

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

A question that may have worried you as well as us is; what do candidates do election evening, while the returns are coming in?

Do they mix about with the boys, taking sheepish looks at the bulletin board, or go home and wait for some friend to break the tidings? Of course we all know the big boys hover about radios like an old hen over her chicks in a thunderstorm. But such accommodations are not available the undergraduates.

Our guess is that they get off with a few friends somewhere, keeping in communication with returns. If the prospects are pleasing they perhaps lay plans then and there for the run-off, and if they are adverse they probably lament the fact that they ever damped their feet in the muddy sea of politics.

And since politics is the prominent topic of the day we must comment upon Gene Tunney's taking the stump in Connecticut for the Democrats.

The former heavyweight king is tackling the assignment of converting Republicans into Democratic with athletic vigor. His influence is being felt too. Reports are that millions are marvelling in his oratory whereas physical supremacy was their interest in him but a few short years ago.

This looks like a banner for Democrats. Allow us to suggest that Republicans load on our handwagon next November and be a part of the biggest landslide in history. Do that little thing and we'll forgive you for Mr. Hoover's prosperity.

We may think that we will be glad when the elections are over, and perhaps many will; but dear friends what will we talk about then? The Lindbergh tragedy, war in China, sales tax and other favorable pre-campaign subjects now belong to the past. And no one is interested in 'depression' anymore.

Nat Williams has cast aside his umbrella straw hat, the latest thing out in 1914, and donned a new crisp sailor. Higginbothams gave this scribe a half page ad for cutting up the professors hat and incidentally being instrumental in the sale of the new headcovering.

The new school 'marm' was in town Saturday and right away "Doc" McGowen was seen to be wearing his Sunday clothes on Saturday and going without his glasses. Is there any connection Doctor?

ODDITIES

Tom Bryant, Jr., of this place, is the youngest Texas Ranger. He has held a commission since he was seven.

Jim Settle's Tailor Shop, Cross Plains, is the best advertised establishment of its size and kind in West Texas. The slogan "enemy to dirt" is largely responsible.

Callahan county is almost identically the same physical size and shape of 47 other Texas counties. There are less than two square miles difference in the area of any of that group.

POLITICAL POT IS SIMMERING

W.A. Paynes Win Money On Picnic Farm Exhibits

GUY TAYLOR TAKES MOST FIRST PLACES WINNING 6 DISPLAYS

Complete announcement of winners in agricultural and livestock exhibits at the Cross Plains picnic Wednesday and Thursday, of last week, was furnished the Review Monday, by Vocational Agriculture Instructor V. CANDIDATES MEET AT PUTNAM FRIDAY FOR LAST MINUTE RALLY close first primary campaigns Friday night when they meet at Putnam for the last political rally before the balloting Saturday. Amplifiers will be coming Saturday. Amplifiers will connected to speakers stand, on the square, to insure distinctive hearing to the crowd of several thousand that is expected.

While the schedule of speakers was not available at 'press time' Wednesday night, it was understood that all county office seekers and most of the district candidates would attend the Putnam gathering.

Oldest West Texan

Col. T. A. Burns, of Burkett, who has just turned 100 says that he expects to live to be 140. He contributes his exceptional health and unusual span of life to the fact that he has always been temperant in his habits. He never uses profanity, liquor or alcohol.

SUMMER'S FIRST HEAT WAVE SENDS MERCURY TO 112 THE PAST WEEK

Summer's first terrific heat wave was felt throughout the Cross Plains trade territory the first of the week, when mercury rose in thermometers to 112 degrees. At Burkett a man suffered a slight sunstroke, while another collapsed at a drilling well, West of here Sunday afternoon. Neither case was serious however, and both have practically recovered.

Thunder clouds in the Northeast cooled the atmosphere in Cross Plains Wednesday. Weather predictions for the week end were possible light showers throughout Central and West Texas, according to Associated Press news dispatches.

Belle Plaine, Cottonwood, Cross Plains, Clyde Have Namesakes In Other States

As far as names are concerned, towns like people, may be twins or even triplets. An examination of a list of United States postoffices the first of the week revealed that several places in this locality bear the same designation as cities and towns in other states.

The name Clyde, for instance, applies to towns in Texas, Kansas, New York and Idaho. There are also Cottonwoods in Idaho and Minnesota as well as in Texas. There is a Belle Plaine in Minnesota; a Cross Plains in Wisconsin; Abilene in Kansas and

CROSS PLAINS COPS RISING STAR BASE BALL TOURNAMENT

Finish With 3 Wins 1 Loss; Sipe Springs Second With 2 and 1

By winning three games and losing one Cross Plains nine gathered the winning percentage at the baseball tournament, at Rising Star, the past week end. Sipe Springs came second, Rising Star third and DeLeon trailed the ticket.

Cross Plains' schedule resulted in a four to two victory over Rising Star; a 11 to five decision over Sipe Springs and 9 to nothing (forfeit) over DeLeon. The locals lost their only game in the opening round of the tournament to Sipe Springs 11 to four.

Batteries for Cross Plains were; Odell and Coffey against Rising Star; Purvis and Coffey against Sipe Springs the last game and Pittman, Coffey and Coffey against Sipe Springs in the first contest.

The batting lineup used in the three contests was Nathan Oliver, John Purvis, Darwin Ivy, Bill Sheehan, Varner, Red Coffey, Morris Ivy, Opal Coffey, Odell, and Purvis. Ode Davidson and Harry McFerrin were pinch hitters. McFerrin also took a turn of three innings behind the plate reliving Coffey.

Official tabulation of the present-ages shows Cross Plains to have finished with 750; Sipe Springs with 666; Rising Star 333 and DeLeon 000.

The tournament was sponsored by the Rising Star American Legion Post.

Sammie Samuels, of San Antonio, was in Cross Plains the past week.

Sample Ballot On Page Two

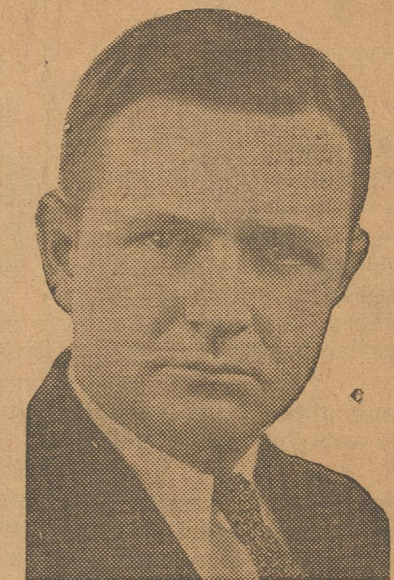

Saturday Is Election Day; Expect 800,000 Ballots In State And 3,000 In County

Candidates hearts are beating excitedly. They're wearing their Sunday smiles and we're all perhaps just a wee bit anxious and here's the reason why.

Texas' political pot is simmering merrily. Saturday is primary balloting day for Democrats. Officials of the state election bureau have declared that they expect 800,000 votes to be cast if the weather is fair.

About 3,000 is the estimate that precinct chairmen have predicted for Callahan County.

Friends Boost Allred

Cross Plains friends of Jimmie V. Allred are boosting him for reelection as Attorney General by working locally in his behalf. An advertisement for him, paid by friends of this place, appears on page 12. A big sign and circulars at the picnic the past week were other methods they used

The longest 'ticket' in history, bearing 125 names, will be spread before Callahan voters at 20 different boxes Saturday morning. Polls all over the state will open at eight a. m. and close at seven that night.

Election returns will be received in Cross Plains Saturday night the Review was informed yesterday by a delegation of business men here. A large black board, well lighted, will be placed over the awning of the Citizens State Bank, on West Eight Street, and the returns will be recorded there as they come in from various portions of the state. Arrangements have been made to have a telephone connected directly to the board, in order that returns may be received without unnecessary delay.

In Cross Plains the balloting will take place at Anderson-Dodson Chevrolet Company, with F. R. Anderson acting as presiding judge. He will have about 10 assistants.

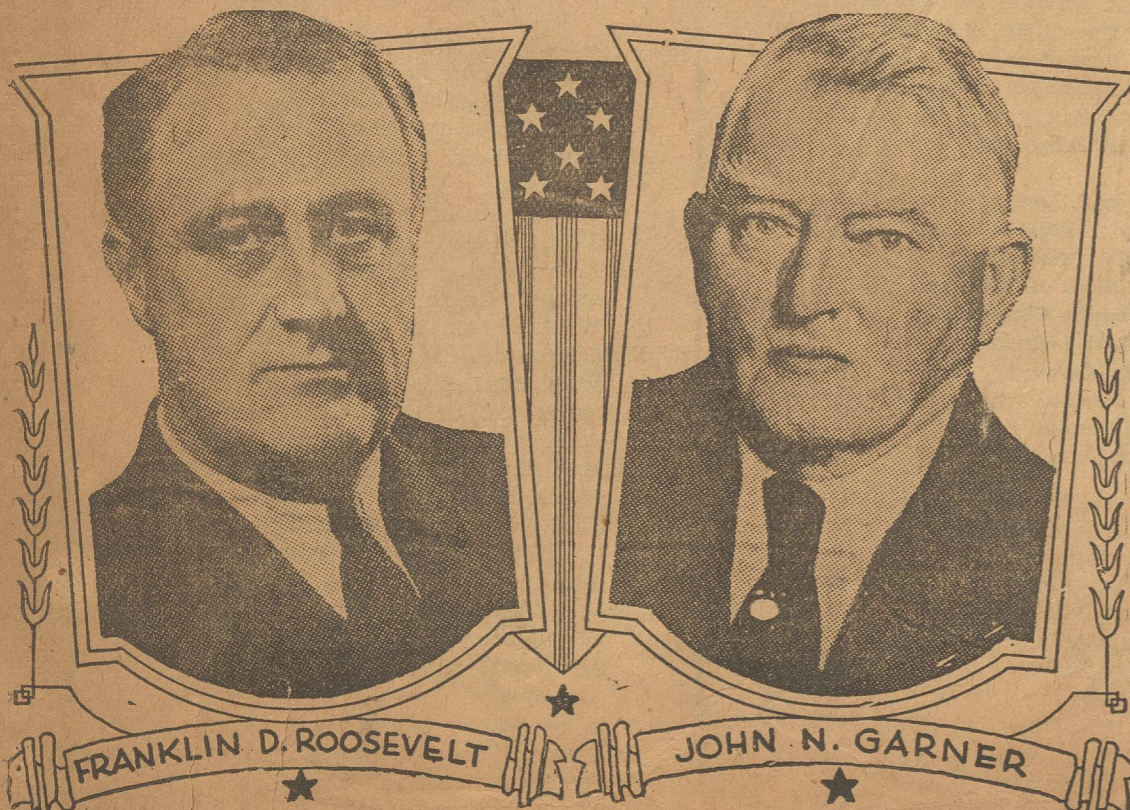

For convenience of voters in studying the 'ticket' before going to the polls, there appears on page two of this issue of The Review a sample ballot. It is identical to the one that will be presented Callahan voters with the exception of the caption "Sample Ballot" at the top and the warning notifying voters that the sample should not be carried to the polls, as it is a direct violation of the Texas election laws.

A Voting Tip

On the ballot there will appear three blank lines, on which voters are to write their choice for precinct chairman, constable and Justice of the peace. The other blank line, which concerns voters of another precinct is of no importance to voters county wide. The ballot is self explanatory, according to election officials, and can be interpreted with little or no explanation. However they pointed out that any of the officials are permitted to render instructions along this line.

