PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR GRAIN CROP

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

Congratulations are in order this week for Sam Ploughman, who Friday night claimed in matrimony Miss Fannie Baum, one of the home town's most attractive young school teachers.

Fannie is the second local school "marm" to trip to Hyman's altar this Spring.

Can you imagine anything more embarrassing than a bride talking down with the youthful affliction of chicken pox on her honeymoon? That is just what happened on the Ploughman bridal jaunt.

Here's our proverbial blessing of happiness, gladness and luck to the newly weds.

It is rumored in confidential circles that Jimmie Lou Gwathmey, another faculty member, is more than passingly interested in a sheep and goat man from down about Goltwhaite.

June is the month of culmination for romances, so don't be surprised if there is social news concerning this duo. Incidentally, we haven't had time to interview "Snip" Caton concerning the possibilities of this item, but he probably wouldn't divulge any information anyway.

Now here's a flash, a dot and a dash (as Walter Winchell would say): Arthur Carmichael and Miss Lucille Burkett, both former residents of this place, will make unconditional "surrenders" next month. The exact date is not known but our information has been authentically confirmed.

"Art", as you know, is now owner of a sizeable cafe at Hamlin, doing a profitable business. The couple, will therefore, take up their abode in that city.

From Hot Springs, New Mexico, comes a card from "Slim" Crutchmer, who is enjoying the scenery of those parts in company with "Slim" McNeel.

The card reads: "Boy, this a great country. Altitude 7,300 feet at camp and you can get 5,000 more easy, if you can climb. There is a quartz peak right in front of us 2,000 feet up. You should see it. Fine time."

To a fellow who is sweltering in a sultry little country newspaper office, such mention of cool altitude is almost maddening.

A pastime of yesteryear—miniature golf—is being revived in the old home town by Hulan Barr, enterprising young banker. Hulan is building a course on the vacant lot between the Sinclair Service Station and Robertson's Produce on South Main Street.

Will be interesting to see if the fad will blossom forth again. If it works in Cross Plains watch the rest of the nation follow suit.

From way out in California comes an eight column newspaper picture of a polo game. And in the center making a sensational shot is Fred Bailes, formerly manager of the West Texas Utilities Company here.

The picture, which was sent this department by Ernest Smith, our California correspondent, shows Bailes playing with such celebratory as Walt Disney, creator of Mickey Mouse; Hal Roach, the movie producer and Lionel Pedley, three goal star.

This week's nomination for the "best fisherman" title goes to Ralph Chandler, who Tuesday night landed a 13½ pound catfish on a cane pole. Second honors go to F. R. Anderson who was exhibiting a five pound bass about town yesterday morning. (Incidentally "Phill", how much are they charging for fish /hat size now?)

MISS FANNIE BAUM AND SAM PLOUGHMAN WED FRIDAY NIGHT

Miss Fannie Baum, teacher in Cross Plains school system, and Sam Ploughman, a young ranchman whose home is near Rowden, were joined in marriage at Abilene, Friday night. The rites were solemnized by Rev. W. C. Childress, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

The wedding came as a surprise to the many friends of the couple throughout this section. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Baum, early residents of this county who live nine miles West of Cross Plains. She was graduated from Baird high school and later attended college at Wayland Baptist College, at Plainview, and at Texas Technological College at Lubbock. She taught for several years at Victoria and has for the past two years been a teacher in the elementary grades of the local school system.

The groom is a well known young Callahan county ranchman. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ploughman, who reside on a ranch between Belle Plaine and Rowden.

Mrs. J. W. Cockrell and daughter are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Underwood here this week.

NEARLY $20,000 IN PAST TWO WEEKS IS TOTAL TO CALLAHAN

$5,977 more federal money was received by Callahan county farmers this week. $4,600 represented 1934 corn hog payments—the third and last—to be made for that year. $1,377 was for 1935 cotton rentals and came on the heels of $13,800 received by 694 contract signers last week.

Federal money received from the two programs—cotton and corn-hog—in the past two weeks totals $9,777.

County Agent Ross B. Jenkins issued the following statement for publication yesterday, concerning the recent payments.

"The first 192 hog contracts taken from the total of 207 of the 1934 signers received $4,600 for their third and last payment of that year. That pays all but 15 of the total group. There are yet some 10 or more contracts that have not been fully cleared up to warrant payment on the second payment but these are being cleared as fast as the legal division of the AA can pass them.

"H. N. Ebert, president, of the Callahan Corn-Hog Association, reports that there are some 107 contracts for the year 1935 or about 100 less than last year due to the reason that many have gone out of the business for lack of feed. A few have also moved out of the county.

More Cotton Checks

"Along with the corn-hog payments, were received a second 'batch' of cotton checks that bring the amount of 1935 1st payment benefit rentals of $15,177. This amount added to the amounts gained from corn-hog and wheat have swelled the benefits to nearly $20,000 for the past two weeks. These checks have come at a most opportune time as many farmers needed the money to purchase feed and seed to make this year's crop, which (Continued on back page)

W. T. HUGHES TO HEAD SCRANTON SCHOOL BODY

W. T. Hughes, former Cross Cut school Superintendent, has been elected at Scranton, and will move there sometime within the next few weeks, he told the Review in an interview Tuesday afternoon. He will be succeeded at Cross Cut by Claude Shannon.

Other teachers elected for next year at Cross Cut are: Mrs. J. P. Leewright, Linden Newton, A. H. Plummer, Elizabeth Tyson, Mrs. J. W. Gafford.

After 52 Years Cross Plains Picnic 'Begs' For Sponsor The First Time

After 52 years of continual observance and entertaining perhaps a quarter of a million people, this section's oldest institution—the Cross Plains Picnic—is now begging for some organization to sponsor this year's celebration.

The picnic has been held under the auspices of various organizations in the span of more than a half century and has come to be not only the second oldest of its kind in Texas but one of the most colorful anywhere. The past three years Cross Plains Lions Club had charge of arranging for the affair. Before then, the local fire department supervised it for a number of years. Several other organizations have borne the responsibility from time to time.

But now 52 years since the first "gathering" held on the banks of Turkey Creek, the time for the annual celebration is approaching with no apparent sponsor.

The Lions Club voted in regular session Tuesday to cooperate with any or several groups in whatever way possible but steered clear of the entire responsibility of staging the picnic.

Although the picnic is of sectional interest and perhaps the biggest day in the year for Cross Plains, no organization or group of individuals have ever had complete jurisdiction over it.

Several carnival concerns have already made application to play "the spot" and inquiries are beginning to arrive regarding concession privileges. But unless some organization steps forward to guarantee the staging of this year's celebration, it may be missed for the first time since 1882.

These Radio Cowboys To Be At Davis Store Today

A special feature of Porter J. Davis' Red and White Store's fourth anniversary grocery sale, which gets underway today, will be a musical concert by the Bird Brand Cowboys—radio entertainers—Friday afternoon at four o'clock.

The cowboys play over radio station W.F.A.A. each Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 11:15 A. M.

