EDITOR'S NOTE: Billie Loving, with input from Barbara (Garrett) Swinney, compiled a unique article about the re-discovery of a former C.P.H.S. student. Classmates will enjoy reading about his successes. Vanda King.

When Barbara (Garrett) Swinney began reading "Liz and Me" in the December issue of Texas Monthly, she did not notice who had written the article about scenes for the movie, "Giant," shot near Marfa in 1955. When the author commented that he had been attending Sul Ross on a voice scholarship after his discharge from the Air Force and had worked that summer as a desk clerk at a hotel in Marfa, Barbara told herself, "That has to be J.C. (Hamilton) Anderson!"

Immediately, she called Texas Monthly for further information about the author, Joseph Hamilton, learned that he taught at Solano Community College in California, and wrote him a congratulatory note. He replied — and forty years slipped away as old friends began catching up.

Harold Strahan, Alton McCowen, Bobbie (Wright) Johnson, and Ello-wayne (Byrd) Tatom remember J.C. as a "friendly," "polite," "goodlooking" boy who would sing at the drop of a hat. In the short time he was here he became a part of activities among kids who had been friends most of their lives. In no time he was on the annual staff, and in his junior year he lettered in football. I remember his eyes: wide open, curious, full of excitement.

That wide-eyed boy has done well for himself. For starters, he has a Master's Degree in English and has had a 30-year creative writing career. In 1966 he published the three-act comedy, "His Honor the Mayor," and has published two editions of an English workbook: "From Grammar to Writing: An Adventure in Plain English." And it is an adventure — not in writing only, but in literature as well. The "plot" and the "mysteries" are such fun that it is tempting to read it straight through. With excerpts from and references to literature and with references to personal experiences, the book is unlike any other that I have seen. I'm sure students learn while having fun with the material. I wish I had had it years ago.

Joe (not J.C.) has taught for 33 years, 20 of them at Solano College. There he has taught courses in journalism, drama, English composition and literature, and creative writing. I'll bet he has also found time to sing. In his letter to Barbara, J.C. (sorry, Joe) also mentions seven children and six grandchildren and another due in May. He has obviously had a full 40 years since we saw him.

Thank you, Barbara, for pursuing your clues. How exciting to find a classmate, a friend, a student who has been successful in his career and has used his talents to contribute so much to his field. Joseph C. Hamilton, come home! We'll be looking for you in 1991.

Project Pride Postpones Meeting

Project Pride scheduled a meeting on March 13, but has postponed it due to election day.

The session has been rescheduled one week later, March 20, 6 p.m. at the Cross Plains Public Library.

Athletic Booster Club Meeting Tonight

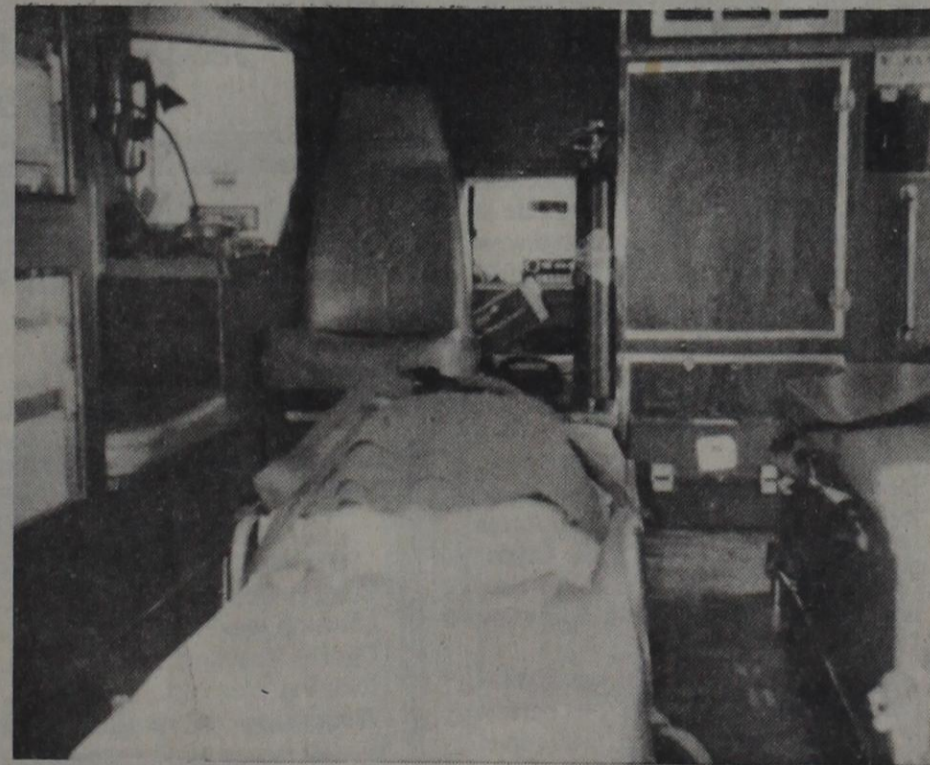

The Athletic Booster Club will meet tonight, March 1, at 6:30 p.m. at the Cross Plains High School Library. Good attendance is needed, as many decisions will be made at this time, according to an officer.

E.M.S. AMBULANCE IMPROVEMENTS — Major changes in the cab and chassis of the ambulance are proudly announced.

MODERNIZATION OF AMBULANCE — Comfort and convenience for patients, plus better communication methods have updated the local vehicle.

Local E.M.S. Always Progressing

By VANDA KING
Editor

Seven local residents recently completed medical training through the Ranger Junior College at Brownwood. Alvin Hutchins, Guy Evans, Diane Bowden, Gay James, Betty Lewis, and Tom and Mary Dunn are now qualified Emergency Medical Technicians, after passing state examinations on February 13.

This specialized training allows them to work on the Cross Plains Emergency Medical Service. Alvin, Guy, Diane, and Gay are already on call with the unit. It was noted that the increase of volunteers will contribute to more efficiency.

Wilma Lawrence, Polly Beeler, Betty Lewis, Guy Evans, and Rolan Jones are currently taking a cardiology course at Coleman for their own increased knowledge in that field. Tom Dunn commented, "After completing the E.M.T. course I acquired a stronger respect for the work of the E.M.S. and what they have to go through to acquire certification." Jones remarked that the E.M.S. is always thankful for new volunteers who are willing to dedicate their time and energy to this needed service.

He stated that the Cottonwood unit now had two Emergency Care Attendants. Barbara Albrecht recently completed the course through the Tri-County ECA School in Coleman in December which her husband, Eddy, acquired earlier. The Cottonwood unit also has other E.M.S. personnel volunteers.

The E.M.S. ambulance has received a face lift. The old cab has been replaced with a new 1990 Ford diesel cab and chassis. The grill has been equipped with a high and low frequency system which scares animals off the road. Traveling at top speeds, this addition could be life saving.