SON BORN TO MR. AND MRS. HOWARD COBURN

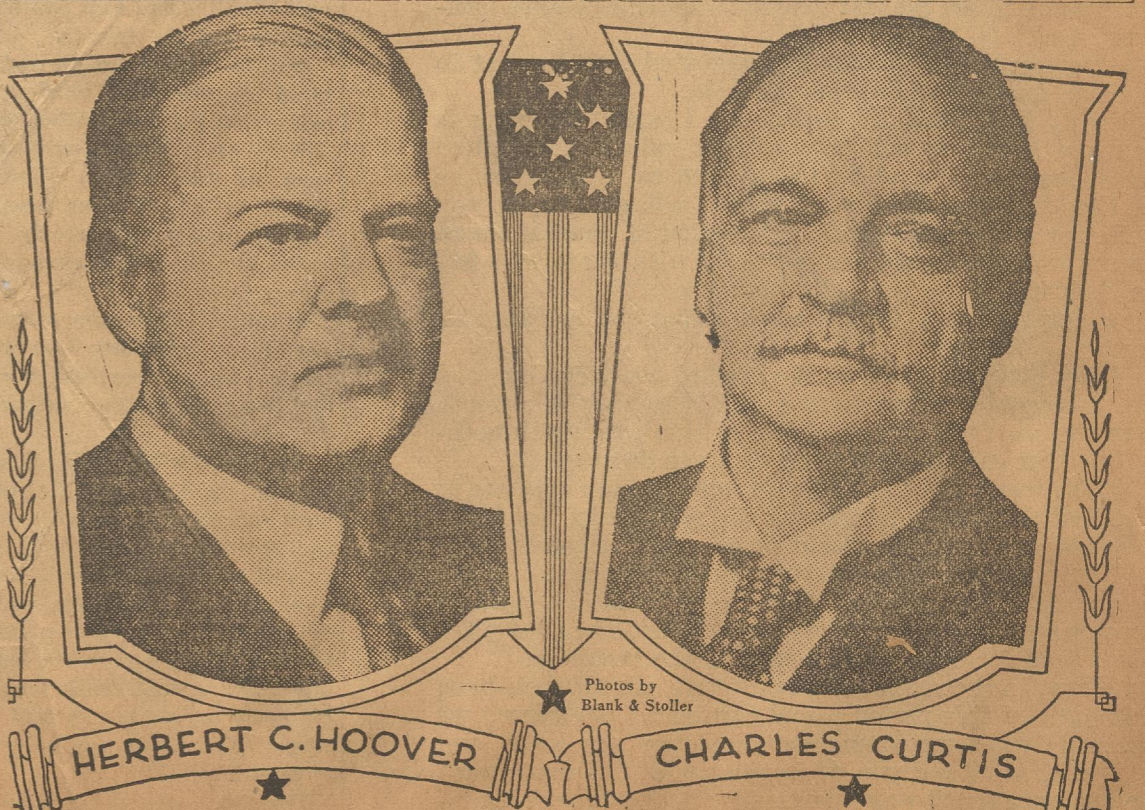

An eight pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coburn here Tuesday morning. The child has been named Edward Keith. Both the baby and mother were doing nicely Wednesday afternoon.

The Standard Bearers

When voters go to the polls for general election No vember eighth there will appear for the first time in history the name of a Texan for Vice President. He is John Nance Garner, left. At the extreme left is Franklin D. Roosevelt the Democratic standard bearer and Garner's running mate. At the left are shown Herbert Hoover, President and Vice-president respectively, who will seek reelection

Pictures shown are latest snaps of the standard bearers.

A Simple Principle Of Democracy

BY JACK SCOTT

A citizen might correctly be defined as one who enjoys the freedom, liberties and protection of a government and in exchange for these privileges contributes towards its welfare.

A duty that might be ranked foremost of those of a citizen, is to vote and bespeak a voice in the selection of office holders. Every man and woman in Texas, qualified to do so, should go to the polls Saturday and endorse the names of those candidates which they deem may be of greatest service to our government; whether precinct, county or state.

These are times when the masses, our great commonwealth, need efficient representation and the only issues should be honesty and efficiency.

The greatest lot in history to choose from is available this year, and from the more than 100 names that will appear on ballots in every Texas county an army of capable leaders should emerge.

Generally speaking we are Democrats. And democracy means the will of the greatest number of people shall be obeyed. So, let's go to the polls Saturday, vote our choices and then if they are elected, cooperate with them. But on the other hand if our 'favorite sons' are eliminated, let us remember that we are Democrats and surrender our fancies to those of the greatest number of people.

The polls all over Callahan county—at the entire 20 boxes—will open Saturday morning at eight and remain open until the eight o'clock that night. During that 12 hours we must go and vote our convictions. For the greater number ballots that our county and section casts, the greater amount consideration we will receive from those elected. For mercenary reasons, if none other, we must be loyal to our duty as citizens this year and VOTE.

The Way of Life

BRUCE BARTON

HOARDING

About fifteen years ago there was a typhoid epidemic in a certain city, which baffled the health authorities. Children were stricken in widely separated neighborhoods. The water supply was all right; so was the milk and so were the general sanitary conditions. Yet new cases continued to develop.

Finally the mystery was solved. A doctor discovered a domestic servant who was a "carrier" of typhoid germs. Though perfectly well herself, she took the disease with her wherever she went. She became nationally famous under the name of "Typhoid Mary."

Times like the present produce a lot of male "Typhoid Marys." The germs they carry are rumors and fears. One of them came to see me last October when things were looking very bad.

Shaking his head dolefully he suggested that I ought to have some money tucked away in gold.

I blew up and rained all over him. I said: "My bank is strong and liquid. It will be solvent unless the United States is insolvent. And if things get to a point where Uncle Sam is busted, then what good will gold be, do you imagine for one moment that, in a period of general chaos, the mass of people would deal tenderly with those who had helped to bring on the crisis by hiding gold?"

My general attitude in this whole situation has been as follows:

1. I pay little attention to the market quotation on gold bonds, preferred or common stocks. Either they are worth a lot more than their current prices or they are worth nothing. In either case there is nothing I can do about it.
2. If the worst were to happen I have enough egotism to believe that I could make a living and provide for my family under any sort of government or any sort of conditions.
3. I keep a white horse and ride him every day. If we have a social upset you will find me right at the head of the people's parade on my white horse. And the first place we shall head for will be the homes of the hoarders.

Some day, in the not far distant future, we all shall have to look back on this period and consider the record we made. And when my youngster climbs on my knee and says, "Dad, what did you do in the panic?" I don't want to have to answer: "I was smart and yellow, sonny, I hoarded gold."

TO THE VOTERS OF CALLAHAN COUNTY

I have done my very best to see every voters in Callahan County, in behalf of my candidacy for District Clerk, but having to work nights on the telephone board at Baird has prevented my seeing many known and unknown friends. Hence I am taking this method of submitting my plea for the office upon these three points, first, I am qualified to handle the duties of the office in a capable, efficient manner and am familiar with the expectations of a District Clerk; secondly I need the office as a means of support for myself and small son; thirdly my opponent has held the office two terms and if public offices are a good thing I think they should be passed around about every four years, if they are a bad thing one person should not be punished with them for a lifetime.

I beg that you remember me on election day and if elected I give my word and promise that I will be at the service of the people of Callahan County night and day, if it takes that, to keep our records in a commendable manner. Thanking every voter, citizen and friend for any word of praise that may have been spoken in my behalf and soliciting your support next Saturday, I am,

Sincerely yours,
MRS. FORD DRISKELL.

TO MY FRIENDS AND CALLAHAN CO., VOTERS

Saturday is election day in Texas. Callahan county will go to the polls and select with other officers, a Tax Collector for the next two years.

I am making the race on my own merits and have not one statement of detraction to offer against my opponents. If elected I will discharge the duties of Tax Collector honestly, conscientiously and efficiently.

In lieu of the fact that I have handled office and accounting work for years, I feel that I am duly capable to serve you in a manner, that you will appreciate.

Soliciting your support and influence upon merits and qualifications, I beg to always be,

Sincerely yours,
C. Q. (Happy) ARMSTRONG,
Clyde, Texas.

Small Town Life

Among the texts for our discourse this week is that of "small town life"—the subject that Sinclair Lewis ridiculed in his book Main Street. Reams upon reams have been written about it, but perhaps never before has the thought been brought so close home as to cause us to decide why we live, where we do.

True enough, the expensive metropolis has many things that we do not, but what know they of the wholesomeness of noiseless nights, cool clean fresh air, no parking problems. The place where gangsters seldom come; where men know their neighbors and visit them; where rich and poor live, worship and die, friends.

Man likes to be known and recognized. In the small town every one enjoys that privilege. When we urban citizens get a despondent feeling, we must but take a stroll down Main Street, in the old home town, where friendly smiles and cherry "hellos" revive our pep and encourage our cause.

In towns such as ours, everyone has time for a neighborly visit and the crowds that pass our door do not have that hungryish loneliness written across their faces.

Yes, the lady that said, "Man made the city and God made the country", knew something about small town life. And though your pockets may be empty, you are rich in acquaintances and association, and when the time comes for you to be laid to a final rest, friends will have time to follow in procession to that family plot in the old home town cemetery and say, he was a swell fellow and we're going to miss him.

Those are a few of the unadvertised advantages of small town life.

NOTICE!

Promising, honest, loyal and efficient service, I ask your support Saturday in my behalf for Public Weigher of precinct six. I have lived in this precinct 26 years and am personally acquainted with practically every farmer that our Public Weigher will be privileged to serve.

I know what the public wants and expects. I am willing to render that service and WILL DO IT if you elect me your Public Weigher at the polls Saturday.

Respectfully yours,
T. E. MITCHELL.

Dressy

The Cross Plains Picnic caused several friends and neighbors to get a few hours of happy recreation in spite of the busy season, as there were three threshing machines in our community, of course no one could stay at the picnic except for a short time.

Mr. Harlow was threshing for Mr. Wallace Jones, Mr. McDermitt, L. F. Cullens, and C. D. Baird at Pomp Payne's. The hours of sleep almost were cut down to Mr. Edison's requirements.

Vernon Baird of this community won first prize on his grand heifer. B. M. Baum store has been opened up by Mr. Warren. We are glad to have a store in our community. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Warren to our Sunday School and community in general. Mr. Warren and his wife and little son will be a help to our Sunday school.

Miss Dorothy Nell Pirtle of Coleman was a visitor in our Sunday school, Sunday morning, she is visiting Miss Frances McDermitt.

Helen Johnson is the happiest girl in our community this week over the $5 she received Saturday at the drawing at Cross Plains. Rev. and Mrs. Stapleton will be accompanied by Jonnie Mae Swafford, Helen Johnson, Virginia Belle Baird and Frances McDermitt to Post the last of this week to participate in a Methodist Picnic given by the Board of Education.

There were several Dressyites who attended the home coming at Sealy Hospital Monday.

Mrs. Stapleton, Mrs. Lowrie, Mrs. Baird and daughters motored to Coleman Saturday afternoon.

Fifth Sunday Rally Day will meet with Dressy people fifth Sunday of this month. We expect a good time, everybody invited to be present with a well-filled basket.

The little Ray baby has not been well for several days.

Our Methodist meeting will begin Fifth Sunday night.

MILDRED NEWTON

Fred S. Cochran and family of Payne, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Burns, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perry of San Angelo left Saturday for Carlsbad, New Mexico. Their object, of course, is to go through the famous cavern. They intend to go into Old Mexico, and return Tuesday. B. D. Wesley is serving as temporary postmaster.

Thelma Wilson, who is attending summer school at John Tarleton, spent the week end with homefolks.

We are sure that everyone reads and enjoys the Home Town Gossip Column. Everyone understands, too, that the "humorous jabs" are not really "rocks" at all, but are usually roses slightly camouflaged. This column, as a whole humorous or otherwise, is one of the things that has lifted the Review from the commonplace to a really interesting newspaper.

Harshel Gray returned Tuesday of last week from Bryson.

Mel Walker gave the young people a party Saturday night.

