CITY WINS LAKE SUIT

HOME TOWN GOSSIP

What well known, attractive, young Cross Plains couple took the fatal plunge at Eastland last week...

Congratulations anyway, Mr. and Mrs. The plaudits of the city are yours.

At last! we have heard of a man, who declares that he would not object to being elected Mayor.

Things are coming back.

Jesse McAdams is line for congratulations this week upon his opening of a Ford agency in Cross Plains.

Here's luck and best wishes to the new firm and its manager, who shall hereafter known as "Jitney Jess."

And speaking of congratulations, calls to mind that Dan Cupid is continuing to take his toll of hearts through the Winter months.

Power to all the newly weds and our proverbial blessing.

Sport lovers have a choice offering on this week's menu at the Cross Plains high school gymnasium...

Nine schools will be represented with fast, experience, well groomed teams. Competition looms especially keen in the girls division of the tournament.

In the boys class, however, it is almost a conceded fact that Cottonwood will take the laurels in a breeze.

On the editorial page of today's Review will be found four illustrated comic features...

Have-you-heard? S. E. Bond was once a hotel keeper; F. R. Anderson once bought a stock of shoes without examining the sizes...

James Walker was in Odessa last week in the employment of the Putnam Supply company.

Young Hartford, coming to New York in the late 1850's found himself in a position to buy a shipload of tea, thereby cutting out many expensive profits...

A & P OBSERVING "FOUNDERS WEEK"

A&P stores throughout the United States are this week observing a week of special sales, honoring the memory of George Huntington Hartford...

Young Hartford, coming to New York in the late 1850's found himself in a position to buy a shipload of tea, thereby cutting out many expensive profits...

Though many other concerns have adopted the methods instituted by Hartford, it remains for A&P to honor his memory with a special week when both employees and customers are reminded of the methods he instituted.

1934 BRINGS BUSINESS CHANGES

JESSE M'ADAMS TO OPEN FORD AGENCY IN BENTON BUILDING

First seven weeks of 1934 have brought a noticeable change to the business appearance of Cross Plains.

Jesse McAdams, of this place, has been awarded a Ford dealership contract and is having the Benton building, on Main Street, conditioned preparatory to opening.

"We plan to have a first class Ford dealership with every convenience such as financial backing for customers in buying automobiles...

Ed Morgan will be with the place—McAdams Motor Company—in the capacity as salesman, Miss Era Eager will be in the office and Ralph Chandler is expected to have charge of the mechanical department.

The Hi-Way Service Station, operated by Bill Lowe, manager, C. R. Cook and John Miller has moved into the Tate building on North Main Street.

T. D. Little has charge of the station formerly known as the Hi-Way Service Station. He has installed a line of independent gasolines and oils, and changed the name of the place to Hi-Tower Service Station.

Ed Morgan was abroad Thursday that other changes might be made in at least two more filling stations within the near future...

In the clerking personnel of the various stores here, there are also a number of changes since the first of January. Mack Underwood is now in the dry goods department at Higginbothams replacing C. F. Hemphill...

R. Elliott Bryant, manager of his father's interests here informs the Review that it may be necessary for him to move to Cisco, where he has been made manager of the Canyon Oil and Gas Company refinery.

Carpenters were at work Thursday on the building owned by Tom Bryant on South Main Street, remodeling the structure to make a filling station for Can-ico products...

James Walker was in Odessa last week in the employment of the Putnam Supply company.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McAdams and baby of Rising Star visited here Tuesday.

Mrs. C. A. Lotief has as guest her mother, Mrs. Joseph, of Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders left here shortly before eight o'clock to drive to Brownwood. At Rising Star they stopped at a filling station to have their car serviced.

The body was returned to Cross Plains in a Higginbotham ambulance and now is resting in state at the Saunders home in the South part of town.

Surviving are his wife and two daughters—Mrs. Henry Smith, of California, and Mrs. Faye Purcell, of this place.

