SNOW COVERS AREA EARLY: Church of Christ SOME DAMAGE REPORTED

Most of the citizens of Baird awoke Friday morning and looked out their window and found a very beautiful surprise. Snow had completely covered the ground and up to 6 inches had fallen by noon. Reports were that this was the heaviest snow fall in years. It looked as if Mother Nature had gotten a little mixed up since the trees still had lots of green leaves, yet to turn Autumn colors, before falling to the ground. The trees in the area received lots of damage, especially the

Shady Oaks Golf Course Open To Public

Shady Oaks Golf Course, mid-way between Baird and Clyde, south of IH 20, was open for play, to members only, Sept. 23, 1968. The course is now open to the public on a green fee ba-sis. Green fees will be $1.50 on weekdays, and $2.00 on week-ends.

Larry Holloway from Baird, and Roy Winburne from Coleman, Game Management officers of Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept., for Callahan and Coleman counties, show in the photo above a pinto whitetail buck deer, bagged by Holloway just recently. The two officers were hunting with an antlerless permit on a ranch in north Coleman county when they happened upon this unusual and rare type of deer. Mostly white with tan spots, the deer had white hooves. Officer Winburne will tan the hide, and plans to mount the head and feet with the hide as a background. Officer Holloway reports that deer herds are plentiful this year in these two counties. Winburne has been stationed at Coleman for over three years. Holloway has been at Baird since June of 1966.

ROWDEN ROUNDUP

Friday's snow storm surprised us all, even the weather fore-caster. It didn't take long for everything to be covered and bowing down with the weight of snow and was a beautiful sight. It did seem odd to see garden plants and crops covered with snow before frost killed them. Moisture from rain and snow measured around 1½ inches, which was very welcome.
