(SERVING THE LARGEST SHALLOW OIL FIELD ON EARTH)

Without offence to friends or foes we sketch Cross Plains exactly as it goes.

VOL. XXII 8 PAGES THIS WEEK CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS, "When The One Great Scorer Comes To Write Against Your Name He Writes Not If You Won Or Lost But How You Played The Game" FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 1933 5c PER COPY No. 25

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

Well 'Doc' McGowen has at last made his complete surrender, taking the vows of matrimony with Miss Evelyn Bailey, at Clyde, Tuesday night.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a bridal trip through the eastern states, spending several days in Mississippi, the bride's former home.

'Doc' will put many miles on his little Ford before they return to Cross Plains, but we frankly doubt if the speedometer will register as much as it has in carrying him to and from Clyde during the past twelve months to visit that 'certain party'.

The sympathy of this column goes out to Eddie Priest, who has been 'Doc's' sidekick for nearly a half dozen years. We just wonder whose going to tuck Eddie in, during the cold nights next winter and look after his hay fever during Summers. Looks like Eddie will be the 'lone wolf' after all.

As this issue of the Review enters the mails, the scribbler of this column will be standing before the arch of matrimony reciting nuptial vows with Miss Juakana Westerman.

We did our very best to keep the event secret until the paper was out, with the hope that some bit of interest might be added to the weekly collection of news. But despite our efforts, the 'grapevine-telegraph' almost scooped us on the account of our wedding.

After kidding every other victim of Dan Cupid through this column for three years, it seems but just that we should reveal a few facts against our self.

When we went up to apply for the license last week there was an unusually large crowd about the courthouse. Being rather inexperienced at this type of procedure anyway, we were somewhat at a loss. Nevertheless, we managed to get S. E. Settle off and state our purpose. He took down the facts, assured that the license would be issued, offered congratulations and said 'adios'. Well, in our excitement and hurry to get outside, this country pencil pusher rushed into the door of a ladies lounge thinking it to be the outside exit. Now was our face red!

Boy, boy! I always thought this getting married business was a simple affair after the girl's consent had been secured, but believe me the red tape and ceremony attached is nerve wracking.

And incidentally, while transacting our matrimonial business up at the county seat, we noticed another local chap hanging around the clerk's office with a 'sheepish' look on his face.

The gentleman in question resides near Dressy and flatly refused to state his business even for publication in the columns of this erstwhile newspaper.

This about racks our source of gossip for the week, so we'll sign off and dash up for the bride's house. This sheet is scheduled to be on the press in five minutes and we're due to recite those "I do's" within the hour.

As we go to press we receive a note from 'Doc' McGowen dated Wednesday morning and sent from Mineral Wells in which he requested that we send him a copy of the Review to Bihalla, Mississippi. That's some steppin'; congratulations, 'Doc' to you and the newly acquired Mrs.

Printer's Note: This addition to the Gossip Column is added so that we may offer congratulations to our boss and his bride. By the time this paper is in the mails they will be before the altar repeating their vows in solemn tones. If the bride is as nervous as the groom, then we expect almost anything to happen.

So, let us add: "May the Lord bless all he has created".

Franze Freeman was in Baird last week.

OIL FROM LOCAL FIELDS DOUBLES IN VALUE

CRUDE PRICE JUMPS 27 CENTS A BARREL HERE THE PAST WEEK

Local Authorities Predict Another Hike Soon; No More 'Cheap' Oil

Oil prices rose 27 cents per barrel throughout the Cross Plains area the past week, making the posted price for crude in this vicinity now 52 cents. All pipelines serving this section have met the advance.

Consolidated Oil Company (Sul-Clair-Prairie) led off with the price hike quoting 27 cents above the present market here late last Friday. Texas Company, Humble and all other carriers have since posted the same offering.

Late last month the allowable for the Burkett pool was lifted making proration there merely a sham and the wells are now running practically all of their potentiality, with a few possible exceptions, the Review was informed by a reliable source yesterday.

Local oil men, who have watched crude prices move in cycles for years, opine that there will be no more 50 cent oil during the next few years and that the industry is at last on a sturdy trek toward normalcy. Another advance has been predicted by at least three prominent local oil men. They say, it will come within the next few weeks.

Dr. J. R. Clayton, of Fort Worth, speaking on 'fractures' delivered the principal address of the evening. However practically every delegate present had some part in the program.