Walter Adams was in the hospital a few days last week from sun-stroke.

Mrs. Calvin Baker, who was in the Sealy Hospital last week, suffering from a spider bite, is much improved.

Minnie Wesley returned Sunday from Alpine where she has been attending school.

Ola Belle Perkins is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charlie Burkett this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wilson are the proud parents of a baby boy, weight seven and one half pounds, born July 12th.

Herbert Covalt of Fort Worth is working on the Amerada lease.

Bertha Edington of Coleman is visiting her sister Mrs. Vernon Rich.

Earl Baker and family of Ballinger spent a few days of last week with the C. D. Bakers.

To The Public

In reference to the article, "Confiding In The Tax-Payers" clipped from The Cisco Weekly Citizens and published by request in The Baird Star last week, I wish to say to the reader of The Star and the public generally, that I have been informed that some construe it to mean the Commissioners Court of Callahan County have not been complying with the law in having the Quarterly Financial Report published—but, this is not true, as the Commissioners Court of Callahan County have published the Quarterly Report Each Quarter in The Baird Star for many years.

I make this statement as I do not wish anything to run in the columns of The Star that will cast any reflections upon County Judge J. H. Carpenter and Commissioners' J. W. Hammons, S. S. Harvelle, C. E. Bray and G. H. Clifton, who have been most faithful and efficient in the performance of their official duties.

The records of the county are open to the public at all times and any one is at liberty to see them and all finances of the county are audited up to date.

Respectfully,
ELIZA GILLILAND,
Editor, The Baird Star.

Creator of Bell Music

It is due to a Cambridge (England) man named Fabrian Etedman that church bells make music instead of merely noise. He was the man who established the ringing of changes as an art, and the bell-ringers recognized the fact when they held a great bell-ringing festival to mark his tercentenary recently. Of course, there were bells before Etedman, and some very ancient ones are still in use. The oldest in Britain, a bell in the parish church of Lanark, dates back to 1110. It is probably the oldest bell in Eu-

Some of the reasons why I am going to vote for T. E. Powell of Baird for County Judge, please read this and give it your consideration.

T. E. Powell has lived in this county for 47 years continuously.

He has served the people of this county in public business all of this time and there has never been a deal in all that time that has a shadow about it. He is open and above board in all of his dealings.

His honesty and integrity is above reproach.

His life is an open book to every one.

He is a christian gentleman in every respect.

He has not asked the public for anything before.

He has given his life's saving and work, to protect the ones who had faith in him, from any loss, he has honor.

He is capable.

He is rich in experience.

He is fair and honest.

He is economical.

He is now and has always been, for anything that is for the betterment of the people of Callahan County.

He is against any further bonds, and against issuing more scrip.

He is for the reduction of taxes which has been raised each year for the last ten years. From 55 in 1922 to 80 at the present time.

Don't you think that the above is worthy of your consideration?

I am asking you, my friends, to support my Dad and to use your influence for him, you will have no cause to regret having done so.

This is put out by me, C. I. Powell unsolicited, I am doing it because I am interested in the well being of this County where I was born and have lived all of my life and because I believe that my Dad can to a large extent through his long experience, bring this County out of its deplorable financial condition. My Dad and myself will appreciate and thank you for your vote and influence.

VOTE FOR T. E. POWELL FOR YOUR COUNTY JUDGE,

Thanks,
C. I. POWELL

I Want To Cut Our Expenses!

Election time is close at hand and I am taking this method of making a final appeal in behalf of my candidacy for County Commissioner of precinct four. I have lived in this precinct 36 years, with the exception of a few months in the army. I am sure that I know the needs and necessities of our people.

If elected I will devote my entire time and attention to the service of the people of this precinct. I will oppose any and all bond issues or measures to increase taxes.

I feel that I am confident to discharge all of the duties of a Commissioner and honesty and economy shall be my guiding principles.

Upon these fundamentals I beg your support Saturday in the Democratic primary.

Obediently yours,

C. D. (Doke) Westerman

CECIL A. LOTIEF

THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE
For Representative of 107th Flatorial District

Stands For Honesty, Economy, and 50 per-cent tax reduction.

Calling A Halt

July 23, is election day, the time when the citizenship of the 107th Flatorial District goes to the polls to choose their representative at Austin for the next two years. Your duty as a citizen is to be careful and select an honest, capable man, one upon whom you can depend. May I ask that you investigate me as a citizen and business man. Upon the following "planks" I solicit your support.

I favor city and state control of public utility corporations. Power and greed of utility companies has reached the point where justice to the consumer demands governmental regulation. I am not opposed to big business but general welfare is more important than dividends.

For the reduction of taxes, I have the following plan. All state expenses must be held to the very minimum. All departments can trim their budgets if forced to. The only way to lower taxes is to spend LESS and ABOLISH USELESS commissions and bureaus.

We must call a halt on the controlling of our government by "special interests" namely, Public Utility corporations through their attorneys and lobbyists.

I favor the paying of all county road bonds with present gasoline tax. It is sufficient to meet state needs; assume county road bonds and still pay one cent into the school fund.

I am the candidate of the consumer tax payer and laborer. Like the Apostle John, I have fought a good fight and if I am to represent you in Austin you must represent me for the next few days.

Thank You Callahan County
For Your Vote Saturday

Cecil A. Lotief

Charges Allege Sweetwater Man Drowned Wife

Murder charges were filed Tuesday at Sweetwater, Texas, against L. M. Parks, prominent business man, alleging that Parks drowned his wife in Lake Trammell, the city's water supply, last Friday afternoon. In the left photo P. M. Hutchins, lake keeper, is shown pointing to the spot where he helped drag Mrs. Parks' body from the water. Parks is shown at the right. Parks' statement concerning the drowning was that Mrs. Parks had been fishing, and that he went back to the car to bait hooks for his two little girls, ages six and eleven. Upon returning Mrs. Parks was gone and he saw "blubbers" in the water, he said. Charges were filed against him after it was learned that a considerable amount of insurance had been taken out on Mrs. Parks a few weeks previously.

Mrs. Raymond Steele of Deer Plains attended church here Sunday.

There are saints even now, though they perform no miracles—except that of being one.

IN LITTLE OLD New York

BY CARL H. GETZ

Another New York church is installing devices to aid persons whose hearing is impaired. One church here reserves the front pews for persons who can't hear well.

More men are wearing flowers in their lapel buttons here. The explanation is to be found in the number of girls selling flowers on the street. You can buy a gardenia for a nickel here.

There is a company here which manufactures pipe organs for private use home installation and although it is hard to explain, this company is doing quite well.

The Commodore Grill is one of the swankiest in the great Commodore Hotel here. There is also a Commodore Grill over on Avenue A and East Thirtieth Street. It's a lunch wagon.

Taxicab drivers here are complaining that they are getting few 10-cent tips these days. The nickel tip has returned. Waitresses in low-priced restaurants have a similar complaint. Boothblacks who are accustomed to nickel tips say that now they frequently don't get anything extra.

SPECIES OF HAWKS THAT ARE FRIENDS OF FARMER

The saying, "the only good hawk is a dead hawk," has been proven false by modern biological studies. Some hawks, of course, prey at times on poultry and valuable game birds. Many however, live mainly on rodents, insects, and other destructive forms of wild life.

It is not easy to distinguish between the harmful and harmless species of hawks, that in itself being good reason for erring, if at all, on the side of protection. In general say biologists of the United States Department of Agriculture, harmless hawks have broad wings and wide, fan-shaped tails, and the harmful ones have relatively long tails and rounded wings. Study of the appearance and habits of the hawks in any section should enable farmers and sportsmen to tell which are likely to visit the chicken yard and which will confine themselves largely to feeding on injurious animals, and thus be useful.

A Vote For T. E. Powell Means A Vote For The Following Measures That Are So Important To The Taxpayers At This Time.

PLATFORM

FIRST: A full and complete statement of where our tax money goes will be published every 90 days.

SECOND: The Expense Budget will be made up by the Commissioners Court with the assistance of the tax-payers who care to attend. The taxpayers will be taken into the confidence of the Court and the Budget will be made in open Court.

THIRD: There will not be a one man purchasing agent, I am opposed to the County Judge or any one individual buying the supplies for our County when we have and will continue to have a competent set of Commissioners.

FOURTH: We will absolutely and positively spend our income, this SCRIP AND WARRANT BUSINESS will be stopped.

FIFTH: We will strive day in and day out to reduce our County Tax Rate back to the 55% on the One Hundred Dollars valuation from the now advanced rate of 30% on the One Hundred Dollars valuation.

We will have paid, at the end of this year, Mr. Carpenter about $12,945.12, net cash, and have set by and watched our County tax rate increase from 55% to the 80% mark on the One Hundred Dollars valuation. Don't you think and believe we have been for him long enough? As He has been in our Court House 10 Years.

Vote for T. E. POWELL and Live Within Our Income!

Congressman Blanton X-Rays Joe Jones

Some of Jones' many misrepresentations are: (1) That in 1911 when Blanton came to Gorman campaigning he shined Blanton's shoes. Election years are even not odd years, and Blanton did no campaigning in 1911. (2) "That while in the High School in 1915 Blanton addressed Jones' class telling Jones to work hard and prepare himself so he could take Blanton's seat in Congress." Blanton was a District Judge in 1915 and did not enter Congress until March 4, 1917. (3) Jones intimated "that he was an ex-Service man." Commander Brown of Lampasas made Jones admit that he had no service, but had a "leaky heart" and Draft Board released him as "wholly unfit for military service because afflicted with organic heart trouble." (4) Jones wrote "that American Legion in Eastland, Ranger, and Cisco are for him 100 per cent strong." Legionnaires deny this. They are not ingrates. (5) Jones insinuated "that Wright Patman had endorsed him." Answering Judge Bob Haynie's inquiries Patman wrote that he, Rankin and Blanton were the three Congressmen first to sign petition that caused Bonus Bill to be passed in House. Blanton made several speeches for it on the floor, and had been as active as any other Member in supporting it; that he commended Blanton's single handed fight against Wm. Wolff Smith, and his blocking of bad bills, that no Member worked harder than Blanton. That he had endorsed no man from Eastland, and that he and Blanton were close, personal friends. (6) Jones said "Blanton's brother drew a fat salary, and his widow a pension." Blanton showed that to assist him in investigating the Government Printing Office and other rotten Bureaus, he got his brother who had been an expert investigator for an Express Company to give up a more lucrative position in Galveston and move his family to Washington and that his brother worked himself to death, and that in recognition of his work in saving millions, a Republican Chairman introduced and passed a resolution paying his widow barely enough to bury him decently. (7) Jones charged "that Blanton's sons, 'Tom' and 'Matt' were on the pay roll for years." Tom held a position once for a short time at $3.30 per day, when Tool Dressers were drawing $10, until Halbert Kiefer could come from Abilene to take it, and Matt once was a Page for Champ Clark a short time at $3.30 per day, sometimes working through all-night sessions; that during every summer Tom and Matt worked on their Grand-father's ranch, punching cattle, digging post-holes, and threshing grain, to help school themselves, through College, and Law School, and have practiced law past six years, Tom at Albany, and Matt at Abilene. (8) Jones charged "that Blanton's daughter receives Government pay." The following proves that he misrepresents deliberately:

enrolled his daughter merely for the purpose of distributing the allowance, and he uses his daughter's check each month in paying his three employees none of whom are related to him. Mrs. Louise Kennedy Marx is enrolled as one of his clerks at two thousand annually, with which she helps to support her aged father and mother in Abilene. I deem her one of the most efficient Secretaries in Washington. He pays one of his other clerks, Miss Ruby Saylor, eighteen hundred annually, with which she helps to support her widowed mother and two sisters in Abilene. His third employee has used salary to save farm of parents from being foreclosed by keeping up mortgage payments on same. I don't know of any Member here who works harder than does Congressman Blanton, or who gets more of value with his allowance for the Government and people.

