CONTRACTS FOR CONSTRUCTION NEW R. R. SIGNED

With all the money subscribed and contracts for construction signed, according to reports from Abilene, a charter is now the only thing the Abilene & Eastern Railway needs to begin laying roadbed between that city and Cross Plains.

The report announces that contracts for the construction and operation of the road were signed at Abilene Monday of last week by Frank Kell of Wichita Falls, who owns half of the stock, and a group of Abilene business men who raised $400,000 to purchase the other half of the stock. Kell was elected president of the road and will build and operate it.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cutbirth and daughter were in Fort Worth the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Durringer, Mrs. Archie Gensley and Red Robertson were in Coleman Monday evening.

WOMANLESS DIVORCE SUIT WAS BIG SUCCESS

The "Womanless Divorce Suit," given by the Leader Class of the local Methodist Sunday School at the High School Auditorium on Tuesday night of this week, was the most enjoyable affair that has been staged in Cross Plains since the production of the play to which it was a sequel, the "Womanless Wedding," given by the same class a few months ago. The large auditorium, as on the former occasion, was filled to an overflowing capacity by the people of the city and surrounding community. Many of the nearby towns were represented by attendants. The theme was strikingly illustrative of the vagaries and current opinion of a divorce trial before a jury composed exclusively of women, highly contrasting it with the proceedings of a back-woods court of the long ago. Each character acted his part well, and it can truly be said of their talent, "it is not so much the theme, but the way you play it."

SHALLOW OIL FIELDS HELP CROSS PLAINS

Farmers Near Callahan County Town Raise Varied Crops

The following article, published through arrangements made by the Cross Plains Lions Club, appeared in a recent booster and nation-wide advertising edition of the El Paso Herald:

Cross Plains is the town that has grown from a village of 800 people to a thriving city of 2500 in the past five years. Its wonderful growth has been made possible by its immense trade territory and the recognition of the many possibilities therein. The town has two of the strong financial institutions with $1,000,000 in assets.

Cross Plains is in a community which is able to and is carrying out the program of diversification which the bankers have been preaching. When a stranger enters its territory he is impressed by beautiful, well built homes with modern conveniences, nesting in the green and shady groves dotting the surrounding country, thus indicating the healthy financial condition of the farmers. Acres of cotton, grain, corn, maize, peanuts, and watermelons are to be seen. Young fruit and peach orchards are increasing the value of the land yearly. Around the premises, one sees flocks of well bred poultry and turkeys.

Has Oil Fields

Cross Plains is in the heart of both deep and shallow oil fields, which flow large quantities of high gravity oil. To the northeast is the famous Hilbern field; to the east, the Pioneer field, where the "wonder well," owned by T. B. Slick, was drilled in 1922 with an initial daily flow of 25,000 barrels of 47 degree gravity oil from a depth of 2435 feet. This same well is now producing over 50 barrels a day. To the southeast is the Blake oil field in which wells from 100 to 1200 barrels are obtained at a depth of 1300 feet. Directly south of Cross Plains, the Cross Cut sand at 1100 feet is producing hundreds of barrels of oil. A shallow oil field, known as the Amerada's No. W. Harris lease, is located six miles southwest of Cross Plains. The sand is found from 340 to 360 feet and has produced over 1000 barrels daily since 1924.

WELLS DRILLED IN TOWN

Not only does Cross Plains have fields in every direction but the town itself was built over a pool of oil. Three years ago this was one of the noisiest little cities in the state due to many wells being drilled on townsite blocks in which over 100 producers were obtained.

BUSY LIONS CLUB

The Cross Plains "Century" Lions Club No. 100 is always seeking to do things to upbuild the town. The Club recently formed a temporary organization for the obtaining of a creamery, cheese, and dairy plant and if outside capital is not secured the creamery will be built on a cooperative system by the merchants and farmers. Several carloads of dairy cattle have been purchased by farmers here tending to make diversification more logical and practical than the past planting of the single crop.

Land values in Cross Plains vicinity have not advanced unreasonably. Farms upon easy terms may be secured at from $25 to $40 per acre. This land is well suited for fruit and peach orchards. Water is found at shallow depths, an essential to rapid growth of peach trees. To assist in the development of the peach industry the Lions Club has assisted in securing a county agent for Callahan county and a vocational agricultural instructor for Cross Plains.

