TURKEY MARKET OPENS MONDAY

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

But for a memory, held true and sacred by the Review staff, the paper would have probably reached readers late this week. Glenn Adams, the old boy that primed the presses and made up the pages, answered the call of his Maker Monday, but left behind a tradition that shall live as long as does the Cross Plains Review.

"2 years and never late" was his battle cry, so to speak. When things were moving slow and it took a week to get the paper out he would revive his associates in those words. "The Review has never gone into the mails late and it is never," the boys "in the back" still hear him say.

When "news" of his death came to the wire from Santa Anna Monday afternoon, presses idled to a standstill and a ghastly, yet reverent silence, enveloped both men and machines at the Review office. Then, most realistically someone seemed to say, "22 years and never late!" things moved on and the paper is in mails, on time; but even of Bob's big press—seemed to miss its usual touch.

To that devoted wife, admiring son and loving parents, brothers and sisters, there is no phrase we might cite to remove your bereavement. Yet, in a measure, we know the pang that grips your heart, for his passing has left memories at every task we perform in the daily duties of life. We acknowledge here and now, "dies" to a friend true and loyal, claim with a firmer grip the memory of a man that shall never fade.

LEGION POST TO HELP IN RELIEF MOVEMENT

Members of Aiken American Legion here, decided in regular session Tuesday night to make a drive throughout the Cross Plains territory for food-stuffs and cast off to be turned over to the Red Cross for distribution here. "We are anxious of helping unfortunate humanity in some material way and believe this is the best campaign we could outline at this time," said Ike Brick, one of the Legion committee men to gather the gifts, yesterday.

GR. DARBY WILL FILL BAPTIST PULPIT SUNDAY

Rev. Graves Darby has returned from a revival meeting at Mont Belvieu and will fill the pulpit at the first Church both services here today.

Reports good success at Mont Belvieu, there being 41 additions to church.

HERD vs. SANTA ANNA IS TODAY'S GRID MENU

FIRST MEETING OF 2 TEAMS IN FOUR YEARS IS CALLED FOR 3:30

Dope Looks About Equal With Both Squads In Pink Of Condition

Santa Anna and Cross Plains high school football teams will meet on the gridiron here Friday afternoon, in a non-conference football game. The kickoff is set for three thirty. Today's contest will be the first in four years between the two schools.

Reports from Santa Anna are to the effect that the 'Mountaineers' will bring a full, well conditioned, squad to Cross Plains. They have suffered no serious injuries this season and their strongest threats are expected to be thrown against the 'Buffalo' forward wall this afternoon.

The herd is likewise in about the best condition that they have been before a game thus far, this season. Only a few minor bruises and scratches were collected in the Baird game last week end when the thundering herd scored one touchdown to win over the county seat 'Bears'.

Perhaps the only comparison of the strength of the Santa Anna delegation and that of the domestics is through Pioneer. Both schools played Pioneer, however Cross Plains' contest with the 'Panthers' was only a scrimmage encounter and Captain Webb and Bruce Spencer were not in the lineup for the herd. Santa Anna defeated Pioneer 18 to 0; Cross Plains beat Pioneer 12 to 0.

Admission charge for the game will be 10, 15 and 25 cents.

J. E. PITTMAN OPENS MERCANTILE MARKET

J. E. Pittman has opened the meat market in the Cross Plains Mercantile. An advertisement appearing on another page for Saturday appears on another page of this paper.

POTATO CROP BRINGS ODDITIES THIS YEAR

When sweet potatoes surpass a foot in length it is really something unusual, but J. W. Cox has shown in town two specimens slightly more than 18 inches. They were grown on his place in the Southwest part of Cross Plains.

Mr. Cox has for the past several years been considered one of the best truck farmers in this immediate locality, due to the fact that he gets about as much off of one acre of ground as it is humanly possible, but he now has a stronger grasp on the title of "the Burbank of Cross Plains."

Another unusuality of the present potato crop is on display at the Review office. It is becoming potato slips. They were brought in by G. E. Morgan. Ordinary slips do not bud.

Cemetery Association Appeals To People To Join And Aid Work

Cross Plains Cemetery Association is completing plans of organization this week. They plan to employ a sexton and clear the grounds, then keep them presentable, according to the president of the organization.