Their programs feature Western songs. In the group to play here and pictured above are: Hi-Pockets Castleman, Cyclone Burgess, Dizzy Weaver, Uncle Jim Castleman and Buck Creel.

INTEREST KEEN IN GOLF TOURNEY; TO GET UNDERWAY 7TH

From the standpoint of competition number of entries and interest in general Philpeco country club's second annual invitation golf tournament which gets underway June seventh, is expected to surpass that of last year, which was said by several critics to be one of the best "golfing side-shows" in West Texas.

Committeemen in charge of the sale of entrance tickets report advance sales far in excess of the same period last year. Added attractions, they declare, are responsible for stimulated interest in the tourney.

A new feature this year will be an exhibition golf match carded Friday afternoon, June seventh, when J. Dixon White and Port Bludworth, of Brownwood, of Brownwood, meet J. T. Hammett, local golfer and defending champion, paired with Carnes Wilson, of Abilene and last year's West Texas champion.

Excellent shape of the local links as a result of recent rains and revision of the layout on at least three holes—tending to make the course more difficult—is expected to draw many new entries to this year's tourney, it is reported by the general chairman of arrangement.

All facilities of the club will be open to entries of the tournament. Committeemen in charge of the tourney are listed below.

Pairings and Starting—W. F. Burris, J. H. Gregg and Horace White.

Rules—W. B. Nicholson, Bill Tunnell and Porter J. Davis. Driving Contest—W. A. Wright, Lowry Horton and Fred Roberts. Barbecue—Dutch Shults, O. L. Embry, and L. C. Cash. Entertainment and Reception—(Continued on page 8)

LOCAL BOY GRADUATES FROM MILITARY SCHOOL

Tom Bryant, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bryant of Cross Plains, will attend the R.O.T.C. Camp held at Fort Bliss, Texas, for students in the advanced course of the R.O.T.C. and will not return home until after May 15, the Review is informed by the publicity office of New Mexico Military Institute, where Tom is a student.

Young Bryant is one of 104 boys from Texas enrolled at N.M.M.I. Bryant is one of 73 young men who will receive high school certificates at the graduation ceremonies. Of the 86 cadets to be graduated from the Junior College of New Mexico Military Institute, 25 are from Texas.

ACREAGE BEING BLOCKED NEAR SCRANTON, ATWELL

Confirmed reports were yesterday that acreage was being blocked Northeast of Cross Plains—in the Atwell and Scranton—acre for drilling an oil test. $1.00 per acre was the average price being paid, the Review was told.

Sometime ago "core tests" were drilled throughout that entire locality and as far West as Cottonwood. In view of the fact that the tests cores were drilled by the Phillips Petroleum Company, it is believed that the company is having the acreage blocked, however, it is being done in the name of Wichita Falls parties.

LARGE STILL SEIZED NEAR ROMNEY MON.

A 250 gallon capacity copper still, about 3,000 gallons of mash and 40 gallons of whiskey were seized and destroyed by a group of Eastland county peace officers and state highway patrolman Loran Barr, two miles West of Romney, Monday afternoon.

No arrests were made at the time of the raid, the only attendant at the still having escaped through underbrush. Two arrests are anticipated, however, according to officers.

Those cooperating in the raid were: Sheriff Virge Foster, of Eastland county, and his deputies Loss Woods and Steel Hill, also Constable Marion O'burn.

Mother Of First White Child Born In County Dies At Admiral Home

Funeral rites for Mrs. Riley Clinton Dawkins, who settled in Callahan county in 1876, were to be held from the Baptist church at Admiral, Monday afternoon at four o'clock with Rev. Joe R. Mayes, of Baird and Rev. Roy O'Brien, Admiral pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Dawkins, who was nearing her 81st birthday, died Sunday at five p. m. at her ranch home east of Admiral, where she had lived for 59 years. Death resulted from a cerebral hemorrhage with which she was stricken May 10. In February of this year she had a severe attack of pneumonia, but recovered sufficiently to be up.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Dawkins was Emily Ann Judson Anderson. She was born in Mellow Valley, Alabama, June 20, 1854, and resided there until after her mar-

TESTING OF LOCAL CATTLE FOR "T. B." STARTED THIS WEEK

The program of eradicating tuberculosis from Callahan county cattle got underway Monday morning, when Dr. Lucey and a crew of eight veterinarians—each with a local helper—began work in five different sections of the county.

Dr. L. H. Beebe and Dr. E. F. Stewart, assisted by Hugh McDermitt and John McElroy are working the Cross Plains trade territory. Drs. C. F. Layton and C. D. Hoover are stationed at Baird and have Dub Griggs and Morgan Stokes helping. Drs. M. A. Williamson and C. M. Lindley are in the Opalin area and are being assisted by Henry Preston and Hillray Windham. Dr. J. S. Watson assisted by Ed Lambert was assigned to Clyde. Dr. W. W. Synington—who incidentally was one of the veterinarians who bought cattle during the drouth program—is stationed at Putnam. His helper is Jack Free.

Dr. Lucey has estimated that it will take at least four weeks to complete the work in this county. All cattle are now quarantined against being moved either in or out of the county, except to market, he pointed out.

County Agent Ross B. Jenkins in commenting upon the tuberculosis eradication program had the following to say for publication: "The larger ranchmen have shown a willingness to assist in every way to expedite the testing as much as possible and their cooperation is needed and will be appreciated. One large ranchman (Continued on back page)

BARLEY, WHEAT AND OATS ALL HAVE GOOD STAND REVIEW TOLD

Cross Plains trade territory is at present enjoying the best prospects for a "bumper" grain crop in recent years, the Review learned Thursday morning in a check-up with farmers throughout this area. West of Cross Plains wheat is estimated to make from 12 to 20 bushels, oats from 50 to 65 and barley from 40 to 60.

Cutting will get underway in many localities within the next 10 days, however, it will probably be two more weeks before the singing of binders is general throughout this section. Threshing will not start until the latter part of June or first of July.

Definite prices on grain were not available here yesterday, due to the fact that none is moving at this particular time, however approximate prices were quoted by a well informed source as follows: number one hard wheat 86 or 87 cents per bushel, number two oats 43 or 44 cents per bushel.

Cross Plains is expected to have at least four grain buyers to bid for this year's yield.

PHILPECO GOLFERS DEFEAT SANTA ANNA NINE TO 4 SUNDAY

Philpeco country club golfers journeyed to Santa Anna Sunday afternoon and defeated the club there nine to four, in a scheduled Heart o' Texas Golf Association match. The victory gave the local mashie welders a percentage of .750, with three wins and one defeat.

The local golfers have trimmed this season Ballinger, Coleman and Santa Anna. The only defeat was to Brady on the course there, which has cottonseed greens.

Results of the individual matches follow. First named are Philpeco players:

J. T. Hammett defeated J. T. Garrett three and two.

Johnnie Gregg beat Jack DuBois six up with five to play.

Bill Tunnell trimmed Dr. R. R. Lovelady seven and five.

Nick Nicholson defeated Dr. L. O. Garrett three and one.

