WET OR DRY? SATURDAY TO TELL

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

This department has from time to time attempted to prophesy every noteworthy incident that has thrust its head upon the horizon of public interest during the past few years, and this week we again take a 'stab' at our luck as a prophet. Our prediction this week concerns the prohibition question to be settled at the polls Saturday.

Our guess is this: Texas will go wet by 150,000 votes; Callahan county will remain dry by at least 400. Cross Plains will be practically divided on the issue with perhaps a slight majority going to the prohibition forces.

Three more weddings this week to bring the total—in which local people were involved—for the Summer to 24. Leo Thompson, of Cottonwood, and Miss Katie Lou Falls, Rising Star, were the first of the most recent newly weds to take the fatal step, plunging into the martial sea Sunday morning. Then that afternoon another Cottonwood couple made the supreme sacrifice at Moran; they were, Thomas Webster and Miss May Ellis. Next of the trio for last Sabbath was Miss Eunice Olney, graduate of Cross Plains high school, who was led to Hyman's altar at San Antonio that night.

And now our official sanction: "May the Lord bless all that He has created".

Mrs. Ches Barr may slap our face for teasing this one but frankly it is just too good to pass.

Recently she and her husband chanced to meet and old friend—Sid Brooks—whom they had known virtually all of their life but had not seen in sometime. As soon as Sid saw the couple he rushed over and said, "Hello Minnie, I sure am glad to see you". He then gave Ches a hurried look and before Mrs. Barr could return his salutation, remarked: "And this is your oldest son, he's certainly a strapping young fellow."

Now mind you, Sid Brooks wasn't joking. The school boy complexion that Ches had acquired in eight years as Postmaster simply fooled him.

Phil Anderson is somewhat flattered over the fact that his place of business looks prosperous enough to be inviting to a real professional yegg. He says that he knows the gent who broke in Tuesday night was no amateur because the procedure which he followed is just like you read about in detective story magazines.

In breaking in the 'visitor' sealed gummed paper over the glass to keep it from making a noise when he cracked it. A unique idea, eh what?

There is a story going the rounds that 'Skipper' Wright thoroughly objects to being first told by 'Doc' Sellers, Rising Star editor, the yarn is accepted without further verification. It goes something like this.

The Skipper's train runs through the golf course and naturally he's been bitten by the 'niblic bug'. Well, in the Skipper's many years with the railroad, he has never been known to come into Cross Plains late, when he had a golf match scheduled for the afternoon. And if the truth were known, we'd bet that he has made some record runs to keep from holding up a foursome.

Mr. and Mrs. Ressie Browning of Brownwood visited relatives in Cross Plains Sunday.

LOCAL BOY OPERATED AT COLEMAN THURSDAY

Kent Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Porter J. Davis, of this place, underwent an operation in the Overall Hospital, Coleman, Thursday morning for tonsilectomy and adenoids.

BAPTIST REVIVAL IN FULL SWAY HERE

HOWARD PAYNE MAN WILL DO PREACHING BEGINNING SUNDAY

Two Services Being Held Each Day; Morning At 10 And Evening At Eight

The annual revival at the Cross Plains Baptist church was scheduled to begin last night. Rev. J. E. Carroll is doing the preaching at present. He will be relieved in that capacity, however, Sunday by Dr. M. E. Davis, of Howard Payne College, Brownwood. Miss Opal Lackley is assisting in the personal work and prayer services.

Two services will be held each day, one in the morning at 10 o'clock and another each evening beginning at seven thirty. The meeting will probably last through September the second.

FORMER LOCAL MAN GETS KIDNAP NOTE THREATENING SON

Thomas Brabham, 12 year old son of Dr. T. W. Brabham, president of Texas Woman's College, Fort Worth, and formerly of this place, is being hidden under guard after his father received a ransom threat demanding $500, early this week.

Dr. Brabham was formerly pastor of the First Methodist Church here. The family moved here in 1925.

The threat letter—all typewritten—included a map of roads near Berry Street, Fort Worth, and instructed the college president to place $500. in a package and leave it at a designated spot near Berry Street.

A Fort Worth newspaper Monday night told the story thusly.

