3 In Running For Night Watchman Here

M'MILLAN, LOVING AND NASH ALREADY OUT; VOTE SET 6TH

Three candidates have already filed petitions of nomination for the place of night-watchman at the polls December sixth, and indications are that one or two more names will be added to the list, the Review was told yesterday by City Secretary Lindsey W.
Tyson.

Petitions were filed this week placing the names of H. H. Nash, J.
M. McMillan and I. B. Loving on the printed ballot. Two others are reported to have notified of their intentions to enter the race.

For a candidate's name to be printed on the ballot it will be necessary for 10 voters to submit a petition to the city clerk. Petitions must be on file by November 26, warns Mayor C. S. Martin.

Although the place of night-watchman is not an elective office, city councilmen decided to hold the referendum in order that the people's choice might be appointed.

BILL GRAY PLEDGED BY COLLEGE "FRAT"

Bill Gray, of Cross Plains, sophomore student in McHenry College, was recently pledged by the I.H.H., young men's fraternity.

The I.H.H., one of the most outstanding organizations on the campus, pledged 11 new men for the 1938-39 year. In honor of these new pledges, a picnic was held October 24.

Bill is the son of Mrs. W. J. Gray, and a graduate of Cross Plains high school.

Hardships Of Foreign Missionary Told In Letter To Mrs. Sam Moore

An insight into the life of a Christian missionary on foreign fields is given in a letter from Rev. and Mrs. Ben Oliver, of Brazil, to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moore, of Cottonwood.

Excerpts of the part written by the Rev. Mr. Oliver, most of which is devoted to his work, appears hereunder.

"We arrived here in December 1935 and began work immediately.
Since September 1937 we have been here alone, however, our family now numbers five, the last child being born December 16, 1936, just two days after I had returned from a long trip into the wilds of Southern Santa Catherine, the state just South of us, which comprises a part of our field. Only by the grace of God was I spared on that trip, for besides going through a great many hardships, the last night when I was preaching in Urubity, the priest organized a mob which threw rocks, etc at us, and when we were on our way home men on each side of the road emptied revolvers at the truck in which we were riding. That hail of lead, at least 12 bullets, passed with only minor scratches to the three persons. But I've been back there and preached again the unsearchable riches of Christ. Just as Paul was stoned at Lystra, and went back into the city, so did I.

"This year I've spent only about 100 days at home. When I'm here I have to work day and night to keep up the correspondence and get out the state paper "O Baptista", keep my mission books in order, etc.
Also, I've been teaching a couple of young men who want to be preachers. So you can see how busy a missionary is. My wife works like a Trojan too. She is president of the W.M.U. convention, teacher of a class of girls here in the church, director of the Y.W.A. of the choir and orchestra, and I don't know what else. We hardly have time for our own family. But we have hopes of the Deters' arrival here in December, and are asking the board another couple of missionaries for Santa Catherine, so I won't have to travel over such a great distance. Our field is large

WELL ON McDERMOTT RANCH SHOWING OIL

A well drilled on the McDermott ranch West of town encountered an oil sand at 477 feet this week, and is reported to have yielded a nice showing of crude. At present the hole is being washed in preparation to making a thorough check of the potentiality.

assures correct fitting in shoes for men, women, boys and girls next week, November 18. The nationally known shoe manufacturer, will headquarter at Higginbotham's store here.

Rochelle Hornets Oppose Buffaloes Here On Armistice

Cross Plains' first afternoon football game of the season will be played here Friday, when the thundering herd plays host to an invasion of coach Barney Hale's fast improving Rochelle Hornets. Kickoff is set for three o'clock.

After a slow start the Rochelle team has made rapid strides of improvement. Local fans who saw the Hornets trounce Rising Star two weeks ago predict a tough contest for coach "Beans" Morris' charges.

Injuries will also handicap the locals Friday afternoon. Both Colvin Lacey and Basil Lusk, stalwarts of the herd defense, are suffering with ailing shoulders and are not expected to be in condition for much service.

NEGRO GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE AT BAIRD

Lennie Mitchell, negro, charged with murder of a city marshal at Merkel, was given life imprisonment by a jury in forty-second district court at Baird Monday morning.

Mitchell had previously been tried two times, receiving the death penalty in each instance.

seriously cut about the face Friday afternoon when his automobile collided with the bridge across Turkey

REV. FLOYD W. THRASH ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Rev. Floyd W. Thrash, pastor of the Methodist church of this place left Wednesday morning for Waco to attend the annual conference.
The conference opened at two-thirty Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Thrash is expected to return home Sunday night.

