THE ALBIN WELL

P. Litzinger and Mat Yost of Pa., have been in town since in the interest of the well put down by Mr. Litzinger in the Abin farm three miles from town. Mr. Yost left this some four weeks back, going here to Parkersburg, Virginia where he and his wife bought a standard rig and the same was shipped to that place on Sept. 21, and should be here any day. The well, and can be put up any time.
They state also that three cases, all needed for drilling the well, have been bought and shipped from Wooster, Ohio, place. A complete set of including everything necessary for putting down a deep test, is en route. In all five cars being used on this well, Kelley, who has had forty years experience as a driller, will be in charge. Mr. Keller, so Litzinger states, has been over the well, and knows what is going on. The location is about two miles northeast of Wade's home, and coal was hauled out to the well two weeks ago. Another has been ordered. The drilling will start as soon as the material arrives. Mr. Litzinger says that they will drill their own material so that other wells if the first one should come in dry. Mr. Litzinger left on Thursday for his home in charge of Mr. Kelley, who will oversee the drilling of the well.

WEALTHY N. Y. GIRL S. A. WAR LASSIE

MISS CORA VAN NORDEN HOME FROM FIGHTING FRONT, TELLS OF WORK.

Miss Cora Van Norden, daughter of the late New York banker of that name, now an envoy in the Salvation Army assigned to battle zone relief work, has come on from the shell-torn trenches for a short furough to plead with the West to contribute liberally to the overseas fund now being raised.

On the same day she frail appearing girl in khaki reached Chicago she made a speech before those in charge of the big drive now under way there which caused them to double their quota from $250,000 to $500,000 and this is as a minimum.
There were tears in the eyes of many when she told of the great needs of combat "over there", particularly dwelling upon the large number of boys who lack relatives at home and who look to the Salvation Army lassies for their only grain of sympathy.

Miss Van Norden, whose great bravery under fire has been recorded in cablegrams from war correspondents in an interview told how the Salvation Army men hiked with the boys to their sections, brought back the wounded, comforted the dying and buried the dead. She told how they fulfilled six missions for the soldiers, had their watches repaired, sent money home, thawed out their boots and overcoats, mended their clothes and served hot drinks and cakes.

"The boys like to come to us with their troubles," she said. "We take the place of the families they have left at home. They tell us about their mothers and sisters.

"If they are hard up they make a gentle 'touch.' I want to say right here, too, that I have only been stung once, and then by an officer.

They like to have somebody to say good-bye to them when they go over the top at the zero hour—somebody to welcome them when they come back, no matter how many 'cooties' they may bring. And they like to feel when their time comes to 'go west' that somebody will plant 'Old Glory' on their lonely graves and send their treasures to the folks at home."

Miss Van Norden told of the great popularity of the huts and rest dugouts and said they are constantly crowded.

"There were three of the Salvation Army women who kept one hut close out to the front line trenches open 24 hours a day for three months," she said. "The men appreciate it.
They love to come there. They love to feel that when they go into the trenches there is someone thinking about them within hailing distance.
And when they get back they make a rush to the huts first off. They just seem to feel that it is like running home to mother, or to wife or sister to tell them of the big happenings."

"The boys told me to tell the folks back home—the mothers and fathers and brothers and sisters—that the overseas fund must be raised and that this work must not be allowed to lag. I know that loyal folks at home won't deny them their wish."

TOMMIE AIKEN DEAD

Tommie Hermon Aiken, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Aiken of this place, a pharmacist's mate in the hospital corps of the Navy, died in the Kingston Avenue Hospital in New York, on Sept. 26, and the body was sent to Cross Plains and was laid to rest in the family cemetery on Wednesday.
Death resulted from influenza. Rev.
Kidd, assisted by Rev. Odom, conducted the services from the Methodist church of which he was a member. His boyhood school mates acted as pall bearers. A very large crowd of relatives and friends of the deceased and his family attended the services. He is the first in the service to die and be buried in the Cross Plains cemetery.
Cecil Aiken of Camp Bowie, a brother, Mrs. P. W. Lane of Cleburne, an aunt, and Jinks Garrett of Jayton, an uncle, attended the funeral. Also Mr. F. O. Aiken of Stanton, a brother of John W. Aiken, a grandfather of Tommie, was here.

His death has touched the heart of the entire country. He was well known as a young man of the best traits of character, had the confidence and best wishes of all who knew him. He was ambitious and bright and his young life was full of promise, and his parents had set their hearts on his future. None of our words can assuage the sorrow of the family and especially of the fond mother, who was all but prostrate with grief, to whom all of us offer the sympathy of those who have lost one they believed in and loved.