Air ride has been installed for a more comfortable travel for patients and insulation for a quieter trip. New linoleum gives a look of newness. All supplies were refurbished and stands ready for action.

A real plus was the addition of an intercom system that allows EMS volunteers to talk directly to the hospital from the ambulance in route. Also a code intercom has been equipped so that the drivers will know if more speed is needed in the transfer without disturbing the patient.

James Lawrence, Ted McKeenan and Ernest Cortez were the committee who worked on the ambulance improvement project.

Callahan County and the City of Cross Plains contributed financially while funds in a savings account for this particular project were used to purchase all the items. The Emergency Medical Service did not have a fund raiser to provide monetary assistance, and they were very proud of that fact.

Very few cities have a volunteer E.M.S. and my hat is off to this group of truly dedicated individuals. You perform superbly and I know your service is appreciated by all you have aided.

Blood Pressure Clinic March 6

The regular monthly blood pressure clinic is scheduled Tuesday, March 6, from 10-11 a.m. at the Multi-Purpose Center.

Kiwanis Pancake Supper Tonight

Don't miss the Kiwanis Annual Pancake Supper tonight, March 1, beginning at 5 p.m. until 7 p.m. at the Cross Plains High School Cafeteria. Tickets are $2.50 adults and $1.25 children under six years old. Let the local Kiwanis cook for you tonight!

Proceeds will be used for local projects and various needs of the community.

Come out and support the local Kiwanis Club. Tickets may be purchased by contacting Citizens State Bank, Greenwood Insurance, West Texas Utilities Company, Johnston Ford, Lawrence Farm and Ranch Supply, Inc. or from any individual Kiwanian.

Additional Candidates File For School Board And City Elections

Rex Beggs and Don Harris, incumbents, have both filed for reelection to three year terms on the school board.

The filing deadline is March 21 and applications are available at the superintendent's office or from Randy Montgomery, secretary of the board.

One additional candidate, James

Nichols, has filed for a place on the city council joining Edwin Weiss and Bob Harrell, who is seeking reelection.

Ray Purvis and Ross Gerking are seeking the post of mayor.

Applications for city positions are available at City Hall from Debbie Gosnell, City Manager.

Junior Livestock Association Expresses Appreciation

The Cross Plains FFA members would like to say thank you to all the businesses and individuals who purchased their animals or placed bonuses on their animals. Because of the support from these people, the show and sale was a huge success.

Your Public Library — A Friend For All!

Your Public Library — A Friend For All! Where else can you get so much for so little? Where else can you have access to all the latest best sellers? Where else is there something for all ages within one little facility? What other small town has such an outstanding facility?

Your Public Library — A Friend For All! Annual membership dues help provide a weekly program for pre-schoolers; a summer reading program for school age youngsters; research facilities for high schoolers; films for senior citizens and more books than you'd ever imagine a library in a community this size could offer. You also have access to volumes on other library's shelves through membership in the Big Country Library System. Your annual membership in the Friends of the Library organization will help provide all this and more.

Without your financial support, the Library will fold. Without the efforts of the Friends, Cross Plains would stand to lose one of its greatest assets. Your library needs you! Your community needs you! Become a Friend of the Library today. Just take the information slip below and your contribution by the Library any afternoon.

The levels of annual membership for Friends of the Library are:

1. Patron	$500 and above
2. Sustaining	$250-$499
3. Supporting	$100-$249
4. Contributing	$ 50-$ 99
5. Associate	$ 25-$ 49
6. Friend	$ 10-$ 24

The names of the Patrons and Sustaining members will be placed on a permanent plaque in the Library.

Rowden News

By MRS. N.V. GIBBS

Here it is Saturday, February 24, and spring has arrived with a most beautiful day. The peach trees are ready to bloom and the grain fields have turned to green. Of course, it thundered several different times this month which indicates a freeze in April and the ground hog saw his shadow on his day, which means that there will be more winter.

Bob Dye is on a business trip to Florida this week in connection with his job.

Maryanna Harrell drove to Austin to visit school day friends who were meeting there for a reunion, and will also visit some relatives. Don reported that he and Leigh would manage by themselves for a few days.

Dorothy Reynolds delivered church service tapes to the members of their church in Clyde one day this week. Her visitor was Joyce Odum one afternoon during the week.

Visitors of Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin Saturday were Irene and Willie Masters and Rod Clifton of Snyder. Faye Mauldin of Denton Valley was also a visitor in the home.

Kyle and Brad Watson were home with their parents, Robert and Dorothy Watson and brothers this weekend. Brad is attending Texas University this year to complete his Master's Degree. Kyle was honored at Texas Tech with an award as Student Engineer of the Year. This award was given by the Texas Society of Professional Engineering in Lubbock with a banquet and presentation of a plaque.

Last Saturday, Robert, Dorothy, Wyatt and Cody Watson drove to Sadler to visit an uncle, Wayne Dossey.

Robert and Dorothy Watson and Wyatt attended the varsity basketball playoff game with Baird-Gorman at Ranger College Thursday night.

Also on Thursday, Robert and Dorothy Watson were in Rule to visit long time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith. The Smiths' only son was killed in the plane crash near Putnam last week. Their son was a close friend of Clayton Williams.

Emma Johnson and Lizzie Burks' company during the week has been B.J. Anderson of Rising Star, Lovey Smith of Cross Cut, Johnny Wooten, Bobbie Burks, and Arlene Laney. Also from Abilene were nephews, Carroll and Tommie Burks.

The people of the community are still talking about the good rain, measuring two inches more or less on most gauges. This one should have put water in the stock tanks.

THE PIONEER PATCHWORK

By IRMA MILLER

The Quilting Circle worked on the Nine Patch mentioned in the last Patchwork. The community received between 2.2 and 2.6 inches of rain by Wednesday morning.

Frankie Smith and Jean Fore went to Eastland and Ranger and took Frankie's sister, Dorothy Rogers, out to lunch. They visited with Frankie's father in the nursing home in Ranger.

John and Irma Miller's visitors were their son, David Miller of the Houston area, and his wife, Kirsten. They had a long holiday and went home Monday.

Nell Fleming reports that JoVeda and Bill Watson prepared a lovely birthday dinner for Nell and Charlene at Byrd's Store Sunday, and the family was all present.

Novilia and Cleo Barton had visitors. Cleo's niece of May, Martitia, and Wendell Glenn, her husband, came over Sunday.

Gladys Sessum's visitors were Ruth and Henry Rowe, who came Friday and left Monday. They are of Lubbock. They all made a trip to Lancaster Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Crutchfield, of Cisco, came over Saturday, and Jim and Charlene Fleming visited one evening last week.

Texas Secretary Of State Announces Opening Of Extended Absentee Voting

AUSTIN — The extended absentee balloting period is under way for those registered to vote in the March 13 primaries, Texas Secretary of State George Bayoud said.

