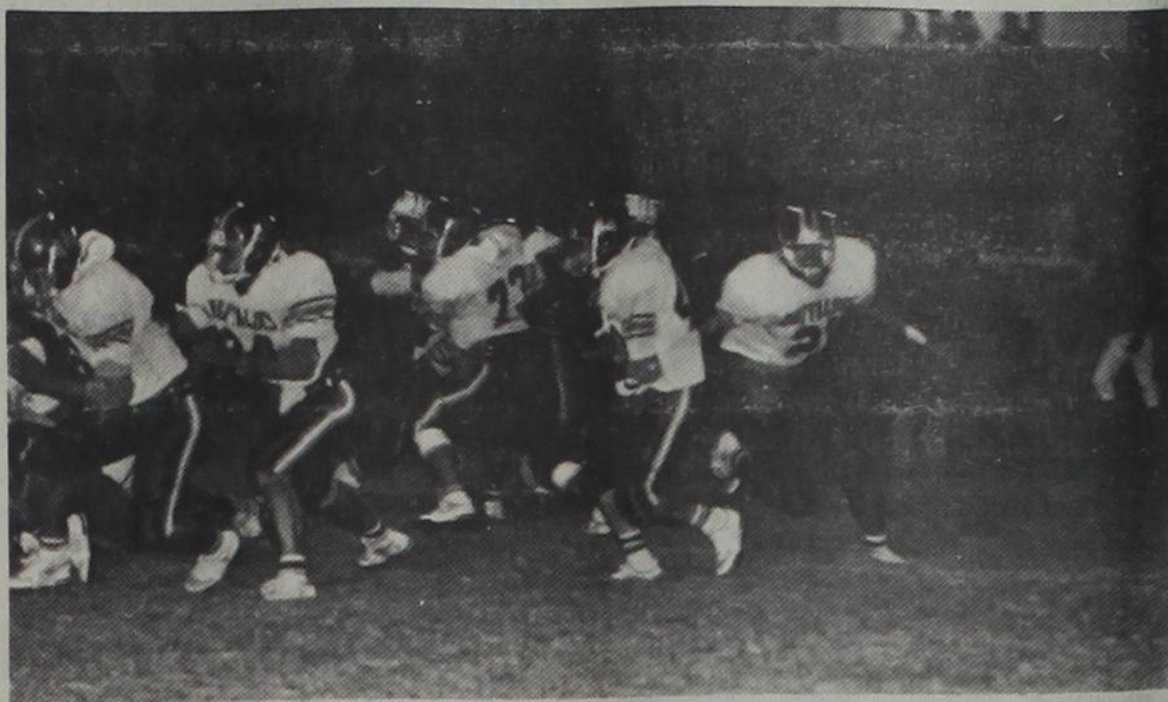

From this beginning we organized a club with nine members, officers and dues. Of these nine 3 have been active members for the entire 15 years, which include Betty Beggs, Lois Vaughn, and myself.

The next year we used the Multi-Purpose Center. Bob Golson donated pegboards, we bought some and added hooks. The boards, unframed, hung from the rafters with bailing wire. We used this Center, with the exception of one year when we met in the school cafeteria, until we moved to the Cross Plains Community Center 5 years ago.

A year or two later Bob Pierson and Arnold Henson framed the pegboards and made removable feet.

Then we added cash prizes. We are especially pleased that our local merchants have supported us, and contribute prizes year after year.

Bufs Challenge Menard In District Playoffs Friday

By VANDA KING
Editor

A record size crowd was on hand to support the Buffaloes in the Wildcat game last Friday night. Anticipation filled the air as hopes for victory over a longtime rivalry prevailed.

The 21-0 win by the Rising Star team was preceded by a series of upsets for the Buffaloes. The loss of the quarterback, Deron Duffey, in the first quarter was traumatic. Duffey suffered two broken bones in his left wrist. "When you lose your starting quarterback in Class A football, it's tough on you," Coach Permenter stated, "The only plays we really felt comfortable running were dives and sweeps."

Terrill Smith made the best of the situation as he took over the quarterback position under a terrific amount of pressure.

Neither team showed much offensive gains in their first half. Mistakes and the large number of penalty flags stalled the efforts.

The flags, 22 in all for 160 yards, wiped out a Cross Plains touchdown early in the first quarter.

The loss of a second starting player, James Ames, due to a shoulder dislocation added to the troubles.

TOUR OF HOMES — The home of Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Scott on 14th Street will be featured in this year's Beta Sigma Phi tour.

Annual Tour Of Homes Upcoming December 4

The Annual Tour of Homes, sponsored by the local Alpha Rho Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, will be held on Sunday afternoon, December 4.

This lovely home, belonging to Elvis and LaVerna Scott, located at 350 East 14th Street, will be featured in this year's Annual Tour of Homes.