'LITTLE MISS BROADWAY' AT LIBERTY SUNDAY

It seemed like vaudevillians' "Old Home" week on the "Little Miss Broadway" set at 20th Century-Fox.

Director Irving Cummings has a soft spot in his heart for vaudevillism. As a former stage player himself, Cummings knows the plight of the variety headliners, but not until he was assigned to direct the new Shirley Temple musical did he have a chance to do anything about it.

The script of "Little Miss Broadway" calls for a hotel full of out-of-work variety artists and that was all that Cummings needed. The cast reads like a "Who's Who" of the "two-a-days."

FOR GENTLEMEN WHO DO PREFER THOSE CURVES!

Gentlemen who prefer curves will find them in "The Showdown Angel" which opens at the Liberty Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday, starring Margaret Sullivan and James Stewart. All dancing girls in the film are twenty pounds heavier than the current weight fad.

The period of the picture is 1917 and Director H. C. Potter found that the perfect figure of that time were heavier than those of today.

During the first week of dance rehearsals the girls gave up their regular diets, ate three meals a day and made the new weight in time for the sequence. While not a musical picture, three numbers are included during the training camp entertainment sequence.

A love triangle that includes three people in different walks of life, "The Showdown Angel" is the story of a showgirl who marries a young Westerner in New York where he is awaiting his call to go to France to fight.

On the eve of his departure they are married. He just has time to seal the ceremony with a kiss when he has to leave with his company.

Walter Pidgeon, Hattie McDaniel and Nat Pendleton have prominent roles in the supporting cast.

DEMOCRATS OUTNUMBER REPUBLICANS 160 TO 11

Democrats outnumbered Republicans 160 to 11 in voting at the general election here Tuesday. No other parties received votes at the Cross Plains box.

Local voters favored both constitutional amendments by a vote of 36 to 21.

Announcement was made last week of the marriage last March of Miss Roma Young, of Cross Plains, and Joe Morrow, of Wichita Falls.
The couple will make their home at Dorrison, Oklahoma, where he is employed.

The couple met at Midland, where both were employed for a time.
Mrs. Morrow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Young, well known Cross Plains citizens. She was graduated from Cross Plains high school in the class of 1935, being prominent in activities of the younger set while in school and after graduation.

News of the marriage came as a surprise to the many friends of the bride here, however, the wedding was the culmination of an extended courtship.

Mrs. Morrow is spending a few days at present in the home of her parents.

A domino tournament will be held in the Cottonwood high school gymnasium Friday night under the sponsorship of the Cottonwood Parent-Teacher Association. A 25 cent charge will be assessed each player, proceeds from which are to be used in civic work. Refreshments will be served.

ROAD BOND CARRIES IN PUTNAM PRECINCT

A $50,000 road bond issue was approved in the Putnam precinct recently by a vote of 211 to 94, nine more than the necessary majority of two thirds.

The additional funds will be used for lateral roads, school bus routes and mail routes.

Mrs. Jesse McAdams and daughter spent the week end visiting in Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kittrell and son were San Angelo visitors Saturday.

IN OBSERVANCE OF ARMISTICE SIGNING TWENTY YEARS AGO

The little city of Cross Plains will celebrate a full holiday Friday in observance of the signing of the Armistice 20 years ago, which brought to an end gruesome warfare along the Western front. Only drug stores, cafes and filling stations will remain open and they will observe Sunday hours, the Review learned yesterday.

Cross Plains schools too will take the holiday, however, a football game on the high school gridiron with the Buffaloes playing host to an invasion of the Rochelle Hornets will be the only holiday entertainment.

Due to the unusual activity in the turkey market here, several produce concerns announced yesterday that their places of business would remain open in order that farmers would not be inconvenienced, and that Cross Plains turkeys would be assured of moving on the Thanksgiving market.

For the first time in history the post office will be closed and rural mail carriers will not make their runs. A recent law enacted by Congress makes November 11 a legal holiday.

