Junk Phone Calls

By DON TABOR

They call them "telemarketing." I call them junk phone calls. We've all got them and there seems to be more of them all the time. Some jerk on the other end will mispronounce your name and then proclaim you've won a "free" prize. Free, my eye. There's ALWAYS a catch and you have to buy something to get this marvelous stroke of luck.

These junk phone calls are big business. The Federal Trade Commission estimates that U.S. consumers are bilked out of $1 billion a year by these fast-talk artists.

In his weekly "Consumer Alert" release, Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox recently listed some ways we can protect ourselves against these junk callers. They include:

First, find out who is calling. If you are not interested, ask the caller not to call back, and ask to be removed from their calling list.

Ask for the name, address and phone number of the company.

Be careful with an unfamiliar company. Be extra careful if their only address is a post office box.

Check the telephone directory or call directory assistance to find out if the company is listed. Often, fly-by-night businesses won't bother to be listed.

Be wary if the caller insists on an immediate purchase decision.

Ask that the offer be sent to you in writing to see if there are any conditions or restrictions that you were not told about over the telephone.

Ask if it is possible to obtain the names and phone numbers of satisfied customers in your community.

Never give your credit card or social security number over the telephone as a verification of your identity unless you initiated the call and know exactly with whom you are speaking.

But I've got a tried-and-true method of dealing with these suckers. I hang up on them. fast.

There's even a way that I can immediately identify them when they call.

Most of them have a Yankee accent, and for some reason, Yankees can't pronounce my last name.

So, when I pick up the phone and someone says "Mister Tabour", I hang up.

Commissioners Give To Baird Fire Dept.

Callahan County Commissioners, in a regular court meeting Monday, December 11, voted to donate $2,000 to the Baird Volunteer Fire Department towards the purchase of a new booster truck.

John Burns and B.P. Stephenson, representing the Baird Volunteer Fire Department, asked commissioners for financial help in the purchase of a replacement booster truck. The department currently owns a 1968 Ford, which is in disrepair and must be replaced.

The Baird fire department is looking at purchasing a booster truck that is one year old. The cost of the new booster truck is approximately $15,000. The truck would be used both in town and in fighting rural structure fires.

Other items brought before commissioner's court included:

—Met with Clint Rollins, Callahan County Soil Conservation Service official, in reference to the report from the inspection of water retention dams in Callahan County. Rollins asked the commissioners to sign for each of the dams that the commissioners had inspected during the tour. He also said that the repairs had begun on the retention dam located on the Lamb ranch.

—Voted to set rules concerning all pipelines crossing county roads or running on the county's right-of-way. Commissioners approved the following fees on pipelines running through the county: $800 for each pipeline that crosses a county road ($300 for crossing and $500 in escrow.) The $500 in escrow would be returned within 30 days if the road is repaired to the county's satisfaction. Any new or existing pipelines that are laid in the road right-of-way must be buried or moved within 30 days of placement of the amendment. Any pipelines that are placed above ground temporarily for the 30 day allotted time must be clearly visible. If not buried or moved after the 30 day period, an extension must be requested.

—Voted to approve the bonds for employees of the Callahan County Nutrition Project. The employees include Jane Wheeler, Robert Harrell and Adell Jones.

—County Judge Mack Kniffen and commissioners Roy LaFoy, Lowell Johnson, Tommy Holland and Joe Ingram would be attending the County Judges and Commissioners Conference at College Station from January 23 to 25. The conference must be attended by law.

—Cross Plains Commissioner Joe Ingram would be travelling to Brownwood to pick up the county's government food commodities. Commissioners Roy LaFoy and Tommy Holland would meet in Cross Plains to pick up the commodities for distribution to Baird, Clyde and Putnam.

—Voted not to pay the invoices from the Jedco Co. of Clyde, for updating the county road signs, until each commissioner has a opportunity to meet with a representative to discuss the work that was done.

—Voted to let the county employees take Monday, January 1, 1990 off, for the new year holiday.

—Voted to advertise for bids for the county's general liability and multi-peril insurance coverage.

—Voted to pursue the realigning of the county's precincts after county officials have received the results from the 1990 census.