It was built in 1927-28 by Fred Cutbirth, near the school so that his daughter, now Rosalea Bonner, could easily get to school. In 1941 it was sold to Fred Tunnell, a local banker, then school superintendent, Paul Whitton, purchased it. In 1965 the present owners, the Scotts, purchased it from Mr. Whitton.

Many unique features of the house are original. The front entrance features custom-made double arch doors, as well as the arched doors from the living room to the formal dining room. All doorknobs are the original glass-type.

In the den there are two double doors in one wall that open and let down into two beds. There are 28 windows and 4 outside doors, which was common in the era in which it was

Local Art Club Presents 15th Successful Show

The Paint and Palette Club held their annual two-day show over the weekend. They celebrated their 15th anniversary with 176 paintings in competition and on exhibit.

Claudia Stubblefield served as judge for the art show. A native of Brown County, she works in pastels, oils, and acrylics.

She received her art education at Howard Payne University, under the direction of Maurine Stewart, Ann Abdias, and Carole Sudderth Pyburn. Her studies there included pastel and oil painting with special emphasis on life drawing, composition, and design. In addition to extensive home study, she has completed workshops under such outstanding teachers as Ben Konis of Amarillo; Albert Handell of Woodstock, New York and Santa Fe, New Mexico; Bob Gerbracht of San Jose, California; William Henry Earle of Connecticut; Dick Turner of Houston; and George Carlson at Scottsdale School of Art.

Although she does landscapes and still lifes, her primary interest has always been in the field of portraits and figure drawing. Using live models, she has painted with a weekly study group since its inception eight years ago. Among her commissioned works is a portrait of U.S. Senator Phil Gramm.

Stubblefield has been competing in art shows for the last decade and has won many awards, including the Citation award from the Texas Fine Arts Association. For the last three years her work has been selected in a juried show for exhibition in the gallery of the Ryan Fine Arts Center of McMurry College in Abilene. She has also exhibited in juried shows at D'Art in Dallas.

She has served as juror of art shows and given demonstrations for art associations and public schools. As an active member of the Brownwood Art Association, she is also a member of the Texas Fine Arts Association and the Pastel Society of the Southwest.

A large crowd was on hand Sunday afternoon for the award presentation. Wanda Merryman, club president, started the program with the drawing of names for the door prizes. Kathy Andrews won a hand-painted China plate painted and donated by Exa Williams. Linda Edington won an oil painting painted and donated by Lois Vaughn.

Ozella Huddleston gave a brief history of the art club and an insight into some of the accomplishments and trials along the way. She also honored the ladies from the Colonial Oaks Nursing Home by announcing each winner's name and age. Their colorings were on display at the show also.

Cora Howland was recognized for her talents and ability. A tribute was made to her great attitude and continued creativity at the age of 98 years. One of her paintings, which received an Honorable Mention ribbon in the show, was displayed so all could see her accomplishments.

Merryman then announced all cash winners and presented them formally.

The following list represents the results of the show:

Best of Show — Virgil Roberts-Winters, prize $85, donated by Citizens State Bank-Cross Plains.

Best of Professional — Sarah Dudley-Comanche, prize $75, donated by First State Bank-Rising Star.

Saving Bonds Semiannual Rate Set At 7.35 Percent

The semiannual market-based interest rate for United States Savings Bonds, in effect from November 1988 through April 30, 1989, has been set at 7.35 percent, the Treasury Department announced today.

Jerrold B. Speers, Executive Director of the U.S. Savings Bonds Division, called the new rate "a boost for the program and for Bond buyers that should result in steadily increasing sales well into next year. This rate is both consistent with current market conditions and fully competitive with other savings and investment instruments."

Savings Bonds semiannual rates are changed each May 1 and November 1 to reflect market activity during the preceding six months. Since November 1982, the beginning of the market-based rate program, Fiscal Year sales have more than doubled from $3.11 billion in FY 82 to $7.26 billion in FY 88. The total value of outstanding Bonds now exceeds $107 billion.

The new rate represents an increase from the 6.90 percent rate in effect for the six months just ended and is 85 percent of the average market yield on five-year Treasury marketable securities between May 1 and October 31, 1988.

Bonds must be held five years or longer to receive market-based rates. Series E Bonds, Savings Notes, and Series EE Bonds issued through April 30, 1984, are now receiving market-based yields retroactive to issue date or their first interest-accrual date on or after November 1, 1982, whichever is later. The yield of Bonds held since the beginning of the market-based interest program is 8.50 percent.

Yields at redemption are the average of semiannual market-based rates during the time held, rounded to the nearest quarter percent and compounded semiannually, or a minimum rate — whichever is greater. The current minimum rate is six percent. EE Bonds held less than five years earn interest on a fixed, graduated scale.