A report of the organization's progress to date and an appeal to non-members to affiliate themselves with the movement is set forth in the following article, prepared by a member of the organization. "People residing out of Cross Plains, and having relatives buried here, are urged to accept this article as a personal solicitation and do their bit toward sustaining the association," said Charles E. Hemphill, Corresponding Secretary, yesterday.

"Cross Plains Cemetery Association was organized October 9, 1932, at a mass meeting of some forty interested persons who had been invited by the pastors of the city to meet for that purpose.

E. I. Vestal was elected President—Ralph Chandler, Jeff Clark, J. W. Westerman and J. A. Barr, were elected Directors. Mrs. W. R. Wagner Sr. was elected Secy-Treas. and Chas. F. Hemphill was elected Corresponding secretary.

The officers of the newly organized association have had two meetings up to this time. At the first meeting, Ralph Chandler was appointed Chairman of the membership committee. He immediately set several teams of ladies to work in the residence sections, and E. D. Priest, S. C. Barr and Jack Scott in the business section to obtain members for the association.

Several members were obtained at the time of organization and others added up to the time of this issue of the Review total sixty members.

The following persons have been appointed by the association to solicit members: Hugh McDermott, C. S. Martin, C. R. Steele, Martin Jones, C. B. Beeler, S. C. Barr, Jack Scott, and E. D. Priest.

The officers of the organization are very conscientious business like people who have a sensible plan in mind whereby they believe they can clean up our cemetery and keep it clean the year round and at the same time they plan to repair and improve the appearance of the fence and gates and steps, etc. And in furthering their plan to plant trees, shrubs, and flowers, so that our cemetery may be known as the beauty spot of Cross Plains and that it may be compared favorably with some of the beautiful cemeteries of our sister cities.

If you have not been approached and asked to join this association you probably will be in the near future; it is a keenly felt need of the community and every one should be interested. Those who have loved ones buried here should be doubly interested. Those who do not have loved ones buried here should be very apprehensive and should also feel it a privilege to join with us who are trying in this way to do honor to those who have gone before us, and also to lighten the burden of the silent to lighter the burden and fear of death to our older brothers and sisters who now realize

$1,000 POTATO KILN WILL BE COMPLETED HERE FIRST OF WEEK

A 4,000 bushel capacity potato kiln is being built in the East part of town here by Rev. S. P. Collins and E. A. Roberts. The building will be completed next week and equipped to handle this year's crop. It is being constructed at a cost of approximately $1000.

Messrs. Collins and Roberts told a Review reporter Monday that they planned to kiln their own potatoes as well as those of other farmers. A slight charge will be made for handling other grower's products, they intimated.

Clyde Slaughter informs the Review that he has just dug 116 bushels of potatoes off of two city lots in the North part of town.

Rev. Collins explains that Slaughter's feat can be duplicated easily enough by other growers here if they will plant the right type of "slips" and give it proper attention. He predicted to the Review reporter that the sweet potato industry might be made one of the most consistent sources of revenue for this section. Rev. Collins has been raising potatoes for a number of years and is perhaps one of the best informed growers in this locality.

Roberts also avers success for the potato industry throughout this area and has a large crop this year aside from handling the managerial duties for the Texas-Louisiana Power Company in Cross Plains.

Bert Owen has returned to Cross Plains after an absence of several months. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Owen.

FOUR LOCAL BUYERS ARE READY FOR CROP OF 15,000 TURKEYS

Bright Spots

Three crops are moving steadily in the Cross Plains trade territory now and another will be added to the list Monday morning. Cotton, peanuts and sweet potatoes are already being harvested and sold here. Monday morning the turkey crop will start moving for November market.

There were fewer delinquent utility bills in Cross Plains the twentieth of the past month than any time during past year.

Announcement was made from Citizens State Bank yesterday that the institution would place 37 and one-half percent of their deferred deposits on the active ledger, making them subject to check Tuesday morning.