Calls on Officers
"Immediately after receiving the note, which was neatly typewritten in perfect English, Dr. Brabham called federal and county officers.

"At 9 p. m., Dr. Brabham armed himself with a revolver and went to the appointed place with a dummy package. After eight deputy sheriffs had hidden themselves nearby, Dr. Brabham placed the package at the designated post and withdrew.

"All night long the sheriff's deputies waited in the darkness, but the dummy package remained undisturbed. It remained at the post until 10 a. m.

"The vigil was abandoned after daybreak by the group, although one or two men were left in the vicinity. The surrounding country is a prairie, affording a sweeping view of the countryside.

Educator Prepared For Action

The Berry Street extension begins at the railway tracks and runs to Cobb Park. It is about three and one-half miles south of the business area. The road where the vigil was kept is nearly a mile south of it.

"Dr Brabham was prepared for action when he went to the scene. "If anyone walks up and asks me for the package," he told the deputies, "you'll probably have to send one of us home in an ambulance. I'll beat him to it if I can."

"The T. W. C. president took an active part in the Ministerial Association campaign against vice and crime here early in the Summer. He had leading parts in several committees formed to combat gambling, speakeasies and open vice.

"Twelve-year-old Thomas, the father said, is enjoying his experience immensely. The boy, a husky young fellow of 96 pounds, has been spending the summer working on the T. W. C. campus.

Jimmie Settle is visiting his aunt in Dallas this week.

BURGLAR FAILS TO GET LOOT AFTER BREAKING INTO CHEVROLET PLACE

F. R. Anderson told the Review yesterday that he had been unable to find anything missing, after burglars broke into his Chevrolet place here Tuesday morning. Entrance was gained by breaking a glass in the rear of the building.

The only evidence was a few foot and hand prints of the safe, which had only been tampered with but not opened.

JOHN LEE LAID TO REST IN CEMETERY HERE WEDNESDAY

John Lee, 68, long time resident of this place, was laid to final rest in the Cross Plains cemetery Wednesday afternoon. Funeral rites were conducted from the Baptist Church with Rev. Graves Darby officiating.

Death resulted from heart disease and kidney complications from which Mr. Lee had been critically ill more than a week. He died a few minutes after seven o'clock Tuesday night, at his farm home three miles North of Cross Plains.

Friends crowded the Baptist church to capacity at the funeral service Wednesday afternoon.

Surviving are his widow, and eight children—five boys and four girls—they are: Bill Lee, who resides 16 miles West of Cross Plains on the Morris ranch; Walter Lee, of Slaton; Mrs. Gene Grider, Dave Lee, Clifford, Hobert, and Bert and Myrtle, all of Cross Plains.

Rev. Graves Darby did the preaching. He was assisted by the Rev. H. T. Dennis, former Burkett pastor, now of Swenson.

Date for the opening of Cross Plains schools was set Monday night by the board of trustees for Monday morning September 11. 14 teachers will compose this year's faculty.

Superintendent Nat Williams told the Review yesterday that a check of net scholastics for the approaching term showed an increase of 41 over last year, and that there was a possibility of a few additional students coming in yet, as a result of a change which is being considered. The scholastic total to date is 674.

The faculty this year will be composed of: high school; Nat Williams, superintendent; Lewis C. Norman, principal; Garland Keyes, history and physical education; W. V. Wheeler, science and business administration; Miss End Gwathmey, english; V. A. Underwood, vocational agriculture and Miss Louise Nelson, high school spanish and grammar school english. The grammar school faculty is composed of Miss Anna Mae McConathy, principal; (intermediate department) W. E. Lusk, Mrs. J. E. Pittman, Mrs. M. G. Underwood; (primary department) Miss Thelma Ruth Clarkson, Miss Jimmie Lou Gwathmey and Miss Ethel Manning.

L. B. LEWIS SPEAKS ON STREETS HERE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

L. B. Lewis, of Baird, spoke on the streets here Wednesday night on the subject, "What the $20,000,000. Relief Bond Issue Means To Texas". Due to the fact that his coming had been known only a short time local supporters of the bond did not have time to advertise the address and consequently only a small crowd was present.