'Learn About...' Program Is Underway At Local Library

The "Learn About..." Program at the Cross Plains Public Library got off to a great start last Wednesday with 33 pre-school children enrolled. Volunteer helpers had been making plans during the summer and had met for specific assignments, so that everything was ready to go.

After saying the "Pledge of Allegiance," the children went into two groups: the "Daisies" with Connie Swift and Barbara Barnett to "Learn About Colors" and the "Greenbeans" with Bettye Greenwood and Kathy Chessir to "Learn About Cooperation." Melanie Chessir told the story, "The Ant and the Grasshopper" to the latter group and then they saw the film. Both groups checked out books and were served cookies.

The "Daisies" will continue with colors, shapes, and with eye-hand coordination and body coordination for the next two months. The "Greenbeans" will be involved in activities that stress positive self-concepts.

The "Greenbeans" are the children who are kindergarten-bound next fall and who have been in the program previously. The "Daisies" are the children bound for kindergarten in 1990 and all the children who have not been in the program previously. In February all children who will go to kindergarten in 1989 will enter the "Greenbeans" class. At that time children who will be 4 by September 1, 1989, may enter the program, but may enroll at any time now.

In addition to the teachers, others involved in the activities of the program are Netha Carouth, Lynette Gomillion, Cathy Permenter, Linda Reed, Carol Rogers, Beverly Ross, Susan Sharpe, Juanita Shaw, and Phyllis Taylor. Parents of the children provide cookies for the program.

From time to time the children will have displays in the library windows. Look for them!

The Art Club was the first to use the new Community Center. When we found we could have this beautiful facility, we decided the time had come to improve again.

The show had grown over the years and we needed 4 more pegboards. Four ladies in the club built the new pegboards and were truly proud of their creations. The next step was to paint them all to match. A copperhead found in the barn where they were stored caused a slight delay, a much needed pause for laughter as ladies scattered.

In an effort to have everything look great, the ribbons were colored by Vanda King and Yvonne Key. Bill Halwell with Abilene Athletic Supply tells us the Art Club's ribbons are the only ones from this area ever chosen to be illustrated in the display book.

Linda Strickland made new signs for each division that matched the ribbons.

We added door prizes, which are donated by local artists, and a presentation program was introduced.

Later our club brought display easels to exhibit top cash winners.

Judges have always been complimentary about our show and the quality of area talent.

The local art show has been noted as one of the top rated in the state. Cash prizes alone place it high on the scale and the quality of art in competition has always been exceptional.

We are thankful for our lengthy existence and hope that others will join us in our efforts to keep the show going and growing each year.

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

The sunrise this morning was gorgeous! I'm glad I arose in time to see it. And I am truly in a rush this morning — the A.A.R.P. meets at 11 — I must prepare some food for the luncheon.

This is the last time I'll mention my birthday (until next year). A sweet cousin called me from Breckenridge on Monday. I received nine telephone calls between 7 a.m. and 2 p.m. — three visitors out here — and a big stack of lovely cards — on Tuesday. I'm deeply grateful!

Ora and Arlie Lee Breeding visited briefly on Sunday afternoon. I appreciate their visit.

My sister, Bernice Carter, is improving daily (since her knee surgery.) She has therapy only once each week now. She drove her car last week, for the first time in months — she felt like "a bird with new wings" — bless her heart!

Nell and Joe Fleming were well and cheerful when I called (early) this morning. Their visitors during the weekend were a granddaughter, Mrs. Preston Wiley, and two grandchildren, Gregg and Heather and Alecia Atchley of Pampa.

David and Sara McGowen attended the ball game on Friday evening. On Sunday a nephew and niece, Chad Bagley and Shana of Cross Cut, visited them and they all had dinner in Rising Star.

Jean Fore, Bessie McDaniel, and Lou Wilson visited in Marble Falls with Vi Harlow last Tuesday and Wednesday. They attended a style show and luncheon on Tuesday at Horseshoe Bay. Bessie returned to her home in San Antonio, following a three weeks visit with Jean.

I talked to Bobby Roady about 8:30, and Sally had already gone to Abilene. Her father, Howard Hicks, entered Humana Hospital on Thursday. Her brother, A.L. Hicks, had open-heart surgery on Saturday. He is reported to be doing "better than average" — and that's good news.

Sherryl and David Goble (next door) spent the weekend at Cottonwood with his parents, Cecil and Delilah. They had a great time. The men went hunting. Clayton Goble killed a buck.

Ms. Jewel Foster was rushing around, getting ready to go to the A.A.R.P. meeting at 11 this morning. I hope to make that meeting also. She reported on the Harvest Supper at the Pioneer Club House on Thursday of last week. There was a good attendance. Several visitors came from other clubs.

I always enjoy reading about Mary Scott Nabors — and seeing her on T.V. — for one reason, she is the daughter of our friends, Jack and Juakana Scott of this city.