LOCAL NEWSPAPERMAN SUCCUMBS MONDAY IN SANTA ANNA HOSPITAL

Laid To Rest In Cross Plains Cemetery Tuesday Afternoon

Funeral service for E. Glenn Adams, 31, Cross Plains newspaperman, was held from the Baptist church here Tuesday afternoon. Interment was made in the Cross Plains cemetery. He died shortly after two Monday afternoon in a Santa Anna hospital. Death resulted from acute indigestion, according to Richard T. Sealy, attending physician. He had been ill nine days.

Rev. Graves Darby, Baptist pastor, conducted the rites.

Glenn was a member of a prominent pioneer family and exceptionally well known throughout this section. He had been in the employ of the Review, local newspaper, almost 12 years. Until two years ago he was business manager and part owner of the publication. He sold his interest in the paper July first, 1930 and took a short vacation but returned a month later to assume duties of Superintendent of the mechanical department, which he held until death.

Friends crowded the Baptist church beyond capacity at the funeral service here Tuesday afternoon. Floral tributes were heaped high on all sides of the casket as friends paid their final respects to one of the most popular young men Cross Plains ever possessed.

All stores here closed during the funeral and interment services.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ruth Adams; six year old son, Wayne Lanier; mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Adams and six sisters and two brothers; they are: Charles Adams, Lubbock; E. O. Adams, Cross Plains; Mrs. Frank Williams, Hamlin; Mrs. O. L. Dennis, Rochester; Mrs. H. T. Reiger, Gladewater; Mrs. Beulah Tyler, Clyde, and Mrs. Jeff Clark and Mrs. Bill Davidson, both of Cross Plains.

Glenn Adams was born November 22, 1900. He had lived in Cross Plains virtually all of his life. June 17, 1922 he was married to Miss Ruth Brewer. To that union were born two children The first, a boy, died in infancy and is buried in the family plot where Glenn was laid to rest Tuesday.

Glenn was a member of the Cross Plains Volunteer Fire Department, Knights of Pythias lodge and one of the most public spirited young men of town.

Price Is Yet Uncertain But 11 Cents In Intimated As Opening Quotation

Turkey time in Texas is just around the corner. Monday thousands of birds will start 'moving' for the November market. Four Cross Plains buyers were making preparations yesterday to handle the purchasing in this locality. "Indications are that Cross Plains will have one of the best turkey markets, anywhere in this section; due to the fact that there are four buyers here and all represent different picking companies," said a veteran raiser yesterday.

No definite announcement as to what the price for this year's birds would be at the opening, was available yesterday, but it was intimated by two produce men that 11 cents would be close to the quotation, at least.

Between 10,000 and 15,000 turkeys, is the estimate that two produce men have guessed will be sold in Cross Plains during November and December.

Reports from farmers are to the effect that there are more turkeys in the country this year than last and that they have been raised with a smaller outlay of expense.

An announcement from McKinney Produce appears on another page of the Review. Other Cross Plains buyers will have messages regarding their prices next week.

Merchants told the Review the first of the week that 'turkey season' was rapidly becoming one of Cross Plains' son's of the year. "I am of the opinion that this section should encourage the turkey industry even stronger," said George R. Neel, manager of Higginbothams, yesterday.

CITIZENS STATE WILL TRANSFER 37 PERCENT DEFERRED DEPOSITS

Citizens State Bank, here, will transfer another 37 and one-half percent of their deferred deposits to active ledgers, making them subject to check, Tuesday morning, according to an announcement from J. R. Petterson, Cashier, yesterday.

"We are in splendid position to do this, due to the hearty cooperation that has been given us by the citizenship of this trade territory," he said. "Our deposits have increased over $14,000, in the last two weeks", he continued.

Twice heretofore deferred accounts have been transferred to the active ledger at the bank. Neither occasion has prompted noticeable withdrawals, according to directors.

Collections are reputed to have come in splendidly the past month at the bank also.

CITIZENS BE ALERT FOR MONDAY IS HALLOWEEN

Property owners and good peace loving citizens are reminded to be on the alert for pranksters Monday night, for that is Halloween.

According to the advance sale of masks, bewitching material for costumes and such by Cross Plains merchants, a parade of specks is expected here.

THIS WOMAN LOST 45 POUNDS OF FAT

Dear Sirs: For 3 months I've been on your salts and am very much pleased with results. I've lost 45 lbs. inches in hips and bust measure. I've used 3 bottles—one lasting 5 weeks and often tried to reduce by dieting never could keep it up but by cutting down and taking Kruschen I've splendid results. I highly recommend it to my friends.—Mrs. Carson, Manton, Mich.