He was born June 30, 1898, and was nearly three months past twenty at his death. He has lived as a member of the Cross Plains Methodist church since he was fifteen.
He was the valedictorian of his graduating class in 1915 of the Cross Plains High School; he lacked but two months graduating from the North Texas Normal, when he placed his services on the altar of his country on May 5, 1917, at the outbreak of the war, enlisting in the hospital corps of the Navy.
He was stationed at Great Lakes till Sept. 7, when he was sent to New York where he would have embarked for a trip across the waters if his sickness had not prevented.

LARD IS WORTH

More Than Lumber

It takes more than bristle to keep a hog comfortable; and unless he is comfortable he won't produce results. If he is not otherwise properly protected he will have to use and absorb his own protection—his fat, Costly Lard. It is cheaper to use cheap lumber than valuable lard to keep your hogs in condition. Also even a hog responds to the right kind of care.

ALL OF WHICH MEANS—

It is PATRIOTIC to raise hogs to supply the fats needed by the world.
It is WISE to give hogs the proper shelter and care to produce the maximum of fats from the minimum of feed.

It is ECONOMICAL to build the RIGHT KIND of shelter at first rather than afterwards:

IT IS PLAIN GOOD BUSINESS to secure designs and materials from people who have the right kind at the right price.

AND our claims to have both the DESIGNS and MATERIAL best suited for this work can best be proven by your personal investigation.

Horse Power is merely a term for work; Hog Power is a synonym for RESULTS.

The spicy odor of frying sausage will bring the laziest boy down to breakfast, when a team of horses wouldn't wake him.

You have to WORK WITH a horse to make him pay, while you just leave a hog alone and protect him properly and he will eat himself into your affections.

A horse can pull a wagon, but a hog can lift a mortgage.
Blessed be the man who first wrote those stirring lines:
"This little pig went to market."

How Much Would the KAISER Tax Your Business?

Think this thought twice over: "If we should fail to win this war what would happen to my business?"

What is left of business in the invaded districts of France and Belgium? What will be left of business here, if we fail to crush the sinister power of Prussian militarism? How much would you have left after paying the taxes and levies imposed by a victorious Germany?

This is not only a war for Democracy and Liberty, but a war of self-defense. Germany menaces our rights, our self-respect, our homes, and our means of livelihood.

FROM FRANCE

Dear Mother:

How is every thing at home? As to me every thing is lovely. I feel fine and am getting along well. The weather is much better than it is usually represented to be.

The people here are very friendly toward us but peculiar in a number of ways. Their dress is quite different from the Americans; most of them that I have seen wear wooden shoes and make more noise than a horse when they walk. I haven't yet been able to determine whether they live in their barns, or keep their cattle in the house; at any rate they live under the same roof.

The farms consist of very small patches surrounded by dirt fences or. Their hedges are covered by blackberry vines that produce here in great profusion.

The principal crops seem to be fruit, vegetables, and children. The cattle always appears to be sadly in need of a bath. Every one, old and young, drink nothing but wine and cider. Water is used simply to go under bridges. Write soon and tell me all of the latest news.

MAJ. ATKINS GOES "OVER THE TOP"

WITH MAJOR ROOSEVELT, SALVATIONIST LEADS AMERICANS IN CHARGE ON HUN FOES.

A terrific American barrage had been laid down on the Hun trenches. The American boys were on the firing step, waiting for the zero hour, rifle in hand, grim determination on their faces and eyes glued on the boche's trenches.

The question was asked by Major Theodore Roosevelt Jr. of his chaplain Major John E. Atkins, of the Salvation Army, just before they went over the top somewhere in the Toul sector. And across "No Man's Land" the former president's son and the "little major" went leading the former's battalion.

Major Atkins, who has just arrived home in Chicago from the front for a brief stay to help force to the attention of the West the great need of immediate raising of the Salvationist Overseas Fund, told about the incident in an interview. Back from administering physical comfort and spiritual sustenance to the boys, he still blinks his eyes constantly from the shock of the shell fire, but as he says he "hankers for his boys" and is anxious to get back.

Of the Roosevelt boys he had much to say. He told of Captain Archie being wounded.

"IT'S THE GREATEST CAUSE A-GOING"

HARLAN BABCOCK INSPIRED TO WRITE A PROSE POEM ABOUT THE WORK OF SALVATION ARMY.