Mr. Saunders had been a blacksmith here for a number of years and prior to coming to Cross Plains was engaged in the same work at Burkett. He was well known throughout this section.

INSPECTORS NAMED FOR THIS AREA BY COLEMAN LOAN BODY

Announcement is made this week by W. E. Melton, secretary of the Coleman Production Credit Association, that inspectors have been appointed for this trade territory and that everything is now in readiness for the organization to begin extending credit.

Mr. Melton's letter to the Review follows.

"Ross J. Newton has been appointed Inspector for Brown County and his appointment has been confirmed by federal authorities. R. L. Chapman, of Blanket, has also been appointed an Inspector for Brown County.

"Application writers will be assigned to Cross-Cut, Cottonwood, Burkett and Dressy, within the very near future. Paul V. Harrell, of Cross Plains, has been elected for this position and will possibly be confirmed by the Houston office within the next few days.

"The Coleman Production Credit Association is starting off very nicely, save for the fact that a number of prospective borrowers are confusing this organization with the 'Feed and Seed' loans. They naturally think there should be some consideration given as to their crop. As a matter of fact, their crop is counted only as a means by which to repay the loan when it is made, on the basis of their collateral."

Armory Quintet Cops Basket Ball Tourney

Coleman National Guard basket ball team became the winner of the first invitation Cross Plains basket ball tournament for commercial teams Saturday night, when they defeated Rising Star in the final game 34 to 24.

The tournament was marked by large attendance and exceptionally close games.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wittmer and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott were Coleman visitors Monday night.

Nat Williams was in Eastland Thursday afternoon.

The ruling before the Supreme Court effecting the case—J. M. Radford estate etal v.s. the City of Cross Plains—was made on the basis of a similar case recently heard concerning the city of Dayton, Texas.

Mr. Scarborough told the Review in the telephone interview that there was no appeal from the victory given the city of Cross Plains, unless the case of Dayton, Texas, was first appealed.

S. M. Buatt, Receiver for the city of Cross Plains, was in Abilene Wednesday afternoon and conferred with Mr. Scarborough. He told the Review upon returning that if there should be an appeal to the United States Supreme Court—and he had reason to believe there would not be—the expense would have to be borne by the plaintiff and not the city of Cross Plains.

Mr. Buatt, when asked how he felt the winning the suit would effect the future of Cross Plains, opined that it was a great burden lifted and stated, "I am very optimistic about the future, now".

COTTONWOOD WOMAN INTERRED THURSDAY IN CEMETERY THERE

Mrs. Nancy Jane Breeding, 92, was laid to final rest in the Cottonwood cemetery Thursday afternoon. Funeral services were held from the Baptist church, of that place, with the Rev. Ross Respass, pastor, officiating.

VALUE OF THE NEWSPAPER TO THE FARMER

By Vida Armstrong There are many reasons why a farmer should take newspapers. Reading a newspaper is a good way to spend his leisure time.

daily paper, a good magazine, and a local paper.)

The markets in the newspapers are very helpful to the farmer. He can find out the prices of anything he might have to sell.

If he has anything to sell or trade he can put an advertisement in the newspaper. If he wants anything, he can read the advertisements and probably get it by trading or buying it.

Here are some jokes, And a few wise pokes. But be they so few, They're guaranteed to be true

"John, you think more of that old radio than you do of me."

First sailor—This butter is so strong it could walk over and say bells to the coffee.

Second sailor—Yes and the coffee is too weak to answer.

John—"It is said that importance people have black eyes"

Mary—"Well, if they don't have them they are apt to get them."

Wife—"Are all men as striped as you are?"

Husband—"No dear; look at all the bachelors there are."

Did I step on your foot asked a fat man as he crowded into a seat at the movies next to a pretty girl.

"It was either you or an elephant, said the victim."

To The Voters Of Callahan County

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for re-election to the office of County Judge of Callahan County, subject to the Democratic primaries.