Rastus Bucy lost to Emmett Day one up on 19 holes.

Larry Horton lost to O. L. Cheney seven up with six to play.

Bill Barton lost to Lynn May one up at the twentieth hole.

W. Wright defeated Vernon Ragdale two up.

M. S. Sellers beat C. L. Peterson one up on 19 holes.

Jack Embry lost to Rex Golston two up.

Fred Tunnell defeated E. R. Purdy three and two.

Jay Koonce defeated Leon DuBois three and one.

Watt Thornton beat Neill Oakes five and three.

Eight Philpeco players who made the trip were not matched, due to the fact that enough Santa Anna players were not present.

NINE WILL GRADUATE AT CROSS CUT FRIDAY NIGHT

Nine students will graduate from Cross Cut high school at the commencement exercises Friday night, physician, will deliver the principal address.

Students who will graduate at that time are: Norris Chambers, Clifton Chambers, Foister Pittman, Andy Melton, Guy Cole, Jr., Estelle Looney, Lavonia Clark, Billie Ruth Clark and June McDonough.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lotief attended the highway 89 celebration at Eastland Thursday.

SLUMBERING GOLD

By Aubrey Boyd

Sixteenth Instalment

SYNOPSIS: Young Ed Maitland and the hardened gambler Speed Malone became partners on the trip north to the Yukon gold fields in '07, when word of the rich ores there first came down the Pacific coast. Maitland, son of a New England seafaring family, was determined to win back his lost family fortunes. Frenchy, the fisherman who took him and Speed north; Lucky Rose, beautiful young woman who had given Maitland a ring for a keep-sake; Fallon, trail boss of the miners, who resented Rose's attentions to Maitland; Steiner the money lender; young Pete and his drunken partner Bill Owens; Brent old-time prospector; and Garnet, a well-to-do modern one who hired Maitland and Speed to haul his stuff from the beach over the mountains to the Yukon—these were among the crowd that made up the gold seekers. At Liarsville, a camp in the hills. Speed was made trail boss in Fallon's place, because Speed insisted on closing the trail till it could be repaired—it was almost impassable. But the fickle crowd veered back to Fallon. Speed and Maitland took a stand above the pass to keep the miners from breaking through. Pete came to offer his help, but Speed refused it and the boy, after saying his partner had been drowned after a drunken brawl, rode off. But he took a position where he could fire on the miners when they tried to rush the pass, and so helped Speed. Later Brent, with an old deer gun, added his help. Just when Speed seemed to be gaining the upper hand, Fallon called his men with an exultant shout. A cavalcade was coming down the trail.—Now go on with the story.

"In Nevada, the woman in the saloon told me my fingering wasn't so good; took the guitar and showed me. That interested me a lot. I ask her to have supper with Seventies, when mining was a big game on both sides of the Sierras. In Placerville, on the California side, she had met a young adventurer named Dalton. She took at first to be a prospector, and he did prospect to some extent. But a little later later, when she became his sweetheart, she learned that he was called Reeves. They worked the mountain passes, holding up pack trains and wagon shipments of gold till the country got too hot for them, and they disappeared.

"So May's love affair didn't last long. I gathered it was she who did most of the loving. Dalton was a swaggering young rascal, with a lot of life and good looks, and no heart to speak of. It was that, I think that attracted her. She was used to being courted.

"After Dalton left her she had a baby girl. Whether it was his or not, she didn't know for certain. She'd known him that short a time. It interfered with her work, so she sent it away to be cared for, shut it out of her life and forgot about it, as she tried to forget about Dalton.

"Then she met a rancher named Owens, who was taking up a grazing claim on the Nevada side, south of the Carson Valley. So she married Owens, and went with him to Nevada, to settle down and be a faithful wife.

"Her marriage to Owens was unhappy. He was ungenerous and unsociable—almost a miser. The ranch was a day's journey from any neighbor. No one, hardly, came near it. He was jealous of that old life of hers—had suspected, when he married her what it had been. He worked the ranch himself, so there was no one to talk to but him, and he didn't talk.

"One night in summer, when Owens had watered the stock and she was watching him for the umpteenth time draw a lamp alongside the table, fix the wick and read some month-old newspapers, she heard a faint tapping on the door. She opened it and there stood a visitor. For her—

"A little visitor about three years old, and small for her age, with a cute, solemn baby face, and wet eyes blinking in the lamplight, looking lost.

"Nice mans said you know where is my Daddy?"

"The woman gave a smothered cry and gathered the child hungrily in her arms, gathered the child hungrily in her arms, not asking yet how nor why it had come there.

"Owens lit a lantern to go out and see who had brought the little one to the door. The rider was out of ear-shot now, but on the porch was a sack of gold and a note saying, 'This baby wandered off a train during a holdup—Keep her till the posse comes looking for her. The gold is from the robbed train, and is yours if you want pay for your trouble.'

"That was all. The rest they tried to piece together from what they could make of the child's talk. "For hours Owens pored over that note and over the gold, handling it, counting it—And the woman was yearning over the treasure in her arms. Suppose, by some great fall of chance, it was never claimed.

"Neither of them slept that night, and the next day they waited and watched the trails. The same hope was in their minds, though their reasons for hoping were far apart. "Several days passed with no sign of the posse. Finally Owens made a trip to the nearest freight station to get the news. In his absence, the woman started making a little suit of overalls for the girl.

"Toward sundown she went into the barn to look for eggs for the baby's supper. While she was groping for nests in the hay, she caught hold of a man's boot. She didn't scream. The first thought that flashed through her mind was that this was the man who'd brought the child and the gold.

"But the man sat up and smiled at her, and then her knees almost gave away. It was Dalton—whom she'd never expected to see again. He'd probably learned she was married to the rancher, and had counted on her helping him, if it came to that.

"It was his turn to be surprised when she spoke about the child and the gold. He hadn't had anything to do with leaving them there. But after thinking it over, he told her how it must have happened.

"He and the man he called Reeves had been waiting by a lonely stretch of railway track in the desert to stop a pay train, when a stranger on a bay horse rode by the place they were hiding. He looked like a good gun hand, and they cut him in. During the hold-up the child strayed off the train. When it pulled out and they found her, Reeves wanted to leave her there. They split on that; the man with the bay horse picked her up and rode south alone, with his share of the loot. Dalton believed he had happened on Owens' ranch by letting his horse hunt water.

"The other two struck west for the mountains. Dalton's horse had gone lame, and Reeves took all the gold on his mount to lighten its weight. But it still lagged and when the posse caught their trail, Reeves was far ahead and kept going. Dalton left the lamed horse on some rocky ground, so he would seem to have gone on with Reeves riding double, and after several days trailing on foot by a round-about way, came to Owens' ranch.

"As to the child, Dalton thought it was a bad break to find her there, but he encouraged May's desire to keep her—since giving her up would ruin his hideout. So the baby had its hair cut, as well as being put in overalls.

"Just after May had done this rash thing, Owens came in that night with the news. The posse seemed to have lost the trail of all three of the fugitives, but the father of the missing child had been killed in the hold-up, and—worse than that—was a United States marshal.

