Cross Plains Petroleum Changes To Fina Brand

Most of you have probably noticed the new paint and graphics on what was B & B Conoco, but now is B & B Fina, located at south 4th (Highway 36) and Main Street in Cross Plains. In July Cross Plains Petroleum (E.S.E. Inc.) changed their fuel brand to Fina and had the old service station repainted and red, white, and blue graphics added.

Bill Wood, dealer, runs a very old fashion full service station where you can get a full service gasoline or diesel fill up, an oil change, a flat tire repaired, a new tire, a wash job, and just about anything else you need for your vehicle.

Since August 8, 1990 the station has been taking all major oil company credit cards. If you don't have a Fina Brand Credit Card, you may get one by simply using any major oil company credit card and fill out a short form application on your receipt, as easy as that through September 8, 1990.

After September 8 they will accept only Fina, VISA, MasterCard,

Discover, and American Express Cards. If you have any question, you can give Bill a call at (817) 725-7512.

David and Lenell Sliger, Managers and Co-owners of Cross Plains Petroleum — (E.S.E. Inc.), located at 6th and Ave. F, Cross Plains, are very proud of the new appearance of the station, and to fly the Fina sign. The new Fina brand fuel products are in stock and available through bulk, also.

They also carry a full line of Fina oil products and they will continue to handle Mobile, Conoco, Chevron, Chevron Delo, Texaco, Mystick, Exxon, Pennzoil, Quaker State, and Golden West oil products, as well as outboard motor oil, power serve diesel fuel treatment, antifreeze, and by September 10 they will again have K-1 Heating Fuel (Kerosene).

Their slogan is "For All Your Petroleum Needs," and that is what they mean. Whether it be bulk gasoline or bulk diesel fuel or maybe just a quart of oil, they have it. So go by or call them at (817) 725-6582.

LOOK WHAT IS NEW — It is B & B Fina at the light on Highway 36, featuring Fina brand products with new paint and graphics.

Also the locally known team of Logan Long from Lake Brownwood, Jean and Byron McAnally of Burkett, and Jim McAnally of Coleman.

The next tournament on schedule will be a 2-Man Fall Fun Partnership on September 22 and 23. This is a fun tournament with different rules for each 9 holes played. You won't want to miss it.

AmWest Savings Closing In Callahan County

AmWest Savings will be closing 12 banking branches in Texas, including all in Callahan County.

AmWest Savings officials, headquartered in Bryan, said Monday, August 13, that the AmWest Savings branches (formerly Olney Savings) in Clyde and Cross Plains will be consolidating with branches in Abilene and Cisco.

The Clyde AmWest Savings branch is the largest of the 12 branches that plans to close. The Clyde AmWest branch lists assets of $8.5 million, while the Cross Plains branch has $7 million in assets.

According to AmWest official Glen Carter, the Clyde savings branch will be consolidated with the Abilene AmWest office, located at 1150 North Fourth Street. He said that the 1,100 accounts in the Clyde office will be moved to Abilene soon. The Cross Plains AmWest office will consolidate with the Cisco AmWest Savings branch, Carter added. Clyde and Cross Plains are the only two communities in Callahan County with AmWest Savings branches.

He added that customers using AmWest Savings can use any savings branch throughout the state, but only one location will have signature cards for the accounts.

Carter said that the closing of the 12 branch offices is "economics." He said that of the 1,100 accounts in the Clyde branch, 600 accounts have deposits of $250 or less. He said that for a savings and loan to survive, each account needs $800. He added that for AmWest to be profitable here, $15 million to $20 million in assets is needed.

Carter said that the accounts in the 12 branches will all be consolidated with AmWest offices in nearby towns.

The AmWest officials said that because of several business accounts in Clyde, company officials will be looking into operating an office every business day morning in Clyde. Officials are now looking into opening a small office here.

The AmWest building in Clyde, located in the Callahan Plaza on the south access road of Interstate 20, will be sold Carter said.

AmWest officials said that all employees, in the 12 branches that consolidate, will be relocated to other branches. Carter said that the three AmWest employees in the Clyde office have been offered positions in Abilene.

Friday, September 7, is the last day for business transactions at Cross Plains.

STRONG WINDS DAMAGING — This large Blackjacket tree was blown down in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Whiteley. Mrs. Osa Gattis, formerly of Cross Plains, owns the home and

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tunnell, next door neighbors, noted that the tree had been there for many years. It was fortunate that it fell just perfect not to hit either the house or their vehicles. The brief but blowing rain Saturday disarranged things throughout the community, but little rain fell.