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

Wasn't that sunrise gorgeous this Tuesday morning? I'm glad I got up in time to see it!

I left here early yesterday morning, drove to my sister's home in Cisco. Our brother, Max, and his family came by and took us to our sister, Opal Cox's home on the ranch near Breckenridge.

We had only 18 there for Christmas dinner. We had 44 there for Thanksgiving. Sis Carter's grandson and family came from Corsicana — the others were local families. We had a beautiful day!

Mr. and Mrs. Kim Beggs and David of Stephenville spent a couple of days with Betty and J.T. They attended church in Cross Plains, then they had supper with Rex Lee and family. On Saturday, they exchanged gifts. On Sunday, Rusty Beggs and daughter of Temple shared Christmas dinner with the family. On Friday of last week, Betty and J.T. shopped in Eastland.

Sally Roady reports that they had a good Christmas. They shopped early. On Saturday, they were in Baird — all the brothers and sisters. They exchanged presents and played dominoes. They were with Billie and H.A. Freeman on Monday. They took Ms. Nettie from the nursing home on Sunday — all the kids were there. Charlie has enjoyed being out of school all this time.

Helen Tillotson reports that their children and grandchildren (the Burleson children) were at home for the holidays. Also, Mrs. Doris Burleson of De Leon was with them. They enjoyed the beautiful weather and good fellowship.

Ms. Jewel Foster reports that she had a good Christmas. She had dinner with Lucille and Charles and their children — they had a very happy time together.

Sara McGowen reports that David has had the 'flu' for several days — other than that, they had a nice Christmas. They had both their parents with them during the holidays.

The TV show, "Christmas in Washington," one evening last week was very special to me. I thoroughly enjoyed it!

My daughter and I spent one 'Christmas in Washington' in the mid-1940s. I was in Civil Service with the Navy Department (Bu-Ships). We were in the nation's capitol about sixteen months.

FACTS & FIGURES

Twenty-five percent of Americans are more than 25 percent overweight, studies show. One reason may be that Americans consume 31 percent more fat than we did 80 years ago. Americans have also reduced physical activity 75 percent since 1900.

A balanced program of exercise and sensible eating habits can help people lose weight. Many people who have 30 or more pounds to lose have been helped by going on a liquid diet for a time, under a doctor's supervision and monitored weekly. One of the most popular liquid diets, Medifast, was developed by Jason Pharmaceuticals. Drinking five packets of a nutritionally complete powdered food supplement is substituted for meals. Studies show that such low-calorie diets average weight losses of 44 pounds in 12 weeks. The cost can be as low as $65 a week—insurance often covers some of the cost and no special meals need be bought.

When you're on a liquid diet, you always know how many calories you're consuming. A typical "diet" lunch of a tuna sandwich and coffee can total 450 calories, compared to approximately 90 calories per shake.

Among the overweight, a 20 percent reduction in weight can mean a 40 percent reduction in heart disease, doctors say.

The game of volleyball was invented in 1895.

C.P. STUDENT REVIEW

MARILYN — Calvin Champion's limited edition replica of Marilyn Monroe.

A "MARILYN SANTA" — This picture was done in pastels and acrylic by Calvin Champion.

It Just Keeps Growing

By C.A.

Calvin Champion's Marilyn Monroe memorabilia collection, that is. Since an article written about Calvin's collection several months ago, he has added several interesting pieces not only some items he's purchased, but some original artwork.

One of the items he received was a letter from the National Marilyn Monroe Fan Club President Ernie Garcia. He had sent the October Newsletter with the article in it that was earlier seen in the Cross Plains Review.

Another unique item that Calvin has managed to acquire is a Marilyn Monroe doll. It is unique in that there were only a limited number of them produced...and only during 1983-84 for one year. They were made exactly to scale and is the only Marilyn Monroe doll ever made. Calvin received this rather rare collector's item as a birthday present last November.

In addition to that, he has acquired

Ladies Romp Rising Star

The Lady Buffs defeated the Wildcats 68-38 Tuesday, December 19, in Rising Star. The girls came out with a mission in mind. The girls played a good game allowing only 11 points the first half. Coach Shedd was extremely pleased at the overall effort.

