HOME TOWN GOSSIP

Bet 'Snip' Caton will be glad when Stanley Carmichael's girl gets back to town. The competition out at the Prairie Camp has been rather 'tuff' the past couple of weeks.

A youngster that will bear watching is Ralph Chandler, Jr. A check up of his social activities reveals that he is a frequent visitor in the Burnt Branch community. And it has been going on for more than a year now. Incidentally, Ralph is a good picker.

We completely overlooked last week calling attention to Tom Wood's change in appearance. Over at a druggist convention recently several of the boys took advantage of our local 'pill roller' and dyed his eyebrows. We'll give you advance warning though, he gets pretty 'tuff' if you say anything about it.

Hollywood has made famous a wise-cracking pair (Lowe and McLaglen) for their perpetual rivalry and endless friendship. We sometimes wonder if those fellows on the screen have anything on Orba Booth and Boots' Harlow.

Anyone going to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Big Spring next week end? Come by, have three tickets to the banquet that we will give person of sober temperament.

Some sportsmen certainly exaggerate. Our nominations for the city's best at this famous indoor sport are 'Squirrel Hunting' Bill Bounds and 'Perch Fishing' Red Huckaby.

They're both the best in their respective lines—we have their word for it.

In company of 'Doc' Sellers, Rising Star's father of journalism, the department plans to attend the Heart O' Texas press convention at Ballinger Saturday.

Confidentially, while enroute we are going to try to nag 'Doc' into another bet for the Cross Plains-Rising Star football game this Fall. We still recall quite vividly the ridiculousness to which we were put in front of the home folks last November and it would be a real pleasure to see 'Doc' duplicate before his subscribers.

A joke is a joke, regardless of who it's on. And this week we take the ribbony cake for the prize blunder. The other night while attending a theater in company of a young woman we pulled our worst one yet.

Immediately after the news reel, we excused ourself to walk outside and smoke a cigaret before the feature started. Meeting an old friend in front of the showhouse we lingered longer than planned. Hurrying back inside to not miss any more of the picture we spotted three people—which appeared to be the group with which he was attending the show. There was a vacant seat near the aisle; it looked exactly like the one we had just left a few minutes before.

Without the slightest thought of being mistaken we were seated and began observing the picture. About 25 minutes later a very humorous scene was shown on the screen and the lady at our right laughed out in a deep baritone voice. Completely baffled, we gave her a hurried look, realized our mistake and sneaked back about four rows to our original seat.

Most embarrassing part of the incident was that practically everybody in the house knew of our mistake and presented us with a heck of a nasty laugh, when he started for our seat after realizing the mistake. Yes, our face was quite red; thank you.

Casual Observances
J. E. Henkel with the first straw hat of the season. Edwin Baum swinging down the street with an air of complete prosperity. A very clever sign on a local horse drawn ice wagon, which reads, "It never gets out of order". More people going fishing than ever before in history. Vellie Joe Williams riding about with that 'same girl'.

LOCAL CITIZENS ASK FOR EXTENSION OF POLL TAX PAYMENTS

Lions Club Frames Petition To Representative Lotief And Senator W. B. Collie

Cross Plains Lions Club passed a resolution Tuesday urging Cecil A. Lotief, Representative from this district, and Wilbourn B. Collie, Senator, to use their influence in securing an extension on poll tax payments to give thousands of voters a voice in the election to be held August 26, on the question of legalizing 3.2 percent beer in Texas.

The clubmen took no side in the beer question but pointed out that they felt that a better representation of the sentiment of Texas citizens could be obtained in the election, if some legislation were passed to give people another chance to remit for poll taxes.

It was also pointed by the Lions that thousands of dollars would be raised for the public school fund if the extension were granted. $1.00 from each poll tax payment goes into the public school fund.

A similar movement was inaugurated last week by citizens of Palestine and presented to Senators and Representatives from that district.