Many of my friends have solicited me to make the race, else I would not run for a third term. I don't feel like the people of Callahan County owe me anything you have surely treated me good; elected me every time I have asked for office, and I appreciate it to the fullest.

The last four years have been hard financially to handle. My aim, is to do as much good for the people of Callahan County financially and otherwise as I can.

Respectfully, J. H. CARPENTER

O.E.S. CHAPTER NOTICE

GOVERNMENT MAKES CORN-HOG OFFER TO DIVERSIFIERS

To the cotton farmer who has already reduced his cotton acreage by diversifying with other crops and livestock in previous years, and who feels the Government cotton program is unfair to him, the corn-hog contract may offer interesting possibilities, says Ross B. Jenkins, county agent.

Suppose a farmer changed from an all-cotton farm system to half cotton and half feed a few years ago. He milks cows and feeds hogs and raises chickens for a steady year 'round living, and takes his cotton money in the fall for paying the bigger bills.

In many such instances it works out that the diversified farmer may sign a corn-hog contract to reduce corn acreage or hog production or both, and receive Government benefit checks that will total just as much or even more than those received by the all-cotton farmer.

The corn-hog contract is open to every farmer in the county who produces a surplus of either corn or hogs and who can otherwise qualify, the county agent points out.

be eligible to sign these contracts should investigate the plan, he suggests.

Those in the vicinity of Cross Plains may sign with O. D. Strahan or George Clifton or at the Court house at any time.

C. A. LOTIEF GIVES REPORT OF SPECIAL SESSION IN AUSTIN

By Cecil A. Lotief Representative 107th District As your State Representative, I wish to make a brief statement in regard to this Special Session.

Too Many Lobbyists The same old crowd who represents the special interests are here again with their whiskey and good foods, trying to defeat the will of the masses, as usual;

No Man Can Serve 2 Masters I shall favor a law on our statutes to prohibit the members of our Legislature from accepting retainer fees from or even representing any special interest or public service corporation while serving the public.

I subscribe to the Biblical doctrine that "Ye can not serve two masters" and that "Where a man's treasure is there will be his heart also."

If there are any in either Eastland or Callahan Counties who desire to be appointed Notaries Public, I shall be glad to secure their appointment.

If I can be of any service to each and every one of you, please let me hear from you.

The Last Round-up

By Norris Chambers

Yes, the schools are heading for the last round-up, so you say; most of them have cut down the teaching body, and their terms have been immensely shortened.

One thing that has caused this is the little item commonly known as a report card—this little token of ill-thought is handed out with the false intention of informing the parents of the child's work in school.

In the last Literary Digest, I noticed an article telling about the schools of Newton, Massachusetts. There, they have done away with the report card, and in order to let the parents know how their children are progressing, they send a nice, cordial letter twice each term.

And this is a just system, for here is a child who is bright and intelligent, and finds no difficulty in doing what the teacher asks; on the other hand, little Tommie over here studies and does his best, but all he can make is a C.

Then as much as a little boy who tries hard, but has to acknowledge defeat, there is another little boy who never tries, never knows anything about his lesson, and he receives an A while the former receives a D.

And the conduct grade is another

Mail Order Bank Has Lost Advantage

Postal savings may have once been a very good place to deposit money but now with virtually every bank in the nation under the Federal Insurance Deposit plan, the advantage (if any) of the 'mail order' bank is removed.

Figures revealed by government authorities disclose that the following towns in this area have the amounts listed here—under deposited in postal savings:

- Cross Plains—66 Depositors $28,487.
Coleman—202 Depositors $67,353.
Baird—40 Depositors $8,961.
Rising Star—72 Depositors, $37,058.

While Cross Plains does not have as much potential laboring capital lodged in postal savings as many other towns of equal size, it is worth considering how much more beneficial our bank might be if $28,487. were added to its deposits, and its loaning ability necessary increased thereby.

Today no depositor has a lose money in a bank under the Federal Insurance Deposit plan—and the Citizens State Bank of this place has that affiliations. So, why not tell us all get in behind our bank and make it the best in West Central Texas.

