PROSECUTED FOR INTERFERING WITH W. S. S. CAMPAIGN

AUSTIN AMERICAN, THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1918.

TWO YEARS PRISON TERM IS SENTENCE OF J. R. WUTRICH

Verdict of Guilty Against Man Who Interfered With Thrift Stamp Sales at Cedar Valley

When the Federal District Court sentenced yesterday Deputy Clerk A. B. Coffey handed up to Judge Batts the sealed verdict of the jury in the case of J. R. Wutrich, Cedar Valley farmer, tried the day before on a charge of performing acts and making utterances calculated to interfere with the sale of United States Government securities. The acts and utterances complained of were proved to have taken place at a War Savings Stamp Campaign meeting held at Cedar Valley schoolhouse, Hayes County, the night of June 25.

The court told Clerk Hart to read the verdict at which pronounced Wutrich guilty. Judge Batts then sentenced Wutrich to two years imprisonment in the Federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS AND THE LAW

There is a Police Court Judge out in El Paso who believes in law and War Savings Stamps. Whenever a person is arraigned before him on a technical charge, the Judge carefully considers the case and if a decision of guilty is reached, he fines the prisoner and requires him to invest the amount of the fine in War Savings Stamps. "The best way a man can help his country and himself is to buy War Savings Stamps," declares the Texas magistrate. This court believes in giving a start in the right direction—personal economy.

By the way, Mr. Business Man, are you backing up those home boys who are in the service or are you backing off from them?

Is your place of business a War Savings Stamp Sales Agency? Do you keep W.S.S. on hand all the time? Do you try to sell these bonds for the Government?

If you are interested in your county, if you care for those boys, then keep War Savings Stamps in your store and sell them. Tell your clerks to politely suggest the purchase of a War Savings Stamp to their customers.

DROUTH BROKEN

Sufficient rains have fallen in the Cross Plains country at least to partially break the drouth. Saturday and Sunday mornings rains of varying intensity fell around us, the heaviest fall being reported east and southeast of town. Blufford Webb says he believes he had seven inches, and that is some precipitation for West Texas. South of him the fall was heavy. Bridges were washed out this side of the Star, heavy rains falling as far as De Leon and perhaps farther. In the Cross Cut country the fall was light. From Hugh Eddingtons nearly to town, from the southwest, a fine rain fell. Around Dressy it was light. Cutbush and Oscar McDermott report a very good fall. Cottonwood was more or less neglected. Sabanno and Liberty were well remembered. The town of Cross Plains did not get more than one inch.

The results are being felt by every farmer. Peanuts have a fine chance to develop and our farmers are optimistic as to the prospects. Late feed can do a whole lot yet and doubtless will. Cotton will even be helped where it has not suffered too much. Everybody nearly has plenty of stock water. Grass will green up and save feed. The truth of the matter is we will not starve, and besides it may rain some more.

Pull and its Wallop

Pull don't go in Arkansas, Wallace Davis, Arkansas member of the Democratic national committee, was placed in Class I of the draft by a local board at Little Rock after orders had been received from General Crowder to reopen his case. It appeared that the local board placed Davis in Class I but the district appeal board granted him better classification after Governor Brough had appeared in Davis' behalf. Wallace Davis is the son of the late Jeff Davis, three times attorney general of Arkansas, thrice governor of Arkansas and who was serving his second term in the senate of the United States when death called him away. Governor Brough lost. General Crowder won, and young Davis must do his turn. This isn't a rich man's war. This isn't a poor man's war. This isn't a war where individual pull appears to count.—Fort Worth Record.

ANOTHER WELL SOON

Considerable interest is being manifested in oil circles in movements of the Pentex oil Co. of Butler, Pennsylvania, who own fifteen hundred acres in a contract two to three miles east of town and about thirty-five hundred acres in other leases. Matt Yost, interested in and representing the company, has been here for a few days making arrangements for drilling. Mr. Yost says he is positive that drilling will be begun within thirty days. He is to leave Friday or Saturday for Pennsylvania to buy rig material to be shipped here immediately. He has let a contract for cutting cord wood to be used instead of coal in drilling. Quite a little trading has been done and good prices paid. Mr. Yost says much credit for the promised development must go to M. E. Wakefield, who has worked untiringly to get work started.

First Bale

W. A. Albin has the honor of selling the first bale of cotton in Cross Plains this season, doing the same on Saturday. The bale weighed 622, was ginned at the Farmers' Gin, and was bought by B. L. Boydston, who paid 35.70, netting Albin $219.65 for the lint.

Miss Edna L. Redbetter of Scrabble, Okla., will be here on Miss Colette's return.