"The man in the barn had plenty of time to take stock of Owen's character and of his own position. As the pursuit died away and no word came from Reeves, Dalton realized that his partner had deserted him. He had also done some thinking about the way the posse had been mistacked.

"Dalton proposed staying at the ranch as a hired man until the trail was cold, and calling himself the father of the little boy. The very daring of the scheme would protect them.

"Though the police had given up hope of finding the lost child, there was no slacking in the hunt for the three road agents involved in the killing of the Federal marshal, and Dalton knew that there would be none.

"Deciding to leave the country, he demanded a grubstake from Owens' to take him prospecting in the North. The rancher grudging the money, but was anxious to get rid of him.

"Owens' jealousy got worse after the man was gone. In his brooding rages, he spoke of Dalton's willingness to appear as the child's father as if that were a deeper sign of understanding between them. His fury drove him to charges that may have bordered on a truth he didn't know.

"He gave her such a terrible time that finally she left him and her adopted baby, and went back to her old life, where I found her, in the dregs of it.

"Some years later I came into Carson City, just before the rumor broke about the big gold strike in the North. And there the thing happened that begins to tie this up with—"

Fallon, twisting in his chair, caught, his eyes now, squarely.

"You don't dare—!" he blurted out with a dark menace.

"Do you dare threaten a witness in Her Majesty's Court?" Judge Dugan demanded.

Muttering something Fallon bit his tongue and waited.

I was crossing a planked sidewalk," continued Rose, "when I almost bumped into a man stepping down from the porch of the Nevada Hotel. His face came back to me over a long gap of time as well as distance. He'd changed some. I passed him blank.

"We met again in a place where I sang, and he invited me to drink something. I did, because it was rather funny to talk to a man who'd tricked me with April Fool candy the way he'd done and not be remembered.

"So I said, 'Your face looks kind of familiar. Haven't I seen it tacked up in the post office or somewhere?'

"He almost jumped. I hadn't had a notice how near the truth a reward poster might be. When I smiled, he gave a laugh that sounded flat.

"You've got the start on me, baby, he said, patting my hand. The nearest I ever come to imagining you was a fool kid I met once in Frisco. You're pretty wise and you've been around. Maybe as a woman, you can answer a question that got me curious. Do you believe a girl could be brought up as a boy without anyone on the outside gessin' it?'

"It depends on the girl and the surroundings," I said, still not suspecting anything in particular. "I think it could happen, but I wouldn't bet on a particular case without seeing the boy you suppose to be a girl."

"Well, you'll never see him," Fallon said, a little too offhand. "It just come into my mind."

"He started his meaningless love-making again and I left him.

"What he'd said chimed with something else in my memory. Though I didn't recall right at first what it was, I kept looking as I played the camp for a boy who might not be so boyish except for the clothes. The only one I noticed was a boy with gold hair. He didn't look girlish—wore his clothes. I mean, as if he had a right to them. But it struck me that I could have dressed him up as a stunning girl, and it was a crime to see hair like his wasted on a boy. He was with an older, whisky faced man I'd never seen in the camps before, and whose name I learned to be Owens. The man was buying an outfit to go to Alaska.

"Owens are uncommon, but it was the name of the rancher May had married, and with that I remembered, in a shock of understanding, that the child left at the ranch house had blonde hair and had been dressed as a boy.

"Dalton had gone North. Owens had staked him. A man like May's Owens wouldn't make that trip without a solid lead to go on. I remembered his passion for gold. Dalton must have made a strike and sent for him.

"Certain this was the same man, I wondered how much Fallon had guessed. Maybe he just suspected a girl in boy's clothes and was curious. She was young and innocent, and he liked that way. Her name, Pete was as boy-like as possible, but since it didn't fit her appearance, it was a kind of giveaway."

The chortling voice of the river rippled through the silence as Rose paused. Speed leaned on the bar of the prisoners' dock, intently watching her across the red-coated shoulder of the police guard. Fallon half-reclined in his chair, in a smouldering silence—the sheathed fire of one who holds a final answer in reserve.

"That same night, the big Yukon news came down on the wires from Seattle. Prospectors who had been waiting and ready were pulling stakes for San Francisco and the first steamers. Owens beat the gun by starting ahead of them and showed that he'd had a definite lead on something.

"I caught a train for Seattle, and overtook Fallon's steamer there. He was wary enough to keep Owens out of my way. Pete avoided me of her own accord. My talking to Fallon may have given her the idea I was a friend of his, and she mistrusted him by instinct.

"Fallon started the rancher Owens drinking and gambling—a first sign that he had guessed true about the gold. That it was true, I made sure in a more direct way."

S. J. R. No. 3 A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an Amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas by striking out Section 20a to Section 20e, both inclusive; prohibiting the open saloon and vesting in the Legislature the power to define and enact laws against such; vesting in the Legislature the power to regulate the manufacture, sale, transportation and possession of intoxicating liquors, including the power to provide for a State Monopoly on the sale of distilled liquors; providing that intoxicating liquors shall not be manufactured, sold, bartered or exchanged in any county, justice's precinct or incorporated city or town wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option election held under the laws in force at the date of the taking effect of Section 20. Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, until a majority of the qualified voters of such county or political subdivision shall determine such to be lawful at an election held for that purpose; providing that such shall not prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages containing less than 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight in cities, counties or political subdivisions in which the qualified voters have voted to legalize such sale under the provisions of Chapter 116, Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature; providing for an election on the question of the adoption or rejection of such Amendment; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication of such by the Governor and making an appropriation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas be amended by striking out Section 20a to Section 20e, both inclusive, and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

"ARTICLE XVI Section 20. (a) The open saloon shall be and is hereby prohibited. The Legislature shall have the power, and it shall be its duty to define the term 'open saloon' and enact laws against such.

Subject to the foregoing, the Legislature shall have the power to regulate the manufacture, sale, possession and transportation of intoxicating liquors, including the power to establish a State Monopoly on the sale of distilled liquors.

"(b) The Legislature shall enact a law or laws whereby the qualified voters of any county, justice's precinct or incorporated town or city, may, by a majority vote of those voting, determine from time to time whether the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes shall be prohibited or legalized within the prescribed limits; and such laws shall contain provisions for voting on the sale of intoxicating liquors of various types and various alcoholic content.

"(c) In all counties, justice's precincts or incorporated towns or cities wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option elections held under the laws of the State of Texas and in force at the time of the taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, it shall continue to be unlawful to manufacture, sell, barter or exchange in any such county, justice's precinct or incorporated town or city, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication or any other intoxicants whatsoever, for beverage purposes, unless and until a majority of the qualified voters in such county or political subdivision thereof voting in an election held for such purpose shall determine such to be lawful; provided that this subsection shall not prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages containing not more than 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight in cities, counties or political subdivisions thereof in which the qualified voters have voted to legalize such sale under the provisions of Chapter 116, Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature."