I also thoroughly enjoy reading Jack Boyd's "Cedar Gap Chronicles" — I adore him — I believe he is in Saturday's paper only.

Does anyone out there want the huge stacks of newspapers I have now collected?? Please call me.

Betty Beggs visited the A.A.R.P. bizarre at Eastland Wednesday. Saturday afternoon Charles McHan, an old friend from Dallas, visited Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Beggs. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Dick Smith of Fort Worth stopped by. Betty helped with the art show exhibit in Cross Plains over the weekend.

50 YEARS TOGETHER — Blanton and Lillie Childers will be celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Childers Celebrates Golden Anniversary

Blanton and Lillie Childers will be honored with a reception celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, November 13, at the Cottonwood Community Center from 2-4 p.m.

Harry Childers of Cross Plains, Aubrey and Virginia Childers of Abilene, R.D. and Sharon Childers of Cisco, and Arnold and Nancy Childers of Brownwood will be hosting the occasion.

Blanton was born in Eastland County on June 11, 1912 and Lillie was born in Cottonwood, Callahan County, on June 23, 1917.

The couple met in Cottonwood and were married on November 14, 1938 in Cottonwood. They have lived at Burnt Branch, Admiral, Baird, Putnam, and Cottonwood most of their marriage.

Blanton is a retired farmer and dozer operator and Lillie is a housewife. They are members of the Cottonwood Church of Christ.

They have four sons, six grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend the reception and share this special time with the couple.

Local ASCS Change Office Hours

The Callahan County ASCS Office will begin closing on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons starting on November 15 and 17 respectively, announced Scott Odom, County Executive Director.

The office will be closed to the public on each Tuesday and Thursday from 12 noon to 5 p.m. The employees will be working during this time on various farm program payments. This action is necessary due to heavy workload currently in computing payments, stated Mr. Odom. Odom explained that the office would be open to the public as follows: Monday, Wednesday, Friday — 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

STATE QUALIFIER — Tonya Steele finished 5th in the Regional Meet of the Cross Country Runners at Arlington. An outstanding time of 12:46 qualified her for State competition. Tonya is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Steele of Rowden.

State Qualifier Named At Regional Cross Country Meet

By COACH TERRY TAYLOR

The Cross Plains Boys and Girls Cross Country Teams competed this past weekend in Arlington at the Region II-A meet. The results were some outstanding times and one athlete qualifying for the State Meet in Georgetown this next weekend.

Tonya Steele was the lone State qualifier as she finished 5th with an outstanding 12:46 over the two-mile course. She finished only 11 seconds behind the defending State Champion's time from last year. There were 100 girls in Tonya's race.

The rest of the girls finished with great improvement in their times and finished 5th out of 12 teams entered. They missed getting to go to State by just 8 points. Team members are Tonya Steele, K-Trina Meador, Stephanie Walker, Nicky Barron, Melissa Montgomery, Brenda Franke, and Pam Helms.

The boys team competed very well, but ran up against some outstanding teams from the region. The boys team finished 10th out of 14 entered. The top finishers were Scott Crockett at 33rd and Chuck Letney at 34th. There were just over 100 boys competing in the race. Other team members are Danny Barnett, Chris Strength, Daniel Crockett, Warren Parson, and John Herridage.

LAKWOOD NEWS

By LENNY AND PAUL PROVINCE

We felt that we would like to share a few of the many hilarious moments of our memorable Halloween Tournament. We want to thank everyone who came, and want you to know how proud we are to be a part of a group of such good sports.

We especially want to thank Fumiko Vicars for serving food to everyone. Her help is greatly appreciated.

This is just the beginning. We plan to have many more "Fun Tournaments."

Local WTU Employees Honored

Over 100 employees of West Texas Utilities Co. were honored recently for service to WTU and its customers. The employees, who work in the general office, Abilene District, engineering and Ft. Phantom power station, were officially recognized for their accomplishments in service and safe operations at the company's annual service and safety awards dinner.

The Abilene area award recipients have amassed a total of 1310 years of service to the customers of WTU. In addition they have a total of 360 years of safe operations.

Glen Churchill, president and chief executive of the electric utility, made the presentations to the honorees.

Cross Plains employees honored were Melissa Richards, bookkeeper/cashier, 5 years service; David Tharp, serviceman trainee, 5 years service and safety; and Larry Cheshier, local manager, 15 years service.

Ladies Auxiliary Cookbooks On Sale

The Ladies Auxiliary met November 1 at Lucille Koenig's home. Friendship muffins and tea were served before the business meeting.

The officers for this year are Lucille Koenig, president; Vondean Hutchins, vice-president; Lurene McNutt, secretary/treasurer; and Carolyn Wilson, reporter/photographer.

Plans were discussed to have a supper for the firemen and their families.