Faint Not

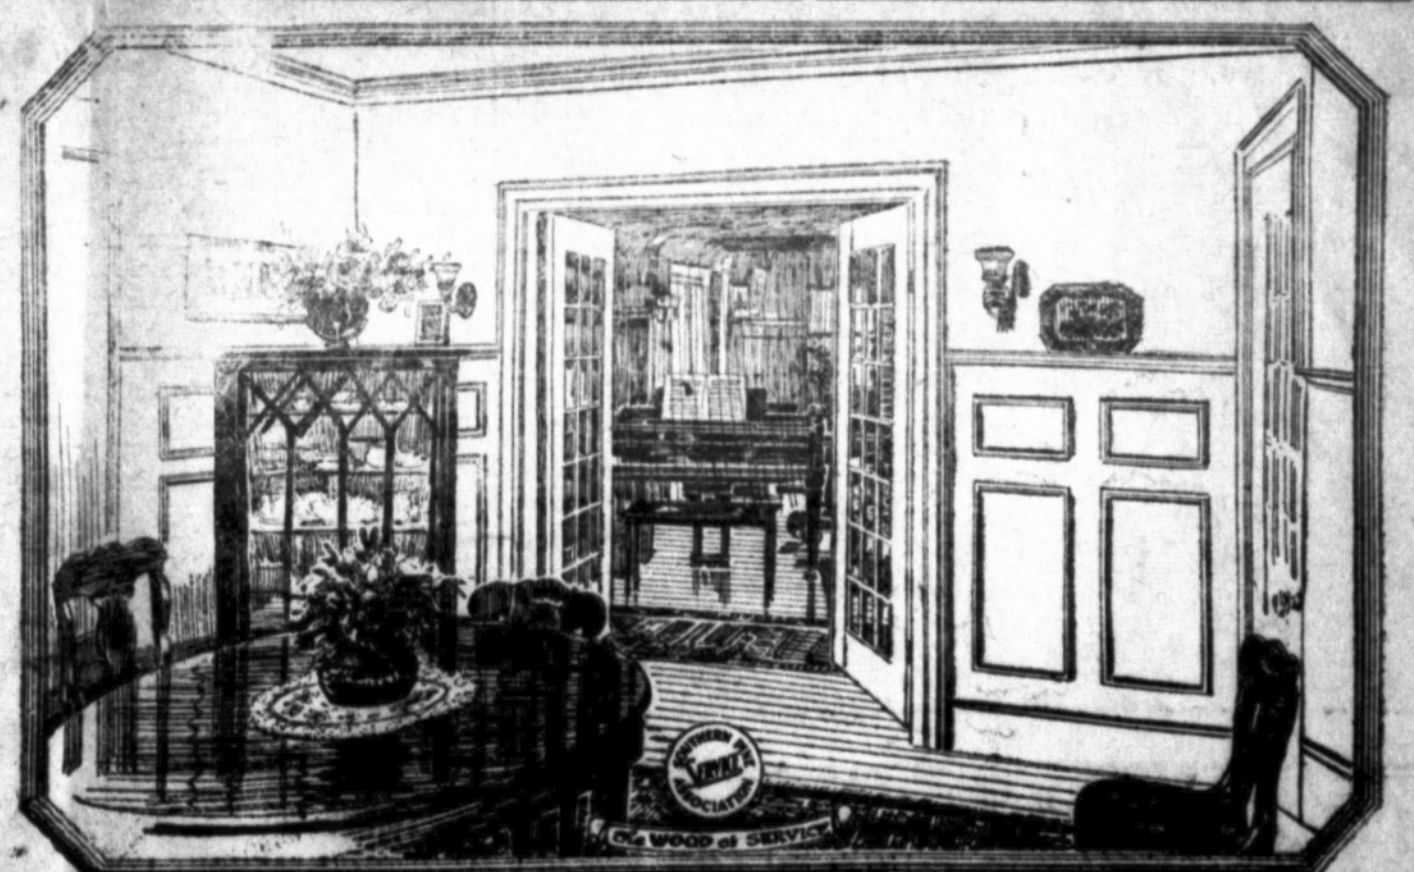

The drouth has hit this country pretty hard, but late rains will give partial relief. Every man who can should stay and do what we can to keep the country in normal condition. All can help. We should all stand as one in upholding this section. We will yet reap a harvest if we faint not.

Shabby Shoes and Fine Flooring

Did you ever see a person well dressed in ever respect except his shoes and they were shabby? No matter how stylish his clothes were and of what quality, the shabby shoes spoiled his whole appearance.