The outside shooting added 32 points to the 36 points from the 4 post girls. The substitutes also played an outstanding game. Pam Helms led the scoring with 20 points. Tina Evans had 18 and Stephanie Walker had 11. Leading rebounders were Walker and Evans.

Score by quarters:

C.P.	10	15	16	27	68
R.S.	8	3	14	13	38

"This was a good way to end the season before the holidays. I believe the girls are pretty sound with their defense. The offense still needs to be more consistent," Coach Shedd commented.

The girls play De Leon December 28 in Coleman at 10 a.m.

several new posters...one in particular is a life-size poster of a scene from the "Seven Year Itch." Also, there are new postcards and another movie, Irving Berlin's, "There's No Business Like Show Business."

Calvin, a sophomore at Cross Plains High School, has also been busy creating some original "Marilyn" artwork. According to Calvin, he had done several comic pen and ink drawings, another pen and ink in which Marilyn's figure is created with the letters of her name, a T-shirt with Marilyn done in red and silver, and a large "Santa Marilyn" done in acrylic and pastels...see related picture.

As a last note, Calvin says that in a letter he received from Washington, D.C. in which he learned that the Marilyn Monroe postage stamp is still under discussion, but you can bet he'll be among the Monroe fans when they find out. Calvin wishes also to thank those who have been supportive of his efforts to add to his collection.

a. Technical Assistance Specialist
Goal Three: Teachers and Teaching
The school displays a climate of expectation in which the staff believes and demonstrates that all students can attain mastery of the basic skills and that the staff has the capability to help students achieve such mastery. The staff in the Cross Plains Independent School District consist of the following:

- 1 Superintendent
- 2 Principals

Goal Four: Organization And Management

The district provides each student the opportunity to participate in a well-balanced curriculum offered from K-12. The physical arrangement of this district includes K-6 as elementary, grades 7-8 as junior high school and 9-12 as high school.

The Cross Plains ISD has well designed and well maintained facilities in which to conduct the programs of the school. Upkeep and maintenance is done on a regular basis.

Each faculty member has received a copy of the letters dated December 3, 1984 and December 15, 1986 from Dr. W.N. Kirby concerning paper-work reduction. The district has emphasized the importance of alleviating this problem. The only paperwork required from classroom teachers from that date has been the necessary TEA required reports, materials and documentations as indicated in the Texas Education Code 21.925 Section E.

At least one administrator attended the Mid-Winter and Summer Conference, Secondary Principals Conference, Elementary Principals Conference, Big Country Administrators meetings, Texas Association of Community Schools, TASB-TASA Conferences and Area Conferences.

Goal Six: Parent And Community Involvement

There is a mutual agreement between the school and parents which support the basic mission of the district. The district maintains close involvement with the community as evidenced by participation in the following:

- Band Booster Club — Sponsors the Band Banquet
- Athletic Booster Club — Sponsors the All-Sports Banquet
- Letters and Memos concerning TEAMS, Tutorials and Failing Notices
- Community Meetings concerning Vocational Advisory Council and Incoming Freshmen and Parents
- Brownie, Cub, Girl and Boy Scout Meetings and Dinners
- The district plays a major leadership role in the organization and implementation of the Callahan County Junior Livestock Show
- Vocational Agriculture Banquet
- Awards Assembly
- Provides facilities for Little League and Little Dribblers Basketball
- Independent Community Volleyball and Basketball Tournaments
- Track Facilities Open to Public for Exercise
- 4-H Meetings and use of Ag. Facilities
- District teams with the Community Committee and provides programs concerning Drugs, Tobacco, and Alcohol.

Goal Seven: Innovation

An "at-risk" identification and prevention program was continued in the 1988-89 school year. Students that meet certain criteria are targeted and given special assistance in problem areas.

Students were identified and entered the gifted/talented program in 1988-89 school year.