This editorial is not written with the thought of personal gain, for the writer owns not a share of bank stock, but is merely interested in the growth and development of Cross Plains.

About City's Fire Record For 1933

Official figures disclose that Cross Plains passed the year of 1933 without a single insured fire loss. Such a record is to envied by every city in Texas, and those responsible for the achievement are entitled to the plaudits of our entire citizenship.

Regular inspections of fire hazards by Fire Marshall John Westerman and consistent clean-up orders by Mayor S. P. Collins are in a measure responsible for the perfect fire record. The unified cooperation of citizens was also of unmeasurable importance.

Why not let us all of unmeasurable importance.

Why not let us all work together during 1934 and do our utmost to gain back the low rate for fire insurance that was ours a few years back.

PROTECTIVES

Every important organ within your body has its own protective covering. The heart has the "pericardium," a sac or bag in which it swings rhythmically without friction.

The lung-structure from the chest-wall—a very necessary protection.

Then, the "capsule," of the liver—and of the kidneys. Too, the "peritoneum," enclosing the bowel—and so on. Inflammation of any of these envelopes is a serious condition. Pericarditis, pleuritis, —all are very serious conditions, requiring the kill of your best physicians. To hire a "rubbing doctor" here, might cost one his life.

Last of all, I want to mention the meninges—coverings of the brain and spinal cord. Both encased in strong, bony structure for protection, are covered with the meninges for greater protection. Meningitis—and peritonitis are among our most dangerous diseases, as any doctor will tell you.

Inflammation of the meninges—meningitis—gives us "sleeping-sickness", now threatening our country, mostly in the large cities. People get worn down by privations or excesses and are stricken.

Watch your step these trying times. Get plenty of sleep; do not eat too much, especially for supper; refrain from worry as much as possible. The covering of the brain is not much thicker than this sheet of paper. But when inflamed, this membrane is a death-dealing conflagration—I dread to encounter meningitis—and peritonitis, I believe, more than any other afflictions of the race.

NEW YORK

We're very much in favor of the possible development recently announced by a professor who says that he can fix a radio so that the minute a radio announcer starts talking about what kind of eye-wash you ought to use, the radio will automatically shut off.

That new little villain of New York the vampire bat mentioned in this column some weeks ago, gave birth to a baby villain and departed this life—much to the regret of Dr. Raymond L. Ditmars of the Bronx Zoo.

Dr. Ditmars had captured the vampire Panama after exceptional difficulties, bringing it here to study in the hope of discovering some means of combatting disease spread by the bat among tropical animals. And now all that remains of his labor is a film of several hundred feet depicting hitherto unknown habits of the bat—for the baby died three days after his mother!

Twenty Columbia professors and their wives are carrying on an interesting experiment in community living here. Four floors and roof of an apartment house are devoted to the families, divided into apartments of from two and a half to five rooms. Applying the division of labor system of modern industry, the mothers of children work on a "rotating service schedule" supervising the play of all the children. In this way each mother spends two days a week with the children, leaving the rest of the days free for uninterrupted work or leisure—A "nap room" and "night nursery" are provided, as well as a bad weather play room and the regular play roof with "climb-proof fence."

Those marble mansions still shuttered and unoccupied except by servants are ample testimony to the fact evidenced when the Social Register was issued showing so many winter addresses the same as the summer. There's the Payne Whitney white mansion at 972 Fifth Avenue; the M Hartley Dodge home at Fifth and Sixty-first; the Duke mansion at 1 E. 78th and many another unoccupied town house. Unoccupied because the owners prefer their homes on Long Island, their amazing farms in New Jersey or their mansions on the upper stretches of the Hudson—Evenings are quiet in those fashionable upper East Side streets this season.

If there is any doubt that racketeers have been hard hit by repeal, the experience of insurance companies in New York is ample evidence. More and more insurance for "goods in transit" is being taken out on such