It's the same with your home, no matter how fine the rugs, furniture, draperies and finish, if the floor is unsightly, the attractiveness of the home is lost. Floors furnish the foundation for a successful interior both as to appearance and color scheme. A good floor is beautiful in itself and supplies the necessary background to set off the home furnishings.

There is no better wood for flooring than Southern Pine. The close, compact grade of that wood makes a smooth floor and one that is easily finished. Altho natural light in color the wood may be readily stained any desired color to harmonize with other woodwork in your home.

We handle flooring of all kinds and will gladly advise you as to its proper use and care.

TO HONOR THE FLAG

There has at least been accorded the women of the United States an opportunity of showing their reverence and respect for the Stars and Stripes when the Star Spangle Banner is played or the uncased colors our country pass in parade or review. It is now proper and fitting for the women to stand at attention at such times. Where before they remained seated, they must now stand erect, heels straight without stiffness, hips level, chest thrown out, arms hanging naturally at the side, facing the music or colors, head and eyes directly to the front, with the chin drawn in slightly. It is an opportunity that long ago should have been accorded the women of the country to show their love for the Red, White and Blue.

Also it is worthy of calling the attention of the civilian to today to the fact that when the flag passes in parade or he passes a flag in at army camp, or the Star Spangle Banner is played, he should remove his hat, holding it in the right hand against the left shoulder until the music is completed or the flag is passed. These things should be practiced and remembered. It is a fitting tribute to our colors.

SECOND PRIMARY VOTE LIGHT

The election on Saturday passed off as a quiet affair, there being but ninety-six votes cast at this box. Hamilton received about two votes to Mr. Alcorn's one. We have not heard anything official, but Baird sends in the report that Mr. Hamilton carried the two counties by about forty votes. Gureton and Terrell have been elected Attorney General and Comptroller respectively.

FROM BATTLEFIELD TO TEXAS AT COTTON PALACE

Waco, Texas.—The War Department display at the 1918 Cotton Palace this fall can hardly fail to place Americans more closely in touch with their boys who are making uneasy the heads that wear the crowns. There are Browning machine guns for infantry use and Lewis machine guns of the aircraft type, mountain cannon that can be pulled to Alpine heights, figures clothed in regulation uniforms, including an aviator's flying togs; rifles of the latest model used "over there" and wooden blocks showing penetration of the old and new bullets; complete equipment of the beloved "dough-boy" and a trench periscope through which he watches for friskiness on the part of the "Fritzes"; gas masks that he dons when the Hun spreads his favorite poison; the trench helmet that protects him, and the hand grenade he hurls, the shovel with which he digs a trench and the pump that takes out the water.

Then there are models of the various kinds of tents used by the Army, national and regimental colors in silk, streamer and post flags, a portable field wireless outfit, heliograph instruments, lanterns for night signaling, day and night rockets and signal flags.

And if any American hasn't learned yet to distinguish a sergeant major from a brigadier general, he can do so from boards which carry the insignia of officers and the chevrons of enlisted men, with the wound and service chevrons authorized for officers and men serving in France.

The Navy display shows more of the tools that are making this an unsafe place for international burglars, and also some rifles captured from German soldiers. The Navy shows a depth charge of the kind whose bubbles often make the end for some submarine pirate, a naval mine and anchor, and a big torpedo with its truck. Projectiles of various sizes are accompanied by bombs that airplanes drop. The clothing display includes some worn in winter weather by the boys aboard our submarine. But it is expected that nowhere will the crowds be thicker than around the models of modern battleships, dreadnaughts, cruisers, destroyers and other vessels that will be shown at all the fairs and expositions.

MORE RAIN

Those dark, lowering clouds came up late Tuesday from the northwest that last at this time of year forerunner or harbinger that tempts people to watch on near-by storm clouds. This is one time that signs rather did not fail—for as far as we have heard from Danto Berseba, from the states of Mexico to Illinois of Louisiana. The rain was not more than here, but three inches at Baird. We suppose it was as good everywhere. Peanuts made from September rains are no reason why we make a big crop again, the confidently expecting our storehouses will be harvest is over. Grass will be sufficient to take the stock, and really sell surplus feed from crops. Except in the this may and in all will be an average. Everybody feels the long face is vanishing and rain will make us a try.

I will answer your letter which I was very glad to get. I was in Louisiana when your letter over took me, but didn't have time to write. My! such beautiful country as I have seen. I have been in 9 states and it won't be long before I'll be cross-over the small "pond." I certainly would like to see you all, before I leave but I have no fear, for I am sure God will protect us. I am so glad that the people remembers the boys in their prayers. For it is very sad to see so many brave ones going in to front facing death, and never thinking of their lost souls.
A soldier surely does have something to do to keep his clothes ready and his gun up in order. I have been standing guard in town for two nights.
