Robinson, 79, died at his home Thursday, October 12, at three p.m. Funeral services were conducted at the Cottonwood cemetery Friday afternoon at three o'clock with Minister Joe Harper, pastor of the Cross Plains Church, and Rev. Ross Respass, pastor of the Cross Plains Baptist church, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Neeb and family visited friends and relatives in Saba Sunday.

Mrs. Leo Tyler and family near Baird were visitors here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cross visited the latter part of last week in Brownwood where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barr and family spent the week visiting in Cisco.

Ballinger Is Next Foe Of Local Gridders

BEARCATS FAVORED IN FRIDAY'S GAME BUT HERD ANXIOUS

Cross Plains high school Buffaloes boasting a tie for third place in the highly competitive district 8-A, journey to Ballinger tonight for a conference encounter with coach "Pooch" Wright's undefeated Bearcats.

Most dopsters agree that Ballinger will carry the odds in tonight's game, however, coach "So" Walker's charges are conceding no quarter. They are out, if possible to avenge the humiliating 44-0 defeat handed the thundering herd last year by the most decisive licking a Cross Plains grid team had taken in 12 years.

Bank To Close At 3 Each Afternoon After November 1

Beginning November first the Citizens State Bank here will begin closing each afternoon at three o'clock, an hour earlier than at present. Reason for the earlier closing is in order that the bank may comply with the recently enacted wage and hour law, which specifies banking employees must not work more than 42 hours in any one week.

Fred Tunnell, cashier of the institution, said yesterday that he hoped no customer would be inconvenienced by the change in schedule.

MR. CATON IS HONORED SUNDAY WITH PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caton and Miss Katherine Dunlap attended a birthday picnic in Forest Park at Fort Worth Sunday, October 15, given in honor of Mr. Caton and Mrs. Sallie M. Caton of Fort Worth.

Others present were: Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Caton, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Caton and baby, Jeanette, Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Caton, Misses, E. M. Smith, V. H. Morgan and Mary Garrison of Clarksville.

For two seasons they were supporting artists to DeWolf Hopper in Gilbert and Sullivan revivals. They have studied under eminent teachers.

Methodists attend banquet in Eastland. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caton, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Neel, Mrs. F. B. Porter, Miss Mabel Jones, and Rev. Floyd W. Thrash, Mrs. Thrash and daughter Clara Jean attended a district banquet and rally of the Methodist church in Eastland Tuesday evening of this week.

R. M. Brummett, 82, Scranton Pioneer Expires Saturday

R. M. Brummett of Scranton, 82 years old, died Saturday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Algie Skiles, in Cisco, after an illness of several months.

Mr. Brummett was an old timer in Callahan county having come to this county in 1892, and settled about two miles southeast of Scranton where he lived until a few years ago, moving to Scranton, where he has resided, with the exceptions of short intervals, when visiting among his children, since his health began failing two or three years ago.

The survivors are his wife, four children, three boys and one girl, Sink Brummett, Scranton, Burnett Brummett, superintendent of the Gorman schools, and Mrs. Algie Skiles of Cisco, Jim Brummett, in West Texas, two step-children, Robert, Estes, Abilene and Elbert Estes, Chattanooga, Oklahoma.

FINAL RITES FOR MRS. O'KEEFE HELD THURSDAY

Final rites were held at the Merens Gap Methodist church near Comanche Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Alice Belle O'Keefe, 49, wife of J. C. O'Keefe of near Comanche, and formerly of this place.

Mrs. O'Keefe died at her home at 5:45 Wednesday morning after an illness of only one and a half hours. Death was attributed to a heart attack. The O'Keefes lived in Colorado City for four years, moving to the oil field near Comanche last May. Mrs. O'Keefe belonged to the Colorado City Methodist church.

Survivors in addition to Mr. O'Keefe are a daughter, Mildred O'Keefe of the home; the father, J. B. Dupree of Zephyr, Texas; six brothers and a sister. Three O'Keefe children are dead.

Several friends of the O'Keefe family from here attended the funeral.

Mrs. Jesse McAdams had as her guests over the week end Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barr and F. L. Barr of Longview.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Anderson had as their guest over the week end their son who is attending school in Stephenville.

Mrs. A. G. Crab of San Angelo was a visitor here the first part of the week.

Buffaloes Defeat Santa Anna 21-7 Here Friday Night

Despite four fumbles involving loss of the ball, Cross Plains sported in the second half here last Friday night to defeat Santa Anna, 21-7.

