Bill Reed, pastor of the local church, invited the community to come and share in this expression of friendship and community unity.

3 Local Ladies Pass State L.V.N. Exams

Three Cross Plains residents learned last week that they had passed state examinations preparatory to becoming Licensed Vocational Nurses.

They are Cindy Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Purvis; Sharon Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dillard, and Vicki Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Goble.

They took the test last October in Austin after completing schooling through Cisco Junior College.

Christmas Program Set Here On Thursday Night

Many Cross Plains businesses will remain open until 9 p.m. Thursday for convenience of yuletide shoppers who will be in town to hear the Christmas program planned that night.

The event, which hopefully will become an annual event, is actually a revival of a similar project which was held here in the 1950's and was a huge success. Many years have passed since the last such event was held here.

Although not all local businesses can participate due to various reasons, many will keep doors open until 9 p.m., and some will give prizes at drawings.

A program will be staged on 8th Street in the block west of Main Street, between Citizens State Bank and Hornsby Electric Co. That portion of the event will begin at 6 p.m., according to Susan McNeel, who has hastily put together a fine bill. Included on the program will be Girl Scouts singing children's Christmas songs. One or more school bands will perform, depending upon conflict from an area basketball tournament.

Santa Claus has scheduled a visit with his little friends in Cross Plains, and he is supposed to arrive on a fire truck.

The Rev. Bill Reed, pastor of the First United Methodist Church here, will present a puppet show. Choirs or groups from within choirs of the Cottonwood Baptist Church, Cross Plains United Methodist Church and First Baptist Church in Cross Plains will sing.

Cross Plains Boy Scout troop under leadership of Darlene

Pirtle will read "Twas the Night Before Christmas" and "The Christmas Story."

Mike Kelley, local pastor and businessman, will play the guitar and sing Christmas seasonal songs.

Mrs. Sandy Wheeler of Cottonwood will hold a sing-along during the program.

At least five local businesses will hold drawings on Thursday for prizes, and most have already begun registering for those gifts. They are Lane's Variety; Western Auto Store, three drawings; Cross Plains Discount, two prizes and drawings; Mayes Flowers and Country Time Rags. Other local businesses may also be planning drawings which had not been learned of Tuesday as the Review went to press.

At least three local clubs are planning booths on the sidewalk Thursday evening and night. They are the Buffalo Band Boosters Club, Cross Plains Paint & Palette Club and the Beta Sigma Phi.

37 Attend Garden Club's Christmas Dinner Friday

Cross Plains Garden Club met for its traditional Christmas Guest Dinner at the Garden Center Friday, Dec. 8, at 7 p.m. at the Garden Center.

"Innovation for the Joys of Christmas" was the topic for the meeting. Thirty-seven members and guests were present for the gala occasion.

Banquet tables were beautifully decorated with cedar, Christmas balls of red and gold and red candles. Other areas were festively decorated.

Mrs. O. W. Webb, club president, gave the welcome. Invocation was given by W. G. McCoy.

A bountiful Christmas dinner was served.

Mrs. J. P. McCord presented the program, "Joy to the World" and "The First Noel" were sung by the assembly. The Christmas Story, Luke 2:1-20, was read by Mrs. W. G. McCoy.

Special music was "Ring the Bells" and "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" by Sarah McCowen, Hazel Marsh, Exa McCord, Doyle Burchfield and J. P. McCord and "Christmas Hymn" by Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. McCowen, Vera Pearl Bunnell and Mrs. McCord. The assembly

Library Is Planning Opening In January

New carpeting has been installed in the library quarters on Main Street in Cross Plains. Materials have arrived necessary for cataloging books.

A library spokesman stated that it is hoped that the library will be operational by mid-January.

Items still needed are two library tables, about eight straight chairs and a checkout desk.

A children's section is being planned by Mrs. Richard Purvis and Mrs. Kenneth Sowell. Shelves are being built by Betty Browning.

Donors to the general fund this week were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Edington $15 and Mr. and Mrs. George Friend of Denver, Colo. $10.

Magazines were received from Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson of Stonewall, Texas and books from Mrs. Marilyn Buffington, CPISD counselor from Baird.

Lakewood Christmas Dinner Set Saturday

A covered dish "Christmas dinner" is scheduled to be held at Lakewood Recreation Saturday, Dec. 16, at the clubhouse. Starting time is 6:30 p.m.

It was explained that all members and their families are invited to attend the annual yuletide activity. It was also pointed out that persons interested in becoming associated with the recreation center are invited.