Registered voters will have until Friday, March 9, to appear in person at county courthouses and polling places across Texas to cast absentee ballots in next month's Democratic and Republican party primary elections, said Bayoud, the state's chief elections officer. The deadline to register to vote in the March 13 primaries was February 11.

Under a 1987 state law that relaxed absentee balloting requirements, registered voters need not give a specific reason for casting in-person, absentee ballots during the extended period.

A separate period still exists for those who cast absentee ballots by mail. That period began Jan. 27. Those who vote absentee by mail must give a reason for not being able to cast their ballot on Election Day.

"This 'no excuse' voting period literally leaves Texans no excuse to stand on the sidelines and watch others decide who to nominate for governor and the many other statewide and local offices that are on the ballot," Bayoud said. "Those old excuses about being turned off by having to stand in long lines, or taking time off from work on a weekday are no longer valid."

On March 13, Texans will head to the polls to nominate candidates for the U.S. senate, governor, lieutenant governor and hundreds of other statewide and local offices.

County Commissioners Report

Clyde Justice of the Peace Eston Shelmutt met with Callahan County Commissioners Monday, February 12, requesting that a part-time clerk be hired at the JP office in Clyde.

Shelmutt presented a report to commissioners stating the case load that each Justice of the Peace office has handled between September 1989 and January 1990. The report showed that the JP office in Clyde handled 1,132 cases and brought in $62,300.50 in fines. Shelmutt said that Precinct 1 in Baird reported 622 cases and collected fines amounting to $35,327.20; Precinct 6 in Cross Plains had 699 cases and brought in $31,485.37 and Precinct 8 in Putnam had 313 cases and collected $16,576.50 in fines.

Shelmutt said that because of the high number of cases in the Clyde JP office, that he be allowed to hire a part-time office clerk. He also requested an allowance expense for use for office cleaning and mileage to and from the courthouse in Baird to pickup and deliver tickets and reports.

County commissioners voted for Shelmutt to hire part-time office help at the rate of $4.45 per hour. Commissioners took no action on Shelmutt's request for an allowance expense fund.

Other items brought before commissioners court include:

— Commissioners reported that 9,156 pounds of butter, beans, flour and peanut butter were distributed in the county for February under the federal government food commodities program.

— Met with Eddie Curtis, a representative of the Baird Volunteer Fire Department, to discuss the county's contribution to help fight fires in the rural areas of the county. Curtis presented a report from the Baird Fire Department on expenses, donations and fire calls made by the department between 1985 and 1989. The report showed that the Baird fire department fought a total of 319 fires over the five-year period and of those 219 were outside of the Baird city limits. Curtis said 69 percent of the calls were outside the city limits but that over the last five years, the county has only contributed $5,200 to the Baird Fire Department. Curtis said the City of Baird had contributed $60,000 and the fire department had raised another $60,000 from fund raisers and private donations. Commissioners took no action on the report.

— Callahan County will submit a bid to purchase a stand-by generator from Comanche County. The county will bid $4,000 for the generator.

— Met with Callahan County Sheriff Bill Skinner and Putnam Justice of the Peace Anita Buchanan to discuss the Panda Program, a program which is an alternative to an arrest. The Panda Program is an agreement between E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital in Cisco and the county sheriff's department for drug or alcohol treatment as an alternative to arrest. The program involves a four month part-time treatment or a 28 day full-time treatment period. The program must be completed or the subject's original charge will be reinstated. Commissioner referred the program to the county's attorney.

— Met with Sheriff Bill Skinner to discuss the sheriff department's mileage allowance for the sheriff and deputies. The department had previously received a $400 per month allowance for vehicle expense and in-county mileage, but under new federal tax laws the officers would have to pay Social Security and withholding taxes. The sheriff and county commissioners agreed that each officer would keep a mileage record on in-county and out-of-county mileage. The officers would be paid .20 cents per mile on out-of-county mileage. No decision was made by commissioners on the in-county mileage rate.

— Jon Herod, C.P.A. from Clyde, presented the 1989 county audit to commissioners and discussed in-length each item in the audit.

— Voted to place a new candy machine in the county courthouse building at no cost to the county.

— Heard from several insurance agents to discuss the county's health insurance coverage on its employees. Commissioners voted to stay with the present carrier, Aetna.

— Voted to pay all Callahan County Justice of the Peace precincts .20 cents per mile for county business or attending seminars.

— Voted to allow County Clerk Darlene Walker and 42nd District Court Clerk Cubelle Harris to attend a county clerk seminar in College Station.

— Voted to table discussion on the floater insurance coverage on road building equipment.

— Voted to table the proposed order adopting rules of Callahan County on-site (residential) sewage facilities.

Local Names Listed On Texas Treasury Unclaimed Money

State Treasurer Ann W. Richards said Friday that more than 120,000 Texans have $99 million in lost or forgotten money coming to them this year — up 65 percent from last year's $60 million.

The 120,000 are named in the 1990 version of the Texas Treasury Unclaimed Money Fund List which will be published statewide on Sunday, March 4, in 27 newspapers.

"Each year we try to locate as many people as we can and return this money to them," Richards said. "Last year about $26 million was given back to rightful owners."

All listed accounts are worth at least $50 with the largest account worth close to $103,000. All safe deposit boxes and stocks are listed regardless of the value.

Generally, accounts on the list are from checking and savings accounts, utility deposits, oil royalties, and corporate stocks.

Most accounts must be dormant from three to five years before they are turned over to the state.

There is no set time to make a claim on these accounts," Treasurer Richards said. "Money turned over to the State Treasury can be claimed at any time in the future by the original owner or his or her heirs."

Persons who find their names on the list can call the Texas State Treasury on its toll-free telephone line at 1-800-654-3463 or they can write the State Treasury at P.O. Box 17728, Austin, Texas 78760. The toll-free line opens at noon on March 4.

During the first few weeks after the list is published, the toll-free line is often tied up by the volume of calls. The lines, however, are kept open for an extended period and there is no time limit for making a claim.

The telephone hours are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday from March 5 through April 6. After April 7, the hours will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Names listed in Cross Plains are: Allen Barnett, Lavern Bowen, Vera P. Bunnell, C.B. Childers, J.W. Childers, Verna Dean Childers, Citizens State Bank, William C. Dulaney, Benny R. Glover, and Professional Oil.

MINUTE MUSINGS

By ESTHLOY S. DICKSON

Last week, when I filed this column, Becky said: "Short and sweet, eh?" Well, I want this to be "sweet", but I hope to file a better report this week.

First off, we have a very cloudy, gloomy morning! I'll hope for some sunshine right away! Yesterday was a lovely Sunday. We had good attendance in Sunday School and church. One week from today, there will be an Associational Rally at First Church, Bangs. The van will go from our church at 6 p.m.

My good neighbors, Bobby and Sally Roudy, and grandson, Charlie, were in church Sunday morning. They went back to the church Sunday evening. They visited Ms. Nettie at the nursing home every day. Yesterday while at the home, they visited with Sally's brother, Gene Hicks, and her sister, Betty Hicks — enjoyed them all very much. On Thursday of last week, they visited with Mr. Mack Childers in Cross Plains. They visited, also, with Billie and H.A. Freeman in Cross Plains.