Santa Anna scored first in the second quarter capitalizing on a Cross Plains fumble on the 20 yard line. Oaks passed to York in the end zone for the counter. York took another pass for the extra point.

Early in the third period Huntington of Cross Plains broke through the Santa Anna line to gallop 70 yards for pay dirt. Upton place kicked to tie the score.

In the last quarter Santa Anna fumbled on the two yard line. Cross Plains recovering, Hucksby went through the line and Upton place-kicked for the extra point. A few minutes later Pillans of Cross Plains raced around end from the 30 yard line to score. Upton again place kicked the extra point.

John W. Newton To Be Laid To Rest At Cross Cut Thursday

John W. Newton, 83, prominent Brown county pioneer and a director for more than 25 years in the Citizens State Bank of Cross Plains, died early Wednesday morning in a Brownwood hospital after more than two years of failing health. He had been critical, however, only about 10 days. Physicians attributed death to diabetes.

Funeral services were to be conducted from the Cross Cut Baptist church Thursday afternoon at three o'clock and interment in the Cross Cut cemetery.

Mr. Newton was born in Arkadelphia, Arkansas, and came with his parents while yet a youth to Texas, stopping at Wise County. The family remained in Texas only a short while before going on to California in an ox drawn wagon.

Two years later they returned to Texas and Wise County, where they remained for a while before coming to Brown County, where Mr. Newton resided the remainder of his life.

He purchased a place three miles West of Cross Cut which remained the home for more than 30 years. Some 15 years ago, however, he and Mrs. Newton moved to Brownwood—just off the Howard Payne College campus—where they had made their home since.

Aside from farming, Mr. Newton was interested at intervals in stock raising, a general mercantile store at Cross Cut, and for more than 25 years a stockholder and director in the Cross Plains bank. He was one of the institution's most faithful directors, being in attendance at most every meeting when not unavoidably forced to be absent.

Two sons survive. They are Charley Newton, and Roy Newton, both of Cross Cut. Another child, the only daughter, Mrs. Emma Walker, died a number of years ago. She was the mother of Mrs. Anderson Gaines. Two brothers, J. W. Newton, Cross Cut; and Henry Newton, Byrds; and one sister Mrs. Etna Willis, of Houston, also survive.

Mr. Newton was a member of the Baptist church and active in attendance until recent months when illness kept him away.

MRS. DALE N. MORRISON TO SPEAK HERE OCT. 25

FOUR CROSS PLAINS MEN ARE NAMED FOR GRAND JURY SERVICE

Autumn term of forty-second district court will convene at Baird October 30, with Judge M. S. Long, presiding, it was announced from the office of Sheriff C.R. Nurdyke, yesterday.

Four Cross Plains men, one from Cottonwood, two from Putnam, four from Clyde, two from Baird and one from Opalin have been named for grand jury service.

Sheriff C. R. Nurdyke, in Cross Plains on business Wednesday, said yesterday that perhaps the most important cases to be heard during the coming term were on charges of burglary. There is the possibility that more serious charges may be brought, however, it was pointed out.

List of grand jurors follows: L. R. Hughes, Baird; Olen Montgomery, Cross Plains, W. R. (Bill) Wagner, Jr., Cross Plains; Floyd Coffey, Cottonwood; R. L. Clinton, Putnam; F.P. Shackelford, Putnam; G. E. (Ed) Morgan, Cross Plains; R. H. Morriset, Abilene route; F. L. Smith, Clyde route one; C. M. Morse, Opalin; A. E. Dyer, Baird; F. A. Bouchette, Clyde; Vernon Spencer, Cross Plains; E. J. Barton, Clyde route two; E. A. Franke, Baird, and John Berry, Clyde.

List of petit jurors for the second, third and fourth weeks of court will appear in the Review in the near future.

Many Local People Attend Funeral In Brownwood Tuesday

Scores of Cross Plains friends attended the funeral of Mrs. W. A. Williams, Jr., 28, in Brownwood Tuesday morning. She died Monday morning at 3:45 in a Brownwood hospital.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Pratt, with the Rev. D. A. Chisholm officiating. Burial was made in the Greenleaf cemetery.

Mrs. Williams was born April 5, 1911 in Charleston, West Virginia. She moved with her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Pratt to Cross Cut in the twenties and a few years later to Cross Plains. She attended Cross Plains schools and had a wide circle of friends. It was in Cross Plains that she became acquainted with W. A. Williams, Jr., to whom she was married a few years later in Brownwood. Mrs. Williams—nee Wilma Charlene Pratt—had been a member of the Methodist church for a number of years.