SOUTH TRIMBLE, Clerk, House of Representatives.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, COUNTY OF TAYLOR.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Mr. A. W. Logsdon, and his wife, Mrs. Alice Logsdon, known to me to be credible citizens, who being by me duly sworn, upon their respective oaths, state:

We have resided in Taylor County, Texas, for the past 35 years; we are the parents of Louise Logsdon, who as Clerk for Congressman Blanton mailed 80,000 Farmers Bulletins to families living in his district, which action has been criticized by Candidate Joe Jones. Only useful bulletins were mailed. Through the employment Congressman Blanton gave our daughter, she has helped us to make mortgage payments due on our farm, and to save same from foreclosure. Suffering three years of drought preceding this unprecedented depression which now envelops the entire world, it has also been necessary for affiant Mrs. Alice Logsdon to work out which she is now doing at $15.00 per week, which has helped to school our children. In addition to giving lucrative employment to our daughter, Congressman Blanton arranged with the Superintendent of Schools in Washington, D. C. for Louise to attend Business College at night without tuition charge, which with the natural advantages of working in the National Capital has greatly benefited her and ourselves. The criticisms of Candidate Jones are unjust in the extreme.

A. W. LOGSDON
MRS. ALICE LOGSDON
Sworn to and subscribed before me on this the 28th day of June A. D. 1932, at Abilene, Texas. Given under my hand and seal of office.

RUBY SAYLORS

(SEAL)
(9) Jones charged "that in Garza County, in 1916 Blanton was running for 're-election' to Congress, and induced Jones to speak for him, and told Jones that Farmers didn't know anything except what they saw in the Congressional Record, and for him to emphasize to Farmers that Blanton was the Watch-Dog of the Treasury in Washington and that Jones did tell that in his speeches to Farmers." Blanton didn't enter Congress until March 4, 1917. When he ran for re-election Garza County was not in his district. Watch-dog of the Treasury was not applied to Blanton until several years after he went to Congress. When Blanton spoke in Post City in 1916, Giles Connell entertained him, and was with him constantly, and knows he did not ask Jones to make speeches. Blanton doesn't get "Smart-aleaks" to speak for him. Hon. Fred Cockrell was Blanton's Campaign Manager and organized Garza county. If Jones so spoke to Farmers, he did it secretly, and was a prophet, for only years afterwards was "Watch-dog of the Treasury" applied to Blanton. (10) Jones charged "that Blanton's daughter reported his speech at Roscoe." Mrs. Bowen of Sweetwater did this, without Blanton knowing it. (11) In identifying his own Uncle in Nashville, Jones says he picked a Negro woman. (12) Jones charged that "Blanton is responsible for present nuisance taxes." Blanton fought and kept out of House Bill postage increase, and tax on checks and gasoline, and it was President Hoover and his Republican Cabinet and Senate that forced these taxes. Blanton led the fight against and helped to kill the SALES TAX on everything people eat, use and wear.

WASTE, EXTRAVAGANCE AND GRAFT
All other Governments are in worse shape than our own. Russian people are slaves. Our Government can borrow all the money it wants at 2 per cent. Treasury statistics show that Blanton's district has received during the last ten years more money from the Government, for roads, education, agriculture and soldiers than it has received in taxes from Blanton's district. Blanton has to do only with Federal taxes to the government, and has no connection whatever with State, County and City taxes, which Joe Jones has increased with his padded accounts. Except recent taxes, very few of Blanton's constituents have paid any Federal taxes during the past 10 years.

JOE JONES MADE PEOPLE PAY
For 1929, 1930, and 1931, Joe Jones received in cash from the Comptroller of Texas $30,288.00, which with other fees and expenses he got from Eastland Co. aggregated $38,843.20 he got in cash in three years. Auditor Michael disallowed his additional claim of $1800.00 more, and Jones has refused to pay back to Eastland $601.52 Auditor Michael asserts he owes for 1929. Jones has pyramided indictments, manifolded concurrent sentences, and padded fees. On June 4, 1931, Jones filed 19 indictments against Buster Bishop who pleaded guilty, waived a jury, got one concurrent minimum punishment, dated back to May 18, date he went to jail, and Jones collected in cash from Texas taxpayers $30 per case, or $570 for 19 cases. In Cause No. 7778, 137 witnesses were summoned in a liquor case, with a hung jury, and then an acquittal. In Cause No. 8161, Jones had entire Sheriff's force summoned, with a hung jury, and then an acquittal. This manifolded fees for the Clerk and Sheriff. Jones has collected from Texas in cash $5 each for 1374 alleged examining trials, or $6870.00, being three times as many as the other 18 Counties in this district had put together.

HABEAS CORPUS GRAFT
Joe Jones has collected in cash from Texas $16 each for 493 alleged Habeas Corpus hearings, or a total for them of $7,878.00, which is over 450 more Habeas Corpus than were held in all of the other 18 Counties of this district put together, during the same time, none being held in the Counties of Burnet, Concho, San Saba, Lampasas, Coleman, Runnels, Shackelford, Brown and Llano, and only one each in Mills, McCulloch and Callahan, two in Palo Pinto, 4 in Jones, 8 in Stephens and only 14 in Taylor County, with two district courts grinding all the time in Abilene. Why should Joe Jones collect from Texas tax-payers $7,878.00 for 493 alleged Habeas Corpus at $16 each, when the adjoining County of Palo Pinto had only 4, and Stephens County only 8, and Taylor County with two courts only 14 during the same time? Jones caused the Clerk and Sheriff who are not lawyers, to collect excessive fees, who upon demand by the Senate Investigating Committee and Comptroller promptly paid back to Texas the clerk paid back $3,339.90, and the Sheriff paid back $4,349.19, while on Jones' accounts thus far investigated by the Senate Committee, the Comptroller has demanded that Joe Jones pay back to Texas $5,786.00 he has unlawfully collected from tax-payers and also return his last warrant.

JONES MADE EASTLAND FIFTH EXPENSIVE COUNTY
The printed annual Reports of the Comptroller of Texas showing expenses by County for Sheriff, Clerk, Attorney and witnesses, reports that Eastland Co. is the fifth in Texas for largest expense for the years 1929, 1930 and 1931, Joe Jones' three years. Such expenses for 1929 cost Texas for Eastland Co. $25,-143.36; El Paso Co. $7,724.23; Wichita Co. (Wichita Falls) $7,331.94; Brown Co. (Brownwood) $5,659.56 and Concho Co. $771.21, Eastland Co. costing Texas more than all of the above put together. For 1930 Joe ran Eastland's expenses up to $30,-019.55, being more than the Counties of El Paso, Wichita, Brown, Lampasas, Comanche, and Shackelford all put together. For 1931 Joe ran Eastland's expenses up to $32,-184.97, being more than the Counties of El Paso, Tom Green (San Angelo), Brown, Burnet, Coleman, Comanche, Nolan (Sweetwater), and Shackelford all put together for that year. Yet when speaking in front of Barrow's store in 1928 he pledged that if the people would elect him, he would not be guilty of this practice.

JOE'S METHOD OF MANIPULATION
On March 6, 1931, Fred Tarver entered the pen for one year from Callahan County, on a liquor charge. There had been 15 such cases against Tarver in Eastland. Joe had tried three with hung juries, had two acquittals, and dismissed two, with no convictions, leaving 11 cases pending, 162 witnesses were summoned in No. 7780. Under arrangement with Tarver's attorney, Jones sent the Sheriff to Huntsville with a bench warrant, at State expense, and brought Tarver to Eastland, where on April 9, 1931, before one jury, the Foreman being B. M. Collier Tarver pleaded guilty to the 11 cases, getting one punishment made concurrent with the Callahan Co. sentence, wiping his slate clean, and with commutation Tarver was discharged Sept. 10, 1931, serving only six months and 20 days, of which time Joe kept him out of the penitentiary from April 2 to May 2, thus shortening his punishment one month less than he got in Callahan County, and besides the $5 each for alleged examining trials, and $16 each for the alleged habeas corpus hearings, Joe also collected from the State $24.00 each for the eleven pleas of guilty, and gave Tarver no punishment, but rewarded him by keeping him out of the pen one month's of his Callahan Co. sentence. Tarver came straight back to Eastland Co., and Joe filed three new indictments against him December 9, 1931, and three more on June 9, 1932, but has not yet convicted him. By such practice Joe licenses bootleggers to continue violations.

In the Joint Debate at Cisco, Joe deliberately violated his solemn written contract that in his closing speech "he would present no new matter, and read an attack Garner made a dozen years ago, founded on the fact Blanton then was making that stopped the graft in the Restaurant, Barber Shop, and Stationery Room, and when Blanton protested, he was threatened with death surrounded by Joe's planted thugs if he made reply. When Tom, Jr., advised Garner about it, Garner replied July 5, 1932:

"Your father is one of the best friends I have, and I consider him a very valuable Congressman. To take anything I have said in the past concerning him under very distressing conditions, would be unjust to him at the present time. Regards."
JOHN N. GARNER.
Garner has had Blanton preside for him over the House as Speaker many times this year on important bills. Jones said the Chairman of the Federal Farm Board gets $50,-000. He gets only $12,000. Jones said the Chaplain gets $11 for each prayer. He gets $1680 per year, working 365 days constantly visiting 435 Congressmen and families as Pastor. Joe said the Doorkeeper gets $55 per day. He gets $6,000 a year, for constant work 365 days each year.

Pro Leaders Undecided On "Ticket"; Urge People To Favor Dry Candidates

The National Prohibition Board of Strategy Saturday urged its member organizations to support "those candidates who believe that prohibition ought to be the law."

This advice was contained in a summation of campaign policy drafted by a sub committee and approved by the board. Appended was a resume of the record of the republican and democratic nominees for the presidency and vice presidency with quoted utterances for them on the prohibition question. It refrained from endorsing specifically any candidates. Behind this lay an effort on the part of one group within the board to have it declare at once for re-election of President Hoover. This proposal was rejected by vote of the board when offered as an amendment to the sub-committee's statement. The policy declaration set forth a belief the question of retaining, modifying or repealing the prohibition amendment should be settled by the votes of the people, "in senatorial, congressional and legislative elections."

Asserting the resume of President Hoover's record made him out to be dryer than was warranted, Dr. Leigh Calvin, national chairman of the prohibition party, resigned from the board of strategy. He is pushing actively plans to put a strong, nationally known bone-dry third party ticket into the field.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

If elected your County Commissioner I shall give my best towards a thrifty, business like administration. The welfare of precinct four and Callahan county will be the ends toward which I will work. If I fail to see you personally don't think that I do not want your vote, because muddy weather and farming duties have prevented an extensive campaign.

Rowden

BY MIKE AND IKE

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Howard and little daughter Nadine of Richfield, Idaho spent two or three days of last week with Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Phillips and family Mr. Howard is Mrs. Phillips nephew and is the State Senator of Idaho. They arrived at Mr. and Mrs. Phillips home on Sunday afternoon and returned to their home Tuesday.

Miss Lillian Ayers of Brownwood, who has been spending several weeks with her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sikes returned to home one day last week.

Miss Annie Mae Tabor was the Sunday dinner guest of Miss Roberts. Mr. Burr Elliott was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. Burton Roberts.

The people here are so far behind with their crops the Methodist meeting was postponed until some other date which has not yet been set.

Rev. J. P. Patterson, of Abilene, our Methodist pastor, preached for us Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollinshead of Abilene visited Mrs. Hollinshead parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller Sunday.

Misses Dorothy and Doris Thompson of Baird are visiting Miss Ruth Roberts for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobson Sikes of Abilene visited Mrs. Sikes parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller, Sunday. We were informed Mr. and Mrs. Sikes and family would soon move to Rowden.