Section 2. Such proposed Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State of Texas, on the fourth Saturday in August, 1935, at which election all voters favoring said proposed Amendment, shall write, or have printed on their ballots the words:

"FOR the amendment to the State Constitution repealing State-wide prohibition, prohibiting the open saloon and providing for local option."

And those voters opposed to said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"AGAINST the amendment to the State Constitution repealing State-wide prohibition, prohibiting the open saloon and providing for local option."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

Section 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for such election, and shall have the same published and such election held as provided by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Section 4. The sum of Eight Thousand ($8,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for the expenses of said publication and election.

H. J. R. No. 19 HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adopting a new Section to be known as Section 51-b, which shall provide that the Legislature shall have the power to provide, under such limitations and restrictions as may be deemed by the Legislature expedient, for old-age assistance and for payment of same not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per month each to actual bona fide citizens of Texas over the age of sixty-five (65) years, who are not habitual criminals, nor habitual drunkards, nor inmates in any State supported institution; and providing that the requirements for length of time of actual residence in Texas shall never be less than five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding such application; for old-age assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application; and providing that the Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for old-age assistance; providing for the necessary proclamation and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of proclamation, publication and election.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a Section to be known as Section 51-b, which shall read as follows:

"Section 51-b. The Legislature shall have the power by general laws to provide, under such limitations and restrictions and regulations as may be deemed by the Legislature expedient, for old-age assistance and for the payment of same not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per month each to actual bona fide citizens of Texas who are over the age of sixty-five (65) years; provided that no habitual criminal, and no habitual drunkard and no inmate of any State supported institution, while such inmate, shall be eligible for such old-age assistance; provided further that the requirements for length of time of actual residence in Texas shall never be less than five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for old-age assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application.

"The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States such financial aid for old-age assistance as that Government may offer not inconsistent with the restrictions as hereinafter provided."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Texas on the fourth Saturday of August, 1935, at which election there shall be printed on such ballot the following clause:

"For the Amendment giving the Legislature the power to provide a System of Old-Age Assistance not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per month per person and to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for old-age assistance."

"Against the Amendment giving the Legislature the power to provide a System of Old-Age Assistance not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per person per month and to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for old-age assistance."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same printed as required by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

Section 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the funds in the Treasury of the State, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of said publication and election.

The above is a true and correct copy.

H. J. R. No. 46 HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an Amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to authorize Courts having original criminal jurisdiction to suspend the imposition or execution of sentence and to place the defendant on probation, under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe; providing for an election on the question of adoption or rejection of such Amendment and making an appropriation therefor; providing for the proclamation thereof; and prescribing the form of ballot.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

Section 1. That Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto, between Sections 11 and 12 a new Section to be known as Section 11A, to read as follows:

"Section 11A. The Courts of the State of Texas having original jurisdiction of criminal actions shall have the power, after conviction, to suspend the imposition or execution of sentence and to place the defendant upon probation and to reimpose such sentence, under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe."

Section 2. Such proposed Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State of Texas, on the fourth Saturday in August, 1935, at which election all voters favoring said proposed Amendment, shall write, or have printed on their ballots the words:

"FOR the Amendment to the State Constitution authorizing the Courts to place defendants on probation," and those voters opposed to said proposed Amendment shall write, or have printed on their ballots the words:

"AGAINST the Amendment to the State Constitution authorizing the Courts to place defendants on probation." If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

Section 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for such election, and shall have the same published and such election held as provided by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Section 4. The sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for the expenses of said publication and election.

"THE CAPTAIN HATES THE SEA", TITLE OF PICTURE FOR LIBERTY WEDNESDAY

The screen version of the famous Wallace Smith novel, "The Captain Hates the Sea," will be the feature attraction on the bill at the Liberty Theater starting Wednesday.

When it first appeared in novel form, the story attracted almost international attention because of its unique plot and the wealth of true-to-life characterization it contained. It is a story of various passengers on an ocean-going steamship among whom are a crook fleeing with a quarter of a million dollars worth of stolen securities; a girl accomplice; a detective on the trail of the pair; a newspaperman who is trying to forget a motion picture star with whom he is in love; a married couple who detest each other; and a captain who hates the sea which provides him with a livelihood.

In the cast are Victor McLaglen, John Gilbert, Walter Connolly, Allison Skipworth, Wynne Gibson, Helen Vinson, Tala Birrel, Donald Meek, John Errol, Walter Catlett, Claude Gillingwater, Emily Fitzroy, Arthur Treacher, Akim Tamiroff, Luis Alberni, James Blakeley, The Three Stooges and the recent importation from the New York stage, Fred Keating.

Lewis Milestone, noted director of such hits as "All Quiet on the Western Front," "Front Page", "Two Arabian Knights," and "The Racket" was at the megaphone.

EXAMINING RELIEF CLIENTS TO LEARN VALIDITY OF WORK

County relief administrators this week began a re-examination of the Texas relief lists to determine the validity of cases now on the rolls.

Federal emergency relief authorities ordered the study in this and all other states because the percentage of residents on relief varies widely from county to county and state to state. It is believed that analysis of the results may disclose reasons for these variations.

"This inquiry does not mean that we are setting out to reduce the Texas case load to an arbitrary figure", said Mrs. Val M. Keating, director of the social service department of the Texas Relief Commission. "It does mean, however, that we expect to determine the eligibility to relief of every client on our rolls. Such a check very likely will reveal that in some counties the load is too high; in others that persons eligible to relief have not been so classified."

Special workers, directly responsible to the state relief office, are being sent into certain counties to conduct this re-registration. A questionnaire will be used in interviews which, when answered and signed by the client, will contain the information upon which a decision as to eligibility will be made.

In determination of budgetary deficiency, or lack of subsistence requirements, these workers will use a budget provided by Mrs. Keating's office. Instructions have been issued to reject all applicants whose incomes exceed the budget allowed. This budget is not uniform Mrs. Keating said. It varies according to conditions peculiar to counties, and will be higher in some than in others. In all cases, however, it is based on the family's needs and is established to cover minimum subsistence requirements.

MRS. MAMIE SWAFFORD IS H. D. CLUB HOSTESS

"To rid cucumber and melon vines of insects, make a dusting powder by mixing one part "Black Leaf 40" to 20 parts lime, tie in cheese cloth bag, fasten in bottom of box large enough to cover vines, with a slight jar," was a relay message presented by delegates and Mrs. Henry Williams, pantry demonstrator, to the Cross Plains home demonstration club, Tuesday afternoon May 28. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Mamie Swafford.

Delegates attended a lecture at Baird, given by Horticulturist J. F. Rosenborough, of College Station. Plans are now underway to send two delegates to the short course at College Station in July.

Refreshments were served to the following at the meeting Tuesday afternoon: Mesdames, C. M. Garrett, H. E. Coburn, Jeff Clark, Lewis Placke, W. M. Smith, Henry Williams, Mamie Swafford, and Misses, Merle Williams, Hazel Ogilvy, Doris and Louise Placke.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. C. M. Garrett, June 11.