The district has incorporated other innovations such as:

- Shares space, for local announcements, with other school district on Brownwood Cable TV
- Instructional television
- Goal Eight: Communications
District communications include:
— Local and Area Newspaper (local section-full page weekly)
- Broadcast Journalism Cable TV

- Letters and Memos concerning TEAMS, Tutorials and Failing Notices
- Community Meetings, Pre-Registration for Eighth Grade Students and Parents Planning their High School Program, Vocational Advisory Committee

— Callahan County Junior Livestock Board of Directors Meetings
— Area TV coverage

Mike Kelley Partner In Precision Porous Pipe

By JOEL WASHBURN
The McKenzie Banner

Precision Porous Pipe is Carroll County's newest industry, but the product it manufactures is the result of many years of experience in engineering, manufacturing, sales, and marketing.

The concept for the company was formed while Bill Mitchell and Mike Kelley were installing subsurface irrigation lines at Noma Outdoor Products in Jackson. During a casual conversation with them Noma President Bill Rathke, the trio decided to explore the possibility of producing the porous pipe. Mitchell had the manufacturing knowledge, Kelley had the installation and sales knowledge, and Rathke had the business controls and marketing knowledge.

In his dealings with the start-up of Noma in McKenzie, Rathke found that the McKenzie Industrial Board worked diligently to assist Noma. The entrepreneurs found the industrial board very receptive to the idea of leasing the 10,000 square-foot building formerly occupied by Plumley. Finally, six investors coordinated their resources and started the company.

The product concept is ages old. However, the technology is new. Irrigation is best used at the root zone instead of the surface. Precision's flexible rubber pipe, similar to a garden hose, is designed to be installed below the ground's surface and "sweat" as water or other liquids pass through the hollow core. Water and/or fertilizer is delivered exactly where it is needed and used — at the plant's roots instead of the surface thus eliminating evaporation and unnecessary runoff.

Bill Mitchell, V.P. of Manufacturing, said the pipe is not perforated but instead has a porous membrane that allows the water to escape consistently throughout the entire length of the pipe and requires low water pressure and volume.

Mitchell said the pipe is made from a mixture of reprocessed automobile tires and polyethylene. The blended composition is a trade secret. Precision will be manufacturing both 1/2 inch and 3/8 inch inside diameter pipe. Currently, the company has one production line but plans include three additional lines. Currently, orders from the U.S. and overseas will require the one production line to run 24 hours daily.

The markets to be served include athletic fields, residential and commercial turf and landscape, home gardens, agriculture, aeration, soaker kits, areas of intensive grazing, and golf courses.

One of the most popular products will be the soaker hoses which will be marketed through retail outlets. Precision plans to fit the hose with standard garden hose fittings with lengths of 25, 50, 75, and 100-foot lengths. The product will be marketed under the name of Eden Spring.

America has always enjoyed abundant and cheap water. However, as populations grow and fresh water resources become less available, the need for conservation will become much more clear. As water and fertilizer become more costly, the agricultural industry will greatly benefit from the conservative nature of Precision's product.

Mike Kelley, VP of Marketing, said that the pipe can be installed below the root bed on row crops to irrigate only the crop and not the middles. Both water and fertilizer can be pumped through the system, which can reduce the number of equipment passes through the field. The crops will flourish while the middles remain relatively free of weeds. Additionally, the crop can be worked from the top side while it is being watered from below.

Last year fish farmers in Mississippi lost a tremendous amount of their inventory due to inadequate aeration of the ponds. The porous pipe can be utilized to disperse fine bubbles of air in the fish ponds to maintain adequate oxygen levels. The fish will grow faster and healthier.

Lawns and golf courses can benefit from the subsurface application. There will be no protruding sprinklers to be damaged by mowers or vandals. And activities can continue while the root bed is receiving the necessary nutrients.

Company officials are currently establishing a network of distributors through the country to market the product. Some will be distributors/installers which will install the pipe.

Mitchell comes to McKenzie, Tennessee from Texas where he has been involved in the manufacture of porous pipe since 1978. He worked in Dallas in extrusion and injection molding.

Rathke is the former president of Noma Outdoor Products. He moved from Des Moines, Iowa to Jackson, along with his previous employer, Noma.

