K OF P BANQUET

Baird Lodge No. 47 Knights of Pythias initiated a splendid class 14 last week, and wound up with a banquet. Judge B. L. Russell acted as toastmaster. The meeting was one of the most enjoyable, and the class was the largest, perhaps ever initiated at one time in this lodge. The piece de resistance of the banquet was a roast pig with all necessary acceteras, and the meeting will long be remembered as one of the most enjoyable meeting the lodge ever had. The K. of P. Lodge is growing rapidly as indicated by such a large class.

Nov. 18th.—The local happenings of this town are of such a commonplace nature that they will scarcely make a readable communication, but here goes for such as they are. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bennett were visitors to Abilene last week. Dr. Q. A. Griffin has returned from an extenned prospecting trip in the west.

COTTONWOOD LOCALS.

On Thursday night of last week about 11 o'clock, fire was discovered in the cottoyard at this place, but a timely discovery and prompt action prevented the flames from spreading and only two bales were slightly damaged.

The marriage of Mr. Garrison and Mrs. McDonald has been reported. We do not know where Mr. Garrison was living, but Mrs. McDonald was living here. We presume they were married at Baird and have gone on to New Mexico where Mr. Garrison has a home. We wish them a long and happy life.

Mr. John Ayers, a son of J. A. Ayers of Cottonwood, who has been living the past year at Burkett has moved to his father's farm on Turkey Creek two miles south of Cottonwood Mr. Ayers has just completed a new residence on his farm and John occupies the same.

Commissioner Aiken is putting in a concrete crossing on the Cottonwood Creek in the eastern portion of the village, which we think will be a decided improvement on the present crossing. This crossing is immediately on Mr. J. M. Houston's road to Cottonwood and you see Mr. Houston is a candidate for Commissioner of this district too and has announced in his platform fifteen cent whiskey and free tobacco, so you see something had to be "did."

Mr. Lee Champion came in Saturday in a brand new Ford car. Mr. Champion is no slouch when it comes to going around in up to date style.

Mr. J. A. Joy has returned from the coast country, this time bringing his family and will now become a citizen of Callahan again, he has a car following in his wake.

Peanut thrashing is being pushed to the limit now, already the nuts have been slightly damaged, that is in appearance, and the hay has been very materially damaged.

We understand that quite a number of the boys from the southern portion of the county have been interviewing the grand jury the past week.

Several people attended Trades Day at Cross Plains Monday and we think possibly a lot of stock changed hands, but all of an inferior grade we presume.

"Uncle Jimmie."

DUDLEY DOTS.

The people of our community are about up with cotton picking and find the yield to be fairly good for the dry year which is passing into history. There are 390 bales accredited to the gin here.

Rev. R. S. Bright of Clyde preached two sermons here yesterday.

Our merchants report increased sales the past month.

Our school has eighteen children enrolled. J. S. Hallmark, one of the trustees, visited the school today and made a talk to the children which was appreciated and was very encouraging to the school.

John Dudley has moved to Abilene to enjoy city life.

Mrs. Lou Hallmark, from near Baird, is visiting at the home of her father-in-law J. S. Hallmark.

Singing was well attended at the Methodist Church here yesterday.

Many tons of cottonseed are being hauled to Abilene from here.

Thurman Roberts is building an addition to his dwelling. Mr. Dix is doing the skillful part of the carpenter work.

T. W. Stansbury has gone to Clyde today to purchase goods.

Thurman Roberts will market cotton in Clyde and then go on to Baird to see to business matters and take a look at the Editor.

Dr. Jordan reports the health of the community fairly good.

Wishing the Editor success and happiness we will ring off and try to appease our appetite with the viands Mrs. Roberts has so kindly arranged in our lunch basket.

Fashion's Newest Ideas in Fall Coat Suits,
Coats and Dresses and Millinery Shown Here

There never was a time when garment styles were more becoming than those shown for Fall and Winter. The new suits and coats are captivating.