Old Age Pension Amendment Will Have First Place On Ballot In August Vote

The amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide an old age pension system drew place No. 1 Wednesday at a public drawing to determine the order in which amendments to be voted on Aug. 24, should appear on the ballot.

The drawing was held in the office of Secretary of State Gerald C. Mann in accordance with a law passed by the last session of the Legislature.

The amendment authorizing commitment of persons to state hospitals for observation without trial by jury drew place No. 2, and that modifying constitutional prohibition of alcoholic liquors received place No. 3.

Other amendments and their places in order on the ballot were as follows: Authorizing submission of constitutional amendments at special sessions of the Legislature.

Authorizing trial judges to extend suspended sentences, place defendants on probation and revoke suspended sentences for cause.

Abolishing the fee system as a basis of compensating public officials and substituting the salary plan.

Authorizing the state to supply free text books to private as well as public schools.

In the past the Secretary of State has certified the amendments to county election officials in the order he chose, and the officials, in the absence of a specific mandate by law, have followed the certification or disregarded it.

FELLOW CITIZEN OF CALLAHAN COUNTY

Now is the time for all good men and women to come to the aid of sobriety and righteousness in the State of Texas.

On August 24, 1935, the State of Texas will vote whether or not the Dean Prohibition Law be retained in Texas. To the end all voters in Callahan County are informed on the issues involved and sufficiently aroused on this question to go to the polls and vote. On last Sunday we set up an organization of those favoring the retention of the Dean Law. At that time Rev. Joe R. Mayes was elected County Chairman, and a delegate from this County to the State wide meeting of the Texas Dry Forces, which met in Dallas last week. This group also unanimously voted that we have another County wide meeting at the Methodist Church in Baird at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 2nd, to hear the report of our delegate to the State meeting, and to further strengthen our work in Callahan County.

We therefore, urge the entire citizenship of the County to attend this mass meeting at 3:00 o'clock next Sunday afternoon. Let us put our minds to work on this question. If you have any suggestions to make on this matter we will be happy to have you do so. We hold that this is a moral issue. The highest welfare of our boys and girls are at stake. We solicit your cooperation in its solution.

Joe R. Mayes, Chairman,
P. E. Yarbrough, Secretary
Texas Dry Forces, Callahan County.

A WORK TO THE WISE:
No Person can intelligently participate in any movement or cause without bonifide, dependable information concerning that movement or cause. In view of the fact that the State of Texas must on Aug. 24 determine whether or not hard liquor may be sold legally within the bounds of the State, is it not the wise thing for every voter at least to inform himself on the issues involved? And let us also remember that those who do not vote on this question will have as large a part in its settlement as will those who do. The non voter will assist in the settlement by default. The voters will assist positively by his vote.

If State wide prohibition of the liquor traffic is a good thing, you will want to actively support it. If it will provide a better, cleaner, purer atmosphere in which to grow men and women, let us have it continued in Texas.

But which ever way we vote, let us vote with our eyes and hearts and minds open. Let us dig down into the propaganda on this question until we find the bed rock of truth. Our great daily paper will not bring us this kind of information. We will have to go else where to find it, but let us find it.

What will be the social effect of having hard liquor as much and gorgeously advertised as we have the cigarette today? What will be the effect on the health of the citizenship of Texas? What the political effect? What the economic effect, and above all, what will be the moral effect? Will easy accessibility leave our boys and girls as safe and good as otherwise they would be? Will it make them better?

If the voters of Texas ignore these vital questions when they vote on August 24, whether or not the State Prohibition Law shall be retained, this question in all probability will not be settled right.

May I urge upon your attention the challenging fact that this question is the most important and vital question before us today. For God's sake, for humanity's sake, let us soberly and sincerely face the issue and in the light of the best we know, and in the interest of those we love, let us go to the polls on August 24 and vote. And maybe we would act wisely to pray about how we should vote.

Yours for the best interest of Texas,
P. E. Yarbrough,
Pastor Methodist Church, Baird (Callahan County), Texas

Texas Association Awards Prizes To Future Farmers

In recognition of their ability to terrace farm lands and feeding lambs, two members of the Cross Plains Future Farmers have been awarded Certificates of Merit by the Texas Association of Future Farmers of America.

Those receiving these certificates, which are awards for skill in performing certain operations, were Buster Atwood and Tommie Harris.

In meeting the requirements for awards, Buster constructed 1000 yards of terraces and other requirements met included the demonstration of skill in operating a farm level, testing level for accuracy, laying out a system of terraces and satisfactorily passing examinations in regards to a phase of terracing; and Tommie Harris fed four lambs over 100 days averaging over a 1/4 pound daily per lamb, and passing an examination on lamb feeding.

THE BOOK
... the first line of which reads, "The Holy Bible," and which contains Four Great Treasures
by BRUCE BARTON
Mary, The Mother of Jesus

WE, who call ourselves Protestants have been almost rude in our attitude toward the mother of Jesus. What beauty of face and figure there must have been in her whose own blood, nourished and whose own body shaped the little hands and feet, the heart and brain of Jesus of Nazareth! What elevation in the mind that could conceive and chant the Magnificat!

My soul doth magnify the Lord, And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name. And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

Finish the reading of that great hymn of praise as Luke records it in his first chapter. Look in your reference Bible at the little inder letters sprinkled through the text and the corresponding letters in the margin. Note that the beginning of the Magnificat is reminiscent of Hannah's rejoicing over the prospect of the birth of Samuel, and that almost every phrase suggests a possible source in historic records.

This young woman, sixteen or seventeen perhaps, had read the literature of her nation and had made it her own. Her mind and spirit were richly stored. Reverence, gratitude, high spirituality, and great sympathy with the common lot of humanity are in the Magnificat. Socialists and other champions of human rights have claimed to find in it the possible source of Jesus' sympathy with the poor.

Motherhood is the most expensive of all earth's luxuries, and being the mother of the Messiah was a costly privilege.

Think what it meant to Mary to have to go into Egypt and remain there while Joseph, resourceful and strong though he was, struggled to support the family. How her heart must have yearned for her home and girlhood friends.

Think of the bewildering problems and perplexities of having a Son grow up with ambitions and expression which she and Joseph could only dimly apprehend. She knew in the utmost degree the wonder and the worry, the high hope and the deep concern of all the mothers of geniuses.

And they (Mary and Joseph) understood not the saying which he (Jesus) spake unto them. But his mother.

PROTECT YOUR LIFE AND THE LIVES OF OTHERS!

There are three questions you should ask yourself about the tires you buy:

- 1—"Will the non-skid tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"
- 2—"Are they built to give me the greatest blowout protection?"
- 3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"

Answer No. 1—Harvey S. Firestone early realized the value of fire traction and safety and was the first to design an All Rubber Non-Skid Tire. Through the years Firestone has led the way in the design and development of tires with most effective non-skid treads.

Firestone does not depend solely on traction and non-skid tests made by its own engineers—it employs a leading University to make impartial tests for non-skid efficiency of its tires, and their most recent report shows that Firestone High Speed Tires stop the car 15% quicker than the best of all popular makes of tires.

