Congratulations, Baird!

By Jack Scott

A fellow who has stood by and seen an old friend make off with his best girl can appreciate the feeling that is in the hearts today of those who love Cross Plains schools and the begin Monday and continue man who has been chiefly responsible for their wide improvement during the past nine years.

Our sister city of Baird has chosen Nat Williams, Cross through April 24. The move-Plains superintendent, to head the school system at the ment is under sponsorship of county seat. As much as we regret the loss of this outstanding educator, brilliant leader and splendid citizen, we doff our hat in warmest congratulations to the city of day night with 20 musicians
