Now that Christmas is over and we are nearing to close of another year we need to look back on the hasn't been sunshine and roses, but we are thankful, for it could have been lots worse with us.

Lets be optimist instead of pes simist. With all these rains and snow we are looking forward to a good start with our farming for 1938.

Never made much money on our farming this year but have a few clothes. We've gathered up during the year, a few dozen cans of vegetables stored away, a patch of "garden sass," So as long as we have good health and the Japs and Chinamen do their fighting across the Pacific Ocean from us, we are not worrying much.