Ladies played bridge on the club house lawn during the medical program.

Doctors in attendance were: W. Burges Sealy, Santa Anna; Stanley Carter, Rising Star; J. R. Dill, Rising Star; F. C. Payne, Rising Star; D. R. Scott, Brownwood; J. M. Wilhite, Coleman; T. C. Terrell, Fort

County Asks $945,000. From Public Works Fund To Build Three Hi-ways

Callahan County commissioners court in extra session Tuesday afternoon filed application for $945,000. from federal 'public works' funds to build three roads in this county, all of which are believed would eventually become a part of state designations.

Two of the roads would lead to Cross Plains.

The three projects outlined in the formal application are; $450,000 for the construction of a hard surfaced road from Cross Plains to the western Callahan County line, toward Abilene; $450,000 for the erection of a hard surfaced road from the northern county line to the southern—

Booster Trip Will Be Made Over This Trade Territory To Advertise Cross Plains Picnic

A check up with Cross Plains business men and various individuals interested in the golden jubilee picnic celebration this year, revealed yesterday that the former plan of advertising the celebration with a good-will booster trip over this trade territory would again be followed this year.

Date for the good-will and booster trip has not yet been set but those who have made the sojourn in former years advised the Review that in all probability it would be at least two weeks before the picnic. Cross Plains municipal band will make the trip furnishing music at each of the places where the good-will party stops.

JUAKANA WESTERMAN AND JACK SCOTT ARE WED THURSDAY NOON

Miss Juakana Westerman and Jack Scott, both of this place, were united in marriage at the bride's home, in the presence of only immediate relatives, shortly before noon Thursday. Rev. Graves Darby, local minister, officiated.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a few days trip through several Texas points. From here they stated they were enroute for Dallas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Westerman of this place and has resided there virtually all of her life. She was graduated from Cross Plains high school with the class of 1930.

The groom (here's a chance to brag on myself) is the son of Mrs. George B. Scott. He is editor of the Review.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Nick Neeb a fine 8 pound boy, Tuesday, June 20, at the Sealy Hospital, Santa Anna.

ADVERTISING PAYS SAYS A & P MANAGER

The mention of brooms for sale at 15 cents each in last week's A & P advertisement in the Review resulted in the sale of 100 brooms Saturday, according to an announcement from S. Freeman, local manager, yesterday.

"We find Review advertising space well worth the money and are glad to avail ourselves to its advantages", Mr. Freeman said to a representative of the Review yesterday.

STORES ARE BEING REBUILT AT ECHO

A new grocery store and filling station are being erected at Echo by Rushing Wells, on the same location where a short time ago his business was destroyed by fire. The new structure will be brick.

Mr. Wells will install a complete line of groceries. He will be a part of the Red and White system.

MAN'S RING IS FOUND AROUND NECK OF RAT AT J. H. WARREN FARM

Even the 'Pied Piper of Hamlin' never heard a rat story like this. However this one is true and has ample authentication.

Last week Homer Warren and Roy Creighton were feeding stock at the barn on J. H. Warren's farm, in Burnt Branch community, when a dog killed a wharf-rat in a pile of lumber nearby. Roy picked the rat up and was about to toss it over into a open furnace to be burned, when he noticed something unusual about the rat. Upon investigation he found a man's ring about rodent's neck.

The ring—about size nine—was much smaller than the natural size of a rat's neck and had disfigured its growth. The band appeared to be tight enough to choke the rodent.

Creighton cut the ring away and it is set with a large red stone. He is wearing it now.

NEW SEA-FOOD CAFE OPENS SATURDAY ON MAIN STREET HERE

The Sea Food Cafe, of which A. J. Gensley is proprietor, opened in Cross Plains Saturday. The firm is located in the building formerly occupied by the Cross Plains Drug Store.

Mr. Gensley told the Review yesterday that it would be his purpose to keep a complete line of sea foods fresh at all times and especially feature this type of business. His menu is a duplicate of those used by Baker hotels.

"I plan to build up a sea food business that will be generally and favorably known all along highway 23 and tourists travelling this route will stop here for their meals", he told a Review reporter.

A complete line of new fixtures have been placed in the building. Besides Mr. Gensley, Mrs. Phae Purcell is employed there.

Claude Mayes returned to San Diego, California, Friday of last week after a month's visit in Cross Plains.