To lose fat SAFELY and HARMLESSLY, take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in morning before breakfast—don't eat a morning. To hasten results fight on fatty meats, potatoes, cream and pastries—a bottle that costs 4 weeks costs but a trifle—but don't take chances—be sure it's Kruschen—your health comes first—get it at Smith Drug Store or any drugstore in America. If not joyfully satisfied return the first bottle—money back.

Buffs Defeat Baird

In a hard fought game the Cross Plains Buffaloes defeated the Bears at Baird Friday afternoon.

In the first quarter Cross Plains kicked off. Baird was downed on their own 20 yard line. After two tries at the line Baird kicked and the Buffs returned the ball to Baird's 40 yard line. The Buffs then marched down the field to Baird's 6 yard line where they lost the ball on a fumble. The rest of the period was played in Bears territory.

Taking the ball on Baird's 25 yard line in the second quarter Davidson went off tackle for a touchdown. Walker failed to kick the goal leaving the score 6 to 0 in favor of Cross Plains. There was no more scoring the rest of the game.

All of the last half was played in Baird territory. Cross Plains staged drives down the field only to be stopped at the goal line.

F. F. A. Students Go To The Dallas Fair

Thirteen boys who belong to the F. F. A. club, went to the Dallas Fair. They were Bevo Webb, Vernon Baird, Donald Baird, Anderson Barr, Wilburn Barr, Alton Barr, Tommie Harris, Earl Lauske, Buster Atwood, Tommie Holden, and probably others. Vernon Baird and Bevo Webb were the delegates. Wilburn Barr and Alton Barr played in the F. F. A. band.

They all reported a very good time. The members of the F. F. A. saw many interesting things while in Dallas. They saw North Dallas and College Station play football Friday, and S. M. U. and Centenary play Saturday. Some of the boys attended the rodeo which was put on by Hoot Gibson. Many of them came back with empty pockets and small hats and balloons.

Each Wednesday at three fifteen one class of the school will be held responsible for a play or program. Next Wednesday, November 2, the sixth grade will have charge of the program. The following Wednesday the seniors will furnish the program. Every one is invited to be present.

Cottonwood

Cottonwood is having an unusually exciting week. One of our citizens was hailed into court on a burglary trial Monday morning but as there was no evidence to verify the accusation, it was dismissed without trial.

The joint debate between Elder Joe S. Newman of San Antonio, of Primitive Baptist, Faith, and Rev. E. H. O. Dowd of Borger of the Church of Christ, began Sunday afternoon with an unusually large attendance.

Much interest is being manifested and the discourses are very interesting and enlightening. Owing to the business of the season the afternoon services have been dispensed with and the debate will continue until Sunday evening.

Stanley Coppinger spent the week end with homefolks and was accompanied by a school mate from Abilene whose name we failed to learn.

Mr. Hale is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Whitehorn during the debate.

Rev. Jesse Collins and wife of Glenrose are among the out-of-town visitors attending the debate. Rev. Collins is acting as Moderator in the debate.

Professors H. S. Varner and M. Farrow made a business trip to Baird in the interest of the school here, Monday.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE 107th DISTRICT:

I wish that the Democratic National fact that the Democratic National Campaign Committee for Texas is especially urging every Democratic to do his part toward raising the necessary funds for carrying on the National Campaign. I believe we have the strongest National ticket we have had in many years, and we have been especially honored by having the name of our distinguished citizen, Hon. John N. Garner placed on the ticket as nominee for Vice President. We should therefore exert ourselves to the utmost to see that Texas does her share and does not fall down on her quota. The time is short, so let us act now. Mail your remittance to the Democratic National Campaign for Texas, Austin, Texas, or see your County Chairman at once, and urge your friends to do likewise. We must have a change in the National Administration and this can only be accomplished by concerted action on the part of all loyal Democrats.

Sincerely yours,
Ceel A. Lotief,
Democratic Nominee for Representative of the 107th District of Texas.