The soil in Cross Plains area enables the growing of a number of crops. This is evidenced every year by the cotton crop, which averages from 3000 to 7000 bales, by 50 to 75 carloads of peanuts, by 25 to 50 cars of maize, 10 to 15 cars of corn, 75 to 100 cars of watermelons and cantaloupes, and by 250 to 300 carloads of oats, wheat and barley.

BAIRD TO GIVE BIG FREE BARBECUE NOV. 11

(Baird Star)

The people of Callahan County are to be the guests of the citizens of Baird at a big free barbecue November 11th according to plans worked out Tuesday night by the Chamber of Commerce. The completion of these arrangements will make a full day's program owing to the fact that a band concert will be given by the 26 piece Band from the I. O. O. F. Orphans Home at Corsicana at 9:30 A. M. and speaking by distinguished men of Texas will take place from 10:00 until noon. Promptly at 12:00 o'clock the barbecue will be served.

Commissioner W. R. Ely and General Jewell P. Lightfoot of Fort Worth have been invited to speak on this occasion and in addition local men will explain the proposed $1,000,000.00 County Road Bond Issue for the benefit of the voters. Other entertaining features are being worked out for this part of the program.

The American Legion has volunteered their services in helping handle the crowd and serving the meal and an abundant supply of good barbecued meat, pickles, onions, coffee, and bread will be served in army style in a way that everybody will receive plenty to eat.

The corner stone laying will take place at 2:00 P. M., under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge of Texas. Loud speakers will be provided for everyone may hear the entire program from different points.

After the corner stone ceremonies one of the most important football games of the season will be held at the Baird High School field when Baird and Clyde meet in their annual football conflict.

Arrangements are being made to feed five or six thousand people and many prominent people of Texas will be present on this occasion.

The Committee in charge of the program and other details incident to the laying of the corner stone of Callahan County new Court House by the I. O. O. F., have about perfected their plans for this imposing ceremonial.

Many prominent members of the order will be present including the Grand Master, Hon. Barry Miller and other prominent officials of the Grand Lodge.

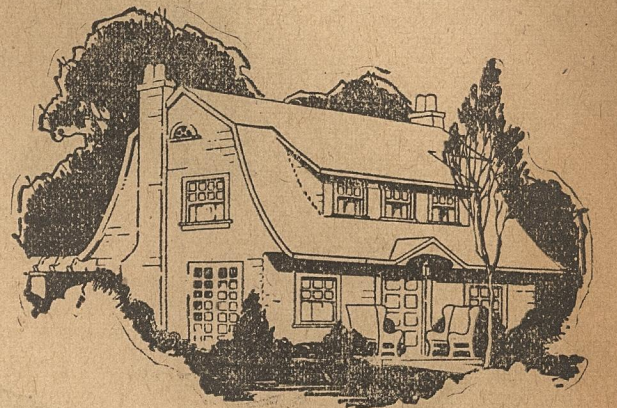

of Cross Plains containing from 12,000 to 40,000 acres of land which are stocked with high grade registered cattle, adding to the revenue of the town. In the past, the town has been handicapped by its rail facilities for shipping cattle to the stock market. Cross Plains is bidding strongly for this business, however, and will soon have an outlet which will put them in direct connection with the Texas & Pacific and the M. K. & T. railroads. An extension, from Cross Plains to the Texas and Pacific at Abilene, is now being planned.

Two modern school buildings, equipped with up-to-date furnishings representing an investment of over $100,000. These buildings are modern, fire proof and are of adequate size to care for the increases in enrollment.

The school system, in attempting to serve the best interests of the community, has added a vocational agriculture department this year.

There are five churches in Cross Plains, three of which are equipped with individual class rooms, kitchens, and banquet rooms. The combined value of the church buildings approximates $75,000.00. The type of support that these churches receive is explained by the fact that the beautiful new Presbyterian church when completed was paid for and dedicated on the first day services were held in the structure.

Cross Plains, a new town, the business section having been moved from its old location to a higher and more beautiful site.

THE PROPOSITION OF A CITY LAKE

A complete report, as compiled by the City Council and a representative of the Municipal Engineering Company of Dallas, covering every detail of the proposition through which the city expects to secure a lake, will be published in next week's issue of the Review. It is quite lengthy and was placed with us too late for publication this week.

Taylor Bond, Marion Harvey and C. C. Neeb spent Sunday afternoon with M. E. Wakefield, who is confined to his bed at his home in Brownwood.