Mr. Lewis explained the important measure to his small audience as explicitly, however, as if there had been 2,000 people in attendance. He pointed out that unless the relief bond is passed that thousands of good Texas citizens will be practically destitute this Winter.

Paul V. Harrell, local attorney, introduced the speaker.

ROSS B. JENKINS IS MADE COUNTY AGENT

Ross B. Jenkins, who came to this county to assist in the cotton plow up campaign, has been named county agent for Callahan and has already actively engaged in the work.

At present he is in Mineral Wells attending a conference with federal and state authorities in regard to the wheat acreage reduction campaign.

Mr. Jenkins' headquarters will be at Baird, but he has notified the Review that his services are at the disposal of the entire county and that he expect work among the farmers of this immediate locality extensively.

"In Callahan County the Federal government in the past ten months has spent for relief work $26,209. The county has asked for $4,500 to carry on the work during August for the benefit of 3724 persons on its relief rolls."

Citizens State Bank will-closed Saturday—election day—according to an announcement from C. C. Neeb, Cashier, yesterday.

TEXANS GO TO POLLS TO DECIDE FATE OF PROHIBITION ISSUE

Balloting Here Will Be Held In Chevrolet Building; Taylor Bond Judge

The time old issue of prohibition will be revived by Texas voters at the polls Saturday, when the question of legalizing 3.2 percent beer in this state and the selection of delegates to vote in convention on nationwide repeal are acted upon.

In Cross Plains, the voting will take place in the Anderson Chevrolet building, with Taylor Bond serving as presiding officer. Judges will be C. E. Barr and J. W. Westerman. Clerks to help in the tabulation of ballots are; J. D. Conlee, Jeff Clark, Norman Caton and J. H. Chapman. The polls will open at eight Saturday morning and close at seven that evening.

There are approximately 450 qualified voters at this place.

Have 3 Ballots

Three ballots will be presented voters. Samples of each of the tickets are printed on another page of this week's Review.

Saturday's election will be the first time statewide prohibition has been voted upon since 1919, when citizens went to the polls to ratify the eighteenth amendment to federal constitution.

To date 22 states have voted upon the question of legalizing 3.2 beer and nationwide repeal. All have gone wet. Texas is the next to vote on the question. While this state does not specifically vote on nationwide repeal it chooses delegates to do this in convention, in the same fashion as electors are voted upon in presidential elections.

What About Returns?

Yesterday at noon no provision had been made to receive county and state returns Saturday night. It was understood, however, that these arrangements would probably be made.

Most local people interviewed the past week were of the opinion that the state would go wet—about one and one half to one—but the opinion as to how Callahan county would vote on local option was entirely a different matter. The general opinion seemed to be that Callahan would cling to the dry column, to which it has belonged for nearly two decades.

Straw Poll Shows City To Be Split On Liquor Issue

Replies received by the Review on a 'straw poll' run in last week's paper shows Cross Plains to be almost evenly divided upon the prohibition question, to be settled at the polls Saturday.

82 'straw votes' were received. 50 were wet and 32 dry but only 21 of those favoring repeal were qualified voters while 29 of the tee-tolars have poll tax receipts and will be qualified to cast a ballot Saturday.

More Important Than Beer

By Jack Scott

In the favor of the prohibition question to be settled at the polls Saturday, Texas voters may overlook the most important issue on the ballot; the proposed $20,000,000 relief bond issue.

Mere mention of a bond meets with general disfavor among the public, and nine times out of ten it rightly should. But the relief bond issue asked in Saturday's election is to relieve suffering humanity. If the measure is passed the federal government will aid 10,000, unemployed and distressed families throughout Texas the coming winter. The money will not be passed out like presents at a Christmas party but will be handled efficiently and for public benefit as was done last winter by the R.F.C.

Texas has been assured by federal authorities that unless the state votes the bond issue, to assist in the relief work, that no more federal monies will be forthcoming. Apparently Uncle Sam has adopted the policy of helping only those who help themselves—and it is wise that he has.

Using 1930 census figures as a working point, Callahan county's share of the load would be less than $38,000. And already probably three times that amount has been spent for relief in our midst by the federal government. It is time for Texas to attempt to help herself. Do we simply want to fall back and tell the federal government to feed and clothe our distressed citizens?