(By Harlan Babcock)

When a fello's been a-milling in a battle for a day, when he's famished dirty, weary, 'cause he hasn't hit the hay, and he hasn't had his coffee, or a single bite to eat, and the coolie clan from Scratchville drills his frame from head to feet; when he's staggy and destened from a too-familiar shell, and there comes to him a succorose from this flaming man-made hell—then is when another Army comes to ease this harried soul, to appease his awful hunger and again to make him whole. To the drouthouts come the women—Yankee women, pure and sweet—bringing dressings for the wounded and delicious thimbs to eat—good old doughnuts, pie and coffee, and occasionally some cake—heavily manna, so to put it. Just like mother used to make. Why the food and ministrations of these angels of the camp is into these ill-in heroes like as oil unto a lamp. And you've got to hand it to 'em, 'cause to die death they dare, but they get it—aid "treaties in the trenches" come there. "Doughnuts for doughboys"—that's the Army's rousing cry. Though your gut be but a jiffey, do not pass these angels by. It's the grandest cause a-going; Uncle Sam will sure rejoice if he knows that you are helping feed his hungry fighting boys. And the angels up in Heaven, just as sure as you're alive, love this same Salvation Army and are "pulling" for this drive.

For any man, whatever his fortune to employ another man a service of mere comfort or convenience, or for any worker, whatever the attraction in wages, to engage in an unnecessary undertaking if he has the musca and the strength to endure in heavy war tasks, is to commit the unpardonable crime against civilization and almost to be guilty of treason against the Republic.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

To visit our interesting and instructive exhibit at the Louisiana State fair, Shreveport, cotton palace, Waco, east Texas fair, Tyler and Pittsburg fair, Pittsburg. We invite all our former students, their friends and those interested in America's largest business Training School to visit our booth in the exposition building, and see our splendid exhibit which has won first honors at the state fairs. Our exhibit will be interesting and educational to old and young. We will have demonstrations on some of the most modern office appliances which are taught in our school. Speed demonstrations in byrne combination shorthand, work in bookkeeping, business, training, shorthand, typewriting, business administration and financial penmanship, cation classing and telegraphy. A visit o-ur exhibit will show you why we have the largest school of the kind in America, you will see clearly why it is that we can make you a more practical and thorough stenographer in three and one-half months with the famous Bruce shorthand than other schools teaching other systems in seven months, and why it is with our original copyright system of bookkeeping and business training we can give you both a course of bookkeeping and business training in less time than other schools teaching other systems. Our system of bookkeeping and business training is a mere theoretical course of bookkeeping, and why that our practical department of telegraphy, the largest in the United States, with a loop of the cotton belt train wires, flying ever mes acc to our student every station black and record book that is used by the western union or cotton belt railroad, turns our operators and station men; and that we place our graduates in good positions, also investigate the practical manner in which we teach cotton classing.

Misses Emma Havens and Ruby Atwood left on Thursday for Jordan Springs in Brown County where they have a school together.

The Best Service The Biggest Values The Most Reasonable Prices Are Offered You By Every Dealer in Brownwood.

The stocks are largest The roads are good The train schedule is convenient

Here is an example of why people are coming to Brownwood to trade: One of the many families who shopped in Brownwood last week was asked why they came to Brownwood to trade. The head of this family said: "We live quite a distance from Brownwood. Heretofore we have gone to the large cities in Texas to do most of our buying—of course we buy in our own small town all of our needs that they can supply—but having read and heard about the condition of Brownwood's stocks and the preparation that the dealers have made on account of the oil boom. I talked it over with my family and we decided to see for ourselves what Brownwood had to offer.

It took us only a few hours to drive to Brownwood. Understand me, my family and I came to Brownwood to first look, and then if it suited us—to buy. We shopped pretty well over the city and became convinced that your values were good, the prices as reasonable as could be hoped for—and that in every place we visited we were made to feel welcome. Your stocks are large, and, as far as we are able to determine, seem to cover every family need. There is no doubt in my mind that we have saved considerable money because of the reasonable prices of the things we have bought today.

You people in Brownwood have a group of nice garages; I made no choice in storing my car for the day, but drove into the first one I came to on the street that led me into Brownwood. Judging from the service I received at this Garage, Brownwood's Garage Service is the best I have ever found. We had a good dinner at one of your eating places—the service was good, the food was well cooked and nicely served, the prices reasonable. After we had finished our buying we saw a good show. We were surprised to find the most recent productions in moving pictures produced so soon after they were being advertised at the real large cities.

We are really glad we came to Brownwood to look—and buy. The cordial attention we received here made us feel at home and made our shopping pleasant. We are coming back a little later for our real winter needs; we have been looking with this trip in view, and find you have everything we need.

Brownwood is the Place to Buy. Ask Your neighbor.

KILLED IN FRANCE

S. F. Knight of this place received a telephone message from his son Doyle at McCauly on Sunday night stating that Jay Knight, youngest son of Mr. Knight here, had been killed in action on the front in France. Jay was twenty-four years old, was single. He lived here a few months three or four years ago. He was a good boy and made the supreme sacrifice for a great cause. He volunteered for service last April, was stationed first on the coast and afterwards moved to Camp Travis. He left that place the first of June. He has been fighting on the famous Hindenburg line. He was from Mitchell County. He has done all he could, and none can do more. We offer our deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.