The Fashions in Fall Garments are characterized by infinite variety, showing models that are dainty and conservative. We have given much time and thought to the selection of styles that would find favor this season. Materials were never so varied. While soft silks are prominent for all seasons both in plain and brocaded weaves, there are exquisite worsteds for out of door wear, and heavier fabrics for winter. Colorings too, have been modified and the brighter shades that generally herald the coming of spring are now subdued to the rich tints of autumn. The American Beauty has given way to terra cotta, which is now a reigning favorite. The well liked Copenhagen has lost none of its popularity, but has gained much in depth and richness. Castor, taupe, cinnamon and gray are the more neutral tints, while wisteria, plum, green brown and navy seem ever to be gaining in popularity.

Beautiful Millinery.

Our Millinery Department is showing many charming and original models in ladies' and children's hats. These splendid assortments combined with most attractive prices make them deserving of special attention. We have a nice line of the pretty new veiling.

Blanket Buying Time

The cooler weather is suggestive of heavier bed covering, blankets and comforts. It is about time for laying in the winter supply. Our stock is complete and prices and qualities are right. Every desirable grade of blanket or comfort is here in ample quantities, and in a range of prices to suit any purse.

Mr. S. P. Willard and wife of Denison came out from Moran Tuesday in company with Mr. J. I. Holland. Mr. Willard is traveling in his large Overland auto for the benefit of Mrs. Willard's health, they have been out since September and have been as far south as San Antonio and came by Moran to visit Mr. and Mrs. Holland whose wife is a relation of Mrs. Willard. Mr. Willard is a printer and formerly worked at Cisco and other places in west Texas, and now owns an exclusive job office in Denison. Mr. Willard reports a very enjoyable trip though the roads in some places are fierce. From his conversation however we gather that the people of Texas are building good roads in nearly every County. The newspapers of Texas have at last aroused the people to the necessity of having good roads, and seem to have convinced most of the people that bad roads are the most expensive things in Texas. On with the good work.

DISTRICT COURT

Court has been busy this week. The Henry Matthews murder case went to trial Monday and at latest report the jury was still out.

One of the rape cases from Eastland county was next put on trial and the jury is out on that. A second of the Eastland cases was taken up yesterday and resulted in acquittal last night.

The numerous special venires in these capital cases brought a large number of jurors and witnesses in town this week.

The Grand Jury finished its labors last week and adjourned.

W. C. Franklin, city secretary, who made a trip to Terre Haute, Ind., on some matters for the city, and then went on to Chicago and New York and returned via Washington City, returned home Wednesday night. Will says he had a nice trip.

AT CHAPEL.

Wilson P. Fraser was the selection of the Fine Arts faculty to appear before the student body at chapel on their regular morning. Mr. Fraser proved to be an excellent and successful representative. His first two selections were slow, soulful and filled with harmony, while his third was light, airy and tripped gently from the fingers of the player. Wilson is a Polytechnic product and his appearance in any capacity is sure to bring a round of hearty applause, for his great circle of friends and admirers realize his ability.—The Independent, published by the Students of Polytechnic College, Ft. Worth, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gray and daughter, of Evansville, Ill., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Powell for the past ten days left Tuesday for Teralta, California. They were accompanied by Miss Ada Powell.

Lee Champion and family passed through Baird a few days ago on their way home in their auto from Hylton, Nolan County, where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. Champion's father, Mr. Moore whom we regret to learn has bright's disease.

We call especial attention to the large display ad of Ed S. Hughes & Co., of Abilene, of the Studebaker Auto, B. L. Boydston local agent, Baird. See page 7, next to last page

"LUM" EDWARDS DEAD.

C. C. (Lum) Edwards one of the pioneers of this county, died at his home in Abilene Tuesday, Nov. 18, 1913. He had been in ill health for some time, but his death was a shock to his family and friends.

