Register, Vote, Join The Fun

By DON TABOR Publisher

Okay, the Christmas decorations have been stuffed back in the attic. We are well underway with the dieting, exercise and other New Year's resolutions (if we haven't already given up on them).

So, now we can turn our attention to something that's fun, the political primary elections.

Since they moved them back from May to March a few years ago, we've barely had time to catch our collective breath from the holidays before they are upon us.

And it's no different this even-numbered year. The Democratic and Republican Party primaries are March 13.

If you don't think it's going to be a fun deal, consider this. There are enough candidates running for county judge on the Democratic side to field a basketball team and have a sub left over.

There are also contests among the Democrats for District Clerk and County Treasurer as well as the Baird JP and the Cross Plains Constable.

If that doesn't stir your political juices, also consider this. For the first time I can remember, we have somebody running for a county office in the GOP Primary. Cliff Van Der Linden of Cottonwood is seeking the GOP nomination for County Judge, so, also for the first time I can remember, we'll have a contested county election in the Nov. 6 General Election.

But, to participate in all this fun, you must be registered to vote. And, if you're not, you have only until Feb. 11 to get registered if you want to vote in either of those primaries.

Incidentally, if the county races don't turn you on, we just happen to also be electing a U.S. senator, governor, lieutenant governor and scores of other statewide office holders this year.

To obtain a voter registration application, call your local voter registrar (which in our case is the county tax office in the courthouse at Baird, phone 854-1020) or the Secretary of State's office at 1-800-252-VOTE (8683) toll free.

The great State of Texas has adopted a get-out-the-vote campaign slogan this year of "Vote 90. Every One Matters."

As usual, I've got another one — "Vote 90. Join The Fun."

Commissioneers Met Monday

Newly elected Clyde Volunteer Fire Department fire chief, Johnny Broadus, met with Callahan County Commissioners Monday, January 8, asking the county contribute towards its share of operating the fire department, compared to the number of fire calls made by the Clyde fire dept. outside the city limits.

Broadus, speaking for all seven county volunteer fire departments, presented commissioners with several pages of numbers showing that during the last five years the Clyde fire department had responded to a total of 188 fires within the city limits of Clyde and responded to 523 fires outside the city limits and within Callahan County.

Broadus went on to say that while 64 percent of the calls received by the Clyde fire station within the past five years were outside the city limits of Clyde, that the county contributed only 7 percent towards the operating expense of the department.

The Clyde fire chief said that 93 percent of the department's budget is provided by the City of Clyde. He said over the last five years, the City of Clyde has contributed $86,442.35 to the Clyde fire dept., but that during the same five years Callahan County had contributed only

$5,900.00. Broadus said that county commissioners need to devise a way for Callahan County to carry a bigger share of the support, not only to the Clyde Fire Department, but to all seven fire departments in Callahan County. He went on

Callahan Residents Should Have New Voter Cards

Recently, Callahan County residents should have received their new voter registration cards, according to Callahan County Tax Assessor-Collector Wauneta Estes.

Over 7,000 new salmon and white colored cards were mailed by the county tax office with a valid date from January 1, 1990 through December 31, 1991. Many of the new voter registration cards had to be returned by the postal service because the card cannot be forwarded if a resident's address has changed.

The all-white voter registration card expired on December 31, 1989.

Mrs. Estes said that if you have not received your new card, please contact the tax office at the county courthouse to make the necessary address corrections and receive the new voter registration card.

Basketball Admission For Senior Citizens Reduced

The Cross Plains I.S.D. is announcing a special admission price for Senior Citizens to local basketball games. For the remainder of the home games this season, they will be admitted at student price, which is $1.

High school district games will begin January 19 at the local gym, starting at 6:30 p.m.