Answer No. 2—Blowout protection must be built into a tire. Friction and heat within the tire is the greatest cause of blowouts. Firestone protects its tires from friction and heat by a patented process which soaks every cord and insulates every strand with pure liquid rubber. This is an additional process known as Gum-Dipping, by which every 100 pounds of cotton cords absorb eight pounds of rubber. This extra process costs more and is not used in any other make of tire.

Leading race drivers investigate the inbuilt qualities of the tires they use, because their very lives depend upon their tires, and they always select Firestone Tires for their daring speed runs. In fact, Firestone Tires have been on the winning cars in the gruelling Indianapolis 500-mile race for fifteen consecutive years, and they were on the 5,000-pound car that Ab Jenkins drove 3,000 miles in 23 1/2 hours on the hot salt beds at Lake Bonneville, Utah, at an average speed of 127.2 miles per hour, without tire trouble of any kind. These amazing performance records are proof of the greatest blowout protection ever known.

Answer No. 3—Thousands of car owners reporting mileage records of 40,000 to 75,000 miles, is proof of the long mileage and greater economy by equipping with Firestone High Speed Tires. Let these unequalled performance records be your buying guide.

Go to the Firestone Auto Supply and Service Store or Firestone Tire Dealer and let him equip your car with Firestone Tires, the safest and most economical tires built.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES

By Miss Vida Moore County H. D. Agent

Tiling Helps Tomatoes

There is no comparison between the tomatoes in my garden that have the sub irrigation of tiling under them and those that do not have, says Mrs. Buford Tyson. 4—II Pantry Cooperator of the Oplin Home Demonstration Club. All the tomatoes are the same variety, age and are growing in the same type of soil, yet the ones over the tiling are much bigger, stronger and have tomatoes as big as marbles on the vines while the ones with out the tile are far behind this.

Mrs. Tyson plans to sub-irrigate the whole garden next year. "I am sorry that we were not able to do it this year, but the contrast in the irrigated and non irrigated areas has convinced us even more thoroughly the worth of the tile," adds Mrs. Tyson.

Ellis Canning Budget Requirements for Greens

"I have filled my canning need for greens, but think that I will add some extra cans for emergencies," says Mrs. J. C. Stevens, Pantry Cooperator of the Progressive Home Demonstration Club of Clyde. The varieties canned included mustard, swiss chard, spinach and tame lambs quarter.

The needs of a family as considered when the budget is made covers two angles of the food question; one is a diet that is made over two angles of the food question; one is a diet that is nutritionally balanced and the other is a diet that offers variety in foods.

Wardrobe Demonstrators Attend Pattern School in Cross Plains

A second session of a county Pattern School, conducted by Miss Vida Moore, Home Demonstration Agent, was held in Cross Plains Thursday, May 23. The first school was held in Baird during the last of April by Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, Extension Clothing Specialist. Bad roads prevented some demonstrators attending and the second school was held for these. The steps involved in drafting and fitting a pattern for the individual were taken up at both schools.

Representatives attending the school were: Mrs. O. D. Strahan, Demonstrator and Mrs. Missouri Ramsey, Cottonwood; Mrs. Frank Spencer, Demonstrator, Miss Kaola Cavanaugh and Mrs. Fonia Worthing Dressy; Mrs. Jim Heslep and Mrs. Mary Guyton, Putnam; Mrs. Carl Gunn, Demonstrator, Union; Mrs. M. P. Wilcoxen, Demonstrator, Miss Nell Lovell and Mrs. N. G. Wilcoxen, Cedar Bluff; Mrs. Marvin Smith, Demonstrator, and Miss Hael Ogilvy, Cross Plains; and Miss Glyndol Elliott, Demonstrator, Deep Creek.

Foundation Pattern Put Into Use

Mrs. Doyle Neeb, Wardrobe Cooperator for the Dressy Home Demonstration Club is using her foundation pattern. She is not only using it for new clothes but is using it to recut and fit dresses that have been made by commercial patterns that did not fit her exactly. "I have never found a pattern that fit any nicer," says Mrs. Neeb.

Mrs. Frank Spencer, Wardrobe Demonstrator for the Dressy club helped Mrs. Neeb with the making of her pattern.

How Many Cans to a Bushel

Mrs. Roland Nichols, Pantry Demonstrator for the Deep Creek Home Demonstration Club offers the following figures that may be of value to people canning. The figures are from the Extension Service and are approximate," says Mrs. Nichols.

Table with 3 columns: Veg., No. 2 cans per bu., No. 3 cans per bu. Items include Beans, Mustard, Peas, Spinach, Tomatoes, Corn, Okra, Squash, Apples, Blackberries, Strawberries, Peaches, Plums, Pears.

JAMES CAGNEY BE SEEN AT LIBERTY THEATER IN "HERE COMES THE NAVY"

Jimmy Cagney carried a black eye for three days during the production of "Here Comes the Navy" the Warner Bros. picture which comes to the Liberty Theater Sunday.

In one scene he has a fistic battle with Pat O'Brien. The cocksure Jimmy turns his head to wave to his girl and is supposed to be knocked out by a clip to the jaw.

O'Brien miscalculated his punch, however, and the blow landed on Jimmy's left eye.

However, by heavy make-up, Jimmy was able to go on with the picture, which is a rollicking melodrama of Uncle Sam's sailors afloat and ashore.

Dealer, Growers To Present Wool Marketing Views

A proposal to license dealers in wool and mohair, under which certain trade practices which act to reduce returns to growers would be prohibited, is being considered by the AAA. Hearings on the proposed license will begin July 2.

One hearing has been scheduled at San Angelo for July 29th and it is hoped that all interested growers in Callahan may be present.

Texas ranks first among the states in the number of sheep and goats and also in production of wool and mohair. Sheep on Texas farms numbered 7,544,000 on January 1, 1933, according to the estimate of the United States Department of Agriculture. This was approximately 14.7 per cent of the sheep in the United States. Texas also has about 83 per cent of the Angora goats of the United States and produces a like percentage of mohair. Figures from the United States Department of Agriculture for 1934 show that 7,608,000 sheep were shorn in Texas in 1934 and that 60,485,000 pounds of wool were shorn.

The two provisions that are of particular interest to the growers are the one requiring a licensed dealer to confine his transactions either to consignments, or to outright purchase, and the other which would base deduction for 'tags' and off-sort wool on actual condition of the lot, and not on a flat basis.

The first provision would remove the growers' fear that the products to which he has title may not be marketed as advantageously as products to which the dealer has acquired title. The second would remove the dealer practice of giving arbitrary flat average deductions from the basic price for 'tags', but would require them to base any deductions on the actual condition of each lot of wool.

Wheat Curb Carries by Big Majority

The wheat referendum conducted in some 39 for the United States where wheat is grown last Saturday, was given a large majority. That was what Secretary Wallace required before offering a new program.

Callahan voted about as the Nation. There were 77 signed wheat contracts in the county and there were 68 votes cast. There were 64 signers who voted giving the plan a favorable vote of 55 and 9, against. The polls were open to any wheat grower who had a base of three years production and 4 men of that group voted in favor of the plan and none against.