SERIOUS INJURIES FROM FALL OF HORSE

Aubrey Foster, age about 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Foster of Cross Plains, sustained serious injuries last Saturday afternoon when the horse upon which he was riding in a cattle drive, near the north limits of the city, fell in a manner that severely crushed the youth's body. He was found unconscious and brought to his home, from where he was carried Sunday to the Santa Anna Hospital for treatment. Late reports from the hospital states that he still is in an unconscious condition and has but little chance for recovery.

Money In Fruit Trees

It will soon be time for setting out fruit trees. Do you realize that there are many people who are making big money out of fruit raising? And doing it in sections of the country which are not as well adapted to the growing of fruit trees as the thousands of acres of land which we have around Cross Plains. Do you know that the people of the Rising Star territory sold three car loads of Elberta peaches this past season and that they received $1 per bushel for these peaches delivered at the car? Figure it out and you will find that there is real money in fruit raising, and it is a surer crop than many others. While you are planning for the future set aside a suitable plot and plant a few dozen fruit trees this winter.

STATEMENT BY REV. A. E. HILL

On October 30, 1929, I accompanied Mr. M. A. Martin, formerly connected with the Cross Plains Mutual Life Insurance Association, to Oklahoma City, where we were the guests of the officers of the National Aid Life Association.

I was surprised to find that the Association occupies the entire third floor of the Continental Building, one of the large office buildings, with a floor space of 7,000 square feet.

In the offices there are 42 employees, all busy at work, and apparently with plenty to do.

I was amazed at the wonderful system which this Association has had installed by an efficiency expert from Chicago. Every letter from a member is promptly answered, and the smallest detail in connection with the business is immediately attended to.

Mr. H. B. Houghton, the President of the National Aid Life Association, is one of the outstanding business men in Oklahoma City. He is a heavy property owner, and also has a large income from his oil holdings. He is one of the home folks, and a man who is well thought of by the citizens of his community. He is a life member of the Knights Templar, a thirty-two degree Mason, a life member of the Elks, an Odd Fellow, and a member of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce.

L. H. Houghton, the Secretary of the Association, was a Colonel on the Staff of Ex-Governor Johnson, and is now a Colonel on the Staff of Gov.
W. J. Holloway. He is a young man, only thirty-two years of age, but is one of the best executives it has ever been my pleasure to meet. He also owns considerable property in Oklahoma City, and has a large income from oil production. He graduated as a Cadet Officer from the Kemper Military Academy, at Booneville, Mo., is a member of the American Legion, and of the Elks.

I found that the Association has 35,000 members, with over $53,000,000 insurance in force, and that since its organization, Nov. 19, 1921 it has paid out over $1,500,000 in death claims.

The National Aid Life Association is the largest life insurance corporation in the State of Oklahoma, and stands very high with the citizens of that State.

Its membership in Oklahoma City alone is composed of over five thousand of the leading citizens.

I was most favorably impressed with the officers of the Association, and everything in connection with it, and I am writing this for the reason that I want my friends' and fellow citizens in this district to know exactly what I found.

Very sincerely yours,
A. E. HILL.

Soft wood or discolored hardwood floors can be made to look rich and colorful with S-W Floor Enamel—an enamel made for this specific purpose. It has the toughest of films. S-W Paint Products are sold the world over under this famous trade-mark HOMES built of wood need never grow out-of-date. It is easy to modernize them because wood lends itself so readily to the necessary changes.

Owners are realizing this and thousands of them are modernizing to protect their investments, to avoid the necessity of rental reductions and to increase resale values.

If you own an old frame home don't let it go for a song until you have investigated fully the possibilities of modernizing it.

"Pancho" Vilha May Have Some Kind Of Surprise to Throw Into The Yellow Jacket's Camp

Cross Plains High Buffaloes and Stephenville Yellow Jackets will battle on the local gridiron Friday at 3:30 P. M., and when the dust of this battle settles fans in this district will probably know a little more about who is going to win the title, and who will meet Comanche in the finals.

That 13 to 0 handed the Buffaloes by the Gorman Panthers was no sign of who may have the best team in the district. Gorman beat Rising Star last Friday by a score of 60 to 0, at Gorman.

Though doped to lose by at least five touchdowns, the Buffs will attempt to rely on an aerial game to make as good showing as possible Friday when the Yellow Jackets aggregation invades the city from Stephenville. This game will be a conference game.

