R. R. OFFICIALS MAKE OVER CROSS PLAINS

Last Friday a special train of two inspectors of the system and all the commodities could be extracted from the Cross Plains branch. The object of their trip was to inspect the road with a view to equipping it with heavier rails. No doubt they are convinced of the need of that, and several improvements, if they properly handle the large other crops that depend on the road for shipment. It is very likely that the increase in business throughout the system will soon demand greater facilities.

NEWSOME'S FINAL LETTER ON ARMY SERVICE

My forward voyage was quite uneventful and was somewhat uninteresting, caused by the cool weather and the sea sickness which frequently ran into me. I was in New York on January 22, and was met in the harbor by Major Hyland's reception committee. From New York we went to Camp Merritt, New Jersey, where I was assigned to the 19th regiment of the 103rd Infantry. I was in Leavenworth to receive my discharge at that time doing my duty. The first after I was discharged was the Delaware river. It was a beautiful sight. The river was covered with ice and I suppose it was something as it did in '76. The whole journey was one continual round of greetings. I never shall forget the reception which the Red Cross ladies of Marion, Ohio, gave us; but we were truly glad when at last, on January 22, we landed at the Post, for our feet were so sore that we could hardly walk. Here we took over the guarding of 3000 prisoners at the decaying barracks. Those prisoners were sentenced by general court-martial from almost every branch and rank of the army. Some of the prisoners were bad and others were not. Some were sent for one and two years while others were sentenced for ninety-nine years. I knew of one boy who was sentenced for ten years for refusing to wash dishes in the kitchen. The long timers were the worse men and would take any kind of a chance. The guards before us had used pump shot guns. When we went on duty with Springfield rifles every prisoner in the barracks struck and refused to work unless we used shot guns in

DRILLING ON MANY WELLS WITH OIL SITUATION QUIET

The Henderson-Childs well seven miles north of town is again drilling after recovering string of tools. It had a showing of oil at a little below 3,600 the first of the week. Odom west of town 1,100.

Litizing et al, owners of the Albin well east of town, are due here this week to make further arrangements for the continuation of operations.

Pennant Sanders seven miles south of town drilling at about 400.

WILL ASK HOBBY AND OTHER STATE OFFICIALS TO RESIGN

Representative W. E. Pope of Nueces County said last week that on Wednesday of this week he would offer four resolutions calling for resignations of four state officials, the basis for the request being the disclosures in the report of the joint committee which investigated the Blue Ridge Farm transaction.

Mr. Pope said he would ask for the resignation of W. P. Hobby, as Governor of the State; J. J. Crawford, as a member of the board of regents for the State Normal Colleges; R. L. Wintrey, as prison commissioner, and W. F. Pryor as prison commissioner. Each official will have a separate resolution so that the house can pass on the individual cases separately.

Bumper Crops.

Likely this country never made a good as good grain crop as we have cut and partly threshed. If the continued rains do not ruin it, our grain crop will be a great thing for the country. Also have the best prospects for feed stuffs and cotton and corn. In fact, corn is almost assured a record crop. Come to Callahan County, and live while you're living.

stead of rifles. When 113 conscientious objectors were discharged from the prison last spring the other prisoners beat some of them up pretty badly. That night the prison Q. M. store house burned and the next day they refused to work.

While at Leavenworth I went through the Federal penitentiary. It was one of the nicest, cleanest and finest places I was ever in.

Soldiering in the United States is a joke compared to foreign service, and foreign service is another joke compared to active service in the ditches. I was never under fire. My regiment never got to the trenches, but I talked with many that were. One boy told me that he was wounded at the Argonne, sent to the hospital at Tours and during one week while there he won seventy dollars gambling with comrades that he lived longer than they did. These are the boys to which the major part of your thanks should go for what the American army did in France, and every one of them have the same opinion of war that Sherman had, but it is ever to do again they will be willing and ready to go.

I saw and learned many things of interest. We passed through Tours where Charles Martel stopped the Moslems and saved European Christendom 732 A. D. I went through the Pontonzer Barracks in Brest, which were built and used by Napoleon during his wars. I also saw many other things, but I was tired of it and was truly glad when on April 12 I was ordered to Camp Bowie for discharge. I was discharged from that camp on April 17, 1919.

THIS WHEAT AND OAT CROP FAR ABOVE AVERAGE.

The Cross Plains country, and we believe this entire section, is harvesting the greatest grain crop in the memory of the oldest settlers. On account of the excessive rainfall, threshing is just now in full swing, but the yields so far reported indicate that a high average will be made.