Kelley comes to McKenzie from Cross Plains, Texas and has been involved in subsurface irrigation design and installation since 1982. He has instructed courses in installing the subsurface irrigation. He, and his wife, Paula, have two daughters, Ginger, age 10, and Kellie Lanham. Paula's parents are Eddie and Dorothy Petty of Cross Plains. Kellie and her husband, Jim, formerly of Cottonwood, Texas, have a 7 months old daughter, Alyssa. They reside in Jackson, Tennessee.

Women Age 65 And Up May Qualify For SSI

Many women who are age 65 and older may be unaware that they are eligible for supplemental security income (SSI), Glyn Hammons, Social Security manager in Abilene, reported today.

In recent reports, several non-profit groups have estimated that only half of the elderly poor who are eligible for SSI benefits are receiving them.

SSI payments can be made to people 65 and over, disabled, or blind who have little income and own few resources.

Current figures from the Social Security Administration show that 7 percent of Social Security beneficiaries age 65 and older receive SSI payments and three-quarters of these SSI recipients are women. The Administration does not know why some SSI eligibles do not apply, nor why efforts to reach them have had only modest success, Hammons said.

The SSI program provides a base of financial support for the elderly, the blind, and the disabled population who have limited incomes and few resources. People who receive SSI are eligible for Medicaid and other free social services.

For information about SSI, people can call 1-800-234-5772, Hammons said. The Abilene Social Security office is located at 142 S. Pioneer. The office is open 9-4:30.

Stenholm Seeks Re-election

STAMFORD — Congressman Charles W. Stenholm today announced his plans to seek a seventh term as representative of the 17th District of Texas.

The conservative Democrat from Jones County said he wants a two-year extension on his contract to serve the people of West Texas. He wants to continue strong support for rural health care providers and a 1990 Farm Bill that insures sufficient quantities of top quality food. Our system produces the safest food at the least cost of any in the world and we must keep it this way.

"The people of West Texas are the best in the country and being their representative is a serious responsibility for me," Stenholm said.

Stenholm has been present for over 96 percent of all recorded votes during his time in office.

Congressman Stenholm was recently appointed one of 15 Deputy whips in the Democratic leadership. He serves as Chairman of the Livestock, Dairy and Poultry Subcommittee of the Committee on Agriculture and is a member of the Veteran's Affairs Committee.

Charlie and Cindy have two sons, Chris and Cary and a daughter, Courtney Ann.

EMPLOYER'S FAILURE TO FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS VERY COSTLY

Dear Commissioner Nabers, I recently attended the Texas Business Council meeting in Houston and learned for the first time about Rule 16 — the right to petition for a new hearing if one misses the first hearing scheduled. I have been charged back on a claim for the last six months because nobody told me about this right. What can I do now?

D.T.
Humble, Tx.

Dear D.T., Unfortunately there is nothing you can do at this point. Even though you did not appear at the hearing, you were sent a copy of the Appeal Tribunal decision which, on the first page, gives specific instructions for petitioning for a reopening if you did not appear at the hearing. The time deadline for filing a request to reopen is also explained. The party is expected to read and follow these instructions if they wish to pursue the case and because you did not do so, the decision became final after fourteen days with no right of further appeal.

Anytime you receive something in writing from the TEC that you do not understand, you should call your local TEC office or my office. We will be happy to help you.

Dear Commissioner Nabers, If a person currently employed by a Texas employer is retired from the military and drawing a military pension, is that person eligible for unemployment benefits if he loses his job? I have heard that he would be penalized for having a government pension.

J.M.
Houston, Tx.

Dear J.M., If this person has retired from the military within the last year and a half, then it is likely that some of his unemployment benefits would be based on wages he earned from the military. When this is the case, the claimant's unemployment benefits will be reduced or offset by the amount of the pension. On the other hand, if the claimant has been out of the military longer than about a year and a half, his military pension will not affect his unemployment benefits at all.

Commissioner Mary Scott Nabers represents all Texas employers. If you have any questions you want answered, please write Commissioner Nabers at: TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY, 614 TEC Building, 15th and Congress, Austin, Tx. 78778.