J.T. and Betty Beggs were in Abilene on business on Wednesday of last week. They took J.T.'s 'fiddle', or the bow in for repair at Caldwell Music Company. They spent an hour or more with Rex and Edith and kids in Cross Plains. They met with Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Clark and others at Underwood's in Brownwood for a birthday party. On Sunday evening, they met Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beggs of Morton Valley for a "snack supper". Enjoyed being with them.

A guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cole Tillotson this past week was Mr. Milroy Brown of Jesup, Iowa, a former neighbor. One day, they visited the Comanche County Museum at Comanche. She stated they enjoyed the very enlightening displays.

The Oliver Smiths didn't answer this morning. The McGowen's line was busy over and over. I hope they will call me one of these Monday mornings — or any day — when they have something for this column.

Jean Fore sounded 'sweet' as usual, but she didn't have any news to report. I'm glad she is well.

Photo Exhibit Kicks Off Women's History Month In Texas

A photo exhibit at the State Capitol in Austin, plus local activities throughout the state, will kick off Texas' celebration of National Women's History Month in March.

Opening ceremonies for the exhibit, which is entitled, "Rural Texas Women at Work, 1930-1960," are set for 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 1. Speakers will include State Rep. Lena Guerrero of Austin and State Sen. Kent Caperton of Bryan. The public is invited to attend. The exhibit will remain on display through March 15.

National Women's History Month is celebrated every March to recognize the contributions of women to our history. The theme for 1990 is "Courageous Voices Echoing in Our Lives."

In Texas, the event is coordinated by the Texas Historical Commission, which serves as a clearinghouse for activities across the state. Groups or individuals interested in developing local projects can request a resource catalog from the THC, according to historian Cynthia Beeman.

"We'll be glad to provide ideas to anyone interested in commemorating the month," Beeman said. "Our goal is to increase awareness of the remarkable achievements of Texas women."

The traveling exhibit is sponsored by the Texas A&M University Archives with grant assistance from the Texas Committee for the Humanities. For more information, contact the THC, P.O. Box 12276, Austin, TX 78711, (512) 463-6100.

Weekly Health Tip

LESS TV — MORE ACTIVITY

Pediatricians now consider excessive TV watching a genuine disease of children, causing obesity and other ills. Hours spent watching TV are hours not spent burning up calories and developing muscle coordination and social excitement in play activity. TV watchers usually snack on junk food (many children see on TV over 11,000 low-nutrition, high-calorie junk food ads a year). For healthy kids — less TV, more social, active play.

Your better health is our concern.

Here's One Big Reason Why You Should Be In Church Next Week.

Your children. Whatever their ages, there's so much they can learn in church. Principles that will serve them well throughout life. And help them to be better human beings. Because our church is a place where positive life values find expression. Where the enduring love of God is taught. Where the nature of life and the meaning of happiness are conveyed through simple yet profound Bible stories.

That's why we're inviting you to join us in worship. So that your children can experience the love that only God can give. So please come.

Whatever your age, there's hope that you might learn something too, because Jesus cares for you.

Here's Hope.

A 'Note' Of Spring

By CHRISTINE HAUN

One of the first signs of spring for Cross Plains is the first Spring Band Concert. This year's first Spring Concert was held in the Cross Plains School Auditorium February 22 at 6:30. The concert, which lasted approximately 45 minutes, started with the fifth grade band. This young beginners band of about 30 members played 4 songs and have shown what hard work and discipline can do.

Following the fifth grade, the sixth and seventh grades, a little over 30 of them, further delighted the audience with their well played selections they performed.

Finally the high school band, all dressed in their full uniforms, played and showed the audience, again, what time (some of these students have been in the band program since 5th grade), patience and skill can do.

For their last number, they performed a variety of selections, but Mr. Randy Taylor, the band director for the last 2 1/2 years, joined in with his students playing the trumpet during the last part of the last number. At the conclusion of the program, the audience of approximately 150 people had an opportunity to socialize and enjoy punch and cookies prepared by band boosters in the band hall.

Ole'!

By JAMIE JONES

At promptly 7 a.m. on Tuesday, February 20, thirty of the students from the Spanish I and II classes at Cross Plains High School traveled to Fort Worth with their Spanish teacher, Robbye Fullen. They went to the Will Rogers Memorial Cultural Center to watch classical Spanish dances performed by Jose Molina and his dance company.

The program was designed to show students enrolled in Spanish some of the traditional Spanish dances.

Jose Molina has been dancing professionally since he was 14. He has toured many countries and appeared on many talk shows in the United States. Mr. Molina and three young ladies demonstrated three types of Spanish dances including Classical Spanish, Escuela Bolera, and Flamenco. In addition to the 4 dancers, there was one vocal accompanist and a guitarist.

The students enjoyed the hour and a half program immensely, but also enjoyed their trip to the Ridgeman Mall where everyone ate lunch and shopped for 2 hours, returning to Cross Plains about 5:30 p.m.

No Pain...No Gain

By BECKY MCKEEHAN

After several years of being without a weight lifting team, Cross Plains had six students participate at a weight lifting meet. The Albany Powerlifting Championship meet was held on Saturday, February 24. There was a total of 78 lifters in 10 different divisions. Of the six participants from Cross Plains, only two placed.

One of the winners was Johnny Herridge. According to Coach Taylor, "Johnny won his division over seven other lifters in the 123 division.

Johnny had a total of 765 pounds (195 bench, 260 squat, and 310 deadlift). This is pretty outstanding since he only weighs 118 pounds."

The other winner was Shawn McKeehan. Shawn took 4th with a total of 805 pounds (230 bench, 245 squat, and 330 deadlift) in the 242 division.

The other Cross Plains participants were Bobby Bomar, Louis Cavage, Kevin Clark, and Travis Jordan.

Congratulations to all of the Cross Plains Weight Lifters.

High School Tennis Program Involves Many Students

1990 Football Schedule Released

Recently, the University Interscholastic League realignment committee met and made its two-year district realignments. Immediately after the release of the new district assignments, coaches all over Texas began the frantic game-scheduling process which will be in effect for the next two years.

Cross Plains' head coach, Kyle Coker, this week released the Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Junior High Football schedule for Cross Plains' 1990 season. Cross Plains is now in Region II, District 14A in football. Also in the district are Rising Star, Gorman, Baird, Tolar, and Santo.

The basketball district, which was also set, includes Moran, Eula, C.P., and Baird — the same as this year's, but as of yet, the new basketball schedule has not been fully established.

The following is a schedule of the 1990 season.

CONGRATULATIONS — May Wetzel and Laura Rankin recently competed in U.I.L. voice competition.