Filing For Silver Haired Legislature Now Thru Feb. 28

Prospective members of the third Texas Silver Haired Legislature may now begin filing petitions for candidacy. The filing process will continue through February 28. The election will take place on Tuesday, May 22, 1990. Candidacy forms and petitions can be obtained from the West Central Texas Council of Governments Area Agency on Aging (1025 E.N. 10th Street in Abilene) or in Senior Citizens Centers around the region.

There are three basic requirements for those seeking election to the Silver Haired Legislature: the individual must be at least 60 years old prior to January 1, 1990; a registered voter; and reside in the region for which he or she is seeking election.

The Silver Haired Legislature was authorized by the 69th Texas Legislature. It is a non-partisan body of senior citizens who will meet in Austin in September 1990 to draft and propose suggested legislation to be considered by the 72nd Texas Legislature which convenes in Austin January 1991.

The Silver Haired Legislature provides opportunities for the senior citizens of Texas to become actively involved in the issues which concern them. The first two sessions of the Silver Haired Legislature have been judged very successful, with state lawmakers responding positively to a majority of the group's proposals.

One does not need to be an experienced politician to serve in the Silver Haired Legislature. A concerned citizen with the willingness to learn about the legislative process and the desire to use that process for the betterment of others will find this to be a challenging and rewarding experience.

For additional information contact the Area Agency on Aging, 1025 E.N. 10th Street, P.O. Box 3195, Abilene, Texas 79604 or call (915) 672-8544.

MINUTE
MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

Wow! The fog was really something early this morning. I could not see the gates at the highway — it was downright eerie! It is mostly cloudy and cool — I'm ready for some sunshine!

Services at First Baptist Church were tremendous Sunday morning. The musical program was very inspiring. The pastor's meeting with the children, "Between Us Kids," is always a blessing to everyone.

Sally Roady visited Mrs. Nettie Roady at the nursing home — she is feeling better at this time. Art and Bertie Roady of Abilene visited the family on Sunday. Joe, Stephanie McNeil and two daughters, Amber and Sara Sue of Clyde visited on Sunday. They all enjoyed 'supper' together.

I enjoyed a nice chat with Betty Beggs. She and J.T. were in church on Sunday — they were ill the Sunday before. J.T. and Betty visited his brother, Sam and family of Morton Valley on Tuesday. They visit often with their son, Rex and family in Cross Plains. Rex and his little family are in church every Sunday.

My good neighbor, Jewel Foster, was in Sunday School and church on Sunday. She meets with her "quilting group" at Pioneer each Tuesday.

My dearest friend, Elvia Keck of Abilene, called one day. She calls, then I write her a letter. She calls again and I write another letter. She is such a dear!

Helen Tillotson did not answer her telephone this morning. I hope to talk to her soon.

Weekly Health Tip

ASPIRIN or ACETAMINOPHEN

While aspirin often causes gastric pain, even ulceration, acetaminophen does not. Acetaminophen does not thin the blood, thus is no threat of hemorrhages in the brain, etc. However, aspirin is effective in relief of arthritis — acetaminophen is not. For feverish children, acetaminophen is preferred, as aspirin may cause Reye's syndrome. Our pharmacist can suggest which drug is best for you.

Your better health is our concern.

Rowden News

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

This area of the country is still in need of rain. The ground is drying out more each day. Some of the live oak trees are shedding their leaves and acorns. Ground under the trees is covered with brown leaves. We hope the dry cold spell has not killed them.
If you were outside Thursday morning at sunrise, you saw the moon not yet down in the west. With that was an area of sky which was a beautiful blue with a layer of white on top. It would have made a good picture to look at later on.

Roland Mauldin of Denton Valley drove his parents, Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin, to Temple Monday where Gene had a checkup. He got a good report. Friday, the Mauldins met their daughter, Irene Masters of Snyder, in Abilene where Vernie Belle had new eye glasses made. The two ladies drove to the Civic Center to look at the quilts that were auctioned Saturday night. They were of many designs.