Phone 725-6234 to report fire in Cross Plains.

Cottonwood Musical, Yule Party Slated

The regular monthly musical and a Christmas social will be held at the Cottonwood Community Center Friday night, Dec. 15. Everyone is invited, a spokesman stated.

Cottonwood Quilting Club ladies will have on sale sandwiches, pie, drinks, as usual, and Christmas goodies.

It was noted that country-western music will begin about 6:30 to 7 p.m. There is no admission charge. Door will open about 5:30 p.m.

The quilting club ladies spokesman wished everyone a Merry Christmas and a happy new year, but was not sure if Santa would make an appearance at the musical.

has been selected to appear in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Esther McDaniel of McAdoo, formerly of Cross Plains. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ames of this city are her grandparents.

Miss McDaniel is editorial assistant of "The Presbyterian," regional Presbyterian monthly newspaper; Alpha Chi vice-president, general scholarship organization for upperclassmen; president and secretary of TWU Chapter of Women in Communications, Inc., a member of Press Club; and has been managing editor, make-up editor, and business manager of the Daily Lass-O, campus newspaper.

She was a Texas Daily Newspaper Association summer intern for the Corpus Christi Caller-Times and has won the Editor's Award for Best Reporter and Outstanding Research Writing. She won Best Feature Article competition at the Southwestern Journalism Congress.

She played the role of Millie in Denton Community Theater's production of "Picnic."

School Trustees Set Meeting On Thursday

Cross Plains Independent School District Board of Trustees will meet in regular session Thursday, Dec. 14, starting at 7 p.m. in the Home Economics Laboratory in the elementary school building.

The agenda was released as follows: prayer; minutes; bills; audit report, Henry Colyer; report on Special Education Building, Vernal King, director; report on farm auction and agriculture teachers; tax report, Peggy Dickson, McCreary/Huey; tax suit progress; band budget; nutrition for the elderly; ground maintenance problems; personnel (executive session); and confirm librarian employment.

It was explained by Superintendent Scot H. Edington and Joe E. Hanke, Jr. that the public is invited to attend any board meeting.

8 Local Concerns Pledge $1,200 On New Scoreboard

Eight Cross Plains businesses have pledged $150 each to purchase a new clock and scoreboard for Buffalo Gymnasium.

Superintendent Scot H. Edington stated this week, "We can't say enough about the generosity of these local concerns in thanking them for the unselfish gesture."

Edington listed the donors as Johnson's Dry Goods, McNeel Insurance Agency, Citizens State Bank, Johnston Truck & Supply, Neal Drug, Bishop Chevrolet Co., Higginbotham's and Cross Plains Discount.

It was pointed out by Edington that the old clock has been a point of frustration for the past season or two. "We had it worked on six times last year, and already have had it serviced four times this young season," he continued. It caused trouble in the recent tournament here.

The clock-scoreboard will cost about $1,200, Edington pointed out, and will be put in place as quickly as possible. "It will have places for names of the donors," the superintendent said.

"Again we thank those local firms who supported the drive," and provided the means to solve at least one problem facing the Cross Plains School System.

Pioneer Area News Topics

By Mrs. A. C. Halsell

Behold the morning star! (When there are no clouds.) So very bright, it casts a light into the darkness of the pre-dawn. It appears to be the light of a waning moon. But there is no moon, on this particular morning. I gazed upon the radiance of this wonderful phenomena of the sky and I think, "That is an unusually bright morning star." Then I think maybe it is shining more brightly to remind us of the star that guided the Magi and the shepherds to the place of the Advent of Him, who is the Prince of Peace. As it was then, maybe that bright morning star we see these mornings, is pointing this troubled world to the only source of peace; to Him who reaches out, even woos His people, to embrace the only true peace, Himself. May this PEACE be yours this Christmas season and throughout the New Year!

I've just returned from the house warming for Jim and Charlene Fleming. Many friends and relatives gathered in this beautiful and unique brick home Sunday afternoon. It was a "come and go tea," but to be there and to observe the lingering group of people who were reluctant to "go" as they milled around visiting, going from room to room, then being served refreshments, and sitting a while. You'd think it was a seated Tea. The obliquely arranged paneling in the den was the handiwork of Dale Mitchell, who contributed other ideas, such as a recessed nook in the sewing room, into which a combination cutting table and storage compartment, fit perfectly. The sewing room seemed to invite a sewing binge or a determination to learn to sew. The beautiful brick fireplace, in which a wood fire was burning, furnished the cozy warmth for the cold afternoon. Jim and Charlene, with the help of his parents, did much work on the interior. Several gifts, including a money tree, were received.