1 And 2 Ratings Earned By Singers

By CA

Two Cross Plains High School students recently competed in University Interscholastic League (U.I.L.) voice competition. Sophomore May Wetzel and freshman Laura Rankin each competed at San Angelo on Saturday, February 11.

The competition involves three divisions and a student may enter in any one of the three. Each student sings a prepared song for one judge with their pianist, the only other person allowed in the room. The song choice comes from a list of songs from the division in which the student chooses to compete.

May, who also competed last year, entered in Division II with "A Lullaby." In competition with other schools such as Wylie, San Angelo, Cisco, etc., May received a #2 rating.

Laura, in her first year of U.I.L. voice competition, chose a Division 3 song, "Jesus, Jesus Rest Your Head" earned a #1 rating along with a medal.

Both May and Laura are currently taking voice lessons from Susan Wester in Cisco. Each girl puts in 1-2 hours a week in practice.

On Thursday, March 22, May will be competing at Cisco Junior College. According to May, the competition is "just like U.I.L., but we get to choose any song we want to."

Collegiate Athletic Scholarships Available

Over 100,000 Collegiate Athletic Scholarships are available each year to male and female high school and junior college student athletes. Contrary to popular belief, students don't have to be All-State to qualify. Much of this money goes unused.

A new publication with forms, sample letters and tables of factual information is available for student athletes. It takes them step by step through the important process of getting an athletic scholarship and includes college and conference listings.

For details on how to get a collegiate athletic scholarship, send a large self-addressed, stamped envelope to The National Sports Foundation, 612A Willow Dr., P.O. Box 940, Oakhurst, N.J. 07755.

'Open House'

By CA

Attention, interested elementary, junior high, and high school parents: keep Thursday evening, March 8, from 7 to 8 p.m. open. In recognition of Public School Week...March 5-9...Cross Plains I.S.D. is having an "Open House".

The public and particularly parents of Cross Plains students are invited and encouraged to visit the school — see the students classrooms, and meet and talk with the teachers. Parents need to be more involved in their children's education...many parents visit the school for one reason or another (some on a regular basis), but if you haven't before, now is a good time to get started.

The Ag Shop, Band Hall, Art building, Chapter I, Special Education, and all classrooms, etc. will be open, and teachers and administrators are eagerly looking forward to having a good crowd come by. Visitors will also be welcome to come by the school during the day, but please stop by the office first.

The Cross Plains Band Boosters are sponsoring Family Photographs for the day's on March 4 and 5 from 4-9 p.m. Majestic Marketing Associates will be taking the pictures.

The money that is raised from the pictures will be used to help pay for the new band trailer.

The pictures will be taken at the high school auditorium and band hall. For more information about the pictures, you can call Barbara Sowell 725-7625, Connie Swift 725-6443, or Arlene Stephenson 725-6879.

Cross Plains Roping Club To Meet

Small Businesses Benefit From Unique Partnerships

Community colleges, government agencies and other organizations have formed a unique partnership with the Internal Revenue Service to expand tax education of the self-employed and small business owners.

The Small Business Tax Education Program materials are designed specifically to make tax rules and regulations as painless as possible for the small business owner. Some of the topics include employment taxes, excise taxes, and the small business as a partnership. The course material can be tailored to fit the needs of various audiences and used as part of a college course, business seminar, or workshop.

To find out more about the Small Business Tax Education Program, call IRS toll-free at 1-800-424-1040 and ask for the Taxpayer Education Coordinator in your area.

Need More Time to File?

You may get an automatic four-month extension of time to file, if you file Form 1040 or 1040A.

To get the automatic extension, you must file Form 4868, "Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U. S. Individual Income Tax Return," and forward it by April 16, 1990 to the IRS processing center for your area.

But remember, an extension of time to file is NOT an extension of time to pay.

After you've made an estimate of your tax for the year, you must pay the balance due with your Form 4868. If you underestimate the amount you owe, you will have to pay interest on the unpaid amount. If that amount is more than 10% of your tax, you will have to pay, in addition to interest, a failure-to-pay penalty.

If you file Form 1040EZ or intend to request IRS to compute your tax, you are not eligible for an automatic extension. Also, you are not eligible if you are under a court order to file by the regular due date.

Form 4868 may be obtained by using the order form in the tax package or by calling the IRS toll-free at 1-800-424-3676.

profit of nearly $200,000 per load on a semi-tractor-trailer rig.

The list continues. Minnesota recently joined 13 other states to set up a telephone hotline to combat growing tobacco bootlegging. However, law enforcement efforts to curtail the cross-border activities remain ineffective.

It is increasingly difficult to understand why state budgeters, who should know that tobacco tax increases represent a poor long-term choice as a revenue raiser, continue to enact them. Consumption is not growing, but bootlegging is. Tobacco retailers and distributors have repeatedly told legislatures that such activities would increase as long as consumer excise taxes continue to rise. And facts have borne this out.

Further, study after study has shown that consumer excise taxes on cigarettes are unfair, hitting the lower- and middle-class families the hardest. Those who can least afford it carry the greatest share of this tax burden.

Lawmakers need to go back to the drawing board and take a second look at their consumer excise taxes. ll

CAN GRANDMA AND GRANDPA AFFORD NURSING HOME INSURANCE?

AT AGES 65 TO 69	21% CAN AFFORD	79% CAN'T AFFORD
AT AGES 70 TO 74	15% CAN AFFORD	85% CAN'T AFFORD
AT AGES 75 TO 79	10% CAN AFFORD	90% CAN'T AFFORD

Private insurance is supposed to help older Americans protect themselves from the crushing financial burdens of long term care. But the insurance policies are so expensive that only the very richest elderly can afford the premiums.

Families USA Foundation researched the average costs of "the Chevrolets, not the Cadillacs" of nursing home policies sold by the nine leading insurance companies marketing these policies to individuals. These policies fell short of the standards set by Consumer Reports, providing less than really adequate coverage. Nonetheless, their premiums are so high that only one out of six older Americans can afford them.

An elderly couple going out to buy nursing home insurance when the husband is 72 and the wife is 69 would have to shell out $307 every month in premiums. That would be on top of what they're paying for Medicaid insurance—and all of their other out-of-pocket health expenses!

Based on U.S. Census Bureau data about income and assets, 84% of Americans between 65 and 79 simply can't afford these policies. Because premiums are higher for people who start paying later, 79% of Americans between ages 65 and 69 can't afford to buy, 85% can't afford to buy at ages 70 to 74, and 90% can't afford to buy at ages 75 to 79.

Bootlegging:

When Tax Laws Encourage Lawbreaking

by David F. Vite

Most consumers will search for the best price on a product they buy frequently. This may entail going to a different market or an outlet mall to compare, but certainly not to another state. However, this, too, has become a practice of consumers, and one that has become so popular, it's hurting the state itself.

The problem that I am talking about is bootlegging, and the root of the problem is inconsistent state consumer excise taxes on products such as tobacco, gasoline and alcohol.

