

On Saturday evening July 7, 1917 in the presence of a few close friends and relatives Mr. Herman Raff and Miss Lola Lively were married at the Methodist parsonage at Estancia, New Mexico. Rev. Bretz officiating.

The groom is a promising young man of Willard where for the past two years he has been employed as salesman for the Willard Trading Co. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Lively of Cedarvale, where she has resided the past year and has many friends who wish for her a life of much happiness.

CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS, FRIDAY, AUGUST 10, 1917.

NO. 23

Herport Morgan

He was born into wealth, but he knew the value of thrift and practiced it. Ready money wisely invested made him an international financier, and ready money enabled him to save the country from possible panics in the late seventies and in 1907 by control of financial resources.

Ready money will be just as valuable to you as it was to Morgan if you hope to enjoy prosperity and comfort and be free of debt worries. Be ready to face the future courageously and cheerfully, no matter what Fate decrees—be it sunshine or sorrow.

Come in today and start an account with us. Add to it from every pay envelope you get. Funds in bank strengthen a man's "backbone."

NEW OFFENSIVE IN FLANDERS.

GREAT BRITAIN PLANS A GIANTIC ATTACK IN THAT SECTION.

Great Britain has started a gigantic new offensive in Flanders, northern France. Field Marshal Haig struck on a wide front. North of the Yps river, in Belgium, "the allies captured their first objectives," the British commander in chief reported. "Satisfactory progress was attained in all positions. Considerable prisoners already have been taken."

Haig's attack, the second concerted offensive in the Messines ridge sector, followed the greatest artillery duel in the whole war.

For seven days British and German guns roared along this Belgian front. The Germans apparently started the concentrated fire, presumably fearing another stroke in that sector, and the British quickly replied with redoubled activity.

Mention by Haig of "the allies" capturing their first objectives seems to indicate that the British were assisted either by Belgian or French soldiers.

Paying High Prices.

Information concerning food costs in Germany received at the offices of the food administration in Washington show that many edibles, particularly those containing fats, are selling at almost prohibitive figures. Fat for frying is bringing more than $4 a pound. Goose fat is sold at $5.36 a pound.

Powls generally are high. Fresh fowls bring $1.01 a pound, larded goose breast $2.08, salted goose legs 94 cents, young country laying hens $3.32 each, well-fod geese $11 to $19.

The egg ration at Hamburg for one week was one egg for each person. Horses are in great demand for food, and horse flesh sells at from 53 cents to 85 cents a pound. Rabbits are sold at 82 cents. Cheese is quoted from 36 to 82 cents a pound.

Not Obligated to Regain Alsace.

The United States is not to be obligated to follow France in her obligation to regain Alsace-Lorraine, it was officially stated at Washington. Nor is the American relation toward the allies such that this government would necessarily demand freedom for certain parts of Austria.

Charged With Disrespect.

During an address at Chicago in which he is alleged to have called the president "King Wilson" and a "thymepoetic," Irving S. Abrams invited "any government disesteem present to step forward." One did. Abrams was held in $2,000 bond.

Subs Speed Away.

American torpedobomb destroyers report having engaged two submarines simultaneously six miles apart, causing both to speed away and submerge without firing a shot. One had just sunk a steamer.

Ten Towns Taken.

In the Anglo-French drive on the Belgian front ten towns were captured and 3,500 Germans made prisoners.

British Losses in July.

During the July fighting the British lost 71,880 men in killed, wounded and missing.

Cotton Contracts Held Void.

In the United States district court at Port Smith, Ark., in a suit of Thorn & Maginipis of New Orleans, cotton brokers, against Fred Browne of Fort Smith to collect $25,215 on a cotton futures transaction the New Orleans firm handled for Browne, Judge Youmans held the present standard form of contracts used on the New York and New Orleans cotton exchanges does not comply with the provisions of the United States cotton futures act and, therefore, is illegal. This decision will have a far-reaching effect if sustained by the higher courts.