A petition circulated Tuesday afternoon was returned to the Review office with the following business concerns having signed their intentions to be shut down the day:

Higginbotham Brothers and Company, Cross Plains Hardware Company, The Review, Caton's Variety Store, Citizens State Bank, Adair's Dry Goods Store, Mc's Variety, Underwood Grocery, Mc-Cord's Grocery, Piggly Wiggly, West Texas Utilities Company, Bryan's

pany, City Office, Jim Settle, Bond's Grocery, Woody's Tin Shop, D. O.

Jersey Sale Will Be Held Here Next Saturday Afternoon

A Jersey sale held in Cross Plains Saturday afternoon met with such outstanding success that it has been decided to repeat the sale each Saturday afternoon. The vacant lot on South Main Street, next door to Cox Produce is being used.

If the sale continues to grow, as indicated by the enthusiasm Saturday, promoters of the plan intend to try an auction sometime within the near future.

Buyers and sellers participating last Saturday included: Earl Mon-gomery, Doss Alexander, Everett Browning, Robert Meadow, J. P.
McCord, Wallace Jones, Freida Koenig, Ed Flowers, Libburn Morgan, Ben Wotton, Jim Miller, Earl Webb, Slim Newton, Howard Gary, Dale Gary, W. A. Hunkaby, Harry Coppinger, G. E. Morgan.

Buyers and sellers are invited to attend the sale this week. It is pointed out that anyone is eligible to participate in the event.

BRADY WILL AGAIN COMPETE IN THIS FOOTBALL CIRCUIT

The shift of Brady from this football district to the one to the South has been repealed by the interscholastic league, and the Buldogs, champions last year and almost certain victors in the current campaign, will again compete in the same circuit with Cross Plains, Coleman, Ballinger, Winters, Mozelle, Bangs and Rising Star.

A protest of the change was filed with R. J. Kidd, league athletic director, this week by Brady fans headed by Superintendent Whitten of the Brady school system.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith had as their guest Saturday and Sunday their son, Garland, who is attending John Tarleton college in Stephensville.

Poems
 God writes His poems in these lovely ways:
 A spilled gold sunset on a purple sky,
 An old grey oak that shades a low rock wall,
 The silvered line where homing pigeons fly.

I read such poems through a mist of tears,
 For beauty that cannot be snared in words.
 Why do I break my heart in futile rhyme When God says all with tree and sky and birds?
 —LDR in I Keep a Rainbow

"Listen! the Wind" is the title of a new book written by Anne Morrow Lindberg covering the excitement, problems, and dangers of pioneering in the air. It is the story of the flight that she and her husband made across the Atlantic Ocean from Africa to Brazil. While it tells every detail of the flight it is so dramatically and beautifully written that the narrative flows with almost the cadences of poetry. Colonel Lindberg has written the Foreword and has drawn the jacket design and the maps. The book is published by Harcourt Brace and company.

Here is good news for anybody who is as mussy and blotty with pen and ink as I am. Friends who have had my letters lately probably do not recognize my signature minus the characteristic blob of ink that heretofore distinguished it. For the sum of ten cents you can acquire a pen that looks like a fountain pen but is not and it will write two hundred words with only one dipping into the bottle! It probably can be found at your favorite shopping place if you are interested.

Determined wives in our village have been leading their husbands by the ear to the nearest haberdasher since Mr. Harry Trentman Jr., well known oil man of Ft Worth purchased on the streets in a distinctive ensemble, emitting many hearty to envy. Mr. Trentman wore a superbly tailored cinnamon brown coat and trousers of grape-leaf green with hat and shoes matching the coat, and a cravat which was a subtle blending of the whole. (The adjectives are mine—not the tailor's.) This may not sound like your good blue winter suit, but be assured that it was as lovely to look at as a sweet gum leaf just touched by frost.

Just because I go to church every Sunday night I miss all the most exciting things that happen via radio!

I have always regretted my failure to hear that scandalous skit which seemed to ban Mae West along with Adam and Eve from the broadcasting channels. And now I have missed all the excitement that attended Orson Welles' presentation of H. G. Wells' fantastic play concerning the destruction of the United States by fabulous creatures who descend upon us from Mars. Mr. Welles is that gifted young producer, only twenty three years old, who lifted eyebrows in New York last year by presenting Julius Caesar in modern dress. Now he has lifted the less sophisticated half of the country out of their wits by his realistic production of a twenty year old novel in the 1938 manner. It is gratifying that in our section of the country we are either more widely read or we are more at attentive listeners because I have not heard yet of any Southwesterner who was scared senseless... or maybe all go to church on Sunday night!