POSTAL RETAIL WORLD

What In The World Can You Mail?

By Clyde E. Weeks Office of Retail

Frank Richards, Director of The Office of Retail, USPS.

A young boy who was upset recently when he found he couldn't mail off his sister's puppy at the post office learned that most animals are not accepted for mailing—and for very good reasons.

In the first place, every item which the post office handles must be readily and safely delivered at its destination by a mail carrier. Thus, anything which may kill or injure another, or injure the mails or other property is nonmailable.

"However, not all animals are excluded from the mails," says Frank Richards, Director, Office of Retail, U.S. Postal Service Headquarters, Washington, D.C. "Certain warm-blooded creatures such as live day-old chickens, ducks, geese, pheasants, guinea fowl and turkeys can be sent through the mails," he said.

"These hatchery chicks must be presented for mailing in the original unopened hatchery box from the hatchery of origin. The chicks must be over 24 hours old and they must be delivered to the addressee within 72 hours of the time of hatching, regardless of whether the addressee lives in town or in the country."

No warm-blooded animals, except day-old poultry are acceptable in the mails. This includes hamsters, white mice, rats, guinea pigs, rabbits, flying squirrels, parakeets, canaries and pigeons.

Small, harmless, cold-blooded animals (except snakes and turtles) which do not require food or water or attention during handling in the mails, and which do not create sanitary problems or obnoxious odors are mailable.

According to Frank Richards, some of the tiny creatures which can be mailed or delivered through the post office include baby alligators and caymans not exceeding 20 inches in length, bloodworms, earthworms, mealworms, chameleons, frogs, toads, goldfish, hellgrammites, newts, salamanders, leeches, lizards, snails and tadpoles.

Another creature which travels extensively by mail is the honey bee. Other live, non-poisonous and non-disease-conveying insects, such as ladybirds, may be sent through the mails when properly prepared for mailing and when shipped in accordance with regulations of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Rowden News

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

This has been the most severe weather of 1989. Households were lucky to come through it without water lines freezing up. All vegetation is killed with below zero temperature. The grain fields look yellow and will need a lot of moisture to revive them.

After several months of being in two hospitals and a nursing home, Sterling Odom passed away in Hendrick Medical Center Thursday night. His funeral was in Cross Plains Saturday morning. Sterling and Joyce had been married 54 years this December. They had lived in the Rowden community. Their children are Virginia Trevey of Snyder, Nancy Palmer of Clyde, and Ivan Odom Jr. of the community. He will be missed by friends and neighbors. They extend their sympathy to his family.

James and Dorothy Reynolds drove to Azle and Midlothian where they spent Christmas with their children and their families, the Jim Reynolds family of Midland, the Tan Flippin family, and the John Carpenter family.

Those visiting in the Gene Mauldin home during the week were Johnny Hamilton and Collette Kuykendall of Abilene. Bill Coats of Clyde made a short visit and Roland and Faye Mauldin and sons, Kenneth and Douglas of Stephenville and Irving.

Robert and Dorothy Watson were in Lubbock Saturday to attend graduation exercises for their son, Brad Watson, student at Texas Tech. Dorothy reports that he will continue his schooling after graduation.

All of their sons, Robbie, Brock of Duncan, Oklahoma, Kyle and Brad spent Christmas with their parents and brothers, Cody and Wyatt.

Don and Maryanna Harrell and daughter, Leigh, spent Christmas Eve with his mother, Justine Harrell in Abilene. On Christmas Day they were in Austin with relatives.

Friday, Robert and Dorothy Watson were in Sadler to attend the funeral of Robert's great uncle, G.B. Roberts. Ralph and Virginia Trevey and their daughter, Jennifer of Snyder, spent Friday night with this writer. Their sons, David and Scott, were in Clyde with the Charles Palmer family.

This year is drawing to an end and this writer wishes to thank each family that is called for news each week for your cooperation and kindness. It is renewing a friendship each week that I hope will continue. Any new person can call in your news each week. Make yourself known in the community.

SPORTS SHORTS

There is no "ten" in tennis—at least not on the rating scale established by the National Tennis Rating Program. A "7" is a world class player whose tournament winnings are the major source of income.