Reports on the progress of the sales of the Ladies Auxiliary Cookbooks were given. Since they still have approximately half of the books left, the Auxiliary would like to ask everyone to remember them when they are looking for that special gift for someone. If you wish to purchase a cookbook, contact one of the Ladies Auxiliary members.

The Ladies Auxiliary is presently recruiting members for the Auxiliary, and they would like to remind anyone interested that your husband does not have to be a fireman to join.

ROWDEN NEWS

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

Hunters were out bright and early Saturday morning for the opening of deer and turkey hunting season. One rifle shot was heard not far from the Gibbs place. Maybe the hunted were wise and did not appear on this first morning.

Early last Monday morning a noisy cloud brought rain to this area. Most gauges measured an inch and one half of much needed moisture. This will benefit the small grain and help the dried out fields to come up.

Dorothy Reynolds visited a friend, Annette Joye of Clyde, who is a patient at Humana Hospital in Abilene. She also was in Cross Plains Tuesday where she visited Troy and Sue Stone.

Julie Patterson of Copperas Cove is visiting her parents, Bob and Kathy Dye, while her husband, Bryan Patterson, was out on field duty with his unit.

Roland Mauldin of Denton Valley and his son, Kenneth Mauldin of Abilene, drove Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin to Dallas Friday for Gene's appointment with his doctor. The group stopped off in Weatherford to see the latest member of their family.

A daughter, named Laura Renee, was born to Bob and Melinda Mananger last Monday. The baby's grandparents, Irene and Willie Masters of Snyder, are now proud grandparents again. Irene spent the week in the Manager home. Congratulations to all of Laura's family. Laura is also a great-granddaughter of Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin.

This writer was in Abilene Thursday where she visited a friend, Lila Webb of Cross Plains, a patient at Hendrick Hospital. Lila is now residing in the Rising Star nursing home. She has been in the hospital three weeks. We hope she will be regaining her strength soon.

Sunday visitors of Sterling and Joyce Odom were Charles and Nancy Palmer and son, Michael of Clyde.

Brock Watson of Duncan, Oklahoma and Kyle Watson of Texas Tech were home last weekend. The Watson family was in Baird Friday night for the last district game of Baird and Rotan. They came out winners. They also attended the Thursday night games with Rotan with Wyatt and Cody on the teams.

Carroll Burks of Abilene was out to hunt on the Burks homeplace Saturday. Emma Johnson's son, Webb R. Johnson, came by to see her during the week. He had completed work in Georgia and now has a job in El Paso closer to his family in Cabolla, New Mexico. Ricky Kelly of Cross Plains also visited the home.

Nikki Barron and Tonya Steele were among the Cross Plains students entered in the Regional competition in Cross Country racing in Arlington Saturday. The group had not returned home at this writing.

Field workers this week were John D. Montgomery who was plowing up his peanut crop on the Moon place, and across from the Gibbs place, Don Harris was sowing their coastal grass field.

CTO Distributes Commodities November 17

District VIII Gardeners Convene

The District VIII Fall Convention of Texas Garden Clubs was held in Coleman, November 5. The hostess clubs were Ballinger Civic Garden Club, Coleman Town and Country Garden Club, and Cross Plains Garden Club.

Mrs. C.K. Brown of Amarillo, who is state President of Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. was the honored guest.

The convention theme, "Happy Holidays," was carried out in decorations throughout the First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall where the meeting was held.

Program for the day was brought by floral designer, Jan Meissner of Las Cruces, New Mexico.

A new slate of officers to serve District VIII for 1989-1991 was elected. They will be installed at the spring meeting in Abilene. Julene Franke will be the District Treasurer.

Present for the meeting from the Cross Plains club were Virginia Callaway, Julene Franke, Lena Gage, Claribel Gibbs, Maurine McCuin, Lucille Payne, Marie Stambaugh, Helen Tillotson, Dorothy Webb, and Exa Williams.

THEN AND NOW!

Do you know a mouthful about the history of dentistry? Here are a few facts you might want to chew over.

Then: The first gold dental bridges are older than Greek dental texts written in the 400s and 500s B.C. During the Middle Ages, barbers served as dentists. Jewelers made dentures. It was not until 1840 that the first dental school was organized in Baltimore. In the 1950s, dentists discovered how important fluoride is in preventing tooth decay.

Now: The first fluoride gel toothpaste—Aim, introduced in 1972—now offers the highest fluoride toothpaste on the market. Clinical tests show that great-tasting, Extra-Strength Aim Paste and Gel offer increased cavity protection—and that's especially important for youngsters. These and the other Aim toothpastes are recommended for use in conjunction with the clinically proven, Aim Anti-Plaque toothbrush. Advances in dental-care like these certainly seem something to smile about.

PUBLIC NOTICE TO DAL-MAR ENERGY GAS CO. CUSTOMERS

Due to misinformation received when Dal-Mar went into business in 1982, we did not collect any sales tax on the sale of natural gas to its customers.