We wish to correct an error made last week in our write up in regard to the time our Quarterly conference is to be held. We stated it would be last Saturday but we misunderstood the announcement, it was held this Saturday, July 16 instead of Saturday one week ago. Our presiding elder Rev. W. M. Murrell of Abilene will preach for us Saturday at 11 o'clock. There will be dinner on the ground and our business session will be held afterwards.

There was singing Sunday night. The Church house was filled almost to capacity and the singing was splendid. Part of the singing classes of both Baird and Clyde were with us Sunday night and we surely did enjoy hearing their splendid singing and enjoyed them being with us. We cordially invite you to come be with us again, and take a part in the singings. There will be singing again Sunday night and every body is invited. To late for publication last week.

Adaptability

One of the secrets of success seems to be in the power of adapting oneself to various conditions. In these strenuous times which we are going thru' at present, the least complaint comes from the people who are adapting their expenditures to their present incomes, and are getting down to work harder than ever. They are the ones who refuse to be downed by any temporary "hard-times." They still have confidence in the future of our district because they are looking years ahead instead of days ahead.

CROSS PLAINS BAPTISTS OBSERVE FAMILY DAY SUNDAY WITH SPECIAL SERVICE AND PROGRAM

Sunday was 'family day' for Cross Plains Baptists. A special program, appropriate sermon and dinner on the ground were high spots of the occasion.

According to sponsors of the program, practically every family in the church was represented. The W. C. Adams family was the largest present. Eight of them were there.

Oak Lewis spoke on home, as a part of the morning program. His address is reprinted herein 'verbatim'.

Lewis Speech

Home is the magic circle within which the weary spirit finds refuge; it is the sacred asylum to which the care worn heart retreats to find rest from the toils of life.

Ask the lone wanderer as he plods his tedious way, bent with the weight of age, and white with the frost of years, ask him what is home?

He will tell you it is a green spot, in memory, an oasis in the desert, a center about which the fondest recollections of his heart cling with all the tenacity of youths first love. Home! That name touches every fiber of the soul, and strikes every chord of the human heart with its angelic fingers. Nothing but death can break its spell. What tender associations are linked with home. What pleasing images and deep emotions it awakens. It calls up the fondest memories of life and opens in our nature the purest, deepest, richest gush of consecrated thought and feeling.

Ask the child what is home? You will find from him, that it is the world—he knows no other. The father's love, the mother's smile, the sister's embrace, that brother's welcome throw about him a heavenly halo, and make it as attractive as the home of the angels. Home is the spot where the child pours out all of its complaints and it is the grave of all of its sorrows. Childhood has its sorrows and grievances, but home is the place where these are soothed and banished by the sweet lullaby of a fond mother's voice.

There is no happiness in life, there is no misery like that growing out of the dispositions which consecrate or desecrate a home. Peace at home, that is the boon. He is happiest, be he King or peasant, who finds peace in his home. Home should be made so truly home that the weary tempted heart could turn toward it anywhere on the dusty highway of life and receive light and strength. Should be the sacred refuge of our lives whether rich or poor. The affections and love of home are graceful things. Affections and love constitute the poetry of human life, and so far as our present existence is concerned with all the domestic relations, are worth more than all other social ties. They give the first throb to heart and unseal the deep fountains of its love. Home is the chief school of human virtue. Its responsibilities, joys, sorrows, smiles, tears, hopes, and solicitudes form the chief interest of human life.

There is nothing on earth so beautiful as the household on which Christian love forever smiles, and where religion walks encounselor and friend. No cloud can darken it, for its twin stars, are centered in the soul. No storms can make it tremble, for it has a heavenly support and a heavenly anchor.

Our nature demands home. It is the first essential element of our social being. The home influence is either a blessing or a curse, either for good or for evil. In either case it is mighty commencing with our birth, going with us through life, clinging to us in death and reaching into the eternal world. From this we may infer the character of home influence. It is great, silent, irresistible and permanent. Like the calm deep stream it moves on in silent but overwhelming power. It strikes its roots deep into the human heart, and spreads its branches wide over our whole being. Like the lily that braves the tempest, and like the Alpine flower that leans its cheek on the bosom of the eternal snows, it is exerted amid the wildest storms of life and breaths a softening spell in our bosom even when a heartless world is freezing up the fountains of sympathy and love. It is governing, restraining, attracting and traditional. It holds the empire of the heart and rules the life. It restrains the wayward passions of the child and checks him in his mad career to ruin.

The most illustrious statesmen, the most distinguished warriors, the most eloquent ministers, and the greatest benefactors of human kind, owe their greatness to the fostering influence of the home. Napoleon knew, and felt this when he said, "What France needs is good mothers and you may be sure then that France will have good sons." If these things are true of our earthly home, and they are, located in a narrow vale between the bald barren peaks of two eternities, what shall be said of that eternal home? How glad brothers and sisters will be to meet after so long a separation. Separating at the door of the tomb. Now they meet again at the door of immortality. Gates of deep jasper, thrones of dominion do not so much affect my soul, as the thought of home. Once there, let earthly sorrows howl like storms and roll like seas. Let thrones not and empires wither. Let the world die in earthquake struggles and be buried amid procession of planets and dirge of spheres. Home! Let everlasting ages roll in irresistible sweep. Home! No sorrow, no crying. No tears no death; but home sweet home, beautiful home, beautiful home glorious home, Everlasting home. Home with each other, home with angels, home with God, Home, Home through the rich Grace of Jesus Christ, may we all reach it.

Sacred harp singing was the chief feature of the afternoon program. Among the rendition especially well received was a selection sung by Mesdames, Jack Mathis, M. W. Dennis and W. C. Adams.

"It was one of the most impressive and inspiring occasions that I ever attended", several of those present told the Review Wednesday.

"All numbers were especially good and the program was a master-piece throughout", was the way another described the family day.

TO THE VOTERS OF CALLAHAN COUNTY

"Your vote and influence on July 23rd will be greatly appreciated", please let me say again.

And, in return for your suffrage, I want to renew my promise, that if elected, I will at all times endeavor to transact the many duties and responsibilities of the County Clerk's Office with promptness, courtesy, and efficiency, ever keeping foremost as my purpose in rendering this public service,—keeping the records straight and protecting your titles, whether of personal property, or of real property, and giving of careful attention to all other official duties now exacted of County Clerks as public services under the laws of our State.

I am very grateful to you as citizens and voters for your confidence in me as a man and as an officer, and for this political preferment at your hands, I pledge and promise in return to give my undivided time and efforts to serving you in an efficient manner.

Respectfully yours,
S. E. SETTLE.

TO THE VOTERS OF CALLAHAN COUNTY

I want the people of Callahan county to know that I appreciate their confidence imposed in electing me to the office of Tax Assessor. I have tried to fill the office in a fair and impartial manner.

I have not made a house to house canvass because duties in the office have forbidden my doing so. My record is open for public investigation and I feel that it alone should acquaint our citizenship with my qualifications.

Sincerely yours,
E. M. (MABE) SMITH

LAST UNPAVED GAP IN HI-WAY REPAIRED HERE

The last gap of an all-weather road, paved from San Angelo to the coast on highway 23, is being completed near Cross Plains, on highway 23.

Trucks are unloading thousands of tons of caliche, West of here, daily. Contractor told the Review Wednesday that they expected the unpaved gap in highway 23, to be entirely completed by September first.

Misses, Wilma Ramsey, Bill Shultz, and Edwina Anderson, of Rising Star were visitors here the past weekend.

Rowden

BY MIKE AND IKE

Misses Doris and Dorothy Thompson of Baird who spent several days visiting Miss Ruth Roberts returned to their home Sunday afternoon.

There were several people from this place who attended the singing at the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at Baird. Those who attended this singing from Rowden were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rose and little son Billy, Mrs. Vera Glaze, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Tabor, Misses Annie Mae and Claribel Tabor, and Stella Roberts. We enjoyed this singing very much.

There was singing here Sunday night which was very well attended and the singing was very good. We now have our new song books and are learning to sing new songs. We will be glad for every body to come and help us sing.

Rev. Gilliland of Baird will fill his regular appointments here Saturday night.

Miss Stella Roberts was the Sunday guest of Miss Annie Mae Tabor.

We are sorry to know Mrs. Delona Hardin who is ill is suffering from blood poisoning. Mrs. Hardin was cutting some stove wood some few days ago and while cutting it a stick of wood flew up and wounded her which later caused blood poisoning. She entered the Griggs Hospital Friday morning for treatment and will remain there for several days. She was resting very well Sunday this being the last time we have heard how she was resting.

Folks remember the Baptist meeting starts here on Friday night before the first Sunday in August. Rev. Tatum of Clyde and Rev. Royce Gilliland of Baird will hold this revival meeting. Everybody is invited to come to this meeting.

We had our Methodist Quarterly Conference last Saturday, and there was dinner on the ground. Our Methodist pastor Rev. J. P. Patterson and our presiding elder, Rev. W. W. Murrell both of Abilene were with us, and Rev. Murrell preached Saturday morning.

OPLIN CELEBRATES ANNUAL 2 DAY PICNIC

Oplin's annual picnic began Wednesday morning and was to continue through Thursday night. High spots of the entertainment program included dinner on the ground, candidate speaking, baseball games and 'good old time picnic fun.'

At the dinner on the ground there was barbecue, son-of-a-gun, and other appetizing dishes of Westerners fancy. Approximately 1,500 people attended the two day celebration according to reports received from the picnic grounds just a few minutes before "press time."

SON IS BORN TO MR. AND MRS. B. BOOTH MONDAY

A seven pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. B. Booth, who live two and one half miles North East of Cross Plains, Monday. The boy was named A. W. for his paternal grandfather, who died in 1914, on July 18, the same day of the year as the child's birth. Mr. and Mrs. Booth have one other child, a five year old daughter. They are well known in Cross Plains and throughout this locality.

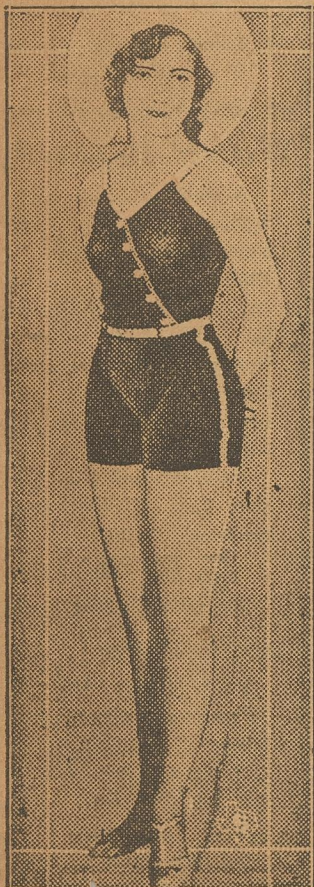

Both the mother and child were reported "doing nicely" Tuesday.

To The Voters of Cross Plains And Vicinity

Folks let's round up a world's record for Ed Priest, Saturday, July 23rd. Suppose we give him one hundred percent of the votes in Cross Plains. We all know he is well qualified for the office and might be Governor some day. If we will elect him for Tax Assessor and he could show the people of Texas that he had one hundred percent of the votes in his home Town when he was elected Tax Assessor in 1932.

As far as we know there is but one railroad roundhouse on Manhattan Island and the average New Yorker can't tell you where that one is.

More New Yorkers ride vertically than horizontally. To explain: More New Yorkers are riding up and down in the elevators of Manhattan's great skyscrapers every day than are carried on the subway, elevated and surface lines combined. The average daily passenger list of Manhattan's elevators now have been put at 12,100,000 by the chief inspector of elevators, P. F. Foley. Elevator deaths in this city are one in 213,500,000. That many persons are carried in elevators before an accident occurs.