Finding players of your own "speed" is easier in league action.

If you rate between 2.5 and 5.0 on the scale, you can join the USTA/Volvo Tennis League and improve your competitive skills by going to court with others on your skill level from various parts of the country. The league has seventeen regional sections and over 110,000 members.

To find out more about joining the league—and how you can obtain a NTRP rating, write: U.S. Tennis Association, 707 Alexander Road, Princeton, NJ 08540. The ball's in your court!

JUDY GULLY
...candidate for 42nd district court

Judy Gully, Candidate For 42nd District Court Clerk

TO THE CITIZENS OF CALLAHAN COUNTY:

I would like to announce my candidacy for District Clerk, 42nd District Court, Callahan County, Texas.

A brief resume of my background will help be an asset to the position of District Clerk.

I graduated from Eastland High School, attended Cisco Junior College, McMurry and Draughtons Business College, majoring in Business Management and Education.

Originally from Abilene, I worked for Shell Oil Company, and Sun Oil Company during the heavy oil era, and later for Anderson, Clayton & Co., home of Paymaster Feeds and Seeds.

I have lived in Callahan County, north of Baird, since 1978. I worked in the A.S.C.S. office, the Tax Appraisal office, and more recently at the First National Bank, Baird.

During these past eight years, I have been responsible for handling all the legal work necessary for filing law suits and judgments, for the bank, as well as other administrative duties required for the loan department and

Board of Directors.

Formerly Judy Cockrell, I am the niece of the late Dr. C. Ray Cockrell, longtime Callahan County Physician.

My husband Maynard is a native of Coleman County, and is a Lt. with the Abilene Fire Department. He is also engaged in ranching in Callahan and Coleman Counties.

We have two children; Crystal Baize, whose husband Donald is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Novel Baize, and Chris Gully, a Junior at the University of North Texas in Denton.

We attend First Baptist Church in Baird, and participate in various clubs and organizations in the community.

If elected as your District Clerk, my goal will be to serve all the Citizens of Callahan County equally, fairly and without regard to color, race or creed. And, to dedicate myself to doing the very best job possible.

I also promise to represent this position in a manner acceptable to the Citizens of Callahan County. I would greatly appreciate your support.

Weekly Health Tip

BP AND ALCOHOL

Medicines taken to lower blood pressure (BP) are antagonized by alcoholic drinks. Researchers find that the more alcohol one takes each day, the greater this antagonistic effect. Thus the BP of those taking 4 or 5 drinks daily tends higher than those who drink only 1 or no alcoholic drinks a day. Obesity is a major cause of high blood pressure, and alcohol is loaded with empty calories, which only add to overweight.

Your better health is our concern.

Callahan Divide SWCD Announce Windbreak Tree Program

"The Callahan Divide Soil and Water Conservation District is again sponsoring a windbreak tree program this year," announced Tony Baeza, Range Conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service in Baird. "The district will be accepting orders until mid-February with delivery expected to be on February 21 at the Callahan County Courthouse.

Because several other soil and water conservation districts are sponsoring windbreak tree programs, several varieties of trees have already sold out. Because of this anyone interested in ordering windbreak trees are urged to order their trees as soon as possible.

Presently, Afghanistan Pine is being offered in the gallon size container size. Arizona Cypress and Eastern Red Cedar are also being offered. All three evergreens are adapted to this area and relatively fast growers. If properly watered and fertilized, these trees may grow from 3 to 4 feet a year.

In addition to evergreens, barerooted hardwoods are available. These hardwoods not only make good windbreaks but also provide food for wildlife. Hardwoods which are presently available are cottonwood cuttings, desert willow, pecan, Russian olive.

For more information on the windbreak tree program, contact a district representative of the Callahan Divide SWCD or the Soil Conservation Service in Baird on the Third Floor of the Callahan County Courthouse or at (915) 854-1349.

The services of the Callahan Divide Soil and Water Conservation District #552 and the Soil Conservation Service are available to anyone regardless of race, creed, color, sex, religion, or national origin.
