5,000 EXPECTED AT REUNION HERE

Home Town Gossip

Two marriages this week in the home town girls recited vows. The first was Saturday night at New Castle when Bobye Nell Neel became the bride of Donald M. Weaver of Fort Worth. Then Tuesday evening at eight o'clock Ruth Rumph and Truett Doss were joined in wedlock at the home of the bride's parents here.

There's a time and place for all things, a time to sow and a time to reap, a time to laugh and a time to sleep, a time to work and a time to rest. If there is a time and place to have them rolled, this place is...

The 58th annual picnic is behind us and has taken its place in history along with its illustrious successors. Next event in the local calendar is the reunion of Callahan county to be held here August 18, 1940.

Just one week until Christmas and the hills are barely paid from the holiday buying spree. Oh, it was a lot of fun anyway.

Less rain was received in Cross Plains during July than any month since March, when the government tabulations of rain all began being recorded here.

The debate between Bill Chambers representative from Cross Plains and Coleman county, and Bryan Bradbury, Taylor county's representative in the lower house, was originally scheduled for August 12th but failed to materialize.

The Callahan County singing convention will be held here Sunday August sixth at the First Baptist church. Singing will begin at two o'clock.

John Wood of Brownwood and Miss Katherine Dunlap of Cross Plains visited in Fort Worth Tuesday and Wednesday night.

Throngs Attend 58th Annual Picnic Here

STREET PARADE IS BEST EVER STAGED HERE; GIVE PRIZES

Cross Plains 58th annual picnic closed Friday night after two days of hilarity. Consensus was that one of the largest crowds in history attended this year's function. Possibly one of the most favorably commented on features of the celebration was an elaborate street parade here Thursday morning.

The street parade officially opened the 58th annual celebration. Crowds lined Main Street for more than four blocks. To secure a choice view of the procession, scores perched atop buildings and others found vantage points on parked automobiles.

Committees named 14 winners in the parade. They were as follows: best decorated float, Mc's Variety Store; second best decorated float, Cox Produce Company; best team of horses, Clarence Edgington; second best team of horses, Oren Barr; best team of mules, L. L. Moutgomery; most typical cowgirl, Miss Clara Nell McDermott; best kid pony, John Adair, Jr.; second best kid pony, Tom Minton, Jr.; best all-around saddle horse, H. H. McDermott; second best saddle horse, H. H. McDermott; most novel entry, Mrs. George B. Scott; most comical entry, the Liberty theatre; best decorated bicycle, Henry Jordan. Cash prizes were awarded by the picnic committee.

Huge crowds were in attendance both days of the celebration, however, night crowds far outnumbered those during the day. Additional space for parking had to be secured each evening, a step that has not heretofore been necessary.

Cross Plains high school band, under the direction of Dale McCook, rendered concerts throughout the two days and marched in Thursday's street parade.

About 200 girls meet in Palo Duro Canyon of the Panhandle picnic every August to enjoy another session of Conchito Girls Camp. The time is spent in tennis, swimming, volleyball, softball, nature hikes, campfire singongs, Indian ceremonials and inspiring devotional and vespere services.

Those to go from here are Misses James Clyde and Eloise Lane, Mildred Browning, Jane Rae Lowe, Doris Nell Gray, Lanette Womack and Mrs. Don McCall.

Mrs. J. D. Barclay was carried to a Brownwood hospital Monday afternoon where she underwent a major operation Tuesday morning.

MAN HURT IN BLAST TUESDAY AFTERNOON RECOVERY NICELY

Herbert Freeman, local blacksmith, who sustained a broken right leg and severe bruises when a drum of asphalt on which he was working exploded Tuesday afternoon, was reported Thursday morning to be recovering normally in a Cisco hospital.

The blast, which occurred shortly after two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, was heard throughout the entire business district. The explosion also ignited asphalt and threatened the building in which Herbert Freeman and his father operate a blacksmith and repair shop. Firemen were summoned and immediately extinguished the blaze.

Friends who rushed the injured man to a doctor's office, first feared that he might lose the injured leg. X-ray pictures revealed, however, that the leg bones were only broken, not crushed.

Bill Seaborn, who was standing nearby when the explosion occurred, received a blast of asphalt in the face and about the body. He was uninjured, however, save for a few slight burns.

It will be necessary for Freeman to remain in the hospital at least 10 days more, friends here were told yesterday.