New York's rules for driving date back to 1903. These are believed to be the first printed traffic rules in the world.

Children's Bedtime Story

By Norris Chambers

Help! Help! Fire!

SERIES NO. 18

HELP! HELP! My house is on fire! screamed Mattie Skunk as she rushed out of her hollow-stump home.

True to her statement the stump was in flames. There was but one door, and it was a wall of flame. She had rushed through the fire uninjured and was shouting frantically for aid. Her three children were trapped in the house, and she was hoping to find some form of saving them.

About three feet above the ground was a small window about four by three inches. The stump consisted of two stories, and the bottom, where the children were, had no windows.

Billie 'Possum, the dauntless brave hero of Rocky Ledge, stood still and listened. Was that a call for aid? Yes, it was saying "Help! Help!" That was enough for being an adventurer of the most valiant type, he craved action. He rushed down the path.

He smelled smoke as he rushed toward the scene of the supposed murder. He rushed to an opening in the path. He was nearing Mattie Skunk's house. He saw the stump in flames, and he also noticed Mrs. Skunk wailing and crying before the entrance.

She looked around when Billie rushed up, and temporarily stopping her crying she said:

Oh please; brave 'possum, will you climb in the window and save my dear children? Oh please do! Will you? At this last clause she broke down again and cried with renewed vigor.

Billie did not take time to answer but instead he made a jump, hit against the window-sill, and crawled bravely into the smoke.

He found himself in a large circular room. In the center through the thick pall of smoke, he saw a square hole—about three inches in diameter. He drove through the hole, head first, and instead of hitting stairs as he expected he fell down for probably eighteen inches. He felt sting pains in his feet. He had fallen in coals.

His hair was burning. He felt the hot flame against his face. He stumbled over the nest of skunks. Simultaneously he picked up two in mouth and arms and jumped for the door in the ceiling. But as he could not grasp it with his hands he missed it and his head crashed against the upper floor.

Vivid red spots floated before his eyes; he had the sensation of falling, and then he lost consciousness. He fell to the floor, amidst the flames that were already increasing in volume. The little skunk children fell from his stalwart grip, and they too fell into the abyss of omnipresent fire.

Good-by plans! Good-by 'possum! And good-by children!

Saved by nature, or by God. Nothing human could have saved them so perfectly.

The stump had been located at the foot of Rocky Ledge, near the bank of the famous river (as it seemed to them, for it was only Red River Jr.) and at this critical time one of the greatest rises that the river had ever known came thundering and roaring down the stream and down the adjoining valleys and ravines.

The home of Mrs. Skunk, being on the bank of the river, was caught in the rise and after being uprooted was carried down the channel of the stream. Rolling and foaming the foaming the waters climbed halfway up Rocky Ledge; never had there been such flood.

The cold water revived Billie, and he happened to think of his mission there. He grabbed the tree children, two in his mouth and on under his fore leg. And swam through the water to the door.

He rushed out into the roaring channel, still holding the skunk children. He was carried swiftly down the stream. Logs, barrels, boats, torn from their fastenings; houses, and animals were carried along beside him.

He landed on a barrel and after putting the children on top, tried to paddle it towards the shore with his paws. But what could a mere possum do in this roaring channel with nothing but his hands to do with.

Behold! The barrel passed by a large farm house, and men were out trying to save the boats and barrels that were coming down. They threw a cord and it hooked onto the barrel. On towards the shore it came. Then the cord broke and the barrel headed for a dashing rapid beyond. The river fell seventy five feet here.

The barrel drew closer to the chaotic waters of the fall. Then it started over. It turned a half round and the skunk children and Billie 'Possum were hurled over. They crashed against the hard rocks below. Were they killed?

Oh, Mama, Mamma, cried the little girl, Marjorie Louise, I have just had a terrible dream. I dreamed that our brave bed-time character Billie 'Possum and our dear little skunk children were killed. I just know there is something to it. I am almost afraid to read the bed time story in the Review next week.

Oh such nonsense, my child, replied her mother. Everything will come out all right. And just to prove it I will read you the story when your father comes with the paper tomorrow. Now go back to sleep.

And she did.

A Madison Avenue shop this week offered for sale a small pipe for women. Women in London have been known to smoke pipes and it will be interesting to see whether the practice catches on here. It's going to be a pretty tough day for the old man of the house when the woman of the house starts using his pipe.

"The practice of building Court Houses and other public improvements by the issuance of time warrants by the Commissioners' Court is unsound and no public debt should ever be incurred without a vote of the people. House Bill 312 stopped this practice and I worked for and supported that Bill. On the other hand, Oliver Cunningham, your present Senator, voted against the Bill and said by his vote that the bridges should be taken off of the Commissioners' Courts in order that they might mortgage our homes with time warrants whether we wanted them to or not. If I am in the Senate, I will fight to retain this safe guard to the tax payers of Texas but if Cunningham remains in the Senate, he no doubt, will assist in the repealing of this Bill as he voted against it on the passage. No five men should have the right to mortgage and bond our property without our consent," he concluded.

Cunningham's Bond Issues

"Oliver Cunningham of Abilene, your present Senator," he said "Introduced two State Wide Bond Issues, one of which would have caused the issuance of almost a billion dollars in State Bonds for the purpose of building electric light plants and the other one was for fifty million dollars to create a Farm Board in Texas. The principal and interest was to be paid by a tax of $1.00 on each bale of cotton raised in Texas. In other words, the already bankrupt farmers of Texas were to be taxed $1.00 on each bale of their cotton. If Oliver Cunningham knew the condition of the farmers of my State as well as I do he would know that they can not carry any more bond issues or taxes on their property or on their cotton."

NOTICE!

I take this means of reminding you of my candidacy for County Commissioner, from precinct four, and soliciting your support in my behalf. I favor thrift and economy in county affairs and if elected I will support measures for tax reduction.

I am asking for my first office after having lived and associated with the people of this district 35 years. Hoping to serve you and always be your friend, I am.

Funeral notices are something of which none of us wish to think, and as a result they are often forgotten with the funeral arrangements. It is an item that should not be overlooked.

B. L. Russell, Jr.

OF BAIRD, TEXAS,

Candidate for State Representative 107th, Floterial District, Callahan and Eastland Counties, will appreciate your vote in the Democratic Primary to be held on July 23rd, and promises if elected to give the District an honest, efficient and economic administration. He Believes, advocates and will vote for less expenses and cheaper taxes.

He has lived within the District all his life and invites an investigation of his ability, standing and character.

THE SMALL CITY. . .

A Pacemaker of Progress

More and more the signs point to the greater importance of the small and medium-sized community.

We are proud of the part electric power is playing in laying the groundwork for this greater progress and prosperity.

Gone is the day when the larger metropolitan centers had a monopoly of power supply, the first essential of industrial growth and development.

Widespread networks of transmission lines have given the smaller communities the same high-grade electric service as the larger cities have.

On this firm basis, industries are increasingly recognizing the advantages of location in small communities.

This trend will react most favorably to West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity"—efficiently, dependably and inexpensive served by the West Texas Utilities Company.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule . . . and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Even The Country Weeklies Sometimes Have Thrills And Heart-Throbs Behind Headlines

Editors note:—As a general rule the public is not interested in the thrills and heart-throbs behind the headlines of a newspaper, but a few little interesting items that went into the making of today's special edition is extraordinary enough—the editor believes to publish herein.

For example the Burkett news came encased in an artfully decorated envelope. On the front, near the address, was a hand painted picture of a very beautiful girl; informing the Postmaster to tie out that envelope for immediate delivery to the Cross Plains Review. On the back was a well phrased short poem to the effect that the correspondent hoped, the envelope would make a pleasing meal for the Review's mascot—a big white rat.

But to be sure that envelope will not enter the wastebasket, for it has been pasted on the editor's desk as a pleasing remembrance and one of the high spots in the publishing of a country newspaper. The artistic drawing and little poem served to further illustrate the versatility of the Review correspondent at Burkett; who we are proud to say is, Miss Mildred Newton.

Then there are other correspondents: Mrs. F. E. Mitchell, Cottonwood; Mrs. C. D. Baird, Dressy; Miss Nona Prater, Cross Cut; Miss Stella Roberts, Rowden; and Miss Wilma Pratt, who handles society at Cross Plains. They all came through like troopers to get today's paper to you a day earlier and a section larger.

Then, last but not least, the boys in the back that really know the heart-throbs—the printers—also turned in many hours of overtime. They're the fellows that keep linotypes clicking, presses groaning and sweat like the devil.

If this campaign special pleases you, is entertaining and all that you should expect of a country weekly, this faithful group and the advertisers are responsible, for with such loyal cooperation no editor should have failed.

Valley Folks Cool Off at Boca Chica

Here is just a part of the crowd of 25,000 people who visited Boca Chica, the seven-mile beach on the Gulf near Brownsville, last weekend. Boca Chica beach is the accepted and enjoyed watering place of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, and thousands play in the surf there all the year round.

FARMERS FORUM

The policy of this feature is simply to pass along helpful suggestions, received from farmers and other agricultural authorities from different localities.

College Station—In the midst of the biggest home canning season in Texas history comes a warning to canners to be sure to select the right sized can or jar according to kind of food to be preserved and size of family, and to can the varieties of fruits and vegetables that will give a healthful diet. For families of two, points out Miss Lola Blair, nutritionist in the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, half-pint jars or No. 1 cans should be used, for families of four or five, pint jars or No. 2 cans; and for families of six and more, quart jars or No. 3 cans. Exceptions to the rule come in the case of bulky vegetables like greens, and corn, which should not be put into quart jars or No. 3 cans because of the difficulty in getting the heat to penetrate the centers.

With big gardens this year filled with many varieties of vegetables, says Miss Blair, "It is foolish to invite stomach troubles and sluggishness next winter by an unbalanced selection of canned products. Everyone should have at least three servings of leafy or green vegetables every week, and preferably every day. There should be at least one serving a day of starchy vegetables, and at least one serving daily of other vegetables. Tomatoes or citrus fruit should be eaten at least three times per week, and one serving of some kind of raw fruit daily."

"A family of five should have about 120 cans of leafy or green vegetables such as greens or string beans or peas for the six winter months; 100 cans of starchy vegetables such as corn; and 80 cans of other vegetables such as beets, okra, squash or carrots. Of tomatoes there should be preserved 512 cans, and of fruits 150 cans. If other fruits can not be afforded people can get along with tomatoes, so far as health goes. Roselle is a garden fruit which can be substituted for more common fruits, and in sections where it will grow rhubarb can be substituted."

New Braunfels—The low price of farm commodities has given the farmers of Comal county an opportunity to inaugurate a soil building program, according to George E. Ehlinger, county agent. Erwin Schulze of the Gruene community has planted eight different varieties of peas and beans. He has 24 acres of corn, planted two rows of corn and one row of three different varieties of soy beans and Brabham beans. This block of feed will later be hogged off with 100 spring pigs. He has another field of 15 acres of corn, planted one row of corn and one row of Brabham peas, from which he will harvest the corn and turn the peas under green. Besides this he has two acres of Mung beans, four acres of Chinese Red peas, and three acres of Brabham peas, which will be grazed off by his herd of Jersey cows and the refuse turned under.

Albany—Sudan pastures for summer grazing produce better gains, carry cattle through the summer in better shapes and give grass pasture lands a chance to recuperate, says Dave Diller Flat community, Shackelford county. In the early part of June 1931 he put 100 cows and calves and 30 head of yearlings on 60 acres of sudan which he had planted in the spring. Sixty head of cows and calves were left in a native pasture. According to Mr. Diller the cattle on sudan stood the summer better, bore a better calf crop gained about 65 pounds per head more than those on ordinary pasture, and gave the old pasture an opportunity to go to seed and improve in quality. He has 115 acres in sudan grass this year.