Lecture On Life

Rev. Preston, a traveling lecturer, gave a very interesting lecture on Life and How to Live It, to the students body of Cross Plains High School Thursday afternoon October 20. Mr. Preston was formerly pastor of the First Christian Church of Electra but for the last eight years he has been touring the United States giving lectures for young people. He has covered practically all of the eastern states and is now lecturing in the southern states.

In his lecture, Rev. Preston said very forcibly that the most important thing in the world is life and the most important thing in life is character and the way one lives. With an aim there are three essentials for character and success. They are truth, virtue, and responsibility. Power, education and wealth are important but they can not stand alone. He pointed out that Rome was powerful but the empire fell. The education of Greece has never been surpassed, but Greece did not stand. The Egyptian Pharaohs had greater wealth than any other people but today Egypt is covered with sand.

Mr. Preston talked to the girls and then to the boys, discussing, fully and giving illustrations of truth, virtue, and responsibility. Truth and virtue are necessary for character and should not be given up for money or favorable public opinion.

Rosalea: Daddy.
Daddy: Ole more question, then.
Rosalea: How far it is between to and fro?

Thousands of Women Have Taken Cardul on Their Mothers' Advice

It is an impressive fact that many women have said they learned of the value of Cardul from their mothers.

What stronger evidence of her confidence in a medicine could a mother have than that she advises her daughter to take it?

Cardul is given the credit for relieving so many cases of womanly suffering that it is widely and favorably known. Druggists, everywhere, sell it.

If you are weak, run-down, suffering monthly, take Cardul. Take it for a reasonable length of time and try it thoroughly. As your health improves, you will share the enthusiasm of thousands of women who have written to say: "Cardul helped me."

Trade In Your Worn Tires for Safe Gripping Non-Skid Firestone Tires

LIBERAL trade-in allowance on all Firestone High Speed and Heavy Duty Tires!

Why take a chance on worn, smooth, uncertain tires when you can buy Firestone non-skid safe, proven tires at lowest prices.

Firestone Tires are designed to grip the road. The non-skid tread is thick, tough and gives 25% longer non-skid safety.

Glen Schultz only last month set a new world's record in climbing Pike's Peak, in 16 min. 47 sec. His top speed was 78 miles per hour—negotiating many hair-raising turns where a skid or a tire failure meant death.

It's that kind of stamina that makes Firestone Tires safe and economical for you. That's why race drivers use Firestone Tires. They won't risk their lives on any other make.

No tire in the world has the Firestone endurance. That is because Gum-Dipping, the patented Firestone process, transforms the cotton cords into tough, sinewy units. It means that the liquid rubber penetrates every cord and coats every fiber, assuring protection against internal heat. Two Extra Gum-Dipped Cord Plies under the Tread, give 56% stronger bond between tread and cord body.

Don't buy cheap tires that are only made to sell. Don't risk your life on wet, slippery pavements these October days—Use the same precaution race drivers use. Trade in your old tires—We will give you a liberal allowance on Firestone Tires—the safest tires in the world.

WILLIAMS F. F. A.
 Williams F. F. A. Adviser helps install County Booth at State Fair.

BY NORRIS CHAMBERS

C. B. Edwards went to Dallas last week to help install a county booth at the state fair. They were to display wheat, oats, barley, millet, peas, alfalfa, peanuts, Irish potatoes, onions, syrup, cane, turnips, tomatoes, pumpkins, apples, peaches, and etc.

They had a display table with dimensions of 10 by 12 feet. The background was 12 by 8 feet. It was of a light brown color, and on the top a eight and half feet, on which was inscribed Brown County, hung majestically. In the center of the background a semi-circular sign made of wheat grains, pasted on the light, shaded, backboard; and beneath the inscription the word 'of' and beneath that—1932.

Their major products were wheat, oats, and barley; on which Mr. Edwards expressed his hope that maybe they will win some prize, for it is evidently likely that there can be no grains grown in Texas much better than those grown in Callahan, Brown and adjoining counties.

And Hoover used to think a prohibition drive was a trip to Canada.

JUST PALS

BY PAUL HAWK

Each time Juanita went with a new man for a few times—and that was enough for him to be interested!—she had to listen to this question from him: "Say—just how do you stand with this Gilbert Fairchild?"