Visitors of Emma Johnson and Lizzie Burks during the holidays were Emma's daughter, Pansy Johnson of San Antonio, who came with gifts and a cooked turkey and trimmings. During this time, Ruby McCowen, Bobbie Jack McCowen, and Gertie Powell, all of Cross Plains, came out to sing. Other visitors were relatives, Wayne and Esther Burks of Granbury, also Carroll Burks, his grandson, Cody Bullock and his dad, Sandy Bullock, and Tommy Burks, all of Abilene. Also Lee Ann Burleson and her little son, Captian Henry of Abilene visited.

Emma also reported on the death of Leon Barnes of Hale Center, who was buried in Abilene Wednesday. He was married to La Verne (Burks) Barnes. La Verne lived in Rowden in her younger days and is the daughter of the late William and Georgia visited.

Nancy Palmer of Clyde visited her mother, Joyce Odom, Sunday.

Little Drew Flippin is spending the weekend with his grandparents, James and Dorothy Reynolds.

Robert and Dorothy Watson and sons, Cody and Wyatt, were in Ranger Friday night for a basketball game with Baird and Ranger. They were in Hawley Saturday for a one-day tournament.

Bob and Kathy Dye made a business trip to Hobbs, New Mexico over the weekend. Kathy was visiting one of her sisters while there.

Curtis and Velma Springfield of Azle visited in the Gibbs home this week. The group visited in the Tony Steele home Thursday night.

Junior High Lady Buffs Win First District Game

After playing Moran just the Saturday before at the Rising Star Tournament, the Lady Buffs were ready to play them again. As expected it was another close and exciting game. Moran seemed to have control of the game in the 1st quarter with a lead of 11 to 5. By the half the girls had fought their way up to a 2-point difference.

In the 2nd half the girls played the best team basketball they have ever played. Their hard work and long hours the prior week really paid off. Coach Bacon says this was the girls best overall game in their past 2 years. Defense was excellent and their offense was a total team effort. They came back strong to beat Moran 31 to 23.

The Junior High Lady Buffs traveled to Albany January 13 for a 7th and 8th grade girls tournament. They were the only 1A school competing but still came out on top.

The first match-up was with Graham. Although the game started out close, Cross Plains ran away with a 23 to 10 victory.

The championship game was with Albany. It was a close game throughout with the final score Cross Plains 30, Albany 22.

Junior High Lady Buffs Win Rising Star Tournament

For the second year the Cross Plains Lady Buffs have taken control of the Rising Star Tournament. Their first game was against May. They had no problem with the Tigerettes, beating them 44 to 24.

Their second game was a much closer and exciting game. Moran seems to always bring out the best in them and this game was no exception. Moran took the lead early and held it until the last 2 minutes of the game.

Shana Bagley turned the game around when she hit a 3-point shot to tie up the game. This shot seemed to fire up the girls and the rest is history. The final score was Cross Plains 31, Moran 27.

Paula Winfrey Hosts Sorority

The local Alpha Rho Zeta Chapter

Do We Really Want Rain?

Do we? There is a price to pay WHEN heaven is shut up "that there be no rain." One can read all about it in the Bible. I won't have time to bring all the Scriptures about rain, but a little here and there.

If you really want it to rain you can look them up for yourselves and, even if you already know them it will cause you to believe them stronger for, "Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the Word of God." We'll start with 11 Chron. Chapter 6 Verse 26, "When the heaven is shut up, and there is no Rain, because they have sinned against thee, yet, if they pray" etc. — Then turn to the 7th chapter and 13th verse, "If I shut up heaven that there be Rain" etc. Next the 14th verse (which is the Remedy for this situation): "If my people, which are called by my name, will humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, and forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Now we all thank God that there is a Remedy and we have proved it many times through the years in this vicinity, but we should be ashamed like we used to be when our earthly Father was displeased with us.

Now turn to the Book of Jer. the 14th chapter and you will see what I mean. These people of God knew why God withheld the Rain at times and they were ashamed and covered their heads for shame. Read it in verse 4: "Because the ground is chapt, because there was no Rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads." In the 7th verse, it tells us that our sins testify against us. Please read it.