Madisonville—From a tree for which he paid 85 cents a few years ago, Sherman Winters of the Green Briar Community of Madison county, has developed a two-acre pecan orchard. Four years ago he planted native pecans at proper distance in the orchard, budding them two years later with buds from the better tree which was producing good quality nuts. The trees have made good growth and are about 8 feet high now, reports County Agent B. F. Vance.

It pays to feed dairy heifers before freshening. J. E. Coyle of the Dallas County Dairy Herd Improvement Association fed two and checked their production against two which received no preliminary feed. The two that were fed prior to calving gave 30% more milk than the other two and the extra production paid for the extra feed in one month.

Treating potato seed to prevent scab and planting on fresh land gave Mr. Curry on the Pierce Ranch a 65% bigger yield from his 60-acre potato field than any other man in Matagorda county, he claims.

Enough soil was saved during the first rain to pay for building terraces on my brother's place, states Walter Cardwell of Lockhart who says that a 4-inch rain failed to wash away any appreciable amount of soil, while bordering fields showed a heavy wash.

An attractive house dress can be made for about 76 cents, it has been found by 65 home demonstration club members in Wichita county who entered the annual house dress contest.

Mrs. Joe Rogan, 4-H pantry demonstrator of the Berry Creek Home Demonstration Club in Williamson county has passed on to the neighbors what she learned in a meat canning school last fall. She has given 23 canning demonstrations in which 3600 containers of meat were put on pantry shelves.

A small amount of money and a heap of energy will give any girl a pretty bedroom, declares Maurine Warren, Wheeler county 4-H club girl who spent only $5.95 in winning first place in the county improved bedroom contest.

If health is to be kept up, people must never dispense with whole ground wheat, evaporated or whole milk, and vegetables," says Dr. Lydia Roberts, Director of Home Economics, University of Chicago.

W. A. Everett Reminds Of Tax Collector Race

I have endeavored to see every voter in Callahan County in behalf of my candidacy for Tax Collector, but having to look after home and business affairs at Putnam, has kept me from personally visiting many of my old time friends. Hence, I am taking this method of making a general solicitation to voters all over the county.

If you see fit to elect me Saturday, I will give my entire time and attention to the discharging of the duties of the office and promise a faithful, honest, courteous and business like administration.

With kindest regards I am,

Obediently yours,
W. A. EVERETT.

VERNON R. KING

CANDIDATE TAX ASSESSOR
SOLICITS YOUR VOTE ON
JULY 23rd, 1932

Due to conditions over which I have no control, there might be some whom I have not seen personally. In case I have failed to see you I take this method of asking your consideration and vote. To those I have seen, I want to thank you for the courteous hearing which you have given me.

I am a Callahan product, having been born and reared in this county, and am a householder and tax payer with no political pull, and am not a politician, having never asked the people to elect me to a public office before, and running strictly upon my own merits.

I ask that you investigate my ability and honesty, and if then, you find me qualified and deserving, I will appreciate your electing me tax assessor of Callahan County.

To The Citizens and Voters of the Cross Plains Precinct

I am again asking for your vote for the office of Public Weigher. I do so based on my own merits, ability, and qualification to fill the office, perform all its duties and render efficient public service, as I have heretofore done. I feel that my character and reputation as a citizen and my ability and efficiency are an open book. It is a record of which I feel I have a just right to be proud, and one that it shall be my determination to maintain. I invite the closest scrutiny of my official record in all respects, to those of you who do not know me personally, I respectfully refer you to your fellow citizens who know me best; especially my farmer friends, with whom I have come in official contact. I therefore, respectfully solicit your vote next Saturday, July 23rd. I will say that no one will appreciate it more than I, and I will always be ready to give you my best service.

Very Sincerely yours,
IRA B. LOVING.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT 4, CALLAHAN CO.

I want to thank you for the cooperation you have given me in the past and will appreciate your vote July 23rd, and if elected will give you the very best service that I can.

Yours truly,

G. H. CLIFTON

NOTICE!

For the sake of clearing myself in courts of public opinion I make the following explanation of charges that have been made against me as County Judge.

Of warrants that we issued for $105,793.00 the entire amount issued to take up outstanding indebtedness. That was paid through the bank by scrip as the debts came in, taking up the warrants, with scrip. Today, everyone of those warrants have been paid, except possibly $1,000.

I have never made a purchase for the court-house or jail, without a frank statement of the officer in charge that the purchase was a dire necessity.

TO THE VOTERS OF COMMISSIONER PREC. NO. 4

As the time for the primary draws nigh, I wish again to call your attention to my candidacy for the office of County Commissioner. Most of you know that I was born in this precinct and have lived all my life here. The interests of this section and of Callahan County in general are my interest. If you see fit to elect me, I promise that I will work diligently for the best interests of the people, as I see them, and will practice the most rigid economy in the expenditure of the County's money. Again I ask you to give my candidacy your careful consideration.

Sincerely yours,

BY NONA PRATER

Mrs. Lucy Lutgens of Cross Plains and Mr. Paul Boose of Rising Star visited Miss Nona Prater and Mr. Lawrence Biehl Sunday afternoon. The four later took supper with Mr. and Mrs. Lon Anderson.

Mrs. Lon Anderson has had her grandmother of Tulsa, Oklahoma, visiting her for a few weeks.

Mrs. Curtis Willmott and boys are visiting points in Oklahoma.

Mr. Claude Clark of Brownwood visited his parents Thursday and Friday. His injured arm is greatly improved but he will have to remain there for awhile yet.

Mr. Guy Cole, Mildred, Guy Jr. and Louise Cole, and Annie Mae Russell left Thursday for points in Oklahoma, Ark., and possibly Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Biehl attended the Cross Plains picnic Thursday.

Mrs. Deoma Triplitt and Miss Alice Baucom attended the picnic Wednesday.

Mrs. M. E. Golson is very ill after catching her hand in an electric ring on her washing machine. She is barely able to be up.

Miss Faye Stockton entertained friends Saturday night with a lawn party. A grand time was reported by those present. Those were Nedra Arledge, S. P. Arledge, Tula Keller, Hollis Keller, Herman Prater, Newton, Gafford, Dollie Ruth Pickett, Fred Campbell, Howard Newton, Elbert Hill, Willard Griffin, Dillard Gregg.

Miss Annie Mae Russell, Mildred Cole and Mr. and Jimmie Dawson attended the Cross Plains picnic Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hughes are visiting friends and relatives in East Texas.

A good crowd attended the boxing here Friday night. It is a local gathering but everyone seemed to enjoy the amusement.

Man Lost 26 Pounds Looks 100% Better

Feels Stronger Than Ever

Just to prove to any doubtful man or woman that Kruschen Salts is the SAFE way to reduce—let us take the letter of Mr. F. J. Fritz of Cincinnati, Ohio, recently received.

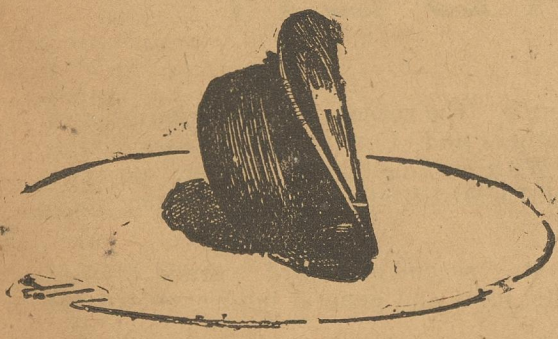

He writes: "I've tried extreme dieting, setting up exercises with very little results—but the results from Kruschen are almost incredible. In 3 months I reduced from 205 to 179 pounds and feel stronger than ever—no more wheezing or gasping for breath—friends say I look 100% better."

Bear in mind, you fat man, that there is danger in too much fat—try the safe way to reduce—one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats and sweets—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—get it at Smith Drug Store or any drugstore in the world.

Never Idle

"I am annoyed by idle gossip." There's no such thing as idle gossip, said Miss Cayenne. Gossip is always most industrious.

CLEVE CALLAWAY FAVORS LESS LAWS

Cleve Callaway Candidate for Representative 107th District of Texas, comprising Callahan and Eastland Counties, Humbly asks Your Consideration and Cooperation.

When I think about the wonderful resources of this country and producing power of her people, and at the same time realize that half of the producers of wealth in the state are disfranchised; excluded, for financial reasons, from participating at all in government: I hang my head in shame. Shame for my people, shame that we have departed so far from the principles of American government; the very thing that made us great. We are making a mock of reverence and respect for our forebearers, of our flag of our civilization and of every thing that is worth while. How have we done this? We have done it simply by having our legislative bodies pass laws: laws for every corporation, laws for every organization, laws for every group, of people and laws for every individual who desired. In this narrow minded way of looking at a part (the part we are personally interested in) we have rendered ourselves incapable of seeing the needs of the whole.

In accordance with this idea and directly opposed to the doctrines of Thomas Jefferson when he said: "The first aim of American Government, is not to compel people to do certain things, or restrict them from doing other things; but to make the best life the most useful life the happiest and easiest life to live", my opponents in this race urge upon you the necessity of passing more laws for our special and particular benefit. Read their platform carefully and you will see they advocate the passage of laws to correct bad laws already on the Statute Books. I ask you as studious and thinking people, can this be done? If the wagon is already loaded and stuck, are we going to get out by piling on more load? I never did. Does two wrongs make a right? I say: If thy right eye offend the pluck it out, if thy right arm offend then cut it off. I say: lets repeal these laws that are wrong and make us unhappy. Every board and commission has been created by a law, most of them we do not need and never have. All of them serve the purpose of removing the government further from the people. Hundreds are on the Statute Books that attempt to cover something already covered by previous acts.

Why have a corps of deputies out of Austin to enforce the Weights and Measure requirements? When the Sheriffs force is in each county elected by the people could enforce the law much better from every standpoint. Why have Corps of deputies out of Austin to enforce the Game, Fish and Oyster Laws, the Oil Laws, the Live Stock laws. Lets repeal this outrageous Truck Regulation law, that made them necessary and created the million dollar motor patrol to assume the Sheriff's duties, and enact a simple statute regulating size and weight on trucks. And so on down the line there are scores of them. I say cut the powers of the Rail Road Commission to the bone. Cut it so deep that the R. R. Commission will have plenty of time to attend to the duties of all of the other commission. Be ware of the man that advocates putting the Utilities under the R. R. Commission. Has it helped us with R. R. Rates they have gone up every day since it was created.

Lets give this State Government the AX instead of the tax. When we have cleared away this jungle of delegated power. The jungle that harbors graft disease and pestilence in government. We can then prune up the original tree of government and see the wondrous beauty of that magnificent plant set to growing in this land in the hearts of every man in this country, by Austin, Houston, and Fannin with the aid of Jackson.

Instead of costing more per capita as the population increases the cost of government should decrease proportionately. As Elbert Hubbard said: "The business of government is to make all government unnecessary, just as wise parents bring their children up to do without them."

I favor one cent of the gas tax being applied to retiring the county road bonds, on state roads up to what the roads are worth. I think real-estate owners should pay tax only on the equity they own in their land, not on the notes they owe and pay interest on. The note owners only pay interest on the difference in the face of the note and what they owe. I think every man wants to pay his part of the government cost, if that cost is kept within reason, but no man should have to pay more. If this broad principle was applied every body would be happy.

Uses Dad's Hens in 4-H Club Work

Clarence Thieme's dad doesn't have to worry about the profitable management of his poultry flock. Clarence, under the direction of H. L. Alsmeyer, extension agent at left, with whom Clarence is pictured, uses the Thieme chickens as an agricultural experiment, and profits have increased, as they have with 200 other poultry flocks in Cameron county, Texas, managed by 4-H club boys. Alsmeyer is shown checking Clarence's record.