PLANS COMPLETE TO HAVE STOCK SHOW HERE IN FEBRUARY

A fat stock show will be held in Cross Plains about the middle of February next year, the Review was assured yesterday by V. A. Underwood vocational agriculture teacher here. Premiums of more than $100, have already been pledged by Cross Plains merchants.

Mr. Underwood made the advance announcement of the show in order to give feeders ample time to prepare stock for competition. Prizes in the show will be open to any boy or girl under 20 years of age, enrolled in any of the agriculture classes in connection with Cross Plains high school.

"It is about time to begin feeding calves now to get them in the very best of shape by February", Underwood said. 10 prizes will be awarded in cattle, 10 in sheep and 10 in hogs.

"Prizes will be more than enough to justify any effort that may be expended", Underwood said.

SEED RECEIVED BY AGRICULTURE CLASS

30 pounds of Ajax seed—a cross between feterita and kaffir—were received by V. A. Underwood, vocational agriculture instructor in Cross Plains high school, recently and distributed among members of his classes.

Special Song Service Scheduled At Dressy

COUNTRY BLESSED WITH 1 INCH RAIN WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Thousands of acres of grain almost gone due to extended dry weather and high winds, received new life Wednesday night as a general rain fell over the Cross Plains trade territory, netting almost an inch of moisture.

The rain began falling about six thirty Wednesday evening and continued for more than an hour. Gardens, row crops and pasture lands were also greatly benefited.

"Two days more would have been too late. The rain came in just the nick of time", said a large landowner to the Review Thursday morning.

ONLY 1 BUYER HAS CUT PRICE OF OIL HERE DESPITE DROP

A Sinclair-Prairie official told the Review Thursday at noon that as yet he had not been informed of any change.

Pastor Armstrong will preach a brief sermon taking his text from the quotation by Christ to the fishermen, who had cast their nets unsuccessfully all night, but when told to throw their nets on the other side brought in bountiful catches.

PLAN LOW PRESSURE SYSTEM WHICH WILL COST ABOUT $7,000

Arrangements Underway Now To Make Loan To Finance Municipal Plant

Members of the Cross Plains city council confided yesterday at noon that plans were being furthered for the construction of a municipal gas system here. At present arrangements are being made for the financing of the project.

Although no definite statement was available from the city office, the Review learned from authoritative sources outside that approximately 255 agreements had been signed with local consumers to connect with the municipal lines, when completed. A solicitor was still working Thursday afternoon.

A low pressure system with the exception of a high pressure main line is the plan of city fathers. The estimated cost has been set near $7,000. However ideas were advanced at a meeting of the council Tuesday night to shave that amount and probably installing the plant for $5,500 or $6,000.

Tentative contracts have already been made for the gas supply and a portion of the equipment.

Rates as indicated by the council on agreements signed by citizens are a $1.00 minimum charge which shall also be payment for the first two thousand cubic feet, 35 cents per thousand for the next six thousand cubic feet and 25 cents per thousand for all gas consumed thereafter.

DATE FOR PLAY AT DRESSY SET MAY 11

Date of the play, 'Diamonds and Hearts', to be presented by students of Dressy school was changed the past week to Thursday night, May 11. The presentation had formerly been scheduled for Friday night but was advanced one day to avoid conflicting with a school play to be held at Cross Plains on the same night.

Instructors of the Dressy school told the Review yesterday that the entire public was invited to attend the play and that there would be no admission charge. It will be held in the opera on the school campus.

FAMOUS ROBBERS PASS THRU HERE

Belief is held by peace officers throughout this section that Clyde and Buck Barrow, famous bandit brothers—wanted for murder of two policemen in Missouri—passed this way Sunday night. A bullet riddled automobile was found, several miles South of Coleman. It bore a Louisiana licence.

The machine was found in a creek, where it had plunged from a 40 foot embankment, bullet riddled and almost totally demolished.

Officers hold the theory that the car was abandoned by the Barrow brothers in exchange for another which had been stolen. They contended that the bullet holes were merely evidence of a test that had been conducted to determine the power of a machine gun.

are WARNING SIGNALS

When periodic pains, due to a weak, run-down condition, distress you, treatment for the cause of the trouble should be started without delay.