Besides the husband and her parents she is survived by an infant daughter, Carole Ann, and a host of friends throughout this section.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Pratt, with the Rev. D. A. Chisholm officiating. Burial was made in the Greenleaf cemetery.

County Exhibit Places At Fair

Many questions have been asked about the Fruit Exhibit the home demonstration council sponsored at the West Texas Fair as to who it belonged to and where it was grown. The booth exhibited in checker board fashion fruits that were grown in Callahan county each row representing a season, berries, peaches, plums, apricots, grapes, tomatoes, apples, and pears. Each square had 3 jars in it representing one persons fruit these came from Eula, Clyde, Midway, Enterprise, Oplin, Cottonwood, Midway, Cross Plains, Dressy, and Union. Mrs. Lee Payne, Dressy had the largest exhibit, 3 jars each of berries, peaches, plums and apricots. Mrs. Jim Barr, Cross Plains, had the next largest exhibit and Mrs. Jim Barker, Enterprise next. Nothing but the highest quality of canned fruit was shown.

The fresh fruit came from—

Funeral rites for R. M. Brummett, a pioneer of this community were held at the local Baptist church, Monday at 2:30, just two weeks before his 80th birthday. He passed away suddenly Sunday at 7:30 a.m. in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Algie Skiles of Cisco. Mr. Brummett was an unusually active man for his age, until about two years ago when he developed heart trouble. He was never confined to his bed for any length of time but gradually failed in strength. His death was not so unexpected by his friends and family and yet the suddenness did come as a great shock. He, with Mrs. Brummett spent the last two weeks with their son, Prof. B. B. Brummett of Gorman, having come to Cisco on Friday preceding his death.

active man for his age, until about two years ago when he developed heart trouble. He was never confined to his bed for any length of time but gradually failed in strength. His death was not so unexpected by his friends and family and yet the suddenness did come as a great shock. He, with Mrs. Brummett spent the last two weeks with their son, Prof. B. B. Brummett of Gorman, having come to Cisco on Friday preceding his death.

One of the largest crowds ever attending a funeral here was present. G. W. Parks of Roscoe former pastor here for 18 years gave the address. M. F. Richardson of Abilene also a former pastor read the 10th Psalm and led in prayer.

Mr. Brummett moved with his family here from Collin County in 1892, united with the Baptist church here immediately where his membership continued until death.

He was an outstanding farmer and excelled as a neighbor, always finding ways to help his fellowman. He leaves behind his widow with whom he had lived for 51 years and four children; Mrs. Algie Skiles, Cisco; Eurette, Gorman, S. H. of Scranton and Jim of McComney. Two stepsons, Eluid Eastus of Loveland, Oklahoma, and Robert Eastus, Abilene. Grandsons were pall bearers. Neil Lane funeral home of Cisco was in charge of the interment, which took place in Scranton cemetery.

MISS LACY, LOWE HEARD OVER W.B.A.P.

Lenora Lacy and Jane Rae Lowe of Cross Plains were heard in a radio program over W.B.A.P. Saturday morning, October 14, at 9:00 a.m. At this time the Tarleton Singers, a mixed choral group of sixty voices, broadcast the first of a series of programs from the stage of the Tarleton College Auditorium in Stephenville.

The program, arranged by R. Berton Coffin, professor of music, is wide enough in scope to please almost any lover of music. On the same program was heard such contrasting numbers as "Hear Me Pray," a negro spiritual, and "Muset in E" by Czerny. In addition to numbers by the choral group, there were violin solos by Harold J. Bluhm and piano solos by Donald Morton, both instructors in the music department at Tarleton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith and daughter Lina Lee spent Sunday in Dallas in the home of their daughter Mrs. W. C. Childress. They were joined there by Garland Smith, who is a student in North Texas State Teachers College at Denton.

Mrs. M. F. Gwin of Amarillo visited here in the home of friends the past week.