Man Slain, Woman Held.

Walter Turner was shot and killed instantly in the front yard at Tyler, Tex., of Mrs. Mary Chumley. It occurred at 1 o'clock in the morning. Mrs. Chumley was placed under $500 bond. The woman told the officers that Turner had been to her house twice before the shooting and each time had been warned away. A shotgun was the weapon.

Oldest Texas Traveling Man Dies.

Joseph H. Friend, a resident of Dallas in the early 70's and the oldest traveling man in Texas, passed away at St. Louis, his home in recent years. Mr. Friend, who was seventy-three years old, had been an invalid for two years and entirely lost his sight.

BACK FROM TRIP WEST

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Alvis and son Eugene, returned from an overland trip to California via Salt Lake City. They have been traveling seeking a location where the climate would agree with Mrs. Alvis and where Mr. Alvis could engage in business. C. E. states that he wished everybody could know the conditions from here to the Pacific as he found them, and says that if they did, a good many of us would be pleased to stay in this part of Texas. Taking everything into consideration, there are few if any countries that excel this. One town in California suited their needs very well, except that the climate is so much in demand that the town is overrun with people with money who are content to be in business merely to live or for pastime. He says also that Salt Lake City appeals to him with a great deal of force. This does not mean that the family will move to any part of that country. They don't know yet what they will do.

SCRANTON MAN DEAD

Clint Rutherford, who visited at Scranton on Sunday, reports the death at that place of J. P. Lewidge, an old-time citizen of this country, on Saturday night. Lewidge died from rheumatism of the heart. He had just returned from Dallas, where he went with a son who joined the Navy. Apparently he was in good health. His death was very sudden. He leaves nine children. He married a daughter of Major Munn, who was well known among the old-timers.

NOTICE

On account of the short term of school for the coming year and owing to the fact that my children have reached the age where their education is of utmost importance, and they being to young to send away to board, I have decided to move my family to Brownwood for school purposes. It will probably take several years for them to get thru school and for this reason I have further decided to sell my home in Cross Plains. Some of my friends having noticed the advertisement of my home for sale have come to the conclusion that I am preparing to leave Cross Plains also. This is a mistake as I intend to remain here in my present position and look after my friends the same as I have always done since I came here. — Virgil Hart, Cashier Bank of Cross Plains.

300 MORE MEN CALLED

M. C. Council and wife of Clyde are visiting relatives here. Mr. Council states that Judge B. L. Russell of Baird told him on Wednesday morning that 300 more men had been called for examination in Galveston County. Counting the first 202, this covers all numbers to 502. Out of the first number, forty-three failed to pass the physical examination, and of the remainder forty-one did not claim exemption and one hundred and eighteen put in claims for exemption. Nothing has been given out as to what will be done in the matter of exemptions.

Rev and Mrs. G. W. Thomas and son, G. W., Jr., visited with friends here from Tuesday to Monday. They came from Goodnight with C. E. Alvis and family as far as Abilene, and went from here to their native county of Stephens. Rev. Thomas went from this place to Goodnight last July to accept the pastorate of the Baptist church there and to teach one subject in the Goodnight Academy. On account of the Baptist Board's withdrawing its support, the school has been discontinued, and for that reason Rev. Thomas has seen fit to seek work elsewhere.

FOUR ISSUES CONSTITUTE A MONTH CROSS PLAINS, TEXAS.

Collin County is attracting attention by reason of the number of rural high schools the county has. When will Callahan boast of fine high schools?

That I. W. W. leader got his. Every man that speaks blasphemously of his Government is likely to get the same thing, and we don't know but that he will deserve it.

Good schools and good roads are the concomitants of progress; they are the best advertising a country can put out in appealing to prospectors; complementary instrumentalities in developing an intelligent citizenship.