LOCAL DENTIST WEDS MISS EVELYN BAILEY AT CLYDE TUESDAY

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Bailey of Clyde and Dr. J. Henry McGowen of Cross Plains was solemnized in a twilight service Tuesday, June 20, in the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Bailey. The Rev. Mr. Van Zandt, pastor of the Clyde Methodist Church, officiated. Only members of the immediate families and a few close friends were present.

The bride was gownned in an Agnes model pink triple sheer crepe, with accessories of pink and white. For her going away costume she wore a navy suit with harmonizing accessories.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. W. O. Wylie, Jr., of Baird, sister of the groom, was attired in a pastel blue crepe gown. Mr. E. D. Priest of Cross Plains was the groom's attendant.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a trip through the eastern states. Upon their return they will reside in Cross Plains, where Dr. McGowen has been practicing dentistry for the past few years.

Mrs. McGowen a resident in Mississippi until recently, received her schooling in that state and at Baylor University, Waco, Texas. She is a graduate of Mississippi State College for Women, and has taught both in Mississippi and in Texas.

Dr. McGowen, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McGowen of Baird, received his high school education in Baird. He was an honor graduate of Baylor Dental College, Dallas, in 1928, receiving a key of membership in the honoring fraternity Omicron Kappa Upsilon.

Among the out-of-town guests present for the wedding was Mr. Harold Bailey of Charlotte, North Carolina, brother of the bride.

LOCAL BOYS LIKING FOREST ARMY SAYS LETTER FROM ONE

The Review received the past week a letter from Lowell Booth, one of seven local boys, now enlisted in President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Forest Army. Other boys from this trade territory in the organization are; Terrell Robbins, Bruce Graham, Sam Gray, Lewis Gray, Charlie Lovall and Euwell Shirley.

The letter from Booth, which describes the routine of camp life is printed hereunder because of the information and unusual interest that it contains.

"Some of the boys wanted me to the Review and ask you send us the paper".

"We have been here in Alpine, Arizona, three weeks. We were supposed to stay in Camp Bullas two weeks. Continued on page 6

OBSERVANCE OF 50TH ANNUAL CELEBRATION TO BE 1 DAY EVENT

Amusement Company Offers To Bring Rides And Shows Here For Affair

Cross Plains annual picnic—golden jubilee celebration this year—will be held July 26, the committee in charge informed the Review yesterday. Arrangements are underway to make this year's celebration one of the greatest ever held here.

Negotiations between the Empire Amusement Company and the picnic committee are now underway and the troupe may be brought to Cross Plains for the picnic. A representative of the company was in town Tuesday afternoon and submitted a proposition to bring seven rides and 20 concessions here for the picnic. The proposition is being considered and will either be accepted or rejected by those in charge of the picnic before publication date of the Review next week.

Fair In The Fall

There will be no farm and agriculture exhibits with the picnic this year, due to the fact that a regular fall fair is being planned for about October. V. A. Underwood, vocational agriculture instructor, is chairman of the fair committee and has promised to have full information ready to advertise the fair at the picnic July 26.

Free Attractions

Although no definite information was available yesterday the picnic committee announced that the entertainment program this year would include more free attractions than any other Cross Plains picnic ever held. "It is our desire to make the event a fit commemoration of the half-century of progress that this section has undergone since those pioneer citizens met on the banks of Turkey Creek for that first Cross Plains picnic", said a member of the committee yesterday.

Concessions for the picnic will be sold by sealed bids. Complete announcement concerning this phase of the celebration will be made through the columns of the Review within the very near future.

CROSS CUT

By Norris Chambers

Whew! Thrashing is there, and a real sweaty job awaits many a young man. But a certain would-be pencil pusher is doing something else; he is hoeing peanuts for 'nothing except blistered hands and a crippled back!

News must actually be scarce, for Mr. A. H. Plummer, one of our secret service reporters, had nothing to report. However, our gossip editor reports that Tie Clark and Lawrence Newton are going with the girls at Pioneer—(This cannot be verified, though, for the scribe refused to give proof.)

Miss Mary Helen and Miss Nada Newton of Thrifty have been visiting their relatives in this community the past week.

When we asked Elbert Hill if he knew any news he replied, "Sure, I've been looking for a job." That certainly is news, but it is questionable. When we queried him further he agreed to tell us about the party given by Elva and Fay Stockton Saturday night. He said that every one had a wonderful time, and the usual line that describes parties. But we really found out that the party was enjoyed, and we are sure that the whole community young-people want another soon.

