

DRESSY

By Mrs. C. D. Baird

Friends of Mrs. Ed Odom, of Abilene, regret to hear of her critical illness in a Temple hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, of Abilene, visited Mr. and Mrs. Noah Johnson and family last week.

C. D. and Vernon Baird attended the ginners convention at Abilene last Thursday.

T. C. Thorn, of Paint Rock, visited his daughter Mrs. Flem Johnson Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Stacy spent last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jean Jeans in Rowden.

Pete Neeb carried a truck load of eggs to Fort Worth for Jim Miller Monday. Jim says he will not buy another cow. Several of us think we will join him in the solution.

We had no preaching Sunday as Rev. DeWitt Van Pelt was away in meeting, but we had good Sunday school attendance.

Mrs. Chapman and children, of Abilene, visited in the C. D. Baird home one day last week.

Weldon and Malcom Steele, of Cross Plains, were visitors in our community Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Neeb visited Anson the past week end.

Merlin Garrett, Donald Baird, and Harris, went to the Llano river fishing last week. The fish did not bite to suit them, so they decided to go down and see how Mexico is progressing. They returned home convinced that Texas is a better place in which to live even if it is dry and hot.

U.S.S. Houston Steaming Pacific With President

PANAMA, Canal Zone . . . Now out on the broad Pacific ocean aboard the U.S.S. Houston, President Roosevelt will not leave ship on his 10,000 mile vacation trip until they put in at Hawaiian Islands. . . . Come see the tire that's the talk of America!

Announced in April, it's going stronger than ever in August—this sensational new "G-3" Goodyear All-Weather. The word's out—spread by "G-3" users—that it's even better than we advertise. They say "43% more non-skid mileage" is too modest. They say its greater Center Traction grips so much better—stops cars so much quicker—there's no comparison with other tires. All of which is sweet music—and makes our sales zoom! Take a few minutes—come see what it's all about. You'll be well repaid!

WHEN YOU "G-3" YOUR WHEELS

CORN-HOG WORK DRAWS TO CLOSE IN CALLAHAN

The Corn-Hog allotment committee finished getting the names of the signers on the contracts Wednesday and sent them out for payment. With wheat, cotton, corn-hog, and cattle pouring new sources of revenue into the pockets of the farmers this fall and winter, this drought will not be felt nearly so severely as some have done in the past, authorities opine.

THE SMALL CITY ...

A Pacemaker of Progress

More and more the signs point to the greater importance of the small and medium-sized community.

We are proud of the part electric power is playing in laying the groundwork for this greater progress and prosperity.

Gone is the day when the larger metropolitan centers had a monopoly of power supply, the first essential of industrial growth and development

Widespread networks of transmission lines have given the smaller communities the same high-grade electric service as the larger cities have.

On this firm basis, industries are increasingly recognizing the advantages of location in small communities.

This trend will react most favorably to West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity"—efficiently, dependably and inexpensively served by the West Texas Utilities Company.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Our Opportunity Is Knocking

The state park South of Cross Plains is destined to become one of the most popular recreational spots in this section. Its popularity will mean much to Cross Plains if a few preparatory steps are taken by citizens of this Callahan county city right at this time.

A good all weather road, connecting the Bankhead—preferably at Putnam—would give tourist automobiles automobiles which pour down that great thoroughfare in a steady stream an opportunity to visit our state park, which will really be a thing of beauty. With an all weather road from Putnam to Cross Plains To State Park, hundreds of people who might otherwise never hear the name Cross Plains would visit this place.

The fact that Cross Plains is located nearer the state park than any other town or trading point is indeed significant. If the park becomes the vacation center that it will if properly advertised and boosted, Cross Plains will receive a major portion of the business from people who there. Tourists buy gasoline, oil, food, drugs, auto accessories, farm produce and etc. Think what this may mean to Cross Plains if the traffic is merely directed through here as it rightly should.

Here is a challenge to this little city's "get up and get", How will we accept this opportunity?

The Editor's Mail

My dear editor:
As you know the Governor has called the Legislature into special session to convene August 27, for the purpose of issuing the balance of unsold relief bonds. The amount of these unsold bonds is nine million, five hundred thousand dollars.

The Governor seems to favor issuing the entire amount at one time in order to adequately take care of the needy and distressed of our state. Now, as your Representative in the law making body I wish to ask to ask each and every citizen of the 107th floratorial district to advise me of his views on this important subjects, as it is my wish that I desire to carry out with my vote in the legislation his money belongs to the taxpayers of Texas and it is they who should pay it back in the future. Therefore, I feel that this question merits each citizen and tax payer expressing his conscientious opinion to his State Representative.