The Brownwood Herald, a daily which has been published for about six months, has suspended publication on account of lack of advertising patronage. The Herald was a creditable paper, giving fine service for its town, and had a good circulation.

Peanuts and dry weather may bring the sack back to its own, if it has not already come back. This country makes better crops when the rain is not excessive, at least. And, besides, peanuts are drought-resisting and hail-proof. Come to the Cross Plains country.

We like the idea of trading at home. It is local patriotism. Our merchants usually deserve the local trade. They are consistent, with one or two exceptions, in the matter of supporting their home print shop. These exceptions are rather loud in their preachments on the "trade at home" subject.

The U. S. Government, it is said, has asked for the death penalty for those convicted of taking part in the anti draft riot in Oklahoma. Army measures have always seemed harsh yet the severest penalties must be visited upon those who go back on their country in times of war.

Some writer has an article in the current issue of Munsey's on the dethronement of cotton in the South. This man says that the war has forced us to raise something to eat and the weevil to diversity. No country has ever grown rich on a one-crop system.

It some fellow is crazy enough to preach resistance to the Government, don't you, young man, be fool enough to listen to him. Be a patriot and report him to the Federal officials. We must stay with our Government, even if we don't like the war. Men who are not patriotic should be bundled out into Mexico, or some other country that does not have a government, where they could learn the value of law and authority.

The merchant who uses stationery decorated with galling oil, axle grease or other cheap, advertising matter is to the home printer what the mail order house is to the home merchant. —Miami Chief

Last Tuesday evening the directors passed a resolution placing themselves squarely against pool halls, carnivals, tent shows, peddlers and mendicants making their appearance or applying their activity in Meriel. These things are antipathetic to the moral and economic welfare of the city and country and this organization is for the betterment of our citizenship. As regards the mendicants, a great deal of charity has been extended and efforts will be made to secure for them some of the ent matters will readily be furnished with the proper permit, and crating schemes will be put away. The carnivals and tent shows put up such sorry scenes, with a personnel usually of low type that the moral effect is detrimental to the human race, and they usually take a pile of money away. —Meriel paper.

The above clipping was handed the Review by P. Smith, and from this we suppose he endorses what is said concerning these amusements and the like. At least, most of our people do oppose them.

The war may end soon. There are some evidences that Germany is sending out "feelers" for peace. Her cabinet was this week completely reorganized, the new minister of foreign affairs being reputed to be opposed to unrestricted submarine warfare. The best opinion is that the war will have to be fought out on the Western front. Not very much can reasonably be expected from the Russians; the allies are not depending on the Russians, and will be pretty well satisfied if the Slavs will so engage the Tuets that none of the latter can be withdrawn for service on the Western front. The allies have the advantage in numbers, in munitions, in airships, in morale, and in finance. Germany has not gained a victory, except against the Russians, since their spectacular defeat of Roumania last year. The allies have shown their decided superiority at Verdun last fall, at the Arras this spring, and at Messines this summer. Slowly but surely the Tuets are being defeated. A great effort is being made by Uncle Sam to give the allies the predominance in the air, which many believe would speedily defeat the central powers. Frank H. Simonds, whose opinions on the war France and Great Britain consider next to those of Wilson, so it is said, believes that Germany will sue for peace by the fall of 1918.

HEAT IS SOMETHING TERRIFIC.

NUMEROUS SECTIONS SUFFER FROM THE TORRIDITY.

Three deaths from heat were reported to the police at Chicago. New York also faced some scorching weather. Iowa has sizzled under an average temperature of 96 degrees. No damage has been done crops so far, agricultural bureau said. Blistering heat with one prostration was registered at Pittsburg, Pa. The thermometer registered 96. St. Louis and Detroit both reported scorches. At latter city thermometer reached 93. The heat wave sweeping the country did not bother the residents of Corona, Colo., on the continental divide. Overcoats were worn for protection against a normal temperature of 42. Boston reported a baking temperature. Cleveland reported a temperature of 101 degrees. Richmond, Va., boiled. At Philadelphia the thermometer attained 93 degrees.