Enjoyed talking to Gladys Sessums. We shared a common subject, making and stuffing dolls and animals, making pillows for our grandchildren. Their only visitor this cold week was Mrs. Nell Fleming on Thursday.

Even though we have had extremely cold weather, several friends dropped in to visit Mrs. Ethel Brown and wish her a complete recovery from a few health problems she still has. They were Velma Brown, Ida Gray and Alan Lewis of Cross Plains, Mrs. Opal Dean, Mrs. Cleo White and Lou Grider.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harris have had a few callers. They were Daney Ratliff and wife, Elaine Ratliff, Drucilla Eppard, Winnie Flippin and granddaughter, Freda, and Regie Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Norris attended the singing given in the home of Betty Browning, on Friday evening. Previous to singing at Betty's home, this group sang at the rest home in Cross Plains.

Mrs. Hiram Foster announces a chili supper at the clubhouse on Thursday evening, Dec. 14. This will be their last meeting until the New Year, when the club will meet on first Tuesday of January. About twenty-seven people were present for their Christmas party last Tuesday. Mrs. Foster reports a very happy occasion with Old Santa, himself, making an appearance.

Mrs. Truett Parson returned her grandsons, Warren and Travis, home Sunday afternoon, after they had had a visit in her home.

The members of East 36 Church of Christ are having a "farewell party" tonight, honoring Mrs. H. T. Brooks of Cross Plains. Mrs. Brooks is moving to Weatherford.

Mrs. Nell Fleming and Charlene Fleming went to Brownwood on Wednesday to do some Christmas shopping. Mrs. Fleming will be taking her mother, Mrs. Mathews, to Abilene to see her doctor one day this week.

Wanda Flippin went to Tulsa, Okla., to be with her new grandson, James Flippin, who was born Dec. 6 to Mr. and Mrs. Jodee Flippin. He weighed nine pounds. Mrs. Winnie Flippin is a great-grandmother.

Velma Brown's sister, Donnie Johnson of Rising Star, and Gertrude Hester of Cisco visited her during the week end. They all attended the house warming for Jim and Charlene Fleming.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Beggs went to Eastland on Tuesday where they visited Sam Beggs and did some Christmas shopping. Recently, they visited her mother, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Young, and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. M. Campbell, in Sulphur, Okla.

Glen Dale Phillips, who is attending college in Alpine, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Phillips, of Vernon's mother, Mrs. Nora Phillips, accompanied Wanda Flippin to Tulsa, Okla., where she will visit little James Flippin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jodee Flippin. Jodee is her great-nephew.

Your correspondent next week will be Vanda King. Please call her early as possible with news at 725-7420. The column must be filed with the Review each Monday afternoon.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy King were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Anderson of Abilene, Mrs. Loma Atwood, Mrs. Ethel Anderson and Mrs. Wes Helcomb. All of the visitors and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy King visited Mr. and Mrs. Conger of Cisco during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy King and children attended the Christmas party given at Cross Plains Church of Christ Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Barton attended the pecan show in Eastland last week.

This news comes a little late for Thanksgiving, but like the old saying, "Better late than never." Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lee had all their children home for Thanksgiving. They are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Lee and two children, Billy and Cindy, of Cross Plains; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Albert Lee and two children, Robert and Patricia, of Pioneer; Mr. and Mrs. Terry (Hazel) Nelson and baby, Crystal, of Cross Plains; and the children who are home Howard, Mary, Peggy, Dwayne and Bobby, also Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Lee and daughter, Missy, of Dublin. Twenty-one persons were present. It was a special Thanksgiving dinner because it was the first Thanksgiving the Lees had spent together in over eight years. In the morning the men went deer hunting but didn't get any.

Rowden Sector News

By Mrs. M. V. Gibbs

The coldest weather of the season descended on this area last week. Thermometers had readings of nine degrees on Saturday morning and some families had problems with frozen water lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Harris had the misfortune of losing their house by fire late Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Harris and Sherr were in Abilene shopping. Terry arrived home around 6 p.m. and found the house on fire. He sought help to call the fire department but the fast burning fire consumed the building by the time fire equipment could get there. Many neighbors and his family arrived and felt helpless that nothing could be done. Some furniture was saved from one bedroom.

There will be a shower for Terry, Carolyn and Sherrri at the Rowden Community Center this Friday night at 7 p.m. This invitation is for all in the community and this area. There will also be a shower for them at the Cross Plains Methodist Church on Thursday night.