The Thursday afternoon scrambles are getting to be more fun each week. It's beginning to get darker earlier though, so we may just get to have a few more.

Since school started last week, we dropped to 45 players but still had a lot of fun. Jim Fisher, formerly of Rising Star, won the Closest to the Pin with a shot of just 2 feet 2 1/2 inches from the hole.

We also had a scramble on Sunday, September 2, for Labor Day. There were 63 men, women, and children playing, making 10 teams. Bill Porter won the Closest to the Pin by being 8 feet even from the hole.

After playing everyone enjoyed homemade ice cream. We had 12 freezers with several different flavors which were all delicious. I know because I think I tried them all. Everyone enjoyed the game and especially the ice cream.

There will be at least one more Thursday scramble today at 6 p.m. With football games and everything, I think people will be tied up from now on, so let's make this a good one.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Carter of Ridgeland, Mississippi spent two days last week with her sister, Mrs. Kathryn Morris and family of Cross Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Watson and sons, Kelly and Alan of Richmond spent the Labor Day holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Watson and Aunt Pearl of this city.

Suma Dill's visitors over the Labor Day weekend were Blanche Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pinnell, and Wanda Walker all of the community. Howard Shanks of Big Spring and Gaylon Duggan of Rising Star also came by.

Ethel Anderson and her sister, Daisy Holcomb, had special visitors Friday evening. Their cousins, Ruby Reed of Odessa and Elizabeth Jordan of Stamford, and Ruby's two daughters, Gail Taylor and Linda Elrod, both of Odessa, enjoyed a brief reunion. The ladies visited the local cemetery and gathered information on the Bounds family to be used in a family genealogy. Old photos of relatives linked faces to names the younger ones had often heard.

It was also unique that they were paired as sisters: Ethel and Daisy, Ruby and Elizabeth, and Gail and Linda. Vanda King and Guy Evans also came by.

Local Couple's Grandson Receives Honors

Jesse and Lorene Harris of Cross Plains just returned from Quantico, Virginia where they attended the graduation of their grandson, Jerry Ray Harris, from Officers Candidates School Marine Corps Combat Development Command.

Their grandson graduated with honors as he was first out of a class of 900 candidates in leadership. For this honor he received the Marine Corps Associational Leadership Award presented by Lt. Gen. A. Lukeman USMC retired. The candidates were graded in three areas: leadership 50 percent; physical fitness 25 percent; and academics 25 percent. Jerry finished 7th overall in his class of candidates.

While the Harrises enjoyed the scenic countryside, they also stopped along the way at points of interest in Louisiana, Mississippi, Georgia, Alabama, South Carolina, Washington, D.C., Pennsylvania, Virginia, Tennessee, and Arkansas. They were accompanied on their trip by their son and his wife, James and Pearl Harris, and granddaughter, Kelly. They reported having a great time!

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

Here it is Tuesday, September 4. The Review was closed on Monday (Labor Day). We had a good attendance at the AARP meeting. There were so many lovely people there. You will read more about them in a prepared item for this issue.

I was really pleased on Saturday when my good neighbor, Bob Roady, came here and mowed the tall weeds and grass which had grown up across the area west of my driveway. He mowed from the highway to my corral fence. Surely looks better, and helped my disposition.

I was amused early this morning when a man called my number twice and asked for 'Thomas Moore'. I had difficulty convincing him no one by that name lived here. The amusing part, my first husband (Joan's father) was named 'Thomas Moore'. Of course, he passed away many years ago.

Betty Beggs reported that their recent visitors were Mr. Sam Beggs of Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. William Beggs of Austin, also Chris Beggs of Austin, also James Beggs. They had a nice visit. Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Mitchell, neighbors, visited them on Monday.

Sally and Bobby Roady visit Ms. Nettie at the nursing home nearly every day. They visited Art and Bertie Roady at the lake during the weekend. Cindy was here during the weekend — took the bus back to Albuquerque on Sunday. They talked to Joe on the telephone one day.

I enjoyed a nice chat with Mrs. Norman Lee. She has been very busy canning fruits and vegetables. Her daughter, Norma, had called — gave them late reports on the grandchildren.

Ms. Jewel Foster didn't answer her 'phone this morning. She was in Sunday School and church on Sunday.

I saw Estelle Kirkham in the store recently. She said she reads and enjoys this column each week.