COMING SOON "BOY - FRIEND"

BURKETT

Mrs. Ada Edmondson, wife of W. B. Edmondson age 52 years, passed away at 10:45, Saturday morning at the Overall hospital at Coleman. She had been in failing health for several weeks and became seriously ill on Thursday when she was rushed to the hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at the tabernacle with Uncle Wade Gibson of Coleman officiating. He was assisted by Rev. J. D. Farmer. Survivors are her husband and one son, Elmer Edmondson and one daughter, Mrs. Paul Goslin. Three sisters, Mrs. Lake Harwell of Burkett, Mrs. Jim Strickland Baird; and Mrs. Brayor of Clyde.

Flower bearers were: Mesdames, Herbert Burkett, Ella Burns, J. J. Slack, Misses Jo, Hilda and Princy Henderson.

Out of town friends were present from Talpa and Coleman and other near-by towns and Miss Thelma Lee Burton, Mrs. Leo Gasset and family of Talpa and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Boyles and Mr. Rae Cunningham, of Fort Worth, who at one time made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Edmondson.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Calvin of Coleman are many who we fail to make mention were here for the services. We would not forget to extend our heart-felt sympathy to our close friends in the passing of this our dear friend and their mother and wife.

We are made sad to report the condition of Mrs. Cecil Gains quite serious at this writing. Mrs. Martin, mother of Mr. Richard Martin, who formerly lived here and now resides at Cross Plains is quite ill and all her children have been called to her bedside. Mr. and Mrs. Rich Martin and family of Oklahoma are here at this writing and have visited several of their friends as the children attended school here before moving.

Mrs. Holland who has been recuperating in the home of her son here was able to be moved to her home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Burkett and daughter, Maxine, spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. Dave Burkett. Mr. Burkett is improving and can be up and about most all time now.

Mrs. O. E. Brink is still receiving treatments at Coleman and confined in her room most of the time. In last week's news item we wish to correct the mistake we made in Mrs. Webb's visit here. It was Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Webb who visited their son Mr. Pat Webb in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Scott. Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Joseph were shopping in Abilene first of last week.

Mrs. Oscar Cunningham and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Cunningham of Fort Worth visited in the home of Mrs. Cunningham's father, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burkett over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mullin called by on way home from funeral of Mrs. O'Keefe's at Brownwood to see their sister, Mrs. J. E. Oliver and Mrs. O. E. Brink.

Mrs. Evelyn Freeman of Rolling Springs will be here last of week for a visit in the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Farmer. J. Curtis Brown who is attending John Tarleton at Stephenville was honored as student council of the college.

Finis Brown who is recreational director at Abilene is in California it was reported here last week. Mrs. Rewe Porter is indisposed at this writing and receiving treatment at Santa Anna.

We wish to call attention again this week to the program which will begin at 9:30 o'clock at the cemetery here this Saturday, there will be special songs and the speaker will be J. W. Goslin of Coleman. R. H. (Pete) Goslin and Miss Lola Polk stole a march on their

METHODIST CHURCH

"The Endurance of Righteousness" will be the sermon subject of the pastor of the Methodist church Sunday at 10:30. The church school will open at 9:45. HERD WILL BE MINUS JAMES UNDERWOOD'S SERVICES AT GUARD

Minus the services of co-captain James Underwood, who is in a Gorman hospital suffering with an infected arm, Cross Plains high school Buffaloes will host Friday night to an invasion of the hard running Mozelle Mustangs in a district 8-A game. Kick-off is set for eight o'clock.

Coach "Doc" Walker was undecided yesterday as to what maneuvers he would make in the endeavor to fill the guard slot usually commanded so capably by Underwood. In all probability he will shift Ebb Hucabay, who played a jam up good guard on last year's team but is running in the back field this year, to Underwood's position. Hucabay's place in the starting backfield would probably be filled by Donnie Ray Kelly.

Mozelle will bring to Cross Plains one of the strongest teams the Coleman county school has ever had. Last year the Mustangs played here and were doped as almost certain losers. Displaying a brilliant passing attack they over-whelmed the Bisons, however, and won their first conference game from Cross Plains. Comparative dope this year favors the Mustangs, however, coach "Doc" Walker's athletes hope to overturn the dope bucket in just his embarrassing fashion as did Mozelle last season.

Plains went down in to Ballinger last Friday but not ingloriously. The Buffaloes were out almost 10 pounds to an, yet they exhibited such fan spirit that even Ballinger fans commented freely their gameness.

to seven loss is not humiliating, and the Cross athletes are to be congratulated upon the splendid they made. Identically, did you know big Bill Upton hasn't missed a point after touchdown all in. Five times his mates crossed the double striped five times Bill has bootie big-skin beautifully be-neath the uprights.