BAIRD MAN DIES OF INJURY RECEIVED IN SCUFFLE WITH FRIEND

Funeral was held Monday afternoon at the First Baptist church in Baird for Honston Britton Bassett, 31, who died of a broken neck in a Baird hospital at 2:30 a.m., Sunday.

The Rev. A. A. Davis, pastor, officiated the rites. Burial was in Rock cemetery.

Bassett suffered the fatal injury while indulging in a friendly scuffle enroute to his home from the Cross Plains picnic Friday night. He was taken to the hospital Saturday morning.

Bassett moved to Baird six weeks ago from Littlefield, but had lived in this county at intervals for a number of years. Survivors are his wife and 18-month-old son, H. B. Jr., a sister, Mrs. D. W. Grimes, of Baird and two brothers.

PEANUT MARKET IN SOUTH TEXAS LOWER

Opening market prices for peanuts in Texas are somewhat lower than those of last year, according to reports from the South Texas area where peanuts are now being marketed. Prices range from 75 cents to 80 cents per bushel.

The local county peanut crop, estimated to be 15 per cent larger than that of last year, is beginning to show signs of needing rain but is in good condition, reports indicate. An increased yield is expected, barring continued dry weather during the next few weeks.

C. E. Robertson returned to his home here this week from Sipe Springs, where he sustained a broken foot while working on an oil well. He was around town Tuesday on crutches.

Recent Cross Plains Brides

Bobye Nell Neel
Wedded Fort Worth Man On Saturday

Coming as a surprise to their many friends was the marriage Saturday night, July 29, of Miss Bobye Nell Neel, of Cross Plains, and Donald M. Weaver, of Fort Worth. The ceremony was solemnized at New Castle by the Rev. O. B. Salyer, former classmate of the couple.

The marriage was the culmination of an extended courtship which had its inception three years ago when both were students in Weatherford Junior College.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver will make their home at 1029 B-East Allen Street in Fort Worth where he is associated with a machinery concern.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Neel, of Cross Plains. She was graduated from Cross Plains high school and later attended Weatherford Junior College from which she was graduated with honors with the class of 1938.

For the past year she has been employed in the offices of Dr. J. Henry McGowan, D.D.S.

REDUCTION OF TAXES FOR EASTLAND COUNTY IS NOW IN PROSPECT

County Judge W. S. Adamson of Eastland county announced Wednesday that lowering of the county tax rate from $1.50 to $1.30 is in prospect.

He said that in preparing the budget for the coming year $1.30 rate has been figured. Wednesday August 16, will be the date for a public hearing on the proposed budget.

The budget and tax rate will not be formally adopted until after the public hearing.

If the new rate is adopted it will be the lowest since 1934. In 1934 the rate was $1.30 and valuations were over $24,000,000. Now the valuations are approximately $20,000,000.

Ruth Rumph

Marriage of Miss Ruth Rumph and Truett Doss, of Brownwood, was solemnized at eight o'clock Tuesday evening, August first, at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Rumph in Cross Plains.

In the presence of only the bride and groom's parents and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. R. L. Bell of Snyder, Dr. R. M. Bradford, pastor of the Coggin Avenue Baptist church in Brownwood, read the ring ceremony. The bride and groom entered together without attendants. Seasonal flowers and small bronze and white lights decorated the rooms.

The bride wore a teal blue bolero suit of alpaca and lace with matching accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and for "something old and something borrowed," she wore a strand of gold beads of her mother's.

After the ceremony an informal reception honored the bridal couple before they departed on a honeymoon trip to New Mexico and Colorado. The bride traveled in a gray tailored suit accented with black and amber with tan accessories.

"Cross Plains peaches sell faster than any in Texas," says Jess Sparks, Cottonwood man who has been hauling for the past several weeks to West Texas points.

"I've hauled from Weatherford to Lubbock and all along the route people have seemed eager to purchase Cross Plains peaches because of their size and due to the fact that they have been unblemished," he says.

AS CITY PLAYS HOST TO OLD SETTLERS ON 18TH OF THIS MONTH

Between 4,000 and 5,000 people are expected here August 18, as Cross Plains plays host to the fourth annual reunion of Callahan county pioneers. The gathering will be held at the City Park on the banks of Turkey Creek in the Western edge of town.

