Embarrassing
When Acid Indigestion, Gas or Stomach or Heartburn make you feel uncomfortable or embarrass you, try Alka-Seltzer, which contains alkalinizing buffers and helps counteract the associated Excess Stomach Acidity.
But the relief of these minor stomach upsets is only a small part of what you can expect Alka-Seltzer to do for you. You will find it effective for Pain Relief in Headache, Neuralgia, Cold and Muscular Aches and Pains. It contains an analgesic, (sodium acetyl salicylate), made more prompt and effective in its pain relieving action by alkaline buffers.
When hard work or strenuous exercise make you feel tired and dragged out, enjoy the refreshing effect of a glass of sparkling tangy Alka-Seltzer.

Pioneer Loses To Williams 19 To 7 On Thursday Night

Coch Austin Newton's Williams high school Bulldogs defeated Pioneer 19 to 7, under the lights of Cross Plains high school field Thursday night of last week. The game was a non-conference affair. In spite of a cold, biting North wind, both teams resorted to frequent passing, the Bulldogs heaving 16 forwards and Pioneer 23. The Pioneer touchdown was air produced and one of Williams' came on a pass. Early in the first quarter Williams took over on Pioneer's 20 yard line after a bad punt. A pass to Looney was good for 10 yards, however, the big halfback sprinted on to pay dirt before being stopped. An attempt to pass for the extra point was intercepted making the score Williams 6, Pioneer 0. Again in the first quarter Williams covered a fumble on Pioneer's 45 yard stripe. Three thrusts at the line netted 10 yards and a first down. A pass to Looney carried the leather to the 10 yard line. Three line plays made eight yards and on the fourth down Pittman riced through for a touchdown. Looney converted from placement. Williams 13, Pioneer 0. Pioneer's offense began clicking in the third chukker and the ball was advanced to Williams 21 yard stripe. Paul Huntington heaved a forward into the failing arms of the Panthers' touchdown. Fleming rushed the line for the extra point. Williams 13, Pioneer 7. In the fourth quarter Williams scored again when a Pioneer punt was blocked and Byrd covered the leather behind Pioneer's goal line. Looney failed to convert and the game ended Williams 19, Pioneer 7.

Mrs. A. G. Crabb of San Angelo was a visitor here the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Baum were visitors in Brownwood over the week end.

Mrs. Johnny McLain of McCamey visited friends and relatives here over the week end.

ALL SHOULD GET TITLE TO THEIR CAR AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

The certificate of title act, passed by the last session of the State Legislature, is now in effect. The act requires all car owners to have certificate of title on their cars before the car can be sold. It is now unlawful to sell a car or truck unless the seller has a certificate of title. The County Tax Assessor-Collector or is the agent for the State Department of Public Safety who issues the certificate of titles, and all car owners should apply to Olaf Hollingshead, County Tax Assessor-Collector and make application. In making application for certificate of title, legal evidence must be submitted, showing ownership, such as bill of sale, manufacturers of the car he is selling. The bill of sale is still to be given and recorded in the County Tax Assessor-Collector's office as before and application for certificate of title should be made at that time. The applications for certificate of titles are sworn to before a Notary Public and show all liens against the car or truck, and show all liens against tires, radios, or any other accessories. The statutory fee of twenty five cents is required for each application for certificate of title. The titles are issued by the department of public safety at Austin, Texas, and certificate of title is mailed directly to the applicant from there. The applications must be filled out on a typewriter or printed in black ink, and the applicant must sign in black, since a photostatic copy is made of the application. It would be much simpler if all car or truck owners would make application for their certificate of title as soon as possible, by the end of the year, then when they desire to trade or sell their car or truck, there would be no delay in making the transaction. No certificate of title is required for trailers. To register a lien, to clean a lien, or to correct any error that might be on a certificate of title, the owner must apply for a "corrected certificate of title." All cars have to have the title by 1942.

More Memories of a newspaperman

The time when, as a small town editor, it was my good fortune to scoop the star journalist of Texas in his own newspaper. He was sent to Eastland by a metropolitan newspaper to "cover" the total of the Santa Claus bank bandit but, figuring the jury would be out a good while, the staff correspondent wandered over to Breckenridge. The jury came in unexpectedly and, seeing that he wasn't there, I called his paper by long distance telephone and gave the verdict. The first he knew of it was when he saw the big headline in his paper.

But I know how he felt. As the one-man news department of the Ranger Times, I okayed the first copy of the paper off the press one afternoon, then sauntered up to a friend's office. A few minutes later, I heard a newsboy yelling, "Ranger man commits suicide!" Knowing I had handled no such story, I ran out, bought a paper and—sure enough—there it was. Here's the way it had happened! Right after I left the office, George Manning, the advertising manager (now publisher at Overton), came in with the news as he had been passing right after the man had shot himself; then Ernest Glazier, linotype operator, wrote the story; Joe Thompson set it up; Whitey Hicks, the foreman, wrote the headline, pulled out a feature yarn on page 1 to make room for the suicide story, and there it was—the editor scooped in his own paper. The only consolation was that it had taken four men to do it!