This is a AAA program and means that growers will be given a control measure that will last for 4 years or through 1939. If at the end of two years a majority of the growers wish to discontinue the program it will be done or if at the end of two years any grower wish to withdraw he may do so. The plan is to pay the benefits that will bring the price to wheat to parity and will be set at the first of each year by the Secretary of Agriculture. The base will be the same as it is now.

The program means about $12,000 net to Callahans' 77 contract signers. At no time will they be required to cut more than 25% in one year and some very liberal allowed for the rented acres.

Cotton Rented Acres Must Be Staked

The cotton contract compliance calls for the staking of all rented acres this year before the second rental payment will be paid. The measurement will be done some time in July and it is hoped that every farmer complies with the rulings to the department of Agriculture and stakes his acres without having his rental held up because of failure to do so. Last year many farmers have been reported to have rented to the government poor land and to have planted the best. That practice is not acceptable to the government and is therefore to be checked this year. The contract calls for land to be retired that is equal to any on the average that is planted to cotton. The reason for the staking is to show to the world that the farmers are in the program and that any one can find the rented acres and it will speed the measurement by the supervisor who will help the farmer finish his compliance forms.

Thoughtful parents, who have observed and experienced the wisdom of thrift in recent years, now realize that it is very important to direct children's thoughts in constructive channels. Most important of all is the appreciation of the rewards of thrift. To teach the child the value of material thrift, there is no better method than establishing a saving account for him, his to direct, control and build.

Poll, Eula; a brother, Bud Anderson, Edinburg; 12 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. All of the children were at the bedside when their mother died.

Grandsons Pallbearers: Six grandsons were pallbearers: C. M. Dawkins, Houston; Ross C. and Kirby W. Dawkins, Breckenridge; Buel Hargrove Cross Plains; E. O. Summers, Lubbock; H. F. Summers, Admiral.

Granddaughters are Mrs. Hyman Harrison, Abilene; Mrs. Ewell Vestal, Cross Plains; Mrs. Wade H. Smith, Dallas; Mrs. H. E. Baldridge, Jr., Lamesa; Mrs. J. D. Cauten, Admiral; Miss Aileen Dawkins, Breckenridge.

One daughter, a granddaughter and a great-granddaughter preceded Mrs. Dawkins in death. All pioneer residents of Callahan county were named as honorary pallbearers.

TESTING OF LOCAL CATTLE FOR "T. B." STARTED THIS WEEK

said the results of the "T.B." program would be felt especially by those who ship to Northern markets, due to the fact that Texas cattle are now discriminated against and in the future will not have to suffer dockage usually meted out to Texas cattle. In the past cattle from this state have borne many unjust discriminations due to ticks, longhorn, tuberculosis and contagious abortion."

NEARLY $20,000 IN TOTAL TO CALLAHAN PAST TWO WEEKS IS

is getting off late but prospects were never more favorable especially to the feed and food grower and to the rancher.

"Some have made the comment that these benefit payments were made to the rich growers who did not need them and that it was not just right to have a tax on people to help one industry but it was noticed that the largest check in Callahan was $135 which wouldn't help a rich man much but would help a farmer to get by probably through the Summer without having to ask the banker for a loan. So far everyone has seemed glad to get the check and have appeared relieved to have them coming in and since no farmer has been barred from signing a contract, it seems a just and reasonable program."

New Chevrolet Assembly Plant Opens in Baltimore

Governmental, state and civic officials joined with the principal executives of General Motors Corporation in the formal opening of the new 80,000-car-a-year Chevrolet assembly plant in Baltimore recently. The new plant (center) was dedicated with impressive ceremonies (lower left), and Chevrolet, Fisher Body and General Motors officials were guests of the Baltimore Association of Commerce at a formal banquet in the evening. W. E. Holler, vice-president and general sales manager of Chevrolet, is shown (standing) with Maryland's Governor, H. W. Nice, and Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of General Motors (upper left). M. E. Coyle, president and general manager of Chevrolet, is pictured in the upper right photo with Senator Millard Tydings (left) and Mayor H. W. Jackson, of Baltimore (right). Lower right shows the first motor car built in that city.

HIGGINBOTHAM TO HAVE SPECIAL MADE FUNERAL CAR AFTER NEXT WEEK

V. C. Walker, funeral director at Higginbotham Brothers and Company, left yesterday with other Higginbotham representatives for Cincinnati, Ohio, where they will receive from Sayers and Scoll, manufacturers, a number of funeral cars to be used at various points throughout this area.

Mr. Walker is expected to return next week with the new funeral car to be used here.

Special orders were placed months ago for the manufacture of these cars which have been built according to Higginbotham's special plans and specifications, which gives them unusual beauty of design and reliability.

The manufacturers now announce the completion of the entire lot, and they will be driven to Texas by Higginbotham's employees.

TEXAS TO VOTE ON SEVEN AMENDMENTS 24TH DAY OF AUGUST

The fate of seven constitutional amendments is to be decided by the voters of Texas at the polls in a special election set for Saturday, August 24th. The amendments were submitted by the recently adjourned 43rd legislature.

Notice of the election and the nature of the measure is being given by publication in newspapers in each of the 254 counties of Texas, first publication being authorized the past week, and with four weeks publication to give legal notice to the citizenship.

The text of three of the amendments appears in this edition of The Review. Briefly stated, the amendments provide for the following:
House Joint Resolution No. 48—To permit the passage of constitutional amendments by special sessions of the legislature under certain conditions. (Constitutional amendments may now be originated only by regular sessions of the Legislature).

Senate Joint Resolution No. 6—To abolish the fee method of compensating officers in all counties having population of more than 20,000, and authorizing commissioners courts in smaller counties to decide whether pay shall be on fee or salary basis.
Senate Joint Resolution No. 24—To permit the furnishing of free textbooks to every child in the state attending any school.

The text of two amendments appeared in last Friday's Review, and publication will continue for the next three Fridays. They provide:
House Joint Resolution No. 46—To authorize the courts to place defendants on probation.
House Joint Resolution No. 39—To permit the legislature to enact laws providing for the temporary commitment for insanity of any person so adjudged by a county court, without trial by jury.

Two other amendments, the text of which is not published in The Review, provide for:
House Joint Resolution No. 19—To empower the legislature to provide a system of old-age compensation for all persons more than 65 years of age, not to exceed $15 per month.
Senate Joint Resolution No. 3—To repeal state-wide prohibition, prohibiting the open saloon, and providing for local option.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood
OUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities, poison the system when retained. Then you may suffer nagging back-ache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen limbs; feel nervous, miserable—all unsat.
Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

Dr. John F. Pritchard and wife of Fort Worth, will visit in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McGowen here this week end. The two doctors were dental students together.

Mrs. John, Mrs. W. O. Wylie, Jr., Thaxton McGowen visited Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McGowen here this week.

M. E. Howell was a business visitor in Baird Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Norman have gone to Abilene, where they will spend the Summer.