Mrs. L. L. Blackburn, of Baird, chairman of the entertainment committee, announced yesterday that a full day's program had been completed and indications were that this year's program would surpass all previous efforts.

Miss Eliza Gilliland, secretary of the Callahan County Pioneers Association, told the Review in a telephone conversation Wednesday afternoon that she expected 5,000 people to attend this year's celebration.

More than 3,000 were present at the first meeting of old settlers held on the McCoy Ranch in 1936 and the crowds have grown with each year, I believe there will be at least 5,000 people on hand this year," she said.

The program will open at 10 o'clock with the welcome address which is to be extended by Paul V. Harrell, Cross Plains attorney. District Attorney Bob Black will respond. Mr. Black will speak from the angle of a son of a pioneer, his father having come to Callahan county in 1778.

Basket lunch will be spread at 12:30.

The afternoon will include a variety of entertainment. There will be jigs, old fiddlers and range song contests; the introduction of the oldest resident, the oldest citizen in point residence, the oldest native son and daughter, the family in which the most generations are represented at the reunion, the old timer coming the greatest distance to be present.

Late in the afternoon there will be an old fashioned square dance. Jack Scott, publisher of the Cross Plains Review, will be master of ceremonies.

Members of all committees working on various phases of the celebration are to meet at the court-house in Baird Saturday afternoon, August 12, at two o'clock, the Review was told yesterday. It is being urged that all committeemen make a special effort to attend this meeting as there are several matters of importance to be disposed of at that time.

ATWELL... The revival at the Baptist church closed Sunday. And it can really be called a revival.

Rev. P. D. Fullingim from Brownwood did the preaching there were around 30 conversions...

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones and children from Abilene visited with relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. S. S. Pillans and children from Austin visited this past week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jones.

Mrs. Mitchell from Cisco visited last week with Mrs. J. C. Brashers and attended the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Mitchell from Abilene were visitors here Sunday.

This community received a good shower Sunday afternoon, it will greatly revived the crops.

Matt Pearce's new book called "Cartoon Guide of New Mexico" says it is unnecessary to bring umbrellas or galoshes to Santa Fe...

Perhaps Santa Fe's outstanding artist was the late Gerald Cassidy whose charming wife, Ina Sizer Cassidy, graciously honored us with a tea at which we touched hands with more celebrities than I dreamed...

From Santa Fe to Taos the road climbs north along the Rio Grande. We Texans could never recognize our placid wide stream in this turbulent, clear water that dances down the canyon in a perfect frenzy of effervescent delight.

I want a rambling adobe house, with a walled patio, a flagstone floor, gay Navajo rugs, rich Mexican glass, beaded Spanish Santos, and pirate's chests...

Mrs. George B. Scott and Mrs. C. A. Stone visited Mrs. J. B. Cutbirth in Baird Sunday.

WITH OUR WILDLIFE... Texas Mountain Sheep... Inroads of domestic sheep and elk upon the range of the wild mountain sheep in Texas will keep those nimble-footed and interesting animals from increasing much beyond their present number...

Mountain sheep, which are found in the Beach of Diablo Mountains of West Texas, now number fewer than 400, according to Snow, who counted 130 in the Beach Mountains and who believes, after his survey, that there are approximately 250 in the Diablos.

While it is not likely sportsmen will ever have an open season on wild sheep, which are among the most colorful animals in the Lone Star State, three ranchmen of the Trans-Pecos are leading the fight to help the species survive.

There is a crippled doe on the Gibbons ranch in San Saba county that had her sixth set of twin fawns this year, according to John Gibbons. The doe had probably been shot when very young and left her right hind leg useless.

When folks see what hilarious fun campaigning for election can be the whole town will be running for office on John Barrymore's formula...

Both Ambassador and Mrs. Daniels were gracious. He delighted the visitors with several good stories. As members of the group were taking pictures on the steps for a photograph, the ambassador said that a woman with a large number of little sons and daughters visited a studio and asked, "what would you charge to make a picture?"

To which story this columnist countered with the one about the woman who boarded a street car with a flock of youngsters. Moved by curiosity, a passenger asked, "Madam, pardon me, but are all these your children or is this a picnic?"

If a federal tender board is a good thing for Texas in handling oil that is in interstate commerce, then why wouldn't such a system be a good thing for Louisiana, too?