Arrangements have been made for the largest crowd of the season. Coach Vilha's Buffaloes have not won a conference game so far this season. Practicing behind closed gates all week, he may have some kind of surprise to throw into the Yellow Jacket's camp on this occasion. Don't miss this game. Wear your colors.

BROTHER HOGG'S TRIAL

Rev. Will Hogg's trial occurred about a year ago. He was tried by the court of criticism, presided over by Judge Censure. His prosecuting attorney was Lawyer Malice, its testimony was rumor and his chief witness was "They Say." His trial was held in Evil Hall, where their business is to traduce and malign. Envy and pride were the detectives who worked up the case and their verdict is always "guilty," for anything desired can be proved up by the star witness. Within its jurisdiction there is no such thing as innocence. What "They Say" could not testify to as an eye witness he proved by circumstantial evidence. "They Say" would rather drag from the closet a family skeleton than to point to monuments erected in honor of virtue and valor.

Do you hug to yourself the delusion absurd.

That in your perfection is found: Do you think your self faultless? You know you are not: Then why pull the other man down?

ROSCOE PASTOR ACCEPTS LOCAL CALL

J. E. Henkel, clerk of the Baptist church, received notice Monday morning of this week from Rev. Graves Darbey that he had resigned as pastor of the Roscoe church and had accepted the call to Cross Plains. Rev. Darbey will first attend the Baptist Convention at Beaumont and has arranged to be here and begin conducting regular services on the Fourth Sunday in this month. A part of the letter of acceptance follows:

There are two or three things which I wish you would do for us. Please send at your earliest convenience the roll of your church membership, so that we can begin getting familiar with the names. Secondly I wish you would make inquiry about bus connection out of Brownwood to Cross Plains. We would like to reach Brownwood at eight-thirty Sunday morning. If we cannot make bus connections I wonder if someone would meet us. If this cannot be arranged we will have to take the longer route, which will be more unpleasant and expensive.

May God take care of us until He brings us together.

WHEN CHILDREN Need a Laxative

"We have used Theford's Black-Draught in our family for nineteen years. I have found it of great help in raising my family. I have given it to all six of my children. Whenever they complain of upset stomach, or begin to look pale and sickly, I make a tea of Black-Draught and begin giving it to them. In a day or two they are all right. I give it to them for constipation, and my husband and I both take it. I always give it for colds in winter, for I believe a way to prevent them is to keep the system clean."

—Mrs. Doshie Terry, 1205 Fourth Avenue, Decatur, Ala.

JACK REDMOND IN ACTION PERFORMING TRICK SHOT

JACK REDMOND AT PHILPECO CLUB

Jack Redmond, trick-shot golfing genius, will be the exhibition attraction at the Phil-Pe-Co. Country Club during the afternoon and evening of Nov. 13, 1929. The club expects to be host to a large gallery of members, guests and the public. Redmond will play an afternoon "all star" match, beginning at 2 o'clock, paired with 3 members from Rising Star and 3 from Cross Plains. Immediately following the match he will display the trick shots that have given him his national reputation as an entertainer.

In the evening Redmond presents at Pioneer, Texas, a motion picture show of star golfers in slow motion and normal speed exposures. In addition he lectures on golf instruction and golf physical culture, the latter being an interesting development of his enabling the aspirant for golf sharp shooting honors to get the "groove" and the physical benefits of the golf swing without the necessity of long and arduous practice outdoors.

To end the day's entertainment, Redmond will give an interesting demonstration of "midnight" golf at 10 P. M. This game is played with luminous golf balls, and according to Redmond, it is possible to score as well at night as in day time, once a golfer has gotten the hang of the thing. Redmond has played "midnight" golf against many of America's noted professionals. It is one of the most interesting golf novelties of recent years and produces some amazingly low scores.

The guest star, Jack Redmond, recently concluded a two year engagement with Earl Carroll's "Vanities" and for the four years prior to playing with that revue displayed his trick-shot skill before vaudeville audiences in the United States and Europe. He is said to have played golf shots before more people than any other golfer in the game. He served as golf coach at Yale University and during this time devoted much to the perfection of trick shots, working out what many golfing authorities pronounce the greatest array of trick shots mastered by anyone in the game. Tickets good for both afternoon and evening exhibitions are $1.00 and may be obtained by the public at Dube Motor Company or both banks, or at the club grounds on the day of the match.