Take Cardui to build up against the nagging symptoms of ordinary womanly ailments. It has been in use for over 50 years. So many women praise CARDUI, it must be good to have the widespread use that it has today. Sold at drug stores.

BUILDING One Institution At The Expense of Tearing Down Another Is Poor Policy In Our Opinion

As A Matter Of Fairness, We Ask the Citizens Of Cross Plains These Questions

Is it fair and right to tear down one man's store to gain another?

Should we wreck one good bank simply because our pride and feelings might dictate that we should have another bank?

Is it better to have two good drug stores, able to pay their help and otherwise subscribe to the various civic activities of the city, or have four drug stores barely able to exist and unable to contribute to any worthy cause?

Should we, as citizens, encourage a non tax-paying industry to enter our city when by so doing we are liable to destroy the ability of a loyal concern already established to continue its policy of paying its taxes, and sharing its share of the other burdens that come up in our home community?

In other words, are we willing to go against every fundamental rule of sound business judgement by tearing down a part of our town in order to promote any proposition that can't hope to succeed unless it destroys the business of another?

We believe the citizens of Cross Plains are fair minded. We believe they are loyal in every sense of the word, and it is only a fair deal that they are seeking.

Loyalty should not be misinterpreted. We owe just as much loyalty to one as we do to another. Our policy in the past has been one of loyalty to this community. We have paid substantial sums in taxes every year since we have been here; we have contributed to every worthwhile cause presented to us; we have kept on our pay roll in Cross Plains as many as two people thereby placing in circulation money that has reacted to the benefit of all local stores and businesses. We want to continue doing this, but we cannot hope to do so as much in the future if you, as citizens, refuse to allow us this privilege.

Let's not build a Chinese wall around Cross Plains and refuse to allow outside capital to enter our gates. Let's be fair with ourselves and to all our institutions. We need them and they need us. All we are asking is your fair consideration and in return we promise you our continued good service, our loyalty to your every cause and in every way support your churches, schools and local enterprises.

Our policy remains unaltered and unchanged. . . . We invite you to avail yourself of this banking service and the protection it affords.

We Hope He Is Right!

(From Coleman County Chronicle)

The Cross Plains Review scribe is predicting 10c cotton and dollar wheat this fall. May we have success and prosper as prophet! That reminds us that during the football season last fall he predicted the results of the games each week—and occasionally he was correct. We can all wish that he will be right in this instance, as he will win and there will be no losers, if he hits the mark. Cotton and wheat both have shown an advance lately. Dollar wheat and 10c cotton would spell prosperity in a modified form. Just a little prosperity would go a long ways now.

MASTER OF SITUATIONS

IN all the three years of his public work there was not one moment when Jesus failed to be complete master of the situation. He was accessible to anybody—in the market-place, in the temple and on the main streets—fair game for the keen and clever. It became quite a recognized sport to match wits with him. Pharisees tried it; Scribes tried it; "a certain lawyer" tried it. Always they came off second best. At length the very chiefs of the priests came one afternoon. Lesser antagonists had gone down; now the leader themselves would take the matter in hand. They demolish this presumptuous upstart; by the splendor of their presence and their offices, they would awe him into line.

"By what authority do you do these things," they demanded brusquely, "and who gave you this authority?"

If they expected him to yield an inch they received the surprise of their lives. His retort was instantaneous.

"I'll ask you a question," he exclaimed, "and if you answer it, I'll then tell you by what authority I work. Answer me now, what about John; was his work in baptizing inspired by Heaven or by men?"

They caught their breath. Their heads came together; excited and disturbing whispers were exchanged. What should they say? If we answer that John had come from Heaven, he will say, "Well, why then didn't you believe him?" If we say, that he came from men, this crowd of fools will tear us to pieces, because every last one of them believes that John was a prophet. What shall we do? Better tell him we don't know; better get out of here as quickly as we can.

"We don't know," they muttered. "All right," said Jesus serenely. "You don't answer my question. Neither will I answer yours."