Jerry Sadler, State Railroad Commissioner, thinks since the goose is sauce for the gander and he visited Washington recently to suggest that Louisiana be placed on the same footing as Texas, so as to change the situation which now produces discrimination against our State and injury to our oil industry.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I am deeply interested in the discussion between Mr. Cleve Callaway and Mr. Norman. I sympathize with school teachers, their paths are not strewn with roses and there never was one who pleased all their patrons.

In these hectic days it is almost impossible for poor people to send their children to school. If they are not dressed in the very latest style—someone will make fun of them. When they themselves are poor as can be. The demanding teacher will say, tomorrow bring a nickel-dime or quarter. As the case may be. Almost every day daughter comes in from school, mother I must have so and so. Mother replies that is too expensive we cannot afford it, daughter comes back with, I will miss my grade. So father and mother work a little harder, borrow more money if they can. They must keep up with the Jones and Smiths, and so it goes on and on. Some of them haven't been out of debt in fifteen years. Children used to pay for their raising very few of them do now.

Oplin Crop Tour

Final plans for the trench silo filling demonstration and tour of crops of the Oplin area have been worked out and it is expected that a large crowd will be on hand August 9 to spend the afternoon looking over some of the many demonstrations. At 1:45 the group will meet at Raymond Dick's farm where the proper method of placing bundles of feed in a trench silo will be shown. From there visits will be made at Sid Harvill's farm to look over some cotton varieties. The next stop will be at the Wallace Johnson farm for the purpose of comparing the practice of planting feed crops two rows and skip one every row system. In dry years (and many of them are dry) the former system is recommended by experiment stations that have the data to show that more feed is made. The group will then swing over to W. L. Atwood's place and study the beginning of a modern poultry plant. The last stop will be made at Clint McLutry's farm for the purpose of looking over some of the oldest terraces in the Oplin area. Clint's farm has been terraced for more than ten years and they have proved so valuable in holding soil and water on the farm that a thousand dollars would not buy them if they could not be replaced Clint has said. All farmers and others interested are cordially invited to be on hand Wednesday, August 9 at 1:30 p.m. at the Raymond Dick Farm where the first stop will be made.

Trench Silo

Filling demonstrations will be given next week at the time and place shown below:

Tuesday, August 8 at I. G. Mobley's farm North of Putnam; Wednesday, August 9 at Raymond Dick's farm South of Oplin; and Thursday, August 10 at Geo. Parker's farm Southwest of Rowden Store. All of the meetings will start at 1:30 p.m. The proper method of placing bundle feed in a trench silo will be demonstrated at each place by the county agent.

E. S. McNight, F.S.A. Supervisor, is cooperating in these demonstrations by inviting all F.S.A. clinics in the vicinity.

Texas Fruit and Peach Show

Is the name given to Stephenville's latest exhibit and will be held Wednesday August 16 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Attractive prizes are offered for exhibits of peaches, grapes, plums, apples, pears and figs. Those interested in showing some of Callahan county's best fruits are invited to see your county agent for further information, about the show.

Two New Trench Silos

Have been dug by Norman Finley that will hold 400 tons of feed. The plans are to fill these with bundle red top cane grown on neutral acres under the 1939 farm program. Walter Jones of Bayou plans to dig a 60 ton trench to store some red top cane. Since silage is an excellent feed for making brooding stock and milk cows give lots of milk so essential in producing good ewes

Thin Tires Cause Many Auto Wrecks Says Dealer Here
In summer under a blazing sun on a hot pavement, as they flex, automobile tires may, on a car driven at a speed of 45 miles or more, generate heat from 150 to 200 degrees F., according to M. G. (Buster) Richardson, local good year dealer, who checked the matter with Goodyear development engineers.
"Although car owners for the most part are quite ready to admit that their tires are becoming worn down to the place where there might be some doubt as to when they would go out of service, few owners, unless carefully sold, will think about the condition of their tires with any concern, even though they know that the tire may let go in fast, heavy traffic, and may cause them considerable delay, if not a serious accident both to the driver of the car on which the tire has blown out, as well as to some of the approaching traffic.
"it's the old story that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure and that certainly is the case as far as tires are concerned. Tires are so low priced nowadays that it does not pay to take chances with old, worn casings that may give out when driving demands are greatest and more is expected of motoring equipment.
The matter of highway service for removal of a worn out casing and the replacement after hours is likely to cost more than the possible value remaining in the tire, he declared.