NO! Texas is ready—as always—to carry its end of the load. So when you go to the polls Saturday don't merely vote on the prohibition question and disregard the rest of the ballot. Take time to remember an unfortunate neighbor and consider how hard the winter may be for him and his family if there is no employment to be had. Don't overlook the fact that men will not stand back and see their children go hungry. If there is no work there will be crime. From a business standpoint—if not from a humane one—it will pay Texas voters to support the $20,000,000 relief bond issue at the polls Saturday.

The proposed State relief bond issue amendment to be voted upon on August 26 provides specifically that no levy may be made to retire such bonds as issued by the legislature against any real or personal property. It also provides that no commissions or profits may be paid to bond salesmen for marketing of the bonds.

Expenditures of the funds for unemployment relief under the proposed amendment, matched by funds from the federal government, will be under the direction of the Texas Rehabilitation and Relief Commission, a non-partisan body of seven outstanding Texans, of whom the governor appointed three, the lieutenant governor two, and the speaker of the house two.

If the entire amount of the bonds to be authorized under the amendment is issued the annual tax to retire the principal and interest would be less than 50 cents per capita per year. Federal funds for the relief of the Texas destitute unemployed for the months of July and August alone amounted to nearly $1 per capita, with additional funds promised if the State votes to carry a part of the burden.

They held a ski tournament at Brighton, Mich., the other day. Straw was used instead of snow.

Thursday, Oct. 12, which will be Columbus Day, will also be Cake Day at the State Fair of Texas.

Joe E. Brown Comedy
"Elmer The Great"
Will Show At Liberty

Followers of Joe E. Brown will see the versatile comedian in what is probably the greatest role of his long laugh-making career when his latest picture, "Elmer The Great", opens at the Liberty Theatre, today.

There is every reason why this hilarious comedy-drama of big league baseball should fit Joe E. Brown more perfectly than any role he has yet played. Joe's middle name should have been baseball, for if making millions laugh is his business, baseball is his hobby. In fact, it's been more than a hobby with Joe, for he was once a big league player himself. For several years he has maintained his own semi-professional team in Southern California, and recently he topped all his previous baseball activities by buying an interest in the Kansas City Blues baseball club.

Ring Lardner doubtless didn't have Joe E. Brown in mind when he wrote in dramatic form, the life story of Elmer Kane, as only Ring Lardner knows how to write it. But the role of the Gentryville, Indiana, boy who modestly admits that he is the greatest batter the world has ever seen couldn't fit Joe E. Brown more perfectly if he had been the playwright-humorist's official model.

How Elmer gets into jail, is liberated only to fall into a brand new disgrace and be ruled off the team on the eve of the World's Series games, and how he finally goes to bat and pulls the game out of the mud—literally as well as figuratively—is said to make one of the most uproariously funny pictures that the screen has seen this year.

A splendid cast of players seconds Joe E. Brown's fun-making efforts. Patricia Ellis is the girl with whom Joe is in love. Frank McHugh, able comedian in such outstanding hits as "One Way Passage," "Parachute Jumper," "Wax Museum," "Ex-Lady" and "Grand Slam," has the role of Joe's buddy. "High-Hips" Healy. Preston S. Foster is seen as the manager of the Chicago Club, and Claire Dodd, Berton Churchill, Emma Dunn and Sterling Holloway have other important roles.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Slaughter and little daughter Billy Frank, of Haynesville, Louisiana, visited her sister Mrs. M. G. Underwood here last week. They left for home Wednesday.

The family will see red if they don't get to see Brown in his latest pennant-winning picture of baseball and blondes which comes to the Liberty Theatre Friday and Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Spikes, of Temple, visited her aunt Mrs. M. G. Underwood here over the week end.

How Cardui
Helps Women

"Mal-nutrition" means that your body is not getting enough to keep it up, so that what it has to do is not done well. You may not be eating enough to keep up the work of the body, or there may be something wrong that keeps you from getting full value from the food you eat.