It was a perfect triumph. Amid the jeers of the delighted crowd they gathered up their fine robes and went

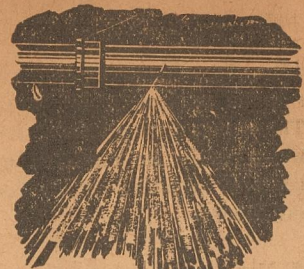

You would think as you read the narratives that the wise ones would have been wise enough to let him alone. Even a child having burned its fingers once, knows enough to avoid the fire. But their jealousy and anger drove them back again and again; and every time he was too much for them. In the very last week the "Pharisees and Herodians" gathered together a picked delegation of sharp wits and sent them what looked like an absolutely fool-proof bomb. They started in with flattery; after all he was a simple fellow from the provinces—a few kind words and his head would be turned. They would catch him off his guard.

The Family DOCTOR

FOR THE MIDDLE AGED

You get to thinking about what you OUGHT to weigh—I know you do, for I do it myself.

Well, figure your height in inches—you men of five feet ten. You are seventy inches high. Add 100 to the number of inches for the weight, 170, if you are middle-age or past. This rule does not apply to young adults and children.

Remember, each individual has his peculiarities, which he can by no means escape. It is just as 'natural' for some men and women to be spare, as it is for others to be a little stout. I had a most refined, intelligent lady of forty-five, who had worked herself almost into a frenzy—because she held a weight of 145 steadily. Her figure was perfect; yet she was continually in anticipation of 'obesity!'

The big boy of fifty, with the ponderous 'bay-window,' must lay the blame to himself alone. He acquired the deformity by overeating and lack of exercise. It will take him a long time to correct the effects of his truancy, if he ever does it. But he still has room to repent of his sins—to get out of that swivel-chair—get out of doors at every opportunity—and STOP EATING TOO MUCH.

There's the rub, however. He still lingers with the luscious viands with the heavy sweetening. Well, if you'd rather have that belly, keep on as you've been doing.—I'm no traffic cop, to stop you for travelling on the wrong side of the road! Don't forget though, that the prevention of an evil is many times safer than a belated attempt at cure; be sure your (dietetic) sins will track you down.

New Yorkers are, however, going places. By the hundreds of thousands they go away on week-end trips. By the thousands they take cruises. But get a New Yorker off Manhattan Island and he'll start counting the minutes until he gets back home.

A Laxative that costs only 1¢ or less a dose

NEXT TIME you need medicine to act on the bowels, try Theodor's Black-Draught. It brings quick relief and is priced within reach of all. Black-Draught is one of the least expensive laxatives that you can find. A 25-cent package contains 25 or more doses.

Black-Draught is made of approved laxative plants, firmly ground so you take the medicine into your system just as naturally as you get nourishment from the food you eat.

Refreshing relief from constipation troubles for only a cent or less a dose—that's why thousands of men and women prefer Theodor's Black-Draught.

WOMEN: watch your BOWELS

What should women do to keep their bowels moving freely? A doctor should know the answer. That is why pure Syrup Pepsin is so good for women. It just suits their delicate organism. It is the prescription of an old family doctor who has treated thousands of women patients, and who made a special study of bowel troubles.

It is fine for children, too. They love its taste. Let them have it every time their tongues are coated or their skin is sallow. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients.

When you've a sick headache, can't eat, are bilious or sluggish; and at the times when you are most apt to be constipated, take a little of this famous prescription (all drug stores keep it ready in big bottles), and you'll know why Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite laxative of over a million women!

It's SAFE!