Assuring you that I shall ever be guided by your wishes in the future as I was in the past, I am,
Very truly yours,
Cecil A. Lotief,
State Representative.

A rain producing experiment to be made the latter part of the week in Ellis county, will be watched with much interest by the drouth-worried people of Texas. Arrangements have been made with a Dallas pilot to bombard the air and clouds, if any, over a certain farm in an effort to bring the badly needed moisture. 6,000 pounds of explosives are to be set off.

WHAT THE EDITOR THINKS

"The London Times Under the Management of Moberly Bell" by F. Harcourt Kitchen was mentioned last week. Kitchen worked with Bell for years on the Times.

The times under the Lord Northcliffe ownership and influence is most interesting. Northcliffe purchased the Times in 1908 and left the old staff in charge. He told the staff to run the newspaper as it saw fit with one exception—that is, the public must be warned of the German peril.

Northcliffe believe that Great Britain was in danger from Germany. Remember, that was in 1908 and the World War did not begin until 1914. Such long distance vision seems uncanny, and yet through those years Northcliffe was constantly attempting to arouse Great Britain to a policy of adequate defense.

Few persons would place the confidence in a man that Northcliffe did in Bell. When negotiations were under way to purchase the Times Northcliffe deposited $1,500,000 in Bell's name. There was no paper of any kind. The reason that Northcliffe did that was because Bell insisted on Times employes being adequately cared for. Bell asked for nothing for himself. Northcliffe said a man that unselfish could be trusted to the limit. And that trust was not misplaced in any way.

The Family DOCTOR
By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

Pain In Arthritis

"Doctor, I could get along—if it weren't for this terrible PAIN." So often we hear that—we doctors. If we could only alleviate the pain!

Now, let's talk sense. First, be sure that it is arthritis in your case. Your doctor can tell you. Second, you can never relieve pain in a joint by walking on it! Don't forget, please—never! The fat patient with arthritis suffers more; let's talk to the fat one.

If you want to relieve the pain, you will use REST and DIET first. Drugs come last. Ah, you had been trying every drug from aspirin to Sloan's; and you kept right on walking—and eating everything you can get hold of!

If you have arthritis, you are SICK, I tell you. Then be yourself. I'm talking for relief of pain, mind you—and I mean every word I say. Go to bed and stay there; keep off those sore joints, you fat woman with a case of early arthritis. Don't even go to the bathroom. Take your food lying down. That's REST.

Then, "starvation diet." You want to relieve pain, don't you? Here is your diet: Broth, Whole-wheat, Muffins, Tea or coffee without cream or sugar—for three days. Fourth day you may add lettuce—and "greens;" yes—spinach. Nothing more. You will be astonished at the result—freedom from pain. Remember, it is the recent case of arthritis that I am talking to. Remember—rest and diet first—drugs last. Rest in bed three weeks if necessary. When pain is gone, gradually—very gradually get back to your usual diet. And, remember—you can never get rid of pain in a joint by walking on it—especially in the knees, feet and ankles. Now I've said much here—but it means a lot as well.

open gate rushed more than 40,000 acre feet of water in excess of that which had been sold. Before the gate was closed, the dam had been drained of most of its stored water. At the start, the dam held about 65,000 acre feet. Just how much of this water was pumped from the river onto the fields is not known but it is certain that the rice growers utilized thousands of acre feet more than they had contracted to buy. Otherwise, it would have gone to waste as it flowed down the stream. Operators of the Brownwood dam have taken steps to prevent a recurrence of the unfortunate accident. They have under consideration a plan to replace the defective flood gate with one which cannot jam, or install smaller lighter gates that can more easily be controlled.

Local oddities:

The first postoffice advertisement ever carried in Texas appeared in the Cross Plains Review in the Christmas edition of 1933. The ad, which extended yuletide greetings was paid for by Postmaster I. H. Kendrick, Miss Moselle Swafford, Miss Agnes White, M. C. Baum and Marvin Smith.

Cross Plains, Texas, is located on virtually the same geographical latitude as: Morocco, Africa; Jerusalem; Nanking, China; and Tokyo, Japan.

Cross Plains first newspaper was called the Herald and the initial edition was issued January 22, 1902. J. D. Gaines edited the publication. It was from this paper that the Review later had it outgrowth.

The only nickname this city ever possessed for a very long time was "The Hub". Old timers referred to it thusly because the settlement—then on Turkey Creek—was the industrial center of these parts.