Lee Payne on Martin Jones' farm west of town has threshed 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Sixty bushels thresher measure gained a few pounds by actual weight. He is also making 80 bushels of oats.

Pomp Payne in the same neighborhood made 40 bushels of wheat to the acre.

Ed Crockett three miles southwest threshed 92 1-2 bu. of oats.

Wade McDaniel made 360 bushels of wheat off 20 acres.

Nothing less than 55 bushels of barley has been reported.

Wheat is bringing as high as $2.05 and oats 67c.

MANNER OF MARKETING WHEAT CROP EXPLAINED

At the conference of Texas grain dealers, held at Fort Worth to discuss the new Federal rules for handling the present crop, H. B. Dorsey, secretary of the Texas Grain Dealers' Association, described the tentative contracts being formulated by the Food Administration Grain Corporation, with headquarters at New York City. The Government is leaving nothing undone toward supervising the handling of the Nation's supply of grain, and as an indication of just what is being done, Mr. Dorsey brought out, among other things, the following stipulations which will most likely appear in the contracts issued grain dealers:

No samples of low grade wheat will be required.

When farmers and grain dealers fail to agree on the quality, a sample must be sent to the zone officer for inspection.

Wheat sold to the Government must be shipped through Galveston or New Orleans.

All grain dealers must have a license from the Government.

Differentials in prices will apply to grades 1, 2 and 3 only, grade 2 running 3 cents less than grade 1, and grade 3 running 7c less than grade 2.

Grain Corporation not to handle coarse grain.

All prospective grain dealers will be thoroughly investigated before being granted a license; must be absolutely reliable business men.

In the Oil Field.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Cunningham of Ranger are visiting their children George, Bob, and Mrs. D. C. Stuard. Mr. Cunningham owns 320 acre farm northwest of Ranger on which a drilling well struck the sand a few days ago. The well is now waiting on storage capacity before being brought in. From the location of the well it is nearly sure to be in the big oil pool, and he stands a good chance to be in the millionaire class.

OIL ACTIVITIES IN THE RISING STAR FIELD

Last week we mentioned a number of oil wells in the Rising Star vicinity. This week another new one is being added to the list. The Penn Tex Oil Co. is this week having a derrick erected about five miles south of town on the A. J. Wheeler tract. This makes eight or ten wells being drilled inside of seven miles of town.

This derrick is this week going up on the J. N. Bowden tract, a mile north of town. This being the nearest to town it will be watched with much interest. It is only a few hundred feet from the Hagan well that is already a producer.

Last week we spoke of an "Odom Well" east of town when we should have said "Morman Well." The work on it, as well as all the others, is progressing nicely.

Since it has been proven that we have a shallow oil field here we may expect considerable development during the next few months. —Rising Star X-Ray

Wheat $2.15 at Dallas.

Local mills at Dallas, at last reports, had not received the Government contracts under which they will operate, though they are daily expecting them. The increase in the Government's guarantee price at Galveston from $2.28 to $2.30 per bushel, would mean a maximum price of $2.15 at Dallas for No. 1 wheat, it is understood, since the freight and the war tax amount to 15c a bushel.

Oral Strahan and Will Evans of the 36th have been discharged and returned to their homes at Cottonwood. Will was last fall reported missing and afterwards reported wounded, the latter being the correct report. A shell burst near him and injured his back by the concussion, as his body was not hit. He has just about recovered, although he is not strong. Oral made it through without any mishap.

Some Hog Town.

R. E. Wilson and son, Bailey, Hall Jones and the writer spent the Fourth party in Desdemona, the booming oil town that lies in a triangle between Gorman, De Leon Dublin, with likely a few other towns claiming it in their territory. The biggest part of the day was spent on the road, as it takes as good a jitney even as Mr. Wilson's several hours to cover 120 miles, the distance to and from this oil town via De Leon.

Several have asked for facts concerning this Eldorado of the Cross Timbers. The soldier returning from France says he knew little of the war—it was too big and he was too close to it. The oil development at Desdemona, erstwhile called Hog Town, is too big a thing for a fellow to grasp at first sight. From the town south and west for two or three miles is a porcupine of derricks; an aeroplane could not land in this section, apparently, without being punctured. Wells are being drilled in the resident and business section of the town, some being so close together that their bits are likely to mix up. Two brick buildings house two banks, both of which boast more than a million deposits. Perhaps one or two more buildings are brick, the others being shacks. Every kind of business is represented; civil engineering concerns; three or four drug stores, fourteen lawyers, all kinds of other business houses for handling oil well supplies, etc.; restaurants and cold drink stands so plentiful that it would take an adding machine to enumerate them. The town is a sand country and there are more flies than sand.