States that levy higher excise taxes on such products create an incentive for bootlegging. The overall results: declines in state retail sales, jobs and tax revenue. And whether petty or major in scale, everyone seems to be doing it these days.

The reality of bootlegging is that the very state government that is looking for increased revenue takes the loss in the end.

For example, Illinois, which levies a 30 cent-per-pack state consumer excise tax on cigarettes, has experienced a surge in bootlegging. The Illinois Department of Revenue estimates a loss of up to $13 million in tax revenue annually. One truckload carrying 500 cases of bootleg cigarettes can result in a potential tax loss of $188,000 to the state.

However, when you look at Illinois' border states and compare their per-pack taxes — Kentucky (3 cents), Missouri (13 cents) and Indiana (15.5 cents) — the motivation is clear. And two-thirds of Illinois' population is concentrated in seven border counties.

Similarly, in Florida, a significant part of the estimated $125 million annual sales of non-tax-paid cigarettes are bootlegged. This comes as no surprise when you consider that North Carolina levies a 2 cent-per-pack tax as opposed to 24 cents in Florida. Bootleggers make incredible profits: 22 cents per pack, $2.20 per carton and $132 per case of 60 cartons. A semi-truck holding 560 cases could bring in $73,920.

And price disparities between California and other states can range as high as 33 cents per pack, $3.30 per carton, $198 per case. By avoiding the taxes, bootleggers can make a

...valentine queen contestant

Sorority Present Valentine Sweetheart

By DORA SMITH

Ms. Melissa Kemp was chosen as Valentine Sweetheart to represent the local Alpha Rho Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in this year's international Valentine Queen Contest. Johnny Carson, one of the world's best known and loved comedians, judged the contest on the basis of entered photographs.

Melissa has been a member of the sorority for one year, and is very active. She serves on the Telephone and Social Committees and helps with all projects. Members of Alpha Rho Zeta are proud to have her represent them on the international level.

COTTONWOOD NEWS

By BEVERLY BROWN

Our recent rains last week of 1½" to 2½" measurable precipitation was greatly appreciated. Dry and hazardous fire conditions remain with warm temperatures and strong gusty winds during the weekend.

Residents in rural areas are urged to contact your local fire departments when planning a control burn of ranch and pasture lands. Phone number for the Cottonwood Volunteer Fire Control is 725-6555 or alternate numbers 725-6587 and 725-6603.

Charlotte and Alton Hastin of Springtown were down on Thursday to see her parents and family, Barbara and Eddy Albrecht, Eddy Jr., Tresha, Carlile, Emma and Andrew.

Mr. Bill Nickerson Sr. returned home on Saturday after undergoing tests and surgery at Hendricks and Humana Hospital in Abilene this past week. We all wish you a speedy recovery, Bill.

Lamar and Carlene Nickerson of Cold Spring were here to see his brother and wife, Bill Sr. and Dena Nickerson, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hines, Jeffrey and Julie of Clyde, and Connie Potter, Rickie Jo, Porcius and April of Cross Plains visited with their folks over the weekend.

Calvin Champion and May Wetsel traveled to Tuscola to his aunt and uncle's, Joe and Claud Champion, and to Potosi to see his brother and family, Glenn Jr., Randi and the new addition, Cassidy Breann, on Sunday afternoon.

Rusty Childers and Rusty Jr. were out to their grandparents, Lilly and Blanton Childers on Sunday. Delilah and Cecil Goble came by during the week. Aubrey Childers of Abilene was at his parents recently.

Bob and "Cookie" Robinson and Brian of Clyde and Billy Bell and son, Billy, visited with J.P. and Nettie Clark last week.

Daisy Holcomb and Lucile Callaway visited Sunday with Ethel Anderson, Joe, Teresa, Blake and Satin Martin of Cisco came by and brought her Valentine gifts. Other guests were Matt, Mandi and Malysa Sowell and Lela Montgomery. Ethel visited in the home of Rod, Beth, Sarah, Jamie and Carie Renfro Saturday.

T.E.L. Sunday School Class Has Luncheon

T.E.L. Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church in Cross Plains met for a luncheon in the home of Claribel Gibbs in the Rowden Community Tuesday.

Following lunch, the group entered into a business meeting with outreach leader, Gladys Smith, presiding. Avis Sexton gave the treasurer's report. Devotional was given by Lorine Byrson. Bible games were enjoyed by all.

Those attending were Donie McCowen, Cloe B. Proffitt, Maurine McCuin, Ruby Brooks, Vida Balkum, Thora Walker, Lela Foster, Wilda Dennis, Opal Jernigan and two associate members, Juanita Shaw and Joyce Odom.

PERSONALS

Visiting with Suma Dill were Mr. and Mrs. Skeet Walker and grandson, Heath, L.A. Richardson, Pearl Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thompson, Howard Shanks of Big Spring, Carol Louchhead of Terrell and Gaylan Duggan of Rising Star.

Pitching for Dollars

By Bert Randolph Sugar
PM Editorial Services

Willie Mays, who once verged on the brink of financial ruin after a costly divorce, put the financial plight of the athlete best: "The financial careers of most professional athletes can be summed up in these words: short and sweet ... but mostly short."

From that day in 1869 when Harry Wright became America's first salaried athlete — receiving the then-princely sum of $1,400 a year in Grant dollars — America's athletes have provided escapism and entertainment for millions of non-athletic brethren. All for a fee, of course.

But even while there is pay-for-play, athletes have such a short period to exploit their fame and maximize their fortunes, many have resorted to that time-honored practice — trading on their names.

The traditional way of increasing a player's income is — and always has been — product endorsement. The first recorded instance occurred on Sept. 1, 1905, when Honus Wagner, shortstop for the Pittsburgh Pirates, gave the J.F. Hillerich & Son Company permission to use his name on its Louisville Slugger bats for a consideration of $75.

Sports merchandising actually was an extension of one of the oldest forms of advertising known to mankind — patent medicine shows. The elixir salesman would place performers on the tailgate of his wagon to sing and dance. When this attracted a crowd, the old doc would come out and sell his bottled-in-the-back nostrums.

Twentieth-century sports extended his tailgate. The performers became professional athletes used — with or without permission — to provide an audience for the "pitch."

One time the merchandising world took an athlete's name in vain was in 1920 when the sports world was captivated by a gargantuan Babe Ruth hitting gargantuan homers, 54 in all, almost doubling the previous record. One candy company wanted to cash in. So it introduced the Baby Ruth candy bar. But when Ruth, who already was marketing a similar product, Ruth's Home Run, sued, the candy company responded that its bar was named after President Grover Cleveland's daughter Ruth, who, it claimed, had "visited the plant years ago." But Ruth Cleveland had died 12 years before the company had even opened its doors. So the company's corporate tongue could never have been far from its corporate cheek when it put forth such a candy-coated fabrication. Nevertheless, it won its case.