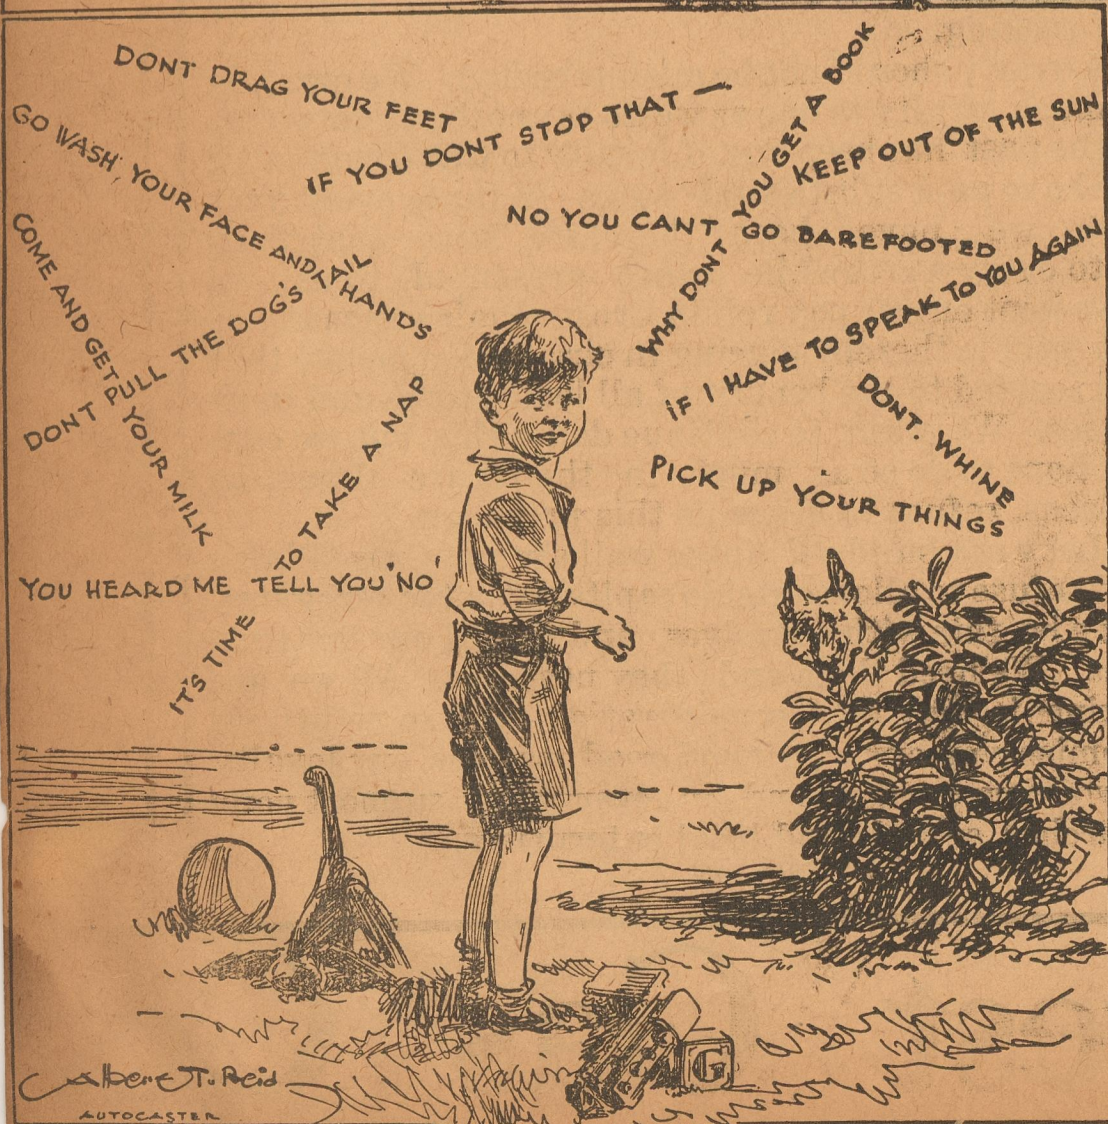

Everyone accepts the fact that Bayer Aspirin is the swiftest form of relief for headaches, neuralgia, neuritis, periodic pain, and other suffering. If you've tried it, you know. But no one need hesitate to take these tablets because of their speed. They are perfectly safe. They will not depress the heart. They have no ill effect of any kind. The rapid relief they bring is due to the rapidity with which they dissolve.