Bryant Prater and his wife who are visiting relatives and friends in this community left for home this week.

It seems as if five days of the World Fair and a short tour of Canada is enough absence for O. B. and Weldon Chambers, for they have returned. Our reporters state that they had a good time.

Mrs. J. W. Newton is visiting Mr. Anderson Newton of Thrifty.

The Alabama quartet gave an interesting concert at Cross Cut Monday night. The admission was ten and fifteen cents. The four singers were, beginning with the tenor and ranging downward, Mr. Collis Gilbreath, Mr. Hodson Shirey, Mr. Jeff Durham, Mr. Coy King. These boys are seeing the United States first. They have given several concerts in this part of Texas, and they intend to travel on to California. There were several out-of-community visitors in the audience, one of whom was Felicia Newton.

Miss Thelma Prater and Mrs. Prater were visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Cook of the Williams community Saturday.

Work on the new road that is to connect the May-Brownwood road and the Cross Cut-Brownwood road is progressing rapidly. It is thought that they will finish grading it to the old Cross Cut-Brownwood road next week. The road will then have to be built across the Eubanks. Just imagine! There will be a continuous road from Burkett to the May-Cross Cut road on the extreme eastern branch.

Our column may be a little short this week, but we can use the same old excuse that a far more experienced and better prepared scribbler used a few days ago, "We have the 'summeritis!'" (And frankly, the news is 'on the slump')

SOUTH'S FARMERS TALK OVER WORKINGS OF WALLACE PLAN

For First Time, They Find, Farmer Is To Have The Privilege of Making Final Decisions

From Abilene Morning News

NEW ORLEANS, June 20.—At cross-road stores, in remote hill country, along lowland bayou banks and at corner fence posts. Dixie's farmers met and talked today. They talked of the administration's plan to curb cotton acreage and boost the staple's price, and on their talk hinged a momentous decision for the south.

Numerous officials voiced glowing praise of Secretary Wallace's program for taking some 10,000,000 acres out of production this year through land leasing arrangements and offers to share in a government carry over pool at bargain prices and some states were already setting machinery in motion to carry out the plan, but, for once, the farmer appeared to have the final say-so on what the farm price for cotton will be this year.

Must Be Voluntary

Secretary Wallace has said that voluntary cooperation on the part of the grower is an essential to the success of the plan.

Meanwhile, folks who looked resigned when cotton sold below five cents a pound last January and who sparkled with hope when the present nine-cent level was reached, talked in awed whispers about the possibility of "12 cent-cotton" contemplated under the processing tax and its resultant bonuses for sharp curtailment of production.

Within an hour after the Wallace plan was announced yesterday, Mississippi started a parade of co-operating states by calling a state-wide meeting of extension workers at Jackson for today. Louisiana followed suit by summoning its extension staff to Baton Rouge on Wednesday.

Plans were announced for subsequent regional meetings and before the end of the week, field workers will be traveling from farm to farm with the government's offer of a business contract, calling for destruction of a portion of the growing crop in exchange for cash, or for rentals combined with participation in the government cotton pool on a basis of three cents a pound under the present market price. For the first time, the farmer can buy cotton instead of raising it and have the privilege of holding it until he can sell at a profit.

The Editor's Mail

Hello Folks.

Well, I have been gone from Austin again got back a couple of days after the legislators had all gone home. I did not think there would be anything to go down town for, but this morning I decided I would kinda ramble down and see what was going on. Things look mighty lonesome in the Capitol Building. I went in the House of Representatives chamber. Tell Cecil they are fumigating it today and should have all the dangerous germs, left there by the last legislature, killed at once because I could only stand it a minute looked. Mighty lonesome in there Cecil.

I started on down town and in passing the offices, of the Highway department I have never seen such a crowd, reached a block. I stopped to see what was the matter I thought someone must have been killed or maybe some highway patrol had captured Pretty Boy Floyd, I learned however that it was just people from all over the state gathered to see the New Highway Chairman. You could hear them say in the crowd, "what does he look like, is he red headed". Some of the big newspapers in Texas criticised his appointment. It made them mad because they did not have his picture in their files. You see nothing makes a newspaper madder than to have some person jump into the limelight overnight that they do not have his picture in their files, and this man say has never made any big speech. He even seems to be a sorter of a plain fellow maybe. He is one of the forgotten men I think, the newspapers missed their guess on this appointment almost as bad as they did President Roosevelt's Cabinet. Saw Dee Anderson Rambling around in the Capitol this morning.