Years later, based on an offhand remark by Reggie Jackson that if he played baseball in New York, "They'd name a candy bar after me," the ball turned and the successor corporation came out with a candy bar called Reggie! (This in spite of the fact, some wags said, they already had a bar named after him — "Butterfingers.") On opening day 1978, the candy company got a promotion within a promotion. Handing out thousands of Reggie! bars to the more than 50,000 in attendance, it saw them scaled onto the field after Reggie hit a home run in his first time at bat, making it the first game ever delayed by candy bars.

Maybe that old elixir tailgate has extended onto the field now. lol

I am Mike Smiddy, candidate for State Representative. I grew up in rural Texas and I want to represent you in Austin with fairness and honesty. The decisions made by the Legislature affect my family as they affect your family. I feel that I am in touch with the average voter because I am one.

My philosophy toward being your voice in Austin will be based on some basic ideas: (1) "If it ain't broke, don't fix it." (2) Do not pass laws which force local governments to raise taxes, and (3) Listen to the people and work hard.

I am not wealthy. My wife and I own a home with a mortgage. My kids go to public school. I am committed to quality education, safe homes and streets, and a healthy business environment. We need to attract jobs but preserve our way of life. It can be done.

I pledge to be honest and listen. I will do my very best to do what is best for my people. That's the only promise I will make.

I ask for your vote and support. Tuesday, March 13

YOUR HEALTH

Facts From The Clinical Center, NIH

Medicine For The Layman: AIDS

AIDS—Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome is a life-threatening illness that depletes the body's ability to fight other diseases.

Parents should tell their children about the risks of AIDS and how to avoid them.

AIDS is transmitted primarily through sex. It can also be transmitted in contaminated blood or blood products during transfusion, through sharing needles in intravenous drug abuse, or from an infected mother to her newborn. All blood transfusions are screened, but on rare occasions AIDS can still be transmitted by blood components. There's no evidence it's ever been transmitted by saliva, urine or perspiration. Studies show it's not transmitted by non-sexual intimate contact including kissing, sharing toothbrushes or sharing beds and bathrooms.

More than 61,000 Americans have AIDS. Another million or so are infected with the virus but have not developed the disease. Limiting the number of sexual partners and contacts can help protect against infection. Using condoms, avoiding anal, oral and "rough" sex can help prevent transmission. Intravenous drug abuse should be stopped and, if not, needle sharing should be avoided.

AIDS is an incurable, fatal disease. Parents should teach children about the risks. This will help combat the disease, prevent its spread and save lives.

For a list of Medicine for the Layman booklets, fact sheets, and videotapes, write: Clinical Center Communications, National Institutes of Health, Building 10, Room 1C255, Bethesda, Md. 20892.

Looking for a Missing W-2?

If you do not receive your 1989 Forms W-2, "Wage and Tax Statement," by January 31, you should contact your employer(s) to request it and to be sure they have your correct address.

If you still have not received your W-2(s) by February 15, you should call IRS. The IRS will ask for your employer's name, address, and social security number or employer identification number.

You should also notify your employer if you find an error on your W-2 statement so the correct information will be shown.

If you are not able to obtain a W-2 statement, contact IRS about how to reconstruct your wage information so you can file your tax return. The IRS toll-free number is 1-800-424-1040.

TEC DOESN'T DICTATE OR REGULATE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Dear Commissioner Nabers, I worked for a company for over a year when I received a better offer. I gave my notice and left. Three months later, my former boss approached me about coming back to work for the old company. It was verbally understood that I would be reinstated at my prior level of seniority, with an increase in my hourly salary, and I would receive any vacation, sick leave, etc., that I would have accrued had I never left the company. With this understanding, I resigned my newest position and went back to my prior employer. Two weeks after my return, my boss's boss told me that I couldn't be reinstated because it was against the TEC's regulations. Is this true? B.C. Fort Worth, Tx.

Dear B.C. THE TEC HAS ABSOLUTELY NO AUTHORITY TO REGULATE EMPLOYMENT DECISIONS BETWEEN EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES. The only thing the TEC can do is decide whether an unemployed worker should get unemployment benefits. In other words, the TEC does not get involved in employment relationships until after there is no longer an employment relationship.

From your letter it appears to me that the employer did put you back to work but that there is some problem with the terms of the employment arrangement. If your boss's boss is renegeing on the verbal agreement you had, he is certainly not doing so because the TEC requires it. The TEC has no power to compel or prohibit any form of employment arrangement. My advice is to approach your employer again and ask for specific clarification of your situation. If he persists in using the TEC as an excuse for not fulfilling the promises that you believe were made to you, you might suggest that he call my office for correct information on the TEC.

COMMISSIONER
Mary Scott Nabers

TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY

Dear Commissioner Nabers, I have an employee who has been on jury duty for almost three weeks, with no end in sight. Apparently the case is a very complicated one. I am going to have to get someone to fill this person's position for the duration. What happens if the substitute turns out to be someone I want to keep? Am I obligated to fire the new employee when my old employee comes back or can I just replace the absent employee permanently? L.T. Denton, Tx.

Dear L.T., The Jury Service and Selection Act of 1968 prohibits an employer from discharging, intimidating, or coercing any full time employee for serving on a jury. Employees who serve must be reinstated without loss of seniority, insurance or other benefits. This means that you are obligated to put your absent employee back to work when his jury service is ended. Whether you keep or terminate the replacement is up to you.

Commissioner Mary Scott Nabers represents all Texas employers. If you have any questions you want answered, please write Commissioner Nabers at: TEXAS BUSINESS TODAY, 614, TEC Building, 15th and Congress, Austin, Tx., 78778.

Put Your Money on Texas.

You may not realize it, but when you put your money into a bank run by out-of-staters, that's where most of your money goes — out of state. Which is bad news for Texas. Bad news for you.

But you do have a choice. You can put your money into AmWest Savings. And not just because we're Texas owned and operated, either. But because we'll work hard for your money and offer you the kinds of banking services that will make your life easier and help your money grow faster. So put your money into AmWest Savings. And put your money on Texas.

Share Your Sight

"Share Your Sight" has made a strong impact on the awareness of Big Country Lions Clubs and their hard work. Thousands of people around the world will benefit from the generosity of people in the Big Country.