WILLIAM WOODS WOUNDED. FOUND IN DYING CONDITION AND A NEGRO TAKEN AWAY.

William Woods, who worked a number of teams on the Red river levee near Garland City, Ark., twenty miles east of Texarkana, was found in a dying condition and taken to a sanitarium at Texarkana. One bullet went through his lungs and another through his abdomen. He said he was shot in the woods by a negro teamster and the motive was robbery.

Deputy Sheriff Walter Olen arrested Andrew Avery, a negro, about twenty miles north of the scene of the crime. He was on his way to place him in the Hempstead county jail at Hope when he was intercepted by a mob in automobiles, who forcibly took the prisoner from him and carried him away and lynched him.

SPECIAL SESSION CALLED. MATTER OF UNIVERSITY APPROPRIATION TO BE ACTED UPON.

Governor Ferguson issued a proclamation calling the legislature in special session Aug. 1 to consider matter of testing the question of whether or not the university appropriation shall stand. He says the vetoed appropriation was too large and was extravagant, and expresses the hope that the legislators will pass upon it within the first ten days and if it does he promises action on his part within the ten days following. Ten more days would be left for the legislature to consider the governor's action—that is, his veto, if the legislature repasses the appropriation. The governor says he is willing for the issues to be joined and to go before the people on the outcome of this matter. Speaker Puller said the calling together of the legislature took away the necessity of a call for the house. Will C. Hogg declared the governor's action would make no change in the plans of those seeking his impeachment.

FROM THOSE HIGH UP

Let those who have been Successful Advise You As To The Kind Of An Education You Should Have. Men At The Head Of The Affairs Of Our State And Nation.

Following are extracts from letters some of America's greatest men on the value of a business education. Hon. Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., says: "Since I have been elected Speaker I have had it more thoroughly impressed on me than ever before that a thorough business college training is of exceeding importance." O. M. Dickinson, former Secretary of War, Washington, D. C., "Contemporaneously with taking my general education, I took a course in a business college and found it of value to me, not only generally, but in the practice of law." R. B. Glenn, ex Governor of North Carolina, "I cheerfully recommend to every one a practical business education for their children." Oswald West, ex-Governor of Oregon "The modern business school plays a large part in fitting young men and women for their entrance into the business." T. C. Pickett, Representative from Iowa: "The value even necessity of a practical education to young people today is so obvious that no argument should be required in support of it." E. F. Noel, ex Governor of Mississippi I take pleasure in testifying to the importance of a practical business education, and to the efficiency of a properly conducted business school in imparting such knowledge". C. N. Haskell, ex-Governor of Oklahoma; "I consider practical business education, the greatest importance." John W. Kern, United States Senator "Everybody ought by this time to understand that business men and business women need business education on the same principle that a doctor must have a medical education." Joseph M. Gary, of Wyoming. "Too much cannot be said in behalf of a good commercial education." I do not believe that such an education can be too highly recommended".

Shouldn't the above evidence settle the question with you as to what kind of an education is needed? Read the catalogue of America's largest commercial school, the one giving the most extensive course of study, the one placing its graduates in the best positions, the one that has more than 2000 enrollment annually from over half the states of the Union, the school with a National reputation. ## FROM THOSE HIGH UP

Let those who have been successful Advise You As To The Kind Of An Education You Should Have. Men At The Head Of The Affairs Of Our State And Nation.