What I am most ashamed of is the fact that we know these things and we wait so long to fast and pray. Well, thank God some of His people have repented and are fasting and praying for Rain. If the Rain comes before you read this, join in the rejoicing that God hears and answers prayers.

Ruby McCowen

Other Scriptures about Rain: 1 Kings 8 verses 35, 36, 38; Deut. 11-14; Lev. 26-4; Deut. 28-12; 1 Kings Chapter 18.

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

BY IRMA MILLER

The quilters (only a few in number) worked on the Double Wedding Ring. We had some visitors in the afternoon. Wanda Nelson of Brownwood brought her mother, Winnie Flippin, one of our longtime retired members, and Joyce Gilbert of Brownwood, who stays with Winnie 24 hours a day. Besides dedicating herself to Winnie's care, she chauffeurs her around, so that she does not feel so completely confined.

Frankie Smith's father, Mr. Perry Vinson, was moved to a Ranger nursing home from an Eastland nursing home. Frankie and Jean Fore went to Ranger Saturday to visit him there. Frankie and Oliver went Sunday to Comanche to visit friends, Mr. and Mrs. James Blue.

Lottie went to Monroe, Louisiana right after the holidays to visit her daughter, Jane, her husband, Bob Dixon, and their family.

Don't Feed Your Cows Too Much Grain

Dairy cows have been dramatically improved through genetics to produce milk at higher and higher levels. In the mid-sixties, Dairy Herd Improvement Association (D.H.I.A.) records show that average production for cows tested was about 11,750 pounds. Today an average D.H.I.A. tested cow produces about 17,000 pounds. To fuel these modern cows, most dairymen have added more and more grain to the ration.

U.S. Department of Agriculture records show the average dairy farmer today feeds roughly one pound of grain for every 2.4 pounds of milk they produce. In 1965 dairy farmers fed one pound of grain for every 2.8 pounds of milk produced. So even though dairymen now yield more milk, they've lost ground in terms of grain efficiency. Most dairymen and nutritionists have accepted the loss, however, because grain has been a relatively low cost feed source.

But high grain rations aren't the most efficient for dairy cows and probably not the most economical for dairymen, according to dairy scientists at Moorman Manufacturing Company. "The cow was designed to be a forage-eater, not a grain-gruzzler," says Dr. Richard Goings, Dairy Marketing Division Manager at Moorman Manufacturing Company. "As the grain feeding rates stepped up, problems in the rumen have increased, leading to losses in efficiency." Goings recommends a diet properly balanced with grain and high-quality forages. The best forages are not only high in protein but also at

The Outside Scoop on the Oats-for-Health Story

Oat-based cereals, breads, cookies and cakes, not to mention oat-laced bagels, pizza crust and taco chips: a few short years ago, many stores couldn't give them away. Today, they can't keep them in stock.

Spurred by a major 1987 health study that correlated increased oat consumption with decreased cholesterol levels, America has become a nation obsessed — if it's "oaten" and edible, we've taken it into our hearts and our shopping carts. Demand for oats is so high, in fact, that the U.S. now has to import millions of tons of the grain.

Surprisingly, though, given how oat-aware we've become in recent times, there's one side of the oats-for-health story that seems largely to have escaped our notice: the outside.

In addition to the nutrients and soluble fiber with which we're all familiar, oats contain rich emollients and anti-itch agents that are natural skin soothers, making the grain nearly as good for the outside of our bodies as the inside," explained Dr. Gerald L. Carlson, a senior biochemist involved in dermal research at S.C. Johnson & Son, Inc., makers of the Aveeno™ line of therapeutic skin care products. "When the grain is properly processed and then added to bath water — or a lotion, even a soap — these dermally beneficial 'built-ins' work to relieve itchy skin discomfort, whether the skin is simply dry or sensitive or irritated by things like sunburn, chicken pox, poison ivy, diaper rash, acne or eczema."