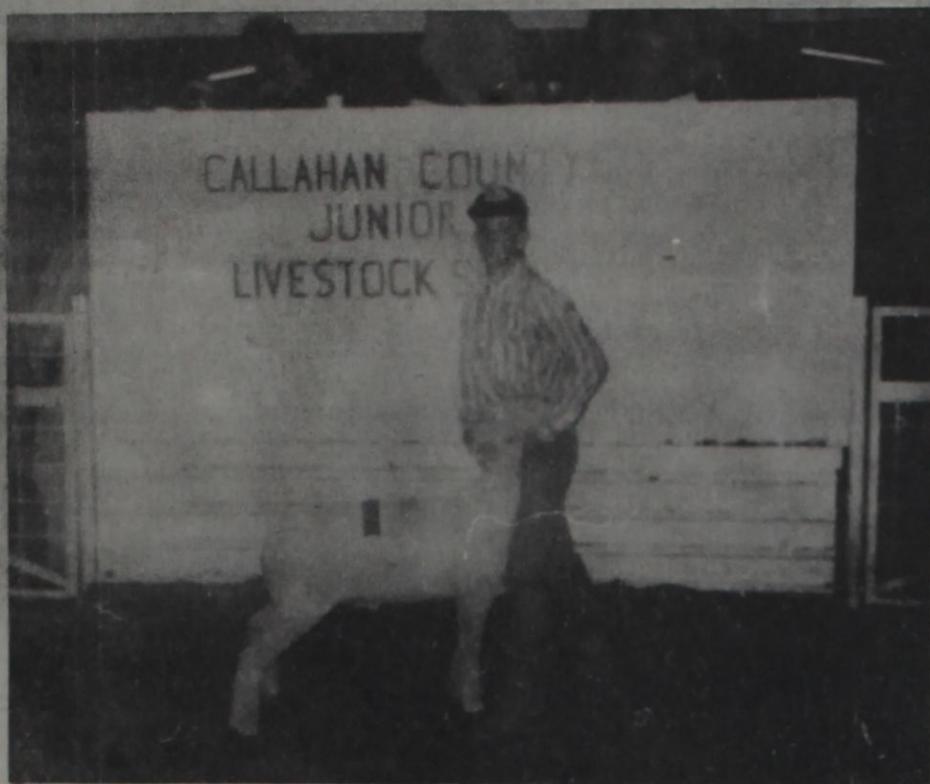

As of this writing all totals are not in, but next week we'll have all the particulars.

KRBC-TV and the Big Country Lions Clubs want to thank all that participated in the "Share Your Sight" project. Hundreds of kids in our area will have their vision problems corrected because of your help.

1st Auction Of Club Lambs

The Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children will have a new phase this summer. The first auction of Club Lambs for Crippled Children will be July 14, 1 p.m., at the West Texas Fair Grounds in Abilene.

Officials of the Rehab announced that a cash premium will be paid for any County Show grand or reserve champion lamb that was purchased through the Club Lamb for Crippled Children sale.

Before a sale can be carried out, lambs must be donated from club lamb breeders throughout the Southwest. Breeders are urged to share from their flocks a wether, ram or ewe lamb, or lambs, to be auctioned for the benefit of crippled children.

The West Texas Rehabilitation Center was established in 1953 as an outpatient rehabilitation center for the disabled of the Southwest. To carry out this program over half of the operational funds must be raised through donations.

The Club Lambs for Crippled Children program will allow additional individuals to participate in this service to the handicapped by donating one or more lambs.

Letters will be sent to breeders and individuals will be contacted by volunteers to line up lambs for the July sale.

Show lambs have been a great training program for young people from throughout the Southwest with their participation in county, regional and state shows.

Officials at the Rehab Center stated that future announcements will be made about the appointment of chairpersons in various areas.

The donated lambs will be picked up within a week of the sale on July 14 in Abilene.

Further information about any facet of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center may be obtained by contacting the San Angelo or Abilene campuses of WTRC.

Mother/Daughter Pageant To Be Held August 3-6

Applications are now being accepted for the 1990 Texas Mother/Daughter Pageant state finals to be held August 3, 4, 5, 6 in San Antonio. For the first time in its four year history the Texas Mother/Daughter Pageant will be televised as a live 2-hour prime-time special. The reigning Texas

Mother/Daughter team is comprised of Phyllis Weiss of Tyler and her daughter, Tisa Weiss Hibbs of Dallas.

The Mother/Daughter Pageant emphasizes traditional family values in modern mother/daughter relationships. Each mother and daughter compete as a team in all phases of competition, providing them the opportunity to share some very unique experiences. Each team competes in three categories of equal weight: Personal Interviews, Swimsuit and Formal Gown.

The state winners will represent Texas at the Mother/Daughter U.S.A. Pageant to be held in Florida this November. Daughters must be at least 16 years of age by November 1, 1990. They may be single, married, separated, divorced or widowed. Mothers may be of any age and any marital status. Both contestants must be U.S. citizens and at least one member of the team must be a permanent resident of Texas.

The contest is produced in Texas by Thomas Daniel Productions, Ltd. For applications and further information contact the Texas Mother/Daughter Pageant, 8480 Fredricksburg Road, Suite 288, San Antonio, Texas 78229. Or telephone Gary Young, State Director, at (512) 697-8055 (days) or (512) 647-3448 (nights).

Delta Kappa Gamma Members Attend Fort Worth Meeting

By RUTH SCHAEFER STEWART

Eight members of the Beta Upsilon Chapter, which includes women educators from Eastland and Callahan Counties, attended a Region X Delta Kappa Gamma Society International luncheon at the Colonial Country Club at Fort Worth, Texas on Saturday, February 17, 1990.

Members Ruby Lee Pirtle, Ruth Stewart, Carolyn Page, Bernice Carter, and Davene Jeffcoat from Cisco; President Billie Ruth Loving from Cross Plains; Azalee Womack from Rising Star; and Superintendent Elizabeth Abernathy from Baird attended the meeting.

Nineteen local presidents were honored and the members attending from each chapter were recognized. Each one received a colored flower which represented a color of the rainbow. The theme of the luncheon was "You Can Make a Rainbow." Table centerpieces of green fern had rainbows of ribbons over them and favors of miniature tote bags had rainbows and the theme painted on them. Twenty-five door prizes were given away.

District and State officers in attendance were recognized. Twenty-five and fifty year members were honored. Music was presented by "Harmony," a group of students from Trinity High School directed by Cherrie Townsend.

"World Fellowship in Action" was explained by Gean Moody and she introduced Gabriele Marin, World Fellowship Student from Costa Rica. She gave a glimpse of her personal life (with two children) and told of her plans to learn more about computers to enable her to teach in the University of Costa Rica.

Alpha State President Dr. Aleene Van de Grift delivered a speech with the title "You Can Make a Rainbow." She challenged each of the teachers to brighten her corner of the world with enthusiasm and love for the students. Approximately 200 teachers were in attendance.

Quality - Value - Service - Dignity

When the director of one of the area's oldest and most respected funeral homes decided on a pre-need monument, he and his wife had several advantages. They had represented monument companies for years, and they know about prices, quality, workmanship, and service. With their knowledge, and without the burden of bereavement, they chose the best for themselves. - They Chose TEXAS MONUMENTS.

BECAUSE IT'S OUR CHILDREN'S FUTURE

- A firm commitment on the part of the state to see to it that our educational system levels up to quality not down to mediocrity.
- The state must be committed to funding any program which it mandates, not passing the responsibility to the local property owner.
- On-site decision-making giving both teachers and local administrators more control over the creation of their own educational environment.
- No forced consolidation.
- Job skills training such as vocational and technical education for our students who aren't college bound.