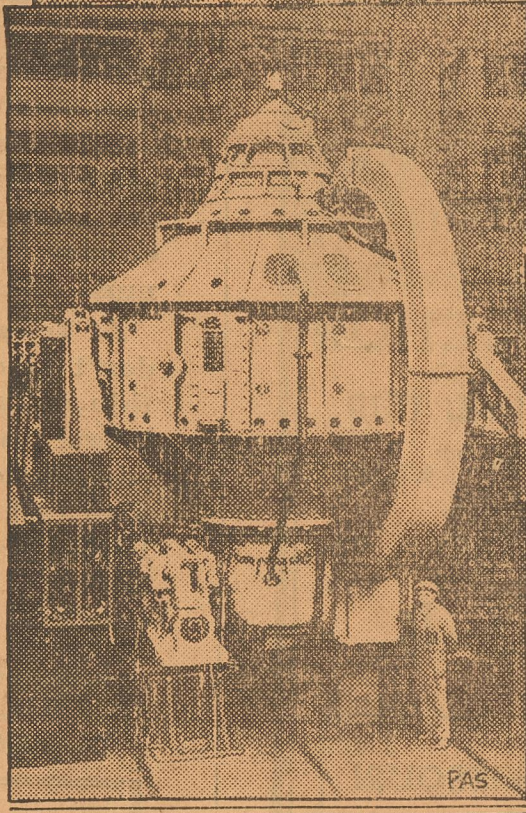

Because of mal-nutrition, some women have aches and pains every month. Such pains should not be neglected.

Take Cardui to give you a better appetite, to give you more strength from the food you eat—to build up and increase your feeling of well-being. Aches and pains go away as you build up with the help of Cardui.

Largest Gyro-Stabilized Mercantile Liner

The introduction of the Elmer Sperry Gyro-Stabilizer in the new-era 48,500 ton Conte di Savoia, Italian liner, due to arrive in New York on her maiden voyage, December 6, is pronounced one of the biggest innovations of the century in ship construction. Installed at the cost of $1,000,000 the three Sperry Gyros, an American invention, can generate a steadying force sufficient to keep the liner on even keel and offset the force of the worst hurricane. Photos show, above the Conte di Savoia, which averaged 29.4 knots over a two-way run of 9 hours each way on her trial trip and below: One of the Sperry Gyro-Stabilizers which keeps her from rolling in heavy seas.

PATHFINDER

—AND your dollar buys MORE right now than it may ever buy again. You can see that as well as we can.

As raw materials—cotton and rubber—go skyrocketing, tires are bound to go higher, too. The best advice is—"Don't wait." We offered that advice months ago, when Goodyear prices were scraping bottom. Many people who took it have thanked us; others say they will never get caught again.

So we repeat! BUY NOW—because Goodyears are STILL priced very low and they can't stay at these levels very long.

Today the best buy for the least money is the new Goodyear Pathfinder. For years "the quality tire within the reach of all," the Pathfinder is now stepped up in mileage, safety and good looks. It has FULL CENTER TRACTION—20% thicker non-skid tread—stouter body of Supertwist Cord, the cord that gives under road shocks, doesn't heat up, prevents blow-outs, stands hard knocks, runs out a full long life of trouble-free miles.

Be sure your new tubes are quality Goodyears, too.

County Superintendent S. E. Settle of Baird was in town on last Thursday. Mr. Settle is the superintendent-elect of the Cross Plains school for the ensuing term. He states that he will move to Cross Plains about the first of September, and be ready to begin work on Sept. 20, provided he has no slip in getting loose from his job as county superintendent.

END AGONY OF NEURITIS

Newark Man Knows How and Loses 10 Pounds

"Gentlemen: I used Kruschen Salts to try and get rid of Neuritis from which I had suffered for one year in my left shoulder and arm.—I took a little of the salts in the morning, sometimes in my coffee, other times in water. I would also occasionally take a dose in water at night before retiring. For 3 months I used the salts and while I lost 10 pounds in weight, the pain in my shoulder HAS ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED. During the time I was taking the salts I received no other medical treatment so I am fully convinced the Kruschen Salts did the trick." C. K. Murray, Newark, N. J.
Take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—a jar lasts 4 weeks—get it at any druggist in the world—costs but a trifle.