Following are extracts from letters some of America's greatest men on the value of a business education. Hon. Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., says: "Since I have been elected Speaker I have had it more thoroughly impressed on me than ever before that a thorough business college training is of exceeding importance." O. M. Dickinson, former Secretary of War, Washington, D. C., "Contemporaneously with taking my general education, I took a course in a business college and found it of value to me, not only generally, but in the practice of law." R. B. Glenn, ex Governor of North Carolina, "I cheerfully recommend to every one a practical business education for their children." Oswald West, ex-Governor of Oregon "The modern business school plays a large part in fitting young men and women for their entrance into the business." T. C. Pickett, Representative from Iowa: "The value even necessity of a practical education to young people today is so obvious that no argument should be required in support of it." E. F. Noel, ex Governor of Mississippi I take pleasure in testifying to the importance of a practical business education, and to the efficiency of a properly conducted business school in imparting such knowledge". C. N. Haskel, ex-Governor of Oklahoma; "I consider practical business education the greatest importance." John Kern, United States Senator "Everybody ought by this time to understand that business men and business women need business education on the same principle the doctor must have a medical education." Joseph M. Gary, of Wyoming. "Too much cannot be said in behalf of a good commercial education." I do not believe that such an education can be too highly recommended".

Shouldn't the above evidence settle the question with you as to what kind of an education is needed? Read the catalogue of America's largest commercial school, the one giving the most intensive course of study, the one placing its graduates in the best positions, the one that has more than 2000 enrollment annually from over half the states of the Union, the school with a National reputation. ### IKE P. SCARBOROUGH DEAD.

Eld. Ike P. Scarborough died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Vera McDonough of Cross Plains, on Tuesday, July 31, 1917, after a serious illness of about ten days though he has been in feeble health for the past two years. He spent some time in Baird with his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Farmer and left July 16 to spend a few days with his daughter at Cross Plains on July 23rd he was taken seriously ill, and tho every thing possible was done for him his condition grew worse and death relieved his suffering. His children were notified and were with him a few days before his death. The children are: Mrs. J. W. Farmer of Baird, Mrs. Dill of Rising Star, Dallas Scarborough of Abilene, Homer Scarborough of San Angelo, Mrs. Vera McDonough of Cross Plains and Mrs. Carrie Smith of Moran.

Mr. Scarborough was born in Louisiana, Aug. 19, 1849. He fought in the Civil War, and in 1866 came to Texas lived in Williamson and Milam counties until Oct. 10, 1883 when he came to Callahan county and located near Cottonwood. He has been a minister of the Church of Christ for over 40 years and has preached all over this part of the state. He was buried at Rising Star by the side of his wife who died a few years ago.

The many friends of the family extend sincerest sympathy in their sorrow.—Baird Star

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Jones of Oplin were here last week the guests of Mrs. Jones parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Atwood, and other relatives.

Tom Christopher went this week to Fort Worth with a car of hogs.

B. T. Higginbotham, manager of Higginbotham Bros. store here, returned on Tuesday night from Colorado where he and Mrs. Higginbotham went some two weeks ago. Mrs. Higginbotham will remain for a while in Colorado.

THE CROSS PLAINS

Pierpont Morgan
He was born into wealth, but he knew the value of thrift and practiced it. Ready money wisely invested made him an international financier, and ready money enabled him to save the country from possible panics in the late seventies and in 1907 by control of financial resources.

Ready money will be just as valuable to you as it was to Morgan if you hope to enjoy prosperity and comfort and be free of debt worries. Be ready to face the future courageously and cheerfully, no matter what Fate decrees—be it sunshine or sorrow.

Come in today and start an account with us. Add to it from every pay envelope you get. Funds in bank strengthen a man's "backbone."

Multiply your money in our care.

AMERICA'S CAUSE FOR WAR
"The military masters of Germany denied us the right to be neutral. They filed our communities with vicious spies and conspirators. They sought to corrupt our cities. They sought by violence to destroy our industries and arrest our commerce. They tried to incite Mexico to take up arms against us and to draw Japan into hostile alliance with her. They impudently denied us the use of the high seas and repeatedly executed their threat that they would send to their death any of our people who ventured to approach the coasts of Europe."

"This flag under which we serve would have been dishonoured had we withheld our hand."—Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States.