Dal-Mar was audited in May, 1988 by the State Comptroller's office in Austin, TX and was informed at that time that we should have been collecting city sales tax from residential customers and city and state sales taxes from commercial customers.

This notice is to inform its customers that they will be receiving a statement of taxes owed from April 1984 to April 1988.

Dal-Mar has been collecting sales tax since May 1988.

The following is a section of the tax laws furnished by the State Comptroller's office to Dal-Mar.

Sec. 151.052. Collection by Retailer.

(a) A seller who makes a sale subject to the sales tax imposed by this chapter shall add the amount of the tax to the sales price, and when the amount of the tax is added:

1. it becomes a part of the sales price;
2. it is a debt of the purchaser to the seller until paid; and
3. if unpaid, it is recoverable at law in the same manner as the original sales price.

If you have any questions as to Dal-Mar's responsibilities and rights to collect these back sales taxes, you may contact:

COMPTROLLER OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS
Abilene Audit Office
Richard Clardy
(915) 695-6715 or the toll free number in Austin, 1-800-252-5555.

The City Council of Cross Plains had the option to waive the one percent (1%) city sales tax, but they chose not to, therefore, we must collect it.

We apologize for the mistake and the inconvenience it may cause.

WTU Puts Lower Winter Rates Into Effect

Customers of West Texas Utilities Co. will see approximately a 12.5 percent drop in their rates beginning this month (November). The reduction is the result of using the lower winter rates, which will be in effect six months. Using higher summer and lower winter rates is part of the State's plan to encourage energy conservation during the summer when air conditioning creates the peak demand on electricity use.

According to WTU local manager Larry Cheshier, "a residential customer using 476 kilowatt hours of electricity a month, the average for November 1987, will see his bill go from $43.53 to $38.02." Other customer groups will see similar reductions, Cheshier said. Since mild fall weather has reduced many customers' cooling and heating use, the actual decrease in the electric bill from September when average use was 906 KWH to November will probably be around 50 percent. That decrease includes the combined impact of lower winter rates and lower use resulting from mild weather. The actual size of a customer's bill is determined by their use.

According to the local manager, the electric company is still waiting for final approval from the Public Utility Commission regarding a request to change the fuel portion of the bill. Fuel is used at power plants to make electricity.

Although the average cost of fuel on the company's many fuel contracts has not changed significantly, WTU faces a December expiration of a very low cost 20-year gas contract at one of its nine power stations. That was for gas at pre-oil embargo prices of 22 cents per mmbtu and has saved customers $350 million. It must be replaced with gas at today's prices which are almost $2 per mmbtu.

Paying for this replacement gas will mean customers using 476 kilowatt hours of electricity will see an increase of approximately $2.95 on the January bill if the PUC completes its review and approval process by then.

The local manager added that since 1985 WTU has lowered the fuel portion of the bill — called the fuel factor — five times, and had six refunds totaling almost $50 million as the result of other fuel contract changes.

COTTONWOOD NEWS

By BEVERLY BROWN

Congratulations, Lillie and Blanton, on your fiftieth wedding anniversary. The Childers were married on November 14 in 1938.

A 50th wedding anniversary reception honoring the couple will be hosted by their sons and daughters-in-law, Harry Childers of Cross Plains; Aubrey and Virginia Childers of Abilene; R.D. And Sharon Childers of Cisco; and Arnold and Nancy Childers of Brownwood on Sunday, November 13, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Cottonwood Community Center.

They have six grandchildren, Cassie Childers Adams and Rusty Childers of Farmington, New Mexico; Dena Kaye Childers of San Angelo State University, San Angelo; Todd and Shane Childers of Cisco; and Kane Childers of Brownwood; and three great-grandchildren, Matthew Adams and Rusty Jr. and Nicole Childers, all of Farmington, New Mexico.

Clean up and work day for the grounds at the Cottonwood Community Center will be Saturday, November 12, starting at 8:30 a.m. Residents of the community are asked to bring shovels, hoes, rakes, axes, hatchets, and related garden tools to help. Your help will be appreciated in this community project.

Would you like a change of pace going out to eat and be close to home? Mark your calendar and make your plans to attend the Cottonwood Quilting Club's annual turkey supper to be held on Friday, November 18, at the local Center. Preparations are underway for the big event.

Proceeds from the dinner will benefit the quilting organization for purchasing things needing to be done at the Center. Presently, the ladies are working to acquire an electric stove for the kitchen. The stove will benefit other local organizations, functions, and family reunions activities held here.

If you would like to donate items to help with the turkey supper, please call Ethel Champion 725-6536, Dena Nickerson 725-6377 or Beverly Brown 725-7369 for further details. A partial list of the following will be helpful: cranberry sauce, corn bread for the dressing, onions, canned milk, and margarine.