Of course, as Carlson pointed out, the external benefits of oats are by no means a recent discovery. History notes that as far back as

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Vietnam. Boston. Alaska. Washington, D.C. Arizona. Walla Walla, Washington.

No matter where I've been, I've always been proud to call Cross Plains my home town.

Why?

It is really very simple: the people. My pride was rekindled two years ago when I returned for my first high school reunion, 22 years after I graduated from C.P.H.S.

Cross Plains, of course, had changed. It was sometimes wonderful, sometimes sad to see the changes. But it was reassuring to find that the people had not really changed.

Let me tell you about just a few of my favorite folks who still proudly call Cross Plains their home.

When the Cross Plains Review arrived in our mailbox at the Burkett farm, it was the most important piece of mail of the day.

For my grandfather, C.D. Baker, the most important thing in the Review was Jack Scott's front-page column. My grandmother, Maude, read it next — even before she looked at the Burkett news or the grocery ads.

Even as a kid of 12, I loved reading the words Mr. Scott wrote. He was then — and still is — a reader's writer. I realize now he was largely responsible for my career as a newspaper writer and editor. (I must confess that I often dreamed — and do now — of owning the Review and someday writing a column half as good as Mr. Scott's.)

You see, Jack Scott's writing symbolizes the friendliness of Cross Plains and it made the Review a hometown paper which we could all proudly call our own.

For a boy out on the farm, Saturday morning in Cross Plains was the highlight of the week (Coleman was too big for our tastes). I spent as much time as possible in Bryan's Variety. While my grandparents shopped at Higginbotham's, I sat in a booth drinking a cherry Coke — a real cherry Coke, the kind made at the fountain and not mixed in some can. Mozelle Bryan made me those cherry Cokes, as well as real malts, floats or fantastic banana splits. She always seemed to wear a smile.

As I grew older, Bryan's was still a favorite hangout. And being short of cash — an all-too-frequent experience — didn't mean Mozelle stopped serving the kids. She let us "charge it" and it was that kind of trust which helped a lot of us build confidence. Her friendship and trust meant so much to so many Cross Plains (and Burkett) kids. She was a positive influence and an outstanding role model.

The focal point of most small towns is the school.

So it is in Cross Plains. And my fondest memories center around the school, too. Of all my good teachers at Cross Plains, one stands out in my memory.

Vera Pearl Bunnell was my first teacher after I moved to Cross Plains in the seventh grade. She was also my best teacher (although there were others who ranked right up there: O.B. "Prof" Edmonson, Vivian Lee, Scot Edington, Wayne Ford).

When I returned from Vietnam, Mrs. Bunnell was the teacher I visited. She asked me to talk to her class. That meant more to me than it did to those students, I'm sure. It showed me someone cared. It's a common characteristic in Cross Plains.

Mrs. Bunnell's influence still shows today. I place a great deal of importance on spelling and grammar, thanks to her English classes in the seventh and eighth grade. I also recall her beautiful penmanship. It inspired me to attempt to write clearly. Above all, she encouraged us to read — the most important ability we can possess. It is truly my first love.

There are many, many others in Cross Plains who influenced me. But the most important were my grandparents, C.D. and Maude Baker. They gave me the greatest gift of all when I needed it the most — love. They also taught me the value of hard work, respect for others and shared the Texas beauty of their Burkett farm.

So many good people. You make Cross Plains a special place. You are the reasons why I'm proud Cross Plains will always be my home town.

Skip Nichols graduated from Cross Plains High School in 1966, served with the U.S. Marine Corps in Vietnam as an interpreter and graduated from Tarleton State University in 1973 with a degree in wildlife biology. He began his newspaper career at the Stephenville Empire-Tribune. He is now an editor at the Walla Walla (Wash.) Union-Bulletin, where he has worked for the past 11 years.

