Apple Tree Spray

Olin English, who farms down near Rowden, has decided to spray his apple trees this year. While visiting on the English farm last week it was found that his apple trees were covered with a worm that was building white silken tents in the forks of limbs of the trees. Some people call these worms tent caterpillars and others call them web worms. The main thing that most people want to know about this worm is how to keep it from eating all the leaves off of their trees.

Where a complete spraying schedule is followed there is usually no damage from this type of worm injury. Here is the schedule:

When the blossom petals have dropped: Spray with 3 pounds of wettable sulphur, one and one-half pounds of arsenate of lead to 50 gallons of water. Ten days after the first spray: Same as number one spray. Around July 1 to 15: Spray with Bordeaux mixture made up of 4 pounds of copper sulphate, 6 pounds hydrated lime to 50 gallons of water and add one and one-half pounds of lead arsenate.

If aphids are a problem add 1/2 pint of blackleaf 40 and 2 pounds lime to the first spray mixture only.

When the above spraying schedule is followed you will also get a good control on scab, codling moth, and bitter rot.

DDT

The Food and Drug Administration has not prohibited the use of DDT in spraying dairy cattle and barns. The Federal Food and Drug and Cosmetic Act requires the Food and Drug Administration to insure that the food supply of the American people does not contain any poisonous or deleterious substance that is not necessary in the production of the food. Studies by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine have shown that DDT when used on dairy cattle or when present on fodder fed to dairy cattle may appear in the milk. They also say that DDT in small quantities can be detected in milk following ordinary use of the insecticide for fly control in dairy barns. Because of the vital importance of milk in the diet of infants, children and people of all ages, it is essential that proper precautions be taken to protect the milk supply. Modifications of the recommendations made by the Department of Agriculture on the use of DDT on dairy cattle were made merely as a precautionary measure.

There is no justification for public alarm as to the safety of the milk supply from the standpoint of DDT contamination.

Statements that DDT is responsible for causing the so called "virus X disease of man and X" disease" of cattle are totally without foundation. Both of these diseases were recognized before the use of DDT as an insecticide.

Mexico Waging War With Cattle Thieves

Mexico City — Angry ranchers are oiling their shooting irons against Mexico's last frontier the great mountain ranges, in what they promise will be a showdown with tough, well-trained bands of cattle thieves.

Marauding outlaws have been sweeping down like locusts out of the lonely mountains, cutting thousands of cattle out of the vast herds which supply most of Mexico's meat.

The governor of Guanajuato ordered "war without quarter" against the bands in his state. He announced a well co-ordinated plan in full cooperation with military units for the stamping out of the outlaws.

Fines for cattle thieving went up to $10,000. Penalties were raised to 10 years in prison.

But the probable end for a lot of the bandits, in the best wild west fashion, will be a bullet between the eyes and a wooden coffin.

In the hot, rough sierras of Guerrero State to the south, officials discussed war plans against "Los Chiveros"—the goat headers—a "perfectly-organized band of 30 outlaws, who have raided and terrorized the state for years.

The "Chiveros" once run by a picture-book mustached bandit named Concepcion Marquez lived as nomads in the remote passes of the Guerrero mountains. They have families, and move with a herd of several thousand animals, all stolen, informed sources said.

Led by their current leader, a renegade army lieutenant, they attacked and defeated an army platoon last month, killing several soldiers.

"Up in those hills," a Mexico City official said, "one man can hold off a thousand. And those boys know their country as well as they know their guns."

State officials are now distributing guns and ammunition to small county seats to step up the fight against the band.

The campaign against the "Chiveros" is temporarily being held up for peace negotiations, it was learned. Officials believe a good many lives can be saved if the outlaws will give up their depredations peacefully.

No one really expects the band, which carries the price of the murder of several travelers and soldiers on its head to give up that easily. But its days are numbered. The joint Mexican-American commission fighting the hoof and mouth disease is ready to move up the region, north of the southernmost quarantine line, to begin vaccinating cattle.

With the commission, which already has a casualty list of nine Mexicans and Americans murdered in the performance of duty goes the Mexican army.

President Miguel Aleman told United Press the commission will have "all the army protection it deems necessary."

Ex-Bell Countains In Reunion Sunday Near Buffalo Gap

Ex-Bell County residents from all over West Central Texas will gather at the Buffalo Gap encampment grounds in the southern part of Taylor County, Sunday, May 15, for the sixth annual reunion and picnic of the association.

Back in 1940 the reunion was thought up by a little group of ex-Bell countains who foresaw the pleasure that might be realized at such a gathering when they might meet old friends and exchange reminiscences of earlier days in Bell county. The late Judge James P. Clinton of Abilene was a moving spirit in launching the organization.

Early arrivals generally reach the grounds by 10 a.m. for the all-day affair, which includes a basket picnic lunch spread at noon. The day's program will be entirely informal.

142 Cases Of Polio Reported In Texas

During the first seventeen weeks of 1948 there were only 55 cases of poliomyelitis reported to the State Health Department, while in this same period for 1949, there have been 142 cases reported from different sections of the state, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Seven cases were reported in the past week, with three from one county.

"Poliomyelitis is one of the most dreaded of all diseases", Dr. Cox said, "and justly so. It is more often a crippler than a killer, but in either case it takes a heavy toll among young Texas citizens, and is a health menace against which our children should be carefully guarded."