So, keep these tablets handy, and keep your engagements—free from pain or discomfort. Carry the pocket tin for emergencies; buy the bottle of 100 for its economy. The new reduced price has removed the last reason for trying any substitute for genuine Bayer Aspirin—each tablet stamped with this cross:

Ted's Promise

By Lorena Childs

At the death of Mr. Keith, Ted had promised to stay at home and take care of his mother as long as she lived. Ted's mother was a pretty frail old lady with hair as white as snow.

For many months Ted stayed at home to work and be content. He had always been an adventurous boy. All his life he had dreamed of his imaginary travels and could see all the beautiful things in Rome, Italy, Paris, and many beautiful cities.

One day, after he and his mother had been quarreling, he was watching men load a large ship, wishing he had a job on it and could go.

He succeeded in getting a job. For many hours he washed dishes and peeled potatoes. For awhile he was satisfied, but after a few weeks he became lonesome. For many nights he lay awake thinking of his mother. He longed to see her pretty white head bobbing in and out the door to watch him. He knew this was his punishment for breaking his promise.

The ship had gone over many seas and ocean since it had left home. It seemed as if centuries had passed since he had been gone. His temples had grown white and there were many lines of worry written upon his face. He wondered if his mother would be glad to see him or would she turn him from her door.

At home at last! He was overjoyed at the sight of his home. As he neared the house he looked at the windows. The curtains were all down. How disappointed he was! He had come all that distance for nothing! Just then the door opened, and with one glad cry he saw his mother's face! She had stayed at home just to await his return.

The Beginning Of Our Prison Term

By Helen Grace Gray

"Oh," sighed Fannie, school starts tomorrow. Gee, but I surely do hate to begin. The only thing that I am really interested in is football season. Just think we will have to study geometry and I have heard it is pretty hard."

"Well, same here," moaned Clara Nell, and most of the kids I cared most about graduated last year. We will have to sit on those old, hard seats for nine long, weary months.

On Monday, November eighth, many people came to the opening of Cross Plains High School. All the students had a horrible look of dread upon their faces and the teachers did not look so well pleased.

On entering the auditorium, Mr. Williams offered everyone a hearty greeting and welcomed everyone back to school. Rev. Darby spoke a few minutes on the value of a good education and wished every student success in the coming term of school. Mr. Williams, then, assigned a room to each grade in grammar school and introduced all the teachers.

The high school students assembled in the study hall and each class was assigned its home room.

In the home-rooms the students had books issued to them.

When Fannie was going to lunch she said, "Ah, I am not so sorry school started. I am kinda glad."

So far into this term Fannie has progressed a great deal.

Students Have Assembly

Monday morning at the third period the students and Teachers met in the auditorium for assembly. Mr. Williams announced that each student having a low grade for the first semester in any subject or subjects would be allowed to try to raise that grade or grades.

Announcement was made in regard to the moving picture "Over There" which will be presented in the high school auditorium Thursday evening. The picture is about the World War. And incidently, Soc and Bobbie were given tickets.

BAPTIST WOMEN BANQUET SENIORS

The Seniors were entertained with a banquet given by the Baptist Ladies Friday the 28th. Rev. Mr. Wingo delivered the opening address and Rev. Graves Darby was the toastmaster. A piano solo was given by Miss Sara Chapman, a cornet solo by Mr. J. E. King, and a reading by Miss Mildred Billingsly. A plate lunch, fruit cocktail, sherbet, and cake was served by the Baptist ladies to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Nat Williams, Rev. Mr. Darby, Rev. Mr. Wingo, Mr. King, Miss Sara Chapman, Miss Mildred Billingsly and the seniors, Misses Juanita Vestal, Phyllis Chandler, Athalie Adams, Opal Young, Pauline Payne, Leota Loving, Celesta Freeman, Wilma Jones, Willie Gaye Stacy, Alice Jordan, Leota Jones, and Messrs. Mr. Paul Harrell will deliver the annual address and conduct the presentation of diplomas to the graduating class in the high school building here Friday night. The honor members of the class are Winifred Brigance, valedictorian and Edith Odom, salutatorian.