Which calls to mind the story of the negro accused of beating up a negro woman. The defendant explained to the judge: "Yuh honah, she promised me ef I would git her a set of false teeth that she'd marry me and I got her a set of teeth what cost me $40 and then she throwed me ovah. Yistiddy I seen her wid another niggah and she grinned at me—grinned at me wid my own teeth, and I knocked h—out o' her!"

Captain Aldrich of the Texas Rangers has one of the finest collections of Texas books in existence. Amos Carter used to sell crayon enlargements of photographs.

Most vivid recollection of the 19-38 campaign: Ralph Yarborough's closing speech in Austin's Woodbridge Park the night before the first primary. In the midst of his address, a heavy rain struck but the candidate, bare-headed and unsheltered, kept on speaking as the program was going out over the radio. Most of the audience ran to their cars and listened there, honking their horns when the candidate for Attorney General made a telling point. But fully 200 persons huddled under the scant protection of the trees and, though soon dripping wet, they laughed and cheered. With such devotion as that from the home folks, no wonder Yarborough received 71 per cent of the votes in his home county against four opponents.

An I should like to be recognized long enough to express my bitter resentment at being charged 15 cents for a hamburger in Austin—at a sandwich stand, at that. Any place so choosy that it feels called upon to charge more than a dime for a hamburger is too high-toned to be selling such a plain, democratic product as a hamburger, anyway.

One of the most interesting hotels in Texas is the Excelsior at Jefferson. Part of the structure was erected before the Civil War. Between the hotel and the lonesome old federal building (Jefferson once had a population of 30,000 but now has only a few thousand inhabitants), there are Texas fashions, like red rose-buds; the variegated pinks and yellows of lantanas; and periwinkles, white roses, marigolds, Mexican sunflowers and morning glories—(somebody told me what the flowers were, all but the morning glories—we had those in Ark. On the veranda is a large cage containing a hundred canaries. Their ancestors were there 50 years ago, twittering and fluttering about.

Some of the furniture is 150 years old and the register contains the names of General Grant, Jacob Astor, W. H. Vanderbilt and Jay Gould. At the bottom of a page, Gould wrote "End of Jefferson, Texas." The railroad builder was angry because the city wouldn't provide the bonus he thought it should for building a railroad and that marked the beginning of Jefferson's decline.

The rooms of the Excelsior have no keys and have never been locked—not even when the town experienced a recent oil boom.

For more than 30 years well informed people of the Cross Plains trade territory have depended upon the Review for local information. Today as well as yesterday your home town newspaper chronicles all that's fit to print.

A Sincere Personal Word:

As much as we would like to send every friend and citizen of the Cross Plains trade territory the paper each week, we CAN NOT unless the subscription price is paid. Postal regulations forbid the carrying of delinquents. Too, good business demands that we exercise the same judgment as your merchant or banker.

We want to send YOU the Review. In fact nothing will make us happier. But we absolutely can not carry delinquent subscribers. Newsprint has increased materially within recent years. Labor has increased in price, addition of a number of taxes which were a few years ago unheard of demands that we exercise strict economy in the operation of this paper. These and countless other reasons strictly forbid our carrying unpaid subscribers on the mailing list.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Foster have moved to Cross Plains recently. Delmer Lavender and O. H. Reese took a load of cattle to Fort Worth last week. Returning home just out of Cisco a car ran into their pick-up and badly damaged it but no one was hurt.

Governor Lee O'Daniels, in his fireside chat Sunday morning gave a lot of information that might be of interest to the taxpayers of the State of Texas. He said, "In as much as the people were told before the constitutional amendment was adopted, that if they would amend the constitution, so that the legislature would remain in session 120 days instead of 90 days, it would help to get a better class of men in the legislature and reduce the expenses of the state." He said "let us compare the expenses for four years prior to the adoption of the amendment and four years following the adoption of the amendment. The cost of four years before the adoption as shown by the record was $825,000, while four years since adoption, the expense of running the legislature has been $2,375,000, while the expense of call sessions was $1,910,000 for four years prior to the adoption, as compared with $1,840,000 for the four years since the adoption. The regular session cost has been raised 185 per cent since the adoption, while the expense of call sessions has been raised only 24 per cent.

UNCLE GREEN ROBINSON

Written by Mamie Jordan for W. O. Peavy in memory of his friend, November 5, 1939. I've lost one of my dearest friends. Yet I know that it is best. That where joy and happiness blends. His soul now is at rest.

He kept down strife in those Pioneer days. By being a mild tempered - good natured old soul.