Oil prices for everything prevail. What is a six-cent cold drink here sells for nine cents. Restaurant prices correspond, so it is said. The population is housed principally in shacks and tents, and pay enormous prices for the privilege. A shack rents for thirty to forty dollars a month. A decent house commands its own price.

No Longer Democrats.

At the last regular session of the Texas Legislature a resolution was passed by a large majority submitting to the voters of Texas the question of whether or not our State Constitution should be amended so as to hereafter permit women to vote on all questions in this state the same as men. This amendment was drafted by those favoring woman suffrage and submitted just as they asked that it should be; it was done to ascertain the will of the majority on a very important issue.

The election was held and the amendment was defeated by a majority of more than 25,000; yet in the face of these returns, out of a total vote of 116,966 members of the House of representatives voted to do the very thing that a majority of the voters of Texas said they did not want done, and that was to force upon the State of Texas woman suffrage. It was done by the House in ratifying the National woman suffrage amendment by a vote of 96 to 20 by that body. Ninety-six members of the House said by that action that the voters of Texas did not know what they want. They also refused by practically the same vote to submit the proposition to a vote of the people. This bunch is a fair sample of the present day politician.

By their acts they have refused to obey the will of their constituents as expressed at the ballot box and have said in substance, "to hell with the people and the people's

—what the deuce does that mean

It means that NEW thing in a cigarette, it does for your smoke-hunger exactly what a drop of cold water does for your thirst!

To satisfy, a cigarette must do more than please the taste—it must "touch the smoke-spectator." That's what Chesterfields do. They let you know you are smoking—they SATISFY.

And here's why—Chesterfields have been the finer, silkier leaves of TURKISH have been properly blended with several varieties of the best DOMESTIC tobaccos, famous for their full-bodied flavor.

SATISFY is something that no cigarette, except Chesterfields, can give you—regardless of price. Because no cigarette maker can copy Chesterfield blend.

The house fly spreads Typhoid Fever, the most common disease we have, and dangerous also. Clean up your place and fight flies. Eat nothing you see a fly on.

FIGHT FLIES; SAVE LIVES

It is said the American military records show that the common fly causes more deaths than the enemy.

Kill every fly you can and burn his body; but better still, stop his breeding by keeping your premises clean. See that your neighbors keep their premises clear of filth.

Flies will not go where there is nothing to eat, and their main diet is too filthy to mention.

The fly has no equal as a germ carrier; as many as five hundred million germs have been found on and in the body of a single fly.

It is definitely known that the fly is the "carrier" of the germs of typhoid fever; it is widely believed that it is also the carrier of other diseases, including possibly infantile paralysis.

The very presence of a fly is a signal and notification that a housekeeper is uncleanly and inefficient.

The foregoing is taken from a bulletin issued by the Merchants' Association of New York.

Tighten One Nut— Share Stays Tight

Because the share is the business end of a plow, satisfactory plowing depends much upon share efficiency. First of all, you want a share that will keep its original keen cutting edge for a maximum period, that will stand resharpening a number of times, that will retain its original shape, and that will stay close-fitting. Besides these requirements, you want a share that can be put on or taken off quickly and easily. Our John Deere Quick Detachable Shares are especially adapted to meet these requirements to best advantage. Because of the highest quality of material and workmanship that go into their making, they give better and longer service. When worn, they can be easily and safely resharpened more times than ordinary shares. When changing these shares on wheel plows or tractor plows, you don't have to tip the plow or turn it over. There's only one nut to deal with, and it is easy to get at. Replacing a share is just a matter of a few moments. And here's a big point that you will readily appreciate: Tightening the one nut makes the John Deere Quick Detachable Share fit closely and stay close fitting. John Deere Quick Detachable Shares are one of the big features of our John Deere Plows.

SATISFY!
—what the deuce
does that mean?

It means that NEW thing in a cigarette, that does for your smoke-hunger exactly what a drink of cold water does for your thirst!
To satisfy, a cigarette must do more than please the taste—it must "touch the smoke-spot."
That's what Chesterfields do. They let you know you are smoking—they SATISFY.