Mr. and Mrs. John Purvis left here on October 21 traveling to Houston to see and visit with their new grandson, Matthew Richard Prall, his mother and father, Betty and Richard, and grandson, Ethan. Matthew was born on October 17, weighing in at seven and a half pounds and measuring 18" in length.

On October 24, John and Janet went to Austin and spent the night with their daughter, Peggy Purvis. They flew to Washington, D.C. on October 25 to visit with their daughter, Kathy, who is residing and employed at the state capitol.

Kathy took her parents on a grand tour of the historical city and Virginia. A few of the highlights of the trip were the Washington Cathedral on the hills, Arlington National Cemetery, the Eternal Flame and surrounding area, Lincoln Memorial, Vietnam Memorial, Iwo Jima Statue Monument, Washington Monument, the warehouse where six million dollars was being engraved, and the Smithsonian Institute to name a few. They returned home to Cottonwood on November 1 and reported their trip was great and it's good to be home.

Over the weekend, Patricia and W.F. Moore had their son, Jimmy and wife, Mary Moore, and sons, Jason and Michael of Caddo Mills, and their friends, Brad and wife, Debbie Howard, and sons, Zechariah and Adam of Garland. The men were down for deer hunting during the opening season.

Mrs. Ethel Anderson went with her first cousins, Mr. Bart Frasier, of Stamford and Miss Odie Frasier, of Ranger, to visit Sea World in San Antonio on Saturday. The trio left Cottonwood on Friday morning and returned home late Sunday evening. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Kinsley in Johnson City, friends of Bart on Sunday.

Dorothy and Gilbert Newman of Frankston were at her sister's and husband, Pauline and Richard Smith, for opening of deer season over the weekend. Iva Webster of Cross Plains and Lola Barrett of Brownwood visited with their sisters on Sunday. Other family members in the Smith home on Sunday were Larry and Vickie Smith of Oplin and daughter, Lori of Tarleton State University in Stephenville and Sandra Wheeler.