And jokes he told in many ways That even the dignified with laughter would roll.

To be in his presence, children were delighted. And many an adventure to them he told.

Thus a candle of loyalty he lighted In their minds by the stories of old.

He was a Christian who loved his fellow man; A friend to the rich and the poor. In case of a friends illness to him he ran.

And his "witticisms" were generally the cure. I can't help it if down my cheek falls a tear. And in my throat a lump rises there For I've parted with a friend so dear.

That can't be replaced anywhere. He's gone to Heaven and I'll meet him there. When the Lord's trumpet shall call me home. And together, where bliss is everywhere, Uncle Green and I again will roam.

By a true friend, W. O. Peavy

GENERAL FUND DEFICIT REACHES $23,454.091

Charley Lockhart gave out a statement Saturday showing that there was a deficit of $23,454.091, with the general fund showing a deficit of $23,454.091, the confederate pension fund is in the red $3,348,883 and the old age pension fund showing a deficit of $2,100,000, this amount that is owed the Dallas banks, and others holding certificates the validity of which was recently upheld by district Judge Ralph Yarbrough.

In spite of the nearly thirty million dollar deficit, in state accounts there is net cash balance of $12,780,000 with total cash deposits to the credit of all state funds of $44,212,983, the State has unpaid warrants to the amount of $31,422,858, this analysis shows there is being collected plenty of money, if the different taxes were adjusted. This shows there is more money collected in some funds than is really needed and insufficient collections in other funds which creates a deficit in one fund and a surplus in another. It seems that this could be adjusted, by the legislature, if there was a committee appointed, on adjusting taxation, and have them make a report, and recommend to the legislature, the amount of money needed in each fund, and fix a rate accordingly. There is no necessity of raising the tax rate to an increase of $40,000,000 as suggested by governor O'Daniel in his Sunday morning talk. $40,000,000 is an awful big raise at one time, of course, this amount would have to be raised; but reduce the rate in other funds, to make up for a part of the raise, if not all of it, as there is no business about having big surpluses in one fund and deficits in another.

Cross Plains Trims Muzzle 18-13 In Drill Game Friday

A football game with a story finish here Friday night. Cross Plains high school Buffaloes and Muzzle 18 to 13 in a district encounter. The Buffaloes led the first and second quarters by 12 to 0 and 12 to 0. The Mustangs led the third and fourth quarters by 12 to 0 and 12 to 0.

The game came back in the third quarter when Muzzle 18 scored seven points with a pass to near mid field. Two plays later they opened up again in the fourth quarter with an aerial attack for six points to lead 13 to 12. Muzzle 18 had three minutes to score.

Friday afternoon, beginning at 6:15 a reception will be held in the Home Economics building with Sarah Collins presiding.

The grand entry, a special feature from each graduating class will circle the field prior to the game.

At 7:00 Friday evening the Cross Plains Buffaloes will clash with the Coleman Bluecats for the last conference game at the home field. This will conclude the program.

All ex-students are urged to be there and help make "homecoming" an annual affair.

The precipitation was the first since early in October. Cross Plains received an inch of moisture on October eighth and ninth. Fields of young grain had begun to suffer extensively, pastures likewise were barren and rain was badly needed to insure a crop of winter grass.

Workers are remodeling the farm home on the place recently bought by Parker Baum, just North of Dressy. A new roof and sleeping porch are being added.

Ex-Students

GAME WITH COLEMAN THAT NIGHT AT 7:30 TO BE DAY'S FEATURE

The locals ex-students of Cross Plains High School have set a home-coming date for November 24th and 25th. This will be the first program of its kind in the history of the school.

Miss Helen Gray, chairman of the local ex-student committees to have charge of the program. Invitations will be sent to all out-of-town ex-students by the advertising committee.

The home-coming will start Thursday night, at 6:15 with a pep rally in town. Immediately following the rally a bonfire on the school grounds. A party will be held in the gym after the bonfire with skating for those who prefer.

Friday morning at 8:30 a pep rally will be held in the high school auditorium with music by the Buffalo band and talks by former lettermen of the Buffalo squad.

EASTLAND COUNTY WILL BE DRY AFTER SATURDAY Eastland county is to be dry after midnight Saturday, November 11th according to a report given out by Judge Adamson, county judge of Eastland county. There has been a suit filed in the 88th district court to contest the recent local option election, and alleging several irregularities in the calling and holding of the election, about one month ago. The suit filed in the 88th district court Friday can not be heard until the January term. It was pointed out that suit which names the county judge, county commissioners and district attorney as defendants in behalf of the county, was filed late to get service upon the defendants at least ten days before the opening of the next term of court. The local option law is plain upon the point that no contest can suspend the functioning of the law until the contest is heard, and this leaves the county dry after midnight Saturday night.