Many Veterans Are Unaware They Can Get Benefits

Over $32 billion was paid out in veterans benefits last year. Billions more went unclaimed in the past few years. Every year eligibility for benefits and the array of available benefits are changed. Very few veterans or their survivors keep up with the latest rules. Because of this, and changes in their circumstances, many veterans, their families and survivors are now entitled to money and other benefits from the government even though they were not eligible in the past.

These were the findings of a study group of the Consumer Education Research Center, a 20-year-old national nonprofit consumer group. They found that over one fourth of the money paid in veterans benefits goes to persons who never served in the armed forces of the United States. Most of these were related by blood or marriage to veterans but many were not. Some were members of the armed forces of countries who fought with us against our enemies.

Since 1974, the Center has been compiling yearly updates describing the latest rules on available benefits and how to qualify for those benefits. They have just issued the 240-page, 1989 Complete Guide To Federal And State Benefits For Veterans, Their Families, And Survivors with a foreword by Sen. Robert Dole. This valuable book is $9 (plus $2 shipping) from CERC-Vets, 350 Scotland Road, Orange, NJ 07050 or by calling 1-800-USA-0121 with credit card.

Mr. Robert L. Berko, executive director of the consumer group, says that many survivors of veterans are unaware that they might be eligible to receive money, medical care, educational assistance, help in buying a home or other benefits. In fact, eligibility and benefits change constantly and some people ineligible in previous years are now able to start receiving money.

The study found that many people are unaware that they are considered dependents or survivors of veterans. These include those involved in illegal marriages, those who remarried after the death or disability of a veteran, children born out of wedlock to a veteran, parents of a veteran and even dependent grandchildren. Any of these may be eligible for benefits.

Mr. Berko says that the study questioned veterans about benefits and found that the majority were unfamiliar with most of the benefits now being granted under Federal and state laws. Even veterans now collecting were unaware of other benefits for which they were eligible and could be collecting.

For instance, disabled veterans can receive apparel allowances if they use wheel chairs, artificial limbs or any prosthetic device that can wear or damage clothing and, if they have a spouse in need of care, they can receive an allowance to pay someone to provide that care.

Few knew that (unemployed veterans) 65 or older are considered, permanently and totally disabled and, those with limited income and savings, can collect as much as $11,000 per year.

Other benefits the consumer found that were little known are:

A veteran (or dependent) can receive up to $837 (40% in advance) if he or she will aid VA in a work-study program while in an educational program.

Federal agencies are required to set up affirmative action plans to aid employment and advancement of veterans with any degree of disability. Some job classifications must be filled by eligible vets.

Families of veterans buried or mentioned or commemorated on Tablets of the Missing overseas are eligible for free passports to visit these sites.

In addition the book includes a complete list of VA facilities and help to secure the information needed with VA applications.

"Even though the Congress and the various state legislatures have passed laws granting money and services for veterans and their dependents," Mr. Berko states, "unless the people know they are eligible and apply they will not collect anything."

City Retail Sales Down Slightly

The City of Cross Plains is reporting 1989 one percent city sales tax payments running 3.83 percent lower than the 1988 payments of the tax. Cross Plains 1989 sales tax payments have amounted to $46,701.07, while the 1988 sales tax rebates in 1988 were $48,558.98.

The city's monthly sales tax check for November 1989 was 40.95 percent higher than the November 1988 check, Bullock reported. Cross Plains November 1989 check was $3,296.56, while the November 1988 check amounted to $2,338.83.

Retail sales in the City of Clyde in 1989 are three-hundredths of one percent higher than in 1988, according to one percent city sales tax rebates released by State Comptroller Bob Bullock on December 7, 1989.

Bullock reported that sales tax payments to the City of Clyde so far in 1989 have amounted to $86,996.87. The 1988 sales tax payments to the city were $86,967.39.

One percent tax rebates to the City of Clyde for the month of November 1989 were 15.37 percent lower than the November 1988 check, according to Bullock's figures. The November 1989 tax payment was $4,359.03, while the November 1988 tax rebate was $5,150.57.