John Crowley was arrested at one of the local hotels by City Marshall Pinkston Thursday night of last week on a complaint of whipping his wife. He was released from custody Friday after paying a fine of $32.70, following an investigation by County Attorney Green and Sheriff Corn, who came over from Baird Friday morning. Crowley and his wife claimed to be from Abilene, and it is stated that after the court's adjustment of their mix-up, they went on their way rejoicing.

Last Wednesday night the Orr Cafe in Cross Plains gave a magnificent banquet in honor of T. B. Slick and a party of his associates. The table was spread with appetizing viands, specially prepared under the supervision of Manager Orr and would be hard to excel in a cafe of metropolitan proportions. This special banquet was extended Mr. Slick and party of associates as appreciation of the big oil wells, which through their individual managements have been developed in the local oil field, and more especially for the interest which Mr. Slick is taking in the upbuild and general welfare of the City of Cross Plains where he and his associates are permanently located with their offices through which all business for this field is transacted.

The honor members at this banquet were: T. B. Slick, his local field manager Mr. Fowler Huffman, wife and little son, Messrs. Fay Harrington, E. L. Tracy, and E. C. McCalmet of Tulsa, Mr. and Mrs.

Tom Bryant and their little sons, Elliott and Tom, Jr.

The National Oil Journal gives a report on the big gas well which was recently brought in near Cross Cut by the Canyon Oil and Gas Company. This immense supply of gas was struck at a depth of 1,550 feet. According to the Journal's report the well is making 10,000,000 feet of gas and, like the big gas well not a great distance from it, and from whence the City of Cross Plains and local oil fields are obtaining their supply of gas, the Cross Cut well is also making several barrels of almost pure gasoline per day. Two other gas stratas have been encountered in the well, at 500 and 1,350 feet. This well is ten miles from the big oil producers in the local field, where the big gushers come in at a depth of 2,450 to 2,500 feet.

Pioneer, being nearest in the shadow of the world's greatest oil wells, stepped forth in a blaze of glory Tuesday morning of this week when the big two-day celebration over the greatness of the local oil field begun there.

The main events of the celebration took place in a large grove just east of that town, which was thronged with people throughout the two days and a part of each night. Large crowds of boosters from Cisco, Rising Star, Brownwood and other nearby towns were present. All were eager to tell of the opportunities and merits of their respective towns, not only verbally but with handsomely printed literature descriptive of their towns, which was distributed throughout the day.

Rev. Ellis, pastor of the Pioneer Methodist Church, made a welcome address to the visitors, after which barbecued beef was served to the hundreds of hungry people.

DON'T NEGLECT TIRES IN CAR'S SPRING TUNE-UP

In the usual spring overhaul, re-conditioning, or tune-up of their cars, many motorists make the mistake of stopping with the mechanical features—deciding that they will try to make the tires 'do.'

And that, in the opinion of W. R. Lowe, Local Goodyear dealer, is false economy.

"The first hot weather will see a line-up of cars along the highways for the changes which in the long run will cost the car owner more than the price of new rubber. And, very definitely, many a motorist who has tried to squeeze the last dime's worth of mileage out of thin, weak tires soon regrets it," declared Mr. Lowe.

"Moreover, replacement of old tires now with brand new ones is not only sound economy, but a safety measure as well, because the risk of driving in summer traffic on tires that are not safe is increased by the constant danger of blowouts or punctures, not to mention the loss of time and the consequent inconvenience.

"Especially is it false economy to take a chance on thin, weak tires nowadays when prices have never been as low as they are today," he continued.

Service check-up of tire equipment on anyone's automobile is offered by the Hi-Way Service Station without charge or obligation and may be had by driving over to the station on South Main street.

He was given a full pardon.

Oglesby was convicted twice in Judge M. S. Long's 42nd district, at Albany for burglary of a garage there and at Baird for burglary of a Clyde filling station.