Immaculate cleanliness of person and homes is urged as a precautionary measure against polio, and community hygiene assumes a place of major importance when the disease makes its appearance. Clean communities, clean homes, and strict personal hygiene all play a part in helping to prevent the spread of diseases, and Dr. Cox advises close inspection of home screens for keeping out flies, and unremitting efforts in rodent control, and the extermination of roaches.

"Until it is definitely understood just how polio is transmitted, it is well to guard against all household pests and eliminate all insanitary conditions", Dr. Cox said. "We do not know with certainty how polio may be spread, and filth, which affords a breeding place for germs, should not be tolerated."

New Model Bean Is Making Appearance In Texas Gardens

COLLEGE STATION—What is a home garden without beans, asks J. P. Rosborough, extension horticulturist of Texas A&M College.

It isn't too late to plant the green bush beans. The Giant Stringless Green Pod variety is standard among home gardeners. A new kind called Logan is the latest model in beans. This variety is outstanding in quality, and is recommended for use as a fresh vegetable, or for freezing or canning, Rosborough says.

It's a little early for the pole bean varieties right now. And a point to remember about the pole beans is that these plants must be set out further apart in the row because they grow larger than the bush types. Kentucky Wonder is standard in the pole varieties, but the Blue Lake is higher in quality and yields as well as the Kentucky Wonder.

As for the lima beans, the Henderson Bush or Fordhook are good bush types, says Rosborough. The Silva and Florida Speckled are excellent pole types. The Silva is a white bean, while the Florida Speckled is a brown mottled type.

In east Texas, the Florida Speckled seems to do best, while in the damp Gulf Coastal area the Silva is preferred, he concludes.

Men Believe Women Should Serve On Juries In This State

By Joe Belden
Director, The Texas Poll
AUSTIN, Texas, April 30—Ladies the men have changed their minds. Before the war, the weight of opinion among Texas men was that women should not serve on juries. Now two out of every three think it is all right.

The Texas Poll measured public opinion on this question once before the war, in March 1941, and twice after the war. Here is how comparable cross sections of adults—men and women combined—voted each time:

	1941	1947	Now
Should	50%	65%	64%
Should not	42	27	28
No opinion	8	8	8
	100%	100%	100%

In each survey, about two-thirds of the women voted in favor of jury service for themselves. Only in recent years, however, have the men come around. In 1941, less than half of the men approved of the idea. In 1947, men voted 64 per cent in favor. In the latest survey, they have given their greatest approval to date—66 per cent.

Texas is now one of seventeen states that do not permit women on juries. A change in the State Constitution to remove the disqualification has been proposed by the Texas Senate. If adopted by the House, the proposal will be voted on by the people.

There is evidence that public opinion on jury service for women has been shifting in other states besides Texas. In 1941, a total of twenty three states disqualified women from juries.

Analysis of The Texas Poll results indicates that the highest approval comes from the younger age brackets, the upper educational levels, and the upper socio-economic groups.

High Blood Pressure

HARDENING OF ARTERIES, PAINS IN LEFT ARM AND SIDE—

Ekmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes on Feb. 20, 1948: "Please send another bottle of Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Mass.

"I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of garlic used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson of San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerably. This Garlic works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for the benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure." Hundreds of other testimonials of similar nature.

NEW CROP PEANUT LOSSES AND WEAKER SEED PRICES REPORTED

The loss of some South Texas peanut fields due to wet weather, and the lower tendency on seed prices were the chief developments at southwest peanut markets this week, reports the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Nearly all of the country's leading peanut producing areas as well as South Texas were plagued last week with too much rain, but only Texas reported losses.

Some sales of seed peanuts were as low as 19 cents per pound this week in the southwest. However, most stock moved around 20 cents.

Too few sales of farmers' stock peanuts sold in any area to establish a market. Shelled goods market held steady. Occasional sales in the southwest were made at 17 1/2 to 17 3/4 cents per pound for No.

1 Spanish. Offerings of peanut meal and oil were moderate. The market was a shade weaker for meal but slightly stronger for oil.

Mrs. A. J. Mathis visited relatives in Hamilton last week.

Daniel McClure Is Champ Pig Raiser Among 4-H Youths

By County Agent O. F. Werst
Four Callahan County 4-H Club boys have just completed some very outstanding demonstrations in raising pigs. These boys were in a contest to see which boy could raise the heaviest litter of pigs when the pigs were 56 days old. All the boys started out with a gilt. They raised the gilt, all bred their gilt to the same boar, and have now raised a litter of pigs to weaning age.
Daniel McClure of the Eula 4-H club had the largest litter and heaviest litter in the county. He had 10 pigs that weighed a total of 437 pounds. This was an average of 43.7 pounds per pig. The heaviest pig in this litter weighed 53 pounds and the lightest weighed 34 pounds.
Billy Hicks of the Clyde 4-H club had the second largest litter in the county. His nine pigs weighed a total of 364 pounds or an average of 40 and 4/9 pounds per pig. The heaviest pig in his litter was 48 pounds and the lightest was 32 pounds.
Dale Crawford of the Oplin 4-H club had only six pigs but they were third in the weight contest. These six pigs weighed a total of 328 pounds. This was an average of 54.66 pounds per pig. If the contest was based on average weight he would have won the contest easily. Dale's heaviest pig was 62 pounds and the lightest pig was 45 pounds.
Robert Collins of the Clyde 4-H club had 7 pigs that weighed a total of 275 pounds or an average of 39 and 2/7 pounds per pig. His heaviest pig was 45 pounds and the lightest was 36 pounds.