The City of Baird reported that sales tax payments in 1989 are 4.23 percent lower than the 1988 payments. The city had received $34,106.37 so far in 1989, while the 1988 tax payments to the city were $35,611.13.

The town's monthly payment for November 1989 was 7.22 percent lower than the November 1988 payment, according to Bullock. The November 1989 check to the city was $1,656.61, while the November 1988 payment to Baird was $1,785.60.

The City of Putnam is reporting 1989 city sales tax payments are 10.87 behind 1988 payments. The city has received $9,412.14 so far in 1989, while 1988 payments were $10,560.36.

The town's monthly payment for November 1989 sales are 12.44 percent lower than November 1988 sales. The city received a November 1988 check amounting to $637.99, while the November 1988 check was $728.63.

Countywide sales tax payments for 1989 in Callahan County are running 2.47 percent behind 1988 payments to the county. Callahan County had received sales tax payments in 1989 amounting to $177,216.45, while the 1988 payments to the county totaled $181,697.86.

For the month of November 1989, countywide sales tax payments are .53 percent behind tax payments in November 1988. Callahan County total payments in November 1989 were $9,950.19, while November 1988 payments were $10,003.63.

Statewide, sales tax payments in 1989 are 9.33 percent ahead of 1988 rebates, according to Bullock's figures. The state has sent out checks totaling $1,045,300,211.41 in 1989, while the 1988 payments to the state's cities was $956,059,175.21.

For the month of November 1989, sales tax payments are running 13.02 percent ahead of November 1988 checks. The state sent out checks amounting to $72,452,236.19 in November 1989, while the November 1988 payments amounted to $64,103,652.34.

Comptroller Bullock said on December 11 that sales tax rebates to Texas cities in 1989 topped $1 billion for the first time in the state's history.

"People are spending more money and that means more tax dollars are going back to communities for fire fighting, police protection and safe roads," Bullock said.

"This year's total payments to cities reached $1.04 billion, 9 percent more than last year's total of $956 million at this time, Bullock said.

Merchants collect the state and local sales tax and send it to the Comptroller's office with their tax returns. The state keeps its 6 percent share and returns the local one percent sales tax each month to local governments. Cities and counties may levy a combined tax of up to two percent above the state's sales tax, however all Callahan County town's only levy a one percent sales tax, Bullock said.

People believe if a spider crawls towards you, you will have a quarrel.

Alligators can close their ears just as camels can close their noses.

CORRECTION

The following is a correction for Party Chairman, Cross Plains, that appeared in the Review. The newspaper apologizes for the error. It should have read Party Chairman, Precinct 3, Cross Plains, Joe "Red" Hanke.

GARDEN TIPS FROM THE Cross Plains Garden Club

Taken from The Lone Star Gardener
 Jan., Feb., Mar., 1990

This and That, for January — Mulching plants serve as an insulation for plant stems and roots and prevents them from freezing. Keep mulches a minimum of six inches from plant stems and trunks. Mice or vermin often overwinter in mulch and may eat the bark during the cold days. Water trees and shrubs thoroughly at regular intervals throughout the winter. Evergreens are susceptible to winter drying — usually occurring in late winter and early spring because foliage is unable to replace the moisture given off by the leaves through excessive transpiration during cold weather.

So, do not store the water hose for winter. Just because the grass is brown and the deciduous trees and shrubs have lost their leaves, it doesn't mean that moisture is no longer needed. Plant shade trees, onions and English peas in vegetable garden.

February — Plant bare-root roses and strawberries. Prune established shrubs and roses and fertilize roses.

March — Plant azaleas, spirea forsythias, annuals, perennials, summer bulbs, tomatoes, beans, squash, peppers, corn, cucumbers and divide and transplant mums. Fertilize shade trees, evergreen shrubs, ground covers, vines, and cut ground covers back.