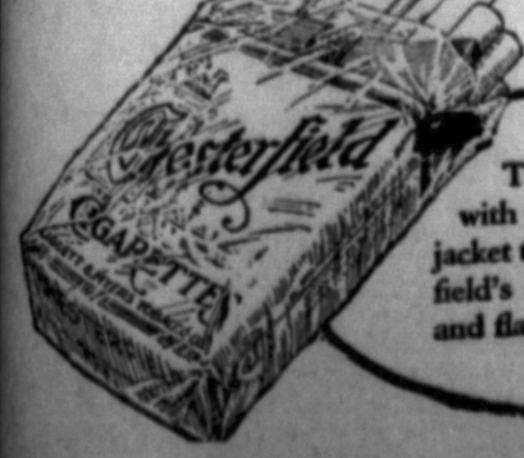

And here's why—Chesterfields have body. The finer, silkier leaves of TURKISH have been properly blended with several varieties of the best DOMESTIC tobaccos, famous for their full-bodied flavor.

SATISFY is something that no cigarette, except Chesterfields, can give you—regardless of price. Because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend.
Say "Chesterfield" to your dealer.

Assist the Moulting—get winter eggs

At this season your hens should get elements for both feathers and eggs. Feathers are mostly protein. A high percentage protein feed supplies a surplus of feather-making materials, thereby assisting the moult, reducing the severe strain of feather growing and advancing winter eggs.

Purina Chicken Chowder Helps Hens Moulting

because it runs high in protein that is available for feathers. It is not a tonic but a wholesome scientific feed, made of granulated meat, linseed meal, alfalfa flour, etc., balanced to be fed in equal weight with Purina Scratch Feed.

Grain Feeds Not Suitable For Moulting

They do not provide elements for feathers, so hens moult slowly and are in poor condition for winter laying.

Feed an abundance of Purina Chicken Chowder now if you want eggs next winter.

SOLDIER BOY KICKS AGAINST Y.M.C.A.

Serves it on Toast With a Garnish of Scotch Blessings, but the Captain "Stumps" Him.

"If every kick and knock against the Y. M. C. A. service overseas could have been handled as an American captain I know treated one case in his company there would be more in the air of what the 'Y' did and less of what they failed to do," said John M. Currie of Metrose, Mass., who is just home from operating Red Triangle huts in the Calais and Ypres sectors.

The censor one evening came across a letter from a boy to his folks back home, in which the "Y" was panned and served on toast with a garnish of all the Scotch blessings and reverse English the boy had on hand, and I should not have blamed him if he had let that letter go. But there was an extra strong touch of exaggeration in it that roused the censor's sense of justice.

So he sent the letter to the captain of the boy's company and the captain called the boy in. This is the conversation that followed:

"Did you write this letter?"

"Yes, sir."

"Read it over—is there anything there you'd like to change before it is sent?"

"No, sir."

"Then there was a short pause, in which the captain studied the boy's letter and his face grew red."

MAYBE THE SOLDIER DOESN'T GO TO CHURCH

But These Figures Will Prove Illuminating to the Skeptic—Only 4,523,343 Attend.

If every man, woman and child in the state of Texas, plus the entire population of New Orleans, La., were to unite in going to church on one Sunday the mobilization would still be less than the attendance at religious meetings in the Southern department from May, 1917, to December 31, 1918. The total attendance at 24,709 such meetings in the "Y" huts was 4,523,343, according to figures compiled by the religious work department of the Army Y. M. C. A. at San Antonio, Tex.

At these meetings 74,457 soldiers requested prayers—a number greater than the population of Oklahoma City. The number of Christian decisions made by these soldiers was 69,929—less than the number of people in the

"You go to the movies and a real show occasionally?"

"No, sir."

There was another pause, and the boy's face was redder and his expression softer. Then:

"If you don't mind, sir, I'd like to see that letter again."

Without a word he took it from the officer's hand, tore it once across, and dropping it into the basket made his salute, turned on his heel and walked out.

ROLLER FAITH NO ANTI-ROTTEN FOR RATTLER'S POISON

He exemplified his faith in the religion of the Almighty to save his son who put their trust in Him, and Calbert County, Ala., is after two days of intense suffering from the bites of a rattler at the home of the so-called "Holy Roller" which was being held in Columbus last week. During the progress of the evening service the pastor who was in charge of the congregation one of the members of his sect who had such faith that he would allow a rattler to bite him, feeling sure that he would be immune from the poison, as St. Paul was at one time immune from the bite of a serpent. The man at once came forward accepting the invitation and a box containing the rattlesnake. The reptile, measuring three or four inches around, was held up in view of the congregation. Harrison caught the snake just below the neck and the rattler struck him five times in rapid succession on the arm between the elbow and wrist. The minister stated that Harrison had allowed himself to be bitten before and surely there would be no harm result from the bites. Harrison was at once seized with sickness and after lingering two days died, despite the attention and treatment of physicians. Harrison leaves a wife and two children and was a hardworking farmer.