A number of houses have burned in this community throughout the years. The writer can recall several. Mrs. J. L. Taylor and her son Beaul were awakened in the night by fire consuming their house. The Barney Gibbs family were living on the new Bob Dye place when that house was destroyed by fire. The John Miller family were living in a house on the new George Sadler place when it caught fire and burned.

In any house fire, precious items of special meaning can never be replaced.

Those visiting in the Warren Price home during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Brian Dale Brown of Abilene and Vergil Smedley of Clyde.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Steele attended a Christmas party given by Merchants Motor Lines for their employees at Old Abilene Town Saturday night.

Those visiting Mr. and Mrs.

Cottonwood News

By Alice Champion

Hi folks. Thi is such a nice crisp cool morning, Monday. So wonderful to have sunshine. Just don't guess we are ever happy with our weather; this past summer we thought it was too hot, now we can hardly endure a few cloudy cold days. If we could only accept the fact that it takes the rain and sunshine to make the world go round and without the real cold we wouldn't enjoy the sunshine so much. Okay, this is Texas, stick around for a while, it will change.

Mrs. Ethel Anderson is still not feeling on top of the world but is still able to go places. We can always rest when we get home. Wanda Anderson took Loma Atwood, Daisie Holcomb and Ethel to Cisco to visit Daisie and Ethel's brother, John Conger of Cisco. His son, who had an emergency survery is doing fine now. It just takes a while to recuperate. They went by the art studio on the way home and enjoyed browsing around the work of art on display.

Mr. and Mrs. Kay Robinson visited the Garth Fortunes Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Daton McInnis have been enjoying going hunting even if they don't have any luck. Just a joy to be healthy and happy.

Visiting his mother Saturday were Everett Wilcoxon of Hobbs, N. M., Vivian Wilcoxon, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Don Ballanger all of Cisco, visited Jessie Sunday evening.

Proper Mailing Steps Told By Postmaster

Postmaster Joe E. Hanke, Jr. is reminding customers that for the best service this Christmas season they should use ZIP Codes, place their return address in the upper left hand corner of the envelope and use proper postage.

"By following these suggestions," Postmaster Hanke says, "Customers will be assured good mail service this holiday season."

It is important, the Cross Plains postmaster says, that families "double check" envelopes and cards to be certain that proper postage is affixed. Envelopes without postage will be returned to senders, if possible, or delayed by postage-due procedures.

When the return address is placed on envelopes bearing holiday greetings, it also helps remind friends of one's current address.

And, if the family to whom a holiday message is sent moved more than a year ago, it cannot be forwarded. With a return address, Hanke says, such letters are returned to the sender with a notation that the forwarding "order" has expired.

Jessie Wilcoxon and Neida visited in the Nursing Home Sunday evening and enjoyed the fellowship with friends there. She reports how nice the home is decorated for Christmas season.

Ethel Champion and Mickie Dillard sponsored a family Christmas party in the home of Alice Champion. Everyone seemed to enjoy the fun. Glenn J. Monty and Rocky each did a pantomime of Mother Goose Rhymes. Hayley Dawn and Melissa did Mary Had a Little Lamb. Other games were played. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dillard, Margaret Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wilcoxon, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Claud and Jo Champin, Rocky Hayley and Melissa of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Alamilla and children, Jessie and Kelly of Abilene, Thomas Casey and daughter of Cisco, Elmer Casey and children of Mineral Wells.

News is scarce this week, just a lull before the Holidays, I guess.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hogan and sons of Cedar Hill visited her parents, Earnest and Lucille Clark, during the recent Thanksgiving holiday.

1979 Farm Program Explained By ASCS

Callahan County ASCS office at Baird has advised that farmers must set aside an acreage equal to 20 per cent of the wheat acreage seeded for harvest to participate in the 1979 wheat program.

Under the feed grain program 20 per cent of barley acreage, and 10 percent of the corn and grain sorghum acreage must be set aside. A voluntary diversion of an additional 10 per cent of corn and grain sorghum acreages may be made.

J. C. Earp, Jr., county executive director, reminds that total acres of NCA crops plus set-aside cannot exceed the NCA base for the farm intended to participate in the program. Non-participants can plant as many acres of any crop, except peanuts, that they wish.

Target prices for 1979, per bushel, are: wheat $3.40, barley $2.40, corn $2.20, grain sorghum $2.30. Loan rate per bushel was listed at $2.35 for wheat, barley $1.63, corn $2.00, grain sorghum $1.90.