"Lum" Edwards lived on Clear Creek in this county for a number of years. He moved to Abilene about 26 years ago, where his family has since resided, though he owned a ranch for many years near Tecumseh. He would have been 74 years old December 15th, had he lived until then. He is survived by his wife, who is a first cousin of J. Y. and W. E. Gilliland, Mrs. Mary Brightwell and Mrs. J. I. McWhorter of this county, two sons and two daughters, Roy Edwards, of Oplin; Haynie Edwards, Miss Ruby Edwards, and Mrs. Baylor Crawford, of Abilene. We tender sincere sympathy to the bereaved wife and children in their sorrow. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Woodward, of St. Paul's Methodist Church at the home Wednesday evening at 4:30. The body was interred in the Masonic cemetery. J. I. McWhorter, Mrs. Martha Gilliland, Miss Eliza Gilliland, Mr. and Mrs. M. Franklin and Mrs. Homer Driskill, of Baird, attended the funeral.

Later we will publish a suitable obituary as the deceased had many friends and relatives in this county.

DIED AT ALBANY.

Mrs. Simpson, mother of Mr. Riney C. Simpson, died at her home near Albany, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Simpson was 83 years of age and has been sick for some time and while her family and friends knew she could not live long still her death is a severe blow to them, especially to her son, Riney Simpson, who is doubly bereaved, his wife having died on the 8th of this month. We extend sincere sympathy to him and other members of the family who mourn the death of their mother.

ENTERTAINED.

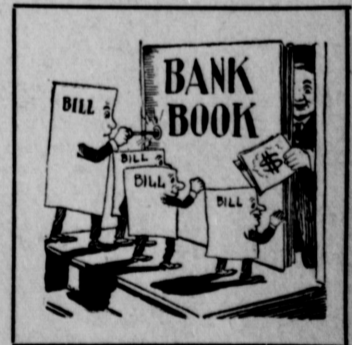

Miss Maude Wilson was the hostess to the Question Club last Friday afternoon. Bridge was played at three tables. Refreshments of chicken salad, crackers, pickles, olives, sandwiches and coffee were served to Misses Nan Bell, Bernice Foy, Maria and Aurelia Bowyer, Inez Franklin, Mattie Scott, Mesdames Shockley of Dallas, W. R. Ely, L. M. Hadley, H. D. Driskill, W. S. Hinds, J. R. Jackson.

Miss Lora Franklin entertained the Embroidery Club Thursday afternoon. Refreshments of pimento salad, crackers, olives, pickles and sandwiches were served to Misses Jean Powell, Anna Mae Wristen, Mary and Evalyn Bowyer, and Afton Wheeler.

Capt. J. W. Jones, Haynie Gilliland and Roy Hayes were in from the Jones Ranch on Clear Creek, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baum, from Burnt Branch, are in town today.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowery Blakley, from Crooked Creek, are in town.

BURNT BRANCH LOCALS

Nov. 3rd.—“A long time ago” when the grand and lamented Jim Hogg was Attorney General he was arguing a Texas case before the Supreme Court of the United States, the most august as well as the highest tribunal in the land. He was at his best and at high pitch. He was warned to modulate his tone somewhat which he did for a time, but warming up and deep in the merits of the case he was again overflowing with eloquence and not in a very mild tone of voice. “A little lower General,” suggested the presiding justice. Please let me argue this case in my own way if it meets the approval of your honors. All eyes were turned to the big attorney who stood perspiring and thoroughly imbued with the merits of his cause. The presiding judge looked him over sized him up and said, “Go ahead General in your own way just as if you were delivering a political speech from a Texas stump.” Which he did and by his high but rugged eloquence, his seeming justice of his cause, he gained their respect ingratiated himself in their feelings and won his case by a big majority. Great is Texas, and great also is her representatives of the Jim Hogg type, many of whom we are sorry to say have passed to the great beyond. Peace to their noble ashes.

No Review for the past two weeks suppose our esteemed young friend has cut us off of his exchange list. Come on “Juan” loves you and your style if you are a pro. We may support you as the pro candidate for governor or something else.

J. B. Cutbirth is in the midst of that grand roundup, delivering and doing around right sharp. J. B. and Fritz are a whole team, and Uncle Charley McDermott and the boys ditto.

Herman Aiken will leave in a few days for the west to hunt him a ranch job if they are not all taken. He says he is tired trying to farm with every thing going out and nothing coming in.