BECAUSE HE IS ONE OF US

Dear Friend:

We have a lot in common here in west central Texas. We share a glorious history. Our ancestors worked hard, sometimes had to fight hard, to make our land productive and secure.

We believe in the Lord, in ourselves, and in our families. We want steady work, a fair price, and a healthy economy. We want our children to have a good education and an opportunity to build their future here at home.

In order to accomplish these goals we need a state government that furnishes quality services efficiently and economically. A government that stands by our sides and stays off our backs.

I believe we can do better, that's why I'm running for State Representative. I know by working together and carefully using our resources we can make sure Texas' best days are ahead of us. I ask for your vote and support in this effort.

Thank you,

John R. Cook

Cottonwood News

By BEVERLY BROWN

Rehab Night at the Cottonwood Musical, sponsored by the Cottonwood Quilting Club, is scheduled for September 21 and will be dedicated in the memory of our beloved friend, Shelley Smith. A barbecue dinner plate of beef or sausage, cole slaw, red beans, dessert and beverage for $4.50 for adults and $2.50 for children under 12 years of age. A Country Store, Bake Sale, and quilt drawing will be featured. All proceeds from the evening festivities will benefit the West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene. Handcraft items and art work are needed for the country store. Baked goods of cakes, pies, candy, cookies, jams, jellies, pickles, relish, chow chow, or your favorite home canned items will greatly be appreciated. These items do very well in the store.

In the past several years the Cottonwood Quilting Club has sent $1,300 each year, including the January Telethon quilt to the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, and we wish to thank you all for your generous contributions to the West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

On Thursday, September 6, the Cottonwood Quilting Club will have their annual officers election for the upcoming year. Quilting will start at 9 a.m. and a covered dish meal will be served at noon. Everyone is invited to attend. The business meeting will commence at 1 p.m. Anyone wishing to learn the art of quilting is invited to attend and visit with the ladies. The ladies are presently doing finish work on the Rehab quilt for the drawing on September 21.

Your correspondent and her mother, Mrs. Mildred Ford, returned home on August 23 from spending two weeks in Cody, Wyoming with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Leonetti. Cody is the east entrance gateway into Yellowstone National Park. The fishing was good until it started to rain in the higher elevations and the run off turned the rivers and streams into a chalky brown color. It would be great if one could bottle up the fresh air of pine and sagebrush scent and release it when you get home, combined with the high altitude and clean air.

On Sunday mornings, after attending the eight o'clock mass services at St. Anthony Church, we packed a picnic lunch and traveled through a portion of the Shoshone and Yellowstone National Parks via the Chief Joseph Scenic route to the lookout point at Dead Indian. The view was breathtaking and one could see where the original stage coach line traveled many years ago. It took seven changes of horse teams traveling up and down the trail.

Places of interest we visited were Cooke City, Mammoth where geysers are still active and forming, and antelope and elk roam the town streets and neighborhoods; Gardiner City, Red Lodge, Custer National Forest, elevation 9,190 feet at the lookout point; snow was evident in areas, valleys and lakes, which were only reachable by horseback and pack horses to go fishing.

The 1988 spring forest fire damage to the giant pines and aspen trees silhouetted the mountain sides and the higher elevations of the mountain tops. Wildflowers were growing in the burnt areas and trees were charred on one side and still living on the opposite side.

We were invited to the Golf Lodge west of Cody in the Shoshone National Forest by the owners, Gloria and Hal Alterowitz, for dinner. President Teddy Roosevelt stayed there on one of his hunting trips. Mr. Hal Alterowitz is a retired professor of East Montana University and keeps a full schedule of lecture tours to students on the high school, college and university levels. The day of our departure we had lunch with Father Charles Brady, formerly of Ireland, priest of the St. Anthony Church, and Father Clyne, former professor of Fordham University. Enroute to Billings, Montana, my niece, Mrs. Kathy Frickel of Evanston, Wyoming and children, Amanda and Tony, met us in Salt Lake City during our three hour layover there.

We did see a lot of game (antelopes, a six point buck, a herd of elk) during our travels. Each morning we were taken by the Canadian geese flying over the house on their flight plan to and from a lake nearby with their honking sound. Cody is a tourist town and at nearby Sturgis during our visit the annual motorcycle gathering had 75,000 cyclist attend and many stayed and traveled through town. We had a marvelous trip. One hears the expression of "God's country." And view of the majestic mountains and the plains meeting has to be one created by the Master's hand. The beauty we witnessed in the state of Wyoming truly qualifies for the saying.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hines, Jeffrey and Julie of Clyde visited with her mother, Mrs. Bill Nickerson Sr. over the Labor Day weekend.