If the people will concentrate public opinion on the one idea of repealing all unnecessary laws and getting back to simplicity, efficiency, economy, and justice in government it will be done and done quickly; but if we are going to demand special issues for special interests, we will continue to get deeper in the mire.

Showing what powers you have and the powers of public opinion look at the bond question. Look how completely every man in State, County, or other politics body completely off of the idea of issuing bonds for any thing. Do you think there is a thing on Earth that we could vote bonds for, and just a short two years ago we came close to letting the Legislature have the power to issue bonds, let us offer thanks we did not, and with this in our minds study the nine constitutional amendments coming up to be voted on in November. There is no need to worry about any more bond issues, public opinion is crystalized on that and there is no power can over come it. It covers all bonds for all purposes. It is necessary for any policy to be broad enough to cover the needs of every body, big, little, old and young, if public opinion gets behind it. The policy of repealing the laws that have crushed us and disfranchised us in that broad. Every body knows we have far too many laws, but few office seekers have the courage to fight for their repeal.

Upon the above views on the state government, broadly stated, as I have not the space to go into detail further. I ask your consideration and vote.

CLEVE CALLAWAY.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO 6

Again I appeal to you for your support in my present race for Public Weigher. I have endeavored to see every voter in precinct No. 6. Personally. But there are some voters that I have not met. To those I have met personally I want to assure you that I want your support.

Now friends I have no new planks, to put in my platform. But I call your special attention to one plank that I already have in my platform—that is I will reduce the price of weighing if elected. Since the time of depression is on us I feel sure that the Public can stand a reduction in the price of Weighing. Now friends I am the only Candidate in the Public Weigher race that offers you something for nothing, so why not take advantage of it and elect me your Public Weigher.

I will endeavor at all times to give you service that satisfies—now friends my candidacy is before you for Public Weigher if you see fit to elect me I will indeed be grateful to you.

And if you see fit to defeat me I will be your friend.

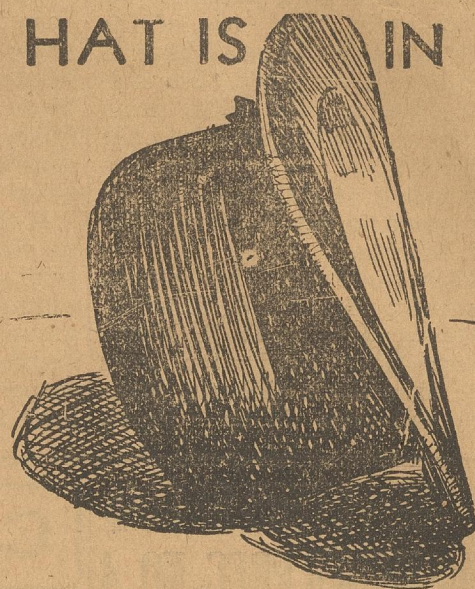

Respectfully yours,
BERT BROWN.

Babe Ruth Planning To Play Two More Years Of Baseball

Babe Ruth decided to quit playing baseball in the autumn of 1934, when he probably will become a manager. Ruth told the United Press he would play two more seasons with the New York Yankees if Col Jacob Ruppert desired his services, and nail up his glove when he is 40. He is 38

now. The Babe is not certain what team he will manage, although there has been talk about his piloting the faltering Boston Red Sox.

When and if the Babe lays down his bat two years hence, he will have played 21 seasons of professional baseball, 15 of which were with the Yanks. He is now working on a one-year contract at a salary of $75,000.

Governor Sterling's Joke

Gov. Ross Sterling tells this one with a chuckle: "I had been visiting the Imperial prison farm, near Houston. They furnished me with a car and an efficient driver to return to Houston. "If it will not make you too late, I wish you would drive me on to the Bay." (Sterling's summer home), I said. "Certainly, sir." "You will have enough time?" "Oh, yes, sir. I have seven years."

A. G. FOSTER SOLICITS YOUR VOTE SATURDAY

Voters will go to the polls Saturday to select office holders for the next two years. Among the places to be filled is that of County Commissioner from precinct four. I am taking this method of making a final appeal to the citizenship of this precinct, in lieu of the fact that I am a candidate for the Commissioner's office. I have lived in Callahan County 30 years, all of which has been spent in the precinct which I am asking to serve. I know our people, their wants, and the burden of taxation that is at present stooping their shoulders. If elected I will oppose any measure for the increasing of taxes and champion all for the reduction of same. The people's desires not mine shall be my command in office. Upon these principals I solicit the suffrage of every voter in Commissioner's precinct four, for next Saturday.

Charlie Terrell, of Fort Worth, has returned home after a visit of several days here with Elliott Bryant.

B. W. Webb was a business visitor in Fort Worth the past week end.

Apartment houses in New York were originally known as "French flats." Those were the days when the city was enthusiastic about anything French.

Try "Fast Stepper"

...on your city traffic or your country miles

They call it Sinclair Regular Gasoline at Sinclair Service Stations. But out in the Sinclair refineries they're now calling it "that fast-steppin' gas" because it's being refined to a formula developed for lightning getaway in the congested traffic of great cities.

Bring on your traffic—and where there is no traffic, cash in on the quick power in this light, fast gasoline by giving every gallon more miles to conquer! The power in Sinclair Regular is instantaneous—a responsive, eager surge that'll put an enjoyment into motoring you never knew existed. Ask for Sinclair Regular at any Sinclair Station along your route.

NOTE: For best results, use either Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil or Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil. These oils have been de-waxed, and freed from petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero.

Quality
First, Last And Always
That's Our Motto

Price is important, naturally, but you can't wear the price tag or burn it in your automobile. We offer price and quality all in one.

We have no third grade gasoline to attract your trade. We simply cut the price of our high mileage gasoline making our first grade 14c as compared with 22c for the Major Companies' first grade. Our Second Grade is 12c the same price as Major Companies' third grade.

CANDIDATES NOTICE

Candidates you have but two days more to cover your districts. By using Independent products you will find good mileage at lower cost. A man that had always used major company products told us the other day, that since switching to Independent he was getting 27 miles to the gallon on a 1,200 mile run whereas 20 miles had always been his average with major company gasoline over the same road in the same car.

You will always find our gasoline to be of a high test and practically carbon proof. The price is cheaper ALWAYS.

Tourists frequently ask us why we are doing such a large business. Invariably we give them this true answer. Cross Plains citizens and business men know that our product is good and they are behind us.

We have been told by automobile owners that they got better mileage with the Major Company third grade than any of their other grades. So, if some reason why you can't patronize the independent dealer get your money's worth by buying their third grade.

We handle nothing but high quality lubricating oil. You will always find it cheaper and better.

For Congress

W. H. Hawkins, veteran Stephenville newspaper man, told the Review in a special communication the first of the week that he believed prosperity must return via the farm. Mr. Hawkins is a candidate for Congressman-at-large, place number 2, and says that unless farmers prosper we all suffer.

SCHOOL HEADS WARN THAT TIME TO MAKE TRANSFERS IS HERE

Announcement has been made by Nat Williams, Superintendent of Cross Plains schools and A. L. Johnson, County Superintendent, that August first is the last day in which to transfer scholastics from one school district to another. Mr. Williams urged that the matter of transferring not be overlooked as it is of vital importance for records. There is no charge for making the change. It can be done either by County Superintendent or Superintendent of the district in which the scholastic intends to transfer.

Uncle Bill and Mrs. Neeb visited in Abilene past week end with E. R. Neeb and family.

OIL FIELD BOYS CAST 30 ABSENTEE BALLOTS

Reports were received at the Review office Wednesday noon that about 30 absentee votes from the Cross Plains box had already been cast. They will be received here Saturday noon; counted at two p. m. and included with the returns from this place. A large portion of the ballots are said to have come from Cross Plains men temporarily employed in the East Texas oil field in the vicinity of Kilgore.

FRIENDS HONOR HIM

JUDGE M. S. LONG

Announcement has been received from Ben L. Cox, Abilene attorney, that friends of District Judge Milburn S. Long, will hold a rally on the Federal lawn there, Thursday

We overheard a man the other day vigorously berate the idle men to be found on the streets most any day. What he would do to them was a plenty. We looked him up. He has not invested a dollar in any local enterprise that gives work to men or women. Surely such an individual has no room to meet out penalties for men out of work.

CARMICHAEL GETS DUSTER

The Carmichael etal well on W. C. Adams produced only a gas sand and rainbow of oil, when drilled in Monday.

Dressy

Women of Dressy and vicinity will postpone their club meeting from July 21 to Thursday, August fourth, on account of busy season.

At the meeting August fourth, each lady is requested to answer roll call by a favorite recipe. The devotional will be lead by Mrs. George Baum. The subject "Orderliness", first Corinthians 14 and 42. Mrs. Clifton Stapleton will lead discussion on parliamentary law. Every woman in the vicinity of Dressy is urged to keep the date Thursday, August four, open. Come and spend the afternoon with neighbors and friends.

Rev. O. C. Stapleton will preach at Cottonwood Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. and Mrs. O. C. Stapleton will accompany five members of Dressy Junior league to Post, Thursday July 21, to attend the camp meeting there for boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 15.

The camp is under the auspices of the Northwest Texas Conference Board of Christian Education.

Those to make the trip are: Virginia Bell Baird, Johnnie May Swafford, Helen Johnson, Frances McDermitt and Mae Purtle.

The young people will be given credit for attending classes in Bible, World Friendship, Personal Relations and Recreation. The camp will close Saturday July 23.

There will be no Bible study at the Methodist Church Friday night due to the absence of the pastor.

The regular fifth Sunday, Sunday School Rally will be held at Dressy Methodist Church, July 31. A program has been arranged for that day and dinner will be served on the ground. The general public is invited. The Protracted Meeting will begin at the Sunday evening service. It will continue through the first week in August. The Rev. Davenport, Pastor Methodist Church Cross Cut, will do the preaching. People of all demonstrations are cordially invited to attend these services.

for
ATTORNEY GENERAL

Do you believe that honesty in office and promises made good—should be rewarded, by a vote of confidence of the people for a second term?

OF COURSE YOU DO

If you have not already done so investigate the record of Jimmie Allred who is our ATTORNEY GENERAL.

He went before the people two years ago and promised that if elected he would do his best to see that the common peoples' rights protected. He has done this and it has not suited some of the Big Boys and they are fighting him as they always do those who do not line up with them.

NIGGER IN THE WOOD-PILE?

The man who is opposing Allred, for the office is a tool of these Big Boys who are disgruntled because they can not run his office for a few special interests against the common people.

We have been reliably informed that the man who is running against Allred can drive up to some of the Big Oil Companies Stations show them a little card of some kind and hook his loud speaker right onto a light socket and speak as long as he likes.

FOLKS THERE'S A DEAD CAT ON THE LINE

Don't be misled by the propoganda that's going to be slung around in the next few days on Jimmy Allred. Look up his record if you have not already and let's send the old boy back to the job of defending the common peoples rights.

Vote for Jimmy Allred on July 23rd, and let's show a few of the Big Boys in Texas that the People are Awake and know who is championing their cause.

We wish we had room to tell of the many things he has done for the people of Texas. He has investigated and put out of business many insurance companies, who were operating and taking the peoples money but who didn't have fifteen cents to pay a death or sick claim with. They were just going on taking the people's money, and the people thought that their rights were protected by our Insurance Laws. These insurance grafters had been allowed to go unmolested like weeds in a turned out field until Jimmy Allred investigated them and told them they would have to get out that they could not prey on the people of Texas who were depending on the Insurance Laws to Protect them from the ravage of grafters.

This advertisement paid for by Cross Plains Friends of Jimmy Allred. We have watched his work and believe that honesty in office and fulfillment of promises should be rewarded by an overwhelming vote to return him to the office where he may carry on his work of upholding the rights of the Common People of this State.