Squire Duncan is giving one dollar per hundred for picking cotton, and as he says “eats you at dinner” can the east beat that for pay. Hugh McDermott ditto but we dont know if he does the eating act, but suppose so.

R. P. Odom has sold his mule colts to J. B. Cutbirth.

A fellow camped near us Saturday night headed for the Plains, and Sunday morning the wind blew like a hurricane from the north and he said, “If I knew the blamed thing raised as much Cain out there as here I’ll be blamed if I didn’t turn back.” He was from away down east, you know.

This scribe of yours is suffering somewhat with that pet leg of his this cold weather. Uncle Bill you had better come down and cut the blamed thing off and be done with it. Think you and the Review man could do a good job of it.

Lee Payne is turning the stubble preparatory to the spring crops, ditto Squire Drewery and others. The early bird always catches the worm you know. If they don’t this broken land will catch the water if it rains.

To that solicitous friend of mine: If you don’t like the way I dish it out, please send in the bill or draw on me or Uncle Bill just as you like and should you conclude to throw yourself in the way of political lightning and run for office, we will announce the same and draw on you.

Uncle Mike Waller is selling is the tomatoes that make the chow chow with the assistance of a few heads of cabbage, with a little vinegar, you know.

What mesquite beans we have are falling fast on account of frost and winds and suppose the pecan crop on the Bayou too, by the way I must go and gather me some if I don’t fall on my head in the effort. As the Irishman said who took five whiskeys before breakfast, I fell upon me head and broke me dastic neck, but I am still here by the holy St. Patrick.

Our young friend Ed Odom and good wife live at the “top of the pot,” plenty of fried eggs, chicken, nice Jersey butter and sell sufficient to run the outfit. Take heed and do likewise. Callahan County needs more Odom’s, but others in this neck of the woods do equally as well.

Cotton picking in these parts is about wound up, sold and money spent. Now for another crop, the greatest of them all. I forgot to mention the goober yet to harvest.

Enduring the war the Georgia troops eat their native production, the goober peas and when halted if even in line of battle, they would draw forth a quantity of the aforesaid and the same and such eating you never saw, hence the lines:

“I cast my eyes about me

And what you record I see

ANNIE THERESE DAVAUT

Annie Therese Davaut, who needs no introduction to Lyceum and Chautauqua audiences, will present for her seventh season recitals of several of the most important dramatic successes of the day.

Probably no reader has aroused more genuine enthusiasm or given such deep enjoyment as this young woman with her appealing charm and rare versatility. With keen insight and sympathetic appreciation of the foibles, humors, joys and tragedies of every day life, she has made human nature her study as well as books and plays, and thus truly reflects the inner life of the characters she depicts.

Gifted with a voice of wonderful range and mellow, rich quality, and with a dramatic instinct which makes her characters live before her audiences, Miss Davaut gives an evening’s entertainment which critics have been unanimous in pronouncing unique among Lyceum events.

No greater proof of Miss Davaut’s success can be found than the eager demand for return engagements wherever she appears. She has the distinction of having appeared before the Central Young Men’s Christian Association of St. Louis fifteen times in the last five years, and is a prominent feature of their 1912-1913 course.

At the Baird High School Auditorium, Tuesday, Nov. 25. Doors open at 8:15.

USE OF CALOMEL PRACTICALLY STOPPED.

For Bilious Attacks, Constipation and All Liver Troubles. Dangerous Calomel Gives Way to Dodson’s Liver Tone.

Every druggist in the state has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson’s Liver tone is taking its place.

“Calomel is often dangerous and people know it, while Dodson’s Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results,” says Holmes Drug Co.

Dodson’s Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by Holmes Drug Co., who sell it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of sluggishness, you have only to ask for your money back. It will be promptly returned.

Dodson’s Liver Tone is a pleasant tasting, purely vegetable remedy—harmless to both children and adult. A bottle in the house may save you a day’s work or keep your children from missing school. Keep your liver working and your liver will not keep you from working.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interest of friends from this place, Mr. A. J. F. writes as follows: “I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford’s Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now quit taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven’t had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me.”

Thedford’s Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

Get a package today. Only a quarter.