Reverend and Mrs. Jesse Bigbee were in Austin last Monday visiting with their daughter and family, Melanie and Ken L. Clounts, Michael, Christopher, and Angela.

On Sunday Darwin and Wanda Anderson of Abilene were by to see his mother, Mrs. Ethel Anderson.

Deana Kaye Childers visited with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Blanton Childers, recently before going to college northeast of Dallas. She is majoring in the medical profession.

Aubrey Childers of Abilene and Arnold Childers of Brownwood were by to see their folks, Lillie and Blanton Childers on Sunday.

Rowden News

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

Rain clouds are in this area this Saturday afternoon. Just enough rain to close the windows. This is dry country and rain would give new life to everything. The hot August days have hurt everyone.

Hay baling is still going on and some farmers are ready to dry sow grain.

Guns could be heard Saturday morning where some hunters were out hunting doves. Birds may be scarce this year due to the hot dry summer.

Jim Reynolds and son, Colby of Midland, were visiting James and Dorothy Reynolds this weekend.

Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin became great-grandparents again last week when a son, Tylir Dion Smith, was born to Keth and Becky Smith of Stillwater, Oklahoma. Don Mauldin of Las Vegas is the grandfather. Also visiting in the Mauldin home Friday was Roy Mauldin of Eula.

Leona Gary was the only visitor of Emma Johnson and Lizzie Burks this week other than the nurses who take care of Lizzie.

Last Sunday Robert and Dorothy Watson drove to Sadler to visit his uncle, Wayne Dossey. They also moved their son, Kile, to Austin where he enrolled for the fall semester at Texas University.

On Thursday night Robert and Dorothy Watson and sons, Wyatt and Cody, were in Anson for a scrimmage game. Both boys play on the Baird teams.

Leigh Harrell began classes at St. John's School in Abilene last Monday. This has been a busy week for the entire family.

Bob and Kathy Dye drove to Copperas Cove Saturday to visit their daughter and family, Bryan, Julie, and Justin Patterson.

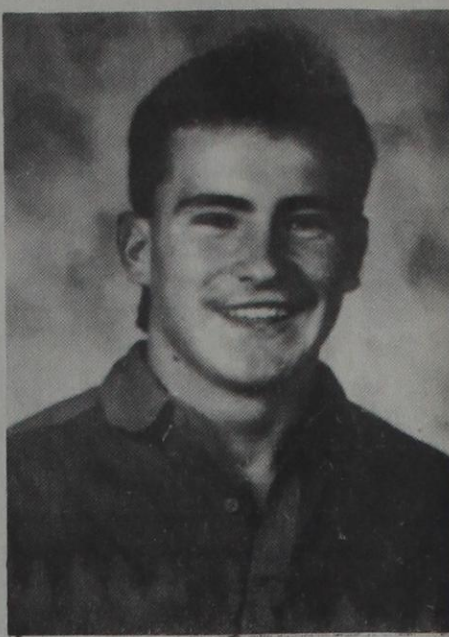

Jennifer Jones of the Cottonwood area spent Friday night with Connie Steele.

Joyce Odom's visitors last Sunday were Charles and Nancy Palmer and son, Michael of Clyde, and Ivon Odom.

This writer and Joyce Odom accompanied Wilda Dennis, Lorene Bryson, and Ruby Brooks to visit Nell Fleming in the Pioneer Community Wednesday afternoon. It was an enjoyable visit.

Word was received by Mrs. Blain Odom of the death of Clovis McDonald last weekend in Kerrville. Clovis had been ill with cancer and was not able to attend the funeral of his brother, Ned McDonald of Cross Plains. Clovis was raised in the community and the family home remains on the property now owned by Tommie Harris and sons.

Clovis came to the Rowden-Bayou school reunion and enjoyed seeing former classmates and friends. He also had written a history of his life while in service of his country. Brothers and sisters are few now: Ray of California, Frona of New Mexico, and Mrs. Jake Childers of this area. Sympathy is extended to his family.

Weekly Health Tip
HOUSEHOLD HAZARD
A safety hazard occurs when you combine chlorine bleach with acids or ammonia; it produces chlorine gas that irritates the eyes, skin, and respiratory tract. In large doses, it can be fatal. This can happen when bleach is mixed with some toilet bowl cleaners containing acid. To clean the toilet bowl, use a bowl cleaner, or an in-the-tank sanitizer, but not both.
Your better health is our concern.