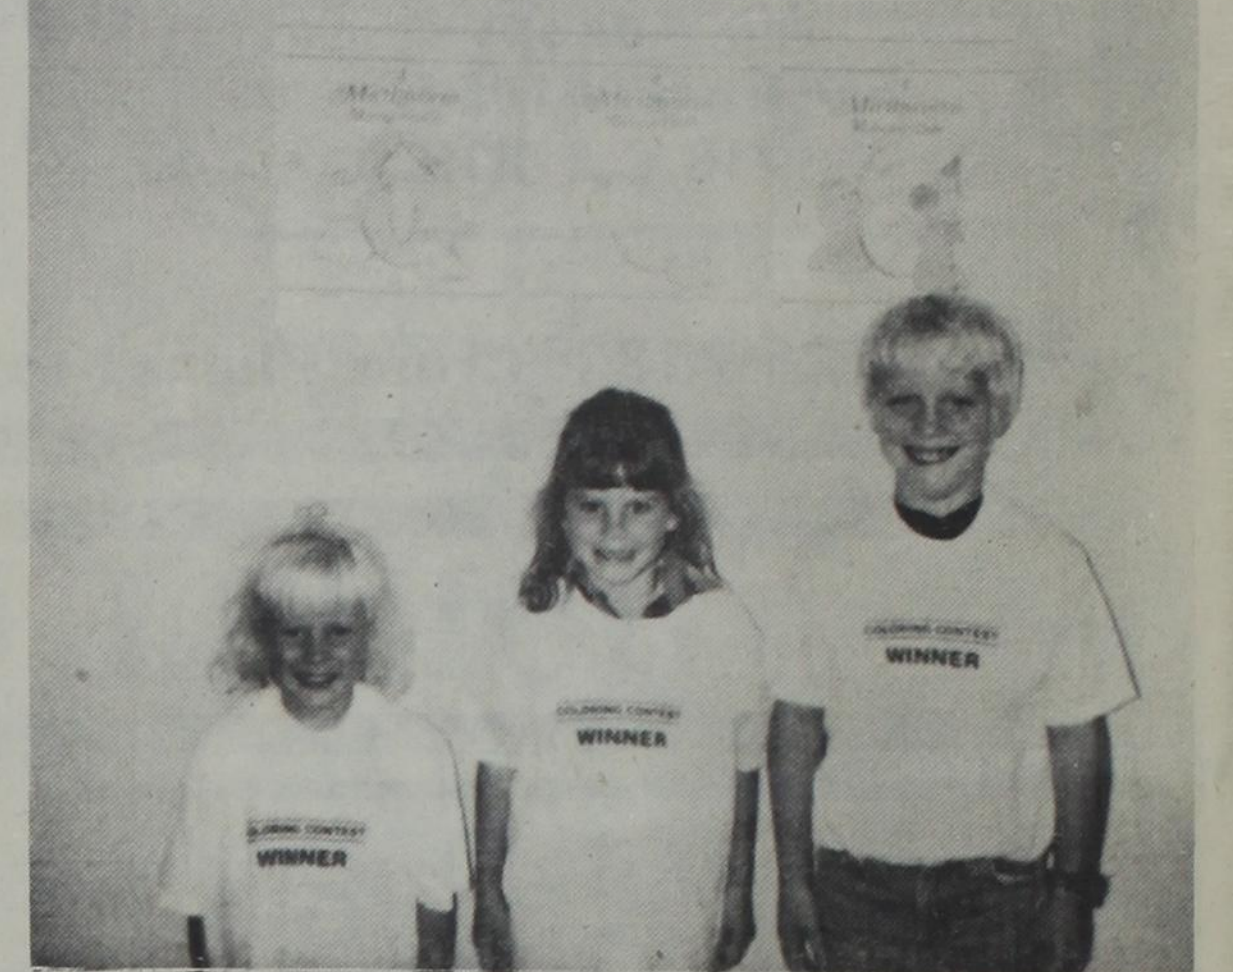

Family members and guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Childers were Mrs. Arnold Childers and her mother, Mrs. Gwyn Horton of Brownwood, Lillie's mother, Mrs. Jessie Wilcoxon and Violet Edwards of Cisco, Billie Kelly, Arnold and son, Kane Childers of Brownwood, and Aubrey Childers of Abilene during the past week.

Amie, Kellie, and Jeremy Franke of Clyde spent Friday evening and Saturday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nickerson Sr.

Opening day of deer season reports were a lot of shots and misses, and three bucks were killed with one having a 15-point rack in the area. Saturday morning was a great day for hunting, no wind blowing and the stillness was a sound to behold. One could hear the acorns falling and all kinds of God's creations in the bird and the wild animal category.

Reverend Glen Purvis of Cross Plains filled the pulpit in the absence of Reverend Knox Waggoner in the Sunday morning and evening services on November 6.

OLNEY SAVINGS GRAND PRIZE WINNERS — Children who won the latest coloring contest were Angela Swift, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Swift; Brandi Richey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richey; and Jeremy Pancake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Pancake.

Olney Savings completed the second series of television cartoons and coloring contests. All contestants received a ribbon and a certificate.

In the 2-year-old to kindergarten division, the winner was Angela Swift; Brandi Richey — first grade division; and Jeremy Pancake — 3rd grade division.

The grand prize winners were presented T-shirts which stated that they were winners of the coloring contest sponsored by Olney Savings. The mother of each child winning also received a T-shirt which said their child was the coloring contest winner. Delma Coppinger made the presentations while Debbie Pope assisted.

One more contest and cartoon is scheduled. In December there will be a Christmas presentation.

Olney Savings encourages local children to enter the upcoming contests and watch for the next cartoon.

NEWS OF CHILDREN

Toddler house for in and out crawling.

Circular ladders spur hand-over-hand standup play.

The wise parent can encourage play that helps a child in three ways.

1. Develop the imagination. Adult creativity may begin when a child imagines something, then strives to make it happen.

2. Develop physical coordination. This is what pediatricians and other child experts call motor skills. Handholds and footholds on play equipment help the child learn to actually do what the mind thinks of doing.

3. Develop self-esteem. This can be immensely valuable as a foundation for a life of success and happiness. Look for play equipment with things to grip so a child attains the success that brings self-esteem.

Parents who want to get a good look at the shape of things to come might do well to look at some of the new playgrounds being built. A remarkable series of play equipment is now being seen in day care centers, playgrounds and backyards across the country. Scaled down for infants and toddlers, the units are designed to advance skill development of the very young through safe, imaginative physical play.

Conforming to the natural play habits and physical capacities of even prewalkers, the equipment, developed by PCA Industries Inc. of St. Louis, Missouri, features numerous easily reached "tot-scaled" handholds and footholds to support locomotion and balance. Children move with safety, security and success in environments enhancing vital grasping and manipulative abilities.

Toddler play on this new play equipment for the very young has been evaluated by personnel at the Children Development Laboratory at a major mid-West university. According to Mary McPhail Gray, Ph.D., Child and Family Researcher: "One of the most wonderful things about these units is that individual children can approach them on their own from many entry points. Even non-walkers will reach out, touch them, pull themselves into standing position, and perform movements that encourage independent motion and balance while strengthening arms and torso."

A free brochure about this first-of-a-kind family of playground equipment for children aged eight months to 10 years is available by calling toll-free 1-800-325-4794.

Weekly Health Tip

STOMACH CANCER

The dietary habits of 391 diagnosed stomach-cancer patients were compared with a control group in a Louisiana State U. study. Although both tobacco and alcohol were factors in stomach cancer — diet was the main influence for the disease. High consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables and dietary vitamin C appeared to offer protection against stomach cancer.