Each time she would laugh amusingly and answer, "Just pals. We've known each other forever."

And when Gilbert became acquainted with a new woman, he, too, would always hear a question: "Why is it you're always with this Juanita Paige if you're interested in me?"

When this occurred, Gilbert would laugh and say: "Why we're just pals. It's just that we've sorta buddied together."

Then, when they saw each other again:

"Say, J. You're accused of being that certain person again. Agnes hopped on me about you today. Rich?"

Juanita laughed. "Priceless. And guess what! Donald wanted me to explain just what my intentions were towards you, too."

"Isn't it funny how they're always mistaking our attitude as if we could ever fall in love after knowing each other so long!"

"Right, Gil, ol' sport! Put 'er there."

"Say J. Wanda go swimmin' with me tomorrow about four?"

"I'll say I do. Pick me up at Sally's."

Gil left his law office early the next day, and they were soon at the pool at the Lakewood Country Club. They jumped in and raced to the other end. Gil got out first and stretched out a hand to Juanita. She stood laughing on the bank beside him, holding her cap in one hand and shaking out her long golden hair with the other. She made a pretty picture with her blue bathing suit to match her eyes, and Gil was not the only one there to appreciate it.

"Ya' know, you create quite an effect," he remarked lazily. "Hear the galleries cheering."

She looked at his tall, well-muscled body, his piercing brown eyes, his black hair, and said carelessly, "You're something of a handsome brute yourself."

It was nice there. They lay in the shade, sometimes dozing, sometimes drawing a remark and getting a monosyllable in reply.

"That's the beauty about us, Gil," Juanita remarked suddenly. "We never have to be on pins and needles. We're always at ease with each other."

"Uh-m," said Gilbert. Pretty soon he said, "Carryin' coals t' Newcastle tomorrow. Go?"

"Sure."

Birds were singing, the air was full of perfume from the flowers and trees by the road as they whipped by. The drive was exhilarating, but Juanita was strangely silent most of the way.

"Trouble?" Gil asked.

Juanita looked off toward the hills in the distance. "Marriage mart."

The car lurched suddenly; then resumed its even purring.

The wind caught part of Gil's voice, but it was almost hearty.

"Congratulations! Didn't know you went in for that sort of thing. Always thought you should get married."

Juanita seemed to regain her usual high spirits. "Aren't you interested enough to inquire who?"

"Who is the lucky mastiff," Gil asked lightly.

"Martin Crenshaw."

"Whoops. Featherin' the nest well, uh?"

They were carefree the rest of the trip until they were nearing home. Then it was Gilbert who became silent.

"Tell me," Juanita commanded. "Thinkin'," said Gilbert. Then: "Swan song of famous pair, what?"

"Why, what do you mean?"

"Society girl marries banker. Lawyer now free to attend to law practice. Success assured by reason of added efforts," Gil remarked facetiously.

"No!" said Juanita.

"Banker famous addict of 'three's a crowd' slogan. Crushes lawyer beneath heel," explained Gilbert. "No! Lawyer removes obnoxious presence."

"But that's silly," Juanita protested.

"Wait and see," said Gil, shortly. "Well," as they drove up before Juanita's house, "Lawyer bids adieu. Been fine knowing you," he said sincerely.

Gilbert was right. Martin Crenshaw, who looked and acted as if his three million dollars bore down heavily on his shoulders, propounded the inevitable question and was given the usual answer about Gilbert.

"But I'd rather you wouldn't," he told Juanita in a way that emphasized his belief in the importance of his preferences. It just doesn't look right for you to be engaged to me and seen with him."

And that was that. It wouldn't have been that, however, had Gilbert not ceased coming around her, for Juanita had her own will. But Gilbert had said, "We're too good pls."

So that was that rather than something else. And Juanita didn't see Gilbert for a long time, but she heard of him. And so she called him.

"Gil, I'm so glad you're engaged! I've always thought you needed someone."

School Time And Shoe Time

At no time of the year are children shoes more important than while they are attending school. Bad soles or ripped tops will often cause them absent days at school when only a few cents worth of repairing would prevent the whole situation.

Remember a stitch in time saves nine and Gautney repairs shoes the factory way at the very lowest possible cost.