See you later.

Aubra Dodson.

CALLAHAN PLEDGES TO ASSIST COLEMAN WITH ANTI-WOLF CAMPAIGN

Callahan County commissioners told a delegation from Coleman last week that this county would cooperate in every way possible to rid this section of wolves. Coleman County has for a number of years conducted a campaign to kill wolves throughout this area as an aid to ranchmen and farmers. Until recently they paid a bounty for every wolf slain.

No specific action was mentioned by the Callahan Commissioners court as to what course they would pursue in assisting Coleman county but assurance was made that this county would cooperate as far as it is financially able.

CROSS CUT

By Norris Chambers

Whew! Thrashing is there, and a real sweaty job awaits many a young man. But a certain would-be pencil pusher is doing something else; he is hoeing peanuts for nothing except blistered hands and a crippled back!

News must actually be scarce, for Mr. A. H. Plummer, one of our secret service reporters, had nothing to report. However, our gossip editor reports that Tie Clark and Lawrence Newton are going with the girls at Pioneer—(This cannot be verified, though, for the scribe refused to give proof.)

Miss Mary Helen and Miss Nada Newton of Thrifty have been visiting their relatives in this community the past week.

When we asked Elbert Hill if he knew any news he replied, "Sure, I've been looking for a job." That certainly is news, but it is questionable. When we queried him further he agreed to tell us about the party given by Elva and Fay Stockton Saturday night. He said that every one had a wonderful time, and the usual line that describes parties. But we really found out that the party was enjoyed, and we are sure that the whole community young-people want another soon.

Bryant Prater and his wife who are visiting relatives and friends in this community left for home this week.

It seems as if five days of the World Fair and a short tour of Canada is enough absence for O. B. and Welton Chambers, for they have returned. Our reporters state that they had a good time.

Mrs. J. W. Newton is visiting Mr. Anderson Newton of Thrifty.

The Alabama quartet gave an interesting concert at Cross Cut Monday night. The admission was ten and fifteen cents. The four singers were, beginning with the tenor and ranging downward, Mr. Collis Gilbreath, Mr. Hodson Shirey, Mr. Jeff Durham, Mr. Coy King. These boys are seeing the United States first. They have given several concerts in this part of Texas, and they intend to travel on to California. There were several out-of-community visitors in the audience, one of whom was Felicia Newton.

Miss Thelma Prater and Mrs. Prater were visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Cook of the Williams community Saturday.

Work on the new road that is to connect the May-Brownwood road and the Cross Cut-Brownwood road is progressing rapidly. It is thought that they will finish grading it to the old Cross Cut-Brownwood road next week. The road will then have to be built across the Eubanks. Just imagine! There will be a continuous road from Burkett to the May-Cross Cut road on the extreme eastern branch.

Our column may be a little short this week, but we can use the same old excuse that a far more experienced and better prepared scribbler used a few days ago. "We have the 'summeritis!'" (And frankly, the news is 'on the slump')

What Makes a Safe Tire? ... I KNOW!

ARE you willing to risk your life on advertising statements claiming blowout-proof and unblowable tires? One manufacturer gives as the reason for claiming blowout-proof tires—the use of one ply of another color—another, a patented "no breaker" construction—a mail order house, high stretch "elastic" cords, etc., etc. Actually the fundamental cause of a tire blowout is the flexing of the tire which causes friction of the fibers in the cord, resulting in heat and causing the rubber to soften and the cords to deteriorate.

There is a reason why Firestone Tires have won the 500-mile Indianapolis race for 14 consecutive years, the most grueling tire test. The reason is the Firestone patented extra process of Gum-Dipping which saturates every fiber and insulates every cord with pure rubber—which gives strength to the cords and prevents friction and heat in the fibers. This year 42 drivers in this race equipped their cars with Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires and not a single driver had any tire trouble.

Race drivers know why Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires are safer and not subject to blowout and will not risk their lives on ordinary tires. Your life and the lives of your family are often in danger at the high road speeds of today and you should not take greater risks than the race drivers who make sure that they have the best and safest tires they can buy—Firestone. Come in today. We will give you a liberal trade-in allowance for your old tires on new Firestone High Speed Tires—the safest tires in the world.
